Dear Mozzu

We're all putting this together to remind you that your Mites haven't gone anywhere. spending each day chearishing our thoughts and memories of you. praying day and night for your good health.

What you've been forced to burden is a suffering no person deserves. especially not someone as bright. loving. and caring as you. Your continued perserverence in the face of it is all the more praise to who you are Mozzu. and every last one of us prays for the day you'll be plauged no longer.

We miss you dearly Mozzu. the comfort and joy you bring to our lives is irreplaceable. and our worlds are dimmer without it. But. we'll wait for as long as your body needs: we'll never leave your side. so long as you'll have us.

Rest well. eat and drink lots. and get well soon Mozzu
