My abusive relationship with Wuggy, his exploitative behavior, and dangerous involvement with children.

I have never written something like this before so please be considerate, and I apologize for any confusion or discombobulation there may be as I have found out (and realized) some very devastating information that needs to be addressed and I want to get out as much information that I can remember. I apologize if anything in this may be incorrect, as I am recovering from 5 months of trauma from severe online harassment from our public breakup and a callout that got purposefully dropped while I was “distracted” about our relationship. I still have memory gaps and trouble remembering, so I am sorry that if I bring something up suddenly. It is not out of malicion; I am still currently reflecting on our relationship and everything that happened in February to now. I am willing to still try to explain anything in this document to the best of my ability and am willing to answer any questions or need of clarification; and I am willing to update it with any corrections, removals or important updates.

A disclaimer that for the majority of our relationship I’ve developed limerance, which is the mental state of being madly in love or intensely infatuated when reciprocation of the feeling is uncertain. (Now looking back I may have been just severely emotionally neglected and abused that it caused me to act out) This has caused me to excuse any bad actions Wuggy has done, including ignoring my friend’s signs of them being very off put by him because I wanted to give him the benefit of the doubt. I didn’t want to believe that he was as bad as he & others said he was and desperately believed he can be better. This has also caused me to be very jealous of Wuggy’s sudden situationship with Sparrow in the middle of our relationship. Wuggy was very aware that I was in love with him and would mention this often.

Now that he’s gone, I am not in that vulnerable state anymore and have realized (and regret) all the things I’ve ignored, tolerated, and even helped out with. I am sorry for everything that I have done; I deeply regret it.

Some things may be difficult to prove as it is either locked away on his private account or lost to voice calls that, naturally, cannot be retrieved. Feel free to take those with a grain of salt.

And to Jack or anyone else close to him reading this: Your time is up. You have mistreated me and others for far too long. I'm starting to have my doubts that you can actually change as a person, especially with all the recent things I've seen and heard about me. You have never changed at all. You are still the same abusive little man you were two or whatever years ago. The only thing that changed about you is that you don't have a school shooter personality anymore. I would say that all i want is for you to realize the damage you've done to not just me, but others as well. Your actions made me panic. Your actions made me puke bile out of deep anxiety. You are all bark and no bite and yet you have fucked me up so much that my body couldn't understand that you are 10k miles away from me. Your words are just enough to mentally damage a person and you are actually apathetic about it. You are a dangerous man. You can still try to prove me and everyone else wrong if you actually started to change right now. I really do think that leaving the internet for a good year or so will do some good for you.

My Abuse

I've admitted my crush to Wuggy on January 19th, 2024. Going through our discord dms on his suspended account, there wasn't any proper directness in our relationship. He did say to start off as "i think we should be friends who draw our sonas holding hands and flirt for funs sometimes how bout dat" but it did later snowball into us calling each other "catfriend" and "toonfriend" then changing it to "partner", calling each other honey and sweetheart, sexual relationships, "wuffin dates", etc. I can see my confusion on us agreeing when there isn't really any directness on agreement of starting a relationship. That's a failure on me and him. Evidence of the poor communication we could have later on in our relationship.

It would be a fine relationship for a while. Talking everyday. VCing. Etc. He would draw us, as mentioned in our chats that that was his love language. Everything was fine and progressed until the summer of 2024 when Sparrow stepped in. Wuggy's attentions had shifted, and those two would begin to flirt in group vcs of Wuggy's personal server. These flirtings became consistent, and later more explicit, this was often done right in front of me. I do remember Wuggy trying to flirt with me at least once, but he has never tried it again. Possibly because I wouldn't really process that he was flirting with me until a few minutes later. Wuggy would call himself a "true poly man" on a vc one time, and that I was okay with him being poly, just as long as I wasn't abandoned/replaced/neglected.

This Summer was when they started to develop some sort of situationship. Flirts were more a constant thing in the group vc, I tolerated this and even tried to help humor it despite my feelings of something being wrong. I noticed Wuggy was giving more attention to Sparrow. These flirts would end up more sexual, and Sparrow would push his buttons in a flirting manner. Once again, right in front of me. All flirting was done while I was sitting right there. Wuggy didn't ever do something similar with me. But he would say that he liked my voice because of how I said words like adding the "Duh" phonic to words like "liddle" and that I was a cute little plushie in his head. He would start drawing me as a little child in a onesie.

My memory is a blur, but I do recall moments where I am noticing his developing attraction to Sparrow. I remember I once compared myself to Sparrow about the things I knew Wuggy liked about him, like how he was pretty or had big thighs and felt bad. I didn't have any of those things as those were the parts of Sparrow that Wuggy admired most. When I told Wuggy this, he told me not to do that, and something along the lines that he liked us both. (Take this with a grain of salt as once again, I do not really remember anymore).

There was one night where we were all having an online drinking party. Since I didn't drink alcohol yet, I took edibles. Sparrow got drunk off of wine he stole from his parents, and Wuggy got drunk as well. In the VC, Sparrow would be more and more flirtatious towards Wuggy. Borderline horny even. I tried to stay awake during the vc party, but passed out from the edibles. The next day, something happened. Wuggy said that he has something to tell me.

He and Sparrow sexted while I was passed out on vc.

Sparrow got so drunk he went on and on about how sexy he was to Wuggy and kept sending him risque snaps. Wuggy was aware that I was passed out while this happened and even said that he knew that he should've been doing this with me instead of Sparrow. This was just pushed under the rug as Wuggy said that that kind of stuff happening was "normal". I honestly was heartbroken finding that out, but never told him. He even bothered to draw about it.

This was drawn as a response to what happened that night.

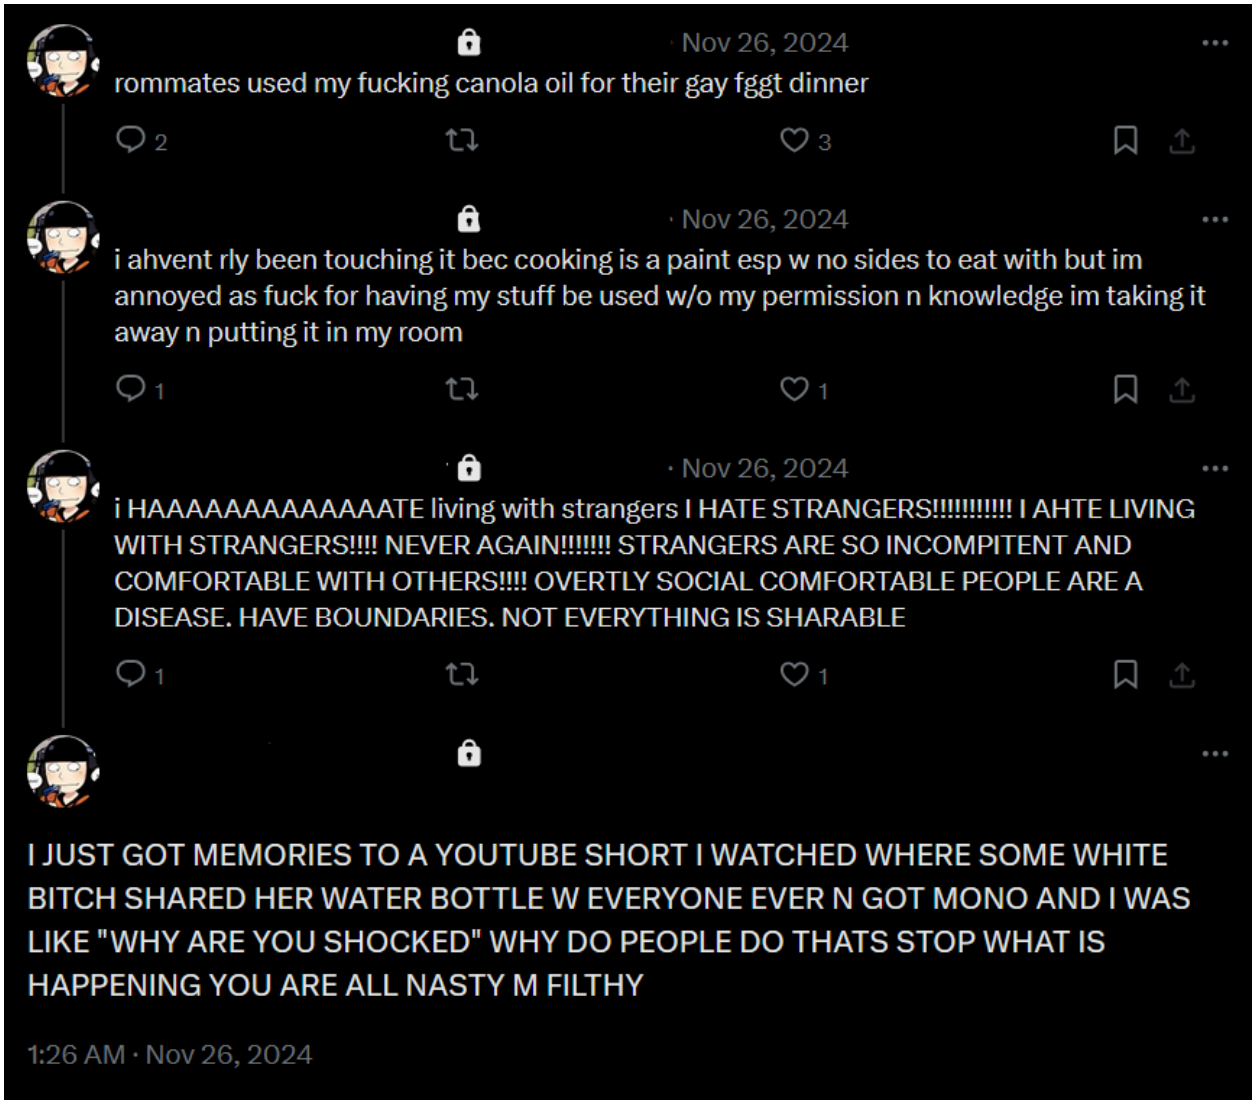

This situationship would go on and I would start to feel pretty neglected. But I would just keep thinking I'm being a jerk or crazy so I just kept letting this happen. The flirting kept going, and Wuggy started to put more effort into Sparrow. When Wuggy picked up playing guitar, he said he wrote a song for him. I believe he sung the song on VC. He said he had a song for me too, but I have never heard him sing it. This would snowball into him drawing Sparrow's irl face, love letters, drawing Sparrow a bunch to the point where it became suggestive and pornographic etc. When I said that I wanted something similar, Wuggy would shoot me down and say that I was in love with him, and didn't feel the same way. When I tried to be emotionally intimate with him, he would suddenly say we are "queer platonic." He had once said he didn't like "boyfriend stuff" and kept talking about being aro to me, but we also developed a sexual relationship near the middle-end of the summer, and he would later be calling me sweetheart and honey once I went back to school and started streaming. He even said that I was the closest to his heart and wanted to be with me for a long time. He constantly shared the same energy with me, only to decide when he didn't want to deal with it by weaponizing the concept of us being "queer platonic".

He would doompost about Sparrow on his private, vague posting about him even though he was following his account. He has blocked and unblocked Sparrow multiple times as he began to actually want him romantically, but Sparrow wouldn't/couldn't reciprocate. This is because Sparrow already has a boyfriend, and once said he was "too unstable" for relationships. But this situationship still kept going anyway, despite this information. It was a flip-flop mess of both seemingly wanting each other, Wuggy really wanting to romantically date Sparrow, and the seemingly just Sparrow not really doing anything to show reciprocation, while constantly flirting with him and using excuses to send him borderline nudes. Wuggy was consistently being damaged by it, saying that he felt like Sparrow only uses him for when he's bored; while Sparrow feels like Wuggy only comes to us when he's bored. This was happening while me and Wuggy were still together.

I didn't like Sparrow that summer because of this situationship. I got so jealous that I went to my deeppriv that Wuggy was in to vent, saying that I genuinely wished that Sparrow was gone forever. Wuggy confronted me about this, angry that I said that. I did try to lie, but I came clean and apologized for lying. Wuggy knew I disliked Sparrow, even saying that he was unsure if I considered him my friend. I sat in my own jealousy for a while as I watched these two basically fuck each other up, want to fuck each other, and yearn for an actual romantic relationship with not healthy conclusion while I wondered if i was just being an asshole. I did warm up to Sparrow later, but their relationship still left me feeling pushed aside.

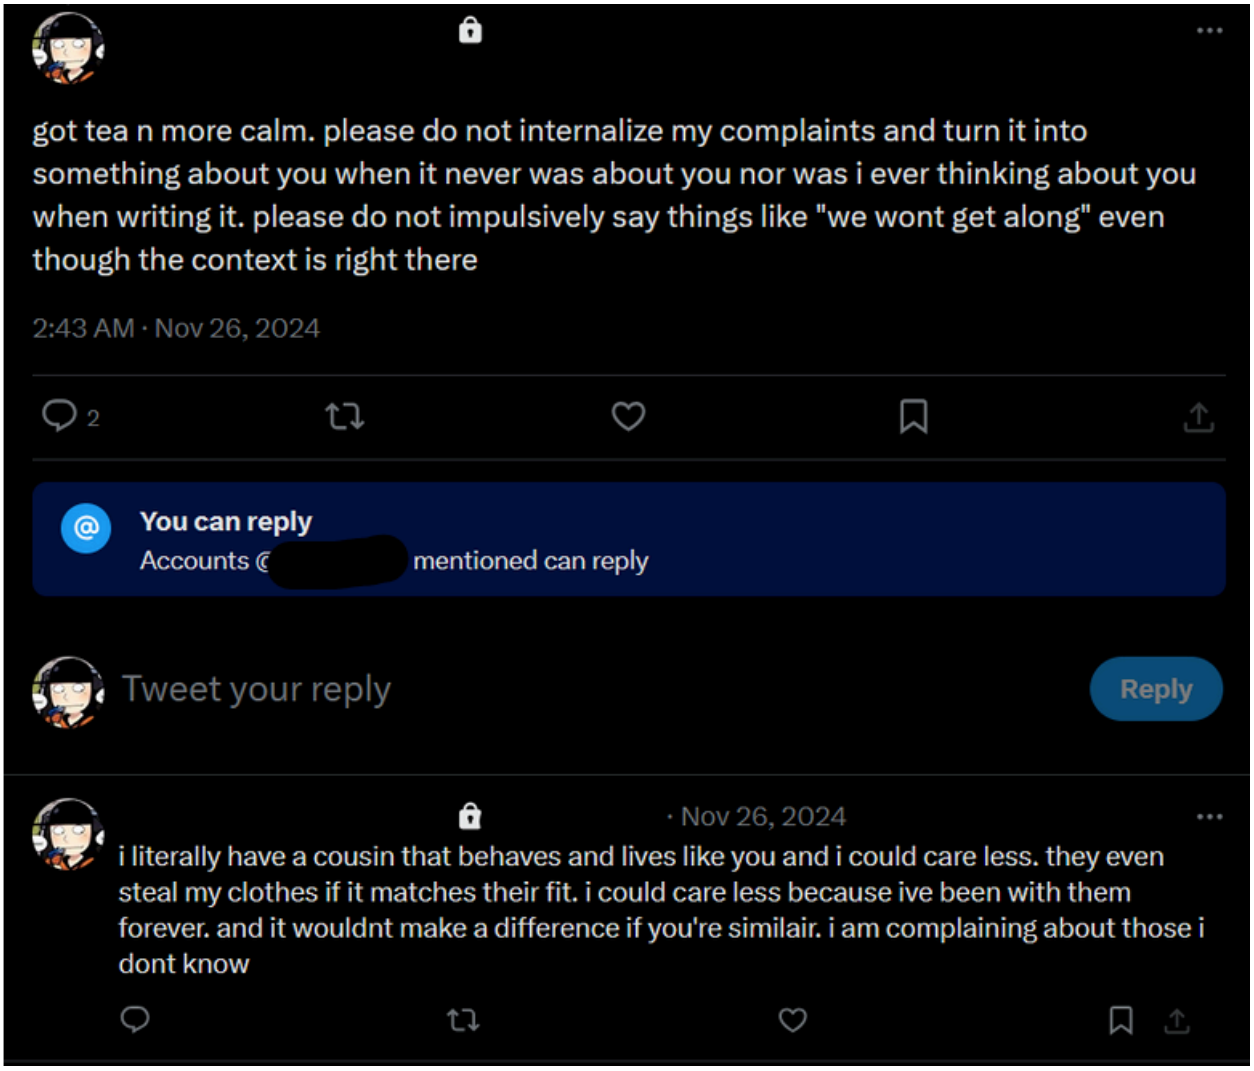

Fast forward to around fall. I think this was when things started to get bad. We would clash often on our private accounts that Wuggy's followers on his priv would see and ask what's going on. In November, I was complaining about my ex-flatmates using my stuff to cook because they've been going into my labeled drawers, using my cooking utensils, and putting them back in my drawers and cupboards unwashed when I leave for the holidays.

Wuggy would then respond with a mean-ish thing about how he would drink from my cups, use my stuff, etc. and not care and said that we wouldn't get along if we lived with each other. I told him that this wouldn't be a problem to me because I knew him. I'll admit I was defensive because his response was out of nowhere and confusing when I wasn't even talking about him and that it hurt for your partner to suddenly say we wouldn't get along over a complaint about someone else. I even went to Sparrow about this, because I thought he knew Wuggy just as well and was at least critical about him, to ask if Wuggy was acting weird and he said yes.

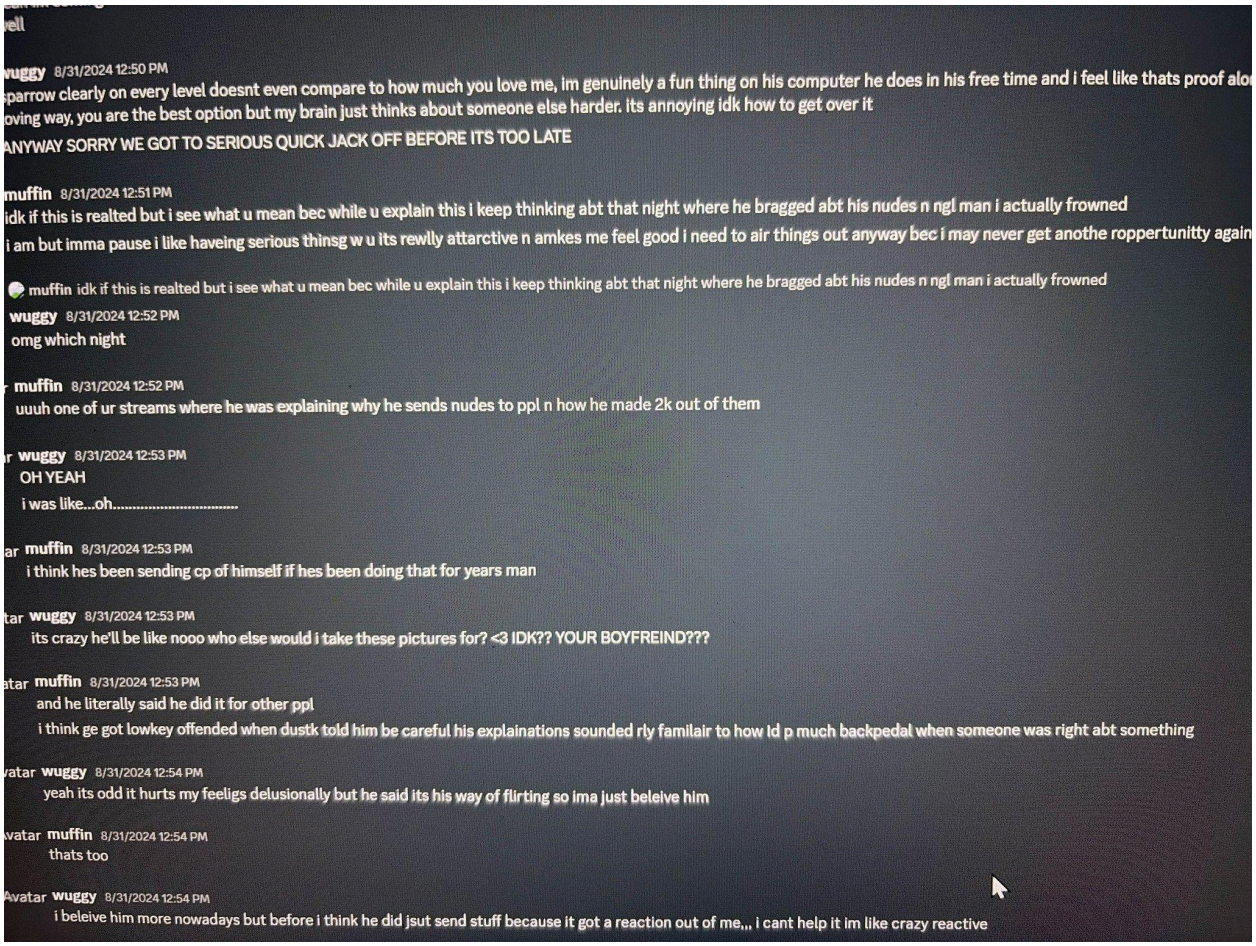

This made me so uncomfortable and confused on why he was acting like that that I had to close comments.

I do not remember. But Wuggy may have gotten upset at my response, telling me to to not tell him what to do and gotten upset with me misusing the word "impulsively" like that. When I closed comments, he ran to our discord dms immediately to continue to pick a fight with me. I do remember that he did calm down, and he told me that I did the right thing, and that he had a problem where he liked to argue for the sake of it. When I told him I said Sparrow thought he was acting weird too, he told me to “not gossip about him to Sparrow”, chuckled nervously, before mumbling something along the lines of how that’ll be hard to fix, implying that I ruined Sparrow's positive perception of Wuggy.

I remember one time when we were streaming (either i was streaming or it was wuggy), Sparrow was really flaunting in the chat about his nudes and how he gets attention from it. He got told by one of the other viewers to be careful about that, and Sparrow got very very defensive. Around that same night, at some point, Sparrow admitted (I believe in the chat) that he made $2k off of his nudes. He said that he has been taking nudes and sending them to other people for years. When he said that, I frowned really hard at the realization that Sparrow may have been selling csem of himself because he was 19 around the time he said this. He may have mentioned he has been doing this since maybe around 2017. I went to go talk to Wuggy about this.

Looks like this because my boyfriend didn't know he could've just taken a screenshot on his device. This is in the chats.

Around this time, we may have been talking about this again in Wuggy's server with Sparrow. Sparrow did at one point send us a picture of one of his more tame pictures of himself from when he was 16. It was still suggestive and that made me uncomfortable. Nobody really said anything about it. While the timeline for this claim is fucked because i can't remember besides it happenin after summer break, when I returned to school and picked up streaming temporarily; it's more important that this actually happened.

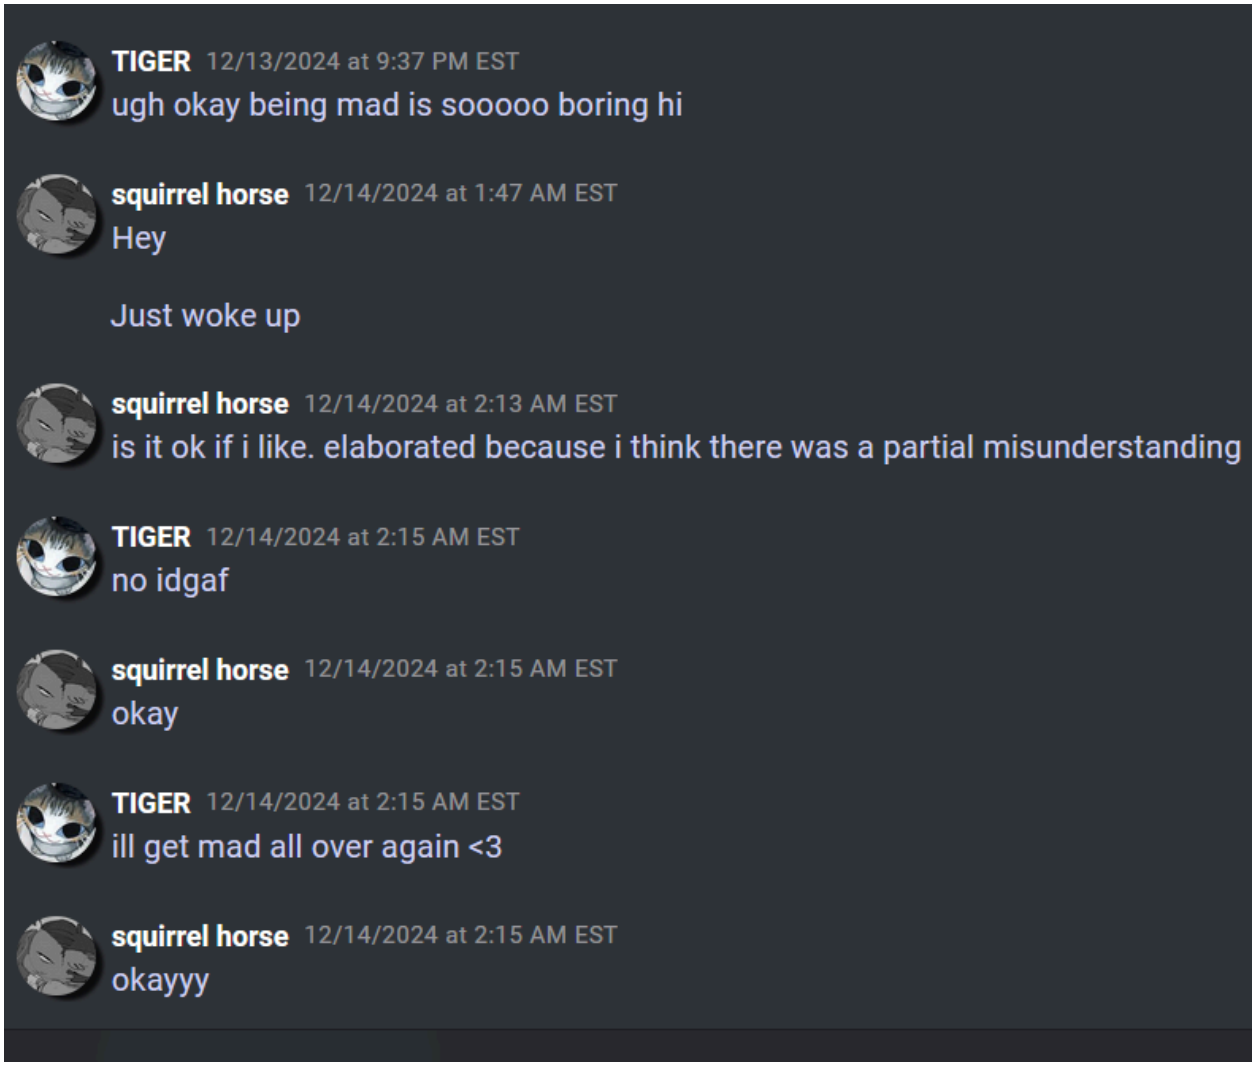

The night we watched I Saw The TV Glow in Wuggy's personal server. (December 9th, 2024) Rosemary (Wuggy's later girlfriend) started to show up. He's known her for a while. This is my second time watching the movie, and throughout the entire time I began to feel more and more disconnected from peers as they bonded and cried over its messaging. This disconnect was so uncomfortable that it made me upset, and I didn't understand why people were crying and couldn't relate to them. I did not like feeling so alienated by my peers because I was too nonbinary and used to waiting until it was my turn to truly transition. I have a plan for who I wanted to be, and what I wanted to do…so why was everyone upset? I went to my priv to vent about this, admitted that this was a mean thought but still vented my frustration because it's my account. I do not remember much of what I said and I would include a screenshot of it if I didn't delete it after Wuggy violently scolded me for my post. I said being trans was easy, but I didn't actually truly mean it was easy. Of course, it's not. In my mind, I meant it as having a plan to be who you want, fuck everyone else, unlearn shame and stop caring about others and get armed. Because the government really doesn't like if us trans people have guns. If you have guns or any weapon you can do anything. I did not understand because I did not think there were any limits besides yourself and other people. Now looking back, I can see why what I've said came off as horribly wrong. But my vent hurt Wuggy's feelings so severely that he scolded me. It felt like he was pushing his struggles as more valid onto me as I tried to explain to him mine. He then downplays my struggles as a trans person as I've "only experienced familial" and not other things yet like social, romantic, etc. He knows I was unsocialized, and that I've been kept inside my house for a good majority of my life. That is when he said he would've smacked the shit out of me for this if I were right in front of him. I was even more heartbroken that my own partner would even consider physically assaulting me for any reason. This was around the time (including the summer) we were thinking about having him visit me for a whole month.

you JUST had familial issues. everyone else had social, romantic AND familial. you suffered a fraction. rolling your eyes over others suffering cause it was so "easy" for you is cruel, inhuman and arrogant and i would smack the shit out of you if you were in front of me now

I went to go and try to call him (because I've come to learn that Wuggy does best when hearing tone), he refuses to verbally talk to me and instead berates me as I tired to explain to him what I meant. He said that he did not care, and drilled into me. He described that he felt betrayed, and that I needed to be educated and that he hated me at that moment. He kept saying that I rolled my eyes at suffering when I never did. He said "im not mad at you for talking about it im mad that you thought it in the first place", punishing me for my thoughts. He said I was spoiled, and then began to talk about his ex, Abner, and said that's why he broke up with him because he pretended to relate to his struggles. He berated me, saying I didn't understand because I did not suffer. He used big words like contempt and his scolding was filled with vitriol. He demonized me. Within his last few responses, he hung up on me and he did not talk to me for exactly 4 days. This made me spiral, and I wrote a huge apology and feel just as horrible as he painted me out to be, and then he just says this.

We would have more conflicts. And every time I said something wrong, he would guilttrip me about our relationship, like saying I was putting a wedge between us when I tried to talk to him about why he was trying to gatekeep a show from me (it was house MD) while I see him and Sparrow bond over it or implying I was ruining our connection by saying he was really feeling connected to me'. There was one time he has gotten upset at me over saying that people acting like "just talking" to abusers would fix them easy is an ignorant thing to think of because some people may just be that way because they value being abusive over being a good person. And in that brief moment, he identified himself as an abuser and that left me really confused on why he would do that if he currently trying to be a better person.

I would show the full convo for all of our fights, but I did not ever think to screenshot these. Everytime something like this happened, I would often be the one apologizing profusely and the one to apologize first. Every time we fought I was painted out to be really horrible, and that made me feel worse. When he said I was unempathetic, I went out to go try and fix that. I then discovered I have issues articulating my thoughts.

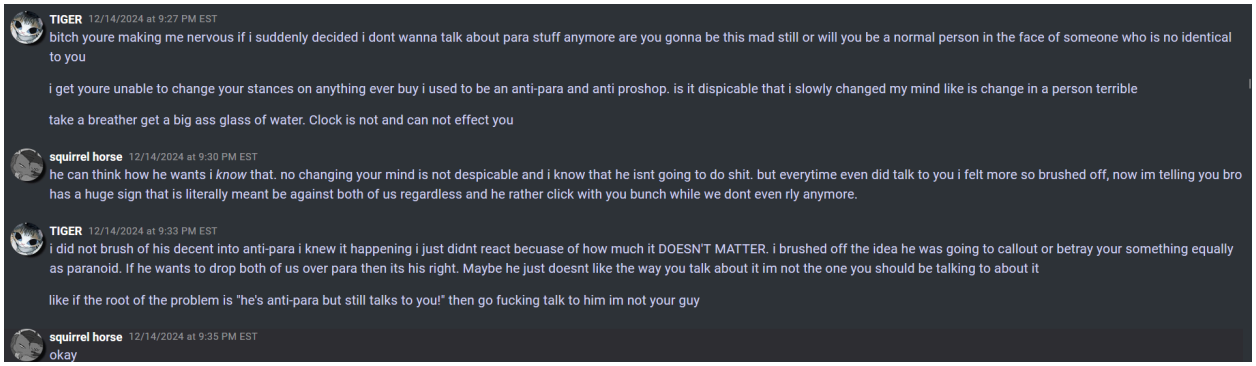

When we fought, he started getting personal. Wuggy would imply I'm too online, while he proudly parades himself as chronically online as well, and when he does it felt like it's implied he has some form of contempt for me or looked down on me about it even though I literally go to college and he literally sat in his cluttered house all day. There was one point where Wuggy was trying to hurt me personally during an argument by telling me to "envision" something (weaponizing my poor ability to articulate my thoughts into words. I have a thought disorder).

When I noticed that Doctor (57tears) was weirdly going from pro-para to anti-para really quickly. And this made me very nervous because I noticed Doctor became uncomfortable with me and distanced themselves, but willingly talked with Wuggy despite it being known in close circles that he is a MAP and a zoo, and putting paraphiles in their dni. When we are in a group vc in Wuggy's server, Doctor would sometimes join in. They only ask me questions about paraphilia and after I answered they would just have a huge conversation with Wuggy until they get bored and leave. I tried to join in once but the two would be so engulfed in their convo that I couldn't get a word. So everytime Doctor came in i would just sit in silence after I got asked Doctor's paraphile questions. Doctor has once admitted to me that they were neutral contact for animals, while still going down the pipeline of being anti-para, later promoting conversion therapy because they got their actual paraphilic disorder "cured" from the necessary therapy that applied to them, pretending they never drew problematic porn before and started hanging around kids fandoms like the BFDI and object shows while being over 25 years of age. They even had a server once because they planned to make an object show of their own and the server had an nsfw section. I assumed there were children in there because of what the fandom was, and I saw that Doctor knew they were dealing with 'antis' so they told Wuggy (who was in that server) to not post lolisho or anything problematic. I suspected that thats why Doctor was quickly dropping everything that they were popular for (a problematic feral rape porn artist) and trying to get into this stuff so they wouldn't be in trouble by pretending they never were involved in such things. Doctor is now back to drawing porn of kid's fandoms like Dandy's World and BDFII on a new account on twitter.

When I tried to talk to Wuggy about my concerns about Doctor. I was always brushed off, and got accused of being upset that Doctor didn't have the same ideals as me anymore and implied that I'm doing this to prevent him from hanging out with them when I wasn't. Wuggy would go on to be Doctor's friend.

I would later find out that Doctor is the abuser of Loki (sp00nful0fcum), as allegedly they forced him to do something he didn't want to do. They both refuse to talk about it.

Wuggy has once scolded me for calling him his "wife" when I was venting to a friend about how much I missed him when he was ghosting me for 4 days during the trans movie incident and that I called him my boyfriend when trying to tell him to my aunt, coming up to my dms starting with "So a little birdy told me…".

I was trying to do the "I miss my wife, tails" meme when venting and I thought it was okay because he called me childwife (he assumed it was fine to call me this) and Sparrow boywife (said it's because he was a femboy). I explained that I wasn't sure how to explain our relationship to my aunt because I cannot expect her or anyone else in my family to understand complex queer relationships. He accused me of assuming I viewed him as a woman all this time, accused me of not having respect for him for saying that to even downright sending me a screenshot of the google definition of the word.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 4:57 PM EST

okay so. gets serious.

i heard from a little birdy that youve been calling me your? Wife? AND ALSO that youve been calling me your. boyfriend to your family state your case

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:00 PM EST
Yeah i thought i told you that i told you about my other aunt and none of them understand queer relationships so i groan roll my eyes say "yes i have a boyfriend" even though thats not true

The only person that actually understands is my cousin

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:01 PM EST
what happened to "friend"

5:01 PM or idk. best friend even

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:01 PM EST
What

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:01 PM EST
like what was stopping you from callinv me your friend instead of boyfriend also truly idec about that i can understand it was probably a in-the-moment thing which is whatever what i ACTUALLY care about is you calling me your wife

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:03 PM EST
Do you think im genuinely serious

Especially when you did something similair in the summer

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:05 PM EST
it doesnt matter if you were serious i dont want to be called that even if youre talking to someone else. The huge difference here is that im confronting you about it and if i did use an incorrect title in the past, you did not confront me so i had no clue

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:06 PM EST
The thing is i wasnt an incorrect title to me in the past because even i know you werent fr. And even then I didn't care. You called me and sparrow both variations of wife at the time and then you stopped.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:07 PM EST
you can understand how taken aback i was when i was very VERY addamnt that i dont like being called things like "husband" or "soulmate" or "boyfriend" so it was kinda jarring that you called ur trans aro platonic whateverthefuck a WIFE of all things

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:07 PM EST
So of course im not gonna confront you on something that wasn't even confrontable because it had no affect on me.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:07 PM EST
then why we bringing it up ?

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:08 PM EST
Because thats why I called you wife?

And i am explaining why I never confronted you about it, assuming I was ever upset when I wasnt

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:08 PM EST
WHY would you think i would want that. If i said i didnt wanna be called a husband why is wife your next call like

I called you wife because i knew you were gender weird i called sparrow wife because i knew he was a femboy and wouldnt mind. I had my reasons to think i was in the clear so what were your reasons to think calling me taht would be chill it actually hurt me so bad can i be crazy honest. i had like a week long "oh god im just a woman to him after all " moment

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:11 PM EST
What

Dude imma be so fucking for real I feel like you assume a lot of stuff about me you don't even properly ask questions about to get clarification.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:12 PM EST
to find out you called me a wife. yes it made me dysphoric its crazy i know 😁

I AM ASKING RIGHT NOW???

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:12 PM EST
No. Not just right now. Like with a lot of other things.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:12 PM EST
i just said "why did you call me that" IN 3 DIFFERENT MESSAGES.

who gives a FUCK about the other things. Don't call me a wife or a husband or a boyfriend or nuthin like that that is what i want. these are the boundaries. Whatever your reason was for calling me that does not matter dont do it again

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:15 PM EST
And I didn't know that you called me and sparrow that for those reasons and that's all fine. I just remembered that and did it back in idk how to explain it rememberance of that and snapcube "i miss why wife tails" meme & because of closeness. I am sorry that i made you dysphoric.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:16 PM EST
what was the jump between "he doesnt like being called a husband" and "im gonna call him a wife now" im curious

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:16 PM EST
I literally just explained why.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:17 PM EST
i know but im just kinda curious on why the boundary i set about names didnt cross your mind before you called me a. name that crosses the boundry in question like is just not part of the equation or what

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:19 PM EST
I dont know i dont have an actual answer for that.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:22 PM EST
wild

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:24 PM EST
Ok

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:36 PM EST
okay so thinking boundaries arent worth thinking about is called lacking respect btw maybe even lacking deceny

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:36 PM EST
okay so thinking boundaries arent worth thinking about is called lacking respect btw maybe even lacking deceny

sorey my WIFI

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:36 PM EST
No?

5:39 PM It's not like that. I wasn't lacking your respect nor was I intending to. I was just upset and missed you and it didn't cross my mind because of it.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:39 PM EST

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:41 PM EST
the fact it didnt cross your mind is disregard of boundaries/wishes thus a lack of respect. the boundaries are set so you do not hurt me, if you respected them i wouldnt have been hurt

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:42 PM EST
Ok

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:43 PM EST
im not like. begging you not call me those things for NO reason, im not being sensitive, its not a "preference"....do you understand bro being short with me when im trying to confront you about something is like really driving home that you think im not worth the time and energy i didng know it was like that 🔥 my bad we over gang.

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:46 PM EST
I am short right now because for last few times I FEEL like I have not been properly understood and heard. Have I made some mistakes? Yes, but it came with a massive response of insults and aggression that made it hard to process and wonder if I did something super horrific to warrent a response.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:47 PM EST
"Was i violently transphobic and unempathic? Yes. Im just upset that it was met with anger"

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:48 PM EST
Yes you are Not Begging Me to not say that. But How IM THINKING with my responses you your questions do NOT sound like they are enough nor reasonable, even a simple "im not sure I dont have an answer" for something I seriously don't know about myself because it was done in the moment.

I am NOT violently transphobic and unempathetic. That is what YOU THINK OF ME and you never bothered to let me explain myself nor even ask.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:49 PM EST
I understood that it was in the moment and didn't know why, thats why i was helping you understand that waht you experienced and dont have a name for is "a lack of respect"

I dont think youre transphobic and unempathic thats why i used the word "was" lol you can either admit that you lack respect for me and understand WHY it would hurt me to find that out OR. you can say "ok" and blame it on being misunderstood

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:51 PM EST
You do NOT know what I go through about empathy. Something that is just as important and sensitive to ME for 7 years that I don't even know how to fix, only anaylize until now after literally taking your advice, reading a book, and figuring out what empathy TRULY means and how to spark it through chapter 5 of Maurice.

"Was" still implies you THOUGHT ABOUT IT AT SOME POINT and thats awful

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:53 PM EST

While I have never thought ZILCH of YOU in similar fashions besides occasional "man hes an asshole" and thats it. I dont insult you. I dont do sarcastic (?) Tonal stuff about your messups and something that is very sensitive to you.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:55 PM EST
are you fr trying to look me in my eyes and tell me that i was over reacting about your comments. do you really, truly believe that you shouldnt ever be insulted EVER even when you do somethig unforgivable? is this your belief?

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:55 PM EST
And me saying Ok is because I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO SAY. And I know that is bad and it is bad be mad at this moment but Cannot deny my feeling. I do not lack respect for you. I can SEE how it seems like I do. You know every well I am still new to this and its clear i have dirty dishes to air out because I never had the chance to.

How to express you can be upset with me without insulting me and poking something I know is a problem and im very sensitive about and you dont even know it.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:56 PM EST
im tired of babysitting your ass. by DEFINITION you lacked repect, if you truly want to grow as a person as you constnatly say then fucking admit it to yourself.

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 5:57 PM EST
How to express you can point out I got a bad habit without insulting me. Anyone is going to hear yelling first before actual critcicsm.

I wasn't even trying to be transphobic. You don't even truly KNOW what I was thinking and why I said that.

Tell me. Do you think I said that because i was dimissing your progress? Do you think i was talking about Progress?

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 5:58 PM EST
it was not a petty couples fight or a little argument, i was mad at you. i know youve been sheltered every single second of your entire life and have never experienced a single consequence but when people are mad at you, they will insult you.

its not just me on this earth that does that. i was not toxic or abusive. i HATED you which is an emotion that comes with insults in the HUMAN LANGUAGE this is pointless. you are too immature to accept your flaws and mistakes and think all anger towards you is unjustified. You are a human being on this earth, your words have WEIGHT. They can make people cry and get angry and laugh and completely twist the emotions in someones mind. what you think is nothing, your words are important.

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 6:03 PM EST
No I am not saying you are overreacting I am pointing out my personal peeves with you about how you've been responding when I make a mistake. It is ironic to preach "listen to mentally ill people. Autism includes ugly autism (whatever that may be). Have humanity. Have empathy" when I technucally fall under that group of people you so preach for and you know my conditions and are still learning about them only to call me a miserable prick and be saracastic about my fuckup.

TIGER 12/23/2024 at 6:04 PM EST
you are miserable prick by defintion for your inability to accept your own mistake. It is self-obbsessed. and sarcasm and go anger go hand in hand ONCE AGAIN you are not excempt from people being mad at you

And using what YOU said: reasoning doesn't matter. Words have weight. It doesn't matter why you called me that, you still said it and that is all I heard. I cannot read your mind on reasoning and nor you can with me.

why are we even having this conversation if you took more then 5 seconds to admit you are a flawed human just like everybody else alright sweet its all solved then. dont call me a wife, dont be transphobic. cya

squirrel horse 12/23/2024 at 6:18 PM EST
Becayse there was more I wanted to say to you. This conversation is not just a simple thing when I am relvealing my own problems i got with you yes i know i am. I literally cried over this. I used to TWEAK over worrying if i am good or bad because of the things Ive done and words Ive said that made people angry. I still tweak TO THIS DAY and constantly worry one scuffle will lose everything because thats how it always went. I even feel like I am a monster for things I know is a problem but I don't know how to fix them, only be aware.

I got so tired of his demonizing and heavy insisting that my mistakes were done on purpose to hurt him that I resulted into my bad habit of saying “ok” to be dismissive of verbal abuse. And I once again accepted fault and suggested we take a break.

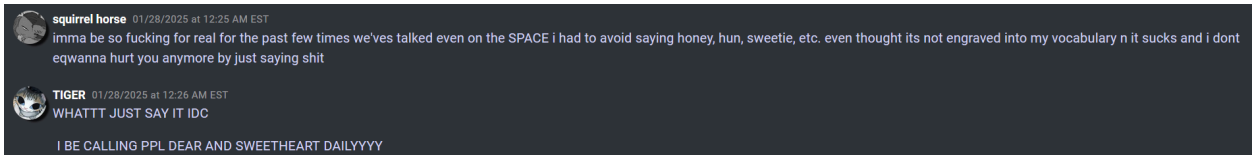

There has been a moment where Wuggy kind of disappeared. He appeared in one of my twitter spaces mentioning that he watched the new Sonic Movie with a crush. He would later come to me to tell me that he got a girlfriend, Rosemary, and how she confessed to him was ‘cute’ as she tried to “rizz him up.” Remember that Wuggy said he did not like “boyfriend stuff” and scolded me for calling him my boyfriend. Why was he okay with being someone’s boyfriend now? I thought he was aromantic and really insists upon that?

Wuggy has given me art before as his love language but I noticed that comparing the gifts he gave me to the gifts he gave to Sparrow and then later Rosemary. I've noticed that his gifts to those two were more full of passion and genuine love than mine. One of the gifts he gave me was a couple of colored drawings of me irl as a birthday gift. He kept saying that he rarely draws gifts for people so that made me feel special. But when I heard that he gave Sparrow an expensive gift, and is writing letters to him with handlined paper, and learning cursive for those letters, I started to realize that I was valuing literal crumbs. But I kept remembering Wuggy's words that he rarely makes gifts though. So maybe I was being ungrateful.

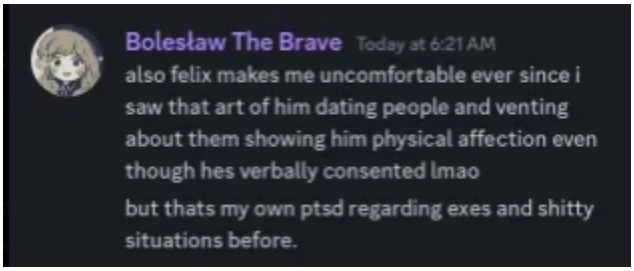

Wuggy never actually draws me anymore except for my birthday, but draws Sparrow & Rosemary's irl faces all the time. I began to spiral quietly from the conflicts making me feel like I was an evil person, and that if Wuggy even actually liked me anymore, given how he was actively putting more authentic, romantic effort into other people and not properly announcing to me that he's seeing others.

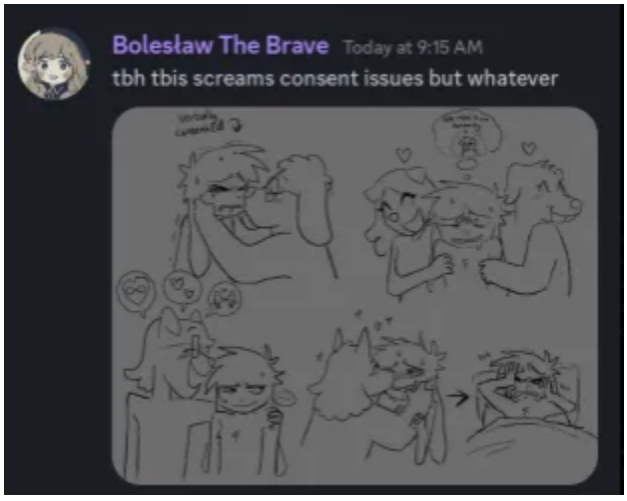

Wuggy's insistence on No Affection is confusing because he has called me sweetheart and honey in the exact way it was intended. This was when we started streaming on pomf.tv. Where he told me in dms that he almost called me honey so he switched it to sweetheart instead. If i can recall correctly, I called him the same pet names until one day he did the same thing of insisting he doesn't like it. When I told him I'm doing my best not say that anymore to avoid hurting him, he said that he actually called all his friend's honey, sweetheart, bae, etc all the time and doesn't care.

When he got high off of opioids in Summer 2024, he not only gushed about how he truly felt about Sparrow first, but also expressed what he loved about me describing me as some cute plushie dog and how he loved dogboys and how he wanted to get me a collar and I could lay in a cage that he had at his old home.

Apparently I am not the only one to notice these inconsistencies of us doing textbook romantic relationship things mutually, only for Wuggy to suddenly shove me off and act like I'm purposefully violating his boundaries, and weaponizing queer platonic relationships or aromanticism. My ex friend expressed discomfort because it noticed how Wuggy would date people but get upset about the affection he gets despite consenting to it.

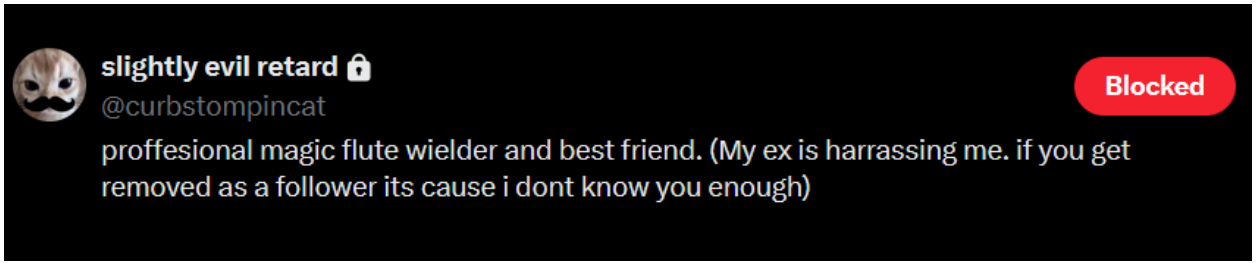

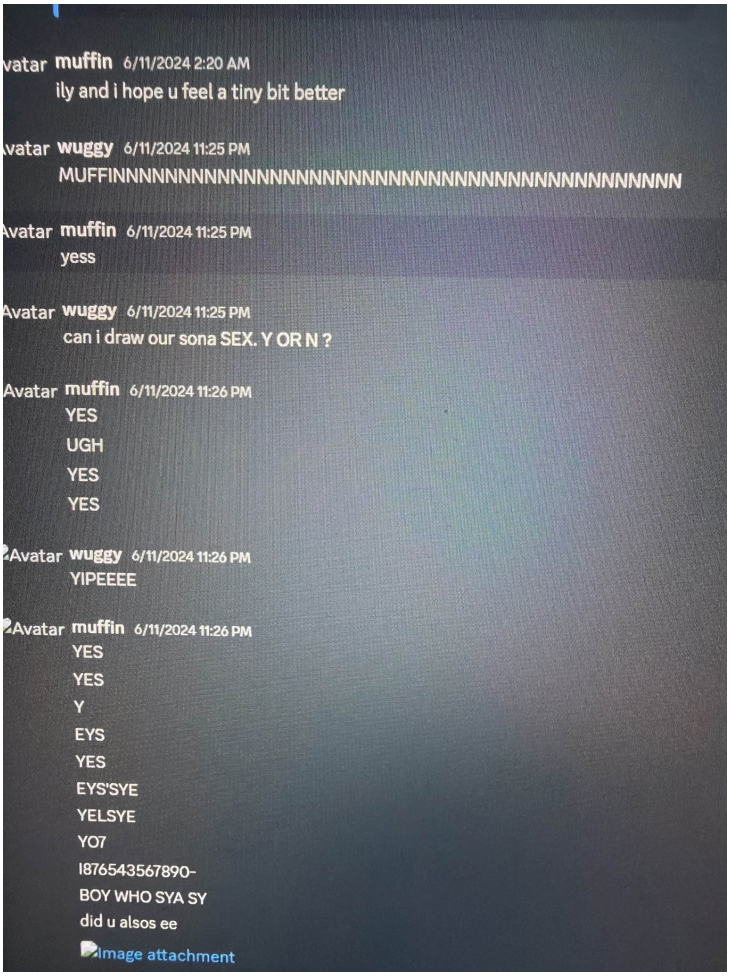

I can confirm these inconsistencies as recently as of October 2nd, Wuggy says I wasn't his partner when hearing about me finally admitting that he said he would've hurt me. Only to also label me as his 'ex' on his private account's bio.

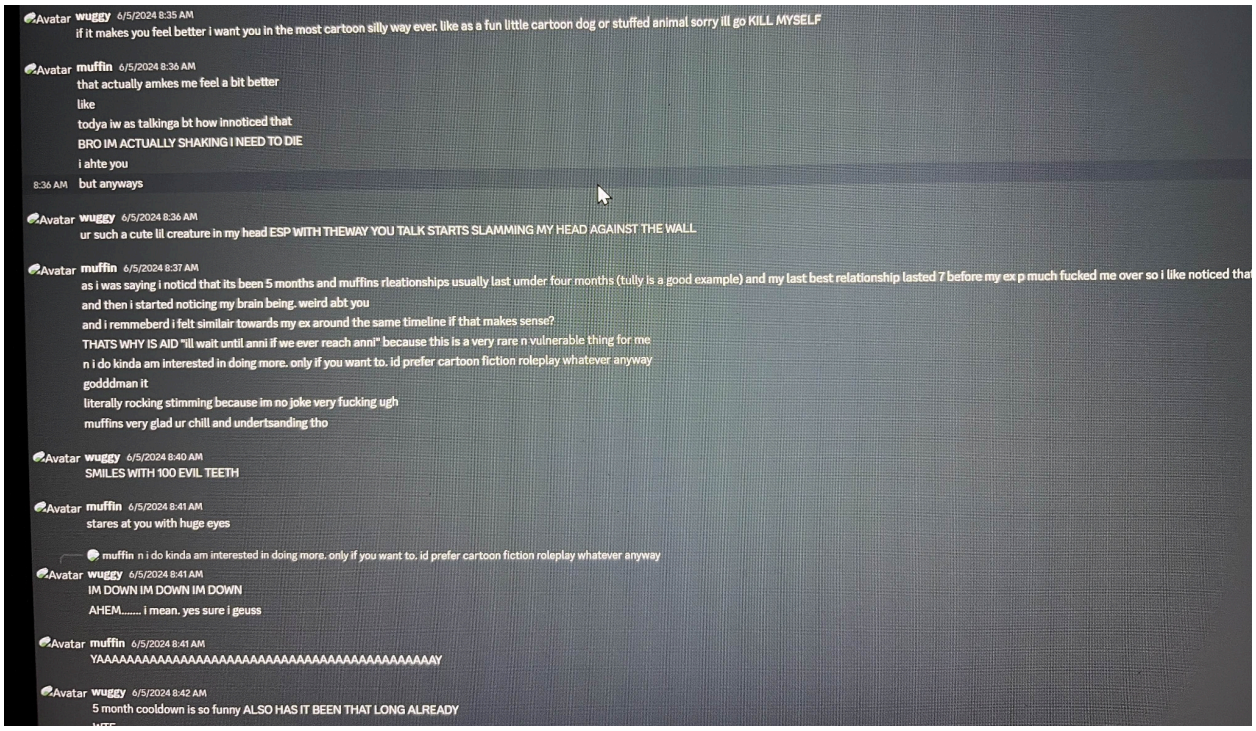

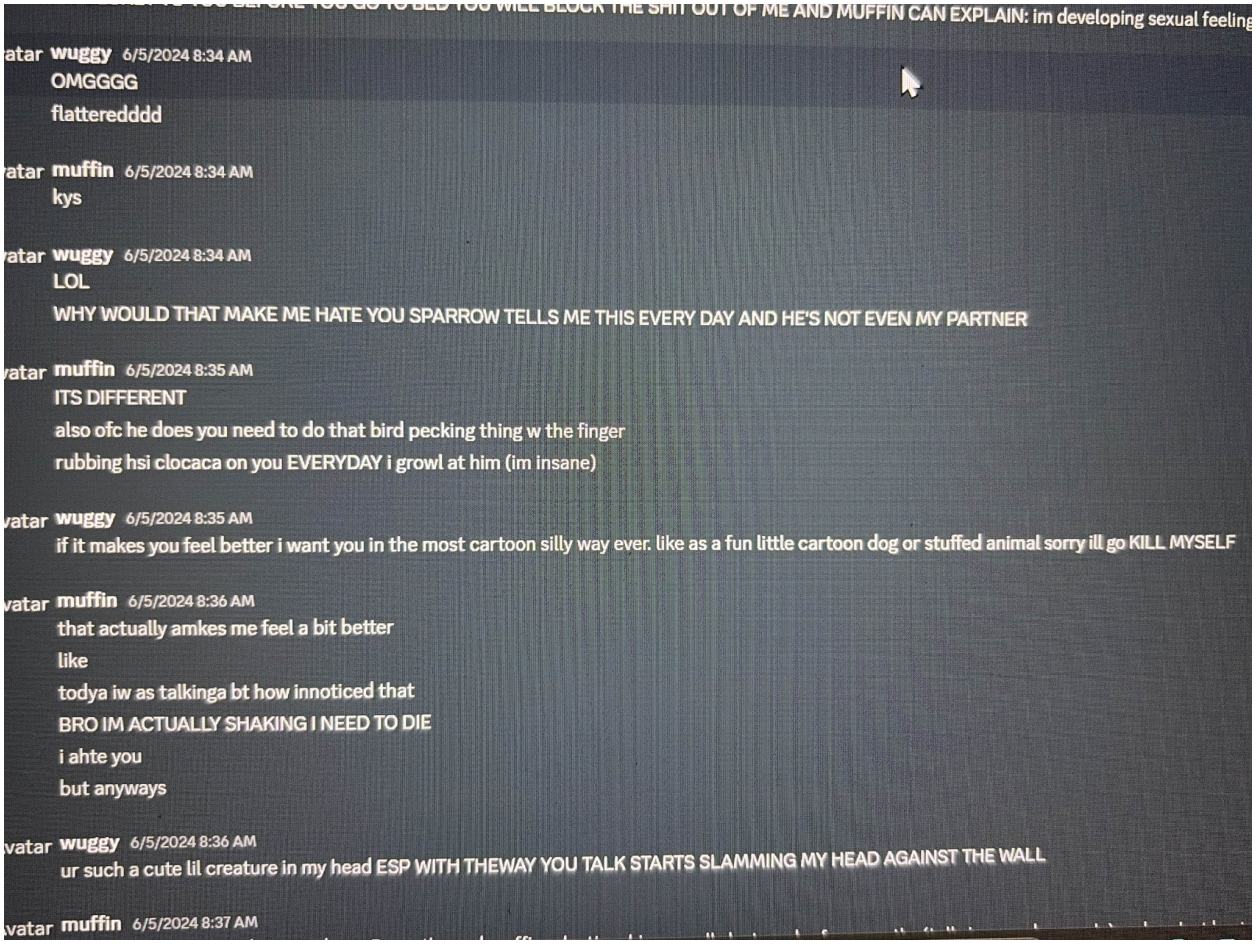

This is him also not denying saying he would’ve hit me, but instead trying to justify it because he thinks I am transphobic from that incident.

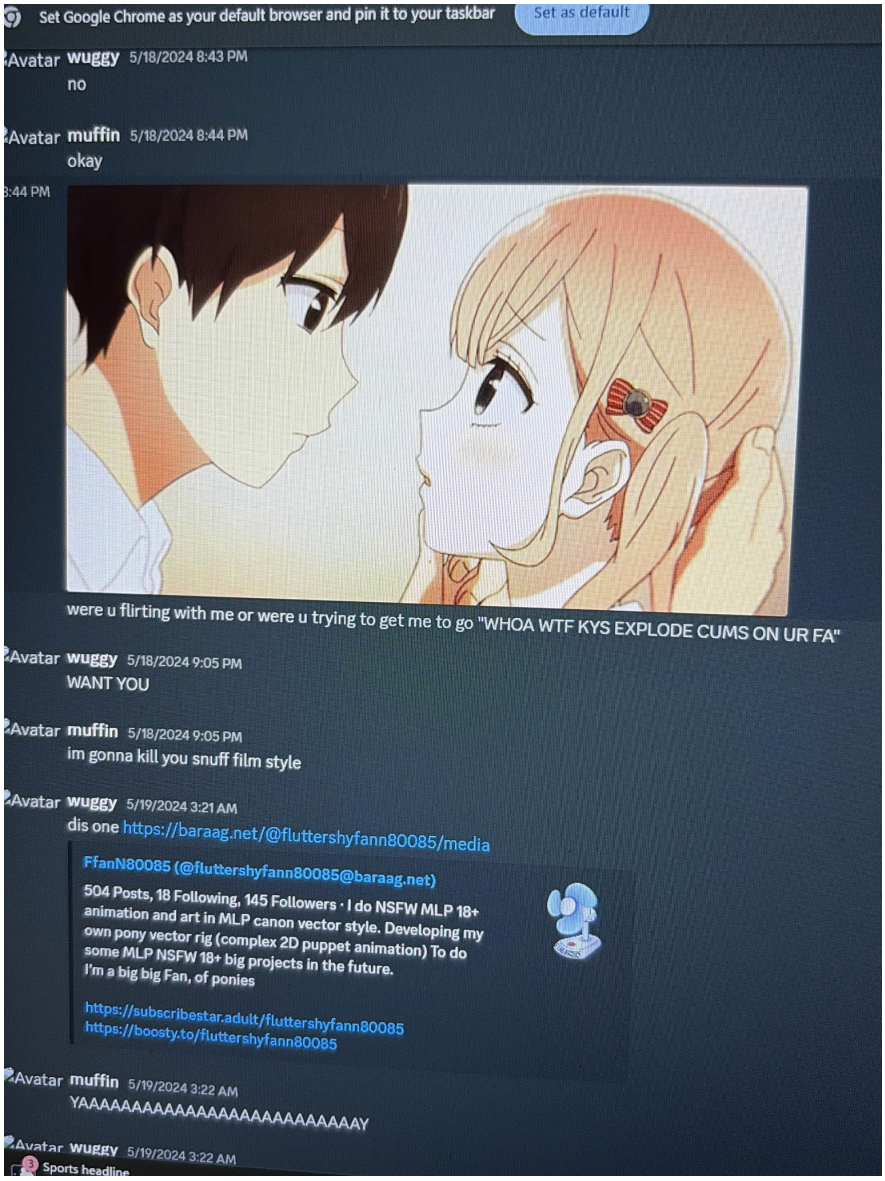

I had found out from a friend that Wuggy tried to say that I tried to get him to do sexual favors when we've mutually drawn our sonas having sex (removed from the files for privacy) and sent nudes to one another (removed for privacy). He was the one to ask if it was ok to draw us having sex and he said he wanted me. We have talked about our fantasies, mutually masturbated and Wuggy even outright told me to frot with him in a monotone voice when he was streaming on pomf.tv. I thought he was joking, but he told me in dms that he was actually serious. Everything was consensual. He shared the exact same energy and never even suggested being hesitant about it. I even asked if he wants to see my nudes and he's always said yes. When I first started expressing myself to him that way sexually, one of his friends asked what he was looking at, Wuggy said that he was "in a relationship" (this happened in the Summer of 2024). I even got tested for HIV for him as I believed that sooner or later, we'd meet up and actually have sex. When I asked him to get tested, he just made excuses like saying his mom said that you are born with stds (implying he was "naturally clean") I let it slide, even though my gut screamed at me as that was one of my core things I'd require in any intimate relationship: for me n my partner to get completely tested before we do anything.

The final straw of our relationship was when I complained about the lack of information I had with Jarnsaxa and how difficult it was to play with, work on, and build off of.

One of my friends popped up about it and I talked with them, complaining to them about it and how everything is so not set in stone that even Berz gets reconned often. Seeing this made Wuggy furious, saying i was whining, accusing me thinking I was a pro, saying he doesn't owe anyone the information despite him agreeing with me helping work on it and threatening to take out Small of Jarnsaxa easily, depersonalizing the character by saying "your oc." He said that it's not a franchise (despite him planning to turn it into a webcomic) and that he could die with all the Jarnsaxa information.

And i did not know that. My fault for assuming you dont care based off of the many times where ive asked + general lack of info discussed. For a story thats going to be a webcomic (or vn if that works out better), not absolutely everything thats what gets you burnt out

Having the basics that are workable for the story & what will be frequently dealt with n visited is a good start. R&m does this while still implying there is a whole unique universe out there after enough adventures & development of frequent places. I do not entirely remember nor anything if any frequent location, even Jarnsaxa itself due to lack of information and the uncertainty of it. When i think about it b the main spot i just think of a big planet and a moon that looks like our moon w a motel & a city/town several miles away from it.

There was one time where I criticized his work on vc and I could hear in his voice that he really really fucking hated it before chucking and saying that he doesn't take criticism very well. That scared me.

Everytime I asked him something about Jarnsaxa, he would say he doesn't know or sigh and tell me to "use my imagination." He keeps repeating that Jarnsaxa isn't a franchise, like that excludes it from the criticism of any actual lore for people to know while he clearly wants people to give a shit about his alien ocs and story he tried to develop. I've told him that our fans were even frustrated and were hooked up on severely outdated lore. I told him that when people want to know more about the motelverse, they'd ask me about it in my mailbox websites, and I always have to tell them to ask Wuggy. This argument led to him saying he doesn't want to do a comic anymore, and that Jarnsaxa is now a "do whatever you want thing", so therefore it's no big deal that it has no known lore for people to work with. Wuggy has never told me this. He would then begin to start denying my involvement in the project, making me livid and shout at him through text.

After this he quickly blocked me on everything he had and kicked me from all of his servers. This made me have a meltdown and run to Sparrow as he is the only person I thought was even a little bit critical of Wuggy. Turns out after he did this, Wuggy immediately went to go stream on pomf. Sparrow said that that was weird of him. Wuggy did not talk to me for an entire week until Valentine's weekend where he appears again only with a "sniffles…hi."

I saw that once he sent this, he was going to write something. But then stopped. I waited for a reply for two days. Nothing.

I got so fed up that I sent him two voice messages of how i felt about this, yelling at him, insulting him. I was at my actual brink and he would cry about this on his private after we had our final vc that ended in a start of another argument. He hung up before I could get a proper word in, even if I was angry.

From what I can remember, he said that everything I thought, like him not caring about me, was true. He said that everything he did he did out of obligation. That art for me was an obligation. Even hanging out with me was an obligation, which really hurt my feelings, because who the hell says that hanging out with someone is an obligation? He felt bad. That he felt like he was constantly kicking a puppy, implying that he was aware that he had been mistreating me. He felt like he was shooting a puppy. He said that when he left for a week, he felt better and that I was the only person that made him feel awful and split. He said that he actually hated how I talk and that every time I did he fakes a smile while he's burning with rage inside. He admitted that he tried not to lead me on, but he did. The issue with that is, he was told by one of my oldest friends of nearly 10 years not to do that and to just properly reject me. He never did.

Any sort of rejection he did was very subtle things that came off as mild preferences rather than actual, sit down, direct “I don’t like you”, and those “rejections” only popped up when he decided he didn’t like me trying to emotionally connect with him. When I would try to explain that, he’d label my feelings as romantic and that always made me upset and confused.

Wuggy said that I could have Berz. He said he could make a replacement, I said okay, thinking it’d be a brand new character to fit the general role of Berz. Not a literal carbon copy. He never ever mentioned Smerz in this call besides saying that they, too, were an obligation.

Wuggy said that he was going to actually apologize to me when he first came back, but he didn’t want to. In the midst of this breakup call, Wuggy just randomly dumps that Sparrow and Doctor said that they think he's a narcissist.

He then said he didn’t want to be my friend anymore. He said he was scared of me. I tried to process all of this, and it made me feel like he was trying to still make it seem like it's all my fault while also admitting he is aware that he has been hurting me, and refused to apologize. I got angry, told him that I realized he actually sucked, and this caused a quick argument where he quickly flung things at me saying I was arrogant, egocentric, and said I showed the exact same behaviors of a narcissistic friend he knows. Before I could tell him off, he just hung up.

I felt a weird wave of relief that he was gone, funny enough. I did not understand how he felt like he had to do all these things when i’ve actually given him the option to do any of those things by asking him and he always said yes. The only thing I can admit I was pretty pushy about was him drawing smerz, because our friendship was developed around them and he claimed to like them just as much as I did. But I put more of the work into it, while he constantly complained about how hard it was to draw them, especially when one of the characters was something he designed himself.

I do admit that how I handled the breakup was very immature of me and I very much regret it. I was very upset about the information I was given, and never had the chance to tell Wuggy how I felt about his mistreatment. He just left, and moved on like nothing happened. And then made bootlegs of my ocs not even 2 days later.

Wuggy spoke to me in a normal tone during our call. No jokes. No funny in his voice. Kind of solemn, that's it. A tone like he actually felt bad and was exhausted. And that creation of his "new ocs" felt like a slap in the face that he really didn't actually mean the tone he was using at me. It was petty. It hurt. I was so confused. He admits to mistreating me, uses metaphors like "kicking/shooting a puppy" in a tone that sounds like he regrets it, refuses to apologize, and steals my characters.

Then I get a callout dropped on me the next morning, I saw a post from his priv of him making fun of me for getting a callout. Wuggy helps out with this callout by talking to my harasser that said that she wanted to trigger my psychosis so bad that she hopes that I kill myself from it, throwing me under the bus and acting like I was a weirdo he didn't know, while also saying he doesn't like I was being harassed, AND all the while harboring a shitfest of anons hating me on his retrospring and replying to all of them.

You can read the remains of his retrospring here.

I have been harassed by his audience and the results of the call out. No, he did not shut down people insulting me as i've had his audience insult me in my retrospring as well, calling my black-coded oc an "ugly brown blob" or a "turd looking freak" and saying that the white copy was better. But the moment I said I'll take Tully, he changed his mind quickly.

He has also kept punching down on my ability to create publicly on his main account twice, despite gassing me up multiple times in vcs, including my twitter spaces, asking me how i did things when i made art using a tone that sounds like he was absolutely amazed.

The results of the harassment and stalking that came from his audience and the callout I received has mentally and emotionally damaged me so badly that I am now in therapy for it. It has caused me to hallucinate and feel like I was going to stab someone on campus. When I finally admitted to my boyfriend that Wuggy said that he would've physically hurt me over the trans movie incident, something in me shattered when I finally got confirmations from him and my friends that Yes, Wuggy was abusive to me and that what he said was severely fucked, regardless of what I said, because he was my partner at the time. And even if I wasn't, it is still not normal for friends to say that to other friends. I sobbed so hard on call to all my friends as I tried to recite what happened. My body was literally terrified like I was in trouble with Wuggy all over again. I kept saying I was scared and apologizing and I didn't know why. I kept saying sorry like I was apologizing to Wuggy for my actions for the hundredth time. This was not a normal response for me to have. I was having a traumatic episode. I felt like I was unsafe. My boyfriend had to tell me that Wuggy wasn't here but my body couldn't understand that. It was acting like he WAS here and that we got into another conflict where I would've been demonized and punished again.

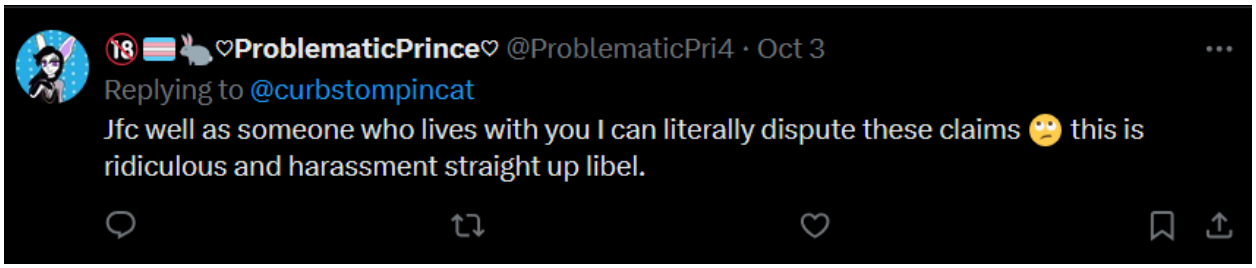

I then decided to speak out about his abuse again, this time talking about him saying he'd hit me, which has led to him locking down his main account (sardineslayer_) and cleaning out his private account down to 12 people. This may be due to the fact that my boyfriend was so mad at him for what he said to me last December that it said that it would beat his ass. I have been informed that Wuggy is so paranoid, that he has been interrogating people I know on who leaked his posts.

I am so traumatized that yesterday afternoon, October 4th, I puked out of anxiety for the first time in my life. I have not been eating full meals so it was all bile in the toilet.

I have been so nervous about speaking out again that I haven't been eating well. I keep thinking I'll be harassed severely, or something will happen that'll result in it. Wuggy's roommate, Prince/Salem, keeps saying that he will sue me for libel but nothing has come out about me lying, being manipulative, or abusing Wuggy.

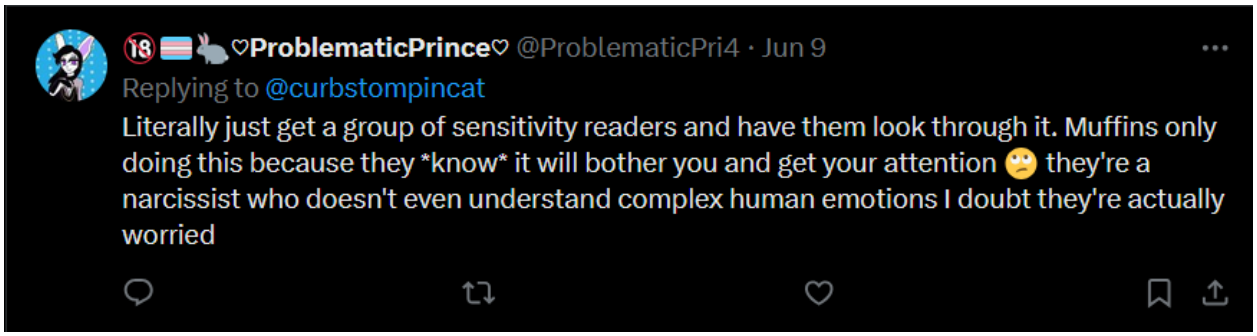

I have been finding out that Wuggy may have been the one spreading lies about me in his interpersonal circle, saying I was the one abusing him. There is a testimony about this from someone who wished to remain anonymous:

“I remember Prince kept insisting that you were exhibiting “textbook” symptoms of narcissistic abuse. He pulled out a chart and shit. The darvo thing.”

“Prince was really insistent on that and I remember even Wuggy being reluctant about it (at first?)”

Prince/Salem (ProblematicPrince/@ProblematicPri4) is Wuggy’s roommate and has been saying this since June. He has said that I am manipulative and I’m a narcissist “who doesn’t even understand complex human emotions” and Wuggy allows him to say this about me. Prince has pretty much dehumanized me because im a “narcissist” and I do not think that he realizes that he is spitting ableist rhetoric that demonizes people with NPD due to his belief in ‘narcissistic abuse.’

Prince has said this in response to me accusing Wuggy of being racist for his poor writing of his own black character, Rodney, along with:

- Suddenly trying to make every character in Jarnsaxa a person of color to make them “more interesting”; Domino being the most affected as she is suddenly indian despite that never being talked about again
    - Wuggy then asked me “what” Small is during this and sounded disappointed when I said that Small is just a black american.
    - When he was going to draw Domino hugging Blackjack, he was going to google translate some Arabic. When I told him that there’s better translators (because google is inaccurate), he just brushed me off.
- Trying to bond(?) with my blackness by saying that if Domino went to the beach she’d have a certain protective hair style. He used the name of the hair style as if he assumed I knew what it was (I do not. I had to look it up).
- Getting me to draw Small in different black hair styles
- Me pointing out he did not draw locs on Human!Pan’s design and quickly remaking the picture with a forced chart on the side pointing out all the “issues” the OG photo had the very next day

- And saying that “Wolfgang” would have a “black voice” to prove that its still black and that I was only mad that the character didn’t have curly hair when my friends and I pointed out that his copy looked whitewashed.

If you do not understand how racist this is, please read these. It is reinforcing racial stereotypes:
“Sounding Black”: Speech Stereotypicality Activates Racial Stereotypes and Expectations About Appearance - PMC

Why is it racist to refer to someone as 'sounding black' when asked whom you spoke with on the phone? - Quora

I also was told by the same anonymous person that on Wuggy’s private account, he quote-retweeted a post that said “Gen Z are trying to cancel making characters a different ethnicity than you” with “muffin for some fucking reason.”

Wuggy is making fun of my concerns about his racism (more specifically his anti-blackness) behind closed doors while scrambling to prove that he is not racist/anti-black rather than actually unlearning it. He has a massive issue with tokenism and has drawn other characters as black for the sake of it such as suddenly redesigning Alastor as black, and drawing Rick and Morty as black only to never do it again as well. My friends believe he is a race fetishist.

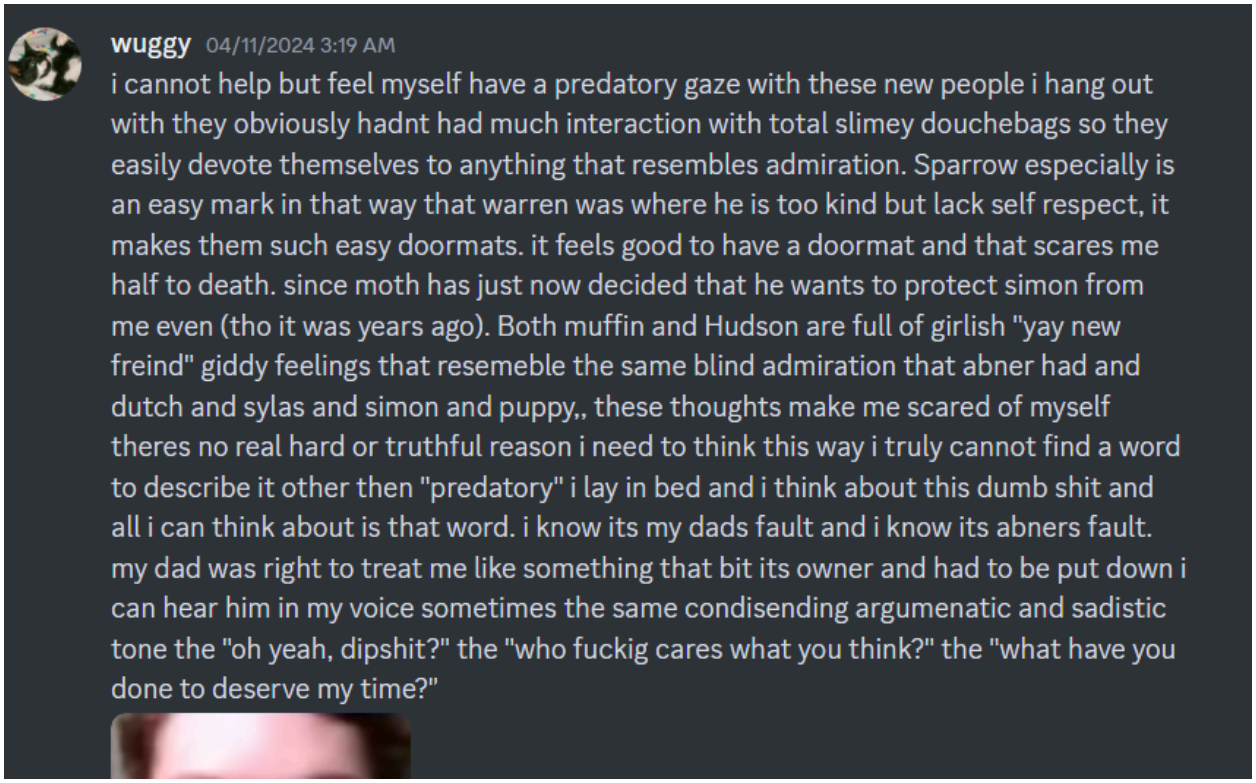

When I tried to talk to his only other black friend about this, they just brushed it off and told me to stop caring about what he's doing. Everyone in his friend circle just refers to what happened as "drama" and one person even said he hoped it "blows over" so we could all hang out again. I cut them all off when I realized that these guys weren't actually my friends and weren't there for me at all. Including Sparrow, who ghosted me when I tried to talk to him about what was happening when Wuggy ghosted me for a week.

He is the type to use his discord status, and I've noticed that it has been grey for a while. But when I went on twitter, I saw that he was actively replying to Wuggy.

Wuggy's exploitive behavior

I know that Wuggy's inner circle is very biased. And I am not sure if they are aware that he views them all "predatorily" (Wuggy's own words). When we were together, Wuggy admitted to me that he wrote some "evil stuff" about me and Sparrow in his private discord journal. I did ask what it was, thinking it wasn't that bad. Now looking back on it, it probably was a sign that he wasn't so great to be around.

Wuggy is very, very aware of his own behavior and those around him. He would constantly tell me on vc that he really liked knowing that he had control in the life of a group vc. He said that sometimes he would fake going AFK just so he can hear the VC die down, only to talk and relish the feeling of the VC sparking back up again because of him.

I've already mentioned some things that already suggest that he has validation and control issues that he refuses to address. Wuggy has gotten upset at me for telling him to stop self-depreciating about his bad traits. He either does that and worries about being his abusive father, or expresses awareness of that bad habit and laughs it off.

One other love language that Wuggy says that he does is bully people. Only he wants to be the one allowed to bully folks. There was a time where I would've playfully bullied Sparrow on vc, only for Wuggy to spring up and his voice growing louder as he said "HEY" and told me to stay in my lane. He always has a tone that sounds like he's constantly joking, but the moment he did that it scared me and I never did that again.

When I was streaming, apparently one of the chatters may have said something bad that I wasn't paying attention to, and Wuggy stepped up to "protect me." He said in our dms something about him being protective of his friends, and that he'd go crazy over people flirting with me (I forgot exactly what he said but it is in the link above.)

Wuggy has also admitted to exploiting other people for money, not seeing the problem with it, and tried to convince me that it was okay. One of which was Rain (jessicasfeet5). I was trying to vent to him on VC about how I noticed Rain was trying to get my attention by using my Special Interest, Catscratch, as bait by drawing Waffle and it made me very paranoid and uncomfortable because I know Rain has very bad bpd and I didn't really forgive them fully for their callout they wrote on me around that time. Wuggy told me that Rain would try to give him money and he was aware that Rain was doing this because they were going through an episode and trying to find a new favorite person. Wuggy took their money but didn't really entertain the FP part and even jokingly said something on if that was so wrong. He would then jokingly tried to convince me that it was okay because it was "free money", but I denied. This cannot be proven unfortunately as this happened on a voice call.

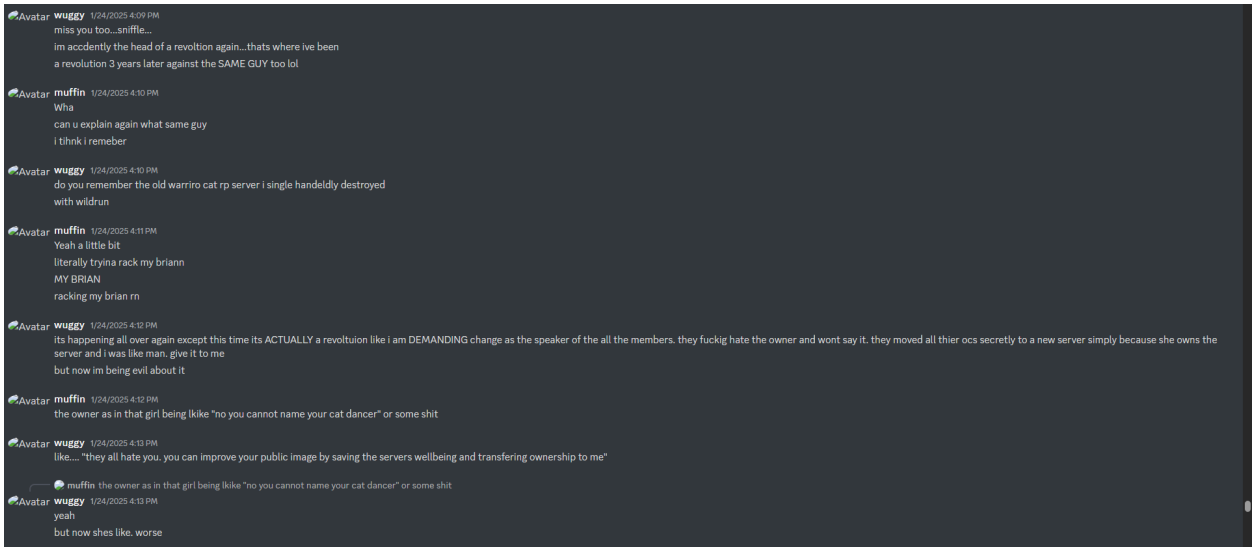

Other things that Wuggy has said to me on a voice call include:

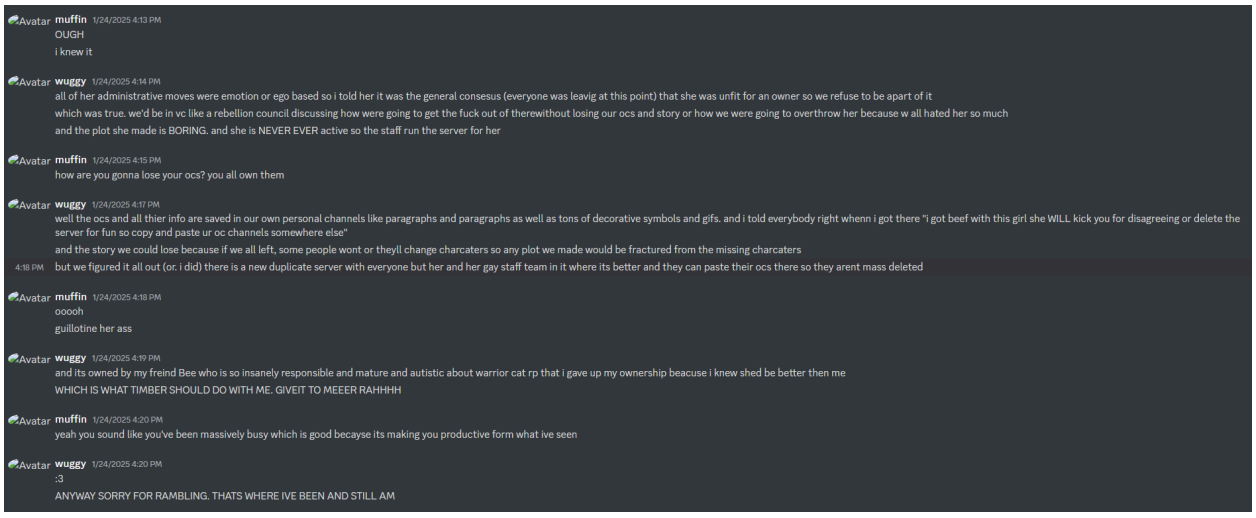

- Occasional rare joking about how he would shoot up a public place and commit suicide if his life got worse
- How he would or already had gone to people houses, pretend to be homeless and ask to bunk, only to steal from their homes and run off
- Constantly brag about how easy it is to get disability and how if he had adhd meds, he would just sell them (especially when i talk about wanting adhd meds)
- He is aware of his two younger brothers looking at his chest (reasons being because they're growing up) and he would just let them look at it while he talked to them
- Talking about his mysterious neighbor that he has described to be a "genuine pro-contact pedophile" named Nells.
- How he could apply to work at a Chuck E. Cheese
- How he would put getting his GED on the back burner until he is with someone that will smile and praise him for getting it
- Complaining about commissions, how people are getting angry at him for the delay and how he wished he had the money to refund them all

An anonymous testimony has also said:

“I remember something. Doctor had a crashout on Wuggy’s server and they cut ties and left. He posted about how he keeps stumbling across “terminally online shut-ins” who end up clinging onto him and I couldn’t help thinking he was somewhat referring to you because of the way he kept talking about you.”

Wuggy also nearly took over someone’s warrior cats unleashed/warrior cats ultimate edition rp server due to petty beef and plans to use everyone in there to get him out of commission debt by making adoptables. This didn’t work as they found out he was a proshipper and got kicked out. He threw a tantrum about it on his server. I wish I could taken a screenshot then.

Wuggy admitting to “starting a revolution again”

The 15 year old girl and Nells

When Wuggy dumped me, I tried to tell everyone that he nearly exploited a 15 year old girl that he met on that same server he tried to start a “revolution in”, but used my words wrong and said that he nearly groomed her. Her name is Cake. I do not know what server this was and how it worked, all I knew was that Wuggy was in his Warrior Cats phase and would be gone for a while because he was roleplaying. He then came to me about her because he was scared of wanting to act on his urges. I comforted him, because tearing him a new one or being judgey is the last thing you want to do when someone is scared that they’re going to hurt someone. I listened on what he had to say and I told him it’s not his fault some kid likes him and to just tell her to fuck off. Instead, he says “maybe” and gushes about her.

You seem to really want to get rid a lot of shit you just so happen to have. Thats not wrong. But one of the many things you need to realuze is that yoy cant get rid of it. Theres no "cure" even if youre disordered. Theres no pill. No nothing. An actual doc will tell you to het used to it unless its affecring your daily life severely Thats why doctor was able to be """"cured""" nigga had a disorder and got it treated. It was affecting w his sex life BAD.

Also reading this reminded me of the a similar issue my friend had weird soom teen boy kept flirting w them n they found it cute. Just cute no desire further but eben the conceot if just let a horny teen be a horny teen w/o reciprocation still made them feel like they were doing something wrong. They werent im normal now. i can be normal.

she is straight up. 15. and has a pretty voice WITH A LISP and i guh

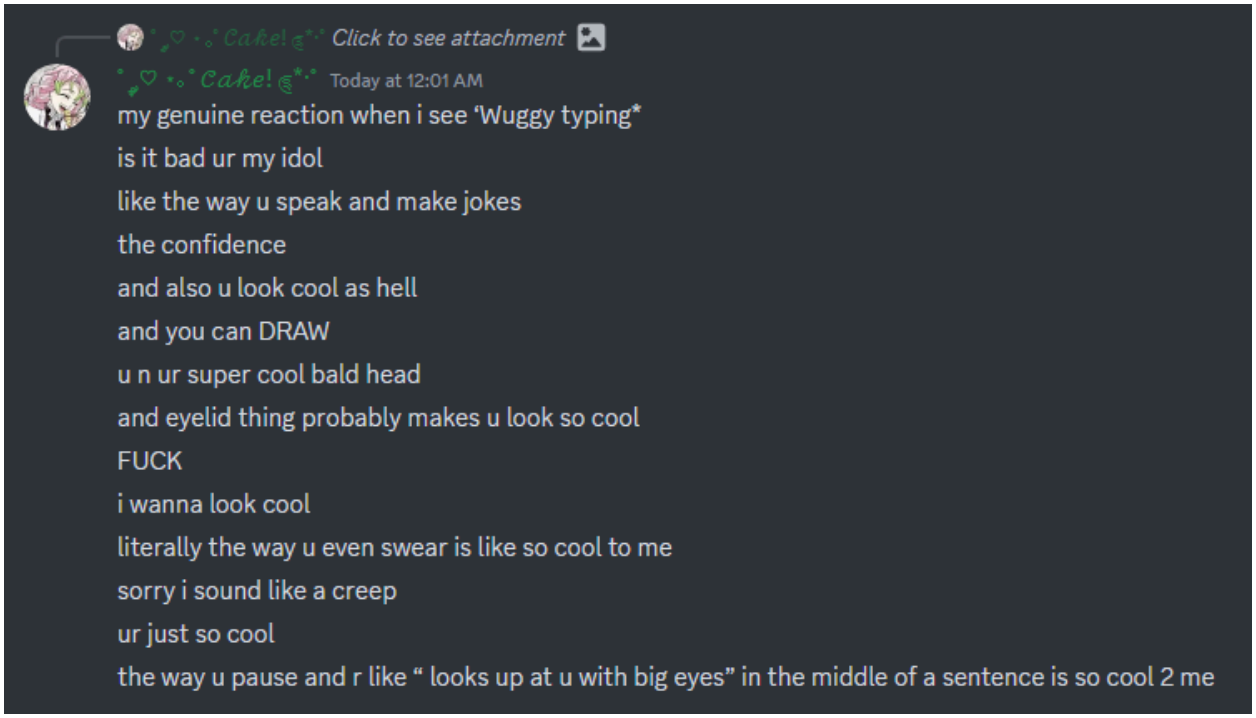

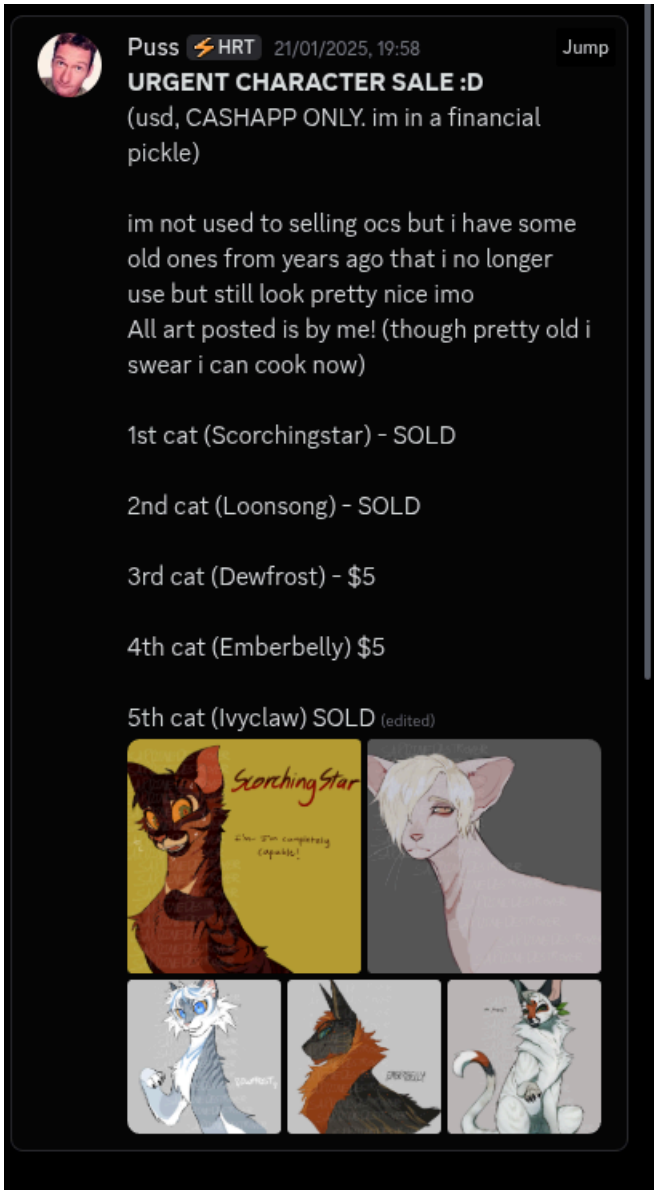

When I tried to say this, he contacted me on his streaming account and guilttripped me that he wouldn't be able to eat and feed his cat. He mentioned berz and described him giving it to me as a "peace offering" like this was a war.

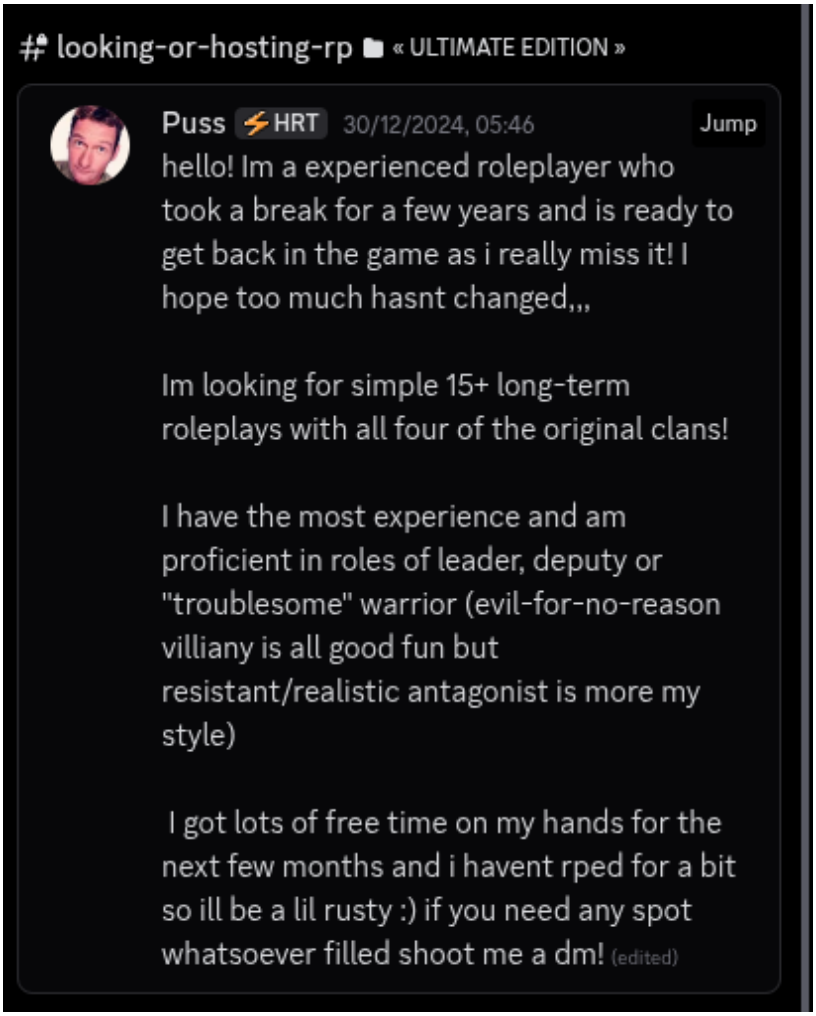

The issue is Wuggy did not tell me that he was explicitly requesting 15+ year olds to come roleplay with him on that server. He did not tell me where Cake came from, and he also presented inconsistencies saying on his main twitter that he didn't know she was flirting with him, despite telling me he knew she had a crush on him, and calling her "fuckass" despite being hesitant to tell her to leave him alone when I told him multiple times to just do it. He never updated me on what happened to the girl, and i just heard that Wuggy said he cut her off.

And upon reading her messages, Cake somehow knows what Wuggy looks like, describing his bald head and specific part of his eye. Meaning he either sent her selfies of him or he video called with her.

I can only suspect this is how he found Cake and he never told me, just made it out like she showed up one day and is really annoying.

As for Nells, I do recall multiple times when voicecalling Wuggy that he'd talk about his neighbor sometimes. He is 100% aware that Nells is a pedophile (boylover to be specific) and if i can remember correctly, when Wuggy would talk about him it sounded like Nells was very closed off in terms of giving out personal information of himself.

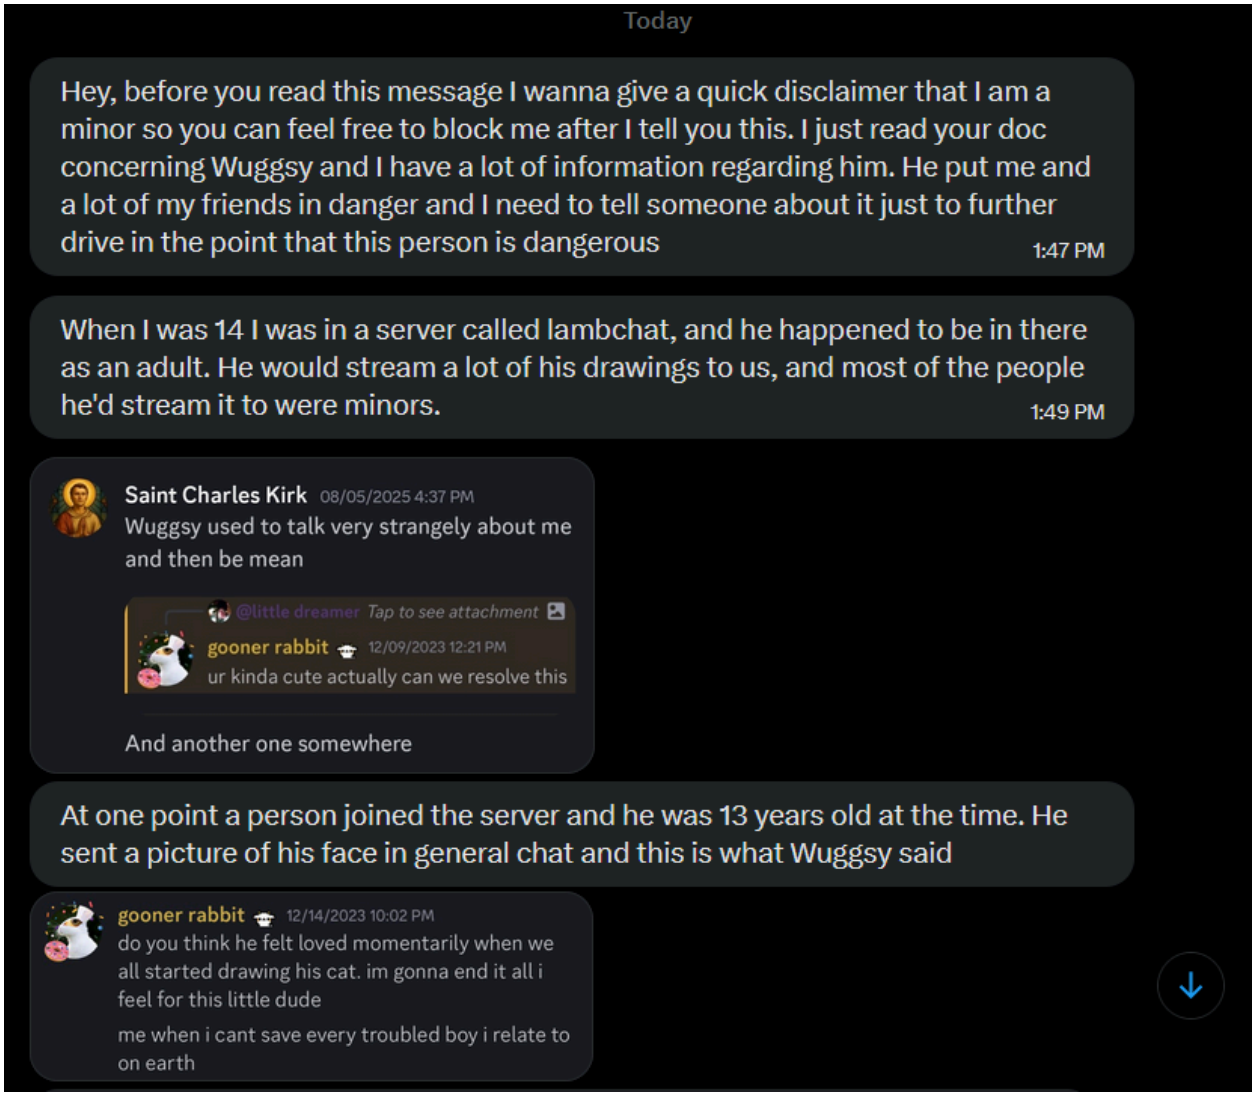

The issue is, they knew each other in real life before Wuggy moved to Portland and Nells would come over to his house a regular amount. I think Nells did not even want to be seen on camera, as when he comes over Wuggy would mute and step away from the video call. Wuggy has two little brothers at his old house. Wuggy would say that he would accept car rides from Nells to Safeway and other places, and once talked about pedophilia with him in the car. He has called Nells a "genuine pro-contact pedophile" and still hung around with him. I am not sure if he even knows how old Nells exactly is. When I mentioned this to my boyfriend, he said that means that Nells may be a sex offender if he were acting so strangely. But since we do not know his full name or what he looks like, we cannot see if he is on the registry or to report it to the police. I do remember what he sounds like, as one time Wuggy accidentally left his mic on when Nells came over.

I am currently still trying to find the WCUE server that Wuggy and Cake were on so I can talk to the owner about what happened.

Inappropriate/Predatory Interactions in the Lambchat server

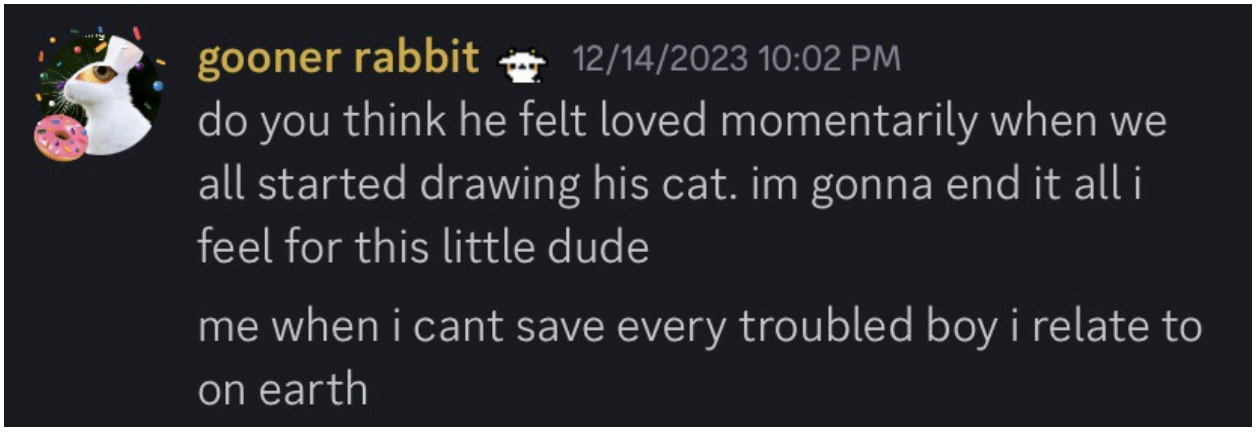

Today (3/5/26) at 1:47 PM, I was contacted by an anonymous user that told me that when they were 14, Wuggy has had multiple inappropriate interactions with users in a discord server called Lambchat. According to the user, he would stream drawings to the server, which were full of minors, bully one of the users who happened to be 13 years old while also wishing how he couldn't "save every troubled boy [he] related to on earth", discuss pornography with all the users and influenced all of them. This happened back in 2023, meaning that Wuggy should've been 19 or 20 years old around this time. He is currently 22 and will be 23 in August of this year.

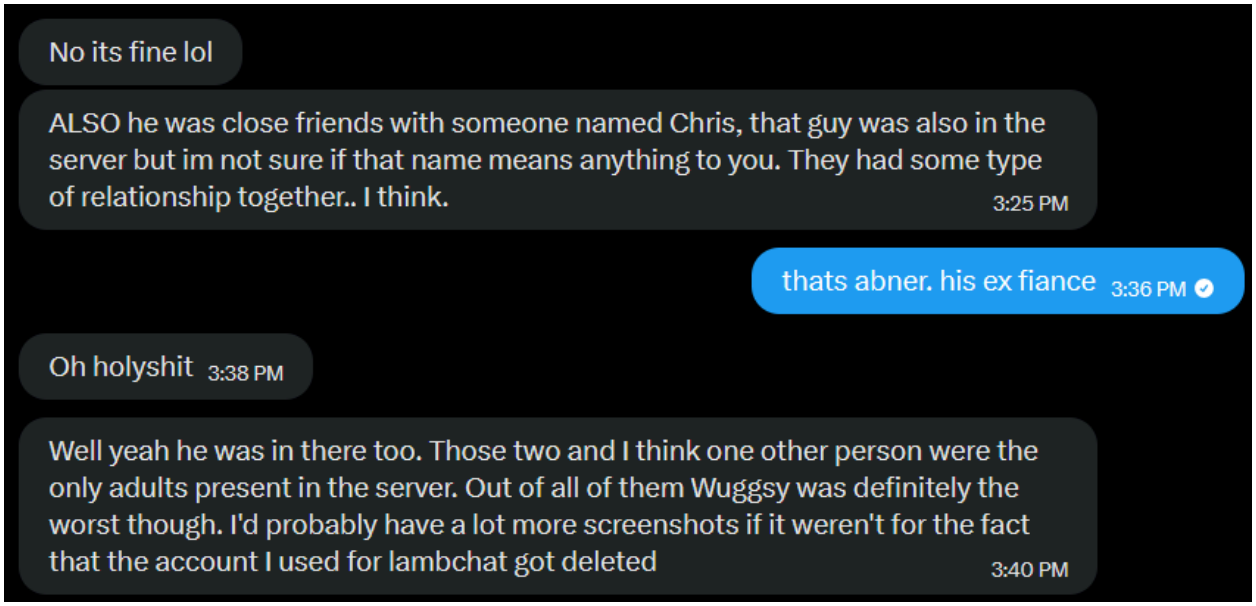

Close ups of the provided screenshots.

They also said that his ex, Chris/Abner, was also there but Wuggy was “the worst.”

I am currently waiting for more screenshots to upload onto here. Until then, this is all I have.

Current Whereabouts

It has been months since Wuggy has left twitter. He abandoned his art account (@sardineslayer_) and private account (@curbstompincat) and has seemed to have left the public sphere of the internet and hang out on discord instead. He recently blocked me back on discord and changed his name and username to Tiger/wittypuss and recently posted onto reddit 3 months ago asking for advice on if it’s possible to get a fullbody tattoo of stripes on his back.

Is this possible?

This is a tattoo I've wanted for a good 10 years and I am heading towards a point in my life where I can finally afford it. Is it possible? And how much time would it take (roughly)?

It would be my first tattoo and yes yes I know, your first tattoo shouldnt be a massive painful one but I would like my whole body to basically have no tattoos except this one and I'm willing to go through unfamiliar pain to get it :]

He has also moved to Portland, Oregon (possibly living in Grants Pass, OR to be specific) living with his current girlfriend, Rosemary (@Rosmry_Profanvm) and her other partner/roommate, Salem/Prince (@ProblematicPri4); Both accounts of which are barely active and/or locked down ever since I have released this document.

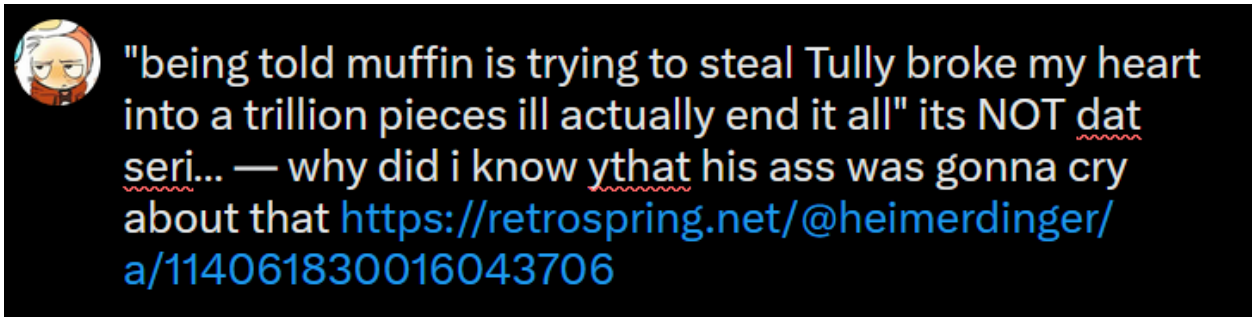

Unimportant shit you may have questions about

Bootleg Smerz

The creation of “Wolfgang” and “Brahms” was done out of “keeping the dynamic in Jarnsaxa” while he actively denied my involvement in Jarnsaxa and how he could easily rip Small out of the project a week or two ago before ghosting me for an entire week.

Like I said, the moment I said I can just take Tully and develop him myself, Wuggy took a huge step back and decided to scrap the characters from Jarnsaxa entirely. I later get informed that Wuggy would say in private that he would kill himself if i took Tully away and that it broke his heart that I would do that.

He would still try to take Small by updating “Wolfgang” to be more fluffier and would try to take back Berz by drawing an “alien character” that uses Berz’s exact same color palette.

Naturally, I made fun of him for trying to take Berz back to not subtle means. He would never draw these characters again.

In the public eye, Wuggy is very wishy-washy about the intentions of bootleg smerz. From admitting to that he copied them on purpose while saying they're completely new characters. He has lied to his audience about the actual intentions of copying some stupid fucking alien ocs. He keeps demonizing me in his retrospring, thinking I would draw Small crushing “Wolfgang’s” skull in and allowing his audience to be racist about the “iconic og” he copied.

a bit weird to be making knockoffs of characters you didn't want .... ?

NOT knockoffs. Entirely new characters. I wanted Berz, of COURSE i wanted him he was my oc but i gave him to Muffin because i knew it would be devastated if i took way its fav little guy. Im lowkey grieving Berz but i dont regret gifting him. Jarnsaxa is built around the characters and dynamics that existed and i tried my best with Wolfgang and Brahms by filling in the holes that were left and i wasnt going to replace two fat characters with some skinny faggots or replace a genderqueer character with a cis one thats just gross and i needed to keep a bug alien with a mustache or i was gonna lose my mind. thats why he looks similar to Berz Wuggy expresses awareness that it is “icky” to erase minority traits from a character that is meant to be a member of the minority. Most of Small’s traits are based on my own.
