

Vanessa..
A haunted soul.
Haunted by regrets.

Regrets of the action she had done in the heat of passion training with her trainer and celebrity crush who now remained sprayed upon a hotel room floor. As soon as she heard that flashbang of a boom blast past her ears she knew she done goofed up!, And as soon as the ringing stopped and the mess around her became clear she dipped for the door.

Grabbing her things and stuffing them into her bag so as to leave no trace she was out of there! Not before taking one last glimpse at the carnage of rubber that was formerly leanbeefpatty adorning the entire walls and floors her passionate lover now sprayed over in a sea of peach like scraps and workout clothing the door slammed shut as she ran as far hell out of sight of this fever dream of a night!

But it's been a few nights or so since then.
Maybe tops a few weeks or a month or so has passed as Vanessa found herself mostly shut in like nature from the shock of it all still thoughts racing through her mind days later at what has become of her new found romantic partner a once strong muscular woman turned exploded party balloon.

She turns on the TV just after coming out of the shower thought of a lifetime after getting dressed in some nightly pj's. Which for Vanessa was a exercise bra following some loose blue shorts and a pair of footy socks that barely covered her ankles.

The remote clicked as she flipped through the channels some anime she's already seen, cartoons that weren't of her tastes, exercise programs she already tried before if not owned them blu ray box stuff of..

But something catches her eyes. It's a news station that just so happens to fatefully be talking about Patty, she turns up the volume and lends a ear.

News reporter: it's been nearly a month since the disappearance of social media influencer lean beef patty who was last scene heading off to her friends for some late night partying before going missing without a trace. Authorities are still on the hunt for any leads that could bring information to her whereabouts.

She shuts it off..

Vanessa's depression sinks deeper as those words cut her like a blade. She knew what they didn't. She knew that by now room service has probably taken out what's left of her to the trash bin.. she moans in a deepened sigh.

Yet a arousal remains. Patty couldn't believe that trick from the shop would work at all let alone give her a night of fantasy beyond her wildest dream come true! She did feel remorse for what she had done, yet the pleasure of watching that glasses clad muscular hottie blow up in all the right places sent shivers down her spine both in bad and good ways. Still she knew what was done was wrong. She ended another human being! yet.. why couldn't she stop thinking about her tight round body pushing up against her sweating flesh? Vanessa tried to shake it off thinking about these dirty thoughts of her was only gonna make the realization of Patty's demise sink in that much deeper. And upset her more.

Patty felt awful yet the same time she yearned what it would feel like to feel that rubbery blimp against her skin if not just for one last time!

Shaking her mind she went to the kitchen popping in a few pop tarts with some popcorn and soda pop for a quick desert before bringing it back into her living room and popping on a movie to ease her mind.

She munched away as the night went on playing film after film yet not getting comfortable as she lounged against her sofa like a bed as eventually each one would bring up something that got her mind once again reminded of the blimp that got away! The blimp that popped she thought as she stared out the window in which the heavy rain poured down her brain running rapidly with the thunder and crackling.

But then a noise passed her window a tap she swore she heard but who has alone usually cares to check up on her let alone at this time of night. She bursed it off as just a tree branch blowing against the window her mind ajarred yet again only to shrug it off and final find some calm in her brain to catch some rest..

She dreamed of that night the wonders and amazement of patties stretching body as it grew before her eyes only to be met with a sad frown upon Patty's taut face as what looks like a demon glancing back at her strikes fear upon Patty's brain as BOOOM!

The noise from Patty's bursting frame awakes Vanessa in a sweat yet again! She lifts up her head as the fear melts away only for a strong KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK. to raise her awareness yet again?

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK. It's coming from the door she thought. IM COMING! she said.

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK. Who could it be at this time of night? She pondered.

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK. Almost jump scaring her as she was inches from the door.

Jeez I said I was coming as Vanessa opens the door.. but nothing not a soul was there? Just the rain...

She shrugged and closed it walking back to her seat to pause the TV when

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK.
There it was again?

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK.
A second time?

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK.
IM COMING! Vanessa howled!

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK.
Vanessas anger rose.

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK.
She got close.

KNOCK. KNOCK. KNOCK.
She SLAMMED OPEN THE DOOR!

nothing there...

Vanessa walked outside the rain pouring hard, she grabs her umbrella but as she opens it a gust of breeze carries it away!

Whatever she thought. As Vanessa walked out into the downpour her practically naked body becoming soaked as she walked around the house to try and find the source for the prankster who done picked the wrong day to ding dong ditch! But.. as much as she looked? No trace? Weird? The only thing she did find was her umbrella.. but sigh it was stuck in a tree over some thorn bushes..

Nothing she could.. so she went back inside her sock clad feet now soaked she took them off and went into the bedroom to replace them grabbing another handful of popcorn to stuff in her mouth before she did. Bending over upon the bed she lifted up one foot at a time as she stuffed them in her new socks much longer than before.

Vanessa found herself walking back into the living room as her jaw but dropped.. standing before her was a horror show of who knows what! As a dark wet and dripping figure with sharp eyes stood waiting..

Vanessa could only gulp in fear as a piece of popcorn fell out of her mouth this devilish creature walked out from the shadows as Vanessa had zero idea what could await her next! She wanted to run but her nerves were stiff! But what she would see she was not prepared for!

Vanessa dropped back in dread! A fear struck her soul! A thousand thoughts paced her mind at how this was possible all her questions leading her to the most outrageous of conclusions? Zombies? Aliens? Clones? Did my mental psyche finally just break from the guilt of it all?! She couldn't believe her eyes or ears as what was standing before her walked out of the shadows!

It.. was.. PATTY!.

Vanessa's face was pale with fear yet at the same time her heart fluttered and raced at the sight of her! She was standing there before her wearing nothing much but a bra that barely held her engorged chest in, some tight shorts, and dripping wet from the rain as it dripped off the top of her head to the tips of her bare toes as they dragged slowly through Vanessa's carpeting and closer to her.

Vanessa could barely mumble or even gulp to catch her breath the poor woman gasping out whatever she could say that came to mind...

How?.. why?..

Her mind racing as Patty got closer reaching out a hand to lift Vanessa off that fat bum of hers. Their hands touching. Feeling.. so real?

But. You.. can't be... real?

As Patty grabbed the scared lass dragging her face in for a deep embrace her lips sucking the salt off of Vanessa's popcorn juice covered lips as she puckered up for a wet and sloppy kiss.. their embrace strong as come chest to chest.

Real enough for you? Patty exclaimed.

Vanessa couldn't even believe what she felt and tasted yet she knew it was for sure a taste familiar to her before! She didn't know how or why? But this was leanbeefpatty! Flesh and all!

Mhm.. popcorn! With a hint of... strawberry Pop tart? Yum! Thanks for the midnight snack as Patty licked the salt and strawberry jam transferred to her lips.

Vanessa having a million questions yet to her surprise Patty had no real answers. Patty felt it too the tightness growing! The pressure and it's max following a loud BANG! as everything went black.. things were blurry.. everything.. a haze? As brief glimpses of visions pass her waking mind watching as what almost look like peach paint forming around her as it moved like jello before she knew it Patty was.. awake! In one piece?.. and crawling out of the back of a rain soaked dumpster..

She found herself roaming the streets practically nude until she found a donation bin near by, grabbed something to throw on before thinking about what to do next?

Well to her thought she didn't know much but she had questions too coming to the conclusion she hopped back to the motel pretending to have lost a key to gain access to what info she could.. and with that she gained the documents to Vanessas home of address.. having questions and needing answers as well she took what she needed, realizing the journey she'd be on and found herself making a long journey to her door.

Only to come to find out you know about as jack crap as I do lol.. Patty giggled.

But If you want my guess best guess I'd have to say that packet you spiked me with had more than one effect? Whatever your little magic has done to me has not only made me stronger but much more elastic and flexible!

As Vanessa watched as Pattys body twisted around like a pretzel bending back and forth in ways that shouldn't be humanly possible! It's as if she was watching a living rubber woman move about! It was astonishing and entrancing to witness! As Patty was showing everything off!

Not to mention the neat tricks I've picked up along the way! Patty then placing her thumb into her mouth as she bit a tear into it like a bag of Doritos or something as she blew into it! The air travelling down her arm and into her curvy body as Vanessa watched Patty's thighs expand before her eyes! Her butt growing with them as it fills out her figure as finally with a deep inhale and puff Patty's breasts grew like watermelons as her already taut top strained to hold on for dear life with the blimps that were growing within what looked like string covering her nipples until.

her top bursted into ribbons that floated to the floor..

That's better! Patty exclaimed! As her tits broke free and bounced about the the balloons they were. Vanessa remaining starstruck at the sight before her!

You have no idea just how tight that bra was! Patty exclaimed exhausted .

But now that I'm in your accommodating home I'm sure your don't mind me letting my new expanding girls breathe a big? She winked.

Speaking of tricks?..

I never did get to show you that trick so let me show it to you now! Patty examined!

The taste of delicious popcorn filled Patty's lungs with breath she puffed into Vanessa.

her body finally exploded! patty finding herself surrounded in a sea similar to Vanessa rubber bits and pieces falling around her mixing with the scraps that were Vanessa's clothes as Patty couldn't help but giggle and laugh as the room smelled like fresh popcorn and strawberries where she blew! She sat upon her blasted lover rolling around in what was left of her, her pants soaked through between the rainwater and cum dripping from her clit from the climax of it all! As she found herself grabbing a pair of Vanessa drawers for spares as she wasn't gonna need them anymore before heading out the door with some food essentials she was gonna need and whatever trace of her that was once there. Patty walking up on the grass her feet wet to the touch as she approaches a bush ironically on in which Vanessas umbrella decided to land. Patty picked it up as she headed off upon her way..

In the days to come multiple tales would be told in different ways in different parts of the world on Patty's side she eventually be found as she made her way home the news recapping that it was all but a miscommunication as she had gotten lost in a woods hiking exercise she lucky of which was able to survive until she was found days later! A truly heroic story of endurance that her and her followers would hear of for months to come as well as the ultimate bulk back up from the twig like shape she was in when they found her.. but on Vanessas side would be a missing mystery that would stump all a unsolved horror that would haunt for years to come. Few witnessed what went down that night..

A neighbor claimed that at 12:30 pm they saw her stepping outside for multiple times in the rain for the first time in weeks outside of some grub pick up deliveries as she was standing in the rain as if almost looking for someone?

Another few would claim that of a mystery woman was seen stepping out of her place of residence. Both of which mind you were caught on CCTV and neighborhood watch cams. Yet details were so blurry it's hard to tell what's what from the haunting photos

Some believed to be unsure if it wasn't just Vanessa due to the umbrella and she decided to run away?

Whatever may have went down is unclear exception she was never seen from again..

Patty watched as the local news talked about her former speratic lovers case as she chuckled. Yet Patty couldn't help but wonder? Wonder if maybe Vanessa is still floating around and about there somewhere as let's face it this miracle powder was able to bring her back from pieces of ribbons? What could second hand contact with a rubber woman's kiss do? Coul it be enough to spark one back from the brink of oblivion? Patty shrugged.. well if she is around and about out there somewhere I hope she's having the hell of a time with her new flexible inflatable life. But serves her right because only one who fattens up these patties is me. Should have been careful who she blew before it blew back her too!

Fin...

(Or is it?)
