This message has been traveling around the world since 1997. It has been sent to people in at least 24 different countries.

A woman named Tiffany in Ohio got sent this letter at her office and then mailed it to 10 friends. Within 24 hours, she won a lifetime supply of Pop Tarts and a baby raccoon followed her home right after she got promoted. The married man she lusted after suddenly got a divorce and asked her out THE VERY NEXT DAY. A man named Greg in Texas threw it away, and within a week, his garage door started opening by itself at 7:03PM every day. His AOL screenname also mysteriously changed to TexBoi666 and no one knew why. He also stepped in gum every day for a month.

This is a FRIENDSHIP CHAIN LETTER. Send this to 7 people within 1 week. If you do, you could be next in line to experience an unbelievable miracle. IT REALLY WORKS! Do not ignore this letter or something really bad is going to happen. Do NOT be the person to break this chain.

THE CHOICE IS YOURS
