- Alex Jones' current Jewish wife Erika Wulff-Jones was mentioned by name in a 2002 article on the Voice of America News website in connection with her foreign travels for a college study abroad program sponsored by the University of Washington in Seattle. Voice of America is a C.I.A. controlled media corporation funded by the United States government which disseminates pro-America propaganda throughout the foreign world. This direct mention of Erika Wulff-Jones in a Voice of America publication indicates that Erika Wulff-Jones is a C.I.A. agent.

The students say they all had to make the point again and again that because of the size of the United States and the diversity of its population, it is difficult to lump all Americans into one identity or culture. In fact, 22-year-old blonde musician Erika Wulff says, one of the things that Americans do share is the freedom to express and celebrate their individuality. “I flew directly from Istanbul to New York, and I’m walking down Broadway and there’s a guy dressed up as a peacock going down the street on roller-skates,” she said. “And I’m like, ‘God, I love this country.’ And that’s something I really missed, and also that is a part of my life.”

REPORT TO CONGRESS ON THE ACTIVITIES AND OPERATIONS OF THE PUBLIC INTEGRITY SECTION FOR 1993

United States v. Nichols, District of Columbia

On October 6, 1993, Edmund L. Nichols, the former Minister-Counselor for Agricultural Affairs to United States Missions to the European Communities (USEC) and Spain pled guilty to having violated federal financial conflicts of interest law when he authorized payments to his wife, through a fictitious catering firm, for providing official entertainment services. Nichols, as a career Senior Foreign Service Officer employed by the United States Department of Agriculture's Foreign Agriculture Service (FAS), was assigned to the USEC in Brussels, Belgium, during 1990-91 and to the United States Embassy in Madrid, Spain, from 1991 until September 1993.

Nichols admitted approving payment of 12 invoices, totalling $4,393, from a purported catering firm called The Party Planner, knowing that there was no such firm and that the catering services had been provided by his wife for official parties which he had hosted. Regulations prohibit spouses from being compensated for personal entertainment services. As part of his plea agreement, Nichols submitted to involuntary retirement from the FAS, and repaid $1,849 in FAS funds which he had obtained through other false claims unrelated to the fraudulent catering invoices.

On December 13, 1993, Nichols was sentenced to one year of probation, a $2,500 fine, and 200 hours of community service.

Edmund L. Nichols, 78, is a native of Throckmorton, Texas, is a 1953 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene and of UT Austin where he received a master's degree in 1957. He was named an H-SU Distinguished Alumnus in 2000 and also of Throckmorton High School in 2006 for accomplishments during his long career in public service that began in the mid-1950's. Mr. Nichols was for a number of years Assistant Texas Commissioner of Agriculture for governmental affairs and administration. He was instrumental in launching the Texas Agricultural Products (TAP) export marketing program and traveled to Japan and Europe to open markets for such high quality Texas products as Ruby Red grapefruit and beef. He led TAP delegations to other states, hosting the first "Taste of Texas" events to promote high value foods produced and manufactured in Texas.

In 1977, Mr. Nichols was appointed Assistant Deputy Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington. In that Federal post he traveled widely, including a 1978 trip to China preparatory to normalization of U.S.-China trade relations. That same year, Mr. Nichols joined the USDA Foreign Agricultural Service where he served on the President's Export Policy Task Force and was named as a charter member of the U.S. Senior Executive Service. He worked with Texas Congressman Bob Poage, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, to pass the U.S. Agricultural Trade Act of 1978, an act highly important to Texas and farm product exporting states. That act also improved diplomatic status of U.S. agricultural officials abroad and gave the U.S. Department of Agriculture an important voice in international trade policy representation. Also in 1978, he represented U.S. agriculture in the first trade mission to China, well before full normalization of U.S.-Chinese trade relations.

In 1979, Mr. Nichols was appointed U.S. Agricultural Counselor to Italy, assigned to the American Embassy in Rome, and was commissioned by President Reagan to the rank of Minister-Counselor in the U.S. Senior Foreign Service. He then served as Agricultural Counselor to Denmark and Norway and twice as Agricultural Counselor to Spain. In 1982, Mr.

Nichols was decorated by the President of Italy as Commendatore of the Italian Republic for his role in advancing U.S.-Italian trade relations. As an example, in exchange for allowing certain unique Italian products into the U.S., Nichols persuaded the Italian Minister of Agriculture to hold the line on tariffs that, if raised, would have cost U.S. farmers millions of dollars in farm exports to Europe.

From 1989 to 1992 Nichols was Agricultural Minister-Counselor to the U.S. Mission to the European Communities in Brussels. During his years in Europe, Mr. Nichols also served as chairman of the NATO Food and Agriculture Planning Committee, an official group whose mission was to plan for food security for Europe and America in the event of war. He has language skills in Italian, French and Spanish. He retired from government service in late 1993. Mr. Nichols was married in 1964 to Sandra Heiligman of Overton, Texas. Their three adult children, Dr. Jill E. Nichols, James E. Nichols and Kelly Nichols Jones, were educated in high schools in Europe and U.S. colleges, universities and advanced professional schools. All the family, including six grandchildren ranging in ages from 2 to 15, live in Austin where Edmund and Sandy retired in 1994 following their Senior Foreign Service years. Ed retains his interest in and occasionally speaks on U.S. agricultural trade policy. Ed and Sandy, a CPA, are also active in UT LAMP, a continuing education program of UT Austin.

John served with the US Navy as an officer aboard ship and with Underwater Demolition and SEAL Teams. He also served over twenty years as a special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) with the white-collar crime division, counterintelligence division and Joint Terrorist Task Force. The majority of his career was spent at the Manhattan field office in New York. He served with the Infrastructure Protection Squad during his last three years. This assignment required frequent contact with security directors of government agencies and corporations for the purpose of urging them to improve the security of their organizations in anticipation of possible terrorist attack. His areas of expertise are counterintelligence, counterterrorism, infrastructure protection, investigations, training, operations, and risk management. He is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and holds a Masters Degree in Public Administration, and a Masters of Science in Protection Management. After retiring from the FBI, John worked as a senior security consultant and specialized in risk management. John is qualified as a Certified Protection Professional (CPP) with the American Society of Industrial Security. He is also member of the advisory board for the International Association of Counterterrorism Professionals (IACSP).

telephone caller: "I have a question for you, Alex."

Alex Jones: "Yes."

telephone caller: “Who’s Mallory Mahoney [sic]?”

telephone caller: “Wasn’t she formerly with Stratford [sic]?”

Alex Jones: “You know, you guys are mentally ill, and I appreciate your call. You know, whenever, uh, we hired six graphics people for the magazine and for working in here. And the University of Texas is here in Austin. Stratfor is like um, uh private intelligence gathering firm that, in my opinion, puts out propaganda. It is like a feedback loop to like, agree with the Pentagon so they can say, ‘Look, this private group said it.’ And somebody worked there for a month and a half [sic] as a unpaid intern and helped write a paper on China. And, and, and, what am I gonna do, if somebody was ever in the military or if somebody ever, in, in, in, coll ... You know how many people? You know about a third of the UT journalism people that, uh, we bring in here for interviews – cause we hired a couple from UT, actually three of ’em are from UT – did you know about half of ’em or more had an internship there? There’s not many places to get a media internship. The Austin American Statesman. The Austin Chronicle. This is for print. The Houston, uh, or the Texas Observer or whatever it’s called, and that’s small. And then Stratfor, because it’s mainly writing thousands of things a day. That is mental illness, you see. We’re not worried about the New World Order. We’re not worried about everything else. Listen, people say I work for the government, okay? I wouldn’t get up here and say, ‘Don’t take the vaccines, the governments pushing that.’ I wouldn’t get up here and say, ‘Criminal elements of our government were involved in 9/11.’ Because they were. Or that they’re running Al-Qaeda in Libya and Syria. I mean, just use your brain. You know what, if I work for the government, then I’m the worst government agent the planet’s ever seen. Total mental illness. And, people always say, ‘You need to answer this,’ or ‘You need to answer that.’ And no matter how many times I answer something, I will still be asked the same mentally ill question over and over again. People are looking ... See, what’s happened is the public has lost faith in the mainstream media and the government, which overall’s a healthy thing – the Founding Fathers stated that, history shows that. But they had judgment. It doesn’t mean that then everything is fake. It doesn’t mean that I’m, I’m Bill Hicks. Or that I’m, I’m really an actor, and the professor in Florida who says that Sandy Hook may have been staged with crisis actors – which they really have – that I’m him. I mean, mental illness. Mental illness. But I understand that a society in crisis, you know, just doesn’t believe anything anymore. Mental illness.”

The Global Intelligence Files

<https://wikileaks.org/the-gifiles.html>

LONDON — Today, Monday 27 February, WikiLeaks began publishing The Global Intelligence Files – more than five million emails from the Texas-headquartered “global intelligence” company Stratfor. The emails date from between July 2004 and late December 2011. They reveal the inner workings of a company that fronts as an intelligence publisher, but provides confidential intelligence services to large corporations, such as Bhopal’s Dow Chemical Co., Lockheed Martin, Northrop Grumman, Raytheon and government agencies, including the US Department of Homeland Security, the US Marines and the US Defense Intelligence Agency. The emails show Stratfor’s web of informers, pay-off structure, payment-laundering techniques and psychological methods,

The emails also expose the revolving door that operates in private intelligence companies in the United States. Government and diplomatic sources from around the world give Stratfor advance knowledge of global politics and events in exchange for money. The Global Intelligence Files exposes how Stratfor has recruited a global network of informants who are paid via Swiss banks accounts and pre-paid credit cards. Stratfor has a mix of covert and overt informants, which includes government employees, embassy staff and journalists around the world.

The material shows how a private intelligence agency works, and how they target individuals for their corporate and government clients.

The Stratfor emails reveal a company that cultivates close ties with US government agencies and employs former US government staff. It is preparing the 3-year Forecast for the Commandant of the US Marine Corps, and it trains US marines and “other government intelligence agencies” in “becoming government Stratfors”. Stratfor’s Vice-President for Intelligence, Fred Burton, was formerly a special agent with the US State Department’s Diplomatic Security Service and was their Deputy Chief of the counterterrorism division. Despite the governmental ties, Stratfor and similar companies operate in complete secrecy with no political oversight or accountability. Stratfor claims that it operates “without ideology, agenda or national bias”, yet the emails reveal private intelligence staff who align themselves closely with US government policies and channel tips to the Mossad – including through an information mule in the Israeli newspaper Haaretz, Yossi Melman, who conspired with Guardian journalist David Leigh to secretly, and in violation of WikiLeaks’ contract with the Guardian, move WikiLeaks US diplomatic cables to Israel.

- Alex Jones said during the Opie & Anthony radio show on April 17, 2013 that there are many C.I.A. operatives in his extended family.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bBMXmjVr954>

“Let me tell you about a story. I grew up in Dallas, Texas with my family. Let me just tell you something. I grew up in Dallas, Texas with my family doing things like, uh, helping take in East German defectors. Okay. Whenever I go to a family reunion, half the people in the room are former or retired C.I.A. And do you know what they tell me? They tell me I’m dead on, a hundred percent absolutely right.”

- Alex Jones said during his radio show on June 10, 2014 that his father and other family members worked for the C.I.A. during the 1980’s.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Azp7s4mEdGc>

“Yeah, there’s all sorts of weird experiments going on and just stuff that’s off the chart. And, and, and it’s industrial level. I’m not bragging when I say that when, in the 80’s – because late 80’s – my mom and dad had multiple discussions – and my dad would say, ‘Let’s talk about it privately,’ and stuff like that, with my mom, so I never even heard all of it, and he won’t talk about it today – where the C.I.A. tried to hire him – because I had some family that, what, did stuff for the C.I.A. – to be inducted in Maryland into literal, below ground bases for a four-year secret tour. And they were hiring other top dentists that were pioneering implants. My dad pioneered implants and would, you know, taught it at, at, at medical school and all that, and it was literally, they just said, ‘It’s cybernetics; it’s highly advanced,’ and he was, and, and, and it was, and it was, four hundred thousand dollars a year – way more money than he was making then, and he owned dental offices. And he said, ‘No.’ Because my dad did, did work, at the medical school. He, he was, he was someone who would do medical procedures on high level C.I.A. people. They would come into him and then, they would not allow deadening, they would have people there watching while he did procedures on people, just because they can’t be put under – that was back during the Cold War. And, and so my dad did do that. He’ll probably get mad I’m even telling this. But, the whole point is, is that, what that guy was talking about, I mean, it’s reportedly really bad what’s going on now. I mean, you name it, island of doctor Moreaux level stuff, ladies and gentleman. And, it, it, it’s just, it’s just, from what I’ve been told by high level people – not my dad, he was just, went and interviewed, and was told about it and, um – uh, it’s just, it’s, it’s just, it’s just, we’re not in Kansas is what I’m trying to tell people.”

- Alex Jones said during a UFC internet radio show with Eddie Bravo, Aubrey Marcus, and Shane Steiner on December 19, 2015 that his uncle William ‘Biff’ Hamman was a U.S. Army Special Operations commander in Guatemala during the 1980’s and that he (Alex Jones) has many family members who are U.S. Army Special Operations operators.

<https://files.catbox.moe/nv9p17.mp3>

Eddie Bravo: “But, how, how did you get into, uh – do you remember, your, your first m – memories of conspiracy theories? What got you into it? Do you remember? For me it was, uh –“

Alex Jones: “I remember my, uh – I remember Buckley, whose dad, uh, passed away, my uncle, my mom’s brother. He was like a uh, Army commander in uh, in Guatemala. And he was kinda like the, kinda like, like the Oliver North of the Army.”

Eddie Bravo: “Wait, wh – who was that? Your, your, your mother’s, brother?”

Alex Jones: "Brother. Yeah, yeah."

Eddie Bravo: "Your uncle."

Alex Jones: "Yeah, yeah. And then, he was in – uh, he just told us a buncha wild stuff, basically. So I grew up hearin' about that, and then some other, people in the family. I mean, if, T – Tim Kennedy I think could tell us a lot of stuff – 'cause that's actually who they use in clandestine stuff – is like Army Special Forces people. They always have. And so that's actually who – it's not James Bond out killing people – it's – Army Special Forces. In – in – yeah, exactly. It's – it's – it's Kennedy. Hey, we learned today he's a listener – can ya believe that. Anyways, yeah. So – uh – I mean I kinda grew up just hearin' about that stuff, 'cause I had a buncha family in the Army – Special Operations – and so I – kinda heard that. Here you go, Steiner."

- Alex Jones said during his radio show on February 17, 2016 that he cooperates and works with "branches" of various U.S. military intelligence agencies.

<https://youtu.be/jos8lYSmpLk?t=6893>

<https://youtu.be/jos8lYSmpLk?t=8074>

"But whenever I've been around recently retired generals, or former Special Forces colonels, or current, uh, Delta Force people, you name it. Some of 'em have been here in studio. Others, you know, have, have been on the show. They'll actually ask me, 'Hey, really, what intelligence agency are you with? What class are you?' You know, 'Did you get sheep dipped out of high school?' Cause a lot of people get recruited out of high school in these agencies. And I'm like, no, I never been part of any agency, any group, nothing. Two years at community college. I was about to go to UT for RTF. They were teaching ten year old information. I went and did an access show. Got a local radio show. Got into radio sales. I'm, I'm nothing. Half the time it's unlistenable. It's that nobody else was organic and did this. And I'm just sick of, like, state, high level state people come over to my table, in downtown Austin, and ask me what agency I'm with. Police chiefs think I'm in some secret agency. Military people think I'm some secret guy. Uh, and all that. And I'm just an organic American and a Texan that has been defending the Bill of Rights and Constitution. And it's like people can't believe there'd be someone that could be successful. As if you've gotta be in some, like, you know, they hand out all these little intelligence agency names and all this stuff. It's like Pieczenik says, he's back in the old days of HUMINT when they were actually out there doing stuff. Now it's just endless agencies and titles and, you know, guys speaking in their arm things with, you know, glasses, pulling up, trying to intimidate me. I just laugh at 'em. Uh, I just, it's, it's like they've gone from being real men to pretending to be real men. And then the real men in the military and everywhere else see that they're a joke and it's just, it's just a disaster. But I don't mean to rant, sir. ... But, how, how do I respond to these other government people thinking I must be part of some branch of a government. And then at another level, I do have branches of different agencies actually trying to couple with what we're doing to resist the globalists. And I'm not working with some agency, you know, uh, in, in an official capacity. I don't sit there and get orders. It doesn't work like that. It's just, people that also wanna resist this. It's, it's, it's like V for Vendetta where everybody doesn't have to get orders. They all just show up at the same time. You get what I'm saying, sir?"

"I didn't get trained by guys in black sunglasses, okay? And, and I'm not saying there aren't some good people that have been trained like that, but you get put in a system and controlled and compartmentalized. I'm not compartmentalized. I have been a wild man since the day I was born. And I am organic and real, and that's why they try to constantly claim I'm a government agent or I'm the C.I.A. I wouldn't wanna be in the C.I.A. That, people that say that's so prestigious. You heard Larry Nichols, in the Army, workin' for those groups. He said he noticed that everybody was dyin' by thirty-five. They were killin' 'em. They were gettin rid of 'em. I saw that happen, folks, with my family. People go, 'Oh look, the proof he's in it!' No, no, no, I told you. I know it's bad. I'm not in it. See? So yeah, I, I guess that's one reason I'm not an idiot, is, because, I guess I come from stock in Texas on both sides of my family that, you know, the government knew would get the job done. But that wasn't our government. That was criminals. You understand that? That's the difference. So yeah, I guess I do come from the stuff that gets stuff done. But I'm not in those agencies. We'll be right back, folks, stay with us."

- Alex Jone said on the Coast 2 Coast AM radio show with George Noory on August 9, 2017 that he (Alex Jones) worked with U.S. Special Operations Command in a secret military psychological operation to assist Donald Trump in becoming President of the United States.

George Noory: "You, you, you know what, the public deserves to hear this, and – uh – and – uh – and to get it straight. Now how did you get Donald Trump on your show three times prior to the election? How did you pull that off?"

Alex Jones: "Alright. I never tell this on my own show, and this will probably end up being in news tomorrow, but you deserve it. I – uh – I know folks that are part of Delta Force. And I know people that are part of covert action – uh – in the Defense Department and the C.I.A. And, quite frankly, they've given me authorization to talk about this. I have never been in the C.I.A. I have never been part of covert operations. But uh – uh – separately – I – I – I've – I've had family – um – you know, I mean I've had family that got like seven silver stars and stuff like that, but it's all classified. Some of the highest decorated people in the country. I'm very proud of those people. They're a lot more manly than I am, and most of 'em are dead. But – um – people involved in regime changes – you name it. Uh – you know – right here in Texas, fightin' hard for the Republic. And I was basically contacted – uh – by groups – uh – inside Special Forces Operations in Florida, inside breakaway groups inside the Central Intelligence Agency – uh – and uh – groups – um – basically behind American industry. ... And, so they told me that they were advising Trump ... and that they understood from their demographics and their studies that we acutally had, conservatively, fifteen million people a week visiting Infowars.com, and tens of millions watching our videos, and that – uh – that they briefed the President – uh – or now – then – then candidate Trump, and that – uh – they wanted to attempt a counter coup. ... And so I – I'm just revealing to you here on air that I was recruited by – uh ... elements inside the shadow government. ... Uh – and our friends in Israel, you say people want to demonize Israel all day – it's because – because the real folks that are in Israel – the real people – uh – understand what it is to be persecuted and targeted – and – and – and – Israel – with Benjamin Netanyahu – they're trying to remove from office right now – ... uh – have – have come to America's aid ... and, uh – this is just – this i what you're seeing right now. ... So I'm – I'm just fightin' for America – I'm a hundred percent committed, and that's why they're comin' after me – and uh ..."

George Noory: "But this is what got Donald Trump to say, 'I gotta be on this guy's show'?"

Alex Jones: "Uh – I mean – Donald Trump was advised by the – the Special Forces Command out of Florida. They said ..."

George Noory: “To – to go on your program?”

Alex Jones: “Uh – he – he – I mean – that’s who actually – I mean let’s just say it – the enemy already knows all this. Let me just say it so everybody listening knows I’m tellin’ the truth. Special Operations Command in Florida. The Delta Force, Army black ops – it’s – Army’s the oldest thing in America – it’s before the Constitution – anything. They – they said – they said, ‘Sir, you need to go with Alex Jones – uh – and you need to rally the troops.’ And – uh – and – and – and – and – they briefed him – they showed him the documents – and they said, ‘We need you to run.’ And this was a year before he came on with me. ... And – uh – you know – the Delta Force – uh – basically asked Trump – uh – Delta Force – you know – founded by General Boykin and Schoomaker and – uh – people like Steve Pieczenik – Dr. Steve Pieczenik of psychological operations with C.I.A. – uh – they – they – they – they – basically delivered the message to Trump with all the dossiers and all the proof of what was happening. And he just said, ‘You’re highly recommended, all I can say is we’re gonna be talkin’ a lot more.’ Because then – he was being briefed by top generals – and I’m not gonna say the name – on what we’re doin’. And it’s not that I’m even special. I’m willin’ to say this. I’m willin’ to do this. I – I wasn’t directed by anybody. I was just aware of the operations. I was studying it – as you know – you’re a Navy guy yourself. And – uh – we just did what we had to do. We did a counter coup against ‘em. ... Uh – most people are behind us. I’d say ninety percent of the C.I.A., Defense Intelligence, military, Special Ops – is behind us. Uh – and – uh – you know.”

George Noory: “Amazing story, Alex. You could – just get him to stop Tweeting as much as he does.”

Alex Jones: “[...] George, you’re gettin’ the absolute data dump right now. ... I mean – do you understand on your show right now I am tellin’ people – because I know it’s ten times bigger than mine – when it comes to actual HUMINT people on the ground – I am tellin’ you all this information. This is real. This is happening, okay. What I’m tellin’ you is what is going on, and what is happening. And Trump is literally with a breakaway group in our government [...]”

- Alex Jones said on his radio show on April 21-22, 2018 that he has frequent communications with a top ranking C.I.A. officer whom feeds him disinformation psyop stories which he (Alex Jones) then publishes on Infowars.com.

<https://aryanempires.blogspot.com/2018/05/alex-jones-exposed-top-level-cia.html>

“This is one of the most important transmissions I’ve ever put out. We can debate what’s goin’ on here. I’ll be back tomorrow 4-6 p.m. We’re willin’ to talk about it. But, I’ve been doin’ this for over a month. Months other people have said, ‘Please, put this out.’ And then – and then – and – and – and – just the... But I asked a couple of people a few days ago – I said, ‘Why me? I don’t think you’re tryin’ to set me up. You’ve given me great intel before. Why me?’ And they go, ‘Alex, everything’s polarized. And everything’s mainstream or it’s alternative, and no one believes anything. You’re able to punch through and get the warnings. The military listens. The intelligence agencies listen. Because they – they – you know – they – they – you know – they know you’re a real conduit – you’re tryin’ to be real – you’re tryin’ to tell the truth. This message has to go out because – it has to even go to the President, who’s aware of it. But it’s – it’s – we’ve gotta get the group brain working on this. We’ve got to get everyone talking about this, to understand that Trump’s tryin’ to bring in real peace, and real prosperity – and there’s evil forces that wanna stop it.’ And – it’s just total red alert right now. Total red alert. And – and

I – and I get what he did in Syria – even though uh – now I know the Russians were told it was to get the globalists off his back and all the rest of it. Uh – so – Trump – I know – is way, way – you know – out there from what I’m doin’. I’m not even sure what’s goin’ on right to this point. I just know – let me tell you somethin’. I talk to one of the top five people in the C.I.A. repeatedly. I mean – and – I – I’ve had other sources go, ‘Why aren’t you doin’ this? The – the – you know – the director of this is asking why you’re not covering it – you know.’ I mean – it’s – it’s to that point. And I’m like, ‘I don’t wanna be part of some psyop. But I know it’s not a psyop. This is the good guys. This is the good guys. And – and – against the bad guys.’”

“In the second hour today, we’re gonna get into a high level C.I.A. source – a month ago – that gave me really important information. And then other information I got from Pentagon sources, State Department sources, media sources, that dovetailed with that. And then I got contacted a few days ago, and I was asked, ‘Why aren’t you covering this?’ And I just said, ‘Look, I understand it’s not a leak, because you say you’re authorized to tell me this, and I know you are who you say you are.’ I mean we’re talkin’ right up at the top. One of the main directors. And of course, people in the government know who it is. So it’s not a secret, but I – I’m not gonna say, and I’ve been asked not to. But it’s – it’s kind of a pinch yourself moment like ‘Why am I being given this information?’”

- Alex Jones said on his radio show in July, 2018 that European political leaders consult with him on how to coordinate their intelligence agencies’ domestic media psychological operations.

https://youtu.be/LvVsuvr_MC4?t=100

“I’m on the phone – I’m not gonna brag – but I’m on the phone with European leaders, on a routine basis, talking about strategies for the future, and asking me to help quarterback stuff in Europe and I don’t even have the money, the energy, or the people. But that – I mean – I’ve got major leaders in Europe ready for Infowars to come in, and – and – and – and – and – run major resistance operations in the psyops divisions. And then I’ve gotta sit here to my fellow Americans – drunk on entertainment and all the rest of it – makin’ jokes about it.”

- Alex Jones said on his radio show in July, 2018 that he works directly with the C.I.A., including a covert C.I.A. operation which assisted Donald Trump in becoming President of the United States.

https://youtu.be/LvVsuvr_MC4?t=204

“No, Joe, I’m with the C.I.A. We’re not saying you’re with the C.I.A. And I wasn’t with the C.I.A. twenty-five years ago when I started out. I was with good elements of the C.I.A. when Donald Trump got elected to try to take the country back from the globalists. Because we’re under globalist control. The communist Chinese, the E.U., Hollywood, the big banks. They say they run this country and they broke its back. So, forget the C.I.A. It’s bigger than Coca-Cola. Talkin’ about the C.I.A. like it’s mysterious or cool is like talkin’ about the Post Office. The C.I.A. gets its talking points from me, Joe, and other Patriots. Not the other way around. I run the C.I.A., Joe.”

- Alex Jones said during his radio show on September 3, 2018 that he, his family, and Infowars are part of a stay-behind network created by the U.S. Army during the Cold War for the purpose of waging domestic resistance operations in the event of a future

Communist political or military takeover of the United States.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=byS9wufaCAk>

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/Ww7Cvt2dOV7J/>

“And I’ve been on the phone with the Pentagon. I’ve been on the phone with the Patriots. I’ve been in – cause, you know. Thank god the Army, in the 50’s, when they were tryin’ to make us lose – when the C.I.A. was tryin’ to make us lose to North Korea, and the Chinese – the Army got pissed then and created stay-behind networks in America. And see, I’m not one of those stay-behind networks. I just come from the same cloth as those people. And so I, seamlessly merge right into it. And yes, I’ll just tell you. We are a stay-behind network for America. It’s the big secret. That’s what we are, it’s why they’re after us. It’s true. The stay-behind networks support me. I’m from a stay-behind network. Most of my family was from stay-behind networks. That’s why they hate me. I’m an American. I’m a stay-behind network for America. I’m fighting the Chinese globalist takeover.”

“Alright, so why am I so hated by Soros the Nazi collaborator, by CNN, by Obama, by Hillary – they call me the dark heart. I’m not in any intelligence agency, I’m not in any part of that group. The John Birch Society – which I was never a member of – my dad gave speeches for ‘em ‘n stuff in high school – I mean, just because he was an anti-Communist. They, knew that we turned China over to Mao in ‘49, and killed John Birch who was an Army officer who tried to expose it – they tortured him to death. And so, when you say ‘stay-behind network,’ there were plans, under Operation Gladio – which I don’t defend what, N.A.T.O. did under that – where as the Soviets would take over Eastern Europe or try to take over Italy, you would leave stay-behind networks that looked like they were working in regular jobs ‘n media, in case the Soviets took over you would then resist, behind enemy lines. So it’s behind enemy lines, resistance fighters. Uh, carrying out, total resistance operations, using HUMINT, uh, and using covert action. And so, long before I read about covert action ‘n stuff, I heard about, how the Air Force aided the C.I.A., and basically stand downs – I’m not bashing the Air Force, they were new – in, the turnover, of, North Korea to China. And that’s when the Army really began to get suspicious – because the Army’s got its problems, and the Navy’s famously corrupt, y’know, with politics – but, the Army, still, George Washington, the whole nine yards, it’s, it’s still, Americana. So the Army the entire time has been fighting with the C.I.A. That’s been the ongoing, program. And, the C.I.A. was created by bluebloods, and globalists, ‘n – it isn’t all bad either – it’s, it’s a large consortium.”

- Alex Jones said during his radio show in 2019 that when he was a teenager he was recruited as a U.S. Department of Defense intelligence asset by U.S. Army colonels, U.S. Marine Corps generals, and U.S. Air Force generals.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OX6LOxyIe_o

“I remember, thirty years ago I was gettin’ politically involved. Ah, twenty-seven years ago. And all these old timers – and these guys were like, colonels in the Army, and Air Force generals, ‘n, I’d go to these meetings when I was like eighteen, ‘n, ‘n you’d like go in there ‘n there’d be some three star general in there with like twenty dudes in an IHOP, with a presentation on a wall about the, y’know, the plan of Satanists to get the kids, and you’re like, ‘These people are crazy.’ But then they knew everything else I already knew. So I was like, ah, but I still like, ‘n like, they’re like, ‘There’s a place called Bohemian Grove, and that’s just the outer levels of it, and it’s a Faustian ritual they do to put the cares of their Satanism off on a child. And it’s symbolic, but it’s an outer ritual for the lesser magic of the deeper ritual.’ And you’re sittin’ there, you know, with the former Marine Corps three star general, or a former, three star Air Force weapons head, or you know, and they're like tellin' you this stuff, and you're like, 'What?' And they're like, 'Listen, we' – they tried to recruit us – 'you're gonna have to get ready.' And, you know, I knew all this stuff. And then it just all turned out to be real. I remember being four years old with like, an FBI agent, and an Army colonel, and all these people at my dad's house. And they're all sittin' around the table talkin' about this and 'How do we beat it.' And just all these decades later – forty years later – it's all true. It's all true. I mean, I was so blessed to be born into people that knew what was happening.“

When I first got involved, twenty-seven years ago – I been on air about twenty-three years now, hard to believe – almost twenty-five actually – twenty-four, gosh. I wasn't like bragging, 'Oh, I was like going to meetings with, like, hea – former head of Air Force weapons development, multi-star Marine Corps generals.' When I first got on air, I'd have like, routinely, the former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Admiral Moorer on. And you, do you think, you think I'm saying all this – he would say all this on air. And, the point was, even though those guys – judge advocate generals, you name it – I had 'em all on, even though they were so hi, uh, high powered, they couldn't get it published anywhere. ...”

- Alex Jones said during his radio show in 2018 that his early career was built entirely through the efforts of the U.S. Department of Defense, specifically by: increasing his video documentary sales among U.S. military personnel, expanding his public name recognition via the mass media, and selectively feeding him privileged information to establish his credibility.

<https://youtu.be/wzeiGvpjWDC?t=2190>

“[...] different groups. I've had all these, y'know, Navy SEALs and Delta Force guys on – they don't tell you who they are when they're on the show – but, they go, 'No, I was like in, c – covert operations in, Southeast Asia,' or, 'I was in, y'know, uh, 'Europe,' or 'I was here or there,' 'n, y'know, 'I had the local C.I.A. head guy come by and go, 'Listen – Infowars.com, this guy knows what's goin' on – decompartmentalization – this is really what's goin' on.' And it wasn't that I was even that great of a guy. I was just willin' to talk about it. And they kinda made it a joke early on, so it got out big. And I also think there was some psyops by Patriots inside. We didn't have a very big audience. I was on a few radio stations here in Au – Texas 'n, things like 1996, '97 I made some films. And then they ordered the Marine Corps – Marine Corps wide – and then the Army – not to watch Alex Jones videos. Well suddenly, I was goin' from like, fifty orders a day, to five hundred a day. And it was all goin' to Marine Corps bases and Army bases. 'Cause – 'cause they'd – they'd have a colonel come in and go, 'We caught somebody lookin' at an Alex Jones video: America, Destroyed by Design. Who did it?' 'Well, I did it.' 'You got P.T. duty and you gotta run these laps, you little piece of crap. Nobody watches 'em.' And then the colonel would go, 'There's five copies over there. I don't want any copies made of that. Do you understand.' And, I remember hearin' that, and like Marines would show up – people I knew in the family were like, 'Yeah, I'm at Fort Sam Houston,' or, y'know, whatever that college is – not Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio – I'm thinkin' of east Texas, 'n, 'They got all these foreign military people – then all of a sudden they hear – they put up the PowerPoint goin', 'Now don't listen to Alex Jones, 'cause he says there's a plan to use the military to take over and take the guns, 'n, that's a conspiracy theory. And he says there's a plan to put brains [sic] in troop – troops' brains, but that'll never happen 'cause we're not gonna put up with it. But he's a liar.' And the weird, globalist Satanists only look at paper. See, they know how t – to deceive by invertin'. But they actually don't even know when people are being sarcastic. 'Cause they're on such power trips they believe, their – the orders are being followed. And then all it was was a thing to get the whole military warned, by people that knew better than I did. I was just a guy that was saying it. So they'd go, 'Give him more information.' So all these people gave me all this info. And they said, 'We're gonna use him to warn everybody. And then we destroy him in the media – that'll actually build him up.' So then I actually sit back and I go, 'Well now even, even what is this at this level?' But then I know it's the Globalists 'cause they now figured it out and they're panicking. I was not that special. I didn't even know that much. But the est – Patriot establishment, looks at pedigree, like dogs – what they've done before – and they said, 'This is the guy to give the information to. He's young. He's dumb. He's on the air at twenty-two. He's already broken through. Give him everything.' And so, I wasn't given money, or finance, or anything. I was just given this, and that, and this, and that – and all the intel. And then at key points when I was gonna be destroyed, they'd stop it from happening."

- Alex Jones said during his radio show in 2018 that he pays $10,000 per month to have his radio show broadcast on decommissioned Voice of America short wave radio transmitters. Voice of America is a C.I.A. controlled media corporation funded by the United States government which disseminates pro-America propaganda throughout the foreign world.
<https://youtu.be/fwepfQ3Rdyo?t=462>

"Folks ask why I, went with old Voice of America transmitters that got bought out by private groups when the U.S. stopped transmitting in hundreds of thousands of watts in short wave into, into Europe and Africa and everywhere. They said, 'There's no money in that. Why are you gonna pay ten thousand dollars a month to be on four or five different transmitters ten hours a day blasting all over the world?'"

- Alex Jones said during his radio show in 2018 that many of his employees are former U.S. military personnel, including many who were employed by U.S. Special Operations Forces.
<https://youtu.be/fwepfQ3Rdyo?t=484>

"You know, we've got a lot of folks work here at the office that were in the military. And some of them, um, were, you know, involved in, not just your standard Special Operations stuff, but, some of the most elite groups out there."

- Alex Jones said during his radio show that his sources of information are C.I.A. and U.S. military Special Operations personnel.
<https://youtu.be/-6Y0AD4xmUI?t=20>

"We got a lot of other big sources in the military. I mean I've got sources – I'm not gonna say from what units or groups – but, the most elite, of the most elite, highest level, we have it. I'm gonna leave it at that. CIA, DEVGRU, Delta Force, you name it, all of it, whole nine yards. 'Cause they're patriots."

- Alex Jones said during an interview with Tip Harris on the ExpediTIously podcast on September 26, 2019 that Jon Ronson, the person who paid and directed Alex Jones to infiltrate the Bohemian Grove, is an M.I.6. agent.
Infowars' Alex Jones | ExpediTIously Podcast

Tip Harris: “You think he [Jon Ronson] was potentially there [Bohemian Grove] as well while you were there?”

Alex Jones: “No, he was there!”

Tip Harris: “He was. Okay.”

Alex Jones: “He made me, sign an agreement, that he was gonna pay me to fly there, get me the contacts, get me in, with workers there. But really it was people involved in managing it, but not the members. It was Democrats, in the locals, tryin’ to set up the Republicans, hoping I would get dirt on fthem.”

Tip Harris: “So the Democrats are behind all this.”

Alex Jones: “Uh – or – let’s just – probably M.I.6. I mean – B – British int -“

Tip Harris: “Oh. Now M.I.6. – what’s the difference in M.I. – so M.I.6. is the British – that’s the British C.I.A.”

Alex Jones: “Yeah, yeah.”

Tip Harris: “Okay, cool. So, the British C.I.A., and the Re – and the De – and the Democrats. They were behind all this.”

Alex Jones: “That is – I know it was a setup. B – b – but – I mean – tell me what you think.”

Tip Harris: “Okay.”

Alex Jones: “So. So. And this is a guy that – y’know – wrote all those movies like ‘Men Who Stare at Goats’ and a whole buncha other stuff. But the point is, is that -“

Tip Harris: “Right. Okay.”

Alex Jones: “He’s a disinformation operative.”

- Alex Jones said in courtroom testimony during his first Sandy Hook defamation trial on August 2, 2022 that the Infowars website was created by a U.S. Air Force Intelligence officer named Vic Vreeland.

Alex Jones Explains How His Career and Infowars Got Started
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/victor-vreeland-57b77164/>

Attorney: “Tell us about Infowars. How did – uh – the name ‘Infowars’ come to be and how did that business start?”

Alex Jones: “Vic Vreeland, who was an Air Force veteran, who worked in Air Force Intelligence in Vietnam – he was the deputy fire chief in Austin, and he was a listener, and he’d done some talk radio interviews – he’d been on some syndicated shows ‘cause of magazine articles he’d written, and, he came to some of the events and he said, “Listen, you know, you’re really involved in information war – that’s – that – and – and – cause all information’s propaganda – uh – whether it's true or not. It's called 'information war' – and, so you otta try to get that URL. And he had a big old laptop – he said, "Look, it's available. Do you want Infowars.com?" And so Vic Vreeland got the site. He then, even in his spare time – 'cause he was still workin' with the fire department then – he – uh – built the basic site 'n stuff – then helped find me a – uh – volunteer or whatever at first – we didn't really have any money – to then start updatin' the site a little bit every day. And that was in 1997. So – so – so – 'In' – 'Infowars' came from an Air Force Intelligence term."

- Alex Jones' cousin Buckley Hamman said during an interview on Alex Jones' radio show on August 8, 2014 that he grew up in Guatemala City during the 1980's with his family in a secure U.S. Government / military compound and that his father's HAM radio equipment was confiscated by the Guatemalan government because it believed that his father was using the radio equipment for C.I.A. activities.
<https://files.catbox.moe/ktm3jx.mp3>

Alex Jones: "So we're gonna talk to Buckley Hamman, my cousin, who helped start Infowars 19 years ago... So your dad is down there [in Guatemala] as a school administrator and also has lots of property growing coffee and a lot of his buddies moved down there after Vietnam so there was a lot of government people there as well. And he might have flown some planes for some folks as another job because he was pilot. So you have this government district [...]"

Buckley Hamman: "I was born in 1974 in Guatemala City in the Aurora Hospital down there and I lived there until I was about 11 years old. We came back in 1986. ... The first story I'm going to tell is of some friends of my parents before I was even one year old. So one day the wife and the young boy [my friend] went down to the market and a bomb exploded nearby them and they were both severely injured. The little boy, Jonas, died. [...]"

Alex Jones: "Was that a loving communist bomb that killed him?"

Buckley Hamman: "Exactly, it was a loving communist bomb. Another story is that my mom and I were down town at one point, going to the bank if I remember correctly. We were in the bank and a car bomb blew up outside. All the plaster was coming off the walls, etc. [...]"
Another story that I have is that we used to drive together in a sort of an armored car to go to school and one time we were coming off of an exit of a highway [and] a bunch of people just shot the car in front of us. Our driver went off the road and went off roading and drove off and we just saw the aftermath of that. ... My mom reminded me today, when we were driving around she played a game where she would say, "Duck!", and we would all have to duck, you know, and she was really just preparing us for the next time there was a fuselage of bullets and guns."

Buckley Hamman: "The second time my brother [Peter Hamman] was kidnapped was for political reasons, oddly. ... He was kidnapped by the ... left-wing military insurgents and their plan is that they wanted to have some of their local cronies from prison that had been captured. ... We were familiar there with some of the people in government there in Guatemala and he was kidnapped and basically they were demanding that they release some prisoners they had for his release. And the story that goes is that they made the exchange and they followed the people back to where their safehouse was and then they attacked the safehouse. They busted into the safehouse and they found plans to basically attack the neighborhood where we lived, which was full of military people and lots of middle to upper class people. [Subsequently] there was a big assault that happened in my backyard. The insurgents tried to get in [over the walls] and the military rebuffed them. I mean, there were a lot of casualties. [...] I [also] remember there was a lot of fear in Guatemala regarding incriminations and different people who would attack other people.”

Alex Jones: “People would tattle to send the government after you? Those stories? They tried to claim your HAM radio stuff was terrorist or something?”

Buckley Hamman: “Yeah, my dad had been a HAM radio [enthusiast] since he was young. Exactly, he was one of the youngest people to ever get a HAM radio license and obviously he operated a HAM radio down there with it [rolls eyes]. [...] This was before the internet, before international phone lines even went down to third world countries like Guatemala, or were reliable. Uh, but yeah, that's true. People would say that he was working for the CIA. They would say he was working for the other side. It was just a very convoluted thing. And the government literally came and confiscated all of his equipment and made him shut down his HAM radio operation, you know. And he was really just an enthusiast.”

Worms and Trojans and Snorts-Oh My! Perspectives on Dell's 1-5-10 Security Discussion

<http://www.smb-gr.com/smb/worms-and-trojans-and-snorts-oh-my-perspectives-on-dells-1-5-10-security-discussion/>

Verna Grace Chao, director, Dell global security solutions, kicked off the session by asking us for our favorite security terms. The sheer magnitude of cyber-security issues and risks quickly bubbled up as people reeled off terms such as honeypot, snort, worms, hijack, Trojan, trampoline, phishing and ransomwear and more. I couldn't help but think how difficult it is for business decision-makers to understand what all these terms mean, let alone stay ahead of threats and safeguard corporate information.

Mr. Buffett's photo antics date back to at least 2005, when Verna Grayce Chao and her University of Chicago classmates posed with Mr. Buffett next to his car on their way to lunch. He pulled out his wallet and pretended to hand it to the group. "It was totally spontaneous," says Ms. Chao, now 35 years old and a director of marketing in Dell Inc.'s health-care and life-sciences business. She has the photo in an album at home. If she had another photo op with Mr. Buffett now, Ms Chao might choose the traditional "bunny-ears" shot. "It would be the quintessential Christmas card," she says.
