leadership
seasoned industry professionals

Sarath Samarasekera. BComm. MSc. CEO

Seasoned entrepreneur & business builder. Sarath has worked in multiple industries including high tech, e-commerce, manufacturing, hospitality, and live music. With several successful exits, and numerous corporates sales under his belt including the sale of Union Events in 2015 to Live Nation, Sarath drives the companies organizational, financial and growth strategy.

Emmanuel Patterson. B.A. President, Talent and Touring

Formerly of Live Nation Entertainment. A skilled negotiator and facilitator with a legendary career in the music business spanning over 35 years, with companies such as MCA Concerts, Universal Concerts, House of Blues and Live Nation. He has a proven track record of producing large scale events and multimillion dollar tours. Emmanuel leads our Talent Team to drive revenue.

Nhaelan McMillan. President of Business Development & Festivals

Nhaelan has over 25 years of music industry experience in touring, festival creation/producing and artist development.
He was the co-founder and president of The Union Ltd, one of North America's largest independent promoters. In 2016, Nhaelan and his business partner sold their festivals to Live Nation and joined their team as VP of Talent. Nhaelan's wealth of knowledge comes from of many successful enterprises, including a ticketing company (Prime Box Office sold to Ticketfly), a crew and security company (Backstage Support Services) and partnership in several clubs and live venues. Nhaelan is focused on driving new business opportunities through branded events, festivals and touring.

Timur Inceoglu. B.A. Senior Talent Buyer, Touring

Timur joins F7 after spending over a decade working in a myriad of roles in the entertainment space. After starting IndoorShoes Music in 2009 - he quickly transitioned to a Sr. Talent Buyer at MRG Live in 2015, where he spent the past six years developing his imprint on the music ecosystem in Canada. With over 2000 live events, coupled with hundreds of tours booked across Canada, he has also used his position and voice for various advocacy efforts for the touring industry.

Harrison Chu. B.A. Talent Buyer, Touring and Emerging Markets

Harrison left the world of banking to pursue his passion in music while working abroad in Asia. His experience includes booking international artists to Taiwan, and across the Pacific Rim, and most recently as a talent buyer and promoter for MRG Live in Toronto. Harrison leads F7's efforts to develop new emerging markets such as K-Pop, J-Rock, Mandarin music, Afrobeat and other new music from around the world.

Kelly Leschasin. B.A. Director of Marketing

As Director of Marketing, Kelly leads a team of copywriters, graphic designers, SEO and Web marketing specialists to ensure that each of F7's events are well attended and successful. Kelly has almost 20 years of experience in marketing, sales and advertising including music event marketing at Union Events and Live Nation Canada.

Millie Kung. Director of Ticketing Operations

Millie Kung leads all things ticketing at F7. With over 15 years of ticketing experience alongside her experience on both the promoter side of the business with Union Events and with venues across Canada - Millie is able to bridge the gap between the demanding technical requirements of ticketing and the human side of customer behaviour.
