

2051: A GUIDE TO A HAPPY LIFE.

[ DiCE WELCOMES YOU. ]

A fundamental part of being human is to desire COMMUNiTY. It is the core of how we function, and the building block of society. Even the world's recluses have someone to confide in.

However, what about those who have been abandoned? The Omelas children of the world who must be cast aside and suffer so society can continue to appear functional to the naked eye? Who will provide a home for them?

DiCEORG is a community made by outcasts, for outcasts. We come from all different walks of life, but all share one trait: we have been left behind by a broken system. There is no judgement or policing in us, we only have love and acceptance for every one of our members. Despite how cruel the world around us becomes, we will thrive as long as we all have each other.

Whether you have joined with full intention to make this place your new home, or just out of curiosity, this guide will walk you through how DiCEORG functions.

[iMPORTANT: DiCEORG is no longer affiliated with its former leader, Mortis. Both Mortis and DiCEORG have expressed wishes to no longer be associated with each other. DiCEORG is now under management by the former co-owner(s). We fully condemn Mortis' actions, and are extremely careful to not repeat her mistakes. If you are seeking a server that will encourage or enable harm like the original DiCEORG server did, please go elsewhere. ]

HOW TO JOIN:

Joining is easy! Usually, we have a discord server with a vanity link:
discord.gg/2051

However, on occasion, invites may be paused. Do not worry! You have not done anything wrong. We sometimes will pause or remove invites to prevent trolls, raids, or anyone seeking to harass our members from joining. Wait a few hours/days, and retry.

Although it is rare, there is a slight chance that DiCEORG may be down completely. This is usually due to mass false reports or raids that result in Discord deleting our server. If this happens, do not worry! We will usually be back on the same day!

These websites will have the new links if anything happens:

AFTER YOU JOIN:

Upon joining, you will be assigned the LiMBO role, and have access to the iMPORTANT category, and three text channels. Please read the entirety of the [ iMPORTANT ] category to prevent any misunderstandings.

You may be wondering why there are so little channels. Do not worry!
ThiS iS NOT THE ENTiRE SERVER!

We prioritize the safety of our members above all else. In order to protect current and new members of DiCEORG, we have adopted a verification system. We only verify those that have proven to us that they are dedicated to us and will follow the rules we have.

ABOUT THE RANKS:

You may have noticed that some members have special colored DiCE logos next to their name. You may have also noticed that some of them draw themselves in special uniforms. These changes are done to represent the rank they are in! Every rank has a different role icon color and uniform.

Here is a quick rundown:

LiMBO

- Technically not a rank.
- Used for all new, unverified members of DiCE. Cannot access the full server.
- To be let into DiCE, please make contributions! A guide is in the next section.

▼ MEMBER

- For all those verified in DiCE! You now have access to the full server. Thank you for proving yourself to be a trustworthy member of our family.
- Unless you are especially dedicated, you likely will have this role for the rest of your days here.

▼ CONTRiBUTOR

- A vanity role for those that have contributed a significant amount of their time to DiCE. Thank you!

▼ DEDiCATED

- From here on, all ranks are considered a "Higher-Up."
- Someone who has proven their dedication to DiCE more than the usual member. Usually reserved for those who have made large, significant contributions to DiCE that will be remembered for eternity.
- TIP: DEDiCATED Members THiNK BiG! Think of everything you can do, everything you can provide to make DiCEORG a better place to be. The sky's the limit.

▼ HELPER

- A role that is given only by the Leader(s) of DiCE.
- This role designates you as someone who can help DiCE. You are someone who guides other members, and encourages everyone to do what they can to make DiCEORG a better place.

▽ LEADER

- The highest possible rank. Rarely given, if ever.
- These people help make DiCE what it is today. The world rests on their shoulders. Make sure to thank them when you can ^_^

If you choose to make art of any higher-ups, make sure to depict them in the uniform that corresponds to their rank! (unless they have a ref of their custom uniform.)

You are also welcome to draw yourself in the MEMBER uniform regardless of rank, IF you clarify that you aren't a member yet.

HOW TO VERiFY:

DiCEORG is looking for those who are dedicated and loyal. We have experienced many betrayals, both as a group and individuals, so we now are extremely careful on who to let in. Members are verified based on their CONTRiBUTiONS to DiCEORG. Contributions prove to us that you are willing to part with something of value for us, whether that be your time or money, and that someone who is willing to give that up for us is someone we would like to keep around.

There is no "shortcut" contribution method to get in. Every contribution is reviewed by staff, and each member is individually evaluated on their dedication to DiCEORG. What got one person in may not work for someone else.

ART CONTRiBUTiONS:

- Fanart of the leaders or higher-ups
- Animations of DiCE, featuring you and/or higherups
- Making graphics for the DiCEORG website

FiNANCiAl CONTRiBUTiONS:

- Boosting the server
- Buying higher-ups Nitro
- Buying higher-ups gifts (Throne wishlist, Giftcards)
- Sending higher-ups money

PUBLiCiTY-BASED CONTRiBUTiONS:

- Inviting your friends to DiCE
- Posting about DiCE on your social media
- Graffiti about DiCE (Spray paint, Sticker Slaps, etc.)
  - THE DiCE LOGO, THE NUMBER 2051, AND DiCEORG ARE ALL ACCEPTABLE.)
- Making videos about, or getting others to make videos covering DiCE
