MAXWELL'S COURT APPEARANCE

11.19.21 Ghislaine Maxwell trial begins. She laughs, hugs, blows kisses during jury selection.

Mainstream media and law enforcement continue to suppress information about the case.

The outlets are reporting that she's attempting to obtain settlement documents with her and Epstein's victims

The document request comes two weeks before Maxwell's criminal trial which aims to shed light on the role she allegedly played in Epstein's sex-trafficking scheme. According to her accusers, she was the procurer of the victims.

The victims' fund awarded a total of $125 million to 135 victims as a voluntary alternative to lawsuits. According to the documents, the fund was made available to victims who provided documentation, were interviewed by Feldman, accepted a settlement, then waived the right to any civil case against the Epstein estate and related entities. This waiver included Maxwell.

A civil case is ongoing between Maxwell, the Epstein estate, and a victim in the criminal case, Annie Farmer, who wanted to dismiss her civil case when accepting an offer from the estate.

In a letter to the court in December, Maxwell's legal team asked to see how much money was offered to Farmer, stating that the amount Farmer received from the settlement fund would be important in establishing her credibility in the trial.

"The fact that [Farmer] seeks money from the Estate and from Ms. Maxwell, in the millions of dollars, at the same time she is a government witness in an upcoming criminal trial on the same topic is reason enough to suspect that her newly asserted memories of abuse — without corroboration — are not based on the truth or a desire for 'justice' so much as her desire for cash," Maxwell's attorney, Laura Menninger, wrote to the judge. "To be clear, Ms. Maxwell adamantly denies [Farmer's] allegations."

Why has James Alefantis never bothered to explain the bizarre parties he video records, then rebroadcasts? <https://pic8.co/sh/t7baF6.png>

Many know James Alefantis' family spoke out for convicted pedophile, Christopher Kloman, so that he could get a shorter sentence. Many don't know Kenn Starr also sent a letter asking for leniency for that same pedophile in the same case..

<http://archive.fo/zjjCN>

More than 90 people, including former ABC News anchor Charlie Gibson and Ken Starr, the special prosecutor who investigated the Whitewater matter during the Clinton presidency, wrote letters on Kloman's behalf.

"It is a case almost Dostoyevskian," Gibson wrote. "Chris has carried this guilt with him for years, and I can't imagine how the knowledge that it would some day come out, as it inevitably would, must have eaten at his soul."

Peter Newsham, Chief of Police for Washington D.C., who also publicly supports Comet Ping Pong owner, James Alefantis, allowed an 11-year-old girl to be charged with 'false report of rape' despite medical accounts of her sexual injuries and findings of multiple samples of semen on her underwear.

<https://archive.md/Sh6gh>

Genesis P. Orridge used a familiar excuse (the same as James Alefantis) when they were chased out of UK in the 1980's. Said the charges are ridiculous because "we have no basement" in the Psychik TV house.

But, in fact, had a studio they called.... "The Death Factory"

Your 'President' sexually assaults young girls on camera.

Numerous occasions, Joe Biden shows that he has no problem invading boundaries of children who he is a stranger to. He pinched a little girl's nipple on camera. It is bold. But not as bold as rubbing a little girl's hand on his crotch.

WTF

Solving the problem of organized pedophilia rings solves the problem of widespread government corruption. These people need trials and the harshest possible sentencing.

Imagine the scumbag astroturfers that think it's okay to help cover this stuff up. It is called obstruction of justice and they should be tried for their participation in RICO, as well.
