

@sm64isdabest response to allegations from @slaughter.splash

WARNING: THERE'S A LOT OF SUGGESTIVE, NOT SAFE FOR WORK AND CONTENT THAT MIGHT MAKE YOU UNCOMFORTABLE IN THIS DOCUMENT, BE WARNED.

Hello! Before I start with this document, I just want to say that there's a lot of stuff that the viewer (you) might consider me being wrong, and I'm totally fine with it, there were some things which I should have controlled it, but instead I didn't, anyway, make sure you grab some water and maybe some popcorn for this, because this document is BIG.

Here if you are wondering where I got these screenshots/proof from:

- My DM's with SlaughterSplash;
- TB2D Development Group Chat;
- TB2D private chat "#cuteslaughter-cutesm64-and-cutepoptart-colon3" made by @untitledpoptart.

1. "Forcing me to tell Poptort about his feelings to her":

Short answer: No.

It is true that I have talked quite a lot about UntitledPoptart with SlaughterSplash, but I never forced her to tell Poptart about my feelings to her, it was just one day that I was very shy and nervous to tell Poptart that I really like her, and after some minutes I just said to myself "fuck it, ill just let splash do whatever she wants".

i need to do something to distract

 SlaughterSplash its normal to think about someone who you really like

 SM64IsDaBest 10/09/2024 5:06 PM i know!!!!!!

(I mentioned her and said “shes 14” because Splash said and then deleted that I should masturbate to Poptart as a way to “distract myself”)

("going to her house after turning 20 or something" is a topic that both me and Poptart have been talking a lot about, because my mom and I have been talking about a lot about the possibility of visiting other countries in the future, and it would be cool if one day I get to go to Pop's country, it might not ever happen, but we like to imagine and talk about it sometimes :D)

(Here you can clearly see that I did not force her to tell about my emotions with Poptart to Poptart)

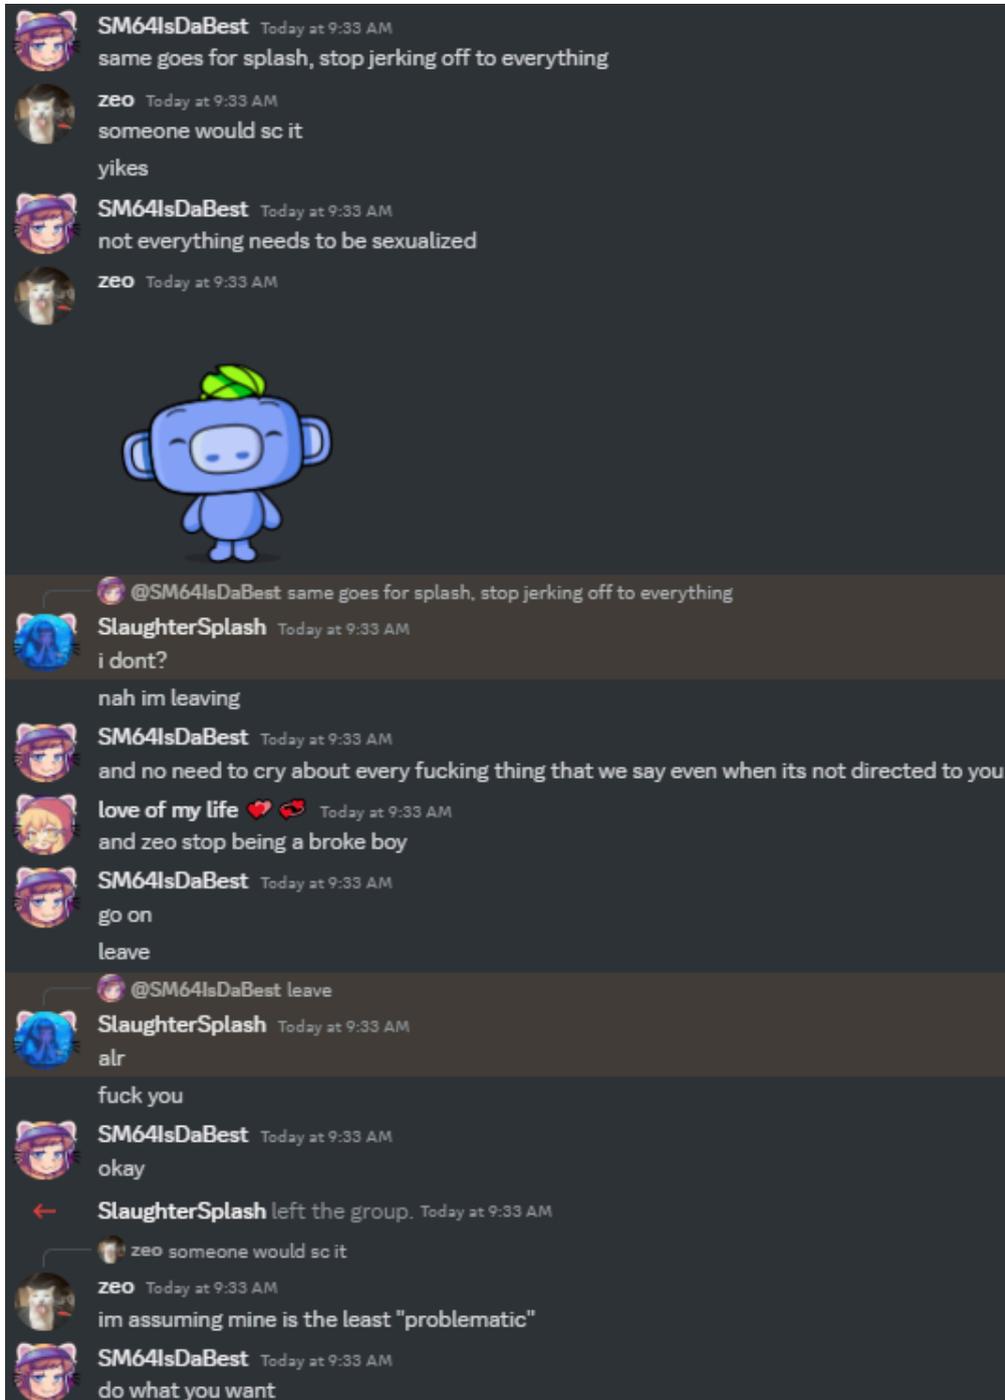

Not only that, but Splash never told me that she got uncomfortable with me talking about Poptart on her DM's and stuff, and I remember asking about it before, but she just replied with "nah" (no proof on this because it was on VC).

2. “Making up false allegations against me”:

Short answer: No.

I’ll be honest, I’m not really sure what she meant with this, but I guess that it’s the list of reasons on why I started to like her that I said on TB2D Development Group Chat.

(We were talking about everyone’s problems and stuff on the GC, that’s why I mentioned her name, and the “stop jerking off to everything” is because she’s a very horny person, more screenshots about this are present in this document, keep reading)

- SM64IsDaBest Today at 9:41 AM
1. keeps talking about sex
  2. sometimes what shes joking about doesnt feel like a joke
  3. has been a weirdo multiple times and even masturbated while i was on a vc with her (i didnt know about this, she only told me after she finished doing it)
  4. drama queen
  5. cant take jokes and advice
  6. thinks we all hate her when in reality we didnt but after she kept thinking that we do i started to actually hate her
  7. everytime i would flirt with pop she would say something like "oh, i wish i had a girlfriend" "i wish someone loved me"
  8. she would always see the negative side of my messages and think that every fucking thing that i said was supposed to make her sad and shit when in reality its just the poor choice of words that i use combined with english not being my main language and the way that i am as a individual
  9. creates problems that dont exist
  10. cant stop talking about her boyfriend, krimentionio
  11. muted people for absolutely no reason and i had to unmute them and say sorry
  12. defended me on things which the other person wasnt even talking bad to me and shit, and i had to explain to her that it was my problem and i should be the one to deal with it, not her
  13. leaked private messages before

(These allegations that I did are not false, the only issue is that they were mostly on VCs and stuff, but I got some screenshots related to some of the points here that could prove my point, not to mention that Poptart was present in some of these VCs, she witnessed most of it)

3. “Telling and paying me to make porn of him and someone else then making it seem like im the bad person”:

Short answer: No, but neither I nor Poptart cared that much at the time when she did that.

This all happened on a VC that happened during midnight and dawn of October 6th, Poptart was joking about if someone made Roblox porn of herself, and for some fucking reason Splash decided to make it without her consent, of course she asked permission for Poptart after she sent it, and Poptart said that she didn't care (keep in mind that it was very late for us and we were all very sleepy).

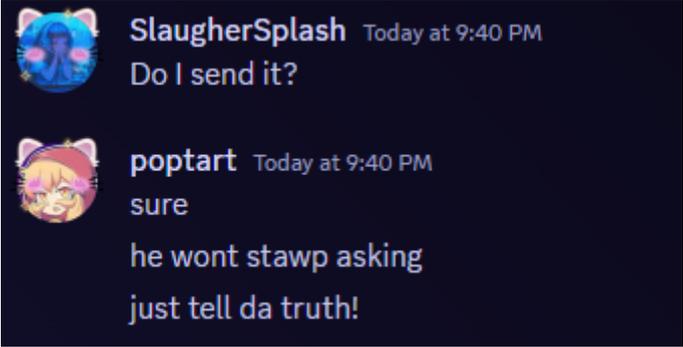

After knowing about this, I decided to confront Splash about it on DM's, and this is what I got:

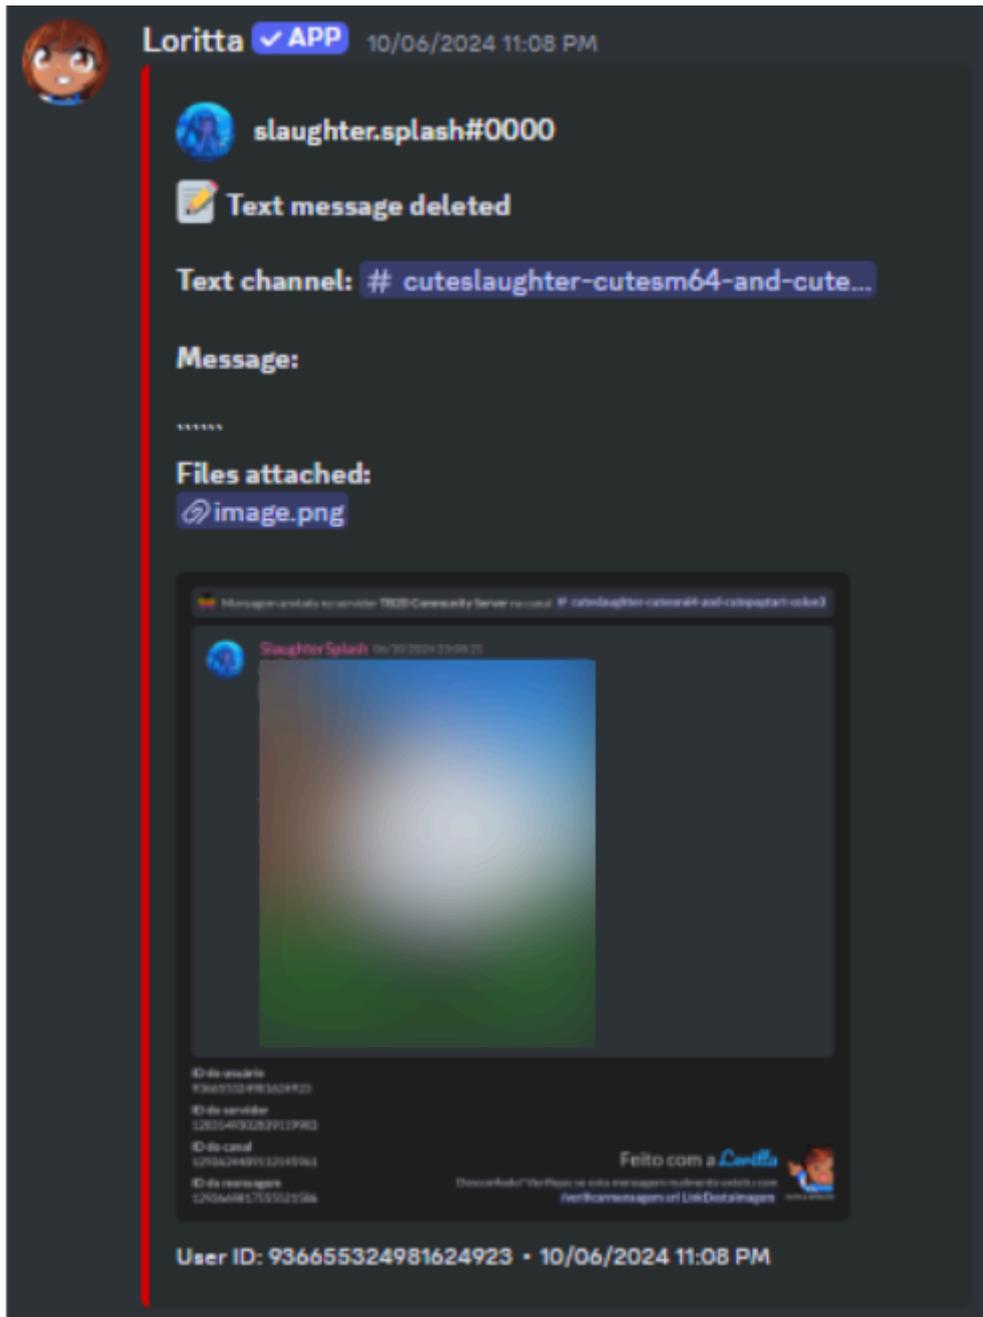

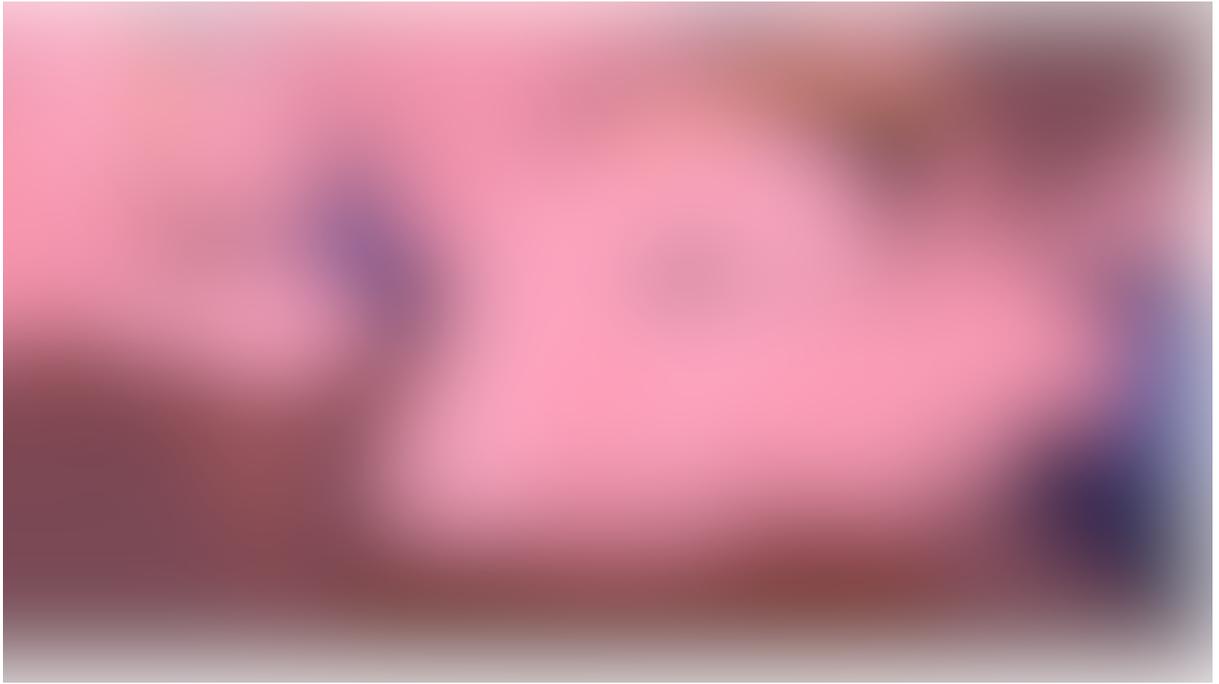

(Poptart DM's)

She kept avoiding the question while we were on VC, and then Poptart told this to her:

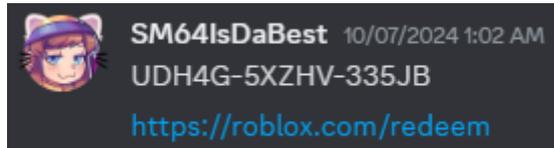

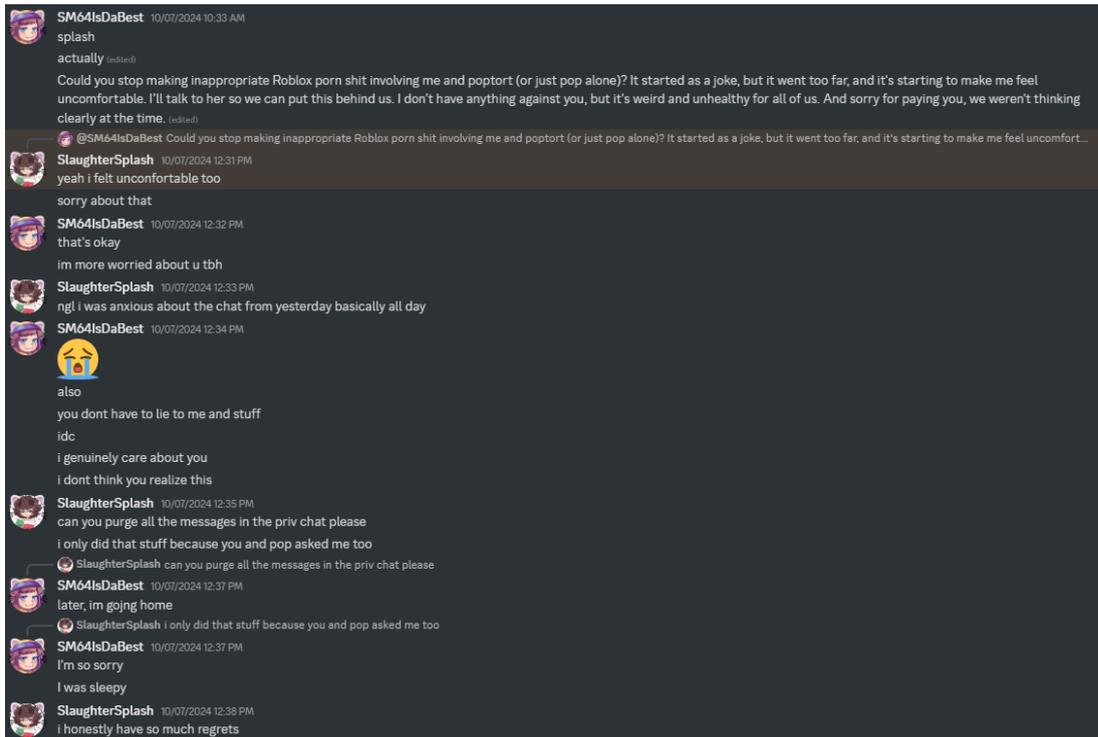

After I saw it, I started to laugh so hard and Poptart asked (as a joke too) for her to make it but with me (SM64) and her (Pop), and again Splash did it and didn't take it as a joke:

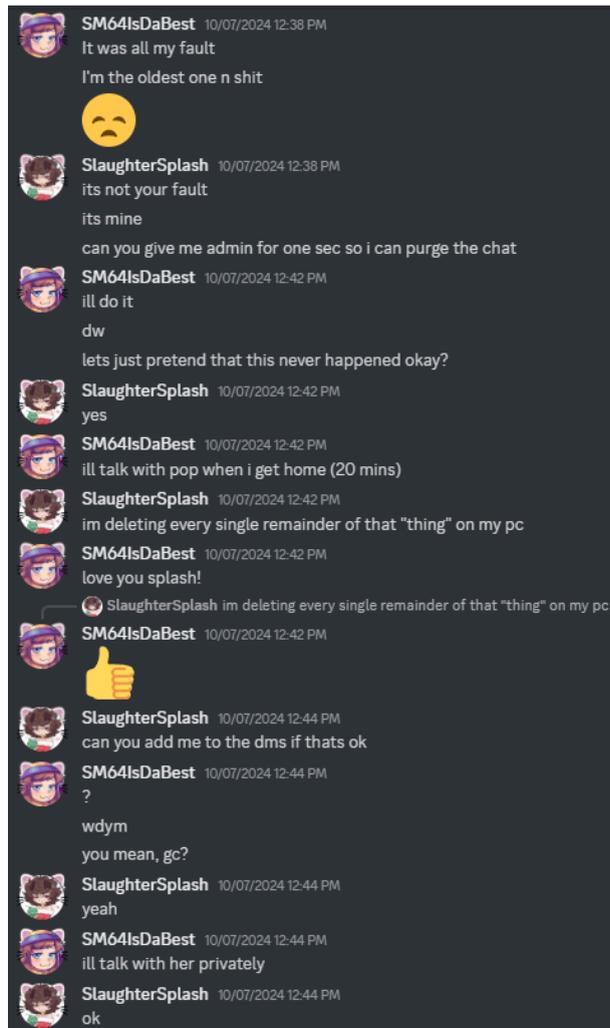

I gave some robux shortly after because Poptart felt bad for Splash and decided to give some robux as a way of “paying her for therapy” and I decided that to give it instead of Poptart giving it to her just to show that I’m a good boyfriend (😭):

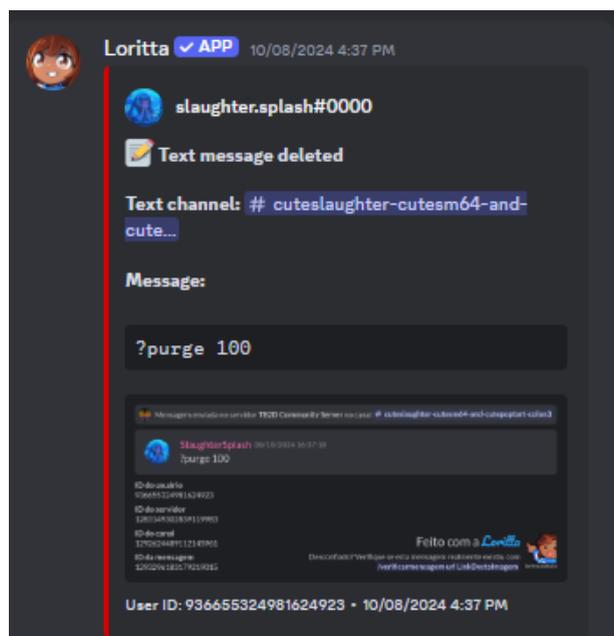

And then I went to sleep and woke up telling her that I'm sorry for everything that happened etc:

(You can see that I even acknowledged that I was also in the wrong here because I should have controlled the situation since I was the oldest in the VC when it all happened)

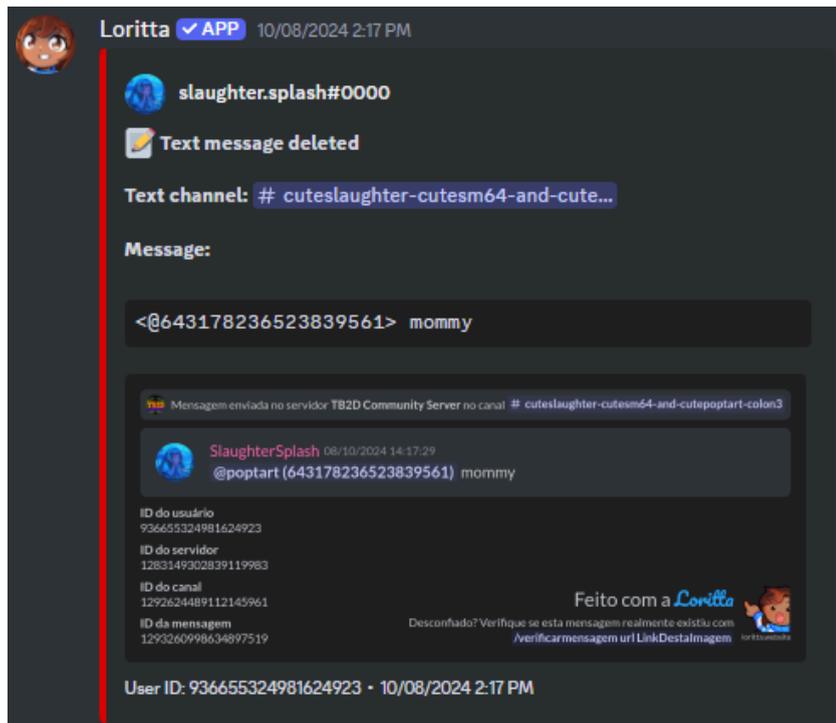

4. "Threatening to blackmail me":

Short answer: Yes and no at the same time (I had a very good reason to do it).

This all started after Splash started to act weird towards Poptart, and Poptart started to send me some screenshots of Splash calling her mommy and etc, I simply got mad and told Splash on a VC that if she keeps doing these things I'll leak about the whole Roblox porn thing to everyone.

(I left the VC and told her on DM's that I'm not liking it and stuff)

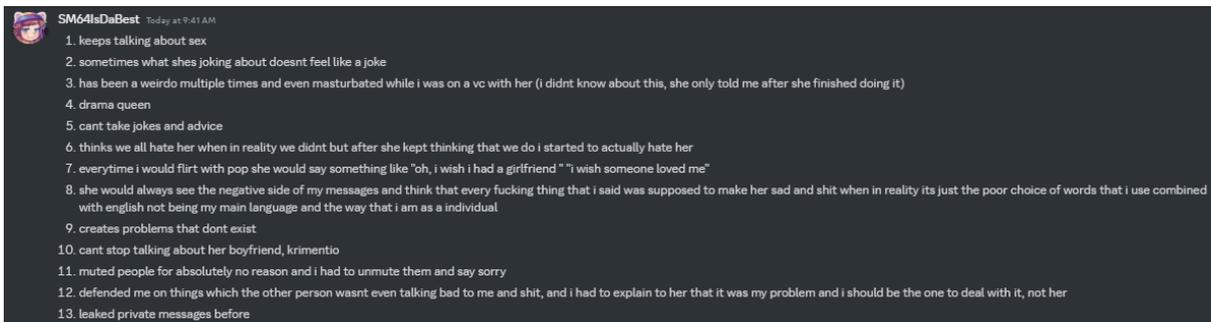

And yeah, I'm aware that blackmailing someone is something that you should not do, but in this case she was quite literally hitting on my girlfriend, and neither me nor Poptart was liking what she was doing.

5. "Talking shit behind peoples back"

Short answer: Only when someone's being an asshole, also she's a hypocrite.

Yeah, I'll be honest, when someone is being a fucking asshole I will of course talk bad about someone behind their back with others and stuff. Also, I really don't know what she meant about this if it was me talking bad about other people or me talking bad about her, but I have just been talking about her today when all this shit happened:

But, she also does the same but with Krimentionio (she has a big crush on krim bro, trust me):

6. "Making jokes that I did not feel comfortable about and told him to stop making (Saying me and krim are dating)":

Short answer: LOL?

Do I even need to say anything here?

Conclusion

SlaughterSplash is a liar, gooner, horny mf, jealous and a traitor. Me, Poptart and Splash did a promise before to never leak, talk or expose each other about ANYTHING that happens inside our friend group, because we knew that the things that we did were and still are very childish, yet she broke the promise and sent tons of allegations related to me without context/proof/screenshots.

Not only that, but she made me write this document instead of working on the 0.0.2 update of Too Bad 2 Die (dis is evil bro 🤔😭😭😭😭).

Extra out of context screenshots:

She sent tons of allegations of me without context, so why not I do the same but this time with screenshots (funny pics too) :3
