SEALED FOR YOUR PROTECTION:

WHY YOU SHOULD MARRY VIRGIN WOMEN ONLY

By

Anon.

The feminism and its consequences have been a disaster for the women of 21th century. My writing is not for strangers, but for those heart-strong men tired of the current state of western women and that needs answers to understand the idiocy behind of the feminism and its consequences on both men and women in this our society of 21th century totally convulsed. Consider my writing not as an essay but as a warning to my men brothers, young ladies, and finally to those modern women that were fooled by the feminism. In this essay we are going to explain why you should go for virgin women only, and about how modern women mind works, because understanding women it's like learning a second language because men and women are not equal, we are different, therefore what looks like attractive for men at the same time is totally the opposite for women, and vice versa.

You are in the supermarket: would you choose, buy and consume a bottle of aspirins with their broken seal from a shelf full of other sealed bottles of aspirins? (You will still paying exactly the same price that you will pay for one with their intact seal, and you have no idea how many people before you had access to the content of said bottle) No? right?

Now let's change the scenario: You are surfing on Ebay, would you choose, buy and use an used flashlight (one single owner according to the seller, last time he used it was a year ago and he washed up pretty well, so you will be the second man that puts their penis inside) from a web page where you can buy from thousands of other sellers totally new brand sealed flashlights? You will still paying exactly the same price that you will pay for one totally new sealed flashlight, but with this used flashlight you have literally no idea how many penises inside had and what kind of men belonged to said penises so you can't be sure about any Sexually transmitted diseases (STDs), so technically you can't be sure about the past of this flashlight. Only 100% sure thing is that you are not the first one.

Would you put your penis inside this second-hand flashlight or would you rather choose, buy and use a new brand sealed flashlight never used before?

If your answer is a big no now explain why you would not apply this same logic of used goods on a woman that can get pregnant and be the mother of your children. Please don't be the moron that pays the full price (or even over pay) for damaged/used goods, you are a king, you deserve a new brand sealed item, you deserve a virgin wife. Let's save the experience of used goods for the flea market only. Mother nature was the very first misogynistic to exist because it was she the one that give to all females an hymen when they did born but didn't give any kind of hymen to men. So just like happens with the guarantee seal in the analogy of the bottle of aspirins, the hymen in women has a reason to exist too: it's sealed for your protection.

If you still without understand this analogy of used goods, here another one that explains to you how modern women and modern society gaslight us and manipulate us about when a man feels the ick when the body count of a female is bigger than 3:

"You are an insecure man if you do not choose, buy and consume opened products and foods that you can find on a shelf full of the same product but that are new and sealed. Why you care so much about the past of that can of Coca-Cola? It is very toxic and insecure to think about the people who opened and drank from that can before you and you should not care. It is also a retrograde mentality to think that you should pay less for said can of coke: The value of that already opened can of coke has NOT decreased, and it has EXACTLY THE SAME VALUE AS THE OTHER SEALED CANS that are in that soda shelf at the supermarket. Actually, YOU SHOULD PAY MORE TO HAVE THE PRIVILEGE of drinking from this already experienced can, or are you an insecure customer and have NEVER bought anything BEFORE in your life (it's your 1st time lol) that you feel intimidated by an experienced product and you are just insecure and can't handle an experienced product and that's why you prefer the other boring, sealed and inexperienced cans that are on the market?"

Modern women and modern society wants that you be the sucker that picks, buy and consume this fucked up can of coke. Please don't be that sucker.

In this world there's only 3 types of women:

Virgin women, non-virgin females for pump and dump only, and ghost women.

1. Virgin women:

Women for serious relationships to marriage and start a family. Here a short list of features that shows women for marriage:

- She saves herself for the husband that God made for her.
- Had a father figure when she was a kid.
- Has a good relation with her dad and see him as a figure of authority.
- Perform acts of service toward men in general.
- She dress modest.
- You can notice an innocence and good hearth on her.
- Has feminine traits: cooks, traditional values, etc.

It really doesn't matter if she doesn't know how to cook or clean, that's something she will learn so don't be tricked by a no-virgin woman that claims she already knows how to do all these tasks that any woman should learn how to do because that's part of their feminine nature (just like is part of masculine nature fix and build stuff). Remember: you can fix everything on a virgin woman, but you will never fix the ripped hymen (and all the consequences that are attached to this too, like the emotional damage) on a non-virgin female.

2. Non-virgin females for pump and dump only:

Females for pump and dump only (no virgins that already threw away into the trash bin their value as woman literally for nothing). Females just for fun, not for a serious relationship, neither for marriage and much less for start a family. If she insist that she wants you give to her the title of "girlfriend" without matter your already were straight clear with her about not wanting anything serious, then dumped her. Don't be afraid of "lose access to sex". This kind of women are everywhere nowadays, so remove of your mind this mindset of "scarcity". She is not a virgin therefore you didn't lose anything of worth. Literally modern women that were fooled by the feminism.

Now you will say "But I am dating with this girl and I am the second guy that she has sex with, She can't be so damaged then". In order you be able to separate the wheat from the chaff here a brief list of the features of females for pump and dump only:

- She is not a virgin. -
- Constant need of male attention (good or bad attention so she will tend to pick fights with men)
- Bad relation with her dad or her dad was not present during her childhood.
- She has an awful masculine energy (have body count as a man, drink as a man, but of course she WILL NEVER take the accountability of a man, she only will take the benefits)
- She is not Submissive with anybody, she is the "alpha bitch".
- Jokes about body count as a coping mechanism: "yeah I have several bodies in my backyard"
- She dress like a prostitute: Shows a lot body.
- Zero accountability, she is always the victim.
- She wants a traditional man but she is not a traditional woman.
- Feminist (wants all the benefits but zero accountability).
- After hit the wall in her 30th birthday she suddenly "found" God.
- Literally look for Narcissistic trails in the DSM-5(The Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders). There's a very thin grey line between modern women and Narcissistic Personality Disorder.

Remember this when you be dealing with a no virgin female: she gave her virginity totally for free (the guy that deflowered didn't have to marry to her) but she will condition everything if you want a relation with her, following the idiotic female "reasoning" of "now I have experience (coded phrase for riding the cock carousel) therefore now I know what I want so now is time to put "standards" on any man that wants a relation with me". This kind of females will have delirious standards (six feet tall man, with a six inches penis, six pack on abdomen, make a six digits salary). For anybody such standards will make no sense, how is possible that these females dare to request all those things right after they threw away into the trash bin their value as woman for riding the cock carousel with a bunch of men and that no one of those men gave to her the wedding ring? The answer is simple: these females finally realized that they were fooled by feminism(rhetoric of feminism is that men and women are equal, therefore women can have body count too just like men) about what they have done with this value they born with, they perfectly know that such standards are delirious, so they are doing this as a coping mechanism because for women accountability and be rejected are the two biggest kryptonite of women because with such delirious standards these women can claim that 90% of male population simply don't fulfill their standards so with this this no virgin females are killing two birds with a single rock: (1) with such delirious standards she is gaslighting herself about she not being rejected for being trash but she is rejecting you first before you can even be able to rejected her first because you just don't fulfill their standards and (2) with such delirious standards she is not taking accountability of her bad life choices like rode the cock carousel and believe the lies of feminism(enjoy the best of both genders but without take the duties of any of them), so if she is single in her 30's she can claim that it's not her fault but because men simply don't fulfil their standards.

More sex a woman has= she is destroying her ability to make bonds with a man therefore she ruins her chances to land a long-time partner to marry and start a family, without mention all the emotional damage(baggage) that she will carry for the rest of her life and that she will discharge on any new man and sentimental partner that she will meet in the future.

You can't take one female from the pump and dump category to the marriage category because it's like taking out from the water a fish: you are going against their nature, they can't live outside of water therefore this will not work. Promiscuous females are severe damaged, and promiscuity is not a disease but a symptom of something more deep severe(see personality disorders like Borderline Personality Disorder and Narcissistic Personality Disorder) and you will never could change them/fix them because they don't want change or improve their lives in the first place and you must make peace with that and go for no damaged women instead otherwise you will be taking accountability for the bad choices that these damaged women made.

Promiscuous females are damaged females, literally damaged goods, so you must be very careful with this kind of females, and think wisely if you really want not just have casual sex with these damaged women but to interact even with them, because yeah, they are for pump and dump only, but remember that we live in a gynocentric society were both virgin women and not virgin females are privileged by the laws and the society so here the two principal reasons why you don't want be related with damaged female that are not virgin anymore:

1. You as a man you are guilty until proven that you are not-guilty so these damaged women if they wish it they can ruin your life without any consequence (legal or social) and you know it. If she want it she can false accuse you of rape and without the need of any evidence you will go to jail and you will stay there until the whole legal process ends and be proven that you are not guilty and the price of this last one will be monetary, social and laboral: it will cost you a lot money get a lawyer that not works for this rhetoric of this gynocentric society; without matter your innocence you will be a rapist for everybody no matter of what; again we live in a gynocentric society therefore the "cancel culture" and its consequences will follow you at your work zone.
2. You as man you are responsible of your seed (that's why exist the old say "you don't stick dick in crazy") so a baby doesn't come out from the blue. Letting aside the STD's and infidelity: do you really will risk to have a son with a damaged female? Just remember that a condom can break and there's no such thing as a 100% secure anticontraceptive method. Remember that we live in a gynocentric society so both virgin women and not virgin females are privileged by the laws and the society, so don't be shocked if this damaged woman hurts you at where most damage can cause in your life: if killing their son via abortion or keeping the child in order she can milk you the half of your income during the next 21 years until the child be an adult. Author's note: condoms sizes are based in the girth of your erect penis not in your length, so make sure to be using the correct condom size: A lose condom= condom will slip off from your penis and will stuck inside the woman. A too tight condom= condom will it break.

Those were the worst scenarios you will engage with damaged women. Remember: your manhood is not about how many women you can have sex with, but about how much accountability as a man you take in life. Only a fool would take accountability for stuff that he didn't break. If she is a damaged goods she is literally not your problem, just have your fun with her and move on then. That's why is called "pump and dump", not "pump and keep".

A non-traditional woman cannot request a traditional man. If a woman does not meet the traditional gender requirements (such as staying a virgin until her wedding night, being a homelike, not having tattoos or piercings, knowing how to cook, being feminine, etc) then she cannot request for a traditional man as a partner, because these types of women are literally invisible for traditional men, because a real man is not going to be attracted to a horribly masculinized modern woman, and even in the exceptional cases in which this happens the woman will continue to be unhappy, because deep down she perfectly knows that this man by "accepting" her with all "her defects" she knows that this man does not respect himself and is a low value man, therefore due to her feminine hypergamy she implicitly knows that she is not a high value woman because this man had to "settle for her" because this man could not aspire to something better. Don't give princess treatment to whores and don't give whore treatment to a princess.

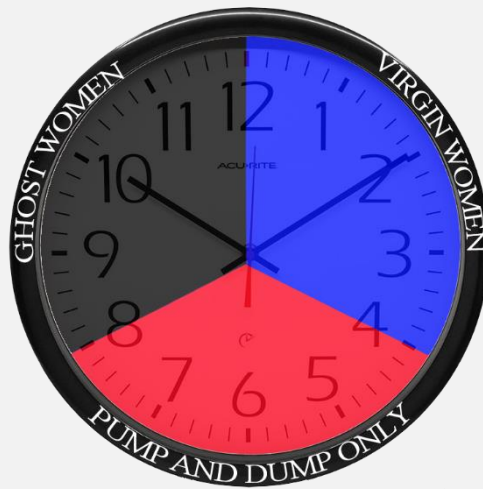

3. Ghost women:

This is a special category known as “Don’t stick your dick in crazy”. This category of females must be non-visible for you (just like a ghost), they are not for serious relationships, neither for marriage and much less to have the risk to have kids with so this kind of women are not even for pump and dump neither because the risk of she getting pregnant of your seed and you getting locked up with her with a son don’t worth it. It doesn’t matter if she is a virgin. These are females that can ruin your life or at the best of the cases make it miserable. I’m talking about legit mental ill women which mental disorders are listed in the yellow pages of the mental illnesses: DSM-5, The Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders. We are talking about women with Narcissistic Personality Disorder (NPD), Borderline Personality Disorder (BPD), Histrionic Personality Disorder (HPD), Antisocial Personality Disorder (ASPD), etc.

DO NOT STICK YOUR DICK IN CRAZY!

We strongly suggest you study about NPD and BPD in order you can identify and discard this kind of women from your life, because it’s very thin the grey line between “normal” modern women and women with Narcissistic Personality Disorder (NPD).

This category of females goes beyond toxic relationships, they legit can ruin your life, that’s why you shouldn’t even relate as friends with them, not even for pump and dump. You run a bigger risk to fall in a relationship with a mental ill woman if you were raised by a parent that have traits or the full Personality Disorder previously listed, because we as human beings we tend to go for whatever is familiar (we marry our parents), so you gravitating towards a partner with any of these mental illness or you staying in one sentimental relationship that shows traits of these personality disorders only suggest that you are not in love but under a case of emotional dependency due the learned helplessness, so if this is your case you must study and learn about your childhood traumas and about the real reason why you feel dragged towards these kind of mental ill women in order you can fix your attachment style and you can move on towards a normal relationship with a virgin no damaged woman. Remember this clock when you meet a potential partner so you can classify and discard women

Have you ever heard the allegory about how awesome is key that can open a lot locks and the how useless is a lock that opens with anything? Same happens with men and women, because:

For women sex is a choice and for men sex is a task, sometimes a mission.

That's why a man with high body count is seen like a hero, meanwhile at the same time a female with high body count no, but actually is seen as source of shame. This fact is reinforced when you heard women saying she is "going in celibacy" (code name for a pause of being a whore after rode the cock-carrousel), but have you ever heard a man saying the same? That's why women can have the privilege of go in "celibacy", because for women sex is a choice. A woman "going in celibacy" and believing she is a nun (or even a virgin again) for stop being a whore it's like a man bragging and saying "I can lift a bag of cement of 20kg without any problem. I'm the strongest man on the world", because for men such task is a piece of cake because men have more testosterone and muscles than women, therefore, for men lifting such weight IT'S A CHOICE, the same way FOR WOMEN SEX IS A CHOICE. This is one of the core reasons about why you must be an "extremist" when it's about separate virgin and non-virgin women, because you must stop to think and judging women like if you were judging men, because we are not equal. Stop thinking that for women get sex is almost so difficult like it's for men because it's not. Here a comparison: for an average female get laid it's easier than for a high value man, because said female just had to bring to the table herself, in the other hand the high value man had to spent the last decade building himself, had to develop its game, had to work on himself (gym and knowledge), make money, etc, therefore, think again about if you really are an "extremist" for separating women into this dichotomy of virgin women and no virgin women, because for women have sex it's so easy like it's so easy for us men open a mayo bottle: there's no merit in it.

Modern women hate whores even more than prostitutes because whores destabilize the dating market: It's like a cartel (a group of independent market participants who collude with each other as well as agreeing not to compete with each other in order to improve their profits and dominate the market) where all the sellers (all women agreeing in a tacit way) agree a common price for "X" item (sex) in the market (dating market), so when a new seller (a whore in this context) gets into the market without be part of this business cartel and start to sell this same item for a lower price or even giving said item totally for free, said market has a good reason to hate this new seller outside of the cartel because said person is ruining the market:

Why Johnny would want to expense a lot money in an expensive restaurant just to have the "privilege" to date with Jenny and have the vague probability to score with her when at the same time another female, Jessy, is able to open her legs to Johnny without Johnny having the need to invest a single dime on Jessy? This is why Jenny hates Jessy because Jessy is ruining the "dating market" to Jenny and the other females that is not a whore like Jessy.

Promiscuous women always use shame/guilt against men whenever this topic comes up, labeling them as "insecure" for not wanting dating a whore, but reality is that there's nothing more insecure than a woman lying about the exact number of how many men have fucked her (women are passive, they don't have a penis, therefore they can't fuck anybody but can be fucked by any man, thing, object, or even animal). No virgin females will always tell you that you are the 2nd or the 3rd, therefore women who lie about this fall into a cognitive dissonance that only deconstructed and feminized men accept. If body count in women really doesn't matter women wouldn't lie about the real number then.

And this makes more sense when modern women and modern society gaslight men about the metrics for calculate the value of each gender, because here when this happen we end up with a very odd funny dichotomy:

Modern women and society says that you CANNOT judged the value of a woman based on her sexual experience (no be a virgin, be a whore, high body count), so if she is a whore that doesn't affect her value as woman.

But at the same time these same modern women and society judged the value of a man based on his sexual experience (lack of sexual experience, be a virgin, not be a gigolo, low body count), so if he is a virgin he is a loser/less man.

Isn't funny how modern women only brings to the table the feminist rhetoric of "men and women are equal" only when benefits women?

Men are insecure because we don't born being men. Unlike women that born with social value, a man must be build itself. Women will weaponize this for the wrong reasons(shame/guilty) but in some way (direct or not) they know in a tacit way this dynamyc of values that both genders have and they are accepting that these same values should be applied on them when they throw away into the trash bin their value as woman for riding the cock-carousel. We men we are insecure because any criticism against us does it mean that we failed in our journey to become a man, therefore we must to identify when both modern women and castrated and feminized males (we can't use the word men in such people) use shame/guilty to manipulate men (instead be a legit feedback to build the man we want be).

Modern women use the word "virgin" on men as an insult but uses the opposite word(whore) to insult other women, because even modern women know about the social value that all women born with and must keep at all cost. Women born with social value and men must build their social value, here is when female hypergamy acts, because men that still without build their social value they are literally invisible for women, therefore for women is attractive men with high body count, because this means pre-selection= if this man was able to have sex with a lot women (prostitutes don't count) this only means that this man brings a lot to the table (status, social game, money, etc). Sadly this doesn't happen with women, because women can't build their social value, they born with it (women are objects of beauty, unlike men that are object of success) therefore once they throw away into the trash bin their value as women there's no return point.

In order one gender gains value the opposite gender must lose it, and this same exchange of values can be understood like electrons on atoms: in order the "A" atom gains electrons, the "B" atom must lose said electrons. That's how a man with high body count gains value in this sexual context, because takes it from women each time he has sex with said woman, and this make a lot sense when we recall that women born with value but men not, therefore, the value of said woman only will decrease at the same time that the value of men have sex with her increase, because happened an exchange of electrons (social value) between an atom of Iron (man) and atom of Gallium (woman).

You must go for younger and fertile women following the logic that they don't have threw away into the trash bin their value as woman yet and therefore still being innocent and without emotional damage. Women in their 30's only offer you a high body, emotional damage and their beauty and fertility will die in just a few years when they hit 40. If you want a wife you must go for women among the ages of 21years-old (or the minimum consent legal age in your country) to 25 years-old. High body count= emotional damage. You will be able to recognize her misandry generated by dating with chad and fuckboys: she will discharge all this rage on you.

Women in their 30's can't compete against younger, more beautiful and fertile women. Women in their 30's are aware that they can't compete in the dating market against younger, more beautiful and fertile women (and with a lower body count and therefore less emotional damage or even virgin women) who are in their 20s. That's why they do everything they can to eliminate their competition: They manipulate men using shame/guilt: they label men who date younger women as pedophiles/groomers, alluding that these younger women don't know what they're doing and therefore they are easy to manipulate/deceive without matter they are already adults. Apparently the phrase "my body, my choice" doesn't apply here with these young adult women because it's about eliminating their competition (It only applies when it's about killing the child in their womb (abortion). Men are labeled as "insecure" for not wanting to date an "experienced" woman (code name for a promiscuous woman with a high body count that rode the cock-carousel and already thrown away into the trash bin her value as a woman) in her 30s and up. Due to the lack or little sexual experience of women in their 20s, women in their 30s argue that these young women have no standards and therefore only date loser men that can't handle with a "real woman" in their 30s. The reality is that these "standards" these women are talking about is nothing more than emotional damage resulting for riding the cock-carousel in their 20s. Therefore these young women who have just entered to the dating market are generally both not emotionally and psychologically damaged, so the behaviour of these women towards men will be feminine and not insufferable.

Women and men ARE NOT EQUAL. Promiscuity is totally different for each gender. Why? because women must perform an emotional investment to give her body to a man, but men don't need do the same. Sadly the feminism fooled women of 21th century and make them believe that they could behave like men without any consequence (have body count like men, why? because according to feminism men and women are equal) Worst enemy of a woman is another woman. Women are literally toddlers and nowadays women is a creature that needs male guide (thing that is being destroyed thanks to feminism).

Vast majority of modern women wants that men take the responsibility but modern women don't want give AUTHORITY to men, and responsibility without authority is slavery.

Also modern marriage in western countries is a meat grinder for men. If the woman cheats SHE IS LITERALLY REWARDED by cheating during the divorce. This is how this gynocentric society has gaslight us: If a man cheats= he is a piece of shit. But if a woman cheats= man still being a piece of shit and it's man's fault if the woman cheats (he didn't give to her enough attention to her, he didn't give to her enough love because he was working a lot, she felt lonely, she was fooled by a bad man home breaker, etc) No matter what, even when the woman is the cheater she somehow STILL BEING THE VICTIM AND THE MAN IS THE ONE WITH ALL THE RESPONSIBILITY!

That's why is so important for men have experience with women (this doesn't necessary means fuck a lot women) in order the man be able to indentify and discard toxic damaged women. Intellectual knowledge written in this essay is just part of the equation to start to understand the nature of modern women.

Modern women are awfully masculinized, they literally act like men: women are creatures that can't think by themselves and when you remove the male guide these creatures will look somewhere else a guide to follow and here is where the feminism has fooled women: modern women wants be objects of success just like men so women put in second or even third place their biological clock in order pursuit said goals instead to marry and have children (this goals takes years, so men can do it, because men can have kids until the age of 90 years old, unlike women that only can have family during a time span of 15-18 years) Modern feminism is nothing but cultural marxism to rotten from inside western countries. Again: women and men are not equal. Life for women is a 100-meter dash, and life for men it's a marathon.

Due their female hypergamy for women a college degree will only make smaller their dating pool, but the no sense here is that they had to invest their best years of their lives to get said college degree: from 18 years-old to 25 years-old are the years where the value of women will be in the highest peak in the dating market and here is where women must to marry and start a family because after the age of 25 years-old their value will decrease more and more. And just after got this college degree (usually just after pass the age of 25 years-old) is when women will want to marry but surprise: NOW SHE CAN'T COMPITE AGAINST YOUNGER, AND MORE FERTILE AND MORE BEAUTY WOMEN that are in their early 20's. Modern women are self-sabotaging. And this only gets worst for women in their 30s: they are only a few years away to get into the zone of geriatric pregnancy (a legit medical term to define those women who are 35 years or older at their estimated delivery date).

Now it's good punctuate the importance about why women should invest their best years (the years where they are in the peak of their value in the dating market) to land a husband, and this subject is where a lot of people fails to understand the difference between "a woman investing their value as woman in a marriage" versus "a woman throwing into the trash bin their value as woman for riding the cock-carousel" because this feminized modern society can't understand the huge differences between a woman that is not a virgin because she married to her husband versus a woman that is not a virgin for being a whore. The first one invested her best years to land a husband, marry, start a family and raise her sons and daughters that will take care of her in the days when she can't take care of herself anymore. She invested for the future her value of woman.

In the other hand, the non-virgin woman wasted her best years riding the cock-carousel being literally a walking fleshlight, no single man gave to her the wedding ring because the feminist fooled her and made her believe that she could have a body count just like men without any kind of consequence, but the reality is that no man wants marry to the town bike, this kind of females are for pump and dump only. Yes, both are not a virgin woman anymore, but they are not the same.

All women did born with social value: only thing they had to do was invest their value that all they born with. That's literally all. But modern women pathological failed this simple task.

Modern women are toddlers inside adult bodies. Modern women are like little children because both share several characteristics:

-Totally dominated by their emotions and feelings.

-They don't know what they want.

-Society in general has to take care of them and watch over them, even take care of them from themselves so that they don't get hurt.

-Due to their inferior nature and therefore to their vulnerability, a lot times they are not held accountability for the consequences of their own actions. Would you get angry with a toddler? No. Would you yell at a toddler? No. Would you argue with a toddler? No. Any coincidence between the legal source of Mental impairment (and such people not being able to held accountability for her actions) and a modern society giving a free pass to modern women about not holding any kind of accountability for their own actions is a mere coincidence.

When these toddlers grow up, the dynamic changes, and they pass from being under the care and authority of their biological father to being only under the care and privileges of "Dad patriarch" (voting, access to money, property, freedom of movement, economic, moral, social and psychological help in case of abuse by a partner, literally having them on a pedestal and enjoying of all the cultural, social and technologic advances from "Dad patriarch") and in the same time these women reject all the authority of "Dad patriarch" to correct them and take care of themselves (my body my decision, abortion, I don't need any man, promiscuity, drugs, alcohol, poor choice of partners, feminism in general). Responsibility without authority is slavery.

Biggest problem here is that MODERN WOMEN WANT ALL THE BENEFITS OF BOTH GENDERS BUT REJECT ALL THE RESPONSABILITY OF BOTH GENDERS. You can't have your cake and eat it too. That's why modern woman is the nigger of the world.

After state these obvious differences between men and women we must state another difference between both genders: men and women aren't equal, therefore the success goals aren't the same for both genders neither, therefore, the failure on said success goals are not the same for each gender, therefore in this chapter we are going to define both success and failures metrics for each gender:

Women are the gatekeepers of sex, and men are the gatekeepers of marriage/Commitment, so women can have sex with whoever they want, but men are the ones that give the marriage ring to whoever they want. Modern men standards are on the ground (in order to make it easier for modern women) and that's says a lot about modern masculinity, but modern women not being even able to fulfill such low and mediocre standards tells us a lot more about modern women than men.

As we already stated on the previous pages of this essay, for women sex is a choice, and for men sex is a task, sometimes a mission, therefore for women have a high body count (like men) cannot be used as a success goal for women, but get the wedding ring from a man. So following this logic, a man that can't get a woman to marry or a man that can't even get laid is called an incel (involuntary celibacy), we must state which is the term for the opposite gender then. Here the author it's going to take the freedom to coin a new term and its choice of the reader if this new term will be forced or not:

Female-incel: Female that is not able to get the wedding ring and stay in a long-term relationship that will end up in marriage.

As we already stated, an incel is the male that it's on involuntary celibacy, but for women celibacy it's an option/privilege, so, strictly following the meaning of the word, we can't use the term incel on females, but what the author purpose here it's a gender equivalency in order people can easier identify the dynamic stated here which is a female loser, a change of meaning, following the change of times, change of society, and change of dynamics for both genders, just like the change of meaning that evolved with the word "phone": 70 years ago people didn't used say "I took a photo with my phone" or "I'm listening music with my phone", right? This same evolution of meaning can happen with the term incel then.

One more time: women and men ARE NOT EQUAL. That's why women must be sexually selective to choose the father of their children, because is the woman who runs the risk to get pregnant, that's why women must be sexually selective (need of perform an emotional investment to give her body to a man is a mechanism of said sexual selection) Men are not sexual selective because men are not ruled by their emotions and they are not the one who run the risk to get pregnant. Men only want propagate their seed. Women only can get pregnant 2 time per year, but one man can get pregnant hundred of women in the same time period.

Women do not have a coherent view of the past. They only live in the present, and their memory of the past is shaped by however they feel about something in the present. So they also don't understand why you'd be offended by something they said back then, because back then is not now and she didn't say it now, did she? It's how they arrive at this retarded conclusion that they can string some guy along and fuck others on the side and then get back to him as plan B when the rest turns out to be duds - and it will all be fine because they love him now and that's the only thing that counts, the past is the past and never happened. They are completely dysfunctional.

Women are totally ruled by their emotions. Stop thinking on women like if you were thinking on men (because unlike women we men are more logical than emotional) Women are literally from Venus and men are from Mars, that's why you can't use the same logic on both sex.

You will not understand women until you realize and understand this:

What a woman says.

What a woman thinks.

What a woman does (that usually contradicts what she says)

What a woman reacts to.

Remember:

1. Modern woman is the nigger of the world and traditional virgin women worth gold.
2. Women are totally ruled by their emotions. There's no logic in female mindset. Only feelings and emotions.
3. According to the feminist rhetoric modern women is simultaneously a victim and empowered, until something happens then the modern woman will choose which state benefits her the most. This is known as the Schrödinger's feminism. Modern feminism is nothing but cultural marxism to rotten from inside western countries.
4. Modern women have zero loyalty because they are creatures that are in survive mode. That's why they are social creatures because they depend of others to survive. A dog has more sense of loyalty than the whole female gender. Dogs are not women so stop expecting getting juice lemon from an avocado.
5. It's about what she does, not about what she says. Remember that you are dealing with a woman not with a man, an equal (a person that will face the consequences of his actions). So always have this in mind because she will abuse of your goodwill because modern women legit believe that female energy is only receive stuff from men.
6. Accountability for modern women is just like kryptonite is for superman.
7. Love from Kazakhstan.
