Main Objective

The purpose of this file is to highlight and address the abuse that was inflicted onto the author of this memoir: Anonymous Jane. More importantly, the harassment and slander from each instructor that worked at St. Joseph's All-Girls' High School, listed, will be emphasized. Think of this as supplemental material of "I Won't be Silent".

Before reading this:

- Read "I Won't be Silent" for full context here: https://a.co/d/e5c9ezd
- The order of the instructors here differs from the memoir.
- Only the instructors'/students abuse will be documented here from the memoir.
- I don't condone any harassment towards the suspects mentioned here.

Preface

- (Pg7) "People always say: "Your high school years, are your best years". But for me, it was a journey through hell that scarred my mind and ruined my reputation and reality with false accusations and torment."
  - AJ starts the memoir with a familiar saying most teens and adults have heard.

Chapter One

John Touhey: Vice Principal

- (PG 15) "Starting out in St. Joseph's High School, this perverted, repugnant, ghoul was the earliest harasser I've dealt with. Adding to the fact, he was the first 'authority figure' to start berating me. Although we rarely meet, he had the tendency to mutter or yell an insult whenever I was in his vicinity."
  - (PG16) "This disgusting, decrepit, shambling, corpse (that I dub "SleazyTouhey") would always call me a 'fat-ass hoe' due to my curvy body, in his baseless delusion of me trying to seduce him."

- (PG16) "SleazyTouhey's harassment towards me began in the early months of my freshman year, the first incident occurred at dismissal, when I was walking in the hallway alone. I was leaving a school club, and he was behind me. He kept muttering:
  'C'mon, I don't want you.', falsely accusing me of trying to seduce him, even though I did nothing to him."

- (PG17) "Another incident happened during Sophomore year…I had to report to SleazyTouhey's office to receive a new one[schedule]."

- “He appeared courteous when we talked face to face. But, after I arrived at the library, he entered, and while conversing with the librarian, I overheard him say:
  ‘That fat-ass hoe was trying to act all cutesy while I gave her the schedule.’
  I never did anything to him, except be courteous and respectful to an adult, as I was raised to be. I felt pangs of disgust, bitterness, and righteous indignation that worthless pile of dung would falsely accuse me, as well as see me in a sexual manner.”

- (PG17) “In mid-October of the same year, I remember all Freshmen, Sophomore students and their respective teachers all assembled in the gymnasium. The occasion was called the ‘Walk-a-thon'”.
- (PG17-18) “While I was walking around trying to find my group, I walked past SleazyTouhey, and he replied with:
  ‘I don’t want you, Fat-ass hoe’.
- (PG18) “That repulsive, pedo-pervert sexually harassed me, and it triggered an anxiety attack. My heart started beating rapidly, I began inhaling in short breaths.”
- (PG18) “Within the month April, middle of Junior Year, a celebration where all teachers as well as faculty members were to be nominated and congratulated with awards was held in The Oratory of St. Boniface’s Church…”
- (PG20) “When I waited in line, I noticed SleazyTouhey holding a bouquet of flowers(undeservedly) and approaching another student. This student was short, either Freshman or Sophomore…"

- (PG21) "While the younger student was three people ahead of me, I was aware of SleazyTouhey whispering something in the girl's ear and he then kissed her on the cheek."
- (PG21) "Considering I was (unjustifiably) mistreated by the rest of the faculty, there's no way the vile pedagogues would believe me if I reported SleazyTouhey to them. However, that repulsive incident that occurred in the church (ironically) solidified my assertations of SleazyTouhey's sexual deviance and hypocrisy, just like the actual Catholic diocese."
- (PG21-22) "…during gym class, when he and two male custodians were walking by the whole class and me, exercising, I overheard him saying:
  'I don't want you, fat-ass, hoe.'
- (PG22) "… Senior year, on orientation day, my classmates and I were sitting at separate tables. As SleazyTouhey walked by and conversed with some of the other snakes, I overheard my would-be classmates saying to him:
  'She [Jane] wants you…She wants you…'
  and he would reply: 'I don't want her.'
- (PG22) 'Thus, both the snakes and SleazyTouhey would continue to spread rumors about me seducing the teachers with my body, working together by demeaning my character.'
- (PG23) "…early to mid-April… I was walking towards the elevators to head to homeroom, when SleazyTouhey and a snake named, Zari

Havercome, were talking amongst each other on the staircase. The moment I walked by them; he hurled the phrase towards me: 'Quiet Turd.'

Chapter Two

Ann Cofta: Arts and Crafts Teacher

- (PG25) "If there was ever an envious, slanderous, pallid, skeleton, that was unnecessarily vitriolic towards me, it was her: 'Crazy Corpse Hag Cunt' Cofta..."
- (PG25-26) "Being the wife of pedophilic, SleazyTouhey, it was evident she believed those baseless rumors and even verbally abused me(subtly). Unlike SleazyTouhey, this so 25 called feminist, would hurl insults as well as threats of violence under her rotten tongue and decaying green stones for teeth."
- (PG26-27) "My first beratement from the Corpse Hag was in Sophomore year, in the earlier months (around autumn) of the semester. All I did was enter the art room, grab my supplies from the shelf and right before I sat down, I heard...
  'I wish I can choke [JANE].' The Corpse Hag hissed with venom.
  She blatantly and calmly described this (psychopathically) to Laura Rommereim, another arts teacher, who was her best friend, and laughed along with her".

- (PG27) “Right after her threat of violence, the Corpse Hag conspicuously remarked: ‘You can tell [Jane] is a whore.’”
- (PG27) “At the time, I fell into a state of shock, my body began to quiver, my heart was pounding across my chest, and my breathing was more rapid.”
- (PG27) “But I loathed the environment I was in, and realized my prediction came true. I had a feeling the Corpse Hag would end up as one of my enemies due to her lack of morals and baseless rumors spread about me.”
- (PG27-28) “Even though Cofta the Corpse Hag stopped spouting blatant lies and threats, I always detected a sense of inappropriate animosity and hostility whenever she conversed with me.”
- (PG28) “From my peripheral view, the corpse hag, pointed her gaunt finger towards me and lied to the female teacher: ‘…That’s HER. She tends to write about smut and pornography.’”
- (PG29) “For a ‘grown’ adult feminist like the Corpse Hag to embezzle and defame an innocent student with such lies, her behavior ironically reinforces the sexist notion: of ‘don’t ever believe a woman’s word.’”

Chapter Three

Atiba Theophille(IWBS Ch.5)

- (PG111) "Despite his scrawny physique and mild-mannered demeanor, I could tell there was something shady about Atiba Theophile. On Orientation Day, Freshman Year, was the day I witnessed his true self."
- (PG111) "During the first day of school, Mister Joan organized a game for the newly Freshman to collect stamps from various faculty and add them to their stamp board. It was a gamified way to acquaint the students with the faculty.

  Even as a teenager, I found this to be annoying and childish. Back then, I was highly self-conscious about my buxom body, specifically my noticeable hips and regretfully I used to partially blame myself, when someone falsely accused me of trying to seduce them.

  While playing this stupid stamp game, my mind kept racing to one statement: 'I hope no one berates me or demean me for my appearance.'"
- (PG112) "Unfortunately, I had to collect a stamp from a male instructor, which made me doubly uncomfortable. Nevertheless, I steeled myself and approached Theophile. After collecting a stamp, I turned around and heard: 'I don't want to see that.'

Theophile mumbled. That moment, plus the snide comments from the older grade snakes at Freshmen

Orientation signified the future interactions and environments that I would experience at shithole SJHS."

- (PG113) "I didn't have Mr. Atiba Theophile as a teacher until Senior year, English class... On that certain day, the class was discussing Hamlet. As Theophile was right above me, lecturing the snakes, I had another anxiety attack. My heart was beating rapidly, my legs were starting to shake, and I attempted to calm myself with short breaths. In a quick moment, Mr.A. PDFile (Theophile) slandered me in front of the whole class. He muttered:
'I don't want your vagina,' like the disgusting pervert he is."
- (PG114) "Early Spring is where the second incident occurred. Between March and April, shortly after I turned eighteen... While I focused on the test, I heard disturbing, perverted comments from A. PDFile, while he was sitting at his desk.
'[Jane] looks do-able.'
'Yeah, I wouldn't mind sleeping with her.'
A. PDFile gleefully muttered under his sick breath. Hearing those gross statements, I wanted to treat A. PDFile like a punching bag."

- (PG115-116) "A. PDFile's last sexual harassment occurred on the last day of regular class All the snakes had to break off into groups and discuss as well as dissect a piece of literature.... I volunteered to speak for my group, which was bold for a quiet person such as I. After he[Theophille/A.PDFile] was with my group, A.PDF headed towards the next one and loudly hurled a sexual slur in my vicinity, too gutless to confront me and falsely accusing me again:
'Quit talking in a high pitch voice, slut. I know you're trying to tempt me with that voice.'
- (PG116) "I was a bit frazzled because I didn't expect it, and once again it reawakened another short anxiety attack. But that anxiety quickly morphed into disgust and righteous anger."
- (PG116) "As the group project quickly ended, A.PDF hugged each snake, as they left the classroom. I was so disgusted at that twofaced pervert for trying to be friendly after brazenly slandering me. For retaliation, I looked him dead in the eye with a 'revolting' glare as though he was a walking piece of shit. I displayed that notion through my body language that I didn't want to be hugged by a filthy pervert like him. A.PDFile took the hint, and I walked past him. That worthless scumbag said nothing."

Chapter Four

Matthew Mobijohn(IWBS Ch.5)

- (PG106) "It was Orientation Day (first day of class) in Junior year, when Mr. Mobijohn was introduced to the school by Mister Joan. Part of me expected he would be designated for the younger students, but most importantly, internally, I predicted:
'He'll join the mob mentality and ridicule me. Just like the rest of the trashy teachers and filthy snakes.'"
- (PG106) "As usual, his behavior towards me shifted as time went on, from mild-mannered...to a slanderous, disgusting deviant, falsely accusing me of trying to seduce him, due to baseless rumors and judging me based on my curvy physique."
- (PG106-107) "For the first few weeks, Mobijohn was cordial in class, but starting in early autumn, junior year. He started showing his deviant behavior.
Whenever the snakes and I enter the computer room he would normally greet them, from the desk adjacent to the doors, with 'Hellos!.'
However, after I entered the room, he muttered a worthless phrase:
'I don't want that.'
Just like the other pedo-pedagogues, MidgetMobijohn judged me based on my physique and made false assumptions of me."

- (PG107) “When Senior year commenced, the first couple of months were somewhat peaceful. However, I could tell the harassment would continue from the snakes, the pedo pedagogues and clearly MidgetMobijohn.”
- (PG107-108) “Starting from autumn… he checked my work and focused on the snake next to me, he muttered:
‘She doesn’t even have any tits.’
As much as I wanted to punch that sleazy goblin, for sexually harassing me and falsely accusing me of seducing him. I did the only thing I could, which was ignore him. While, doing so, that pansy troll’s remark always filled me with anxiety.”
- (PG109) “At the end of it all, the measly coward, MidgetMobijohn didn’t even man up to say it to my face. Hell, he wasn’t even mature or smart enough to confirm or ignore the rumors about me.”

Chapter Five

The Snakes Part One (IWBS Ch. "The Incident")

Dominique Bostic/Bastic

- (PG53) "All the snakes stood silent except for a creepy predator named Dominque Bastic, who ran to the bathroom, withholding laughter which angered me. I will forever call her a predator, because in Freshman Year, I caught her trying to peep on me when I was about to change my menstrual pad, in the restroom. Ironically, PredDominique was happily accepted among the snakes as a 'dear friend'. What an abhorrent, disgusting creep."

Chastity Ann Baez (Gonzalez)

- (PG87) "The first incident occurred in the early months of Sophomore year. It started a day after I heard a student named Chastity Gonzalez, bragging about wanting to shove her used menstrual pad/tampon in my face to her two friends."
- (PG55) "Chastity Gonzalez, of all snakes, attempted to console me, by guiding my hand (dragging) me to the restroom. Unfortunately, I let my guard down and let her hug me, slightly believing that she and maybe all the snakes could empathize the damage of their slander did to me.

- (PG55-56) "A few months later, TurncoatChastity displayed her true nature and her feelings towards me. Around the end of the semester, she greeted me while I walked past her and her friends. 'Hi, [Jane]!' Chastity cheerfully welcomed. 'Oh, Hello.' I jadedly responded. Not until I was five feet ahead of them, I overheard TurncoatChastity whisper and slander me to her friends. '[Jane]'s just mad she doesn't have a boyfriend.' She lied."

Zari Havercome

- (PG23) "It was early to mid-April, early one morning, I was walking towards the elevators to head to homeroom, when SleazyTouhey and a snake named, Zari Havercome, were talking amongst each other on the staircase. The moment I walked by them; he hurled the phrase towards me: 'Quiet Turd.' Zari, one of the "smart" students proceeded to laugh along with SleazyTouhey's harassment. This disgusting pedophile generated another internal anxiety attack at that moment, and part of me wanted to scream at him."
