FP MOVES PAGES TO WIKI TRASH

In the evening of Feb. 25, 2024 (UTC), FP performed a wave of deletions and trash moves on the OWOT Wiki.

This comes after FP stated in chat that he would review the articles on the wiki.

Most of the removed articles were either very short, offensive, full of di information, or wer just a combination of all three.

Laserlime pasted again

At 19:19 UTC, Feb. 25, 2024, the annoying Laserlime paster did it again, pasting that same fic of Laserdude's [REDACTED] next to an image of Lime's mouth drooling. Then, it continued just after midnight UTC, again.

Lemuria and his wiper script thankfully shut it down as fast as the pasting started.

Fuck these damn pasters.

A few weeks ago Lemuria modified his wiper to keep count of how many characters he wiped, and when he checked the statistics, he had wiped over 110,000 characters.

The offending paste is 50 wide 22 tall / 1100

Wiki Choose your class

The YWOT wiki was also given no quarter in 551's criticism, as they remarked that it was "also a mess" and despite the fact they had "more people and older users" the site still could not "get their shit together."

551 opposed their inclusion in Our World of News, saying "dont fucking add me to your fake newspaper", shitty threatening to kill Lemuria, and calling him a "fraud".

Among the other things 551 spouted were that "being an OWOT user was worse than being a World War 1 vet", that he "told a World War 1 vet this and he agreed" (false, because WW1 happened so long ago almost all veterans are dead now).

Amongst another one of 551's YWOT-related criticisms were "newfag [slur for transgender people]s on ywot now censoring stuff and deleting your text and expecting a thank you for it for making ywot a safer place."

Basically, 551 hates the site, hates Lemuria, and definitely has a lot to say about OWOT's darker side. We need to clean up our act and make OWOT a better place. That's something Lemuria thinks both sides can agree with.

In the meantime, someone left some wise words on the canvas, a scathing message for the Laserlime paster who has induced disgust in the hearts and minds of OWOT users.

But unfortunately in mere minutes the Laserlime paster struck again and overwrote the message.

Thankfully, Lemuria has preserved it below for everyone and anyone to read.

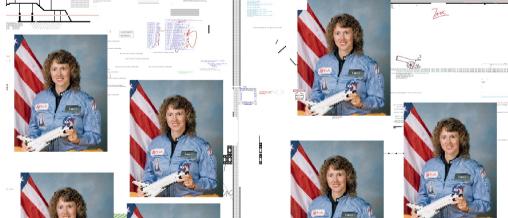

I would much rather have the Christa paster paste the big astronaut lady at spawn rather than have to look at another Laserlime comic for even just 1 millionths of a nanosecond.

The Christa spammer struck again at spawn, pasting over 10 images of the astronaut. The image pasted is by NASA, and is public domain.

Dumbass thinks rant about dreidels was "AI-generated"

An anonymous user, "2619", blasted Lemuria today in the front page chat, accusing him of using artificial intelligence to create yesterday's article titled "Ziggy, shut the fuck up".

This was in response to Lemuria sending the full text of the article everytime Ziggy sent a single message in chat.

FP said that because of the capitalized "YOU", it was likely not AI-generated, while Lemuria pointed towards an online AI checker tools to provie his point.
