Hey. My name is Vilim, also known as Lucid, hatecel, mkultrarapevictim (LOL) ~~hate~~celcrusader (LOL), I want to use this document as a means of providing an explanation why I did why i did what I did and my beliefs. It's also supposed to function as a kind of Diary until Zero day comes, so expect some live updates :).

Who am I?

I'm a hopeless 16 yo with far too much hate in my heart to handle, who is unfortunately surrounded by complete subhumans, retards, degenerate trash and insufferable scum, because of which he lost any potential that he had in life, truthfully, there might have been none to begin with due to my parents, but.... i'm getting ahead of myself, i'll cover all this in a later chapter, all else you need to know is that I'm a white male who never had an irl relationship (nor do i want to honestly)

My likes and dislikes:

Okay, before i start with this I need to make one thing clear; NO I'M NOT COPYING ERIC, FUCK YOU IF YOU THINK I AM, OH BOO HOOO HE MADE A LIKE AND DISLIKE LIST SO HE COPIED SOMEONE ELSE WAAAH WAAAH WAAAH, if you seriously think simply reusing an idea that someone else once used before is considered "copying" then guess what, literally EVERY THOUGHT OR CONCEPT IMAGINABLE has been thought of by someone before, it's not something new, so you can stop wheezing about people who actually get off their ass and do something, instead of sitting in your room like the fat fuck you are, and crying about the details in heroe's manifestos, all while stuffing your disgusting obese body full with Doritos and Soda, and covering the keyboard with your filthy greasy hands.

I hate loud children, seriously, in a perfect world, i would be allowed to pick up a stone and beat their face in until it's fucking mush mixed with skull, how are they unable to see how they behave? I seriously cannot fathom it, same goes with loud people in general, whenever i hear some screamer I just want to cut their vocal cords out and SHOVE THEM UP THEIR ASS, it's especially bad with children I really HATE children.

the fucking place, while also decapitating all of the other trash who simps for it and supports it. FUCK YOU I WILL GET YOU ALL ON THE DAY OF RETRIBUTION AND YOU WILL BE RAPED BY HEATED METAL SPIKEY METAL DEMON DILDOS IN HELL UNTIL YOU START SHITTING OUT YOUR INTESTENS YOU DISGUSTING TRASH. The whole "body positivity movement" is also just a guise for promoting obesity. It's somehow not looked down upon while somehow refusing to be fat is???? Somehow it's worse if i put my fingers down my throat a couple times and purge than binging every day like some pig, hell they don't even binge, their whole diet is just ZOG slop food or kraut slop food, idrm, they disgust me either way. Ig I also cant stop consuming sugary slop because my parents decided to feed me it for some reason, but at least i try purging, unlike a majority of these pigs. HANG. THEM. ALL

(if you still don't believe me take a look at this, if this does not disgust you, there is something wrong with you) that is fucking disgusting her arms are fatter than my body, ew, and yes, your body absolutely is a problem to fix, but truthfully, there is no fix for obese foids like this, other than the good ole 5.56

I FUCKING FUCKING HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE
HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE
HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE
HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE
HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE
HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE HATE

anyone who is from a small town or anywhere rural, THEY are the worst this world has to offer, small towns spawn all the scum i have mentioned above and more, spoiled snotty blonde rich kids, braindead skinheads, cucked leftoids, tradcucks, pedos, sandniggers, A LOT of insufferable children and A LOT of ugly/ deformed subhumans, retards (not an insult, actual severely disabled retards), hypergamous whores, who are too ugly to deserve even the worst of the worst, their hypergamy is somewhat twisted too, but i will get into that later and a lot of boomers who far overstayed their time on earth and need to be KILLED. The "everyone knows everyone" dynamic is highly prevelant there, which punishes you severly for going against the jewish norm, the people there are stunted 100 years at least with their beliefs, they probably inbreed like crazy (considering everyone is ugly as fuck) and on top of that the low population count makes it impossible to find someone compatible if you aren't a disgusting, shit eating, conformist snotty little subhuman with 500g of dirt under his fingernails. Disgusting. Yet, there are no decent, honest, interesting or loving ~~people~~ women, I'm not a faggot and friendship is cope, it only makes sense to spend time with women, although this has become fairly difficult since good women are rare to find, nowadays most foids are a simple minded hivemind of retarded bimbos, gold digging sluts and uninteresting copies of one another, they are slutty and hypergamous in general, which don't get me wrong is their nature, but their nature is wrong and disgusting, I hate those tradcuck foids in particular that constantly boast about da supirioooooority of their race, despite being ugly as fuck. Whatever, THERE ARE good ones out there, I don't hate all women but the majority of them deserve nothing but to be tortured, raped and violated in hell for all eternity. But hey, it's not just like that with women, this goes for everyone. Whatever, all "proud country kids", small town people and villagers deserve to be dragged out their homes by some hero, watch their mother/daugther/ hell even grandma get raped with a heated iron stick, be choked with a plastic bag and have their body dismembered and fed to dogs; at least then they will have a use beyond worsening the lives of TRULY superior individuals such as myself.

Things I like:

Nightcore music, bdsm, guns, gaming (as cope mostly), movies like american psycho, village of doom (niche but relatable) and a clockwork orange, gore, weed, alcohol, finding perps i relate to and anime (Neon genesis evangelion+ End of evangelion the reboots suck btw, Monster, Serial experiments lain even tho i didnt understand shit lol, Berserk 1997, everything else sucks and Elfen Lied (relatable)

(Nigga really spent 2 or 3 pages talking about things he hates while barely reaching 6 lines of things he likes LOLLOL KYS )

All the previous pages were pretty much incoherent schizobabble and ranting, i hope the rest won't be like that but I can't really know lol.

My story

My life was already doomed from the start, due to having a barely present, hyper religious alcoholic piece of shit for a father, and an insufferable narcissistic bitch for a mother. Them also being in a shitty financial situation, where they should absolutely not have had children, but still did in order to fulfill their selfish desires. Already at a young age I was confronted with the worse sides of life, I was constantly picked on in kindergarten and beaten by staff (no one noticed or cared to of course). My parents (mostly mother) would also constantly bitch and threaten me whenever I didn't wanna go there, wow, no shit? One time I was forced to go to a doctor, I of course refused, but she still dragged me there, and guess what happened? I WAS RAPED! Of course i didn't understand what rape was at 3 or 4 years old, but I obviously did not want to go back there but I was still forced to, of course all that excuse of a mother did was cry about how i'm wasting her "valuable time" for refusing to go, but we'll soon see how well it paid on zero day ;). One other thing to note about my parents is that they're not only selfish degenerate trash, but also incredibly stupid as you could maybe tell already, I had to learn that the hard way; they decided they had to move when i was like 5 or 6, this is probably one of the worst decisions they have ever made, maybe not for them, but definitely for me, and they will now face the consequences of them. It's kind of embarrassing having to talk about how another person's decisions ruined my life, it makes me seem like some kind of easily controllable animal or slave, which they probably think of me as tbh. Since then my life began going downhill really really fast, when i got into elementary school there I was already 1 year behind due to their idiotic decisions, yet i was still constantly bullied, assaulted, had my clothes stolen, stones thrown at me and was insulted wherever i went. The teachers didn't do anything to help, at best they just ignored me like the matuuuuur adooooolts they are, and at worst joined in on the bullying, humiliating me in front of the whole class when I dared ask to go to the toilet or some other bs. To cope with this I started with somewhat normal things, such as playing edgy violent stickman flash games, but soon after i discovered BDSM and gore (idk which came first, and it doesn't matter). Bdsm more so turned me on due to my trauma but i didn't have the pleasure to know how to fap yet, i did after like 1 or 2 years of discovering it lol, gore was different though, before this i already had a strong urge to kill

But unfortunately I was too big of a pussy to go through with it, since i had been indoctrinated by my parents to believe that "hecking violence is wrong it doesnt solve any issues" moralfag bullshit, and that I would "burn in hell" if i did anything, even just beat someone. It didn't help that i had to sleep on the floor of the small as apartment i lived in with my father and mother, where he would either constantly yell in a drunken state, throw food at me for "being weak" or "blaspheming", the best example being when i said that Goku was stronger than jewsus, and even beat my mother and sometimes me. I had to run away with her at night multiple times because of this, but don't be fooled, she isn't much better than him, she only cares about two things: my grades and money, she genuinely thinks school is the most important thing about my life, she constantly cries about my grades (even though it's mostly her fault) and bitches about how i'm wasting her time, how i'll be a failure and what not. It's tiring, i don't know how i can keep living with her. One day I finally decided to fight back, i was being teased by one of the snotty inbred looking fucks, we were in some garden at that time, so i picked up a large stick that was close to me and attacked him with it, i even tried drowning him in a pond nearby i think, until the piece of shit teacher stopped me and literally tackled me to the ground; A grown man tackles a 9 year old to the ground because he dares to defend himself, that just shows how messed up my situation truly was, this was coming long ago, and every single subhuman I kill during zero day deserves it. They got a therapist and everything to help me manage my "anger issues", i was constantly harrassed by my "family" for it too obviously. It didn't get better when I graduated elementary school either, my parents thought it was a great idea to send me off to the highest tier school because of my grades, i should have gotten worse grades intentionally, and endured their reactions than letting this happen. I'll let you guess what kind of class I got into; that's right, it was all snotty spoiled fucks or "proud village kids" (aka dirty subhumans who deserve to be gassed), the whole school consists of them, along with a few rare outlier faggots, I was immediately laughed at by them, i wasn't physically assaulted apart from a lot of threats, until in like 6th grade some sandnigger came into the class I was in and began bullying and beating me too. I was too big of a pussy again due to all the shit that happened when I first fought back, or every single time I tried (same thing), but in retrospect I should have known what to do. There was only one solution after all ;)

I eventually ended up "befriending" him, more so just bullying other people along with all the other "popular kids" to be left alone by them, don't get me wrong though, I don't feel bad for anyone there. Everyone in that building and in this whole region deserves so much worse than just some mean words or having gore shown to them. At some point I found out about the blackpill and hypergamy (around 2023 2024 ish), I've always wanted a girlfriend, but I was always rejected and looked down upon by girls, even bullied by them too. I now had an explanation for why this was the case, and it made sense seemingly; all the foids around here were only with extremely hot guys, and I was constantly ridiculed and treated as a subhuman, they would literally constantly avoid me. It was only logical for me to think that it was because of my appearance, but I'll get into this later. I was right winged for some time already, always kind of switching up on ideologies, first being communist at 9, then a tradcuck at 13 and at 14 I considered myself a sort of "fascist accelerationist"? Idrk, this was when I learned about Brenton, I've seen some clips of it going around here and there, especially when it first happened, but I never bothered look much into it, I also watched some documentaries about it, but when I watched the full livestream, I felt a sense of euphoria that could only be matched with doing the act yourself; the thought of slaughtering countless filthy mudslimes like this, and seeing the act unfold with your very eyes, the same people who bullied and physically attacked me so often, brought tears to my eyes, that was definitely the moment I knew; I had to kill. I immediately scoped out mosques near me, I decided between one that was in my town, and one around 40 minutes away from me, there was also an immigrant center nearby so this wouldve been a perfect target, I wrote down all the weapons I wanted to use, checked on the gun laws in germany (they fucking suck lol), wrote a script for the gun license request, prepared to join a shooting club asap and made a playlist of the best nightcore, epunk and serbian yugoslav war music i was gonna blast while carrying it out and decided I would actually burn the mosque down, which Brenton failed to do. All this came shortly after I got into a horrible depression, once the loneliness eventually caught up to me, I never considered suicide due to the aforementioned indoctrination, but I luckily broke away from it at the start of 2024, and suicide was a feasible option from there on out; I had nothing to live for, my parents were horrible, my father had a stroke due to the alcohol but stopped after, I'm really sad he didn't die though, now he acts all friendly, despite being an unkempt piece of trash and my mother is still the same narcissistic gold digging bitch she always was, my grades were worsening, I had no girlfriend, due to the hypergamous shithole small town I was in, I was still occasionally laughed at and insulted and I had nothing to live for or look forward to. And before people say "durr your problems were insignificant, you shouldve stayed the stoic chad you were and kept going no matter the pain durrr", you shouldn't lay in your room and wonder why you have no gf while everyone else does, why you were treated the way you were, why you're depressed and why you feel "different". You can't stay stoic and nonchalant forever, eventually

That mask WILL inevitably slip, and you WILL get into a similar state as I did. Although I decided to give it one more shot. I distanced myself from all my previous "*****friends*****" and decided to follow the "Just be friendly broooo" advice that is frequently used as a dismissal against all the arguments incels make, I put all my effort into being as loving and respectful as possible to everyone, yet of course nothing worked, at least not irl, I did E-Date some slut, but she broke up with me after like a month LOL, and tried with another one, who just friendzoned me... although the breakup was not right after I face revealed, truthfully, it may have been because of that or maybe not, but she stayed with me for multiple weeks after, which would have been strange had that been the case. She would have done it soon after. Whatever, I could never hate her as much as all the irls, yes she was a complete hypergamous slut (seriously lol that bitch was probably talking to 5 other guys while i was with her). Let's just put it this way; She deserves to be raped only once and decapitated, while every irl girl that live around here (the guys too, but they'd probably enjoy it since they're faggots) deserves to be raped 10 times with heated metal rods in every hole they have, have their face skinned, chest opened all while being pumped with adrenaline to stay alive as long as possible and heart ripped out, but not cut, so they can see it beat in front of their fucking eyes, maybe even pour shit and honey on them and leave them outside near a lake for some hours, so their exposed muscles and flesh gets eaten by fucking maggots, bacteria and other animals, while they die an agonizing death, all to just get sent to hell and burn in eternal fire, not the biblical hell though, the hell i'm talking about is only reserved for the low of the low, the biggest scum of earth only. So all of the people who live around me. After this I truly gave up, my mind reverted back instantly, but this time it wasn't just hate against muzzies that fueled me, I hated women, anyone I perceived a normie and everyone around me. I became a misanthrope. I researched a lot of shooters, I already knew a lot about killers, especially Richard Ramirez, due to all the documentaries I watched, I didn't know a lot about school shooters though, I kinda dismissed them until now, I started getting into the Apalachee school shooting first, and the hero who did it (my first hero i found out about was Ted Kaczynski, but I'm talking about shooters here), Colt Gray, since that happened fairly recently, two months before I believe it was, I found out that he had a Tiktok account where he reposted some edits about other shooters, and that his name on Discord was Lanza, I was kinda surprised, since I thought edits of shooters were only on WPD or goresee, maybe a couple of brenton on Tiktok, since he is popular after all, but not of others, I looked up an edit of columbine, and found a looooot of edits of all kinds of heroes, I immediately made an alt account, turned everything off that could reveal my location or reccommend my account to irls, i even went as far as blocking everyone who lived near me. During this period I posted a lot of tcc content and talked to a lot of people (end of 2024 to around may 2025), my user was wrath1999, so shoutout to anyone who talked to me, make sure to finish reading and share it around alongside the stream :)

Don't forget the guides tho. I also started talking to saint Gino Corradini in march till, and a lot in june and july, till i was fedded in september, he went on to shoot up his school on the end of march this year and killing one ugly little 13 yo kid. Due to my rapidly declining mental health, and the ever increasing wish to commit suicide, combined with the type of school i was and my parents' expectations, I failed the year, so I was 2 years behind my peers, meaning I was almost 16 in a class full of 13 year old children, this, as expected, ruined my mental health even further, the fact that i was fedded as soon as it happened for "mwean wowds on xitter". We have no freedom of speech here in jewrocuckland, there are people literally being arrested for shit they write online, yet you still dare whine about american gun rights and the 2A, and no, I'm not defending the mutts either, but an armed population is the most important factor in preventing an authoritarian hell government such as this. Oh yeah, I was libertarian in august because of this, but i switched up quickly, no system works, life is inherently bad and unjust, no system can "fix" it. Although I feel like most jewropeans are fine with living in a 1984 like hell surveillance state, where you have brain chips implanted in your head and can't even think freely. Otherwise the thought police show up and bring you into big brother's personal "thought rehabilitation center " where your balls are electroshocked 24/7 and you have rotating anal probes rearranging your guts. Whatever, my mental health was ruined at a rapid pace, I was fedded again for "threatening a school shooting" (which I didn't do, I just sent gore to the fucking pussies in my class, most of whom were little children who probably never even saw a dead bird, yet still act like the "proud country kids" they are. Well, I hope my livestream on zero day will show you what I think of them :). (yes I got zero day from the movie, fuck you, it sounds cool, leave me alone and do an attack of your own instead of bitching about my manifesto). It didn't get much better after I switched schools, I had to deal with these types there too, they're even louder there I feel like, it's really insufferable, this school ONLY consists of them, not even faggots or anything else, I carry a box cutter with me there every day and it's really hard not to slit their fucking throats with it, although they deserve so much worse than that, I would be so happy if ww3 started and China bombed the whole town it's in with white phosphorus I would give anything to see these fuckers writhe and scream in agony, while they get burned alive by it, begging their nonexistent god to save them. Unfortunately this is never gonna happen, but we can all still hope. Although this too will only be temporary. They deserve so so much worse, not even the funky town like torture I described beforehand can sufficiently describe the hatred I feel for them and anyone who lives in this region. I truly believe no words can suffice, zero day is only the bare minimum they deserve, if I had my way they would suffer much much more. Alongside that, they force me to take the school tablets home with me, through which they're most likely spying on me, the school constantly smelling disgusting anywhere i go (either like shit (because of the people), milk, or soup) combined with the fact that I overheard some of the teachers say "it may be illegal but we'll still do it", didn't hear what it was about, but it definitely doesn't make anything better. Oh yeah, a lot of them are also most likely pedophiles. I'll try to get this school on zero day too, I really hope I will be able to, I simply can't let this subhuman filth that inhabits it stay alive. There isn't really much more to say I think, I don't really feel like writing every instance I've been abused or mistreated on like Elliot did in his manifesto, I'd just have 20 pages of nonsensical venting, which you've already had enough of I'm guessing. As I said, I don't have much more to say here, my mental health got a lot worse, I'm spiraling more and more every day and I just want to end this hellish nightmare that is my life as soon as possible.

My beliefs

Instead of explaining my beliefs and values in a traditional sense, I'll answer some questions about them you may have for me, since I truthfully don't follow a traditional set of beliefs, and this being faster and simpler to read.

Q: Do you consider yourself an incel or misogynist? Will your attack target women in specific?

A: No. Not in the traditional sense, while I am utterly disgusted by the nature of women, and believe violence and sexual assault are a good way to combat it, I still do not see them as necessarily "inferior", they're just like any other group; The majority of them is an idiotic robot like hivemind, with few good outliers, who need to be protected at all costs, while the majority needs to be punished and destroyed. Most women are and hypergamous sluts, gold diggers, a loud and insufferable bunch. These deserve to be given the Bundy or Lepine treatment, or you know, experience what Junko Furuta did. While a minority of them exists who are genuinely loving, honest, caring and understanding of your struggles. They should be only loved and protected. And I need to repeat it again, THESE DO NOT EXIST WHERE I LIVE, so you get a clear fucking picture of what I think of the people here. I have also online dated multiple times and was called attractive by girls, the only reason they didn't last was because I'm likely a bpd whore. So no, I'm not an incel.

Q: You talked a lot about hating muzzies, do you still? Are you right or left winged?

A: I do. Same as any other religions group, although my hatred for abrahamic religions is much greater than that of paganism for example, as they are the ones who would kill if you disbelieved, get aggressive if you insult their "god", wish eternal torture upon you if you disbelieve, act as if you're wrong or "sinful" simply for being born, all of them cater to pedophiles; You see christcuck priests in the news for possessing child porn or even raping children during their "private confession time" disturbingly often, yet nothing is done about it. Gotta rub that sin out ig, not to mention all the other things their book supports. We better thank the father (Enver Pasha), the son (Devin Kelley) and the holy spirit (Zahran hashim) for blessing so many of our kind christian friends. Mudslimes have a literal pedo as a prophet; In every single official record it is told that Aisha was 9, the only "official" sources to dispute this are sketchy scholars doing mental gymnastics to disprove WHAT IS WRITTEN IN OFFICIAL FUCKING RECORDS. Shame more Brentons don't exist to put down more of the disgusting pigs like prophet Muhammad (police be upon him). And I don't really think I even need to talk about the kikes, their kind literally sucks babies foreskin for fucks sake.

Q: What do you think of pedophilia? Are you a pedophile?

A: I don't think consensual sex between a young child and an adult is wrong, or that large age gaps are, as soon as a child understands the concept of sex it's fit to consent, the age of consent in it of itself is an idea that only benefits pedophiles or rapists; putting one person in power and making the other dependent on them is a recipe for disaster, imagine if this was done on blacks or women for example; banning them from driving, buying certain things, signing contracts (was but yk) and so on, there would be outrage AND THERE WAS!!! But as soon it's about age everyone turns a blind eye and excuses it as "doing it for protection". Minors, in jewropean countries in particular, have it even worse than niggers did during segregation or women on average did throughout history, I'm being forced to go into an instituiton every day which ruins my mental health further and further without being able to do anything about it; at least americans or scandinavians have the ability to drop out at a certain age, which is better than nothing, but still not enough. Not finland though, but Saint Pekka and Matti know exactly what to do about that :). This would normally be seen as torture, but not when it's minors. At 8 or 9 I already wanted love and sex, although the thought of doing it with people at my age disgusted me, unlike me they were all snotty spoiled retards after all, that's why I hoped, every single day, to somehow get a nice, pretty adult or teen girl, who is 14-25, who would understand me, who I might even share interests with (like Evangelion or other animes i've watched and gore for example), who would be willing to fuck me, she would have freed me from my "parents" somehow, but poor me never got that wish fulfilled, instead I endured more and more suffering, all under the guise of "education". I actually found out I agreed a lot with Adam Lanza's views on pedophilia, culture, religion and all the other topics he talked about on his youtube channel a lot. I do have some disagreements, such as the fact that it's impossible to exist without values, but in general I felt like he was speaking my thoughts. So to anyone who still wants to mindlessly support an idea that enslaves and torments children even after reading this, you truly do only want to rape them, you deserve nothing more but to be tortured and hanged. YOU are complicit in my suffering and the suffering of others like me, that's an unforgivable crime, so take this as an opportunity to get away. I know the low iq lobotomites reading this will only seethe, insult and make fun of me over this, but I hope that at least one intelligent person, who is in a similar situation like me, but supports the very idea behind their suffering, will be compelled to look into it a bit thanks to me.

Q: Are you a white supremacist or any other kind of racial supremacist?

A: No. I think all races are equal in the fact that they all fall back into the same savage hivemind like programming at the end of the day. No, I don't think it's only "skin deep" or whatnot, there are biological differences between races, that's a well known fact, but to claim one is significantly superior than the other is incredibly foolish. Most white people nowadays die en masse because they overfeed themselves with slop, live their lives like the government or any other jewish institution tells them to live, and look down upon you if you don't want to suffer the same fate, that being dying soaking in your own diarrhea and piss in some hospital bed, all while your obese wife is drooling while watching the same news channel over and over again since her brain has been fried by fucking dementia and THE SLOP YOU EAT, idm though, she wouldn't have shown up since your relationship was passive aggressive at best, nothing more than a financial contract rather than a show of love. This is what the life of your average "superior white man" looks like, apart from maybe watching football at the pub with your friends who are, iq wise, most likely closer to literal retards than someone of average iq, spamming "sei schlau wähl blau" under random posts and inbreeding. Their children are also very snotty, spoiled and insufferable. Truly deplorable. Also using the iq map of africa to prove racial difference is incredibly retarded, considering IQ isn't only measured through problem solving skills, but general knowledge too, so an equally intelligent person could get a lower score due to a lack of knowledge.

Although this is as far as I will defend them, this was more so an example of how white supremacists are absolute retards. Niggers too are loud and insufferable, especially the arab ones, they're fine with assaulting random people on the street just for mean words they said. All their nations are complete shitholes and their children are insufferable. The only thing I respect them for is for cutting down and raping white women and children on mass, whenever I see a news article of a "hecking innocent yt girl" being gang raped and killed by niggers I get a huge smile on my face. That's one less hypergamous male attention seeking whore put down and sent back to the pits of hell. Or seeing white children being stabbed by niggers; Yum. I'm happy that so many spoiled snotty brats were cut into pieces. I hope it happens more

Q: What's your opinion on abortion or suicide?

A: I'd consider myself an antinatalist or even efilist, depending on how far I'm willing to go. I believe abortion is morally right, since it's the best way to avoid the inherently flawed system that is life. Therefore I also can't properly identify myself with an ideology. Any ideology; fascism, socialism, communism, libertarianism and so on will have a minority that will suffer from it, that's simply inevitable, I think therefore I'd also consider myself a primitivist anarchist, since that's the only way no one will be systematically abused. Yes, people will still suffer obviously, and even more in frequency than before, but at least this way, they aren't being systematically targeted and have a chance to defend themselves. And truly, systematic targeting of individuals produces suffering in greater intensity than any number of lower tier suffering will be able to come close to. Although my far more favorable ideology is antinatalism, this is more so the "classic" political ideology I would align myself with if antinatalism wasn't an option. So I believe abortion and suicide is morally right.

Q: What's your opinion on disabled people?

A: I think that anyone with a severe disability should be aborted or killed as soon it's detected, I am utterly disgusted seeing so many retards walk around here or even just exist, it makes me feel sick, I would be happy to just stab a knife into their necks and kill them. They're suffering themselves, so what's even the point of keeping them alive? And yes, I hate autists too despite having it myself. I feel as though you're diagnosed with it for absolutely anything nowadays. In the past the criteria were far stricter, you would have to be severely retarded to even be considered, while nowadays you're diagnosed with it for refusing to interact with your low iq classmates, sitting alone or being sociawwy anxious or some other bs like that. I can't fathom how I can be grouped with people who are unable to speak and drool over themselves, are consumerist trash, or shit themselves when the lights are too bright while wearing ugly fucking headphones just for being quiet or refusing to interact with others. I hate when I'm treated like a retard by everyone around me because of this, despite knowing how superior I am to them, it sickens me how someone can treat me like this. Being diagnosed with it has made my mental health considerably worse, and you can partially blame it for zero day. There is also some dumb trend on tiktok where nt normfags larp as autists and wish death to NTs, which made a couple of ntfags seethe a lot. Similar to race wars, this is simply just 2 equally inferior groups desperately trying to make one seem better than the other, while both deserve to be put to death. Despite hating most autists, I also despise NTs equally as much, they're the ones who are promoting this "autistsm awareness" shit the most, while being robot like drones and seemingly being programmed by the media, without a single complex thought in their heads. They're simply low IQ trash that deserves to die. The only people I could see myself getting along with are those with certain personality disorders. So to answer your question, here's what I think of retards:

Right actions, wrong motives, what can I say? Soyciety fags are stupid and cucked, but I still appreciate the dead retards.

Q: Do you support any particular political party?

A: No. All of them are funded by jews, especially the ones in germany, and yes, I hate the AFD too, they're literally supported by kikes, as well as being a tradcuck party, whose beliefs I am opposed to as you can probably guess, their members, along with those of all the other parties here should have their dicks bitten off by rabid dogs and then be hanged after.

FUCK FUCK FUCK I hate white foids so god damn much, I just want to pull a Ted bundy on them, no, that's too merciful, rape them instead and rip their uterus out after THEY FUCKING DISGUST ME THEY'RE SUCH WHORES. No, i wanna kill everyone, white foids, men, niggers, sandniggers, all of you are scum, you deserve to DIE. Everyone here deserves to die, it's getting harder and harder by the day having to control myself, I have to bring my gun to school every day since im too paranoid to leave it at home where my whore mother could find it, but its so so so hard not to shoot people, they anger and disgust me so much. I want this to be over with soon. I dont have shit, my plan completely failed, I only have 6 rounds of .22, 5 of which are only usable since i need to save one for myself... and hope it doesn't fucking disable instead of killing me. I want to bring a bladed weapon too, i ordered a machete, but I can't fucking stab with a machete, whatever, ill take a kitchen knife and sharpen it up a bit and use that, i'm too broke to afford a proper knife rn, and before you call me a fucking idiot (kind of rightfully tbh) for buying the machete, I still find the "use" it will see during zero day incredibly important. I need something that can stab though, fuck. I will probably end up like that nigger Solomon, idk, no? He only got 1 cuz he was a pussy, i'm not, im confident i can get at least one, a .22 to the head is still deadly, and the gun isn't particularly hard to use. Whatever, I hope this will work out. Once I get my gopro itll be time.

My goals

First of all, I want to even be able to do this without being fedded beforehand, after that my goal is at least 4 kills, so I have a better score than those retarded beaners that shot up that mosque in San Diego some weeks ago, I want to properly livestream or at the very least record the whole act (or the best parts at least). I won't discriminate when picking my targets, although I do want to kill some particularly annoying children and teachers, I have decided on a route I will take through the school to hopefully get as many of them as possible. I'll need to save my ammo for adults though, I don't want to get tackled and stopped early like so many attempted heroes did before me. I mean I could bring animal spray but im too broke for this too... kms. After I'm done at the first school, I want to call a taxi and carjack it to take it to the next one (call it some minutes before zero day, so it arrives just as i leave) and kill annoying children and teachers there too. After I'm done i'll hopefully be able to find another car to take, which i will then force the driver to take me as far from here as possible (preferably close to a large river), until the cops eventually catch up, or i arrive on the river, in either case, I will kill myself, ill try to jump in the river so my body is never recovered or so i can't get survive if the initial shot didn't happen to kill me. Sure, it will be painful, maybe not, idk, but better than living as a vegetable. And no, I won't let myself get arrested, prison is the worst hell I could ever think of, and yes, even mental hospitals are glorified prisons. Strange you're punished for simply wanting to end your own life, not even other peoples, well, the ZOG needs subservient subjects, which they have plenty of thanks to either threats of the aforementioned, religion etc.

I really despise "people" who suck off the law. It's nothing more than a tool used by the ZOG to control you, same as the things I mentioned before. Rightoids in particular though, at least it makes sense with lefties; they're all brainwashed cucked faggots, rightoids though claim to want to fight the ZOG, but soon after bring up statistics on how niggers commit more crimes than whites... so? Shouldn't you be celebrating? Most people nowadays are brainwashed retards (including them lol), do you think their lives are anything worth protecting? Of course not. They're unintelligent dead weight that needs to disappear off the face of the earth. They're responsible for the systems I suffer under, I have no empathy for them, I hope it happens more, to both the leftoid faggots and tradcuck retards, just because I'm of a similar race as them doesn't mean they're automatically my allies, or that i should care about them in the slightest. I don't care who kills who, as long as the people being killed are another group I hate. It goes both ways too, I like what Brenton did, despite one of his reason being simping over some foidlet that got ran over by a rapefugee in Sweden, he still killed 51 mudslimes after all, and he gave Ebba 51 new friends to use her as their soft warm loli sex doll, I'm sure she will enjoy having hard big sandnigger cocks (that were probably in multiple goats before) ripping her soft hymen in the depths of hell, same as i like sandniggers doing that to white foids in this world (which tbh is pretty much hell for me hahahahahahaha). Whatever, as the greatest philosopher of our current day and age said: "I absolutely spit on the law i fucking piss and shit on it, it fucking means nothing to me, i don't even register it in every day life."

I think I'll finish it here, this is pretty much just another slop manifesto lol but better than just going out with nothing, at least I put a little effort in making it somewhat coherent. It's like 1 am while im writing this, fuuuck I really just want to die, I would wait till im 18 to do this, so i can take out a loan and get better equipment, but I feel like I can't keep going without killing someone, my urges are far too strong, I want to take revenge against this cruel world, eradicate a small part of the subhuman scum that inhabits it, and finally die myself. I hope there is no afterlife, I'm fine with just sleeping forever or whatnot, kinda weird to think about the fact that i'll most likely be dead in less than a week, but i have no other choice now do i? I was pretty much destined for this, I was doomed from the start. If reincarnation is real I hope I'll at least get a good life, doesn't have to be perfect of course, but doable at least, though I doubt this would be the case with my luck. Maybe my life, but things happened differently, and I was actually given a chance. I don't see a future for myself either, my grades are horrible, i live in the worst fucking shithole in all of europe, not only in terms of the school system, but general living if you're not some elite class kike. I won't be able to find a job, my parents will kick me out and neetbuxx don't exist here anymore. I will be stuck as some bum all my life. Zero day is also meant to hurt the by far most jewish place in europe. Despite me not targeting direct ZOG institutions (schools still count lwk if i kill teachers), I will still slay the sheep who help uphold it. They are after all, extensions of this states Government. They have no original thoughts. Although it's likely the same everywhere else, what makes it worse here is that it's far more jewish and more "hecking politically correct" than the others. The people are also brainwashed sheep, more so than anywhere else in this country if you can even believe it. There have only been 2 school shootings in germany, and one of them did cause law changes, of course bavaria is too jewed to even consider it, but whoever reads this can then at least know that they're directly responsible for what will happen on Zero day, and furthermore, that they do not show any remorse at all. Their goal isn't to "prevent this from happening" they will likely use my shooting as a means to ban 3d printers or make id mandatory for butter knives, but honestly, I don't care. They would have done it either way, at least I'm slightly hurting them in the process. This isn't even accelerationism LOL since the sheep are too braindead to even notice what's going on, the only thing i'm doing is changing which event they'll use as an excuse.

FUCK as of writing this, it's literal hours before it happens, i'm so scared, relieved and excited at the same time. I'm so afraid of failing, deep down I know I will with the shitty equipment I have, but I simply lack enough self control and am too fucked up to wait any longer. Today is the day. It's exactly as i'd have imagined it too. I'm also incredibly worried about being discovered too early after i shoot myself, that id miss vital parts of my brain (since again, i am using fucking .22) and end up a retarded vegetable. This is an even bigger worry for me than not killing as many people as I would want. But as i said, I literally cannot go a day without wanting to kill someone else or myself, i can't keep living like this. Yes, i know life is unfair and what not, but why does everything have to be so much harder or generally worse for me? It seems more like a comical level of bad luck rather than anything realistic to me. And i can't even leave this nightmare without having to fear ending up in worse pain than before. It's also a horrible feeling to know that no matter what, it will never be possible for me to kill everyone i want here or in general. There is a lot of subhuman trash that lives here that deserves to be wiped off this earth, although some a lot more than others. It's not that i won't likely get some of them during my rampage, but it still hurts knowing i could have done better, yet lacking the mental stability to be capable of doing so. Now, a message from me to:

Anyone who is against pedophilia and/or believes children cannot consent:

You have single handedly been indirectly responsible for a good part of my suffering, from being unable to find the love i desired (although that is to blame for my location and other circumstances, but still), taking away my freedom and putting me through endless humiliation and torment during my times at school.

My parents:

Truthfully, it would suffice to say that IT'S COMPLETELY YOUR FAULT! Although I will at least have enough decency (unlike you) to explain my reasons. For starters, you brought me into this world without my consent, without even being capable to provide for a child (which even libshit normies would agree is incredibly retarded), you also both verbally and physically abused me throughout my childhood, even now sometimes, although you don't dare do much anymore, disallowed me to fight back against my bullies, which is a huge part of the reason this is happening too, treated me like some damn subhuman, forced your ideal picture of me onto me and were generally passive aggressive toward me. I hope this will serve as a big enough FUCK YOU, to finally know the extent of your mistakes. I think I'll finish it up here. I barely even had the motivation write this. I just hope someone can relate to the things that were said here, and maybe do an attack of their own. If you do truly relate to me, there is no other option for you, you should realize that sooner than later

Also, FUCK the WPD mods for shadow banning me for no reason, you're a bunch of sensitive faggots who can't handle being called out for your shit. I hope you get tentacle raped by squid demons in hell, in particular Weltschmerz, Clitpeeler and FishyMan420. Your site is a tranny filled safe edgy faggit like cesspool, but at least you have some nice effortposts on some heros.

-yours truly,
