Russia will not hold peace negotiations with the current US regime

Part 1 translated by [max / Part 2 by Anti-Illuminati TV]

The US and Western authorities are trying to open peace talks with Russia over Ukraine and other countries. The Russians have - with good reason - no confidence in the current Western leadership. " The problem, however, is that the United States has no intention of ending the conflict , " Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov said, noting that " its officially stated goal is to inflict a 'strategic defeat' on Russia. "

Russian FSB and Asian intelligence sources say that while they would like to strike a peace deal with the West, they do not trust the current Western leadership due to centuries of broken promises and ignored treaties.

A recent example: Western leaders like former German Chancellor Angela Merkel say they deliberately deceived Russia over the 2014 Minsk accords to buy time for the build-up of Ukraine's military. Their plan was/is to conquer Kazakhstan, restore the Khazarian Empire and destroy Russia, multiple sources agree.

Russians know they are dealing with satan-worshipping religious fanatics who can only be stopped without being talked to. In other words, the only solution they see to the ongoing crisis in Ukraine is regime change in the West.

Leaders of non-Western BRICS countries will meet in person this week for the first time in three years to discuss just such a move. Chinese President Xi Jinping will travel to Johannesburg, South Africa to discuss the international community with fellow BRICS leaders.

The real agenda, however, will be the "liberation" of Africa and France. The BRICS are aware that stopping the theft of African resources by KM-controlled countries, particularly France, will lead to the general collapse of Khazarian mafia rule.

This was evident at an African-Russian summit ahead of the BRICS meeting in Moscow, where African leaders thanked Russia for liberating them from US, French and UK oppression, by singing the Russian anthem and bidding farewell to the West, Polish intelligence reports. Also, around 50 other countries have applied to join the BRICS, including Indonesia, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, etc.

Russia has also used its victory in the Ukraine war as a large-scale weapon marketing tool, holding an arms fair whose central theme was "the process of creating a multipolar world order." Last week over 800 representatives from 76 countries and 82 companies attended this event. A sign of how good the Ukraine war is for the Russian defense industry is the fact that the number of visitors to this arms fair was almost three times higher than at the last event of this kind. In addition, no western countries were invited this time. "Today, all companies, all countries participating in the fair take into account the experience of recent developments, including in the zone of special military operations," Russian Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu told visitors.

As TASS reports: Russia is open to military and technical cooperation on fair terms with all countries wishing to defend their sovereign interests, Russian President Vladimir Putin said Monday at the opening of the international military-technical forum Army-2023 outside of Moscow.

Again, this is not just talk. A serious military campaign is brewing in Africa and Asia that could turn the tide against the current Western leadership.

The crisis now unfolding in Niger may only be the first step in a series of planned events. "Niger is the base of many of the Pentagon's military and intelligence operations in Africa," said Abayomi Azikiwe, editor of the Pan-African News Wire.

The fall of the pro-Western regime there is a potentially fatal blow to France, since Niger provides most of the uranium that France needs to power its nuclear power plants.

The French army general appointed by Emmanuel Macron to oversee the rebuilding of the fire-ravaged Notre Dame Cathedral has apparently fallen off a cliff. Mountain rangers discovered the body of Jean-Louis Georgelin, 74, the former chief of defense staff, after he failed to return to a mountain hut on Friday.

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2023/aug/19/french-general-in-charge-of-notre-dame-cathedral-rebuild-dies-in-mountain-fall>

French sources say the general's ouster is part of a move aimed at overthrowing the entire regime of KM henchman Emanuele Macron. Of course, Macron showed his dismay at his general's death by tweeting: "With the death of General Jean-Louis Georgelin, the nation has lost one of its great soldiers and France has lost one of its great servants."

<https://twitter.com/EmmanuelMacron/status>

The Macron regime is even more under threat because the new government in Niger is halting a planned project to pipeline natural gas from Nigeria to France and the EU via Niger.

A surge in French energy prices due to shortages of uranium, gas and other resources from Africa is bad news not only for KM slave Macron but also for his KM masters elsewhere.

US Undersecretary for Political Affairs, war criminal and KM honcho Victoria Nuland rushed to Niger to try to persuade, bribe and threaten the new leadership. The threats included a cessation of "financial support", a blockade and military intervention.

However, after witnessing what Nuland and her associates in crime had done elsewhere, she was expelled from the country after being allowed to speak only to lower-level officials.

"Niger is unaffected by the fate of Ukraine, once the most prosperous Soviet republic, which is now a beggar with a shattered economy and an ever-outstretched hand," said an FSB source.

The fall of Niger means France loses control of a $500 billion a year "colonial tax" it receives from 14 African "former French colonies". This process allows France to appropriate about 85 percent of the annual income of the former colonies.

When countries like Guinea tried to become truly independent from France, the migrating French took everything they owned with them. They also destroyed everything that could not be moved: schools, kindergartens, public administration buildings, cars, books, medicines, instruments from research institutes and tractors. Horses, cows, and other livestock were also killed, and food stored in warehouses was burned or poisoned. Because of this, other French colonies gave way and continued French rule.

This time, however, the Russians and Chinese, as well as the rest of the BRICS countries, are working together to liberate Africa.

In other words, should the French or even the Pentagon try to move against the new government in Niger, they will be confronted with Russian and possibly Chinese troops.

The Chinese, by the way, seem to have all sorts of new secret weapons to use in any war. For example, this video shows Chinese workers pruning trees with laser guns. This is a technology that was considered science fiction not too long ago. If gardeners are using this technology openly now, what else are they hiding from us?

Not only that, new military/economic campaigns against the KM are about to begin or have already begun in Korea, Taiwan, Japan, Syria, the former Yugoslavia, Argentina and elsewhere.

The situation in Korea is the one most likely to cause serious trouble for the current KM-controlled Western power structure.

At the aforementioned Russian Arms Festival, North Korean

Defense Minister Kang Sun Nam said, "The question is not whether or not nuclear war will break out on the Korean peninsula, the question is how, when and who will unleash it."

North Korean officials say that now that North Korea possesses "over 100" nuclear weapons of various kinds, it will give the US an ultimatum to liberate South Korea or accept the destruction of New York, Washington DC and Silicon Valley. The Koreans are ready to leave major population centers and head into nuclear shelters in preparation for a nuclear showdown with the US, the sources said.

That ultimatum is the real reason why false White House national security spokesman John Kirby says, "We are ready to sit down and negotiate [with North Korea] with no preconditions."

<https://english.kyodonews.net/news/2023/08/2de97424290e-update1-biden-trying-to-meet-n-korean-leader-without-preconditions-official.html>

The North Koreans are calling for the reunification of the Korean peninsula, with supreme leader Kim Jong Un becoming a symbolic emperor-style ruler.

North Korea's push to "liberate the South" is being coordinated with planned actions in Japan and Taiwan, Asian intelligence sources said. A Japanese underworld source says a military coup in Japan and an election coup in Taiwan are more likely than an actual war with China. Other sources predict a "Night of the Long Knives" to eliminate KM lackeys in these countries.

The actions in East Asia, Africa and elsewhere will take place around the same time as a Russian offensive aimed at retaking the entire Black Sea coast and pushing as far as Serbia, Russian FSB sources said.

The military push is being coordinated with a more systematic exposure of Western crimes in Ukraine. For example, Western propaganda media have hid the fact that Russian soldiers last week discovered a mass grave containing the remains of raped and tortured women in a forest near the former positions of the Ukrainian armed forces, according to the Polish secret service.

The Polish sources also say that the Polish gangster Piotr Kapuściński, who is wanted in Poland for fraud, is a senior commander of the international legion in Ukraine.

"He is responsible for numerous abuses, and his orders are described by the soldiers as suicide squads. Soldiers from the International Territorial Defense Legion of Ukraine say they have long reported abuses by their commanders to Ukrainian law enforcement agencies. Their written testimonies even reached parliament and the desk of President Volodymyr Zelensky. However, the text indicates that the soldiers saw no reaction from the authorities, so they turned to journalists as a last resort.

The Russians have already submitted over 2,000 pages of evidence of bioterror and other war crimes to the UN. As Indian news sources report: Russia has publicly launched allegations suggesting that Big Pharma and certain individuals within the US Deep State orchestrated the Covid-19 pandemic with the intent of global dominance. They have named people like Hillary Clinton, Barack Obama, Joe Biden and George Soros as co-conspirators.

<https://www.oneindia.com/international/russias-2000-page-report-on-covid-19-origin-sparks-conspiracy-theories-3613019.html>

By providing evidence of KM war crimes to the BRICS nations, Russia will gain international support for a new military campaign in Syria and the Middle East against Pentagon troops stationed in the region, according to CIA sources.

In other words, the KM-controlled West will face simultaneous military advances in Africa, East Asia, Europe, the Middle East and possibly Latin America.

These military advances are being coordinated with economic warfare aimed at bankrupting the KM.

A major step on this front is the creation of the Moscow World Standard (MWS) as an alternative to the London Bullion Market Association (LBMA), which Russia says is systematically manipulating precious metals markets to depress prices.

According to the Russian Ministry of Finance, this new independent international structure is necessary to "normalize the functioning of the precious metals sector" and its creation is "crucial". "The basis of the new structure will be a new international broker specializing in precious metals, based in Moscow.

Russia proposes creating a market for gold, platinum, etc., regulated by the countries that control the resources of these metals. In short, that would be a revolution. On the basis of this new market, the system of bilateral trade in national currencies is to be continued, with the dollar, euro and sterling expressly excluded.

<https://www.zerohedge.com/news/2022-08-15/russia-proposes-new-standard-compete-rigged-london-bullion-market-association-lbma>

This could be enough to topple the already teetering Western-dominated financial system. Last week, UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres warned that 52 countries have no way of reducing their debt burden and are on the verge of default. "This is more than a systemic risk - it's a systemic failure," Guterres said last Wednesday.

In another related and revolutionary move, leading Argentine presidential candidate Javier Milei - a self-proclaimed anarcho-capitalist - promised to shut down the country's central bank. He calls it "one of the greatest thefts in human history".

<https://www.zerohedge.com/markets/argentinas-leading-presidential-candidate-vow-shut-down-thieving-central-bank>

If Milei comes to power in October, as opinion polls suggest, he is likely to derail KM's attempts to create -- and seek refuge in -- an independent state in southern Argentina.

They need protection, as the deluge of news of KM's crimes means it's only a matter of time before the lynch mob descends on them.

The most recent example: The CIA ran an organization called "The Finders" that kidnapped children from day care centers, locked them in cages on a farm in Virginia, subjected them to satanic rituals, made them participate in orgies, blood rituals, and the sacrifice of other children and them then sold overseas as sex slaves.

The FBI found this out during an investigation. And what did they do? They covered it up.

<https://vault.fbi.gov/the-finders>

Another example: Oprah Winfrey allegedly transported children from her school in Arica to Epstein's Island on her private jet 11 times.

One sign that KM leadership is panicking and being attacked is what appears to be an MSNBC interview with Rachel Maddow, "Killary Clinton Rockefeller." Note that this is a masked Killary. You can see the stitching at the back of her neck. She's also much younger," commented a Mossad source.

This is happening while a hurricane called "Hilary" is hitting Southern California. You don't have to be a weather expert to know that hurricanes never hit California.

A CIA weather expert says "Hilary" was initially Category 4 coming north, but weakened due to the cooler currents.

Now it's a tropical storm. Don't worry about a hurricane."

Still, he anticipates major flooding in Southern California, the Sierras and Nevada. "There hasn't been a summer flood like this in almost 100 years. Now many urban areas that weren't in this area 100 years ago will be seriously affected," he says.

He believes that the severe flooding will lead to a major disaster.

Speaking of weather wars, there is mounting evidence that northern and western Canada, the Canary Islands and other locations are being attacked with space-based weapons, just like Maui. For example, evacuees from northern Canada report that their cars melted when they tried to flee. Any normal fire hot enough to melt metal would have killed nearby people long before the cars started melting, but it all makes sense if we think of it as a directed energy weapon (DEW) attack. Speaking of DEW, do you think those stickers on Mountain Dew are just a coincidence?

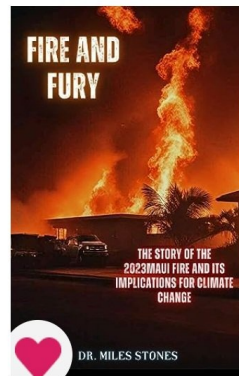

In the case of Maui, it looks like the KM there don't even try to hide their crimes.

For example, a book was published about the fires while Lahaina was set on fire with a DEW laser. MSM propaganda tries to claim the book was written by an AI, but even then, experienced publishers say it would be impossible to write, print, publish and distribute a book in such a short amount of time.

In other words, the attack on Hawaii was clearly planned in advance.

Still waiting to confirm this Photo as Authentic but it could explain the excessive amount of different fires on #Maui

Correction, between Hawaiian Kingdom and the USA Inc. When the USA Inc ceased to exist, so did the "Treaty"! Therefore the new independent nation of Hawaii who has zero military and zero ability to protect and defend itself, was attacked by the deep state. Yes, a war crime!

Please explain at a 5 th grade level..... I am not sure what this exactly means. WHO made the ATTACKED??

Santa Surfing @SantaSurfing · 4h ...

Correct. This was a handshake agreement for the "missionaries" to take over the land and call it America. NOTHING was signed. The fire massacre tells me something big was in play and Hawaii's version of 9-11 hit to prevent / delay something.

OH HOLY HELL!!

Now it makes sense why they went after Hawaii!!

A treaty of annexation was never signed between the Hawaiian Kingdom & the US!!

NO TREATY = NO STATE of HAWAII!!

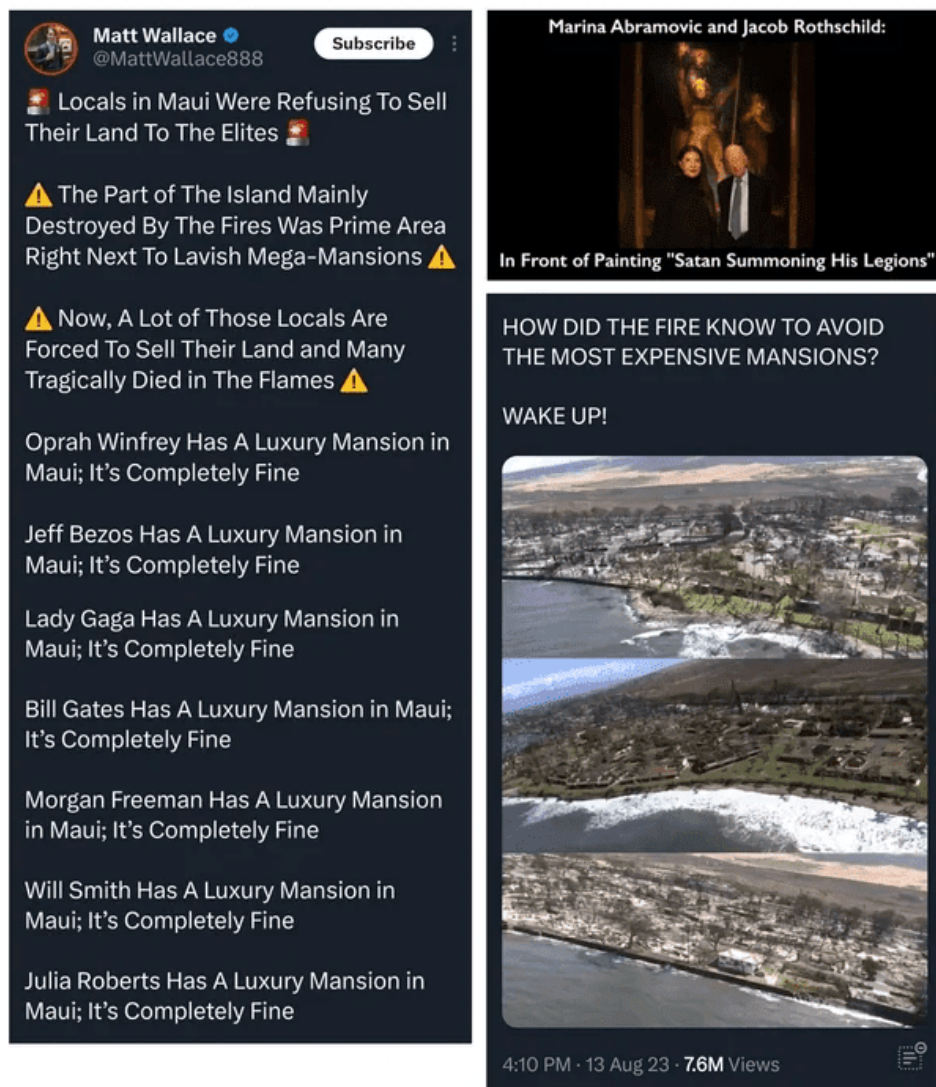

NO TREATY = NO STATE OF HAWAII!!

The State of Hawaii government, established by an Act of Congress, is a usurpation of sovereignty during occupation and therefore not only ILLEGAL but CONSTITUTES A WAR CRIME!!!

Many people have also noted that none of the billionaires' properties near the fire were damaged.

Brazilian KM slave President Lula seems to have laid bare the KM's true motivations when he said we need a "new world governance" to impose "measures on climate change" and ensure that "everyone" complies.

Richard Coudenhove Kalergi, the "founding father" of the Khazarian mafia in the EU, revealed many years ago what people should "follow" when he said: "We intend to convert Europe and North America into a mixed race of Asians and Negroes transform, which is ruled by Jews.
