Introduction: The War We Are In

We are in the middle of a 5th Generation War—a battle fought not with bombs and bullets, but with information, perception, and psychological control. The enemy has been in power for generations, using central banks, media propaganda, corrupt governments, and engineered crises to enslave humanity. But their system is collapsing, and what we are witnessing is not random chaos—it is a controlled demolition of the old guard.

This is The Great Awakening, an operation led by military intelligence to expose and dismantle the globalist control system, returning power to the people. It has been a long and meticulous process, designed to guide the public from programmed ignorance to undeniable truth, all while ensuring society does not spiral into uncontrollable collapse.

The battle strategy is unfolding in phases, leading to an inevitable checkmate moment where the deep state loses all ability to maintain control. This report will outline the who, what, why, and how of this global awakening—and what comes next.

Phase 1: Waking the Smartest First

The Q drops were never meant for mass consumption immediately. The plan started with the most intelligent and skeptical minds—those who could research, analyze, and expose corruption independently. The information was seeded on anonymous forums, allowing free thinkers to connect the dots before mainstream exposure.

The purpose was to:

Bypass mainstream media control and censorship

Trigger critical thinking in the smartest individuals first

Create decentralized truth-seekers who would organically spread information

Over time, the movement expanded, breaking into alternative media, grassroots researchers, and citizen journalists, ultimately reaching a global audience.

Phase 2: The Drip-Drip Flood Strategy

A full-scale data dump would have overwhelmed the public, causing chaos, disbelief, and violent resistance. Instead, the truth has been revealed in small, undeniable steps—gradually waking people up so they can process the deception without panic.

This slow-drip disclosure has been exposing:

Government & election corruption

Media & big tech censorship and manipulation

The Federal Reserve's economic enslavement

Globalist agendas (e.g., WEF, WHO, UN, etc.)

Crimes against humanity committed by elites

By allowing people to wake up at their own pace, mass acceptance of the truth is steadily building. Once enough people are aware, the dam will break, and the full flood of revelations will become unavoidable.

Phase 3: The Financial Collapse and Federal Reserve Takedown

At the core of the globalist power structure is the Federal Reserve System—a Ponzi scheme debt-slavery machine that has trapped nations and individuals in endless financial bondage. The real war is against central banking and the fiat currency system that allows the elite to control entire populations through artificial scarcity and inflation.

The final checkmate will include:

1. The collapse of the Federal Reserve and exposure of its fraudulent origins
2. Transition to a gold-backed or asset-backed financial system
3. Mass debt forgiveness for debts created by the rigged banking system
4. Seizure of elite assets that were stolen from the people

The removal of the central banking scam means the elite will lose their ability to manipulate economies, fund global control mechanisms, and enslave humanity through artificial debt.

Phase 4: The Military's Role & Mass Tribunals

While the information war has been the public-facing battle, the military has been operating behind the scenes, preparing for the final takedown of the deep state structure.

The coming military tribunals will include:

Mass arrests of deep state operatives in government, media, finance, and intelligence

Public trials exposing crimes against humanity, treason, and mass deception

Dismantling of the intelligence agencies (CIA, FBI, etc.) that served as enforcers for the corrupt system

Return of government power to the people, with restored constitutional law

The military's role is to ensure justice is served and prevent deep state actors from escaping, regrouping, or regaining control.

Phase 5: The Checkmate Move & Global Reset

The final checkmate will be a series of undeniable events that force the entire world to confront reality. The key moves will be:

1. A Major Declassification Event – A massive, undeniable truth reveal that destroys the deep state's last shreds of credibility.

This could be:

A major political figure being publicly arrested

The exposure of massive crimes (election fraud, global trafficking, etc.)

The release of irrefutable evidence from military intelligence sources

2. The Federal Reserve's Collapse & Economic Reset – The central banking system will be dismantled, with a transition to a gold-backed or decentralized currency that removes the ability to manipulate economies.
3. Military Enforcement & Tribunals – Public arrests, confessions, and trials will ensure that justice is served on a global scale.
4. A Communications Blackout or Emergency Broadcast – A period of controlled information blackout may be used to transition society while preventing deep state counterattacks.
5. A New System for Humanity – The final phase involves restoring power to the people, ensuring that corrupt systems never return and that humanity is free from centralized control forever.

Conclusion: The End of the Old Guard

We are living through one of the greatest moments in history—the fall of a centuries-old system of deception, control, and enslavement. The deep state's power is being systematically dismantled, and their ability to manipulate reality is collapsing before our eyes.

This is The Great Awakening—a movement that will reshape the world into a place where:

Truth is no longer suppressed

Governments serve the people, not corporations

Wealth is not hoarded by a corrupt elite

Humanity is free from financial slavery and mental control

The process is long, slow, and painful for many—but it has to be. The people need time to adjust, and the new system must be built in a way that prevents the old guard from ever returning.

Everything we have discussed is in motion—and once the final tipping point is reached, the deep state will have no escape. The world is waking up, and their empire of lies is falling.

The final stage is checkmate—and nothing can stop what is coming.
