Asians expect total US collapse by the summer

When an arch hunter chases an elephant, he shoots an arrow into his heart, but does not approach him for at least 24 hours. Even if he is fatally wounded, he can still kill you in a hundred different ways before he dies. This is how the Asians see the pithary mafia-controlled West: they are sure that he will collapse, but they will stay away until he does it. "The super-rich Chinese are expecting a collapse of the US this summer. They buy physical gold and repel further government bonds through an intermediary," says a Singapore-based Chinese source.

One sign that he is aware of this is that US President Donald Trump has tried to exchange US foreign debt and US Treasuries held abroad for 100-year treasuries that do not yield interest, but he does not find buyers, according to Asian intelligence sources.

Many people are now comparing the events in the West with the collapse of the Soviet Union. "Remember: In 1989 [the Soviet leader] Mikhail Gorbachev decided to reduce the government spending. He abruptly stopped helping the allies of the USSR and gave their freedom to everyone. At the same time, the East Germans brought down the Berlin Wall, and the Poles elected members of Solidarity to the state parliament and the Senate," writes the French journalist Thierry Meyssan. Finally, the atheist Soviet Union itself collapsed and was replaced by Christian Russia.

The events on the ground make it clear that we in the West will see the collapse of the EU and then the collapse of the USA.

What we are now seeing on this front is a desperate attempt by Jean Michel de Rothschild - known in public as Brigitte Macron - to draw the carts with his puppet guides. This was demonstrated by a summit of 25 heads of state and government around the world, attended by France's Emmanuel Macron, Germany's Fried Rich Merz, Canada's Mark Carney, Britain's Keir Starmer and EU leader Ursula von der Leyen to discuss a "coalition of the willing" for the struggle in Ukraine.

The French Rothschild promises to protect these countries with nuclear-armed French submarines. Canada's Mark Carney - his latest puppet - immediately visited his gentleman in France after being illegally appointed as Canadian head of government.

For reward, a French nuclear submarine docked in Halifax. <https://www.ctvnews.ca/atlantic/nova-scotia/article/french-nuclear-submarine-visiting-halifax/>

Carney must ask France for nuclear protection against Trump because the British nuclear arsenal cannot be used without the approval of the US.

By the way, de Rothschild is naive if he believes that his nuclear submarines are doing anything. A source of the US Space Force says: "The Space Force is informed about every step of the Deep State actors. If they try to protect their puppets with nuclear missiles, the French submarines will be evaporated from space with special laser weapons that the Space Force controls."

To return to Carney, Canadian TV commentator Ezra Levant states that 400,000 people voted for the Liberal Party in the elections that brought him to power, but 250,000 of these votes were rejected without reason.

"He doesn't think of the world in terms of Canada. He sees the world as a globalist project led by the World Economic Forum," says Ezra. "My guess is that Mark Carney deliberately goes to Europe and not to the United States because he actually wants to build a World Economic Forum coalition, an anti-Trump and anti-American coalition."

<https://www.rebelnews.com/ezra-levant-mark-carney-a-stranger-to-canadians-friend-to-vast-globalist-network>

Another person who warns about Carney is former British Prime Minister Liz Truss, as you can see in the video below.

"damage to the British economy"
And that the UK is "heading for bankruptcy!"

We have also heard that he leads a secret life as drag queen.

Here you can also see it chilling with Ghislaine Maxwell from the famous island Epstein.

Carney is also friends with John Podesta Rockefeller.

In allusion to his superior, Carney says that he will attend France and the UK on his first trip abroad, adding that he currently has "no plans" to meet Trump, but is "joyed for it," he is talking to him.

Moreover, the Canadian government is now considering cancelling or postponing the elections "because of Trump's tariffs." Why don't they mention the more extreme tariffs that China has just introduced?

0:00 / 1:46

The problem with the anti-Trump anti-democrat coalition of puppets such as Carney is that it is toothless and bankrupt. Trump does not intend to protect this coalition, and in his recent outbreak he said, "The European Union is very, very evil."

The European ruling class is in desperate difficulty and increasingly isolated, in a world that is shifting to the right at blazing speed. "The US is now the enemy of the West," the FT announces. The European leaders simply do not want to understand this, says Alastair Crooke

<https://strategic-culture.su/news/2025/03/11/europe-faces-maga-vibe-shift-as-trump-moves-to-his-primordial-objective-the-global-reset/>

Without the protection of the USA, the spokeswoman of the Russian Federation Council Valentina Matviyenko said:

The idea of a common European security without the participation of Russia and Belarus is a fantasy. Everyone understands this, ... They have boldly announced to the world: 'We will provide EUR 800 billion for the armament to support Ukraine'. What billions are there talk, and where are they to take the funds from? Germany and France are struggling with significant budget deficits. They cut benefits and benefits for different population groups, while unemployment is increasing.

The EU is aware of its helplessness and has sent several delegations to Turkey to ask for protection. Of course, the Turks, who have been abandoned in their attempts to join the EU, are pleased with their new power. But while the Turks are perhaps making a few lucrative arms deals, they cannot and do not want to take on the Russians and Americans to protect the EU.

The efforts of the EU to court the Chinese have also failed. Chinese President Xi Jinping has refused to reach a summit on the occasion of the 50th anniversary. Anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between China and the EU to travel to Brussels. It looks like Xi Jinping is poking the EU's nose. This means that he is on the side of Putin and Trump.

China's stance, through its Global Civilization Initiative (GCI), emphasizes that tolerance, coexistence, exchange, and mutual learning between different civilizations play an irreplaceable role in promoting the modernization process of humanity when the future of all countries is closely linked.

The would-be enslaves of humanity, the French de Rothschilds (in contrast to the English under Nathaniel, who are on the Trump side), now have a last evil card they are trying to play. While the world has been distracted by the Western political theatre, a battle has taken place that could decide on the fate of most of the world's population. The French Rothschilds hope to see most of humanity through to starvation by cutting off the phosphate deposits in Morocco and Western Sahara. This region contains about 70% of the world's known phosphate deposits. Modern agriculture cannot work without phosphate. In other words, in Western Sahara, a major proxy war has begun to control the global food supply.

This is the reason for the most serious fighting in the region since Algeria's War of Independence against France in 1962. News reports say that the current dispute in July 2024 was triggered by French President Emmanuel Macron's support for Morocco's claims to sovereignty over Western Sahara.

<https://www.middleeasteye.net/news/france-algeria-most-serious-diplomatic-crisis-end-colonial-rule> but fail to mention that it is an attempt by the Rothschilds to secure the worldwide food supply.

This last attempt will, of course, fail, because if the French try to cut off the supply, they will face a combined Turkish, Chinese, Russian and US army.

We assume that Jean Michel de Rothschild will soon be in contact with the Alliance of White Hats to negotiate a capitulation. He has no choice.

In any case, the fall of the last Rothschild puppets will be only one appetizer for the main course, the final overthrow of the US Corporation.

To understand why it needs to collapse, the US government spent an incredible 603 billion dollars in February, while it only earned 296 billion dollars in tax revenues.

<https://www.zerohedge.com/markets/us-deficit-hits-record-11-trillion-first-5-months-2025-february-taxes-fail-cover-even-half>

The total 115 billion dollars of savings made by the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) are therefore only enough to cover one third of the deficit of a month.

You have to do a lot more than that. They try. One sign that Elon Musk is processing NASA - the film studio that depicts itself as a space authority - is the setting of the show "Astronauts are stuck at the International Fake Station":

A pair of US astronauts who have been stuck on the International Space Station for more than nine months will return to Earth on Tuesday evening, NASA said.

But even the closure of the entire NASA would save only 22 billion dollars per year - a drop in the ocean.

The DOGE has found that there are 394 million social income recipients in the US, although there are only 334 million US citizens.

The complete closure of the social security - a political impossibility - would save 1.5 trillion dollars per year. But even that wouldn't help. According to St. Louis Fed and other sources have over 250 trillion dollars in debt and uncovered liabilities.

This is not a problem that can be solved by reducing costs.

Tariffs will not help either. As I have already mentioned in previous reports, 150% tariffs on all US imports would be required to pay the US government budget, and no one will pay 150% customs duties. Tariffs will also make things more expensive. For the first time, the USA is imposing tariffs on products such as smartphones, desktop computers and tablets. A significant portion of these goods - 87% of video game consoles, 78% of smartphones and 79% of laptops - is imported from China, and they are all subject to these tariffs. You can be sure that the smuggling of these goods into the USA will become a lucrative underground business. Irrespective of this, the US will not save it from bankruptcy.

All this means that the entire system has to be switched off and rebuilt from scratch. That is what the White Hat Alliance proposes. We are starting with an anniversary year, nationalized central banks such as the Federal Reserve and establishing a future planning agency to let people choose the future they want. At the moment, they are being driven to a dystopian future with permanent slavery for humanity with wars, pandemics, pandemics, etc.

The other thing that probably needs to be unplugged and rebooted is the entire social matrix. As Constantin von Hoffmeister, a political and cultural commentator from Germany, writes:

The West, lost in the labyrinth of its own technocratic nightmare, winds like a dying animal, mechanized and blind... the final demise of the fetish civilization, in which the technology... becomes an iron cage and holds its creators captive in a world that they no longer understand. The Western reaction to Ukraine is precisely this: drones, sanctions, real-time media reports, an illusion of omnipotence maintained by algorithms and artificial intelligence. But the reality slips away from them.... their intelligence has been reduced to an algorithmic process... the financial technocrats of the G7 conjure up 50 billion dollars from nowhere by using the interest rates from Russia's frozen assets... [is] the last stage of the Western decline - economic manipulation replaces genuine production, the press... stops informing and dictating instead what to believe....The truth is irrelevant. The headlines are written before the events occur.

<https://www.rt.com/news/614311-west-russia-simulation-reality/>

Obama's chief speech writer and national security adviser Ben Rhodes [promises] that the collapse of the print media left Obama no choice than to create a new reality online.

This was a process in which the White House and its wider area of think tanks and non-governmental organisations produced a completely new class of experts who confirmed each other on social media to spread claims that would have once been considered marginal or not credible, overwhelming the efforts of traditional gatekeepers and reporters to keep government spokesmen honest. With the construction of these echo chambers, the White House created feedback loops, which could be played out in advance by clever employees of the White House, in order to influence and control the perception of reporters, editors and congress staff, as well as the elusive currents of the "public opinion" they tried to follow.

Even more unusual and worrying was what followed Trump's defeat in 2020. Since the Democrats were back in power, the new intelligence apparatus was now able to exert not only social and institutional pressure, but also the enforcement bodies of the federal bureaucracy, from the Ministry of Justice to the FBI to the SEC. When the machinery arrived and censored dissent on all topics from COVID to DEI programs and police behavior to the spread and impact of hormone therapies and surgery on adolescents, many people felt pressured by an external force they could not always name; even more people were silent. In fact, large-scale changes in American morality and behavior outside the familiar institutions and processes of representative democracy were regulated by an upward-headed social printing machine, which in many cases was supported by the threat of prosecution or federal measures.

This dystopian nightmare, from which we all begin to wake up, was controlled by Barack Obama from the basement, using an automatic opening to give the impression that "Joe Biden" was president.

Now Trump says that anything that "Bids" has signed with autopen could be invalid.

"The corrupt Joe Biden has brought us into a real mess with Russia and everything else he did. But he didn't know about it, and he generally signed it with autopen, so how could he know? This autopen is a big deal. I don't know, you understand? Who's doing this?" said Trump.

Trump's video can be found at the following link

<https://www.thegatewaypundit.com/2025/03/president-trump-says-everything-joe-biden-signed-autopen/>

Now Trump says Biden's pardons are NULL/VOID, as they were signed by autopen.

Donald J. Trump

@realDonaldTrump

The "Pardons" that Sleepy Joe Biden gave to the Unselect Committee of Political Thugs, and many others, are hereby declared VOID, VACANT, AND OF NO FURTHER FORCE OR EFFECT, because of the fact that they were done by Autopen. In other words, Joe Biden did not sign them but, more importantly, he did not know anything about them! The necessary Pardoning Documents were not explained to, or approved by, Biden. He knew nothing about them, and the people that did may have committed a crime. Therefore, those on the Unselect Committee, who destroyed and deleted ALL evidence obtained during their two year Witch Hunt of me, and many other innocent people, should fully understand that they are subject to investigation at the highest level. The fact is, they were probably responsible for the Documents that were signed on their behalf without the knowledge or consent of the Worst President in the History of our Country, Crooked Joe Biden!

Hopefully this means that there will finally be some long-awaited arrests. Here you can see - judging by the bluish color under his eyes - how the real CIC Trump says to the JFK and Jeffrey-Epstein actors: "They will be published. It is moving forward and is progressing pretty quickly.

In particular, he seems to be more interested in publishing the JFK files than the Epstein files. We should keep him on the toes in this matter.

Trump also seems to be a warmonger to distract from his economic problems. Here you can see the entire live show of Donald Trump, as he follows the air strikes on Yemen live from the White House.

"Do you remember when Killary Clinton and Obummer watched the capture of Osama bin Laden live? All just theatre," comments a source from the Pentagon.

If one reads between the lines of the following two statements, it seems that the Americans have attacked Yemen and then asked the Russians not to let the Houthis sink another US aircraft carrier with missiles.

The Yemeni forces announced on Sunday that they had shot at the US aircraft carrier USS Harry Truman and his warships in the northern Red Sea with 18 ballistic cruise missiles and a drone.

<https://english.masirahtv.net/post/46273/Armed-Forces-Launch-Missile-Attack-on-USS-Harry-Truman-in-Red-Sea>

The American side informed about the decision to start a military operation against the Houthi forces in the Red Sea region. In response to the arguments put forward by the American representative, Sergey Lavrov stressed the need for an immediate cessation of violence by all parties and the importance for them to enter into a political dialogue with the aim of finding a solution that prevents further bloodshed.

- said the Russian Foreign Ministry in a statement.

The Russians called on both sides to stop the mutual attacks.

The fact is that Israel is bankrupt and the Americans ask Russia for help.

This was the reason why Turkish presidential adviser Akif Cagatay Kilic said that "the recent incidents in the Syrian province of Latakia," which occurred between elements of the overthrown regime and the forces of the new government, "state authority is gradually taking shape, even if the loss of life is a tragic situation for all of us."

0:00 / 0:31

<https://www.yenisafak.com/en/news/turkiye-shows-no-retreat-on-its-security-presidents-chief-advisor-3699797>

In response to appeals from the West (including a publisher here last week), some 9,000 people are looking for refuge in Hmeimim, an air base set up by Russia in the 2015 US-backed war, which began in 2011 to overthrow the Syrian government of former President Bashar al-Assad as part of its intervention.

<https://thecradle.co/articles/thousands-of-syrian-alawites-sheltering-at-russian-base-one-week-after-state-massacres>

Basically, Russia is protecting Israeli proxy from Turkish revenge.

Another sign that Israel has lost is that Trump is now saying, "No one sells any Palestinians," and rejecting the question of a reporter who wanted to know whether plans to "expel the Palestinians from the Gaza Strip" were discussed with Irish Prime Minister Michael Martin.

This is in direct contradiction to what Trump said, who occurred with Benjamin Netanyahu (after the helicopter crash of 29. January, where a Trump avatar was killed). This is further proof that the real Trump is back.

Another sign that the Arab Emirates is coming to an end is that more and more people are finding out that Israel and Hamas are one and the same. Tucker Carlson has just interviewed the Prime Minister of Qatar and guess what he has just revealed: he makes it clear that they did not support Hamas, but have the office because "the US has asked for it"

Real Trump has bigger problems than Israel; he has a civil war on his back. A large group of political slaves marches against him in step. The most recent example is that 49 Democratic members of Congress published near identical tweets about a threatened government shutdown.

The Democrats in the House are closed for a four-week extension of the funding that stops harmful cuts, keeps the government open to serve the people, and allows Congress to reach a non-partisan financing agreement. I am ready to vote tomorrow or Friday to adopt a four-week extension.

They are all puppets in the possession of Soros, as the photo below shows.

One indication of how far advanced this process is that CIVICUS, a left-wing and Soros-funded organization, has placed the United States on an observation list of countries that supposedly violate civil rights, including North Korea, Russia and China.

This is a declaration of civil war.

Trump admits that he is already at war. Last week he said, "I found in Los Angeles. And we have opened the water, and the water is now flowing downwards. Now the farmers will have water for their land, and the water is in it. But I actually had to break in. We broke in because we had people who were afraid to give water.

As a further sign of his state of war, President Donald Trump entered the Justice Department on Friday and described his opponents in the courtroom as a "scum," judge as "corrupt," and the prosecutors who investigated him as "disturbed." With the Justice Department logo, Trump described his political opponents as lawbreakers and said that others should be sent to prison.

Now Larry Fink of BlackRock has just issued a direct threat to President Trump: STOP the mass deportations or have economic chaos! The globalist elite is in shock because Trump is taking apart in its corrupt system, which is based on cheap illegal workers and the greed of the corporations. Wall Street is losing control, the deportations come, and the swamp is in a complete funk! Fink does not warn America - he warns Trump. And it reveals the deep, dark truth about illegal immigration in this country, says a CIA source.

BlackRock, State Street, Vanguard, etc. are the corporate enemies of the people and must be nationalized so that the money stolen from the American people through central bank fraud can be returned to them. This is exactly what the headline is about:

Wait until you see their offshore accounts hidden by multiple layers of mailbox companies and LLCs. The release of Panama Papers 3.0 this summer will shake Washington, DC and the nation to their foundations. My final update from the forensic investigators who have reviewed millions of documents was that 3,034 current politicians (including local, state and federal governments, and 91 federal judges) have "hidden" offshore bank accounts, using tactics to protect assets not only from judgments and prying eyes, but also to circumvent taxes. The typical scheme that these offshore "asset protection" companies set up and which costs their clients 6- or even 7-digit amounts to legal fees can be as simple as: Bribes/dirt money - law firm - letterbox company 1 (Panama) - letterbox company 2 (British Virgin Islands) - letterbox company 3 (Swiss bank): Legitimate business with additional letterbox company

In addition to the fight against the oligarchs, Trump also has other fights ahead of him. Immediately after talking about the cuts at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, a series of strong tornadoes through the Midwest in the night from Friday to Saturday, killing at least 34 people. Pentagon sources say this was a DEW attack.

The cartels are another war. Colonel Doug Macgregor confirms that the Mexican drug cartels have Javelin missile systems that we sent to Ukraine and the US border.

Indicated from Mexican government circles that the cartels control the Mexican government, so a war against them would mean that he would have to overthrow the Mexican government, not to mention the part of the CIA that controls drug trafficking.

After all, Trump has to deal with China. He is definitely preparing for the construction of metal refineries on Pentagon military bases as part of his plan to boost the domestic production of critical minerals and balance China's control of the sector, two high-ranking government officials to Reuters. But that is not enough. The heads of the German and British intelligence services explained to their governments: "There is no doubt that there is no longer any doubt that COVID-19 was developed in the Wuhan Institute of Virology."

This is a bellicose act, and someone has to hold the Chinese faction controlled by the Rockefellers to account.

It is clear that the Chinese themselves are planning big steps. China has begun the construction of huge invasions in the style of the D-Day invasion, which fuels fears that they are preparing for an invasion of Taiwan. The huge troop transporters are able to bring tank fleets and thousands of soldiers directly on Taiwanese roads.

The Chinese are also working with the North Koreans to do something in Japan.

As we have already reported, 800,000 armed Chinese have been smuggled into Japan and have laid out American and Japanese military facilities there. For their part, gangsters associated with North Korea promise measures against Khazarian mafia fronts such as Invesco and BlackRock, etc.

There is also a revolution in the air. Mass demonstrations are held before the Ministry of Finance, which call for the dissolution of the Ministry. The demonstrators claim that the ministry is plundering the country to promote foreign oligarchs. They also claim that the government has murdered over 500,000 people with vaccines.

Takahashi Tachibana, a popular politician who calls for the abolition of the state propaganda broadcaster NHK, was attacked with an axe during his speech at this demonstration last week. The corporate media ignored this. However, it was everywhere to read on the Internet, and people are very angry. On the 30th March, farmers are expected to travel to the capital with tractors to demonstrate and overthrow the government. The government is so frightened that it has rushed to pass a law that allows it to disconnect Internet messaging services.

A prominent right-wing power broker says the government of Shigeru Ishiba is about to fall.

As things stand now, it looks like the EU will be the first domino that falls to the West, and Japan the first to fall in the east. Then comes the USA

Ultimately, this is likely to lead to the fall of NATO, the BIS, the IMF, the UN and all the other control instruments of the Khazarian mafia.
