Quick notes

If you’re reading through this PDF and some of the images look blurry, it can be fixed by using Adobe Reader rather than a web browser to view it (I would expect other dedicated PDF viewers to work fine also, but I haven’t tested any others). Of course, if you don’t mind it, continue on.

If you use Adobe Reader, you also need to make sure the settings are set up correctly. Once you have the program open, go to: Edit > Preferences… > Page Display > Resolution. Once you’re there, make sure it’s set to “Use system setting.” If that doesn’t solve it, use “Custom resolution” and set it to 96 pixels/inch.

All headlines, articles, tweets, Google Maps images, etc. are sourced – just click on the images themselves.

You could argue that this book should be called the Book of Q Coincidences, rather than Book of Q Proofs. It’s up to you to decide at what point these strange “coincidences” are no longer just “coincidences.”

INTRODUCTION
Some “Q” Basics

This is just a random post I picked to use as an example – the post content does not matter here.

Q posts are numbered in order – this is Q’s 2023rd post.

This darker gray box is the post that Q is replying to.
“Questions provide answers”

Q’s posts are often arranged as a series of questions, where one question answers the question that was asked just before it.

An example (full post not shown):

The questions are set up so that they imply the answer:

What does SA obtain in exchange for payment?
Access
Why is access important?

There’s no reason why you would ask “Why is access important?” if the answer to the previous question wasn’t “access” – the answer is implied.
Another example:

Did the US gov’t seize/stop/track other slush funds that prevent or create risk to operate?

Why did JK travel to SA recently?

To “seize/stop/track other slush funds that prevent or create risk to operate”

What is SA known for?

Where do the biggest donations originate from?

SA

JK = Jared Kushner

SA = Saudi Arabia
Mini-timeline until the beginning of Q

I want to begin with a few relevant events that happened before Q started posting, to help set the stage.
Donald Trump interview with Rona Barrett

October 6th, 1980

Rona Barrett: You are a mover. You are a doer. If you could make America perfect, how would you do it?

Donald Trump: Well, I think that America is a country that has tremendous, tremendous potential. I think that much like the mind I think that America is using very, very little of its potential. I feel that this country with the proper leadership can go on to become what it once was, and I hope, and certainly hope, that it does go on to be what it should be.

Rona Barrett: What should it be?

Donald Trump: It should really be a country that gets the respect of other countries.

Rona Barrett: Is respect the most important thing in your opinion?

Donald Trump: Respect can lead to other things. When you get the respect of the other countries, then the other countries tend to do a little bit as you do, and you can create the right attitudes. The Iranian situation is a case in point. That they hold our hostages is just absolutely, and totally ridiculous. That this country sits back and allows a country such as Iran to hold our hostages, to my way of thinking, is a horror, and I don’t think they’d do it with other countries. I honestly don’t think they’d do it with other countries.

Rona Barrett: For some people the ultimate goal in life has been becoming the President of the United States, would you like to be the President of the United States?

Donald Trump: I really don’t believe I would, Rona. But I would like to see somebody as the president who could do the job, and there are very capable people in this country.

Rona Barrett: Most people who are capable and not running for office. Most men are frightened of politics today.

Donald Trump: It is a shame, isn’t it?

Rona Barrett: Yes.

Donald Trump: It is a shame. The most capable people are not necessarily running for political office, and that is a very sad commentary on the country. They head major corporations, and they head this and that, but they are not running for political office.

Rona Barrett: Why wouldn’t someone like yourself run for political office? You have all the money that you possibly need. You’ve accomplished a great deal even though you are only 34. I know there’s a lot of things that you possibly can do in the years ahead. Why wouldn’t you dedicate yourself to public service?

Donald Trump: Because I think it’s a very mean life. I would love, and I would dedicate my life to this country but I see it as being a mean life, and I also see it in somebody with strong views, and somebody with the kind of views that are maybe a little bit unpopular, which may be right, but may be unpopular, wouldn’t necessarily have a chance of getting elected against somebody with no great brain but a big smile. That’s a sad commentary for the political process.

Rona Barrett: Television in a strange way has ruined that process, hasn’t it?

Donald Trump: It’s hurt the process very much. I mean the Abraham Lincoln’s of the world. Abraham Lincoln would probably not be electable today because of television. He was not a handsome man, and he did not smile at all. He would not be considered to be a prime candidate for the presidency, and that’s a shame, isn’t it?

Rona Barrett: But if all the men are like you, then when are we going to get somebody who might be good?

Donald Trump: I don’t know. I hope it’s around the corner, but I don’t know. I really don’t know. What I would like to be involved in is trying to help choose somebody, or working with a group of people whereby they put up a candidate who would be acceptable to be a presidential, you know, to be the president. The country if we have the one man, and it’s really not that big a situation. You know people say, “Well, what could anybody do as president?” One man could turn this country around. The one proper president could turn this country around. I firmly believe that.

Trump gives a campaign speech
October 13th, 2016
South Florida Fair Expo Center, West Palm Beach, Florida

“Thank you, it is so great to be here in Florida.

In 26 days, we are going to win the state, and we are going to win the White House.

Our movement is about replacing a failed and corrupt political establishment with a new government controlled by you, the American People.

There is nothing the political establishment will not do, and no lie they will not tell, to hold on to their prestige and power at your expense.

The Washington establishment, and the financial and media corporations that fund it, exists for only one reason: to protect and enrich itself.

The establishment has trillions of dollars at stake in this election. As an example, just one single trade deal they’d like to pass, involves trillions of dollars controlled by many countries, corporations and lobbyists.

For those who control the levers of power in Washington, and for the global special interests they partner with, our campaign represents an existential threat.

This is not simply another 4-year election. This is a crossroads in the history of our civilization that will determine whether or not We The People reclaim control over our government.

The political establishment that is trying everything to stop us, is the same group responsible for our disastrous trade deals, massive illegal immigration, and economic and foreign policies that have bled this country dry.”

“It’s a global power structure that is responsible for the economic decisions that have robbed our working class, stripped our country of its wealth, and put that money into the pockets of a handful of large corporations and political entities.”
“The Clinton Machine is at the center of this power structure. We've seen this firsthand in the WikiLeaks documents in which Hillary Clinton meets in secret with international banks to plot the destruction of U.S. sovereignty in order to enrich these global financial powers.”

“With their control over our government at stake, with trillions of dollars on the line, the Clinton Machine is determined to achieve the destruction of our campaign, which has now become a movement the likes of which our country has never seen before – and we won’t let them do that.

The most powerful weapon deployed by the Clintons is the corporate media. Let’s be clear on one thing: the corporate media in our country is no longer involved in journalism. They are a political special interest, no different than any lobbyist or other financial entity with an agenda. And their agenda is to elect the Clintons at any cost, at any price, no matter how many lives they destroy.

For them, it is a war – and for them, nothing is out of bounds.

This is a struggle for the survival of our nation. This election will determine whether we are a free nation, or whether we have only the illusion of Democracy but are in fact controlled by a small handful of global special interests rigging the system.

This is not just conspiracy but reality, and you and I know it.

The establishment and their media enablers wield control over this nation through means that are well known. Anyone who challenges their control is deemed a sexist, a racist, a xenophobe and morally deformed. They will attack you, they will slander you, they will seek to destroy your career and reputation. And they will lie, lie and lie even more.

The Clintons are criminals. This is well-documented, and the establishment that protects them has engaged in a massive cover-up of widespread criminal activity at the State Department and Clinton Foundation in order to keep the Clintons in power. Never in history have we seen such a cover-up as this, one that includes the destruction of 33,000 emails, 13 phones, laptops, missing boxes of evidence, and on and on.

People who are capable of such crimes against our nation are capable of anything.”
“But let me state this as clearly as I can. These attacks are orchestrated by the Clintons and their media allies. They are false and slanderous in every respect.”

“So now, the Clinton Machine, has put forward a small handful of people out of the tens of thousands I have met, worked with and employed – in order to make wild and false allegations that fail to meet even the most basic test of common sense. Again, this is nothing more than an attempt to destroy our movement and for the Clintons to keep their corrupt control over this government.

When I declared my candidacy, I knew what bad shape our country was in. I had seen firsthand the corruption and the sickness that has taken over our politics. I knew they would throw every lie they could at me, and my family, and my loved ones.

I knew they would stop at nothing to try to stop me.

But I take all of these slings and arrows for you. I take them for our movement, so that we can have our country back.

Our great civilization, here in America and across the civilized world, has come upon a moment of reckoning.

We’ve seen it in the United Kingdom, where they voted to liberate themselves from global government and global trade deals and global immigration deals that have destroyed their sovereignty.

But the central base of world political power is here in America, and it is our corrupt political establishment that is the greatest power behind the efforts at radical globalization and the disenfranchisement of working people.

Their financial resources are unlimited. Their political resources are unlimited. Their media resources are unlimited. And, most importantly, the depths of their immorality is unlimited.

Our political establishment has no soul.”
“This is a conspiracy against you, the American people.

This is our moment of reckoning as a society and as a civilization.

I didn’t need to do this. I built a great company, and I had a wonderful life. I could have enjoyed the benefits of years of successful business for myself and my family, instead of going through this absolute horror show of lies, deceptions and malicious attacks. I’m doing it because this country has given me so much, and I feel strongly it was my turn to give back.

Some people warned me this campaign would be a journey to hell. But they are wrong, it will be a journey to heaven because we will help so many people.

In my former life, I was an insider as much as anybody else – and I know what’s like to be an insider. Now I am being punished for leaving their special club and revealing to you their great scam. Because I used to be part of the club, I’m the only one who can fix it. I’m doing this for the people, and this movement is just right – and we will take back this country for you and Make America Great Again.

The corrupt establishment knows that we are an existential threat to their criminal enterprise. They know, that if we win, their power is gone and returned to you. The clouds hanging over our government can be lifted, and replaced with a bright future – but it all depends on whether we let the New York Times decide our future, or whether we let the American people decide our future.”

“I will not lie to you. These false attacks hurt. To be lied about, to be slandered, to be smeared so publicly and before your family, is painful.

What the Clinton Machine is doing to me, and my family, is egregious beyond words. It is reprehensible beyond description.

But I also know, it’s not about me – it’s about all of you. It’s about all of us, together, as a country.

It’s about the Veterans who need medical care, the mothers who’ve lost children to terrorism and crime, it’s about the inner cities and the border towns who desperately need our help, it’s about the millions of jobless Americans. This election is about the people being crushed by Obamacare, and it’s about defeating ISIS and appointing Supreme Court Justices who will defend our Constitution.

This election is also about the African-American and Hispanic communities whose communities have been plunged into crime, poverty and failing schools by the policies of Hillary Clinton. They’ve robbed these citizens of their future, and I will give them their hope, jobs and opportunities back. I will deliver.

This election is about every man, woman and child in our country who deserves to live in safety, prosperity and peace.”
“We will rise above the lies, the smears, and the ludicrous slanders from ludicrous reporters.

We will vote for the country we want.

We will vote for the future we want.

We will vote for the politics we want.

We will vote to put this corrupt government cartel out of business. We will remove from our politics the special interests who have betrayed our workers, our borders, our freedoms, and our sovereign rights as a nation. We will end the politics of profit, we will end the rule of special interests, we will put a stop to the raiding of our country – and the disenfranchisement of our people.”

Las Vegas Shooting: 59 Killed and More Than 500 Hurt Near Mandalay Bay

U.S.

The Worst Mass Shooting in Modern American History

President Trump unexpectedly called the press reporters to come in to the White House for a photo op on a Thursday night. Many military leaders were included in the photo.

Trump: Do you know what this represents? Maybe it’s the calm before the storm.

Reporter 1: What’s the storm?

Trump: Could be, the calm. The calm before the storm.

Reporter 2: On Iran? On ISIS? On what?

Reporter 3: What storm, Mr. President?

Trump: We have the world’s great military people in this room, I will tell you that. And we’re gonna have a great evening.

Reporter 3: What storm, Mr. President?

Trump: You’ll find out.
Some of Q’s first posts described how important the military & military intelligence are. Q began talking about the military in only his second post.

Some of us come here to drop crumbs, just crumbs. POTUS is 100% insulated - any discussion suggesting he’s even a target is false.

POTUS will not be addressing nation on any of these issues as people begin to be indicted and must remain neutral for pure optical reasons. To suggest this is the plan is false and should be common sense.

Focus on Military Intelligence/ State Secrets and why might that be used vs any three letter agency
What SC decision opened the door for a sitting President to activate - what must be showed?
Why is POTUS surrounded by generals ^^
Again, there are a lot more good people than bad so have faith.
This was a hostile takeover from an evil corrupt network of players (not just Democrats).

Don’t fool yourself into thinking Obama, Soros, Roth’s, Clinton’s etc have more power present day than POTUS.

Key:
Military Intelligence v FBI CIA NSA
No approval or congressional oversight
State Secrets upheld under SC
Who is the Commander and Chief of the military?

Under what article can the President impose MI take over investigations for the 3 letter agencies? What conditions must present itself? Why is this so VERY important? Who surrounds POTUS? They lost this very important power ___ the one area of the govt not corrupt and directly serves POTUS.

Military Intelligence ref above is the absolute biggest inside drop this board will ever receive.
Now think about why Antifa plays right into the plan? Always ahead. Good guys are winning.
Military Intelligence.

What former President used the military to save the republic and what occurred exactly?
Biggest drop to ever be provided on Pol. Study and prepare. The masses tend to panic in such situations. No war. No civil unrest. Clean and swift.

Note MI has the same SAPs as NSA, CIA etc as designated post 9-11.
Why is this relevant?
Who can be held hostage and controlled?
CIA thinks its foreign offshore assets are strong enough to defend against the US executive (not accounting for military use on domestic soil).
Why does the Constitution explicitly grant this authority to the President and what is it to prevent?
They knew our agencies would grow in power so much so they could/can hold the executive hostage or engage with bad actors. Trump nominated someone new to direct every agency but one. He controls the tcp.

Think about it logically.
The only way is the military. Fully controlled. Save & spread (once 11.3 verifies as 1st marker).
Biggest advanced drop on Pol.

You can count the people who have the full picture on two hands. Of those (less than 10 people) only three are non-military.

Saudi Arabia announces arrest of billionaire Prince Alwaleed bin Talal

An anti-corruption committee helmed by Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman arrested dozens on Saturday.

By Sarah Wildman  |  Nov 5, 2017, 2:55pm EST

Saudi Arabia’s billionaire Prince Alwaleed bin Talal was arrested on Saturday night alongside at least 10 other princes and several government ministers and former ministers. All were caught up in a zealous sweep organized by a new anti-corruption committee helmed by 32-year-old Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, whose rapid rise and consolidation of power has raised eyebrows in the kingdom and around the world.

ANSWERS
This first proof provides a great opportunity to show how Q’s drops work. In most cases, Q can’t just tell us exactly what is going to happen, like in the case of the Saudi purge. So, Q drops pieces that can be put together once the event actually happens. Once the pieces are put together, they show that Q knew the event was going to happen beforehand.

In this case, Q made many drops about the military (see introduction), and at the same time, made many separate drops about Saudi Arabia – but never connected the two. Q even gave the dates a military-related event would happen: 11/3–11/4. Then, on 11/4, martial law was declared in Saudi Arabia and dozens were arrested. Once this happened we were able to go back, reread Q’s drops, and put the pieces together.

From before the purge:

Get the popcorn, Friday & Saturday will deliver on the MAGA promise. POTUS knows he must clean house (gov’t) in order to 'free up' and demonstrate who has authority in order to pass important legislation. This was always the priority. Remember, AG Sessions cannot look like an impartial player that is out to get all former Obama team members as we need him for other important work. All will come into focus and for anyone to think POTUS is not in control is kidding themselves. Also, he’s 100% insulated with zero risk of impeachment (fact).

Think about it logically. The only way is the military. Fully controlled. Save & spread (once 11.3 verifies as 1st marker). Biggest advanced drop on Pol.
Here, Q mentions the arrest announcement of a big-named politician in the US, Mr. Podesta, occurring on 11/4 – this did not happen, but a big-named politician in Saudi Arabia, Prince Alwaleed bin Talal, was arrested on 11/4.

“Disinformation is necessary.”

Q cannot state exactly what is going to happen, he can only “drop crumbs” that can be understood once the event actually happens.

Q even said, “a state of temporary military control will be actioned,” telling us that martial law would be declared. “Public riots are being organized ... in an effort to prevent the arrest and capture of more senior public officials.”
These are from after martial law was declared and many were arrested:

| SA --> US |
| What force is actively deployed in SA? |
| NG? |
| Have faith. |
| These, the crumbs, in time, will equate to the biggest drops ever disclosed in our history. |
| Remember, disinformation is real. |

| SA --> US --> Asia --> EU |
| Disinformation is real. |
| Distractions are necessary. |
| Focus was US today while real happening in SA under same context (military control, martial law, missile strike (rogue etc). |
| Necessary. |

Re-review graphic (in full) each day post news release. Learn to distinguish between relevant/non-relevant news. Disinformation is real. Disinformation is necessary. Ex: US ML, NG (1) False SA True. Why was this necessary? What questions were asked re: SA prior to SA events? Why is this relevant? Think mirror. Look there, or [here], or there, truth is behind you. What is a map? Why is a map useful? What is a legend? Why is a legend useful? What is a sequence? Why is this relevant? When does a map become a guide? What is a keystone? Everything stated is relevant. Everything. Future provides past. Map provides picture. Picture provides 40,000ft. v. 40,000ft. v. is classified.

“40,000ft. v. is classified.”

Q’s drops (the map) linked together (connecting the dots) provide the picture, and the picture provides the 40,000 ft. view, which is classified. In other words, Q’s drops (not classified info), when connected, allow us to see things that are considered classified, even though Q never gave us classified info.
Looking back now, it all makes sense:

Oct. 28: “US M’s will conduct the operation while NG activated.”
“Where is Huma? Follow Huma.”

Oct. 29: “Focus on Military Intellingence/ State Secrets and why might that be used vs any three letter agency”
“Follow the money, it’s the key.”
“What countries donated big money to CF and why?”

Oct. 30: “Military Intelligence ref above is the absolute biggest inside drop this board will ever receive.”

Oct. 31: “Get the popcorn, Friday & Saturday [Nov. 3 & Nov.4] will deliver on the MAGA promise.”
“POTUS knows he must clean house (gov't)”
“How can MI be applied to prosecute bad actors and avoid corrupt agencies and judges?”
“Biggest drop on Pol.”

“Return to comments re: Pelosi and John M (some of us refuse to say his last name for a reason).”
“This all has meaning - everything stated. Big picture stuff - few positions allow for this direct knowledge.”
“Proof to begin 11.3.”
“The only way is the military. Fully controlled. Save & spread (once 11.3 verifies as 1st marker).”
“Not everything can be publicly disclosed because so much ties back to foreign heads of state. Much will be revealed, we want transparency but not at a cost we can’t recover from.”
“slated to occur 11.3 upon the arrest announcement of Mr. Podesta (actionable 11.4).”
“Public riots are being organized ... in an effort to prevent the arrest and capture of more senior public officials.”
“a state of temporary military control will be actioned and special ops carried out.”
Nov. 2: “There is simply no other way than to use the military. It’s that corrupt and dirty.”
“Note increased military movement.”
“The core focus is removing entrenched and fortified bad actors within our federal govt (past and present) as well as others.”
“Alice & Wonderland.” (used x12 before Nov. 4)

H,

Been invited to meet Pervez Musharaff on Nov 6th in NYC. Invited by a friend (Joseph Rutigliano) who you met at my wedding. Joseph is a rail & commercial real estate guy ( was with us in the ’07 & ’08 effort ) and is friends with Musharaff’s US cousin Mahmoud, so meeting will be small group. You know Musharaff’s goal & have heard he just got back from TX meeting with ‘W’. Anyway, Joseph asked me to join him as his interests are purely business (he & others trying to buy the

A,

Well, you were right as usual. Royal Navy and Royal Marine blokes & their ladies do like the ‘Hatter’. Chris has pics to prove it and will send. Tux & hat J Pics include Simon et al – who knew pics were for you, so send their best wishes and regards. UK Navy and Marines big HRC fans. Magnificent, though too short, visit to London Town. Formal military event at Lincoln’s Inn Hall one night. Toasted Queen and you – our Queen. An evening nicely done by Commandant General of Royal Marines, a few active duty Admirals and retired Admiral Scott Ledbetter (Simon’s buddy). Dinner at Institute of Directors on Pall Mall the next. Then great neighborhood Indian food the 3rd night. And pub grub (fish & chips) on the fourth. Yum. Toured the old turf from my Navy days, after too many years since last visit. Naturally included Harrods, Selfridges, and other Oxford St and Knightsbridge costly establishments. Even had ok weather. Walked and walked and walked. Little sleep. Some play. Some interesting work. Surprisingly, no airport body scans or pat downs at either Logan or Heathrow – which certainly made Chris happy. She shares your interview opinion J A bit jet lagged, so not sure how the heck you do it on such a consistent basis.

Your recent 'adventures' warrant use of 'Alice' ;-) Today discussed coverage of your trip with our British friend. His take is that 'America should reconsider a monarchy - assuming Madam Secretary will accept the post' :-) Yep. We also feel Mid East situation would have more clarity and Gulf of Mexico disaster would have been dealt with sooner. My take is that I am just so proud to know the most influential American on the planet....and still want her as Commander-in-Chief. Another 'adventure' behind 'Alice'....accomplished perfectly. Monarchy ? Hmmm, so how many campaign volunteers will we need for that one ! ? Will find them :-) 'Hatter'

Alice,

I note you wrote at 5:30 AM, while concerned about your near term scheduling. We need to get you in a better 'union'. I'm thinking the White House :-) Haven't given up on that and don't want to have made my last
'road trip' for you. Heard from Herm a couple of times. I am so happy about her & new adventure :-) Naturally she directed me to the Pew web site and your comments about her :-) World events amazing.

Was thinking about the issues in Korea, the Israeli confrontations at sea, nuclear shell game in Iran, and now the Japanese Prime Minister resigning.

Follow the money, it's the key.
What is Pelosi's net worth by way of one example. Why coincidentally is her memory apparently going?
Cover for possible future indictment to plead what?
What if John M never had surgery and that was a cover for a future out if needed against prosecution?
Why did Soros transfer his bulk public funds to a NP? Note this doesn't include massive slush funds that are pulled by several high ups.
Why did Soros' son have several meetings with Canadian PM and now is that related to Clinton's?
Can you rely on being able to board a plane and fly away?
Why is MS13 a priority _ nobody got this.
Could people pay such gangs to kill opponents and why / how to insulate against exposure?
The truth is mind blowing and cannot fully be exposed.
Also many are thinking from one point of view, US only, this evil is embedded globally. US is the first domino.
Have faith.

ANSWERS
There are more good people than bad. The wizards and warlocks (inside term) will not allow another Satanic Evil POS control our country. Realize Soros, Clintons, Obama, Putin, etc. are all controlled by 3 families (the 4th was removed post Trump's victory).

11.3 - Podesta indicted
11.6 - Huma indicted

Manafort was placed into Trump's camp (as well as others). The corruption that will come out is so serious that deals must be cut for people to walk away otherwise 70% of elected politicians would be in jail (you are seeing it already begin). A deep cleaning is occurring and the prevention and defense of pure evil is occurring on a daily basis. They never thought they were going to lose control of the Presidency (not just D's) and thought they had control since making past mistakes (JFK, Reagan).

Good speed, Patriots.

How did SA welcome POTUS during his trip? Why was this historic and not covered by MSM? How did SA welcome BO during his trip? How did SA welcome HRC during her trip? Why is this relevant? Not suggesting SA is clean by any means but they play a role in this global game of RISK.

Combine all posts and analyze. The questions provide answers. Remember, information is everything, the flow of information is no longer controlled by the MSM but by you/others. Hence, why we are dedicating 'critical' time to distribute crumbs which can be followed in greater detail to paint the entire picture once more information is released. Why has POTUS dedicated so much time into labeling the MSM as fake news? Why is this relevant? We are fully prepared that all social media will be shut down to prevent the spread of this information (i.e. POTUS' Twitter etc. and/or mass censoring). Sealed Federal orders pre-submitted as prevention and masked as 'in general' (though that does not account for rogue agents/programmers within). Dates (impending actions) are deliberately provided for authenticity. Alice & Wonderland.

President Donald Trump’s personal Twitter account appeared to be offline on Thursday at around 7:00 p.m. eastern time.

The account was restored several minutes later, but many on Twitter took note of the account’s disappearance.

At around 8:00 p.m., the official Twitter Government account tweeted that Trump’s account "was inadvertently deactivated due to human error by a Twitter employee."

"The account was down for 11 minutes, and has since been restored," Twitter Government said. "We are continuing to investigate and are taking steps to prevent this from happening again."

POTUS will be well insulated/protected on AF1 and abroad (specific locations classified) while these operations are conducted due to the nature of the entrenchment. It is time to take back our country and make America great again. Let us salute and pray for the brave men and women in uniform who will undertake this assignment to bring forth peace, unity, and return power to the people.

It is our hope that this message reaches enough people to make a meaningful impact. We cannot yet telegraph this message through normal methods for reasons I'm sure everyone here can understand. Follow the questions from the previous thread(s) and remain calm, the primary targets are within DC and remain at the top (on both sides). The spill over in the streets will be quickly shut down. Look for more false flags – stay alert, be vigilant, and above all, please pray.

God bless my fellow Americans.

Trump also happened to have a newspaper (Financial Times) sitting on his desk that had a headline about the Saudi purge that Q gave us clues about before it happened.
Princes and tycoons arrested in Saudi crackdown on corruption

Crown prince’s purge is biggest power play yet

Billionaire Alwaleed among detainees

Ahmed Al Omair – Riyadh

Sherwin Kirr – Dubai

At least 11 Saudi Arabian princes and dozens of senior officials and prominent businessmen, including one of the world’s richest men, have been arrested by the country’s new anti-corruption commission.

Billionaire tycoon Prince Alwaleed bin Talal, a big investor in Twitter, Citigroup and many other international companies, was among the senior figures detained in the crackdown, people aware of the matter said.

The private airport in Riyadh was closed to prevent personal jets being used to assist any escape, they said.

The arrests, first reported by the Saudi-owned AlArabiya news channel on Saturday, came hours after King Salman ordered the establishment of an anti-corruption commission and named his 52-year-old son, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, to lead it.

The international stature of outspoken Prince Alwaleed, who has sparked with Donald Trump, US president, on Twitter and is estimated to be worth about $30bn, has amplified the broad crackdown on the crown prince’s domestic campaign. Shares in King Abdullah University’s investment company, fell 0.1% on the Tadawul stock exchange, despite announcing a surge in third-quarter earnings yesterday.

‘Government officials have not revealed details of the identities of those arrested. Sources quoted an unnamed senior Saudi official confirming the arrest of Prince Alwaleed and Brathwa al-Jasal, a former finance minister.

Sheikha Al-Majaa, attorney-general, said the corruption suspects ‘will retain all legal privileges relating to their property and funds during the probe’, adding: “There is a broad jurisdictional process under way, which will be duly respected.”

The governor of the Saudi Arabian General Investment Authority said the arrests were “a vital step in creating a fair and level playing field for all potential investors.”

Hightened security around the Ritz Carlton in Riyadh fuelled fears that the detainees were being held in the luxury hotel, which only days earlier had hosted a big investment conference. Ritz-Carlton Barriarto International Hotel International said it was investigating the situation.

The clampdown marks the crown prince’s most dramatic power play yet as he consolidates his domestic base while pushing ahead with a radical economic reform programme to boost the country’s oil revenues.

In a reshuffle on Saturday evening, the king removed Prince Miteb b. Abdullah as minister of the national guard. A source of the late King Abdullah, Prince Miteb had been regarded as a contender for the throne before being replaced by his relaxed and experienced cousin.

The dissociation… suggests that Mohammed bin Salman is extending his iron grip on the ruling family, the military and the national guard to counter what appears to be a more widespread opposition within the family as well as the military to his reforms and the Yemen war, said James Owen, a fellow at Singapore’s Nanyang Technological University.

Prince Mohammed said in a television interview this week that corruption officials would be held accountable “No one who got involved in a corruption case will escape, regardless if he was a minister or a prince,” he said.

The speed and extent of his reforms have prompted dissent among some members of the royal family, who are afraid that these positions of privilege are in jeopardy by and calling for more consultation about the country’s shifting winds.

Adel Fakher, the economy minister who played a central role in Prince Mohammed’s domestic reforms, was also replaced in the reshuffle.

“The idea is that a set of concentration of power in Saudi,” said Hassane Milki, Exotis Capital’s head of equity research.

Another picture of Hong Kong from a plane

Theorizing

For this one, Trump gave us some clues using Twitter:

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump

I am leaving China for #APEC2017 in Vietnam. @FLOTUS Melania is staying behind to see the zoo, and of course, the Great WALL of China before going to Alaska to greet our AMAZING troops.

8:17 PM - 9 Nov 2017

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump

Just landed in Da Nang, Vietnam to deliver a speech at #APEC2017

12:45 AM - 10 Nov 2017

Trump left China at 8:17 PM EST on November 9th

Q posted the picture from the plane at 11:31 PM EST (3 hours 14 minutes after taking off)

Trump arrived in Da Nang, Vietnam at 12:45 AM EST
So, if Trump tweeted right when they took off, and then again right when they landed, it would indicate a 4-hour 28-minute flight.
Line 1 is 460 pixels long and line 2 is 130 pixels long, making the total trip 590 pixels. This makes line 1 worth \( \frac{460}{590} = 0.7796 \) 77.96% of the trip. Because line 1 begins where the trip begins and ends around Hong Kong, where the picture was taken, we can estimate about what time Trump’s plane would be near Hong Kong using his takeoff/landing tweets as markers. Using those markers, the trip was 4.6667 hours long (4 hours 28 minutes). 77.96% of the trip would be \( 0.7796 \times 4.6667 \) 3.6381 hours. So, the plane would be around Hong Kong 3.6381 hours in (3 hours 38 minutes) 3 hours 38 minutes after takeoff (8:17 PM EST). Q posted the picture at 11:31 PM EST, so the difference between the theoretical model and the actual time is only 24 minutes. Keep in mind the theoretical model is not perfect. It’s also possible that Trump’s tweets weren’t sent out exactly at takeoff and landing, so the actual times may have been a little different. Given these potential errors, 24 minutes is very close.
Keep in mind that this is just theorizing. If we have the correct location of the picture, the picture was taken looking west. You can see the sun, so that would mean the sun was in the west, meaning the picture was taken in the afternoon rather than in the morning. If it was taken on the flight down to Vietnam, like the theory above says, it would’ve been morning there (around 11 AM local time), so the sun would’ve been in the east and wouldn’t have been visible in the picture.

So it’s possible that Q took the picture at a different time, but sent it at that time to help us get the idea of where they were (they still would’ve been around that point in the flight down to Vietnam, it just means that the picture itself was taken at a different time).

Aylesbury mid-air crash: Four dead as plane and helicopter wreckage lands near Rothschild manor house

By Patrick Sawyer, senior reporter and Nicola Harley
17 November 2017 • 7:52PM

Four people have been killed in a mid-air collision between a helicopter and light aircraft flying from an airfield where air traffic control had been shut due to “staff shortages”.

Wreckage from the aircraft tumbled from the sky and landed just over a mile from the former home of the Rothschild banking family at Waddesdon Manor in Buckinghamshire, yesterday lunchtime.

Members of the Rothschild reported hearing a “loud bang” and a plume of smoke could be seen above trees.

The Air Accidents Investigation Branch said the collision involved a helicopter and a two-seat Cessna 152 aircraft, each carrying two people, both of the craft had taken off from Wycombe Air Park, 23 miles away near High Wycombe.

A Notice to Airmen was previously issued to warn pilots the air field’s air traffic control services would be closed during three 30-minute periods on selected days between November 7-30 due to a "staff shortage".
A member of the Rothschild family said the collision missed her by five minutes.

The woman, who did not want her full name published, said she heard a loud bang while she was driving her car to a dog grooming event, near Waddesdon, in Buckinghamshire.

Just five minutes earlier she had been picking a plant in the Wilderness Woods, the scene of the crash site, on the Waddesdon Estate.

"I'm totally shocked," she said. "I heard a loud bang, which I thought was a car crash."
An aviation student who dreamt of becoming a pilot was killed along with three other people when his plane hit a helicopter near the Rothschild's Buckinghamshire estate on Friday.

Friends have paid tribute to 18-year-old Saavan Mundae, from Buckinghamshire New University’s aviation course, saying he died doing what he “loved and believed in”.

It is the second time in six years tragedy has struck the course, which lost one of its students when the plane she was flying crashed in a Florida swamp.

Also killed when the student’s Cessna 152 crashed into a helicopter on Friday was his flight instructor, the helicopter pilot and his passenger.

Captain Mike Green, the pilot of the helicopter, had taken a passenger on a 'gift' sightseeing tour' when his helicopter was hit by the Cessna.

A former colleague, Captain Phil Croucher, said: 'I shared a cup of tea with him only on Thursday morning. He was a true gentleman. He was probably the most well-respected instructor in the country. He achieved a very high position within the Army as an instructor.

'He was an absolutely dedicated instructor. If you wanted a training instructor there's no one more highly qualified. Almost everybody in the country has been instructed by him. Most instructors have been trained by him.'

Q confirms Trump met Kim Jong-Un on his Asia trip
Tuesday, November 14\textsuperscript{th}, 2017

Trump posted a 45-second-long video on Twitter, and said “THANK YOU ASIA!”

In the video, there were a few frames shown out the window of a plane, which was flying at the time.
Q hints to investigate and figure out where the plane was when the video was recorded.
The shot out the window.
The key to getting this shot to match up with a location on Google Maps was to flip it, to get the mirror image. Here’s the flipped version:
The shot from the video matches up with Hyangsan, North Korea. A side-by-side image is shown on the next page for easy comparison.
When this shot was taken, the plane was low to the ground, and, as you can see in the left part of the graphic above, near an airfield. This shows that Trump may have stopped in North Korea on his Asia trip somewhere between November 4th and November 14th – even though this was not announced to the public at all.

They purposely posted this specific shot in the video, knowing we would be able to find the location.
Country-related tweets by Trump (all times EST/EDT):

Nov. 3, 10:07 PM: “Thank you for such a beautiful welcome Hawaii. My great honor to visit @PacificCommand upon arrival. Heading to Pearl Harbor w/ @FLOTUS now.”

Nov. 4, 9:59 PM: “Just gave a speech to the great men and women at Yokota Air Base in Tokyo, Japan. Leaving to see Prime Minister Abe.”

Nov. 5, 5:25 AM: “Thank you to President Moon of South Korea for the beautiful welcoming ceremony. It will always be remembered.”

Nov. 7, 11:57 PM: “Leaving South Korea now heading to China. Looking very much forward to meeting and being with President Xi!”

Nov. 8, 9:27 AM: “On behalf of @FLOTUS Melania and I, THANK YOU for an unforgettable afternoon and evening at the Forbidden City in Beijing, President Xi and Madame Peng Liyuan. We are looking forward to rejoining you tomorrow morning!”

Nov. 9, 8:17 PM: “I am leaving China for #APEC2017 in Vietnam. @FLOTUS Melania is staying behind to see the zoo, and of course, the Great WALL of China before going to Alaska to greet our AMAZING troops.”

Nov. 10, 12:45 AM: “Just landed in Da Nang, Vietnam to deliver a speech at #APEC2017”

Nov. 12, 5:21 AM: “Just landed in the Philippines after a great day of meetings and events in Hanoi, Vietnam!”

Nov. 14, 11:42 PM: “Just returned from Asia after 12 very successful days. Great to be home!”

Looking at the places Trump stopped on his Asia trip, it wouldn’t make much sense to fly over Hyangsan, North Korea, unless he was stopping there (and, I assume, would be a major security risk). The red map marker is Hyangsan.

Highly classified meeting after election

Tuesday, November 14th, 2017

For the coming days ahead.
Ask yourself an honest question, why would a billionaire who has it all, fame, fortune, a warm and loving family, friends, etc. want to endanger himself and his family by becoming POTUS?
Why would he want to target himself and those he cares about?
Does he need money?
Does he need fame?
What does he get out of this?
Does he want to make the US/world a better place for his family and for those good and decent people who have long been taken advantage of?
Perhaps he could not stomach the thought of mass murders occurring to satisfy Moloch?
Perhaps he could not stomach the thought of children being kidnapped, drugged, and raped while leaders/law enforcement of the world turn a blind eye.
Perhaps he was tired of seeing how certain races/countries were being constantly abused and kept in need/poor and suffering all for a specific purpose.
Perhaps he could not in good conscious see the world burn.

Why, hours after the election, did seven people travel to an undisclosed location to hold a very private & highly secured/guarded meeting?

Why didn’t HRC give a concession speech?
When was the last time a presidential candidate didn’t personally give a concession speech?
What happens if the border remained open and the MSM continued to brainwash?
At what point do Patriots, and hard working men and woman, become the minority?

FBI's Strzok and Page spoke of 'secret society' after Trump election, lawmakers say

Two top FBI officials under fire for exchanging anti-Trump text messages during the 2016 election spoke of a “secret society” the day after President Trump's victory, according to two lawmakers with knowledge of the messages.

Peter Strzok -- a top counterintelligence official involved in both the Hillary Clinton email probe and FBI Special Counsel Robert Mueller’s Russia probe -- exchanged more than 50,000 messages with senior FBI lawyer Lisa Page, with whom he was romantically involved.

House Oversight and Government Reform Committee Chairman Trey Gowdy, R-S.C., and Rep. John Ratcliffe, R-Texas, said Monday that among the messages the pair exchanged are references to a “secret society” within the Department of Justice and the FBI.

“We learned today that there may have been a secret society of folks within the Department of Justice and the FBI -- to include Page and Strzok -- that would be working against him,” Ratcliffe said Monday on Fox News’ “The Story with Martha MacCallum.”

They just learned that day (1/23/2018) about this meeting – Q knew about it long before they did.
“I’m not saying that actually happened, but when folks speak in those terms, they need to come forward to explain the context with which they used those terms,” he added.

Gowdy said the “secret society” reference occurred the day after Trump won the presidential election in November 2016.

“There’s a text exchange between these two FBI agents, these two supposed to be objective fact-centric FBI agents, saying that perhaps this is the first meeting of the ‘secret society,’” Gowdy said.

“So of course I’m going to want to know what secret society you’re talking about because you’re supposed to be investigating objectively the person who just won the Electoral College; so yeah I’m going to want to know,” he said.

MORE THAN 50,000 TEXTS EXCHANGED BETWEEN FBI OFFICIALS STRZOK AND PAGE, SESSIONS SAYS

It isn’t the first time the messages have raised questions about what may have been going on at the FBI. In one previously released message, Strzok appeared to make reference to an “insurance policy” against a Trump win.
The picture Q posted was of a post an anon made earlier, making the connection that I pointed out above.

Bomber Strikes Near Times Square, Disrupting City but Killing None

By Sarah Maslin Nir and William K. Rashbaum

Dec. 11, 2017

A would-be suicide attacker detonated a pipe bomb strapped to his body in the heart of Manhattan’s busiest subway corridor on Monday, sending thousands of terrified commuters fleeing the smoke-choked passageways, and bringing the heart of Midtown to a standstill as hundreds of police officers converged on Times Square and the surrounding streets.

But the makeshift weapon failed to fully detonate, and the attacker himself was the only one seriously injured in the blast, which unfolded just before 7:20 a.m.
The suspect, Akayed Ullah, 27, was taken to a hospital after suffering burns from the explosive device, which was attached to his body with Velcro and zip ties and did not fully ignite, officials said. Investigators told Reuters they believe the attack in midtown Manhattan was intended to be a suicide bombing.

The blast, which occurred around 7 a.m. (1200 GMT) in a busy underground passageway between the subway station underneath the Port Authority Bus Terminal and the Times Square subway station, sent commuters fleeing for the exits and police officers rushing to the scene, as officials scrambled to reroute trains and shut down streets.

Three people, including a police officer, suffered minor injuries.

“BDT.”

“Think currency.”
Q posted “Blunt & Direct Time” the night before the attempted bombing, with the first letter in each word being capitalized. In the same post, he said “Hope the $7.8mm was worth it,” tying together BDT and money (although we did not make the connection until afterward). Right after that, he posted again, saying, “False flag(s)” and “Expect fireworks.”

Around 7:20 AM EST, about 8 hours after Q’s posts, a man tried to set off a bomb in the NYC subway.

5 hours later, Q posted “Blunt & Direct Time” again, pointing out that he emphasized “BDT” by capitalizing the first letter in all three words. He said to “think currency.” BDT, in terms of currency, stands for Bangladeshi Taka, the official currency of Bangladesh. The man who tried to set off the bomb was from Bangladesh.

In Q’s post that contained this picture, he also said, “Merry Christmas.”

Along with giving us this “holiday” Twitter confirmation, and giving us a gift (an insider picture — “Merry Christmas”), they may also have specifically posted these 10 minutes apart to signal the [10] marker, telling us to go back and read in the drops where they talked about “10." Q
So, Q is saying that the clock started on 12/7, and that the clock expired 10 days afterward, on 12/17, which is when the power outage occurred.

So what happened on 12/7? Q's posts from that day don't stand out as being directly related to this. However, there was a drill at the ATL airport on 12/7.

Atlanta Airport Fire? Just Smoke From a Drill, Officials Say

Authorities say a routine training exercise at the world's busiest airport in Atlanta produced a plume of heavy, dark smoke rising over the city and visible for miles.

ATLANTA (AP) — Authorities say a routine training exercise near the world's busiest airport produced a plume of heavy, dark smoke rising over Atlanta and visible for miles.

Atlanta Fire Rescue Sgt. Cortez Stafford says the smoke late Thursday morning appeared darker than in previous training drills, and said one possibility for that could be the cold weather the city is experiencing.

Airport officials said the planned drill was part of "live burn training" exercises at the Atlanta Fire Training Center near the airport.
What caused the airport to go dark, 10 days after this drill? Fire.

Georgia Power believes the outage was caused by a fire that led to extensive damage in an underground facility.

Atlanta Mayor Kasim Reed said it took almost two hours to contain the fire. He said because of the strong fumes from the flames, Georgia Power crews could not access the facility immediately.

Georgia Power said the switch that accesses the back-up power system was also damaged in the fire, causing both systems to go down.

“The airport has a very redundant, very robust system,” a Georgia Power spokeswoman said.

Once the fire was extinguished, Georgia Power crews assessed the damage and began repairs.

[READ: Passengers frustrated, confused by airport power outage: 'it's crazy in here']

Power was restored to Concourse F around 7:30 p.m.

Officials said they do not know what caused the fire and it will take time to investigate.

"We have no way of absolutely knowing at this time that our system may have been tampered with in order to create this kind of chaos and confusion," Reed said.

Summary:

11/5: Q posts “Ten days. Darkness.”
12/6: Anon asks: “The 10 days, darkness.. when?” – Q responds: “Shutdown.”
12/7: Fire exercise at ATL airport – the clock starts
12/15: Q posts “Dark [10]”
12/17: The clock expires: 10 days is up – Massive underground fire causes ATL airport to go dark (shut down)
Was the power outage actually caused by a fire, or was that just the cover story for an 11-hour-long power outage at the world’s busiest airport? Who knows.

Q’s post two days after the outage could have been a clue:

However, Q never clarified further, so this is just speculation.

BREAKING: President Trump says he is directing the Department of Defense and the Pentagon to "establish a space force as the sixth branch of the armed forces."

"We must have an American dominance in space."
President Trump officially directed the Pentagon to establish a sixth branch of the U.S. military in space on Monday. Speaking at a National Space Council meeting at the White House, Mr. Trump called for a "space force" to ensure American dominance on the high frontier.

The president also signed his administration’s third Space Policy Directive, calling for establishment of new protocols and procedures to manage and monitor the increasing numbers of satellites in low-Earth orbit and the tens of thousands of pieces of space junk and debris that pose an increasing threat to costly spacecraft.

The directive follows on the heels of two other major space policy initiatives being implemented by the National Space Council, one calling for returning humans to the moon before eventual missions to Mars and another aimed at streamlining the federal space bureaucracy to reduce red tape and streamline licensing and oversight of commercial space activity.

With Tax Reform, AT&T Plans to Increase U.S. Capital Spending $1 Billion and Provide $1,000 Special Bonus to more than 200,000 U.S. Employees

Today, Congress approved legislation representing the first comprehensive tax reform in a generation. The President is expected to sign the bill in the coming days.

Once tax reform is signed into law, AT&T* plans to invest an additional $1 billion in the United States in 2018 and pay a special $1,000 bonus to more than 200,000 AT&T U.S. employees — all union-represented, non-management and front-line managers. White House: Trump will likely sign tax bill Friday

BY JORDAN FABIAN - 12/21/17 05:10 PM EST

President Trump will likely sign the Republican tax overhaul on Friday, according to a White House official.

"There's a very good chance the president signs it tomorrow," said the official.

The measure was the most extensive rewrite of the tax code in at least a generation and its passage Wednesday marked the first major legislative achievement for Trump and the GOP.

But the question of when Trump would sign the bill into law had remained unanswered.

President Trump signs tax bill into law

By VERONICA STRACQUALURSI Dec 22, 2017, 11:12 AM ET

President Donald Trump signed the $1.5 trillion rewrite of the tax code into law at the White House on Friday capping off a victory lap before leaving to spend the holidays in Mar-a-Lago.

"Everything in here is really tremendous things for businesses, for people, for the middle class, for workers. And I consider this very much a bill for the middle class and a bill for jobs. Corporations are literally going wild over this," Trump said.

Trump indicated that he was going to wait until after the new year to sign the bill, but when he saw reports on the news speculating about the timing he "immediately called and said let's get it ready."
"I'll sign this today rather than having a big formal ceremony in two weeks when we were going to do it. I didn't want you folks to say I wasn't keeping my promise. I'm keeping my promise," Trumps said. "I'm signing it before Christmas. I said the bill would be on my desk before Christmas. And you are holding me literally to that. We did a rush job today. It's not fancy. But it's the Oval Office."

Calling it the "biggest tax cut, the biggest reform of all time" – a claim fact checkers say is false – Trump celebrated the $1.5 trillion tax cut and applauded corporations like AT&T that announced employee bonuses because of it.

Full text of controversial book on Trump, "Fire and Fury", by Michael Wolff, leaks onto internet:

8:11 PM - 7 Jan 2018
WikiLeaks tweeted, deleted, and then reposted a link to the full text of the explosive book about the Trump White House

Sonam Sheth Jan. 7, 2018, 10:59 PM

It's unclear why WikiLeaks tweeted out a link to the full text of the book, which Trump has dismissed as "a work of fiction" and his aides have called "a pile of garbage." The organization did not immediately respond to a request for comment.

WikiLeaks is promoting a pirated copy of Michael Wolff’s Fire and Fury, a bestselling book on Donald Trump’s first year in office. Yesterday, it tweeted a Google Drive link described as a full PDF of Fire and Fury. It deleted that tweet, but re-posted the link with an added degree of separation, saying that the book had “leak[ed] onto internet.” Google has since removed the file in question.

We don’t know exactly why WikiLeaks, whose stated specialization is publishing “censored or otherwise restricted” official documents, shared the text of a widely available published work. The White House has condemned Fire and Fury for its unflattering portrayal of Trump, and one theory holds that WikiLeaks is trying to sabotage the book’s commercial success, particularly since it sought the Trump campaign’s approval in 2016. WikiLeaks derided this explanation online, saying that “[WikiLeaks] reports on leaks. Hint: It’s in the name.” (That said, pirated book copies aren’t usually called “leaks.”) The organization did not immediately reply to a Twitter message requesting comment.

Hawaii Panics After Alert About Incoming Missile Is Sent in Error

Emergency Alert
BALLISTIC MISSILE THREAT INBOUND TO HAWAII. SEEK IMMEDIATE SHELTER. THIS IS NOT A DRILL.

Settings

An image of the alert sent to cellphones on Saturday morning.

By Adam Nagourney, David E. Sanger and Johanna Barr

Jan. 13, 2018
An early-morning emergency alert mistakenly warning of an incoming ballistic missile attack was dispatched to cellphones across Hawaii on Saturday, setting off widespread panic in a state that was already on edge because of escalating tensions between the United States and North Korea.

The alert, sent by the Hawaii Emergency Management Agency, was revoked 38 minutes after it was issued, prompting confusion over why it was released — and why it took so long to rescind. State officials and residents of a normally tranquil part of the Pacific, as well as tourists swept up in the panic, immediately expressed outrage.

Officials said the alert was the result of human error and not the work of hackers or a foreign government. The mistake occurred during a shift-change drill that takes place three times a day at the emergency command post, according to Richard Rapoza, a spokesman for the agency.

“Someone clicked the wrong thing on the computer;” he said.

At no time, officials said, was there any indication that a nuclear attack had been launched on the United States. The Federal Communications Commission announced that it had begun “a full investigation into the FALSE missile alert in Hawaii.”

As government shutdown deadline threatens, Congress looks no closer to a deal

- Senate negotiators remained at an impasse with only hours to spare before the government shutdown deadline.
- Chuck Schumer went to the White House to negotiate a possible deal to avoid a government shutdown with President Donald Trump, but no agreement emerged.
- A House-passed bill to fund the government appeared doomed if the Senate took it up later Friday.
- Democrats have opposed a short-term spending bill as frustrations mounted with progress on talks toward a bipartisan immigration deal.

"Flood Is Coming": New Comey–McCabe Emails Suggest CNN And FBI Coordination Over Steele Dossier

by Tyler Durden
Tue, 05/22/2018 – 21:33

Hours before Comey briefed Trump, FBI chief of staff James Rybicki e-mailed staff that Comey “is coming into HQ briefly now for an update from the sensitive matter team.” Just as the same officials dubbed the Clinton e-mail investigation the “mid-year exam” and the anti-Trump counterintelligence investigation “Crossfire Hurricane,” they also used various phrases using “sensitive” to refer obliquely to the dossier.

Two days after the briefing, on January 8, 2017, former FBI deputy director Andrew McCabe, who earlier this year was fired and then referred for criminal prosecution by the DOJ inspector general for repeatedly lying about media leaks, wrote an e-mail to top FBI officials with the subject, “Flood is coming.”
I ran a Google search and I couldn’t find this term being used anywhere (relating to McCabe/these emails) until these new emails came out on 5/21/2018. “Nothing is ever truly deleted” – they have it all.

Q
John Perry Barlow, Grateful Dead Lyricist and Internet Pioneer, Dead at 70

Barlow was sometimes held up as a straw man for a kind of naive techno-utopianism that believed that the Internet could solve all of humanity's problems without causing any more. As someone who spent the past 27 years working with him at EFF, I can say that nothing could be further from the truth. Barlow knew that new technology could create and empower evil as much as it could create and empower good. He made a conscious decision to focus on the latter. "I knew it's also true that a good way to invent the future is to predict it. So I predicted Utopia, hoping to give Liberty a running start before the laws of Moore and Metcalfe delivered up what Ed Snowden now correctly calls "turn-key totalitarianism."

Barlow's lasting legacy is that he devoted his life to making the Internet into "a world that all may enter without privilege or prejudice accorded by race, economic power, military force, or station of birth . . . a world where anyone, anywhere may express his or her beliefs, no matter how singular, without fear of being coerced into silence or conformity."

In the days and weeks to come, we will be talking and writing more about what a extraordinary role Barlow played for the Internet and the world. And as always, we will continue the work to fulfill his dream.

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia
Section 187 (often referenced in slang simply as 187) of the California Penal Code defines the crime of murder. The number is commonly pronounced by reading the digits separately as "one-eight-seven," or "one-eighty-seven," rather than "one hundred eighty-seven."
The number "187" has been used by gangs throughout the United States as a synonym for murder; this usage has been reported as far away as Florida[1] Wisconsin,[3] and even the United Kingdom[3] and Germany.[4]

Asma Jahangir, Fearless Pakistani Rights Activist, Dies at 66

By Salman Masood

Feb. 11, 2018

ISLAMABAD, Pakistan — Asma Jahangir, a leading Pakistani rights activist, fearless critic of the military’s interference in politics and a staunch defender of the rule of law, died on Sunday in Lahore. She was 66.

The death was confirmed by her daughter Munizae Jahangir, who said the cause was a heart attack.

Ms. Jahangir, a human rights lawyer, had a reputation for speaking truth to power and defending the weak and the marginalized and women and minorities against injustice. She gained international acclaim for being the conscience of a country where liberal, secular voices have continuously been under threat.

Interestingly, The New York Times said that her daughter confirmed she died of a heart attack (Pakistani The Sindh Times agreed), while the sources Wikipedia used said officials at the hospital confirmed that the cause of death was a brain hemorrhage (from a stroke).

Officials at the private hospital where Jahangir passed away said she was brought to the hospital unconscious after suffering brain hemorrhage resulting from a stroke.

They added that despite several attempts to bring her blood pressure back to normal, she passed away in a state of unconsciousness.

Man commits suicide in front of White House Saturday

By: Justin Thompson-Gee  Facebook | Twitter

Posted: Mar 3, 2018 11:30 AM CDT
WASHINGTON – A man committed suicide in front of the White House on Saturday after he pulled out a concealed handgun, authorities said. No one but the shooter was injured.

The U.S. Secret Service said that medical personnel were called to respond to the male victim, but he was declared dead at the scene.

The Metropolitan Police Department, who are leading the investigation into the shooting with the support of the Secret Service, identified the shooter on Sunday as Cameron Ross Burgess, 26, of Maylene, Alabama. The police department did not disclose any potential motives for the suicide.

"The subject approached the vicinity of the North White House fence line and removed a concealed handgun and fired several rounds, none of which appear at this time to have been directed towards the White House," the Secret Service said in a statement shortly after the incident on Saturday.
This specific suicide was probably not something they knew was going to happen three weeks in advance, but rather it was a message ("a direct THREAT") sent from bad actors directly to them in the White House. They saw Q's “three weeks from now = suicide weekend” post on Feb. 9th and made this happen because of it, as a threat.

Trump arrived at Palm Beach International Airport in West Palm Beach, Florida at 5:40 PM EST on February 16th, 2018. Q posted the picture of the palms at 6:19 PM EST, so 39 minutes after Trump’s plane arrived. Q named the picture “Just_Waiting.png.” Was this image taken right when they got off the plane, just for us? Possibly.
In West Palm Beach, Florida, on February 16th, 2018, the sun set at 6:13 PM, so 33 minutes after Trump’s plane was scheduled to arrive.

To me, the picture looks like it was taken mid-day rather than close to sunset (it would’ve been within 39 minutes of it). Either way, it is clear what Q is trying to tell us: someone that is a part of the Q-team is with Trump in Florida.

Another theory: someone going to Florida with Trump arrived before him and took that picture that looks like it was taken earlier in the day, and named it “Just_Waiting.png,” signifying they were waiting for Trump’s plane to arrive? Who knows.

Driver of van slated to be in Trump motorcade detained for having gun

Reuters Staff

2 MIN READ

PALM BEACH, Fla. (Reuters) - The driver of a van carrying journalists covering President Donald Trump was detained on Monday after Secret Service officials found a gun in his bag during a security sweep before the vehicle was to drive onto the president’s Florida property.

The Secret Service said no one had been put in danger.

The male driver told reporters he had forgotten to leave his personal firearm in another vehicle.

He and the other drivers of three media vans were replaced before the vehicles drove on to Trump’s Mar-a-Lago compound, where the vans joined the president’s motorcade.

“The individual was found to be in lawful possession of a prohibited item (firearm) outside the secure area at a Secret Service security screening checkpoint,” the Secret Service said in a statement.

The man could be seen being questioned as journalists were driven away from the area where the security sweeps had taken place.
The gun found by the USSS was an intercept we provided. This is not a game. Protect code went live. Code signals clean. We are moving up the timetable.

U.S. imposes more North Korea sanctions, Trump warns of 'phase two'

Steve Holland, Christine Kim

WASHINGTON/SEOUL (Reuters) - The United States said on Friday it was imposing its largest package of sanctions to pressure North Korea to give up its nuclear and missile programs, and President Donald Trump warned of a “phase two” that could be “very, very unfortunate for the world” if the steps did not work.

“If the sanctions don’t work, we’ll have to go phase two,” Trump said. “Phase two may be a very rough thing, may be very, very unfortunate for the world. But hopefully the sanctions will work.”

Trump gives a speech:

“And, by the way, we’re having tremendous plans coming out now, health care plans, at a fraction of the cost that are much better than Obamacare. And except for one senator, who came into a room at 3:00 in the morning, and went like that [thumbs down], we would have had health care, too. We would have had health care too. Think of that.

But I think we may be better off the way we’re doing it. Piece by piece by piece, Obamacare is just being wiped out. The individual mandate essentially wipes it out. I think we may be better off. And people are getting great health care plans and we’re not finished yet. But, remember, one person walked into a room, when he was supposed to go this way [thumbs up], and he said he was going this way [thumbs up], and he walked in and he went this way [thumbs down] and everyone said, what happened? What was that all about? Boy, oh, boy, who was that? I don’t know. I don’t know. I don’t want to be controversial, so I won’t use his name. Okay. What a mess.”

Trump calls into Rush Limbaugh’s show to congratulate him on 30 years of broadcasting.

\textit{RUSH}: So I have this note on the call screener computer: “On the hotline...” We don’t have a hotline. “On the hotline, you’re receiving a phone call in recognition of your anniversary broadcast. You’ll want to take this immediately.” Okay. So we’re going to the phones and we have a special guest. Who is it?

\textit{THE PRESIDENT}: So, Rush, I just wanted to congratulate you on 30 years.

\textit{RUSH}: (laughing)

\textit{THE PRESIDENT}: This is your favorite president, and I think you are fantastic.

\textit{RUSH}: (laughing)

\textit{THE PRESIDENT}: I heard about it, and today’s the big day, 30 years. I wanted to call personally and congratulate you.

...

\textit{RUSH}: People don’t understand your voters rally to you for that.

\textit{THE PRESIDENT}: We had Obamacare repealed and replaced, and a man — \textbf{I won’t mention his name.} But a man at 2 o’clock in the morning went thumbs down, and he campaigned for years on repeal and replace. We had the chance. Nobody even spoke to him about it, because it was something that was unthinkable what he did, and because of that... But still, I have just about ended Obamacare. We have great health care. We have a lot of great things happening right now. New programs are coming out.

We got rid of the individual mandate. But that was very disappointing to me that night — and he did it because of me, probably. But that was very disappointing. That was a horrible thing he did to our country. And, frankly, it cost $1 trillion because we would have saved $1 trillion, on top of which we would have had good health care. But we’re doing it a different way. We have to go a different route. But he cost us a trillion dollars. And the other thing is the wall. We’ve started it. It’s like pulling teeth, though, getting these guys to get it done is. You have no idea how tough I’ve been.

WASHINGTON — All week long, Senate Democrats had quietly groused that Senator John McCain made a stirring return to the Senate after a brain cancer diagnosis, that he preached the virtues of bipartisanship — and that he then backed a Republican-only push to replace the Affordable Care Act.

But early Friday morning, Mr. McCain, showing little sign of his grave illness, strode onto the Senate floor as the vote was being taken to repeal it, and shocked many of his colleagues and the nation. He sought recognition from the vote counters, turned his thumb down, and said “no.” There were gasps and some applause.

He had just derailed the fevered Republican effort to undo the Obama-era health care law.

Interestingly, Trump’s tweet had a bunch of spaces between the message of the tweet and the “MAGA.” Trump hasn’t been known to do this. It’s especially strange after Q made a post with a bunch of spaces within brackets 13 hours before. Let’s break this down a little further.
Let’s count the total number of spaces from the beginning of the tweet to the end of the 18-space segment.

There are 58 total spaces from the beginning of the Twitter message to the end of the 18-space segment, matching the 58 spaces Q posted within brackets 13 hours before.

Q confirmed this theory later that night.
Earlier that day, at the White House, Trump hosted some of the survivors of the Parkland, FL, shooting that occurred a week before. He held a note card in his hand, which was caught by cameras (and ridiculed by MSM, especially for number 5).

2. more prepared?

4. I hear you.

5. I hear you.
Possible additional meaning of 5:5

Details
The term has its origins in the Q code used for commercial radiotelegraph communication, and later adopted by other radio services, especially amateur radio. The first number is the answer to the question "How do you receive me?" (Q code QRK), typically answered with "I am receiving (1–5)" where 1 is unreadable and 5 is perfect. The second number is the answer to the question "What is the strength of my signals?" (Q code QSA), typically answered with "The strength of your signals is ... (1 to 5)". "5 by 5" was the answer to the QRK/QSA questions to indicate the best quality signal. "5 by 5" being the best quality was applied to other things by analogy.

The U.S. Army Radio Operator's Manual, FM 24-6 (1945 version) defines the report format as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Report</th>
<th>Readability</th>
<th>Signal Strength</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Unreadable</td>
<td>Scarcely perceptible</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Readable now and then</td>
<td>Weak</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Readable but with difficulty</td>
<td>Fairly good.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Readable</td>
<td>Good</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>Perfectly readable</td>
<td>Very good</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The modern equivalent of that manual is ACP131(F),[3] which includes these entries:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Signal</th>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Answer, Advice, or Order</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>QRK</td>
<td>What is the intelligibility of my signals (or those of...)?</td>
<td>The intelligibility of your signals (or those of...) is... 1. bad. 2. poor. 3. fair. 4. good. 5. excellent.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>QSA</td>
<td>What is the strength of my signals (or those of...)?</td>
<td>The strength of your signals (or those of...) is... 1. scarcely perceptible. 2. weak. 3. fairly good. 4. good. 5. very good.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

"Five by five" (occasionally written "5 by 5", "five-by-five", "5 × 5", "5-by-5" or even just "Fives"), by extension, has come to mean "I understand you perfectly" in situations other than radio communication. Further shortened forms are "five by", "fivers" and "fifers". Post-World War II, the phrase "loud and clear" entered common usage with a similar meaning.

[SIG_5:5_READ] – SIG = signal
He hears us, loud and clear.

Update (6/15/2018): Q basically confirmed this 5:5 theory.

The House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence released its report on the findings of the Russia investigation Friday, which showed that FBI agents “did not detect any deception during [Former National Security Advisor Michael] Flynn’s interview.”

Flynn, President Trump’s first national security advisor, pleaded guilty in December 2017 to “willfully and knowingly” making false statements to the FBI during interviews on meetings he took with Russian Ambassador to the United States Sergei Kislyak. The report specifically highlights that Flynn pleaded guilty despite bureau agents determining that there was no “deception” in his interview.

White House Easter Egg Roll
Trump gives a speech:

“Well, welcome to the 2018 White House Easter Egg Roll. So many people. You know, it was supposed to be pouring, the weather. It was supposed to be very rainy and nasty and cold and windy. And look what we have: perfect weather. Perfect weather. Beautiful weather.”

“Thank you all for being here, folks. Thank you all. I want to really thank the First Lady, Melania, who has done an incredible job. She worked so hard on this event, and I so want to thank you. (Applause.) That’s beautiful.”

“Also, I want to thank the White House Historical Association and all of the people that work so hard with Melania, with everybody, to keep this incredible house, or building, or whatever you want to call it — because there really is no name for it; it is special — and we keep it in tip-top shape. We call it sometimes tippy-top shape. And it’s a great, great place.”
We had to wait a while for this one, but it did come.

It seems like when he does things like this, he does it in a way that calls attention to it, and because of this it often makes the news. MSM, like they have many times in the past, mocked him for this one – for not knowing what to call the White House (“incredible house, or building, or whatever you want to call it”) and for saying “tippy-top shape.”

He may also have been making a reference to “the storm” (“You know, it was supposed to be pouring, the weather. It was supposed to be very rainy and nasty and cold and windy”).

Our movement is often called the “calm before the storm” or just “the storm” – a reference to the cryptic comments Trump made on 10/5/2017, when he called photographers in to the White House on a Thursday night for a photo op with military leaders and said that it was the “calm before the storm.”

Trump Plans to Send National Guard to the Mexican Border

By Julie Hirschfeld Davis

April 3, 2018

WASHINGTON — The White House said Tuesday night that President Trump planned to deploy the National Guard to the southern border to confront what it called a growing threat of illegal immigrants, drugs and crime from Central America after the president for the third consecutive day warned about the looming dangers of unchecked immigration.

Mr. Trump’s advisers said Monday that he was readying new legislation to block migrants and asylum seekers, including young unaccompanied children, from entering the United States, opening a new front in the immigration crackdown that he has pressed since taking office. But in remarks on Tuesday that caught some of his top advisers by surprise, he suggested the more drastic approach of sending in the military to do what immigration authorities could not.

John McCain Says Will Not Run For Re-Election

"This is my last term. If I hadn't admitted that to myself before this summer, a stage 4 cancer diagnosis acts as ungentle persuasion," he wrote in his book, "The Restless Wave," according to the excerpt published on Apple News on Monday. "I'm freer than colleagues who will face the voters again. I can speak my mind without fearing the consequences much. And I can vote my conscience without worry."

Why did Soros transfer his bulk public funds to a NP? Note this doesn’t include massive slush funds that are pulled by several high ups.
Why did Soros’ son have several meetings with Canadian PM and how is that related to Clinton's?

Why is MS13 a priority _ nobody got this.
Could people pay such gangs to kill opponents and why / how to insulate against exposure?

China's president offers U.S. possible trade concessions

By Joe McDonald and Gillian Wong
Associated Press

APRIL 10, 2018, 7:31 AM | BEIJING

President Xi Jinping set the stage Tuesday for a possible effort to resolve a worsening clash with Washington over technology and trade by promising to cut auto import taxes, improve intellectual property protection and boost imports.

Xi, the country's most dominant leader since at least the 1980s, said Beijing will "significantly lower" tariffs on auto imports this year and ease restrictions on foreign ownership in the auto industry "as soon as possible."
So where is the connection with Chongqing? Q clarified:

CHONGQING, China — For more than a decade, Chinese automakers have been talking about starting large-scale exports to North America and Europe, prompting periodic worries in the West that companies like General Motors, Ford and Volkswagen might be crippled by Chinese competition the way they were by Japanese imports a generation ago.

One of the parts of the deal they made was that China would reduce import tariffs on foreign automobiles.

Summary: On Saturday, April 7th, Q mentioned “Chongqing, China,” hoping it would draw us to an article about auto imports. In the same post, he also said “Tuesday,” indicating that something related to that article would happen on Tuesday. On Tuesday, three days later, it was announced that China would lower import taxes on foreign automobiles.

Dozens Suffocate in Syria as Government Is Accused of Chemical Attack

BEIRUT, Lebanon — Dozens of Syrians choked to death after a suspected chemical attack struck the rebel-held suburb of Douma, east of Damascus, with aid groups on Sunday blaming President Bashar al-Assad’s government for the assault and Western governments expressing outrage.

Rescue workers in Syria reported finding at least 42 people dead in their homes from apparent suffocation, and antigovernment activists circulated videos of lifeless men, women and children sprawled out on floors and in stairwells, many with white foam coming from their mouths and nostrils.

A stream of patients with burning eyes and breathing problems were rushed to clinics after the attack at dusk on Saturday, medical and rescue groups said.

Interview with Vladimir Putin

\textbf{Vladimir Putin}: You just said there is proof accepted by everyone that al-Assad used chemical weapons. Well, not by everyone. Our experts tell it differently. For example, the case that was the reason for missile strikes against Syria after the alleged chemical attack in the city of Douma.

Look. The Syrian troops liberated that area. We immediately suggested to our partners that the OPCW commission go there, it is a UN unit, the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons. They headed for Syria, and reached a neighbouring country, Lebanon I think. But, instead of waiting one or two days and allowing the commission to work on the site, a missile attack was made on Syria.

Tell me, please: is this the best way to ensure the objectivity of what happened there? I do not think so. I think it was an attempt to create conditions that would make it impossible to investigate thoroughly. That is what it was.

After that, we found people there who admitted to having participated in staging the chemical attack. If you did not see it, it would be very useful for objectivity, so that your viewers could have their own opinion on this matter.

We're supposed to connect "baby on floor hands in mouth" to Syria chemical weapons? I think I'm way behind the curve here.
Facts about Chlorine
Chlorine is used in industry and in household cleaning products. Chlorine was also the first poison gas to be used as a weapon during World War I.

The connection is there once its revealed. We were a little slow on that one.

I get the basic chemical connection but baby on floor, etc doesn't make the connection to chemical false flag in Syria to me. Unless baby on floor means [F]all and hand in mouth means [F]eed.
Q confirms.

The connection is simply chlorine... not false flag.

Keep in mind that every crumb is not meant to be solved before the event. Some of the drops are things for anons to dig on and make connections with, others are markers for future reference. [future proves past]

Some drops are just simply communication to the anons.

What needs to be understood to appreciate what's going here is the fact the Q is basically creating a circular flow diagram that can be referenced and cross-checked with news releases. Q can't just disclose specifics about a situation or operation without violating security protocol. Instead they drop questions and statements that lead to answers that can be understood once the subject becomes public. This provides the validation necessary for the public to believe The Great Awakening is legit. Disinformation and misdirection with Q is real. In other words Q is pointing over there but really the focus is here and only until you publicly get the news can you go back and understand. (Think SA drops) All of this is accomplished without giving up specific details about the operation. It's quite genius.

White House insists Trump still planning to pull US troops out of Syria

Statement comes after French President Macron says he convinced his US counterpart to stay engaged in Syria ‘for the long term’
The White House said Sunday that US President Donald Trump still wants American troops to exit Syria as soon as possible, after the French president said he persuaded Trump to stay in Syria and launch airstrikes as punishment for an alleged chemical-weapons attack.

“What the US mission has not changed — the President has been clear that he wants US forces to come home as quickly as possible,” White House spokeswoman Sarah Huckabee Sanders said in a statement.

U.S., Britain and France Strike Syria Over Suspected Chemical Weapons Attack

By Helene Cooper, Thomas Gibbons-Neff and Ben Hubbard

April 13, 2018

WASHINGTON — The United States and European allies launched airstrikes on Friday night against Syrian research, storage and military targets as President Trump sought to punish President Bashar al-Assad for a suspected chemical attack near Damascus last weekend that killed more than 40 people.
Saturday, April 14th, 2018

McKenzie: "79 missiles destroyed the Barzah Research and Development Center. This will set the Syrian CW program by years."
McKenzie: 22 missiles hit the Him Shinshar Chemical Weapons Storage Site. All coalition forces were involved in kinetic strikes.
McKenzie: "Two USAF B-1 lancer bombers launched 19 missiles."
McKenzie: "We have not seen any military response from actors within Syria since the strikes".
McKenzie: "We positioned defensive counter-air assets around Syria and these are still active."

Possible link between Q post and McKenzie statement about missiles in Syria...

Expand your thinking. The 'date' vs 'actual'. Iran next. Trust the plan. April SHOWERS. [SHOWERS]. Do you believe in coincidences?
DEAFENING blasts shook many in the Syrian capital awake as the US-led attack began.

The dark sky was lit up by fireballs as the missiles — what US Donald Trump called “precision air strikes” — began to rain down on Damascus. The hour-long assault triggered Syrian air defences attempt to shoot down the tomahawk missiles, and that action could be seen and heard throughout the capital.

“April Showers,” which Q first said 10 days before the attacks, was a reference to missiles “raining down.”

Deputy AG Rod Rosenstein tells confidants he is prepared to be fired

Under fire, the deputy attorney general has invoked a Martin Luther quote to say he stands by his actions.

by Julia Ainsley / Apr. 13, 2018 / 12:33 PM ET / Updated Apr. 13, 2018 / 12:45 PM ET

WASHINGTON – Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein has struck a stoic and righteous tone in private conversations he has had this week about the fate of his job as President Donald Trump has launched public criticism against him and considered firing him, according to three sources who have spoken to Rosenstein.

Expect President Trump to fire Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein in the next few days. Maybe he won’t do it. Maybe he’ll change his mind. But Trump is apparently livid at Rosenstein and both The Washington Post and CNN have reported that he is actively contemplating Rosenstein’s removal. Trump urged people on Twitter last night to watch Sean Hannity, who in turn invited on his show a guest who egged the president on in firing his deputy attorney general. The air in Washington right now is thick with Rosenstein’s imminent removal.

Southwest Airlines Engine Explodes in Flight, Killing a Passenger

By Liam Stack and Matt Stevens

April 17, 2018

One person was killed and seven others sustained minor injuries on a Southwest Airlines flight from New York to Dallas when an engine exploded in midair on Tuesday, shattering a window that passengers said partially sucked a woman out of the aircraft.

The explosion, which happened about 20 minutes into the flight, prompted a desperate effort among flight attendants and passengers to save the woman, identified as Jennifer Riordan, a Wells Fargo executive from Albuquerque. After the plane landed, Ms. Riordan was taken to a hospital, where she was pronounced dead.

‘You were right; I was wrong’ – Serzh Sargsyan releases detained opposition leader and resigns

"I was wrong": Armenian leader Serzh Sargsyan resigns unexpectedly

YEREVAN, Armenia -- Armenian Prime Minister Serzh Sargsyan resigned unexpectedly Monday to quell massive anti-government protests over what critics feared was his effort to seize power for life. Residents of the capital, Yerevan, poured out on the streets to celebrate his stunning departure. People hugged and kissed each other, and motorists honked their horns.

Protest leader "Nikol Pashinian was right. I was wrong," Sargsyan, a former Armenian president, said in a surprise announcement on his website. "The movement on the streets is against my rule. I’m complying with their demands."
Thousands Celebrate As Armenia's Longtime Ruler Sarkisian Steps Down

YEREVAN -- The resignation of Armenia's longtime ruler Serzh Sarkisian in the face of widespread street protests has triggered an outpouring of celebration across the country.

"Dear proud citizens of the Republic of Armenia, you have won!" protest leader Nikol Pashinian told a cheering crowd of thousands gathered on Republic Square on April 23.

He said there were no foreign countries involved in the protest movement and called it a "purely Armenian velvet revolution."
Armenians Dance In The Streets At Sarkisian's Exit

A huge impromptu street party broke out on Mashtots, Yerevan's main avenue, after Prime Minister Serzh Sarkisian announced his resignation on April 23 after days of protests.

BREAKING: Aaron Rich Attorneys Subpoena Twitter to Turn Over All Direct Messages from: Wikileaks, Julian Assange, KimDotCom, Cassandra Fairbanks, Gateway Pundit, etc

Aaron is the brother of Seth Rich, the DNC operative who was murdered mysteriously in the summer of 2016. There have been no leads to the murder of Seth Rich. Aaron Rich is suing conservative activists and media outlets for allegedly spreading conspiracy theories about the slain staffer.

On Friday Twitter sent out letters to several conservatives and media outlets including Wikileaks informing the account owners that the attorneys for Aaron Rich are seeking information from the private accounts.
BREAKING: James Comey Personally KILLED Immunity Deal with Julian Assange – Who Could Have Revealed Source of Leaked Emails

Dirty Cop James Comey KILLED immunity deal with Julian Assange.

Assange could have proved where the leaked Wikileaks email came from.

Julian Assange has repeatedly said his source for the Podesta emails WAS NOT the Russian government.
Just a few days after the negotiations opened in mid-February, Waldman reached out to Sen. Warner; the lawyer wanted to see if Senate Intelligence Committee staff wanted any contact with Assange, to ask about Russia or other issues.

Warner engaged with Waldman over encrypted text messages, then reached out to Comey. A few days later, Warner contacted Waldman with an unexpected plea.

“He told me he had just talked with Comey and that, while the government was appreciative of my efforts, my instructions were to stand down, to end the discussions with Assange.” Waldman told me. Waldman offered contemporaneous documents to show he memorialized Warner’s exact words.

Waldman couldn’t believe a U.S. senator and the FBI chief were sending a different signal, so he went back to Laufman, who assured him the negotiations were still on. “What Laufman said to me after he heard I was told to ‘stand down’ by Warner and Comey was, ‘That’s bullshit. You are not standing down and neither am I,’” Waldman recalled.

A source familiar with Warner’s interactions says the senator’s contact on the Assange matter was limited and was shared with Senate Intelligence chairman Sen. Richard Burr (R-N.C.). But the source acknowledges that Warner consulted Comey and passed along the “stand down” instructions to Waldman: “That did happen.”

Multiple sources tell me the FBI’s counterintelligence team was aware and engaged in the Justice Department’s strategy but could not explain what motivated Comey to send a different message around the negotiations through Warner. A lawyer for Comey did not immediately return calls seeking comment.
“The constructive, principled discussions with DOJ that occurred over nearly two months were complicated by the confusing ‘stand down’ message,” Waldman recalled.

On April 7, 2017, Assange released documents with the specifics of some of the CIA malware used for cyber attacks. It had immediate impact: A furious U.S. government backed out of the negotiations, and then-CIA Director Mike Pompeo slammed WikiLeaks as a “hostile intelligence service.”

Soon, the rare opportunity to engage Assange in a dialogue over redactions, a more responsible way to release information, and how the infamous DNC hacks occurred was lost — likely forever.

How Comey intervened to kill WikiLeaks' immunity deal

The effort resulted in the drafting of a limited immunity deal that might have temporarily free the WikiLeaks founder from a London embassy where he has been exiled for years, according to interviews and a trove of internal DOJ documents turned over to Senate investigators. Read the draft immunity deal proffer that the Justice Department was considering for Assange here.

But an unexpected intervention by Comey — arrived through Warner — derailed the negotiations, multiple sources tell me. Assange eventually unleashed a series of leaks that U.S. officials say damaged their cyber warfare capabilities for a long time to come.

Philadelphia nurse charged in death of ex-Trump advisor's father

BY MICHAEL TANENBAUM
PhillyVoice Staff

A nurse at a Roxborough senior living facility is now facing criminal charges in the death of Herbert R. McMaster Sr., the father of President Donald Trump's former national security advisor, who died last month after suffering a fall and a serious head injury at the rehabilitation program.

McMaster, 84, was admitted to Cathedral Village in Upper Roxborough on April 9 after suffering a stroke. He had an unwitnessed fall on the night of April 12 and was left in the lobby of the facility before his death eight hours later.

Prosecutors say Christann Gainey, a nurse at Cathedral Village, failed to administer eight required neurological checks that might have revealed the severity of McMaster's injuries and provided a window of time to save his life.

7:19 PM - 20 Apr 2018

Debbie Wasserman Schultz is the name she normally goes by; however, there are a few articles where she’s called Wendy instead.

Florida Child Custody and Rape

Florida law allows a man who fathered a child through rape to obtain custody or visitation with that child. But a bill introduced to the United States House of Representative by Florida Representative Wendy Wasserman Schultz seeks to permanently change that.

In a phone conversation this past Friday Whitnum told Orban that she would be attending the event. "I thought it was settled." Whitnum was sitting quietly with the other candidates when Orban demanded Whitnum get off the stage. "How dare she," said Whitnum.

Whitnum refused and replied, "You are Wasserman-Schultzing me." Whitnum was referring to Wendy Wasserman Schultz, the Democratic chair who was asked to step down in 2016 because she gave preferential treatment to Hillary Clinton over Bernie Sanders.
Trump does things like this often to bring attention to a specific person or situation – in this case it was Debbie Wasserman Schultz. #WendyWassermanSchultz was trending on Twitter after this, putting a lot of eyes on her.

Hi!!!

My name is Maggie and I'm 17 years old currently spending my days in an intensive outpatient program for severe depression, self harm, and many other personal issues. This program lasts for 6 months and I am scheduled to graduate in June as well! Balancing getting my credits to graduate high school and working through my struggles has proven to be incredibly difficult, but I'm trying! Once I am done with the program I will not be attending college right away. My dream is to travel, help people, work on my music and as cliché as it sounds... find myself. I hope that this doesn't come across as me using my mental illness to my advantage to get a chance to relax on the beach and eat Thai food! Honestly, I need this to complete my therapeutic journey. By helping people, I believe I will be able to help myself in a new way. I have always been incredibly active in community service and helping the less fortunate, and I really would love the opportunity to be able to do that in another part of the world, one where I believe I will grow and thrive as well. The reason that I'm asking for $7,000 is 20% to pay for airfare, living space, and food... but 80% of the money will be put towards the communities I will be travelling (by bus and boat) through. My goal here is to better myself while I better other people, and I wish it didn't have to revolve around money... But I really need YOUR help to make this dream a reality. Every dollar helps, and I hope that you can help me get to Thailand and change peoples lives while I change mine. Thank you so much, this would mean the absolute world to me. I am hoping to leave in June after I get released from my program and graduate!! This opportunity would mean the absolute world to me and I hope you can join me on my journey to recovery and service. All the love in the world, Mags xo

Senator Chuck Grassley Drops Atomic Sledgehammer on FBI – Requests FBI Reports and Testimony From Special Agent Joe Pientka...

Posted on May 11, 2018 by sundance

Senate Judiciary Chairman Chuck Grassley has just dropped a sunlight grenade into the prosecution of Michael Flynn with a jaw-dropping request letter (full pdf below) to FBI Director Christopher Wray. [Judiciary Link Here]

Within the letter Chairman Grassley outlines a prior briefing from fired FBI Director James Comey to the Senate Judiciary Committee, and contrasts the false presentations of Comey - regarding Michael Flynn - against recently known evidence.

Additionally, Grassley is requesting: ● the transcription of the phone call(s) intercepted by the FBI between Flynn and Russian Ambassador Kislyak; ● the FD 302’s written by the FBI in their interview with Michael Flynn; ● and testimony from Special Agent Joe Pientka, likely the second FBI agent who was partnered with Peter Strzok for the Flynn interview. The name of the second FBI agent was previously unknown, and it’s likely Chairman Grassley outed the name for a very specific reason. This is a BIG shot across the bow.

Previously the Justice Department was refusing to provide any information to the committee pertinent to Grassley’s requests, citing the ongoing investigation. However, the Senator is now outlining his request against the backdrop of the Judge in the Flynn case demanding the Special Counsel turn over all exculpatory information.
It is important to remember – there is a widely held belief that Deputy FBI Director Andrew McCabe told the FBI agents (Strzok and Pientka) to shape their FBI reports of the interview (FD-302’s) to assist a “Flynn lied” narrative.

The second agent involved, Joe Pientka, was not known to the public until May 11\textsuperscript{th}, when Senator Chuck Grassley sent the letter. Q posted “#2/S/P 302 mod” on April 27\textsuperscript{th}, two weeks before the name was public knowledge.

JetBlue Airways (New York) plans to debut the latest tailfin design to join the company’s line-up, Prism. Prism will be featured exclusively on the airline’s Airbus A321 aircraft.

Prism

We unveiled this Cubist-inspired design alongside the delivery of our first A321 to reflect the many incredible facets of our fleet.
The first picture is of a JetBlue Airbus A321. The second picture is probably the same plane, just zoomed out to show the surrounding area more.

Because the second picture gives a better view of the surrounding environment, we can try to figure out where its located. Normally, when Q posts images like these, we find the exact location; however, in this case, we did not. Most anons agreed, though, that this was taken in the Bay Area, CA, potentially approaching or leaving the San Jose airport (SJC) or the San Francisco airport (SFO).

This is the new Apple Headquarters, called Apple Park, in Cupertino, CA (Bay Area, near San Jose).
This is an Apple Store at the IFC (International Finance Center) Mall, Hong Kong, China.
This last one is obviously a shipment sitting on pallets. An anon that knew a lot about pallets popped in and said that the pallets in the image are meant to carry very heavy loads. Other than that, we couldn’t figure out much about these.

11:45 PM EDT

(16 minutes after Q posted the pictures of China and the pallets)

Our great financial team is in China trying to negotiate a level playing field on trade! I look forward to being with President Xi in the not too distant future. We will always have a good (great) relationship!

11:45 PM - 2 May 2018

So, Q first posted pictures of a plane flying – probably out of the San Francisco Bay Area, CA – which we’ll assume indicates travelling, since we couldn’t make out any other useful details. Next, Q posted a picture of the new Apple HQ in Cupertino, CA, adding more evidence to the Bay Area theory. Then, Q posted a picture of an Apple store in Hong Kong, China, and a shipment sitting on pallets in the back of a truck. 16 minutes after they posted the pictures of the store in China and the pallets, Trump tweeted about the financial team that was in China at the time negotiating trade deals.

Given what Q gave us, we can take away that the plane pictures indicate travelling, and the China store picture tells us the travelling has something to do with China. Then, 16 minutes after Q posted the China store picture, Trump tweeted about the trade team that was in China, to confirm what the pictures were about.

Two of the pictures involved Apple – Trump had a meeting with Apple CEO Tim Cook at the White House just a week before this, so there’s probably more to it that we cannot figure out yet.

FBI Have JetBlue Flight Surrounded After Pilots Stop Communicating

PrepForThat Staff • June 27, 2018
Terrified passengers hold their hands up as armed police storm a JetBlue plane after a wrong code was used over the radio which mistakenly said the plane was being HIJACKED

- A JetBlue pilot accidentally told air traffic control that his plane had been hijacked on Tuesday, sparking a massive police presence
- Dozens of Port Authority police surround a JetBlue flight at JFK airport on Tuesday evening preventing the aircraft from getting near the terminal
- Department of Homeland Security and the FBI were said to be on the scene
- The FAA released a statement saying the aircraft 'experienced a radio equipment problem while taxiing for departure at John F. Kennedy International Airport'
- It was later determined that the aircraft experienced a broken radio and the pilots stopped communicating with air traffic controllers

It’s high time for transparency. The DOJ and FBI have continually and repeatedly thwarted congressional oversight. We’re asking @realDonaldTrump to direct the Attorney General to give us the documents—because the American people deserve answers.

May 15, 2018

The Honorable Donald J. Trump
President of the United States
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We write to request that you exercise your authority as President of the United States to instruct Attorney General Jeff Sessions to immediately produce all documents requested by Congress relating to our investigation of certain prosecutorial and investigative decisions made by the Department of Justice and FBI in 2016 and 2017.

In May 2017, Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein informed Congress that the Special Counsel’s investigation should not impede ongoing Congressional investigations. Additionally, Mr. Rosenstein requested that Congressional efforts coordinate with the Department of Justice.

In the year that has passed since these commitments were made, the Department of Justice has failed to fully comply with regular and repeated Congressional requests and subpoenas. Our power as Congress to conduct investigations in broad, informed, and meaningful by the Constitution. As a separate and equal branch of government, we have a constitutional right to these documents.

To complete our independent oversight and investigative duties, we must obtain all documents responsive to previous requests by Congress. This includes the documents related to potential abuses of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act; documents related to the FBI and broader Department of Justice’s initial investigation into the Trump campaign prior to the appointment of the Special Counsel; and the redacted August 2017 memo written by Deputy Attorney General Rosenstein that articulated the scope of the Special Counsel’s jurisdiction.

The Department of Justice has obstructed Congressional oversight by refusing to supply necessary and relevant documents. As members of the legislative branch, we believe the best course of action would be for you to exercise the powers vested in the Executive to make the documents we require available to Congress.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Mark Meadows
Member of Congress

DEVELOPING: Reports of active shooter at Santa Fe high school in Texas. fxn.ws/2rQcbEf

9:50 AM - 18 May 2018
SANTA FE, Tex. - Santa Fe High School is on lockdown after a shooting inside the school. Witnesses say the shooting took place in an art class on campus between 7:30 and 7:45 a.m.

Santa Fe Police, Galveston County Sheriff's Office and ATF agents have all responded to the school at 16000 Highway 6. Students are being lined up outside the school, and their backpacks are being deposited for officials.

Life Flight was also called to the scene. There is no official confirmation of any injuries at this time, but there does appear to be a possible body under a sheet near an exit door.

A student told KRDO's affiliate, ABC13, she saw a gunman shoot a girl. This is an unconfirmed report.

Sophomore Leila Butler tells ABC13 that at about 7:45 a.m. fire alarms went off and students left their classrooms. She reports some students believe they've heard shots fired. She is currently sheltering with other students and teachers near campus.

ABC13 said that police were called to the school on 16000 Highway 6 shortly before 8 a.m. Friday. The school district confirms that there were several injuries in the shooting.

In aerial shots of the scene, you can see students being lined up outside the school. ABC13 said that their backpacks are being deposited for officials.

Witnesses told ABC13 that the shooting took place in an art class on campus between 7:30 a.m. and 7:45 a.m.

"It was just a normal class day and we were just sitting there doing our work in first period, then all of a sudden, it was a fire drill," student Angelica Martinez said to CNN.

"So we followed the fire drill procedures. and then we went outside and we were all standing there. But not even five minutes later, we all start hearing gunshots, and everybody starts running. But, like, the teachers were telling us to stay put because we were all just running away."

Bomb squad finds devices at Santa Fe HS, another location off campus

SANTA FE – BREAKING: A bomb squad has checked out Santa Fe HS following the shooting that killed at least 8-10 students, and now it's checking a mobile home about two miles away linked to one of the suspects.
The Santa Fe, Texas, school district and police have said there were explosive devices found in the Santa Fe High school and in a building off campus after this morning’s school shooting.

“There have been confirmed reports of explosives found on the campus and off the campus,” Santa Fe Police Chief Jeff Powell said, adding: “That’s our main concern is to keep our community safe”. The building has been evacuated after a shooter opened fire and killed at least eight people and injured several others, Chief Walter Braun of Santa Fe Independent School District Police confirmed.
There were three cases before where Q called a false flag event a threat sent to them. Q also mentioned, on March 20th, that the FBI opened on a case on them because of “BOOM” statements and then the Texas bombings that followed.

Then, on June 13th, 2018, Q made a post saying that there were four open FBI investigations on them because of these events.

I think it would make sense if the four investigations were from these four events:

1. “Suicide weekend” post & the suicide in front of the White House..................(Q called it a threat)
2. “BOOM” posts & the Texas bombings.................................................................(Q called it a threat)
3. “Plane. 17.” post & the Southwest plane engine explosion on April 17th..............(Q called it a threat)
4. “Bomb(s) about to blow” post & bombs found during Santa Fe shooting....(threat?)

Trump began by honoring police officers that were killed in the line of duty.

“To the families and survivors with us this morning, I know today is filled with sadness and pain. But today is also filled with love — the love of an entire nation wrapped its arms. And they have wrapped their arms right around you. They love you. They’re praying for you, they’re grieving with you, and pledging to you that we will never forget our heroes, ever. (Applause.) And thank you. Thank you. (Applause.) You know what I mean. You know what I mean. They’re looking down and they’re proud of you, and they love you so much. Thank you.

This morning, I especially want to speak to the young sons and daughters who join us here today. I want you to know that your moms and dads were among the bravest Americans to ever live.”
He honored the following police officers (and their families, who were at the event):

1. Lieutenant Aaron Allan of the Southport Police Department, Indiana
2. Officer Charleston Hartfield of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department
3. Border Patrol Agent Rogelio “Roger” Martinez, from El Paso, Texas

After those, he honored Detective Miosotis Familia from the New York Police Department and her family. He then called her family up onto the stage.

“We are honored to be joined today by the family of Detective Miosotis Familia. (Applause.) Detective Familia was a proud member of the New York Police Department. Where is that family? Where is that great family? Great family. (Applause.) Thank you so much. Thank you so much. Can you come up here? This is a great — come up here, please. Come on. I’d like to have this family. (Applause.) New York Police Department, close to my heart. Come on. Can you open those gates, please? (Applause.)

So I promised I wouldn’t tell you that she’s 90 years old. But you know what? She is really something, right? (Applause.) You look like 55, maybe? Fifty-five, huh? Boy, I’ll tell you what — you got up those stairs better than I did. (Laughter.) Thank you, sweetheart. Thank you.

So I just want to say, the officer just — say something. You know what I’d like you to do? Say how great she was. Come here. He’s done this before. (Applause.) Say how great she was. You just told me something, that this was a great partner. Go ahead. Don’t get nervous.

OFFICER MAHER: All right, that was unexpected. (Laughter.) Yes, my name is Officer Maher. I was Detective Familia’s partner the night she was killed. And I knew her for about 10 years. I worked with her on and off. This is a woman who got injured a while ago, and volunteered to come back to patrol to one of the roughest places in New York City. She volunteered to come back, to leave a cushy job, to come back to patrol. She was only there for about two weeks, and I had the honor of being with her that night. And she may have been lost that night, but she saved a lot of lives in turn because of her memory and everything that transpired after the fact. She was an incredible person, and she is missed by the family. This family is — forget it, they’re incredible. (Applause.) Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you very much. These are special people. They’re just special, special people. And I want to tell you that, last year, just a few hours after the city of New York celebrated the Fourth of July, Detective Familia was on duty in her vehicle, not far from Yankee Stadium. Big Yankee fan? You’re all Yankee fans, right?

She was ambushed by a man for the simple reason that she was a member of the police department — she was a member of law enforcement. That was the simple reason. The attack, because she was so incredible, was just looked upon so horribly. Her family — when people met the family, they saw what an incredible person she was. I just want to say that, to your entire family, it’s such an honor to have you up here. We weren’t going to bring you up, but I looked at you in the audience and I said, you have to come up, because you’re representing something so important. You understand that. She loved the department. She loved being a police officer. She loved her job. She was respected by everybody. They told me all about her. She was respected by everybody.

So she’s right now, right there. And she’s looking down, and she’s so proud of you. She’s so proud of you. And you are great. You are great. Thank you very much. (Applause.)”

Some things must remain classified to the very end. NK is not being run by Kim, he’s an actor in the play. Who is the director? The truth would sound so outrageous most Americans would riot, revolt, reject, etc.
The pedo networks are being dismantled. The child abductions for satanic rituals (ie Haiti and other 3rd world countries) are paused (not terminated until players in custody). We pray every single day for God’s guidance and direction as we are truly up against pure evil.

Summit with North Korea & Kim Jong-Un

CBS NEWS / June 12, 2018, 12:15 PM

Here is the agreement Trump and Kim signed

Following their private meeting and a meeting with their delegations in Singapore Tuesday, President Trump and North Korean leader Kim Jong Un signed an agreement that Mr. Trump called "comprehensive" and "important," though it offers no detail about what the work toward denuclearization will entail.

The two leaders agreed upon a basic framework -- here are its four components:

1 → "The United States and the DPRK commit to establish new U.S.-DPRK relations in accordance with the desire of the peoples of the two countries for peace and prosperity."

2 → "The United States and the DPRK will join their efforts to build a lasting and stable peace regime on the Korean peninsula."

3 → "Reaffirming the April 27, 2018 Panmunjom Declaration, the DPRK commits to work toward complete denuclearization of the Korean peninsula."

4 → "The United States and the DPRK commit to recovering POW/MIA remains, including the immediate repatriation of those already identified."

North Korean leader Kim Jong Un visits Singapore attractions on eve of Trump-Kim summit

SINGAPORE - North Korea leader Kim Jong Un took time out from planning for a historic summit with US President Donald Trump to take in some of Singapore’s iconic sites on Monday (June 11) evening.

Mr Kim, who has publicly left his country only thrice since taking power after his father’s death in late 2011 (twice to China and once to South Korea), gamely posed for selfies with Singapore politicians and smiled for the camera as he was taken on a whirlwind tour of the city. The two-hour jaunt took in some of its best-known sights such as Gardens by the Bay and the Marina Bay Sands (MBS) integrated resorts.

He stood on the 56th-floor's rooftop “Sky Park” looking over the city, with its skyscrapers topped by illuminated Citibank and HSBC signs.
Both of these pictures were taken at the top of the Marina Bay Sands.
Kim was there for about 10 minutes, according to staff and patrons.

“I wondered why he was here. Doesn’t he have a meeting in the morning?” asked a British businessman drinking beer on the edge of the roof deck, the perfect spot to watch Kim on his tour.

MISSILE.

FOX THREE.
SPLASH.
AS THE WORLD TURNS.
RED_OCTOBER>

Q
Just a few days before these posts, on December 18th, 2017, Q established the meaning of “FOX THREE” and “SPLASH.”

So, “Fox Three” stands for the launch of a missile, while “splash” means that the missile was destroyed.
In this post, Q ties together the missile defense bill, the misspelling of “missile,” and the “Fox Three” and “Splash,” which we know stands for a launched missile (Fox Three), and because it was followed by “Splash,” the missile was destroyed before it could reach its target.

Based on this, Q seems to be using “missile” to indicate the use of missile defense systems to stop a missile before it reaches its target.

(Just 3 hours before the beginning of the summit with North Korea)

The fact that I am having a meeting is a major loss for the U.S., say the haters & losers. We have our hostages, testing, research and all missle launches have stoped, and these pundits, who have called me wrong from the beginning, have nothing else they can say! We will be fine!

6:04 PM - 11 Jun 2018

“Coincidentally,” Trump misspelled “missile” as “missle” when talking about North Korea and their nuclear weapons, just as Q did intentionally multiple times when talking about North Korea’s nukes, and he also misspelled “stopped.”

MISSLE STOPED
MISSILE STOPPED
FOX THREE. SPLASH.
Also “coincidentally,” a camera in the state of Washington caught the launch of a missile around 4 AM PDT on June 10th, just the day before. The Pentagon denied that it was a missile.
If you look closely, you can even see that there’s a “notch” near the middle – at the same exact point that other missiles have them – when you match them length-wise.

It certainly doesn’t look like a helicopter, which is what the MSM said it was.
This is not a game.

It’s worth noting that this was the 4th time Q misspelled “supposed” as “suppose.”

10/31/17: “Was the election suppose to be rigged?”
11/22/17: “Who was suppose to win the election of 2016?”
12/23/17: “Who was suppose to be the next President?”
6/12/18: “Certain events were not suppose to take place.”
7/26/18: “Facts (a case) he is suppose to be recused from?”

Q implied that there was a reason for the misspelling, but we haven’t figured it out yet.
It’s also worth noting that this was the only time Trump had ever misspelled “missile” as “missle” on his Twitter account.

1. Jun 11, 2018 06:04:01 PM The fact that I am having a meeting is a major loss for the U.S., say the haters & losers. [Twitter for iPhone] link
The two missiles were probably the one caught on camera before the North Korea summit and the one launched that caused the “ballistic missile inbound” alert in Hawaii in January that was blamed on “human error.” The goal may have been to strike with the missiles and blame North Korea for the attacks, to end the talks (and to start a war).

Full black attire + shades + poor facial angle.
Nothing there can be used to easily identify the individual, even more so if hes an operator.

The above would explain MA shitting bricks and asking the Twatterverse for help.

Q
Timeline

11:50 AM EDT, June 9th: Air Force One (AF1) leaves Canada (G7 Summit) for Singapore.

6:56 AM EDT, June 10th: Missile is launched from near Seattle, WA.
AF1 landed in Singapore at 8:20 AM EDT.

That means the missile was launched 1 hour 24 minutes before AF1 landed.

Missiles like intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBMs) have the ability to reach speeds of 15,000+ mph.
Seattle, WA, to Singapore is a little over 8000 miles.

8000 mph / 15,000 mph = 0.5333 * 60 minutes (in an hour)

= 32 minutes for a missile travelling 15,000 mph
32 minutes is within the 84-minute timeframe between the missile launch and the landing of AF1, so it is possible that the missile was targeting AF1, as Q implied.

7:28 AM EDT, June 10th. Approximately when the missile would’ve hit (just a rough estimate, of course – we don’t actually know what kind of missile it was)
7:47 AM EDT, June 10th: John Brennan tweets, “To allies & friends: Be patient, Mr. Trump is a temporary aberration.”

Your wrong-headed protectionist policies & antics are damaging our global standing as well as our national interests. Your worldview does not represent American ideals. To allies & friends: Be patient, Mr. Trump is a temporary aberration. The America you once knew will return.

8:20 AM EDT, June 10th: President Trump lands safely in Singapore.

11:00 PM EDT, June 10th: Michael Avenatti tweets a plane in crosshairs.

‘VIVA LE RESISTANCE’: MUELLER TEAM ATTORNEY SENT ANTI-TRUMP TEXTS

An FBI attorney who worked on the special counsel’s Russia investigation until earlier this year sent anti-Trump text messages to a colleague, including one exclaiming: “Viva le Resistance.”

The attorney’s comments are revealed in a Justice Department inspector general’s report released on Thursday.

The lawyer is not identified, but he worked on the Hillary Clinton email investigation and was the FBI’s lead attorney on the investigation into Russian election interference. He was assigned to special counsel Robert Mueller’s investigation soon after it began in May 2017 and left in late February of this year after some of his private messages were shared with the special counsel.

“I am numb,” the attorney wrote on Nov. 9, 2016, the day after President Trump’s election.

“I am so stressed about what I could have done differently,” the lawyer continued, apparently referring to the FBI’s handling of the Clinton email probe.

The attorney’s messages show that he was distressed at the FBI’s decision in October 2016 to re-open the investigation into Clinton’s emails. Democrats have claimed that decision hurt Clinton at the polls.

The FBI lawyer also suggested that he would work to resist the Trump administration.

“Is it making you rethink your commitment to the Trump administration?” one FBI lawyer wrote on Nov. 22, 2016.

“Hell no. Viva le resistance,” the future Mueller attorney responded.

Can anyone tell me who the DOJ lawyer is that speaks French via text in the IG report? This will save a lot of time in the hearings this week so my colleagues won’t have to ask this question...

12:06 AM - 18 Jun 2018

Tuesday, June 19th, 2018

Viv[a] vs Viv[e]: It is misspelled – there was an [a] where there should’ve been an [e]. The text was meant to be French (it is referencing the French Resistance), so it should have been spelled “Vive la Résistance” not “Viva le Resistance.”

“Le” also should’ve been “la,” so “a” and “e” were mixed up twice.

Prolly going down the wrong road here, but ...

Q post about sun, moon, etc.

Elon Musk.

Heat = Tesla cars exploding
Moon = Full moon 6/27 (or 6/28)
Stars = Musk b-day 6/28
Missions = Space X launch 6/29

Don't know if the dates mean anything, other than pointing to Musk (raw speculation at this point).

Question: Anybody have info on Elon Musk? Seems to be Eric Schmidt vs. Elon Musk re: AI.

Tesla cars exploding. Any info about who was killed in one or more of these? Links to anyone in cabal?

Would Musk be someone who might testify about something? Fraud in the government handouts for alternate energy?

Full moon coming.

→ this refers to gifted anons figuring something out, which was the condition upon which something about our solar system or moon would be revealed to public.

Missions forward.

We started calling the anon who wore the Q shirt at the Minnesota rally and got pointed to by President Trump “VIPanon,” since he had a VIP pass that allowed him to sit where he did. VIPanon went to the North Dakota rally also, and got a VIP pass again. He was sitting in front of Trump and said that Trump pointed right at his shirt again and gave him a thumbs-up in the middle of his speech.

Associate Deputy Attorney General Scott Schools announced Tuesday that he will step down this week.

Top Justice Department Lawyer Resigns, Latest To Step Down

July 3, 2018 · 9:50 AM ET

CARRIE JOHNSON

Scott Schools, a top aide to the deputy attorney general, is planning to leave the Justice Department at the end of the week, according to two people familiar with his decision.

The job title for Schools — associate deputy attorney general — belied his importance as a strategic counselor and repository of institutional memory and ethics at the DOJ. Schools has played a critical, if behind-the-scenes, role in some of the most important and sensitive issues in the building.

This year, Schools recommended that then-Deputy FBI Director Andrew McCabe be fired for a "lack of candor" in an internal investigation.
For years, Schools worked alongside another Justice Department mainstay, David Margolis, who was known as the "Yoda" of the department. When Margolis died, DOJ brass asked Schools to come back to Washington to try to fill those shoes.

President Trump is ready to give a speech at the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States National Convention. He came out and entertained the crowd, as usual. The song “Proud to Be An American” by Lee Greenwood was playing.

The song goes: “From the lakes of Minnesota, to the hills of Tennessee, across the plains of Texas, from sea to shining sea.”

This is nothing out of the ordinary, since they play this song at every Trump rally. But, right as the “from sea to shining sea” part played, Trump pointed at the speakers and made a gesture, saying to listen.

John McCain, military hero and Senate "maverick," has died at 81

John McCain, the military hero who had a long career as a "maverick" Republican senator, has died, his Senate office confirmed on Saturday. He was 81.

In a statement, his Senate office said he died at 4:28 p.m. on August 25, surrounded by his wife Cindy and his family.
It gets interesting when we break this down a little further.

Death and funeral

McCain's family announced on August 24, 2018, that he would no longer receive treatment for his cancer. He died the next day, August 25, at 4:28 p.m. MST (11:28 p.m. UTC), with his wife and family beside him, at his home in Cornville, Arizona, aged 81.

He died at 4:28 PM MST on August 25th.

4:28 PM MST (7:28 PM EDT), July 25th: “No name returning to headlines” -Q

4:28 PM MST (7:28 PM EDT), August 25th: No name dies

In other words, Q’s post about him returning to headlines was 1 month exactly, down to the exact minute, before his death.

Additional dig

On 4/28 (there’s that number again), a story broke out that John McCain’s son-in-law, Ben Domenech, tweeted, “John hugged me tonight. He asked me to take care of Meghan. I said I would. F--k you soulless crazies. F--k you all the way to hell.”
It seems odd that on 4/28, he basically said his goodbyes, then on 7/25 at 4:28 PM MST, Q makes a post about him, and then on 8/25 at 4:28 PM MST, he dies.

Those are some strange “coincidences.”

At the Wilkes-Barre, PA, rally:

“In this case, the only time it’s secondarily – it’s called jobs, because all of this equipment and all of these brilliant planes, and everybody else, they want to buy all of them; we have a backlog – we make the greatest military equipment in the world. We make the greatest jets, we make the greatest ships. We make the greatest missiles. We have the anti-missile missiles that shoot down missiles – many, many miles away in the sky like a needle in a haystack – they shoot them down.”

The White House Twitter account posted this 26-second-long video, where President Trump is talking about the farmers.
Near the end of the video, he said:

“But we’re gonna win, and we’re gonna win big. You just watch.

We have the cards, they don’t.”

It truly sounds like, instead of saying “you just watch,” he actually says “Q just watch.” I slowed the video down to 50% speed and 35% speed, and to me, he clearly says “Q,” not “you.” There’s a clear difference between what sounds like a “yuh” sound as in “you,” and a hard “kuh” sound as in “Q.”

Listen and decide for yourself.

If you are unable to sign into XBOX Live, you will have difficulty loading your downloaded games... although physical does should still work if you go into the next day.

Indiana rally: Cash to Iran

Trump holds a rally in Indiana, and mentions the cash sent to Iran by Obama.

“And I can tell you one thing. Iran is not looking at the Mediterranean any longer. And hopefully that will all work out between us and Iran. But they have to live by a certain set of rules. That was a terrible, terrible deal. Remember, they were given $150 billion. And then they were given $1.8 billion -- what does that look like -- in cash, $1.8 billion. Hard to believe. You remember that."

President Trump is giving his speech at the rally:

“I’ve had such an incredible experience with the miners. And just a little while ago, backstage, there were nine – of the nine – now, these were tough guys. These are really – these are seriously tough cookies. In fact, I looked at them and I said I wouldn’t want to fight these guys. But of the nine, eight of them were crying. And I looked at the ninth, crying out of happiness, because they’re back. I looked at the ninth guy, I said, what’s wrong with you? Why aren’t you crying? ‘I don’t cry, sir.’ I said, that’s OK. That’s OK.”

If you’re new to Q, I would recommend reading all Q drops using the original Book of Q (contains posts from 10/28/17 to 11/23/17), then moving on to the current Book of Q (QMap PDF), jumping ahead to 11/23/17 (where the original version left off) and reading until the end that way. From there, you can read the latest Q drops using qanon.app or qmap.pub (both websites have every Q drop in order and are updated within minutes of every new drop).
