STATE'S REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED REVIEW OF BAIL DECISION UNDER ARTICLE 17.029 AND MOTION TO INCREASE BAIL AND MODIFY CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

TO THE HONORABLE DISTRICT JUDGE:

COMES NOW THE STATE OF TEXAS, by and through the undersigned Assistant District Attorney, and pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Articles 17.029, 17.09, 17.15, 17.40, and 17.44, requests expedited review of the $50,000 bond set for Defendant Nam Khoi Nguyen on the Collin County second-degree felony charge of Possession of Child Pornography. This arrest arose from the execution of an FBI search warrant at Defendant's residence in connection with a multi-country cybercrime investigation with pending federal charges, during which investigators also located multiple firearms inside the residence. In light of these circumstances, the State requests that bail be increased to $250,000 and that the Court preserve the magistrate's existing conditions while imposing the additional and modified conditions of release requested below.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND BASIS FOR REVIEW

1. On November 18, 2026, Collin County Sheriff's Office investigators arrested Defendant Nam Khoi Nguyen on-view for Possession of Child Pornography, a second-degree felony under Texas Penal Code section 43.26(d)(2). The arrest bears Collin County Sheriff's Office Arrest No. 26110002147 and Incident/Case No. 26291271, and the magistrate proceeding bears cross-reference DCMAG-413536-2026 (Ex. A at 1, 3; Ex. C at 1–2, 4).

2. On November 18, 2026, Magistrate Lisa Bronchetti found probable cause for Defendant's continued detention (Ex. C at 4). That same day, arresting Investigator Travis Monk submitted a written Bail Request noting that Defendant is a suspect in a large-scale, multi-country cybercrime investigation with pending federal charges, that multiple firearms were found inside Defendant's residence, and requesting a high bond and electronic leg monitoring (Ex. B). On November 19, 2026, Magistrate Bronchetti set bail for this second-degree felony offense at $50,000 and entered Conditions of Bail, including electronic leg monitoring and internet monitoring (Ex. C at 1–3). As of the State's filing, Defendant remains in the Collin County Jail and has not posted bond.
3. The November 19 bail decision was made under article 17.028 by a magistrate of a court without jurisdiction to try this second-degree felony. Under article 17.029(a)-(b), a Collin County district judge has jurisdiction to review and modify the decision before indictment.
4. Article 17.029(c) provides for district-clerk notification of district judges under a procedure established by the local administrative judge. Article 17.029(d) requires review as soon as practicable, but no later than the next business day after an attorney representing the State files the request with the district clerk. The State requests immediate referral and review.

II. FACTUAL BASIS FOR INCREASING BAIL

5. On November 18, 2026, at approximately 11:01 hours, Supervisory Special Agent Rollins of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Dallas Field Office, contacted Collin County Sheriff's Office Sergeant Paredon to request assistance during the execution of a federal search warrant at Defendant's residence, 2400 High Country Way, Plano, Collin County, Texas. Investigator Travis Monk—an Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) investigator and federal task-force officer. (Ex. A at 1).

6. Federal agents had obtained probable cause to investigate Defendant for violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1466A (Obscene Visual Representations of the Sexual Abuse of Children) and 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(3)(B)(i) (Distribution of Obscene Visual Depictions of Minors Engaged in Sexually Explicit Conduct). The FBI investigation centered on a publicly accessible "clearnet" website that facilitated the distribution of obscene visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct (Ex. A at 2).

7. Prior to the FBI investigation, the Canadian Centre for Child Protection, Inc. ("C3P") explicitly notified Defendant that his website and its content violated 18 U.S.C. § 1466A and that it was illegal to knowingly produce, distribute, receive, or possess with intent to transfer or distribute visual representations appearing to depict minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct. Despite that direct notice, Defendant refused to remove the content, prompting the FBI investigation (Ex. A at 2).

8. FBI Special Agents traced ownership of the website's domain name—as well as additional IP addresses and online accounts—directly to Defendant Nam Khoi Nguyen at 2400 High Country Way, Plano, Texas, linked to his photograph, date of birth, telephone number, and email address (Ex. A at 2).

9. Based on the FBI's review of the website, agents determined that portions of the hosted content depicted minors, including pre-pubescent minors, engaged in graphic sexual conduct involving bestiality, sadistic or masochistic abuse, and genital-genital, oral-genital, and anal-genital intercourse with other minors or adults. As recently as November

4, 2026, the FBI observed content on the site depicting an adult male having sexual intercourse with a toddler-aged girl crying for her mother, containing dialogue in which the adult male states, “Sorry about your daughter...,” and tagged “#loli,” “#toddlercon,” “#rape,” “#lolicon,” and “#baby” (Ex. A at 2).

10. During the November 18 search warrant execution, Defendant stated to federal agents that he maintained multiple computers and electronic storage devices in an upstairs bedroom. Investigator Monk examined one of those devices—a white “custom built” desktop computer that was powered on and logged into Defendant's user account (Ex. A at 2).
11. Within the Windows “Pictures” folder on Defendant's custom-built desktop computer, Investigator Monk personally reviewed multiple folders containing visual depictions of computer-generated child pornography created using artificial intelligence software. Many of those depictions showed children appearing to be approximately 7 to 10 years old engaging in sexual intercourse with adults and, to a reasonable person, were virtually indistinguishable from actual children younger than 18 years of age under Texas Penal Code section 43.26. Defendant acknowledged to federal agents that his computer contained media files depicting “young looking individuals” (Ex. A at 2–3).
12. In his November 18, 2026 Bail Request, Investigator Monk further advised that Defendant is a suspect in a large-scale cybercrime involving multiple countries and federal law enforcement agencies, that federal charges are pending, and that Defendant was found in possession of multiple firearms inside the residence (Ex. B).

III. GROUNDS FOR INCREASING BAIL

13. Article 17.15(a)(1) requires bail to be sufficiently high to give reasonable assurance that the undertaking will be complied with. Defendant faces not only a second-degree Texas felony carrying a punishment range of two to twenty years in prison (Tex. Penal Code §§ 12.33, 43.26(d)(2)), but also pending federal felony charges arising from a multi-country cybercrime investigation conducted by the FBI (Ex. A at 2; Ex. B). Severe concurrent state and federal prison exposure—coupled with an international cybercrime footprint—creates an acute incentive to flee before federal authorities assume custody. A $50,000 bond, which can typically be satisfied through a commercial surety for a small percentage of its face value, fails to provide reasonable assurance of Defendant's appearance.

14. Article 17.15(a)(3) requires consideration of the nature and circumstances of the offense. This case does not involve isolated, passive possession. Defendant allegedly operated a clearnet distribution website hosting depictions of extreme child sexual exploitation—including sadistic abuse, bestiality, and the rape of a toddler—while also possessing more than ten realistic, AI-generated depictions of 7-to-10-year-old children engaged in sexual intercourse with adults on a custom-built personal computer (Ex. A at 2–3). Most critically, when C3P put Defendant on explicit notice that his website and its contents violated federal law, Defendant refused to remove the material and persisted until federal agents executed a search warrant (Ex. A at 2). That documented refusal to comply with an explicit legal warning demonstrates a high likelihood that Defendant will disregard court-imposed boundaries if released on a modest bond.

15. Article 17.15(a)(5) requires consideration of the future safety of the community and law enforcement. Two concrete facts elevate that risk here. First, investigators reported finding multiple firearms inside Defendant's residence during a multi-agency federal and county law enforcement raid, at a time when Defendant faces imminent federal prosecution (Ex. B). Second, Defendant's demonstrated technical sophistication—building custom desktop hardware, administering a clearnet distribution website across multiple IP addresses and accounts, and maintaining multiple computers and electronic storage devices (Ex. A at 2)—creates a substantial risk that, if released on a low bond, he could evade standard device-level software monitoring, access remote hosting or cloud infrastructure to destroy digital evidence, or resume disseminating child sexual exploitation material.

16. On this record, the State requests a finding that $50,000 bail, together with the existing magistrate conditions, is insufficient and requests that the Court increase Defendant's bond from $50,000 to $250,000. The requested increase is tailored to Defendant's substantial flight risk, pending federal exposure, demonstrated defiance of legal warnings, access to multiple firearms, and technical capacity to circumvent basic supervision.

IV. PRESERVATION AND CLARIFICATION OF CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

17. On November 19, 2026, Magistrate Bronchetti entered Conditions of Bail ordering electronic leg monitoring (ELM) with GPS, RemoteCom internet monitoring, social-media and chat restrictions, a firearms prohibition, 500-foot child-safety exclusions, county travel limits, and pre-release passport surrender (Ex. C at 2). Pursuant to Articles 17.40 and 17.44 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, the State requests that the Court preserve all existing magistrate conditions in full and enter two narrow clarifications focused on preventing Defendant from absconding or circumventing supervision:

a. Pre-Release Activation of ELM/GPS Monitoring and Curfew. The existing Electronic Leg Monitor (ELM) with GPS condition (Condition 5) shall be installed and activated prior to Defendant's release from the Collin County Jail, accompanied by a supervision-monitored home curfew, so that Defendant cannot post bond and abscond prior to supervision intake.

b. Enforcement of Internet, Device, and Remote-Access Restrictions. In conjunction with Conditions 3 and 4, Defendant shall not use any unmonitored internet-capable device, virtual private network (VPN), or encrypted messaging platform, and shall not access, alter, or administer any remote server, domain, or cloud account, so that Defendant cannot destroy digital evidence, bypass supervision, or coordinate flight through unmonitored channels.

18. The State submits that these additional and modified conditions are reasonable and necessary to protect the community, prevent the destruction of digital evidence or resumption of illegal online activity, and assure Defendant's appearance in light of pending federal charges. The State therefore requests that the Court impose these conditions in conjunction with increasing Defendant's bond to $250,000.

Respectfully Submitted,

INITIAL NARRATIVE

Date: 11/18/2026 13:32 Officer: MONK, TRAVIS

I, Investigator Monk, your Affiant, works with the Collin County Sheriff's Office Crimes Against Children Investigations and is currently assigned to the Child Exploitation Unit, Internet Crimes Against Children Unit, located at 4300 Community Avenue, McKinney, Collin County, Texas. Affiant is responsible for the investigation of offenses involving the exploitation of children having a technological nexus and have been a Texas Peace Officer since 2015. Affiant is a member of a federal task-force for internet crimes against children investigations.

On 11/18/2026, at approximately 1101 hours, Sergeant Paredon was contacted by Supervisory Special Agent Rollins from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Dallas Field Office, in reference to a federal search warrant that was being executed at 2400 High Country Way, Plano, Collin County, Texas. The FBI was requesting assistance with the investigation and were in the process of speaking with an occupant of the residence, identified as Nam-Khoi Nguyen. Affiant and Sgt. Paredon responded to the residence immediately after.

Sergeant Paredon was briefed on the details regarding the search warrant and it was learned that the FBI had obtained probable cause to investigate violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1466A (Obscene Visual Representations of the Sexual Abuse of Children) and 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(3)(B)(i) (Distribution of Obscene Visuals Depiction of Minors Engaged in Sexually Explicit Conduct) which were believed to have been committed by Nam-Khoi Ngueyn. The investigation involved a website that facilitated the distribution of obscene visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct. The website operates on the "clearnet" - that is, the publicly accessible internet. Nam was informed by the Canadian Centre for Child Protection, Inc. ("C3P") that his site and content violated 18 U.S.C. § 1466A, and that it was illegal for any person to knowingly produce, distribute, receive, or possess with intent to transfer or distribute visual representations, such as drawings, cartoons, or paintings, that appear to depict minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct. Nam refused to remove the content, prompting the FBI investigation.

Based on FBI's review of the website, they deemed some of the content depicted minors, to include pre-pubescent minors engaged in graphic sexual conduct that included bestiality, sadistic or masochistic abuse, or sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, and anal-genital intercourse with other minors or adults. It was believed through the Special Agent's training and experience that the content would be intended to satisfy the sexual desires of viewers who have a sexual interest in children. Some of the content observed by the Online Covert Employee involved visual representations of minors engaged in sexual conduct.

Based on their investigation, FBI Special Agents served legal process and identified the domain name was owned by the following person:

- Nguyen, Nam-Khoi
- 2400 High Country Way, Plano, Texas, 75025-4782
- [redacted]
- Email address; Nam.Khoi@yahoo.com

Included was a photograph of the Nam Nguyen and lists his date of birth as November 23, 1989. It should be noted that additional legal process was served on other IP addresses and other accounts which resulted in account ownership resolving back to Nam.

As of November 4, 2026, the FBI had reviewed the site and observed content as follows: A cartoon image of an adult male having intercourse with a toddler-aged girl. Text within in the image showed both characters speaking. The adult male states, "Sorry about your daughter ... ," while the minor is crying for her mother. The post was tagged "#loli," "#toddlercon," "#rape," "#lolicon," and "#baby."

On 11/18/2026, the FBI executed a search warrant on the residence and processed the scene. Upon entering the residence, Affiant learned about the investigation regarding NGUYEN, and assisted with reviewing digital material that was discovered within this residence. Affiant was informed that NGUYEN had stated to federal agents that there were multiple computers and electronic storage devices belonging to him in an upstairs bedroom. Affiant discovered one of these computers and reviewed several of the media files found. This computer is described as a white "custom built" desktop computer. The device was already on and operable. The user account that was open at the time was found to belong to NGUYEN.

Upon reviewing media files contained in the Windows "Pictures" folder, Affiant located several folders that contained computer generated child pornography. Affiant personally reviewed these files. In several of these images, there are visual depictions of computer-generated children, appearing to resemble child younger than 18 years of age, engaging in sexual conduct. Many of these images depicted computer generated males and females that were created using an unknown artificial intelligence software. Many of these files show the generated children to appear of the ages around 7 to 10 years old. Affiant found multiple images that depict the computer generated children engaging in sexual conduct such as sexual intercourse with a computer generated adult. Affiant found there were more than 10 depictions found on this device that contained material defined by Texas Penal Code 43.26.

Affiant later learned that NGUYEN told federal agents that there were media files on his computer that contained computer generated depictions of "young looking individuals".

Based on this investigation, Affiant has reason to believe that NAM KHOI NGUYEN (A/M DOB: 11/23/1989) intentionally and knowingly possessed visual material, namely digital photographs, which contained 10 or more, but less 50 visual depictions of computer-generated children, appearing to be children younger than 18 years of age, created using an artificial intelligence application, and that to a reasonable person, was virtually indistinguishable from actual children younger than 18 years of age, and the computer-generated children were engaging in sexual conduct, namely sexual intercourse, and the defendant knew and should have known that the visual depictions of the computer-generated children engaging in sexual conduct appeared to be children younger than 18 years of age, in violation of Penal Code 43.26, a 2nd Degree Felony. Further, Affiant believes that this offense occurred within Collin County.
