Winners 4, Losers 3&4, DEATH MATCH, LA GRANDE FINALE

I know it's sudden and shit, but IRL stuff is going on and I don't know if I'll have another opportunity for free weekend in early October, that's why we are doing this right here right now. Taking into consideration your opinions gathered during previous tourneys and the legendary SHOWDOWN™ Match, we are going to change the rules and time tables a little bit. First of all, AKADORAS are back in action, so you fucks can stop complaining about tsumofests and instead rush your Cat's Favourite Open Tanyao. Next, we are changing the timing routine - games will begin in the afternoon (early evening in my time zone), and will proceed until early night. I hope that this way smaller amount of unhappy aussies anons will remain buttblasted. Registration period will last until early Saturday, and as always there are 32 slots, with further registrants being classified as reserve list.

Below I'll repost important notes from earlier tourneys, since those things will remain pretty much the same.

IMPORTANT NOTE: There are going to be slots open for co-commentators (since it worked really well during the showdown match). However, since the games are going to be played simultaneously, co-commentators won't be able to participate as players.

1. For notifying your readiness, calling your opponents to the table and so on I suggest to use IRC channel. #yakuman/v/irgins on <https://www.rizon.net/chat>, use your in game name for convenience. Every participant should join the channel, since it will be the main way of sharing information between you and me. Also, press the "ready for match" button in tournament tab ONLY when you are 100% ready.
2. Tourney host has to manually launch every game, choosing players from those who clicked "PREPARE FOR MATCH" button (that player's name is then highlighted in tourney setup panel).

3. Reserve list, they get priority in being substitutes: (this is going to get filled in case there will be reserve list at all)
4. This is a double elimination format: therefore from every upper bracket, first and second places are going up, third and fourth go to the loser's bracket. In there it's the same way - first and second go to the next loser's bracket match to play with other suckers (exception - losers round 2, there only 1st place advances), and third and fourth are permanently exiled to the shadow realm. Simple as that. Brackets will be posted below a few hours before the tournament.
5. After every round I'll take about 5 minutes to add results to the document and set up the brackets for the next round.
6. On Saturday 3 matches will take place (up to Winners 3 and Losers 2), and the rest on Sunday.
7. Have a good time and let the best win. If you have any questions, then pm me on IRC.
8. As usual, after the final match on Sunday, I invite everyone who will still have remainders of brainpower to play few blitz rounds: both tourney participants and spectators are welcome.
