

Clearing the air

Before actually getting into this I just want to say I'm thankful for the people who have stuck by me and supported me throughout this whole ordeal, but I also want to apologise to the people who now have problems with me due to it, when I joined this community I wanted nothing but to make people smile and I still feel that way, it was never my intention to hurt anyone or start drama and I truly apologise for how much it's blown up and overall affected the community. I would like to emphasise I AM NOT A VICTIM a lot of people are making it out that that's what I'm trying to play off as. That's entirely not true, I am not a victim, yes hate/harassment sucks but I'm not a victim I could have prevented this.

I'll be taking an indefinite hiatus, I feel it would be good for my mental health, having so much hate has definitely taken its toll on me and I don't want to return to such a dark place when I've fought so hard to get out of it. This is not me trying to make anyone feel bad for me before I get accused of that, I'm just explaining my genuine reason for this long break to anyone that's genuinely wondering! ❤️

I'm not posting this thing to get anymore attention than I've already (unwantedly) gotten I just wanna clear the air before leaving!:) i would love if this could die down I really just want it to stop getting talked about especially people making videos or posts about me which only adds to how much this effects the community.

addressing some things

- My voice - my voice is not fake. Before I was nervous, speaking with very low energy and whispering because there was people in my house I couldn't wake up and it was 2am, in the recent video I'm home alone at a regular time speaking in a excited tone and emphasising my voice to sound more happy (which many Vtubers do) as for the before clip I can say I was trying to force my voice to sound more asmr-iy but I just speak pretty much normally (apart from some emphasis on a happy tone) now! As for the accent people keep bringing up, I had it before I have it now, I am from the UK yes but many many people have an accent from where they aren't from. I've spoken to lots of people throughout this discourse and so many of them have agreed with me and even share the 'problem', accents can be picked up it's not something that's insane it's pretty common
- Money? - I saw a few people talking about a new model being funded? That is not true at all. I have not asked for ANY money if anything I've lost money throughout this discourse, and I wouldn't ask for anything considering the situation because that would be weird and genuinely wrong. I had throne funds up beforehand but I took them down when my 2.0 (the model that's blowing up atm) was complete which I pretty much payed for on my own, a few very kind people donated and I got maybe like $350 And all together my redbut maybe cost like $2000 I'm not sure on the exacts, I had a lot of assets. I'm not going to go into details because at the end of the day I don't think how much it costed matters

- Free art - I never asked for free designs I asked for advice and then people offered to do designs for me (which I greatly appreciate but do feel bad taking, you should be paid for your work!) when I made my post asking for advice I was expecting like 2 artists to dm me but I think people misunderstood (which is not their fault I should have worded it better) and thought I was asking for a design, I was not. I think the people drawing me designs or art are so so so sweet and that's such a kind thing to do I loved looking at all the beautiful designs and art, they were so creative and definitely helped inspire me, but I didn't ask for that and I do feel a little bad getting all this art for free especially after what I did.
- Drama baiting - I am not drama baiting? I vented about getting death threats (which I realise now was quite silly I should've kept that private) and suddenly all my posts started blowing up. I believe it was definitely stupid to vent on a public platform and I should've been more mature and kept that to myself and moved on, however it was NEVER my intention to drama bait or engagement bait (I'm not sure what the term is) I just simply wanted to vent about something that was hurting me and I can see now how it comes off as that, and I do apologise.
- Pity follows - I am not trying to get pity follows - i actually asked and I'll ask again now that anyone following me simply because of the drama should unfollow me, I don't want to be known for that nor do I want my community to stem from that

- My design - It was never my intention to plagiarise things but I do agree with everyone in saying I took too much inspiration, when I eventually come back from this break I'll definitely be changing my design up to something unique! I want to absolutely apologise to lily and all the amazing artists she worked with, as much as I had good intentions with this design I can absolutely see how it may not come off as that

- Blocking people - I took the blocking too far at the beginning of this, I got extremely paranoid and anxious so I began blocking the people hating and got some of the hateful people mixed up with the ones that we're just genuinely giving helpful advice, I shouldn't have been so paranoid, I could definitely have handled that more maturely and I'm hoping that anyone I blocked before who wasn't deserving of it is not too upset about this

i appreciate the time I've had in this community it's helped me grow as a person a lot and I hope that when I do return some point in the future I can be welcomed back in

Thank you for listening to my side of this drama
