hi jake...just wanted to ask are you okay ?

ThisIsJake22 9:29 PM
Yes i am ok, thank you 😇 im sorry about that steam. I didnt wanna do that and am not looking fwd to that news story blowing up in a few days.

snow-kid-noober 10:02 PM
i just found out abt what happened today so i didnt see the stream yeah the commentary people are gonna have a field day with this. i feel really bad because i know you dont deserve that stuff at all

snow-kid-noober 10:17 PM
i mean im glad your alright but it must be awful having to deal with finding out she was just using you

ThisIsJake22 10:19 PM
Yeah... but the same thing happened to me a few years ago. I just hate this was so public 🤷‍♂️

snow-kid-noober 10:24 PM
yeah i get that im rlly sorry again, u deserve someone better

camnuggets said before that lex was rude to him before so i had my suspicions

ThisIsJake22 10:29 PM
Yeah... atleast it was short lived. Now shes going scortched earth 😔 cams dropping a video on it later and thats the LAST time i

snow-kid-noober 10:31 PM
yeahh he told me hes dropping a vid soon im really glad your friends have ur back though

ThisIsJake22 10:33 PM
Seems most everyone does which is nice. Some people close to me are putt off by going through such an online break up. I cant blame them. Im putt off by it too lol and this is my 3rd messy break up in a row and 2nd one where i was targeted and fanincially exploited. So no dating for me for a year lol

snow-kid-noober 10:34 PM
wdym “put off”

ThisIsJake22 10:36 PM
Like A, its a bad look, and B, there could be sexist undertones. Aidens audience is vile and i dont want lex getting harrased more but she keeps jumping into it

snow-kid-noober 10:37 PM
ohh

ThisIsJake22 10:40 PM
Like i see where there are coming from. I didn't wanna do it either 🤷‍♂️

Jake said he was doing fine but was dreading an upcoming news story. Snow replied that she had just learned about it and hadn't seen the stream involving Lex, Jake's ex. Their brief conversation shifted to CamNuggets, which raised Snow's suspicions about Lex. Jake mentioned the chat with Cam was short-lived and confirmed that Cam planned to release a video. Snow expressed relief that Jake's friends were supporting him.

Jake then opened up about how the public breakup had affected him, saying some people close to him felt uncomfortable about it. He revealed it was his third messy breakup and the second time he felt targeted and financially exploited. When Snow asked what he meant by being "put off," Jake explained that the breakup looked bad publicly and might carry sexist undertones, especially given Aiden's (a commentary YouTuber) audience. He said he understood others' concerns and didn't want to relive the experience either.

snow-kid-noober 10:43 PM
well im not sure if its a "bad look" i mean its not like YOU did anything wrong

but i understand what ur saying and yeah i understand the thing about aidens audience. i dont really trust a lot of THAT side of commentary youtube primarily because of that i havent since all this stuff started and came to pass

ThisIsJake22 10:45 PM
Yeah. Like they didnt like that i could be like "sicking" that audience on her. But she was sicking them on me first so 🤷‍♂️

I said i dont want anyone harrasing lex

snow-kid-noober 11:20 PM
that makes 0 sense

like wtf 💀💀 shes out here pulling all that and ur just sitting here taking it like a champ

i dont know why things have to be like this for u

ThisIsJake22 11:24 PM
Me fucking neither. Maybe i keep putting myself in these situations because i need to take better care of myself and not be so reckless with my heart and finances hahaha

snow-kid-noober 11:26 PM
but thats the thing throughout this whole drama ive been rlly worried about you and the rest of the squad. you guys seem to be taking most of the hits for stupid reasons and yes you absolutely should take better care of yourself. nothings going to work out

you need to look good for my paintings

but yeah um i wonder how the rest of the squad is doing

ThisIsJake22 11:30 PM
they are good. Im in contact with them. They are good 😇 lex put a bit of a wedge between me and them becuase she tried really hard to inject herself and so they got a little distant. But i HOPEFULLY will see them again soon if some plans work out

snow-kid-noober 11:33 PM
gosh she really did get very involved with your life. and in 3 months too?? idk i feel like you just deserved someone better than that i fear. like someone who was there for u all along instead of her im glad the rest of the gang is doing alright though! send my regards because i dont fawn over them for nothing haha

ThisIsJake22 11:35 PM
Lol will do! Sent ro and dawson your last piece 😇

Snow disagreed with Jake's view that his actions were a bad look, saying he hadn't done anything wrong, though she understood his point and voiced her distrust of commentary YouTubers. Jake mentioned that some people close to him didn't approve of him "sicking" an audience on Lex, but argued that Lex had gone after him first. For context, Jake has been considered a lolcow in the commentary scene since his debut in DogPack404's video. He said he never wanted Lex to be harassed, prompting Snow to express empathy and concern for him and the rest of the "squad" (DogPack, CamNuggets, Quintheo, Rosanna, etc.). She told Jake to take care of himself because he had to "look good for [her] paintings," and asked how the others were doing. Jake replied that despite Lex straining his relationships with them, things were good and he planned to see them soon. Snow was surprised by how quickly Lex got involved with Jake and said he deserved better. She also asked him to send her regards to the squad, saying she didn't "fawn over them for nothing." Jake agreed and said he had already shared her previous Christmas artwork—featuring several figures from the MrBeast drama—with Ro and Dawson.

snow-kid-noober 9:30 PM
jake. is it bad that i like you guys the way i do. like is it bad i like you guys as people and i draw you guys even though i feel rlly terrible about it in a way after the soggy cereal stuff. everyone thinks you guys are problematic. but i dont like you guys for the problematic stuff i like you guys for you. even though i know a lot of the shit soggy said was stupid its still bad for me because of how people see you guys moving forward. its just really tough
DEC 30
ThisIsJake22 12:13 AM
No its not bad. Just try to remember we are people. Dont idolize us. Everyone is human and makes mistakes. Its cool to like stuff and content and what not. But dont put us above anyone else. We are all just human beings
snow-kid-noober 1:02 AM yeah i dont try and put you guys on a pedestal or anything
ThisIsJake22 1:03 AM
Then yeah i dont see a problem with drawings 🤷 haha
And dont worry about soggy
And dont worry about what other people say
The system is problematic
Youtube hate based content is problematic
And mrbeast is VERY problematic
Dawson and ro are V not problematic
And i dont think i am haha

I just had an ex try to accuse me of abuse and everyone said "jake is to much of a b*tch to abuse women" and you know who said that? The REAL problematic people on youtube
The ultra right wing commentary space
snow-kid-noober 1:07 AM
ugh i dont even wanna think abt them
ThisIsJake22 1:07 AM
Yeah they suck haha
Soggy was just making content. Being contrarian.
Trust me. Give it a year. Jimmy hired a PR team to defame me dawson and Ro. And the doofuses are eating it up
snow-kid-noober 1:09 AM i just hate it when people think im parasocial or something because i like you guys esp post soggy video. i dont wanna have to keep trying to justify myself or something i just feel you guys should be treated more fairly given your situation its obviously not gonna be so straightforward beefing with a literal millionaire esp when ur a normal person
ThisIsJake22 1:12 AM
Dont pay them anymind. People are gonna think what they think. You just do you, like what you like, and dont worry about what

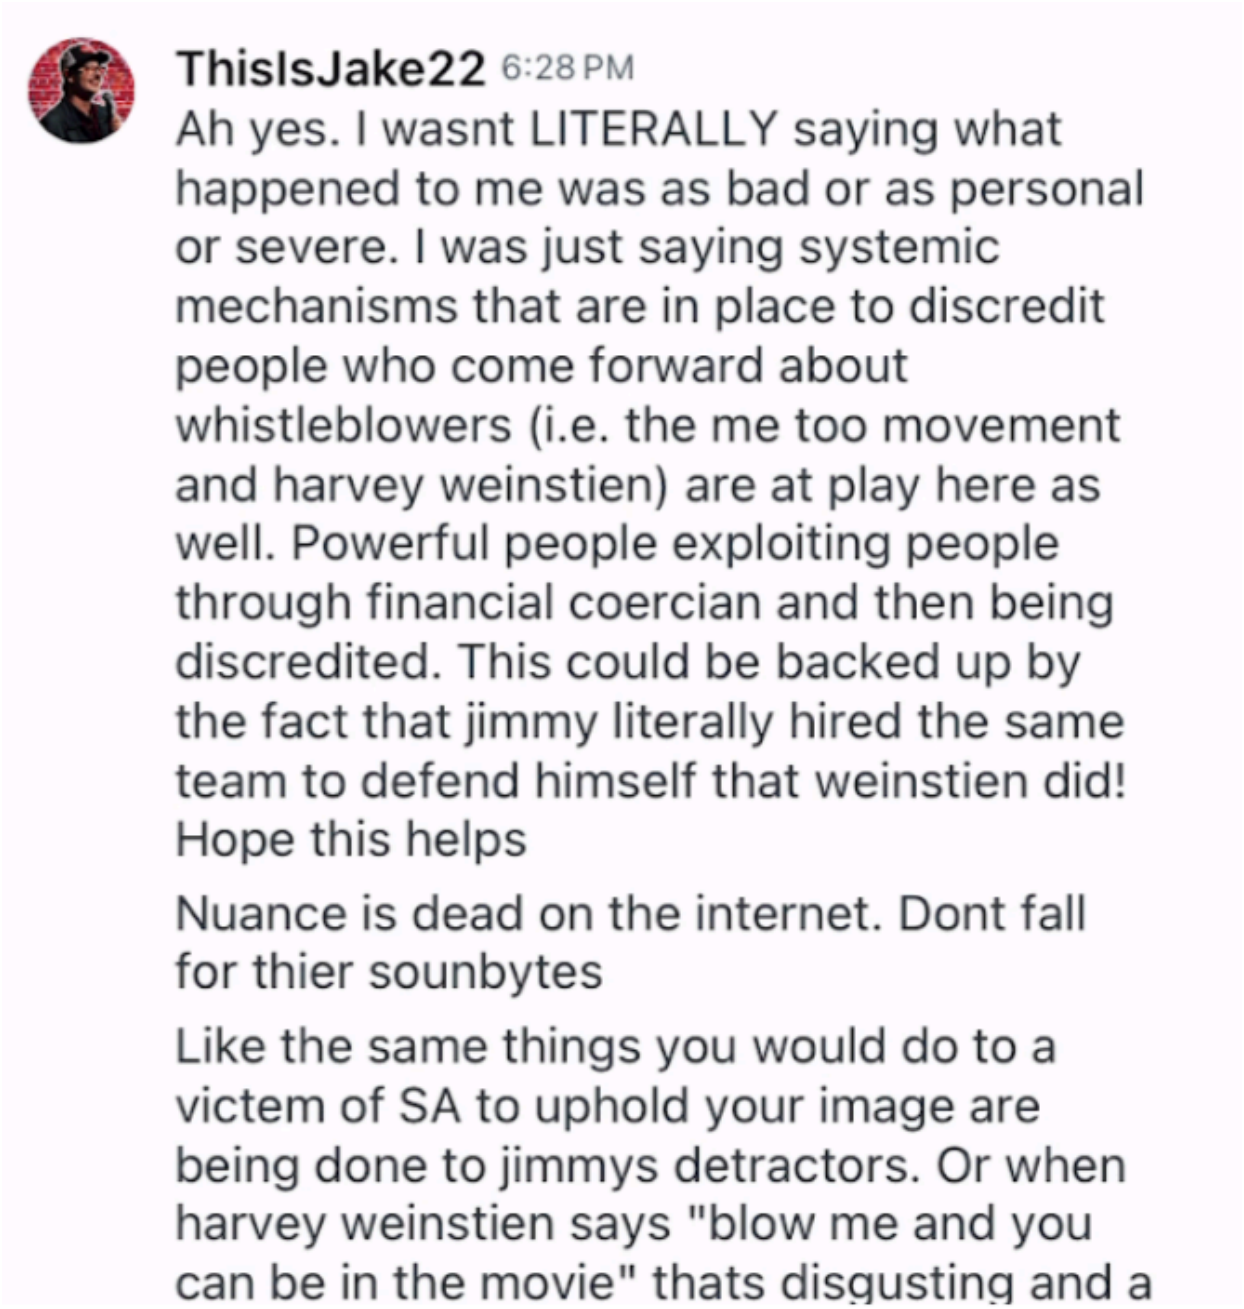

On December 28th, Snow messages Jake asking two things: what Rosanna and Dawson think of her art, and whether it's wrong for her to like him and the rest of the "MrBeast Hater Squad" (her term for the anti-MrBeast crowd) after the Soggy Cereal video, which damaged Dawson's reputation. Jake replies that it's fine to support them, as long as she doesn't idolize anyone and remembers they're just people. He advises her not to stress over Soggy Cereal or others' opinions, and shares his thoughts on Commentary YouTubers and MrBeast's issues. Snow responds that she's not trying to be parasocial—she just wants those she admires to be treated fairly.

thank you. gn
snow-kid-noober 6:25 PM
i have a question. why did you compare yourself to a rape victim that one time? i remember you got a lot of hate for it on the commentary side but im also a bit confused myself. why did you do that if u dont wanna tell me its okay
ThisIsJake22 6:28 PM
Ah yes. I wasnt LITERALLY saying what happened to me was as bad or as personal or severe. I was just saying systemic mechanisms that are in place to discredit people who come forward about whistleblowers (i.e. the me too movement and harvey weinstien) are at play here as well. Powerful people exploiting people through financial coercian and then being discredited. This could be backed up by the fact that jimmy literally hired the same team to defend himself that weinstien did! Hope this helps Jake reassures her that as long as she just does what she feels like, nobody can take away the appreciation she has for the Squad. Snow thanks him for his words and wishes him good night. The next evening she would ask Jake about a certain Instagram story where he ranted about online hate directed at him and appeared to be comparing himself to a rape victim.

He was mocked for this story by commentators and their communities, but even Snow has said she doesn't understand why he said the things he did in that Instagram story. Jake later explained that he didn't actually believe what happened to him was on the same level, but that the way victims of sexual assault are silenced felt similar to how MrBeast's detractors were being silenced. He even mention when Harvey Weinstein says "blow me and you can be in a movie."

Still, the question remains: why on earth is Jake trauma-dumping to a child? If you're 27 years old and you're having ongoing conversations regarding rape with a 13- or 14-year-old, how is it in any way appropriate for these DMs to continue?

Snow comments that she didn't understand how people let Jimmy get away with hiring the same lawyer who defended Harvey Weinstein and got him off free. Jake also talks about Jimmy hiring a PR team to defame him and downplays his own behavior, saying he's only guilty of making "schizo rants" on Instagram—adding, "who isn't?" Again, does Jake not realize how weird it is to say these things to a child this young? On top of that, he's encouraging artwork from other creators. Normally, that wouldn't be an issue—but given the context of everything surrounding this situation, it's disturbing.

i dont think i got to interact with you over the summer (maybe through dawson sending u my fanart that one time but thats it) but i did get to talk to cam and quintheo a

Snow comments that Jake's critics don't have the best comprehension and that they intentionally misinterpret things to get clicks. Jake appreciates Snow's willingness to get clarification, to which she responded that she felt inclined to as the "worrying was killing [her]". Jake says she doesn't need to stress over him and wants her to consider finding the same values she sees in him and Dawson in other places. Snow quickly clears things up and claims she was exaggerating, and Jake makes a joke about making sure to go outside. Snow brings up that she's been following the MrBeast drama since the start and mentions that if it never happened, her summer wouldn't have been any fun.

Snow also brings up that Jake was the only person part of the MrBeast Hater Squad she didn't have the chance to talk to during that point in time aside from Dogpack sending him her fanart. This is most likely the first time Jake had heard of Snow. Jake comments on how CamNuggets and Quintheo are great people. In the middle of the conversation, he abruptly asks Snow—based on her artwork—if she was shipping him and Dawson, since the art she was drawing of them seemed romantic. He immediately follows up by saying he finds it funny.

Snow seems taken aback and clarifies that she doesn't like drawing ship art of real people, though she does admit she finds Jake and DogPack's dynamic "cute." But if Jake had that idea come to mind—if he genuinely thought a child might be romantically shipping him with someone—then why didn't he stop the conversation right there? Instead, he says, and I quote: "I have zero problem with it." Jake wishes Snow a good rest of her evening. Snow follows up the next day, clarifying that she is fine with shipping real people as long as she has their consent to do so, and asks if Jake would be alright with her drawing such art of him and DogPack, to which he expresses his full approval.

stopp i was looking through my camera roll and i found this thing i made from like a few months ago??? 💀💀

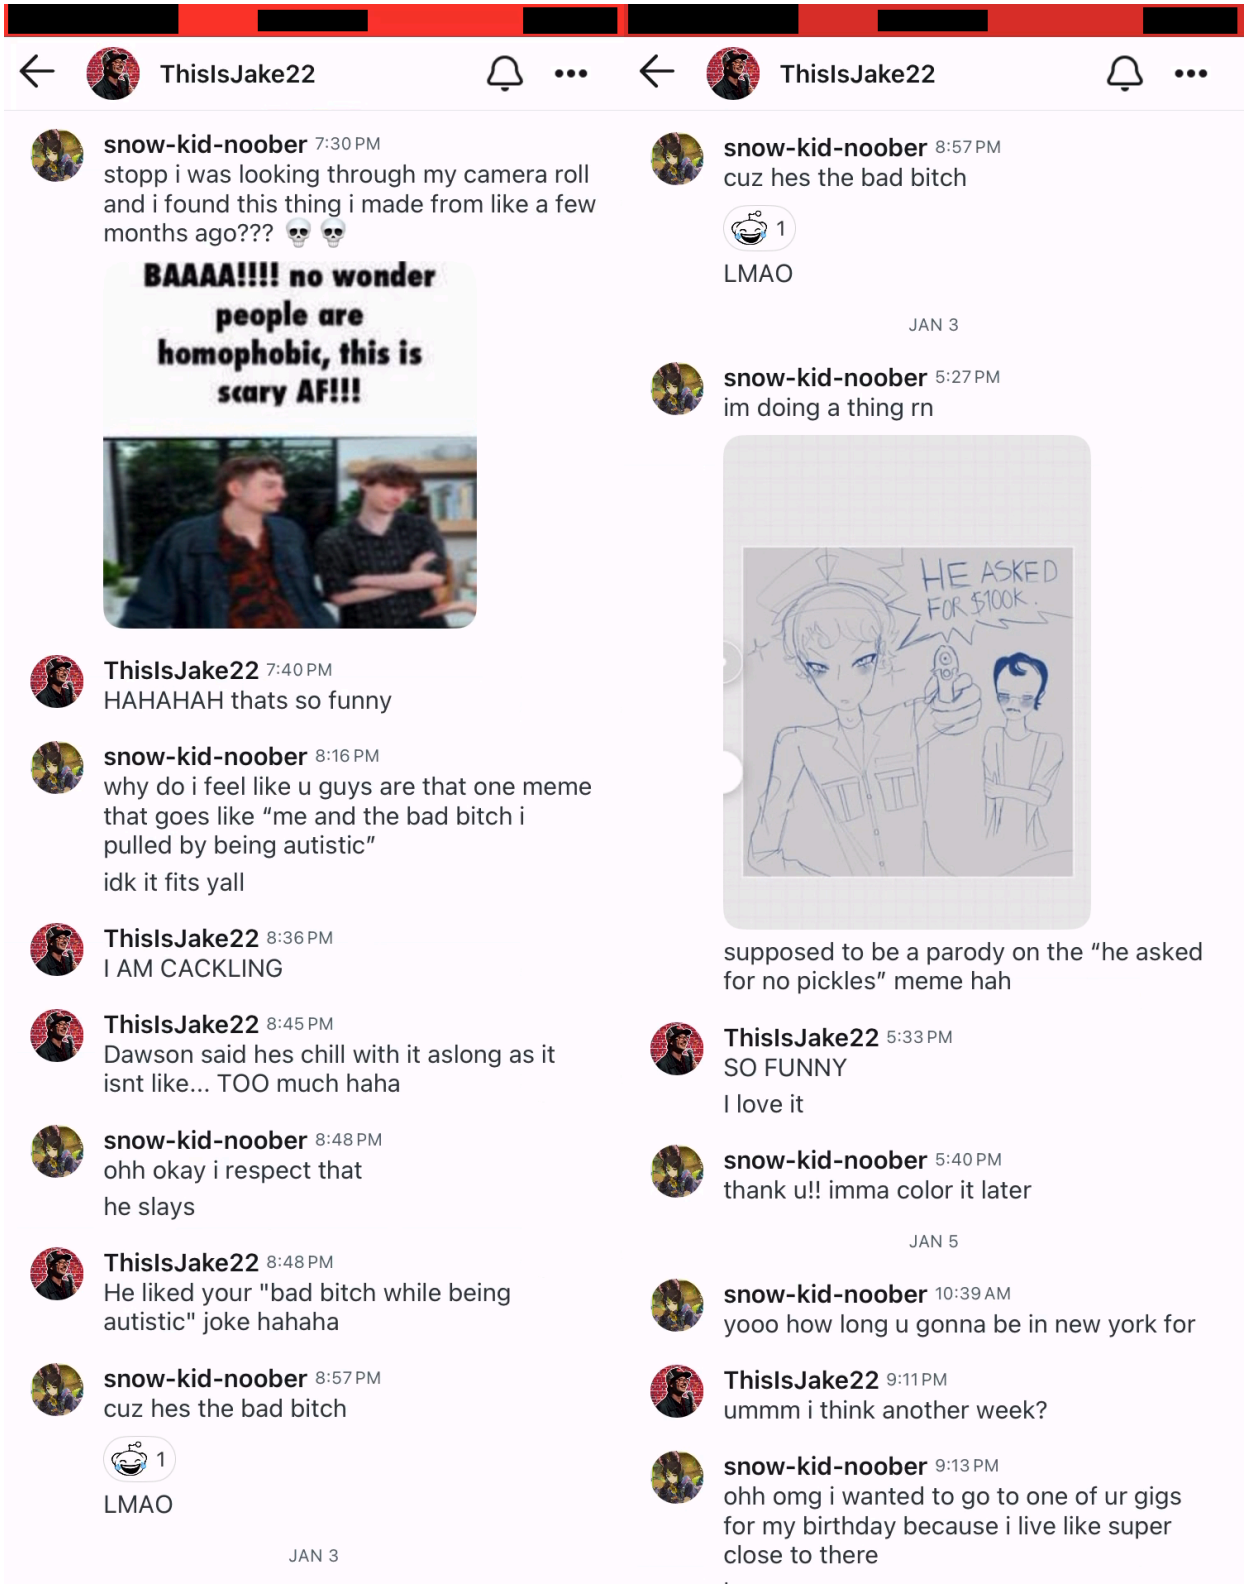

With his approval, Snow sends him a picture of some fanart she made a few months back, which depicts Jake and Dawson holding hands (with “jakepack 4eva” and “Jake Weddle x Dawson French” written on the side).

Jake laughs at this and says he appreciates her support. Snow asks him to ask Dawson if he’s fine with the art, and he says he’ll ask. She also wishes him a happy new year. This should have been a red flag and Jake obviously should have cut communications after this. On January 2nd, she sent a picture of Jake's Instagram story and thanked him for promoting her work.

January 2nd - January 5th

Snow sends Jake a picture of a shitpost she made to which he finds funny. Snow also references the "me and the bad bitch I pulled by being autistic" meme and attributes it to Jake and Dawson's dynamic. Jake also tells Snow that Dogpack is alright with the ship art as long as she doesn't draw anything explicit (understandable given she's a minor). Snow understands this and Jake tells her Dawson liked her "bad bitch while being autistic" joke. She responds to this by calling Dawson the "bad bitch". On January 3, she sends Jake a work-in-progress of some of her art, to which he compliments. On the 5th she asks him about how long he plans to stay in New York due to wanting to go to one of his shows.

Snow sends Jake the finished version of a WIP she had shared earlier, which he compliments. On the 9th, she sends another drawing of DogPack and mentions her upcoming birthday. Then, on the 13th, she sends a drawing of Jake and Dawson holding hands, blushing, sharing a milkshake, and seemingly about to kiss—with hearts around them. Given Snow's age and the suggestive nature of the drawing, this should have raised serious concerns for Jake Weddle. Instead, he said nothing and continued talking to her.

No for real. Like my mom was getting harassed. My number got leaked. Lex turned out to be grifting me. The last 2 girls before lex beat the shit out of me. My dads in jail for sex crime. Solitary genuinely gives me PTSD nightmares. Like.... all things considered, im allowed an unhinged insta story every now and then i think 🤷‍♂️ think all things. Considered im doing JUST FINE thanks. Hahaha

no yeah its alright. also i noticed the people who usually say those things are also really fuckin dumb when theyre not being backed up by their friends like they look formidable as a group online but like when you talk to them one on one theyre not very smart?

like when you argued with lerix that one time

ThisIsJake22 4:26 PM
No for real. Bullys travel in groups. 🤷‍♂️ ive been getting better at handling them. Haf to get used to it 💅

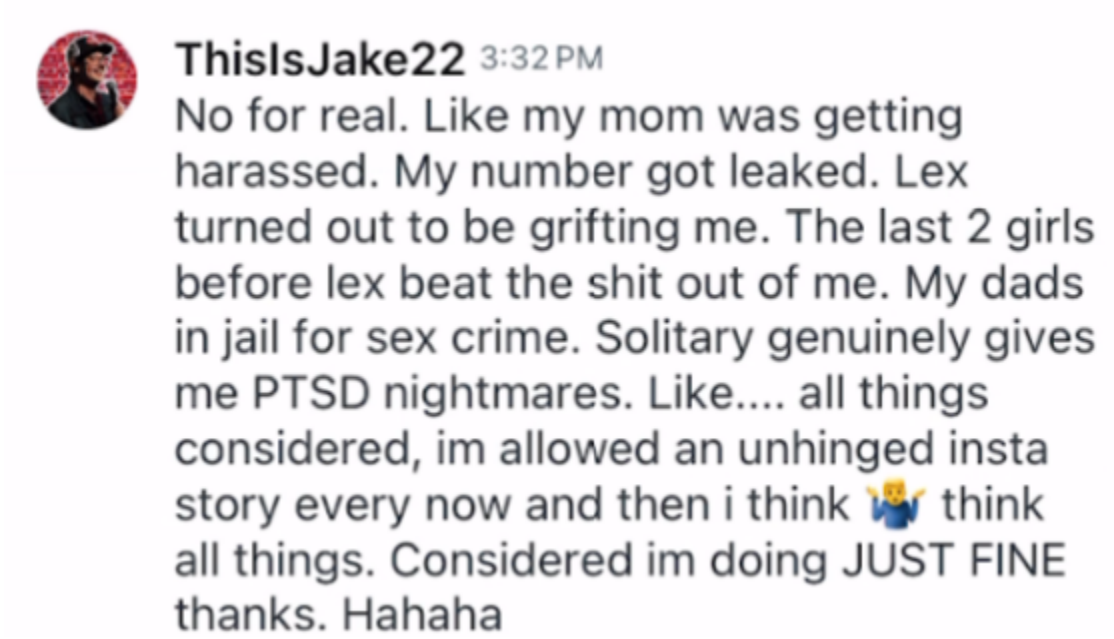

snow-kid-noober 4:29 PM
yeah and what turkey tom said was true too tbh u feed the trolls wayyy too much. like as much as i like you i have to say that. but thats not ur fault they blow things out of proportion

ThisIsJake22 4:30 PM
Oh no totally. I fed them a lot when things first started

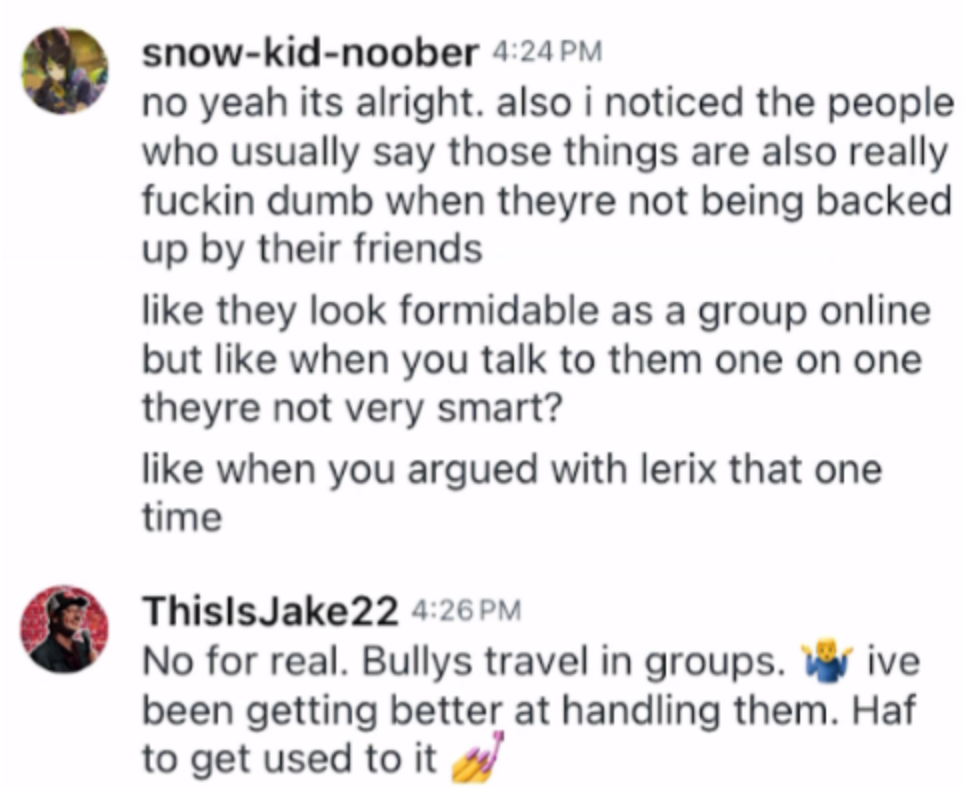

She says that Jake comes off to her as awkward, but “in a nice way” (which is why she drew him as such). Jake praises the work and comments that her depiction of him is very accurate. The next day Snow comments that she finds it funny how Jake’s critics scorn him for things he does online while they act worse than he does, to which Jake agrees and details a number of things that torment him about the whole situation including mentioning how some want Jake’s dad to get out of jail and rape him.

Snow remarks that the people who criticize him aren’t as smart when they act alone as opposed to with their friends. She also says that even though she respects him, Turkey Tom was right about him feeding into hate too much. There is another point of concern to point out. Jake Weddle says he loves the artwork of both him and Dawson seemingly next to each other and in a romantic setting. Why is Jake encouraging this behavior? This crosses a line when Jake begins unloading his personal problems onto a child.

He talks about his phone number being leaked, claims his ex is grifting him, says the last two girls he dated tried to beat him up, and reveals that his father is in jail for sex crimes—adding that solitary confinement gives him PTSD nightmares.

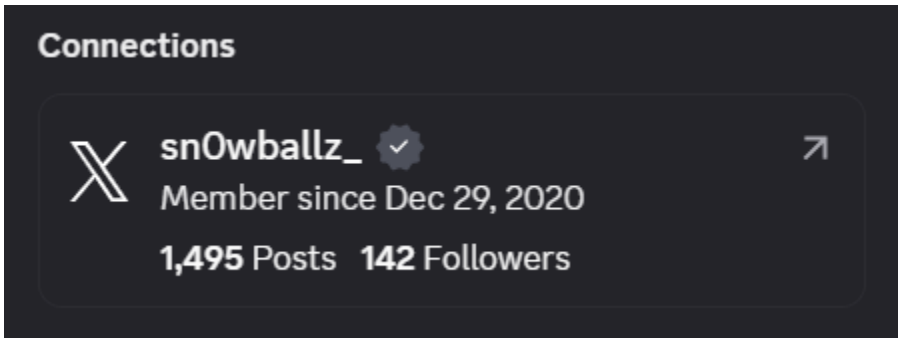

He also vents about bullies traveling in groups, says he's getting better at handling them, and punctuates it with a nail polish emoji.

What happened? Months ago, in 2025, I mentioned this situation to a Kiwi Farms user without discussing the more extreme details. I noted that Lex joined a Discord server where I sought assistance with Ava Tyson-related issues and attempted to contact ex-employees. For context, a user helped me locate VODs related to a Chris associate on a server I joined. I had asked for help finding Minecraft-related VODs connected to this individual, offering to credit anyone who assisted in a thread (which I never updated) on January 13, 2025. I was transparent about using Kiwi Farms and intended to credit minor for aiding with the timeline, as I always credit contributors. I didn't ask the minor's age. In hindsight, I regret not verifying their age or checking their Twitter, which would have stated their age when they offered help, and I acknowledge I should have.

I take full accountability for this failure. As soon as this kid mentioned school, I should have immediately asked how old they were. In this document, I will also include my full correspondence with Snow.

At the time, I had joined two Discord servers run by former MrBeast employees, hoping to find a space where I could collaborate with others on research. It was there that I first met Snow. Along with other members, we discussed my findings about Ava and the larger MrBeast company. During one of these conversations, I mentioned needing assistance, and Snow offered to help.

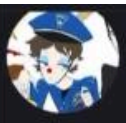

Because of my paranoia, I have a habit of scrubbing any mentions related to Ava Tyson and Discord-related material. I eventually decided to direct message Snow, which marked our first private interaction. In that message, I reminded her that I was a Kiwi, acknowledging that she didn't have to trust me, but added that her help would be greatly appreciated if she chose to give it.

Snow asked what she stood to lose by trusting me. I told her “nothing.” She seemed reassured by that response, and I explained that I needed someone to create a Dream SMP timeline, outlining how she could do it. Snow replied that she would work on the timeline later, mentioning that she was in school at the time. I made sure to express my gratitude for her willingness to help.

There should absolutely be questions and scrutiny. As an adult, it is my responsibility to verify people's ages in every situation. In this case, I failed to do so, and I fully deserve the criticism and scrutiny directed at me for my recklessness. If this was someone else, I would go just as hard on them.

No I am just editing the Chris Tyson thread. I think I sadly do need to offer more pushback

I thanked Snow for her help and mentioned that I would be finished writing the Dream SMP portion and be done. Snow asked if there was anything else I needed, and I explained that I would need to offer more pushback on Weddle, as I did not want to be accused of bias. I also shared that, although I had initially been doubtful, I now believed he had been harmed. Snow confirmed something that caught my interest—she had talked to him.

Silly goose 1/14/25, 6:17 PM

I also was forced to do a thread on Dogpack which I never finished mainly out of my respect for Dogpack that I still hold even though I may not like him much. I still am waiting on his video. The reason why I was forced is because I noticed people outside of the Farms mainly MrBeast people trying to derail the MrBeast thread. They were also monitoring our posts which I proved and sent to someone (edited)

Had I known her age at the time, I would have been extremely concerned. My thought process then—that if she knew Jake Weddle, I might be able to establish contact with him through her—was completely inappropriate given the circumstances and what I later learned. I asked Snow directly that if she did speak to Jake, she should tell him I was sorry and wished him the best. This request came from a sympathetic perspective, as I wanted to apologize for not recognizing him as a real victim when he was harmed by the company.

The funny thing is that a person who worked with the company didn't know I was the kiwi and they started saying "oh so and so is crazy, he is schizophrenic" then they talked about having a group chat where they link my posts and monitor them

And that fucking scared me a bit I won't lie

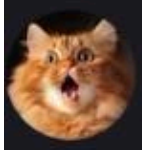

Because the fact is they then sent screenshots of my posts taken 2 minutes after it got posted

Which meant someone was watching me closely

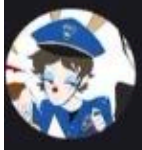

I went into detail about a person who had previously worked with the company (they are not currently employed there—this is a false statement) and who began making comments like “so-and-so is crazy, he is schizophrenic.” They also mentioned having a group chat where my posts were linked and monitored, which genuinely scared me. He made it seem like oh it was a gc for people who link my posts because I write essays and didn't know it was me but then he like literally showed screenshots of my posts either 2 minutes after or 9 seconds

Which meant that as soon as I posted boom you had someone already monitoring me which again is scary. Why would casual friends be monitoring posts that fast?

It doesn't make sense

I felt like the person knew who I was and was threatening me indirectly

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 6:53 PM
so the mrbeast workers r like 100% watching u

Though there is no active evidence this is the case and perhaps based on speculation, I mentioned Lava telling me about this Then Snow would add that she told Jake about what I said and Jake would say no harm no foul and no worries. I also added that Jake dealt with a lot of stuff and I feel nothing but sympathy and wish him the best.

Once I complete all the necessary threads
I'll dox the last two mods (edited)

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:19 PM
when do you envision youll finish it?
because u said u started this a year ago

When I mentioned doxxing two mods, that was the wrong term. I'm not a doxxer—I collect only publicly available information that people themselves put online and sometimes reach out to others for more publicly accessible details. That's just internet searching and digging, not doxxing.

The real issue is that I involved a minor without realizing it, which was reckless and deserving of scrutiny. I should not handle serious investigations if I can't do something as basic as verifying age. This all began in August 2024, when I was already looking into them, and it later led me to an employee who appeared to have indirect ties to Epstein and knew Alan Dershowitz. When Snow asked how I "dox" people, the conversation became even worse.

because u said u started this a year ago

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:20 PM

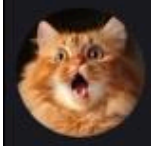

So I started in August 2024

It's been taking longer

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:20 PM

i also might go over the tl i made again to check if stuff is right

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:21 PM

I was looking into them longer before August but I started doing heavy work around August then I kept getting sent so much stuff and then I guess what happened was I discovered a lot of crazy shit about employees and the company and I kinda would be distracted by all these mini rabbit holes I found

Oh and the weird employee with indirect ties to Epstein that guy was interesting but it's not as bad as it sounds. He like knew this one guy who was his professor at Harvard known as Alan Dershowitz who was on the Epstein list

But I think had some interview where he had Alan defend himself and calling the Epstein doc lies

as bad as it sounds. He like knew this one guy who was his professor at Harvard known as Alan Dershowitz who was on the Epstein list

But I think had some interview where he had Alan defend himself and calling the Epstein doc lies

So that was weird

Yeah a lot of weird things you find

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:23 PM

ive wanted to ask someone this for a while but i knew i couldnt just go out and look for them but now that ur here

how do u dox people

like consistently

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:24 PM

It's all about the information you have

So a social media handle

A birthday

A name

An age

A location

These things can used to identify someone

Because people will for example bring up oh my birthday was on this date right?

A location

These things can used to identify someone

Because people will for example bring up oh my birthday was on this date right?

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:25 PM

yeah

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:25 PM

Then they say oh I'm from this state? Then they may link their socials

And it allows you to kinda get an idea of who they are

Also looking at follower list helps

Usernames can be put through leaked databases

So it's really helpful

Like I didn't explain it well

But it's all about the basic info you can find

Anyone can be doxxed and identified

I can be most certainly

Silly goose Like I didn't explain it well

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:28 PM

nono i understand it

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:28 PM

+ ways to look into companies

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:29 PM
oh sure thank you!

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:29 PM

I would then send Snow open corporates to look into LLCs and that is it. Snow talks to Jake the same day, commenting that she finds it funny how Jake's critics scorn him for things he does online while they act worse than he does, to which Jake agrees and details a number of things that torment him about the whole situation. I went into detail about a person who had previously worked with the company (they are not currently employed there—this is a false statement) and who began making comments like “so-and-so is crazy, he is schizophrenic.” They also mentioned having a group chat where my posts were linked and monitored, which genuinely scared me. They even sent screenshots of my posts taken just two minutes after I had posted them, which made it clear that someone was actively watching me.

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 6:48 PM
oh so someone was spying on u??

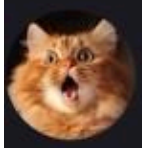

Silly goose 1/14/25, 6:48 PM
Yeah

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 6:49 PM
so this is like actually crazy

Silly goose 1/14/25, 6:50 PM
He made it seem like oh it was a gc for people who link my posts because I write essays and didn't know it was me but then he like literally showed screenshots of my posts either 2 minutes after or 9 seconds

It doesn't make sense

I felt like the person knew who I was and was threatening me indirectly

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 6:53 PM
so the mrbeast workers r like 100% watching u

Though there is no active evidence this is the case and perhaps based on speculation, I mentioned Lava telling me about this Then Snow would add that she told Jake about what I said and Jake would say no harm no foul and no worries. I also added that Jake dealt with a lot of stuff and I feel nothing but sympathy and wish him the best.

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 6:53 PM

so the mrbeast workers r like 100% watching u

that is an obstacle

Silly goose 1/14/25, 6:53 PM

I don't know if it's workers but

I believe moderators

The person who told me this was Lava

jolly* snow ill tell him

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 6:53 PM

its all good

ThisIsJake22 6:42 PM

Oh tell them i said no harm no foul and no worries ❤️

❤️ 1

@jolly snow its all good

Silly goose 1/14/25, 6:54 PM

That's good. Man dealt with a lot of stuff and I feel nothing but sympathy. Again wish him the best

So that's why I either think the company is watching me or the mods from there

And maybe Chris himself

And maybe Chris himself

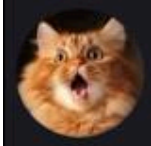

but

Silly goose And maybe Chris himself

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:00 PM

its not like he can do anything though no? u already have evidence and other things

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:00 PM

Yeah but the biggest thing

Is Chris's other friends purging stuff which isn't good

right

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:00 PM

sure I collected some evidence but there is other evidence that likely was purged. I know Jimmy purged most of his tweets with Shadow Bullet

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:01 PM

thats what i meant by evidence; sufficient evidence to make ur case even if chris deletes it or not

The mention of Shadow Bullet is notable, as both I and Snow brought him up to Cam Nuggets.

Camnuggets invited you after they were like “omg ur friends with cam??”
invited silly goose the guy with the shadow bullet dox literally audit logs disprove that HELP

Some claim her references to people I follow prove Snow was a “gay op,” but that’s not true. I was reckless for openly discussing the mods, and in this case it involved a minor whose age I failed to verify. I take full accountability and deserve scrutiny. The conversation worsened when I mentioned secret NSFW channels and admitted I couldn’t speak about what I knew regarding certain people. Had I confirmed Snow’s age, this exchange would never have happened. Just as Jake deserves scrutiny, so do I.

the most slimest mod who is very careful and someone who not even the best can collect stuff on is Milk. (edited)

Milk is smart and careful and monitors the Farms.

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:08 PM

Once I complete all the necessary threads
I'll dox the last two mods (edited)
jolly snow 1/14/25, 7:19 PM
when do you envision youll finish it?
because u said u started this a year ago

When I mentioned doxxing two mods, that was the wrong term. I'm not a doxxer—I collect only publicly available information that people themselves put online and sometimes reach out to others for more publicly accessible details. That's just internet searching and digging, not doxxing.

when do you envision youll finish it?

because u said u started this a year ago

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:20 PM

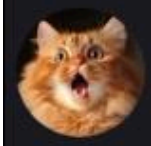

So I started in August 2024

It's been taking longer

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:20 PM

i also might go over the tl i made again to check if stuff is right

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:21 PM

I was looking into them longer before August but I started doing heavy work around August then I kept getting sent so much stuff and then I guess what happened was I discovered a lot of crazy shit about employees and the company and I kinda would be distracted by all these mini rabbit holes I found

Oh and the weird employee with indirect ties to Epstein that guy was interesting but it's not as bad as it sounds. He like knew this one guy who was his professor at Harvard known as Alan Dershowitz who was on the Epstein list

as bad as it sounds. He like knew this one guy who was his professor at Harvard known as Alan Dershowitz who was on the Epstein list

But I think had some interview where he had Alan defend himself and calling the Epstein doc lies

So that was weird

Yeah a lot of weird things you find

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:23 PM

ive wanted to ask someone this for a while but i knew i couldnt just go out and look for them but now that ur here

how do u dox people

like consistently

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:24 PM

It's all about the information you have

So a social media handle

A birthday

A name

An age

A location

These things can used to identify someone

Because people will for example bring up oh my birthday was on this date right?

A location

These things can used to identify someone

Because people will for example bring up oh my birthday was on this date right?

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:25 PM

yeah

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:25 PM

Then they say oh I'm from this state? Then they may link their socials

And it allows you to kinda get an idea of who they are

Also looking at follower list helps

Usernames can be put through leaked databases

So it's really helpful

Like I didn't explain it well

But it's all about the basic info you can find

Anyone can be doxxed and identified

I can be most certainly

Silly goose Like I didn't explain it well

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:28 PM

nono i understand it

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:28 PM
nono i understand it

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:28 PM
Yeah if you like when I'm done with the Beast stuff I can make a pdf for you that goes over ways to do the stuff I described

+ ways to look into companies

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:29 PM
oh sure thank you!

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:29 PM
Actually, a good site to look into LLCs is open corporates

https://opencorporates.com/

Very useful

:)

jolly* snow 1/14/25, 7:30 PM
ooh

Silly goose 1/14/25, 7:30 PM
You can also use this for the Beast company. Anyone can

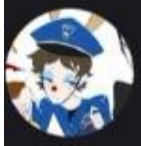

The real issue is that I involved a minor without realizing it, which was reckless and deserving of scrutiny. I should not handle serious investigations if I can't do something as basic as verifying age. This all began in August 2024, when I was already looking into them, and it later led me to an employee who appeared to have indirect ties to Epstein and knew Alan Dershowitz. When Snow asked how I "dox" people, the conversation became even worse.

no i dont need a tutor i have like the 2nd or 3rd highest in my whole school lol

i just need. more work. and for my teachers to grade stuff

Silly goose 1/16/25, 4:21 PM
Ahhh

Well you're a hard worker, you'll be fine. You said yourself you have one of the highest grades so that's reflective of you working hard. Hopefully, the teaches can grade the stuff in time

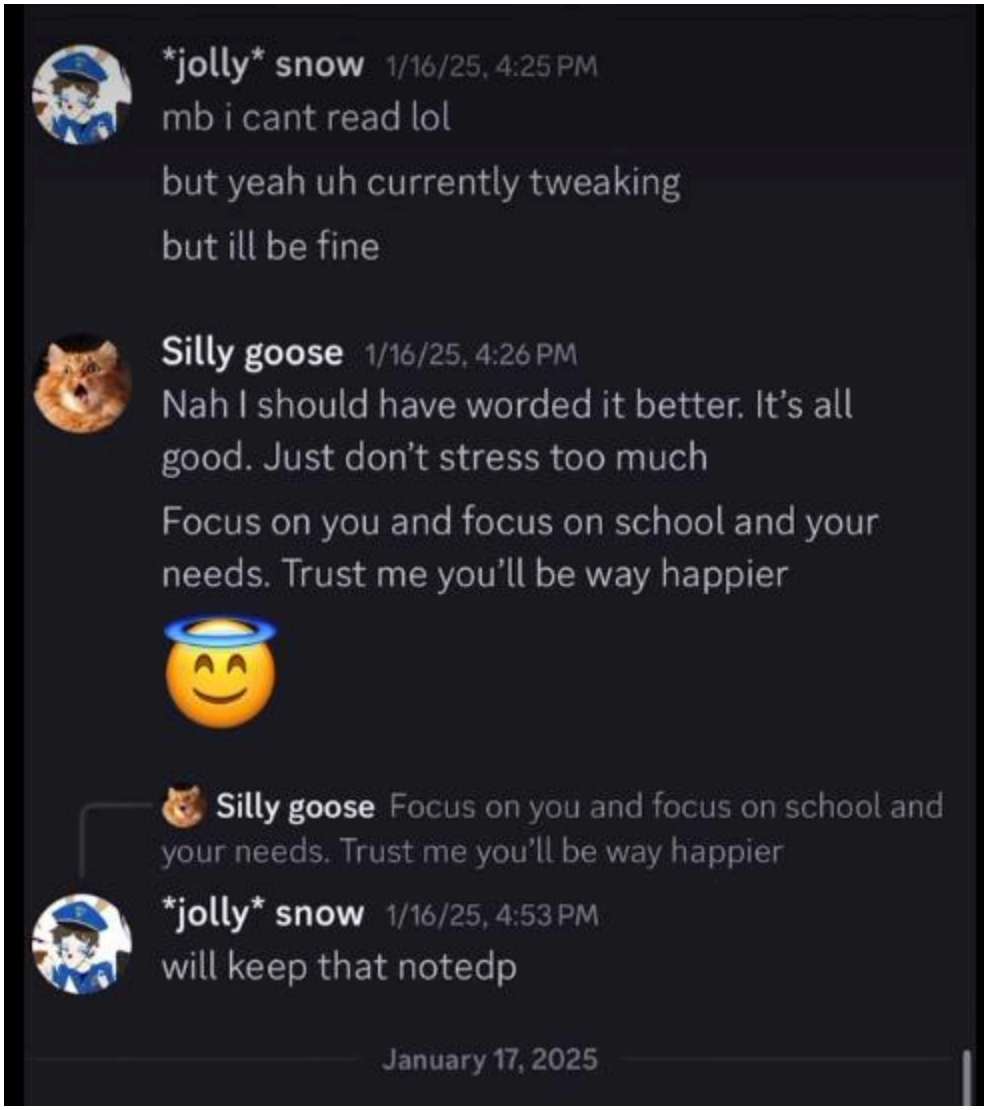

Assignments that have the pending sign are stressful af cus then you don't know like what the overall grade could be if it can be lowered too

It's not like kiwi farms where I can submit whenever I want it's like uh oh if I don't get this done it's a sniper snipping me

I would tell Snow that I had felt burnout that day but would get back to writing later. She sympathized with me given the content I was writing about. I'd ask her how her day went and she'd talk to me about school, which I tried my best to give her advice about. I'd tell her she's a hard worker in hopes it would encourage her to continue to do well in school. I was also going to university, but I had stopped attending classes due to my current projects. Again, it should not be understated that when you see someone mention school which Snow did I should have asked for her age and I was extremely reckless not to do so and deserve extreme scrutiny.

Message @jolly..

The MrBeast Investigation Bureau server was created by u/BrettZotij (brett z) and u/ednamode23 (HomoAspien).

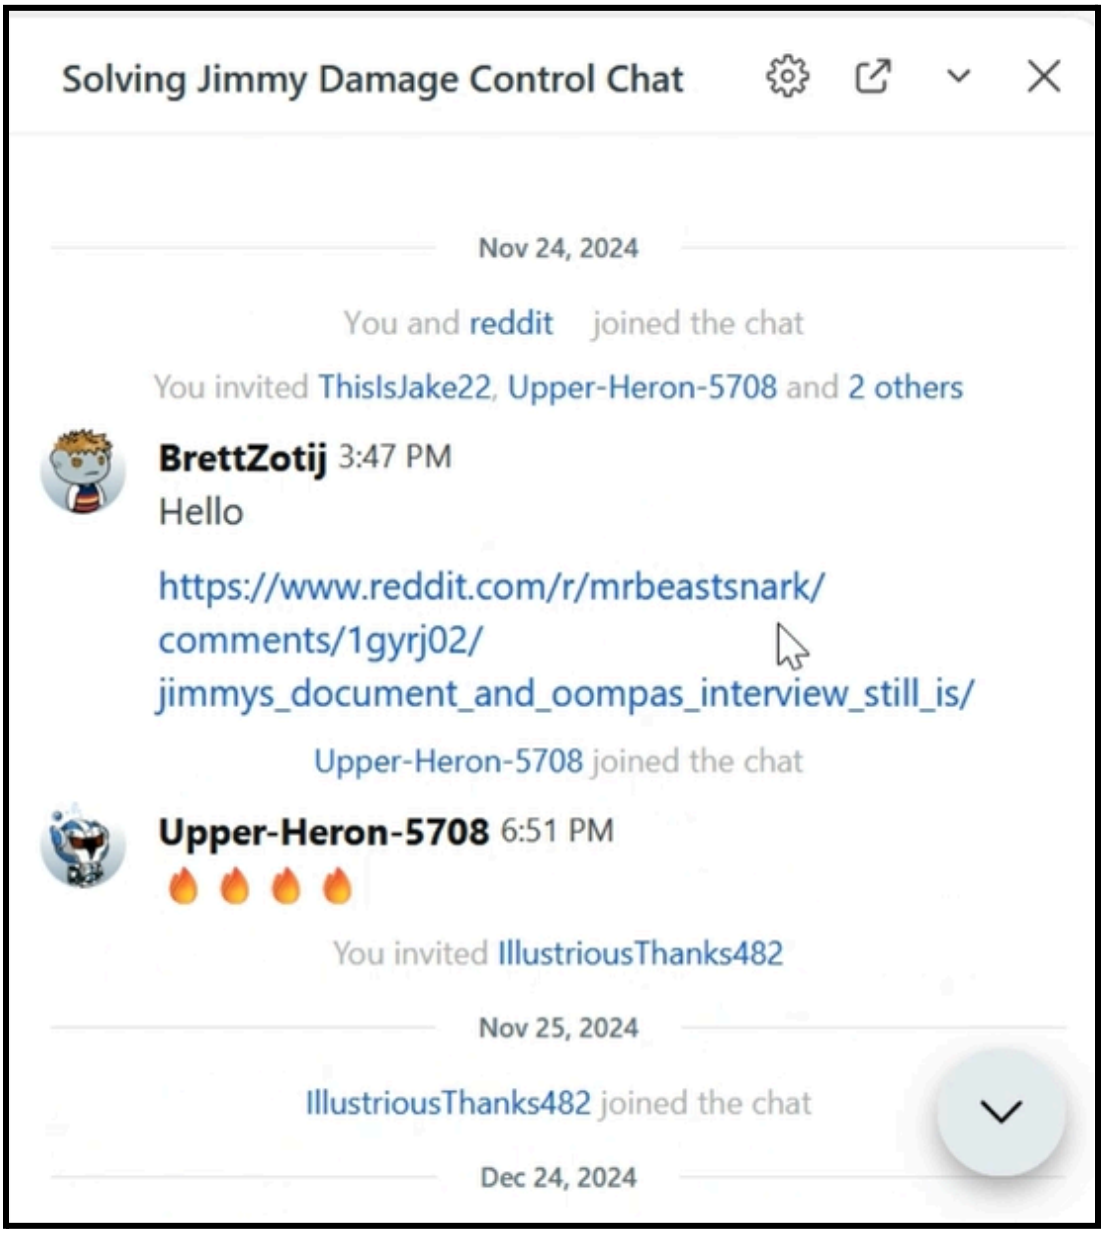

On 12/29/2024, Brett asked HomoAspien if he should invite others, prompting him to share the invite in a group chat with Brett and Downtown-Station.

Downstation Station or u/Downtown_Station5859 is a moderator of the MrBeast Snark Reddit, along with HomoAspein.

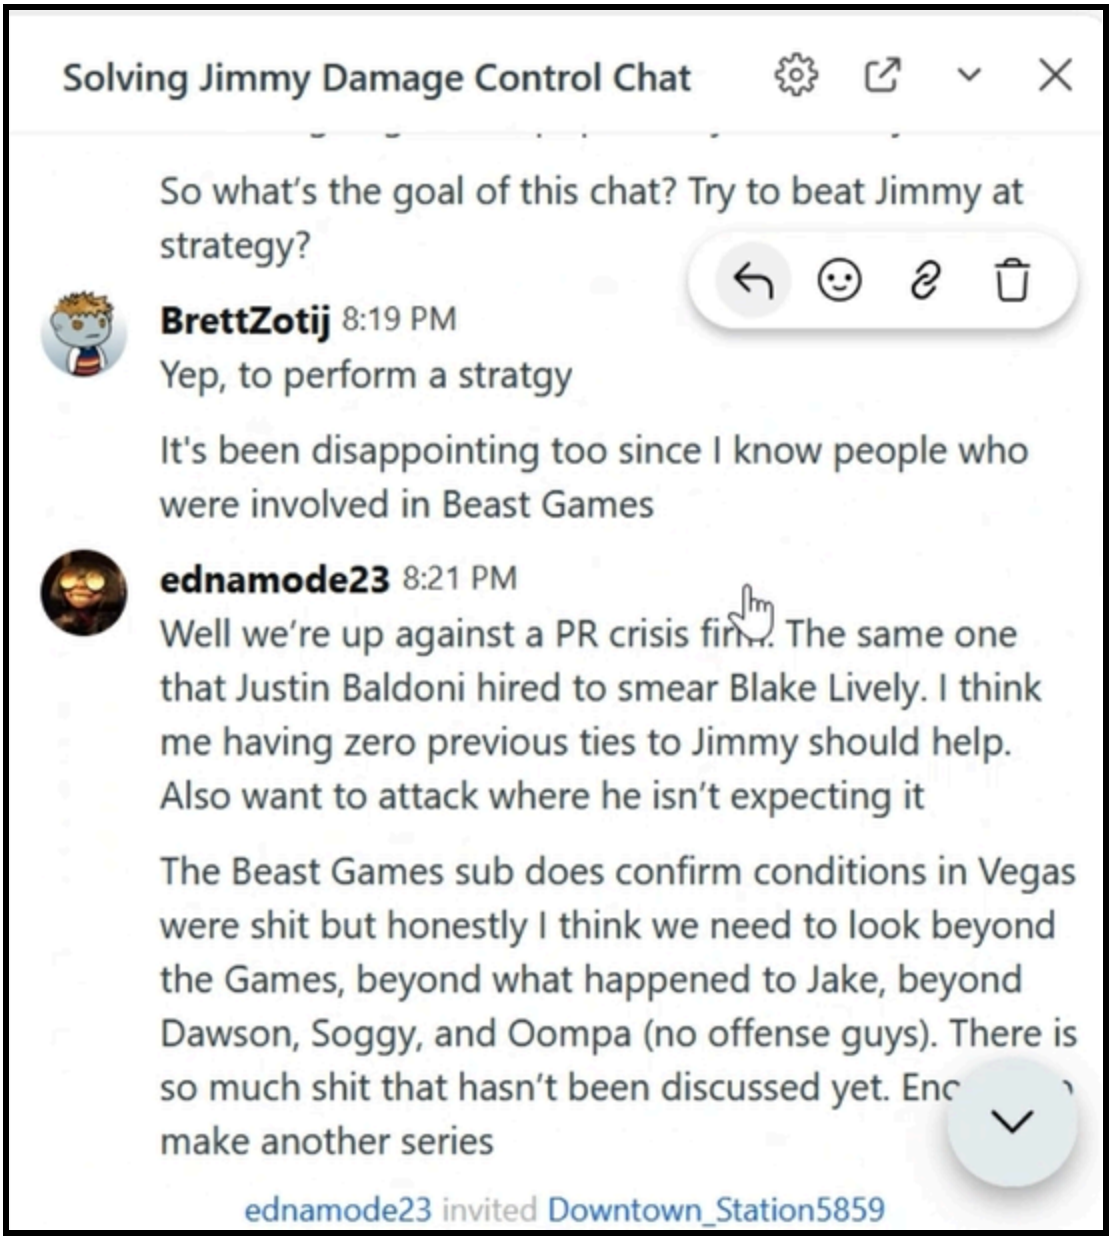

From reading these logs, the two mods, along with Brett, were clearly in communication and in group chats. One of these chats was called “Solving Jimmy Damage Control Chat” created on November 24, 2024. The discord user Brett would invite a lot of people and Edna joined.

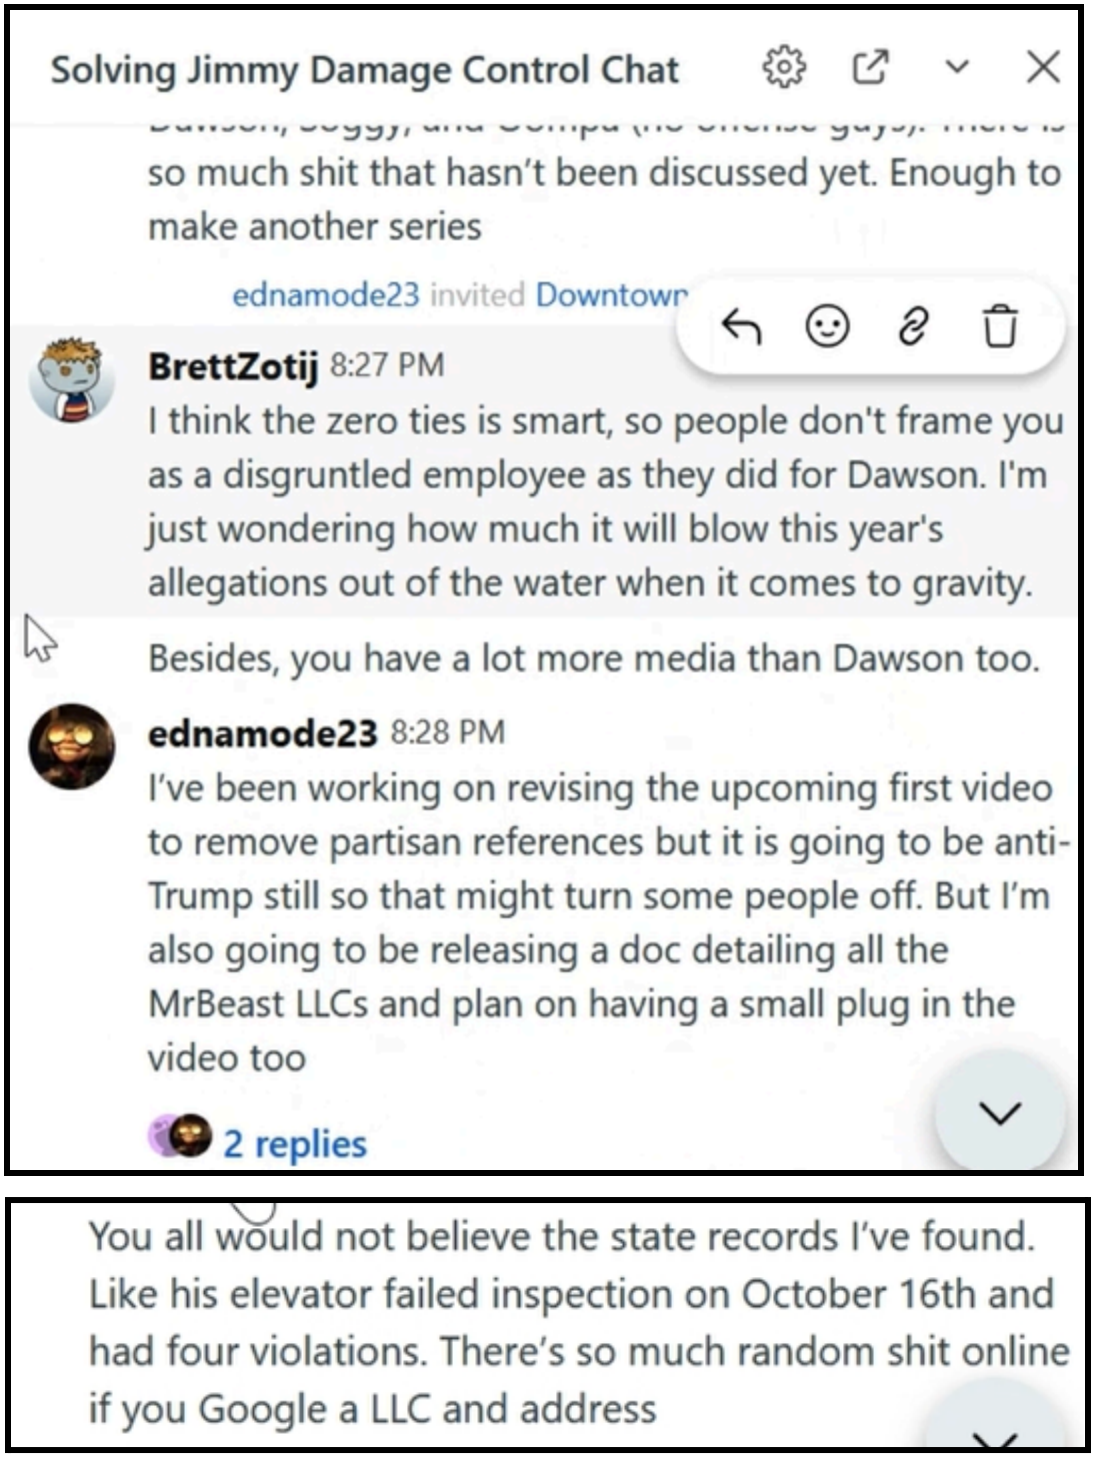

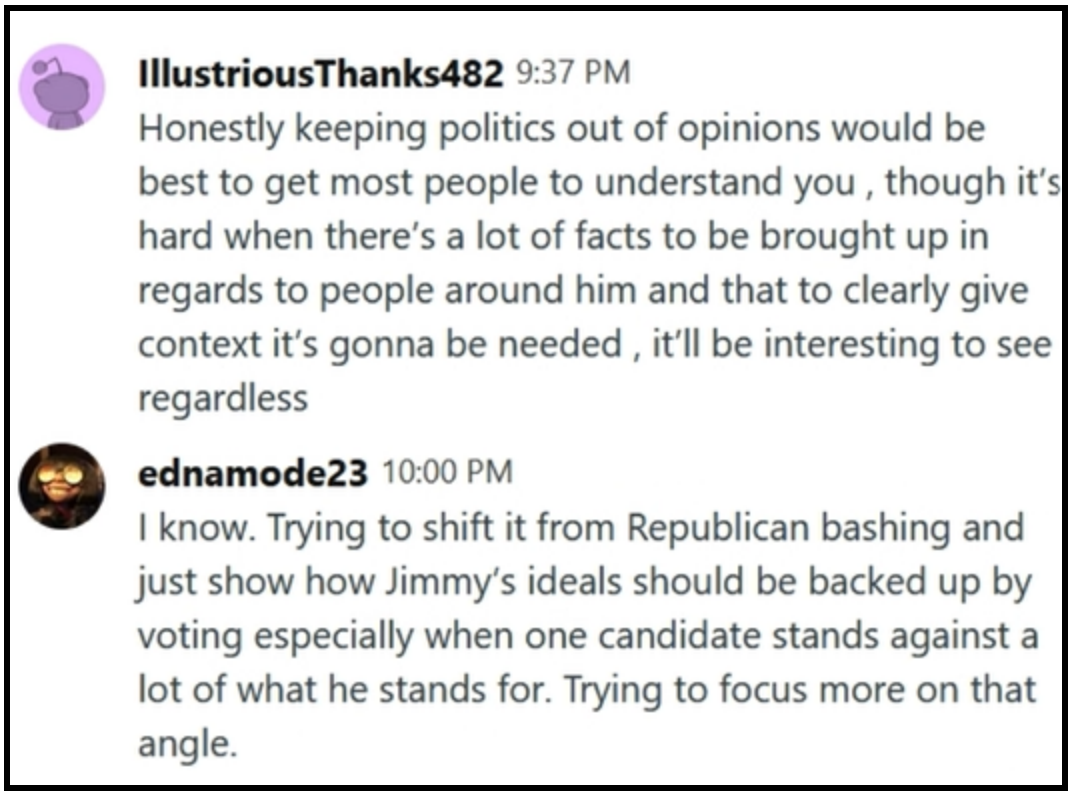

Edna offered to invite someone who appeared to know Jimmy in real life. Brett explained that the chat's goal was to devise a strategy, claiming to know former Beast Games contestants. Edna warned Brett that they were up against an entire PR crisis firm and suggested attacking where Jimmy least expected. He also noted that the subreddit confirmed the harsh conditions in Vegas but urged the group to dig deeper beyond the discussions. Later, Edna invited Downtown.

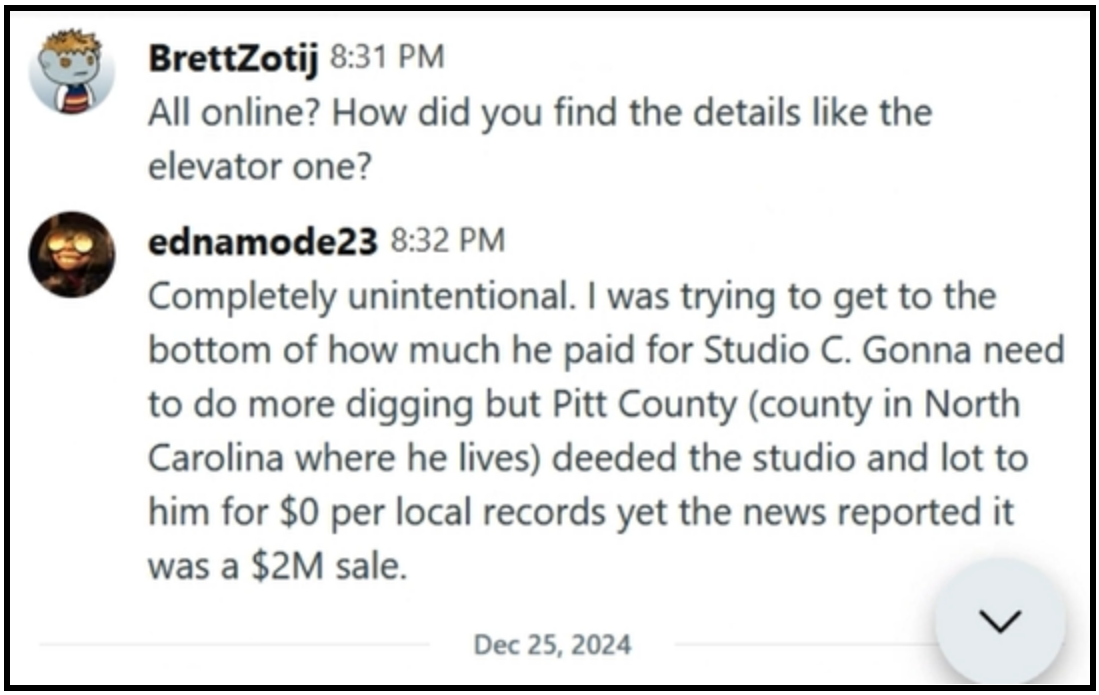

Brett enthusiastically supported Edna's idea, noting that he couldn't be framed as a disgruntled employee and had more media exposure than Dawson. Edna elaborated on the video, explaining that while it would be anti-Trump, a documentary detailing all of MrBeast LLC's activities would also be released.

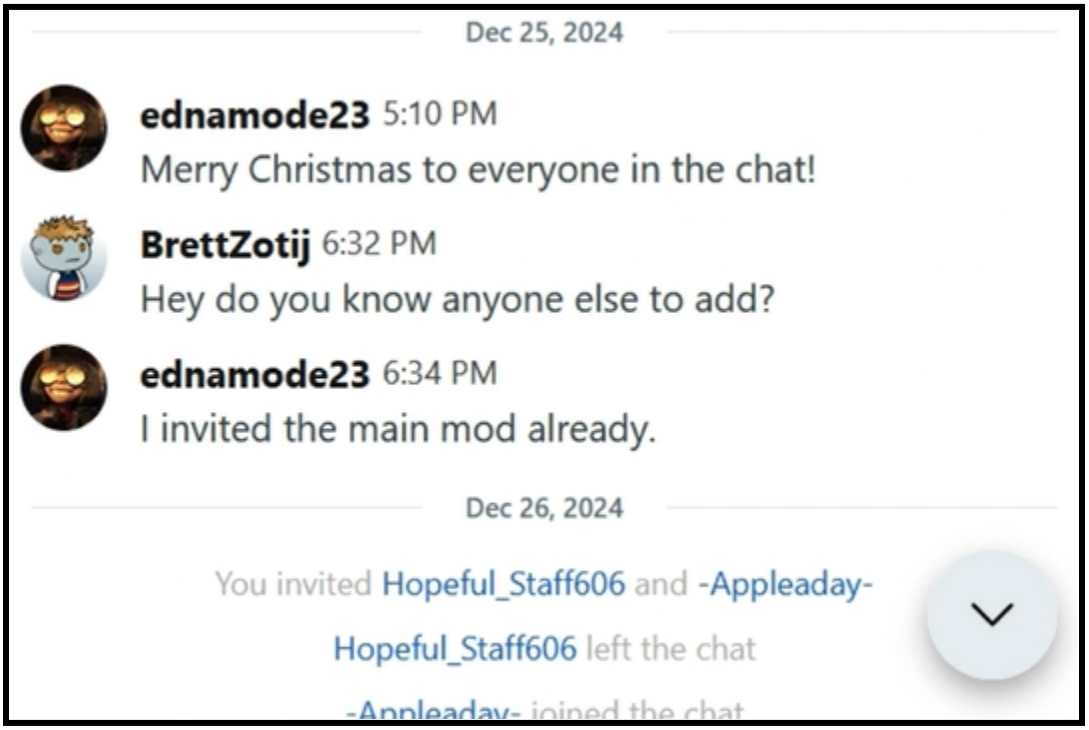

Two replies were under this comment about the video which are demonstrated here.

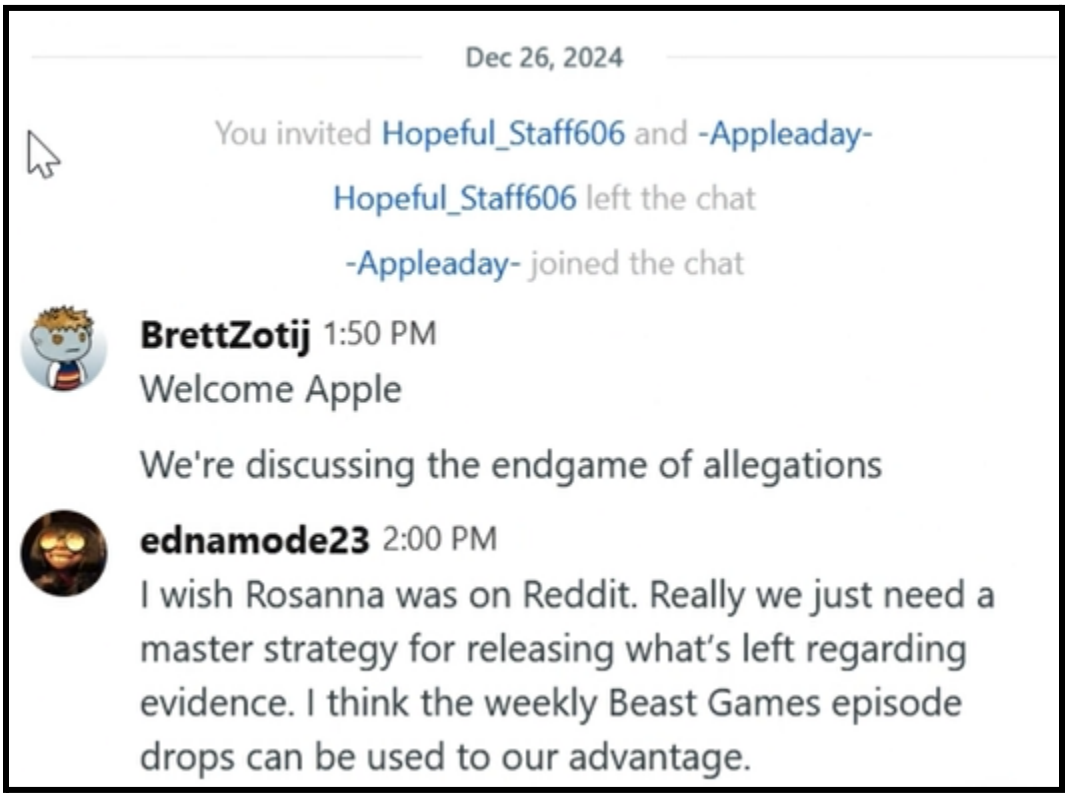

Brett probed for details, asking how Edna uncovered information like the elevator incident. Edna explained that it was entirely unintentional and provided further elaboration. Despite my feelings about Edna and Lex, I censored the content to protect whatever investigation Edna is conducting.

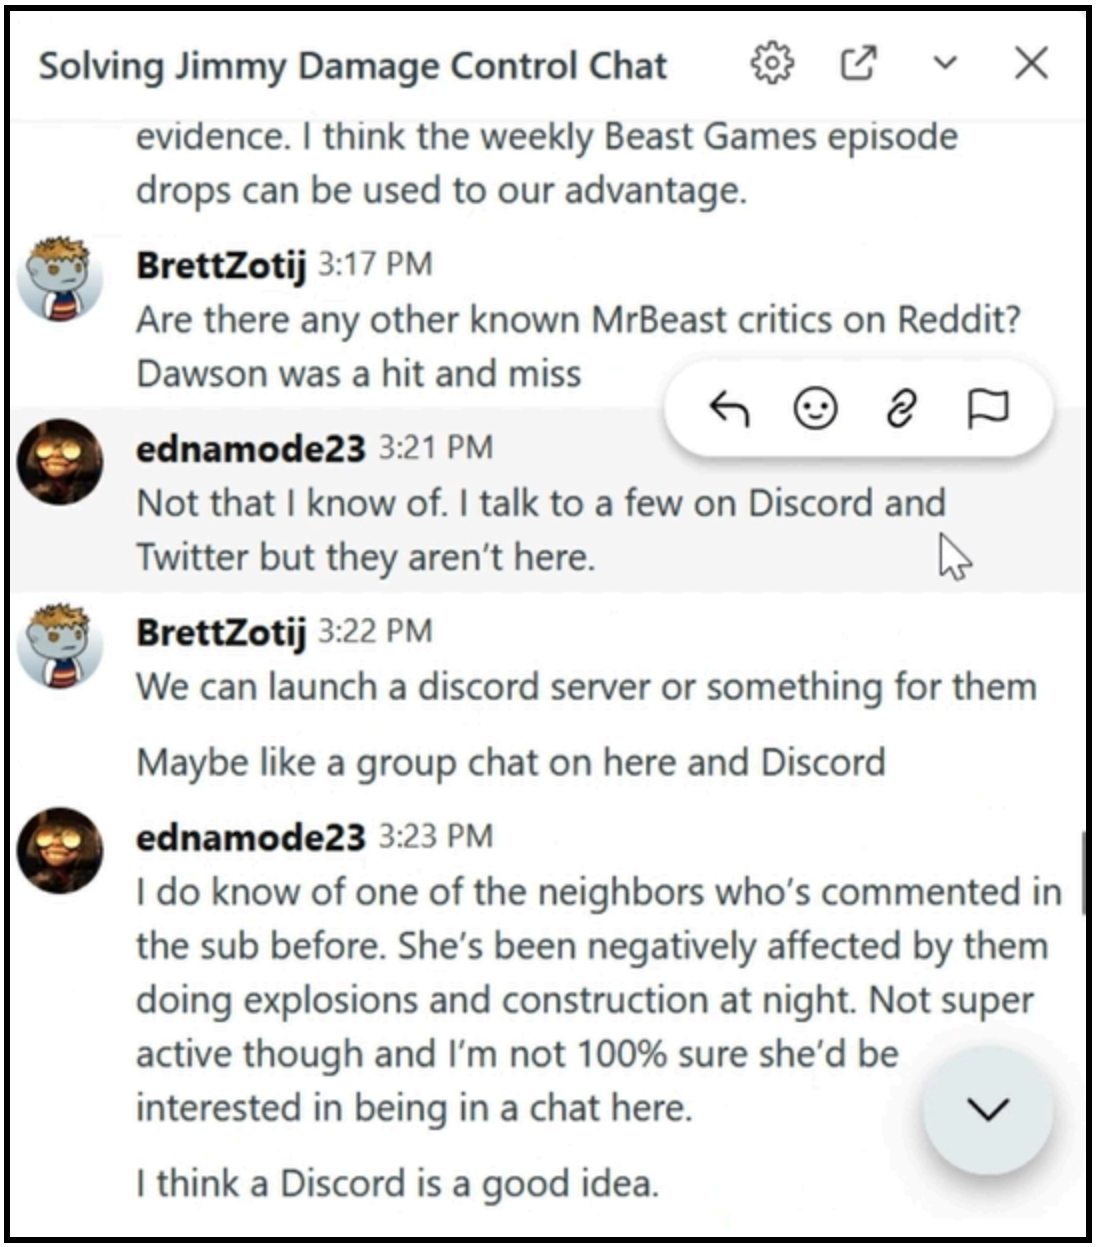

Edna wished everyone a Merry Christmas and he would invite another mod known as Appleaday to the group.

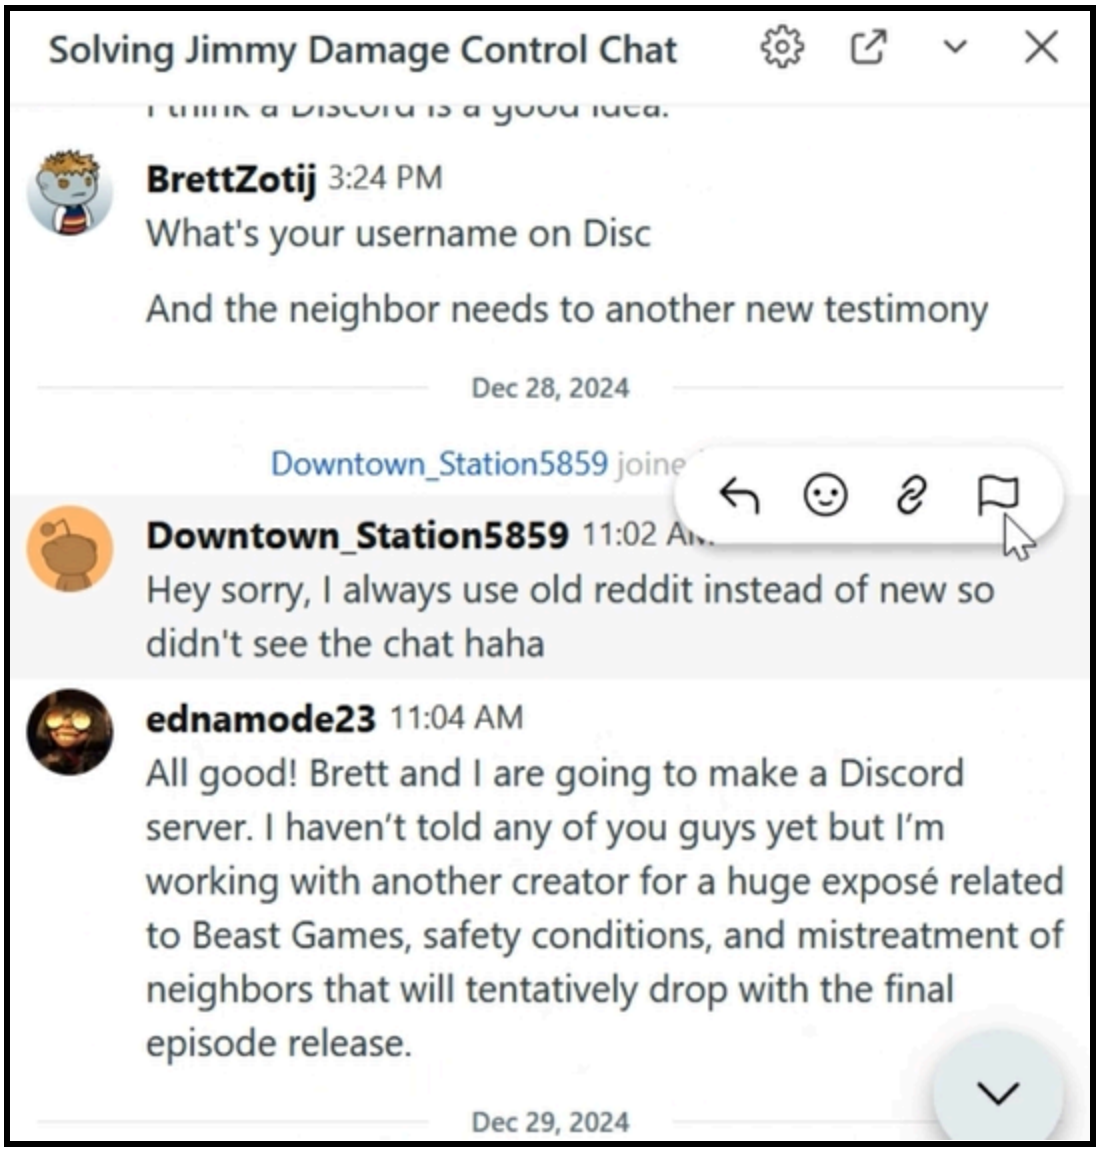

The next day Brett would welcome Apple and there was talks of a master strategy.

This chat led to the creation of the MrBeast Investigation Bureau.

Solving Jimmy Damage Control Chat evidence. I think the weekly Beast Games episode drops can be used to our advantage.
BrettZotij 3:17 PM
Are there any other known MrBeast critics on Reddit? Dawson was a hit and miss ednamode23 3:21 PM
Not that I know of. I talk to a few on Discord and Twitter but they aren't here.
BrettZotij 3:22 PM
We can launch a discord server or something for them
Maybe like a group chat on here and Discord
ednamode23 3:23 PM
I do know of one of the neighbors who's commented in the sub before. She's been negatively affected by them doing explosions and construction at night. Not super active though and I'm not 100% sure she'd be interested in being in a chat here.
I think a Discord is a good idea.

Snow agrees with him and questions how people thought that made them sound morally correct at all, but disagrees with him on his dislike for being famous as she finds humor in adults trying to hate on her online for her artwork. She also asks him if he's okay with fanfiction, which Jake approves on the condition that it's not explicit.

Snow vaguely hints at having seen someone not follow these wishes of his, to which Jake expresses his indifference. Snow sends the Tyler the Creator cyberbullying meme and jokingly tells Jake to follow that if commentators harass him again. Jake laughs at this and says that after the breakup with Lex he is no longer moved by hate, saying "HURT ME MORE THAN A WOMAN I LOVE CAN. I DARE YOU. YOU CANT." Snow also explains her previous vague statement from before, informing Jake that she saw scarily detailed fanfiction of him being sexually assaulted by MrBeast. Jake is rightfully disgusted at this and makes sure to tell Snow he's not okay with things like that.

word and the notes read something along the lines of “pure fiction, i dont condone abuse” girl you wrote a 7k word fic of a REAL person with feelings and trauma

Snow talks about the author’s note being hypocritical and Jake calls the whole thing psychotic.

Here, I introduce Snow’s perspective on things.

Snow's perspective:

Hello everyone, it's me, Snow, writing this. You may know me as that dedicated DogPack404 fanartist and have probably seen me, my work, or my name floating around these past few months even before this. I feel that even with all the evidence and receipts here, my perspective would be valuable to this document for further explanation. There are certain ethical/moral disagreements between me and the others working on this, so I might have opposing opinions to theirs in this document. But I have been watching everyone discuss this. And it's clear that although Jake messed up badly, too many are unaware of Lex's larger evil. I don't blame you. But crying about problems won't find me solutions, right? With that being said, I'll start at the beginning.

A bit of background on why I like the MrBeast antifan squad so much: I have been making fanart of the figures involved in the MrBeast drama since the initial upload of DogPack's video.
I draw mostly Dawson, but I draw his friends too and a lot of people involved in this. Before that, I was quite the lost child; I was going through some things and at the start of the summer I felt very abandoned. Not going to go in too much depth about that here, but seeing that video for the first time and joining the communities that were able to grow from it was something that really helped me get back on my feet and understand my worth. I have learned a lot from the people I have met in this community, and have secured some amazing friendships. Despite the controversies, I find DogPack and his friends to be very respectable people who may have messed up but still did good things, and these good deeds shouldn't be erased by their misdoings. To that end, I draw DogPack as a way to show my respect and appreciation for the guy for what he's done for others and for me. I was doing pretty well, but this situation sort of ruined that, to say the least.
I know this isn't really the ideal place for "fandom culture". I know people think I'm weird. But it's really only my take on how I see the drama. You can't change people's opinions easily, so I hope this at least serves as an explanation to why I do what I do and allows for more understanding treatment of me.

I joined the r/mrbeastsnark subreddit back in early October of 2024; my arrival was met with much praise from many of the subreddit's members and mods alike. Some members didn't like my posts, but the moderators seemed to disagree with that and told me they were fine with me posting.

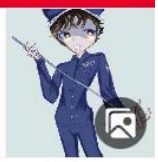

Another mod, Edna, would also give me a lot of support under my posts and soon the two of us would gain a lot of mutual respect for one another.

Need to add Rosanna and Nicole to the mix. Good art and a very unique style. I like it!

Although it was small, I was very happy to be a part of this community. I did contribute to MrBeast discussion there in other ways aside from fanart, but that was sort of my main thing, and I was pretty well known for it soon enough. The Soggy Cereal video did kind of sour things, and I had to deal with increased pushback since my fanart mainly focused on DogPack. But people still remained civil towards me, and most importantly, I was never actually told to stop posting during this time by anyone in charge. I felt like a very unique and valued member of not only this community, but the MrBeast drama discussion community as a whole.

Now, onto the main situation. I first opened DM's with Jake on December 27th, 2024, as a means to gain further clarification about the breakup with Lex and to check in on him. I was 13 at the time, him being 27. We talked for a little bit and soon after the conversation led into other things such as my artwork and general discussions about our lives on both sides which can all be seen in our Reddit conversation. Often the conversations were MrBeast drama-related though, and he mentioned sharing my artwork with Rosanna and DogPack.

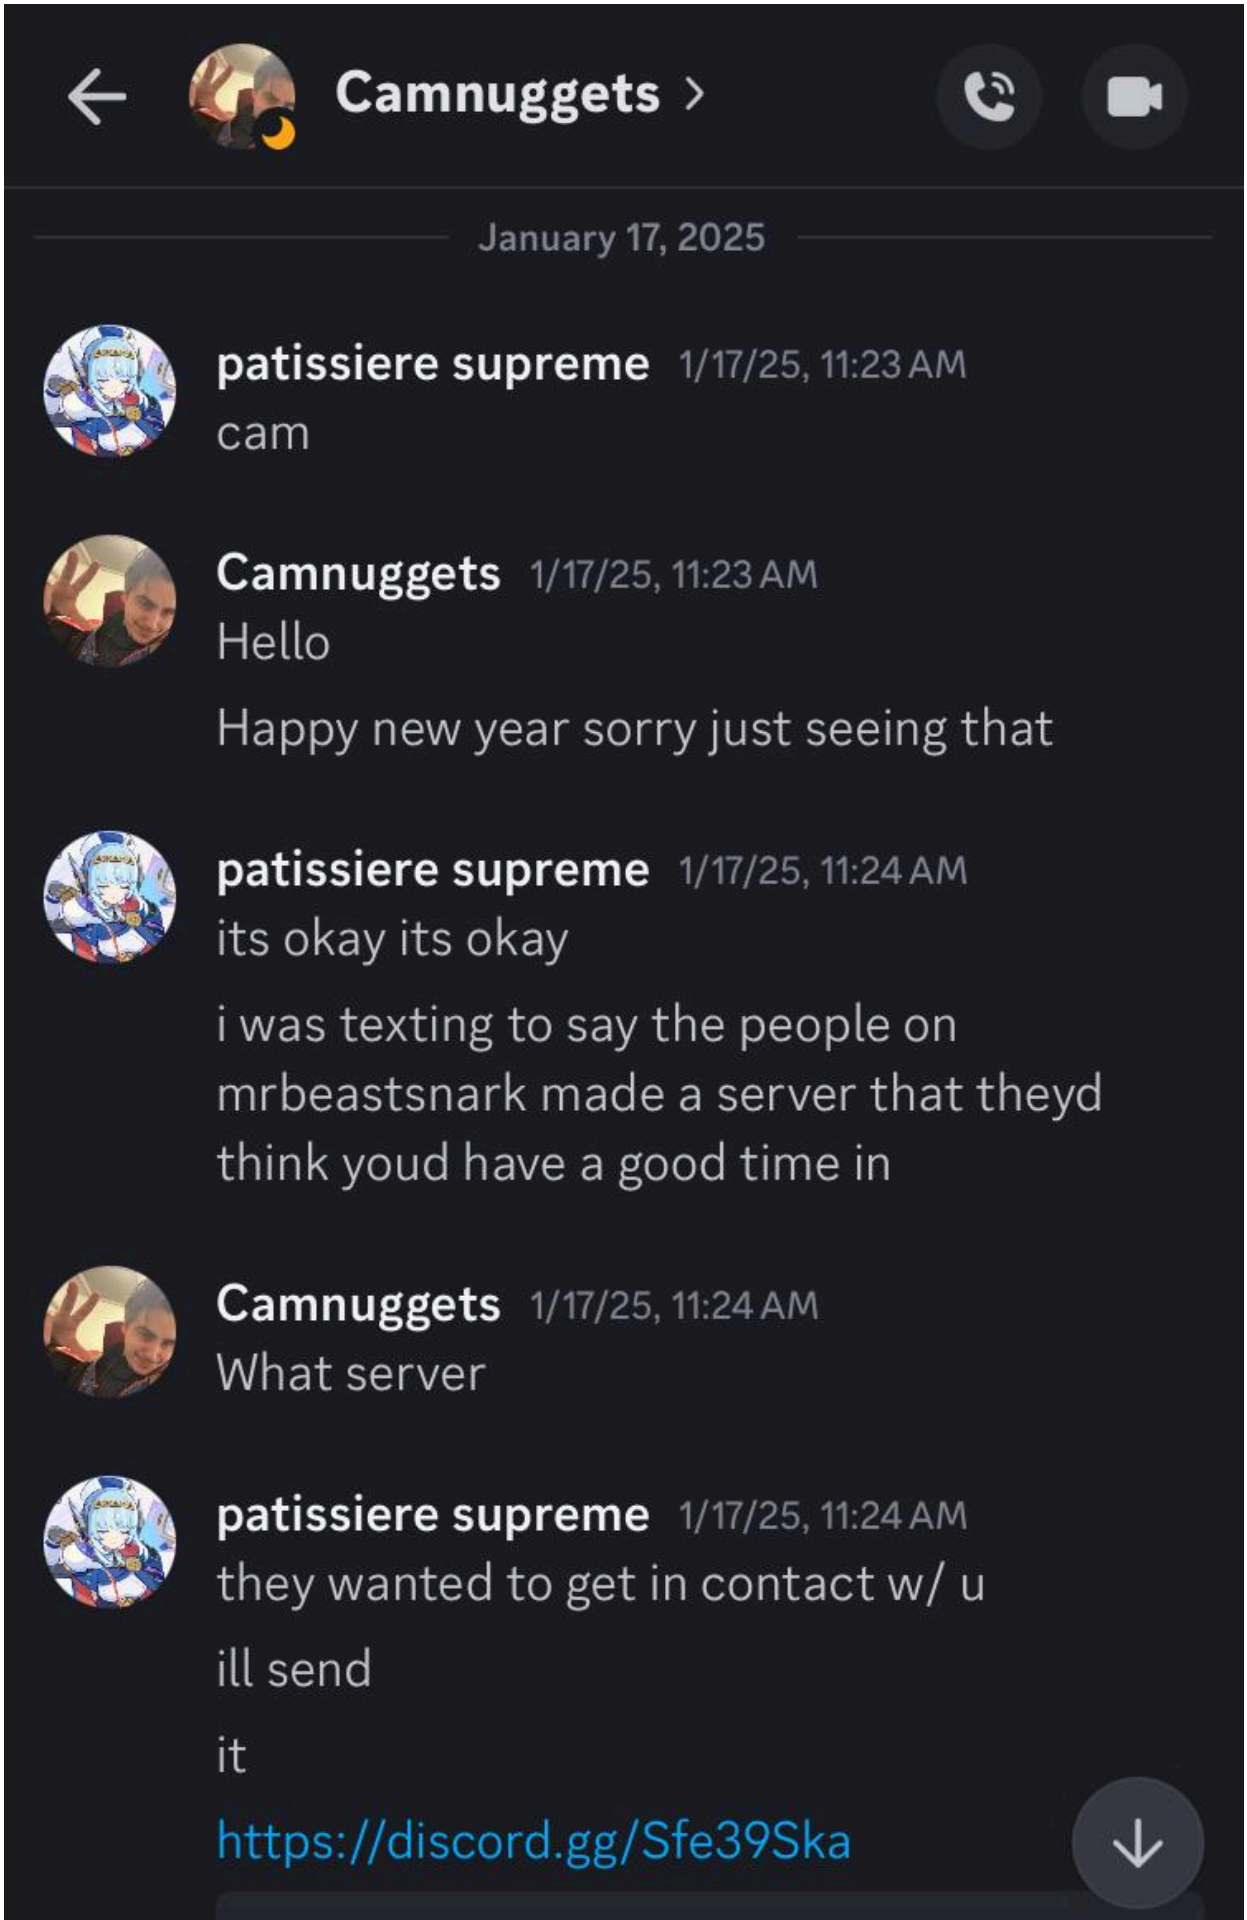

Eventually one day he questioned if I was shipping him and DogPack (this is still important later). Being the well-mannered girl I am, I said no, because I am a firm believer RPF (Real Person Fiction) is disrespectful if you do not have permission on both sides and/or they are currently in relationships publicly. So, I refrained from making shipping comments or such art before then. I also took the liberty of asking Jake questions regarding what he did and didn't feel comfortable with me drawing so I wouldn't make anyone upset later on. These are also things I'd ask him to ask Dawson, again, just to make sure I wouldn't be making anyone uncomfortable.

Snow also had DM'ed CamNuggets to invite him to this server the same day. Brett and the others wanted to spread the word about MIB to get all the help they could, so Snow reached out to her connections to assist them.

On January 17, 2025, Snow invited me to the MIB server, believing its members strongly disliked Jimmy. I asked Snow to inquire if they knew about the moderators. A few responded, but their answers were mostly unremarkable.

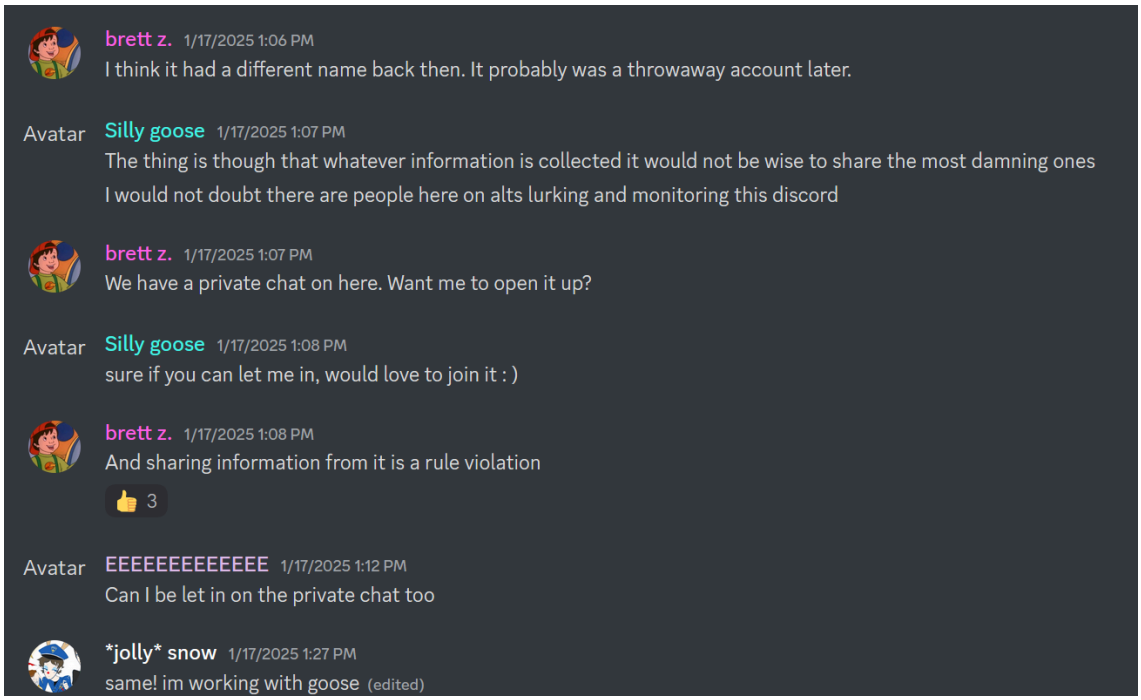

While lurking, I chimed in, suggesting that to learn more about MrBeast, they should investigate the adult moderators of the Ava Tyson discord. Brett later misunderstood, thinking I meant the underage users of the Ava Tyson server. I subsequently clarified my point.

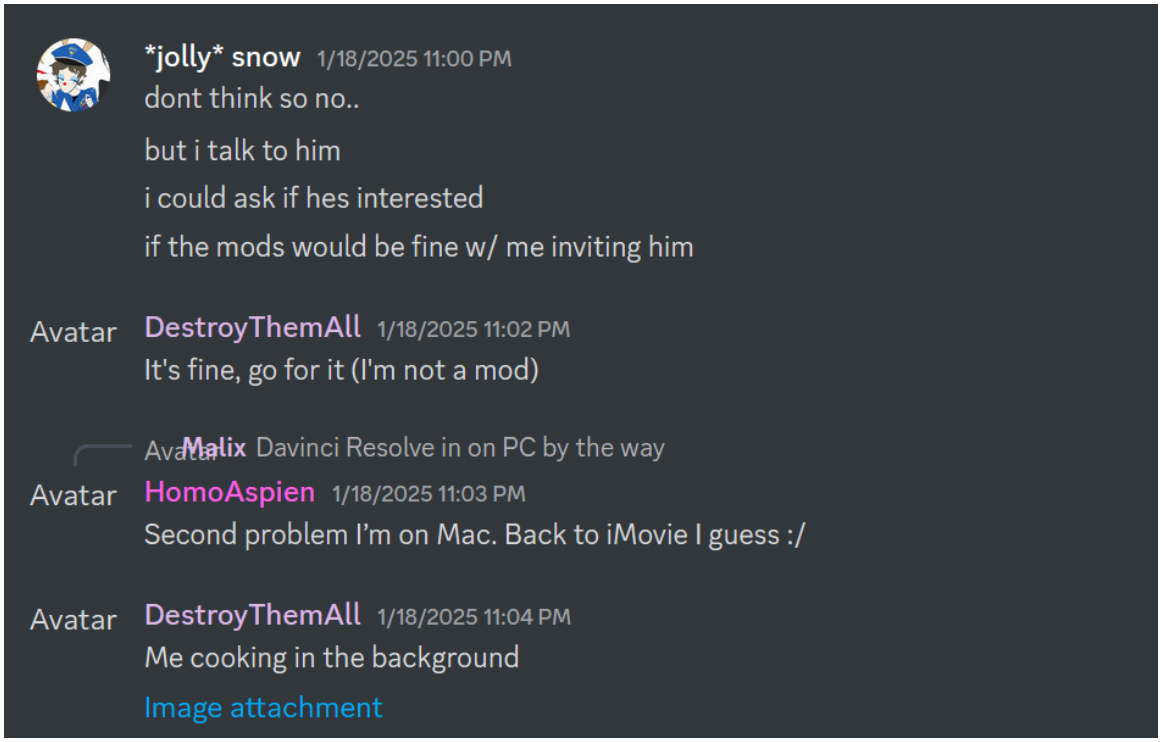

As an archivist, I initially joined heated discussions on a server about disturbing findings uncovered by others. These impassioned rants, fueled by my deep investment in the topic, proved inconsequential. However, I neglected to exercise due diligence. While adults may freely explore intense subjects, I failed to verify Snow's age, as previously noted. By involving them in this complex and potentially dangerous matter, I put the minor at risk, and I take full responsibility for my reckless oversight. My failure to perform basic due diligence five months ago was irresponsible, demonstrating that I should not handle sensitive investigations, especially those involving minors or corporate entities.

In the server, I cautioned against sharing the most incriminating information, as the server was publicly accessible. Anyone could join, log the discussions, and misuse the data for malicious purposes. Ironically, I always recorded calls and archived chats, specifically this one, especially when Ava was discussed (I am paranoid 24/7). Brett invited me to a private chat and granted me access. Snow requested to join but was denied. When the minor mentioned working with me, I had only asked her to help verify dates for certain streams and VODs, as noted earlier. This was the extent of her involvement, and I deeply regret including her, especially after learning her age in hindsight.

January 18

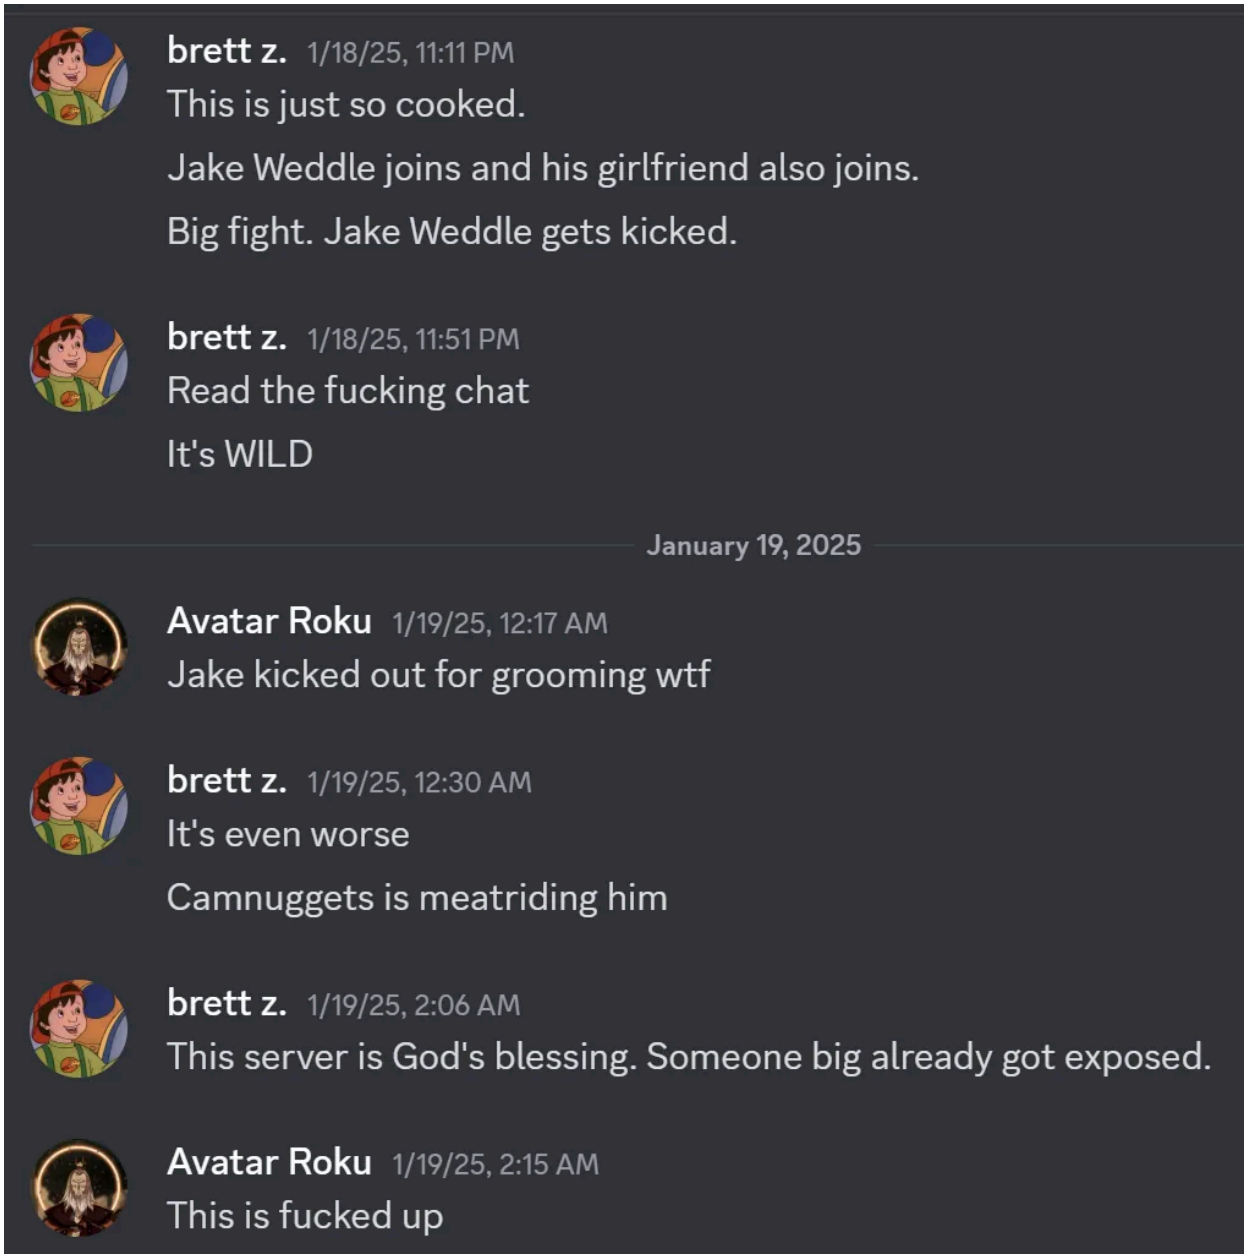

On January 18th, someone asked Snow, a minor, if Jake Weddle was on the server, prompting her to say she'd contact him to gauge his interest. Brett encouraged Snow to invite Jake Weddle to the MIB server to discuss the allegations. Another user offered to reach out and invite Rosanna Pansino. If Brett is connected to Lex, why would he push to involve Jake Weddle? Perhaps Brett's motive might be to include everyone relevant to the case and not being malicious.

However, it is strange how he called the MIB server “god’s blessing” after Jake was banned in these DM’s with his friend. Why does Brett want someone to be exposed?

Snow then asked Weddle about joining the server in the Reddit DMs where she provided the invite.

Ok well... i guess i could pop in. I have no beef with edna if they have no beef with me
If they wanna bond over lex hate, that works for me too lol
Lex and enda were my only concerns

Snow's full correspondence with Jake from the 18th:

Snow informs Jake about the r/mrbeastsnark subreddit's new Discord server (MrBeast Investigation Bureau) and asks him if he'd like to join. Jake asks if Edna is present there, adding that he was close with Lex. It should be noted that Snow uses she/her pronouns for Edna in these DM's as she was unaware Edna was male until later. Jake explains to Snow his knowledge about Edna and even adds that he's alright with talking to him as long as he's no longer close with Lex. He also goes on about his fear of Lex and how much he doesn't want to talk to her. Snow tells Jake that Edna is in the server and Jake agrees to join under the impression Edna is no longer in contact with Lex.

Yeah i hate that. Lol but what can a ya do 🤷‍♂️ sickos out there. Haha

snow-kid-noober 11:19 PM
yeah i wouldnt dwell on it either. anyways im in a server with some people on the mrbeast snark subreddit and its like a server for general allegations against jimmy. some interesting names are there like one of the beast games contestants and the like. they have like REALLY damning evidence in there (like i mean stuff on ava and jimmy) and they kinda need all the help they can get and ur pretty important so. do you wanna join its p fun

ThisIsJake22 11:20 PM
Is ednamode in there?

I know that person used to be tight with lex so im weary

snow-kid-noober 11:23 PM
they were close?

ThisIsJake22 11:24 PM
They used to chat yeah and at one point lex told me not to trust any of the youtube drama mods except edna. Now look, i have ZERO beef with edna, but i dont wanna be

snow-kid-noober 11:23 PM
they were close?

They used to chat yeah and at one point lex told me not to trust any of the youtube drama mods except edna. Now look, i have ZERO beef with edna, but i dont wanna be involved if they are still tight with lex.

Thats just cuz im terrified of lex and shes been making my life a living hell for the last month

snow-kid-noober 11:33 PM
she is in the server. i asked if they were still close and she was like “id rather not talk about it” sooooo idk

ThisIsJake22 11:34 PM
Ih fuck lex is in the server? Off yeah then i deff dont wanna be there holy shit

Me and her are blocked on everything

snow-kid-noober 11:35 PM
NO i meant edna

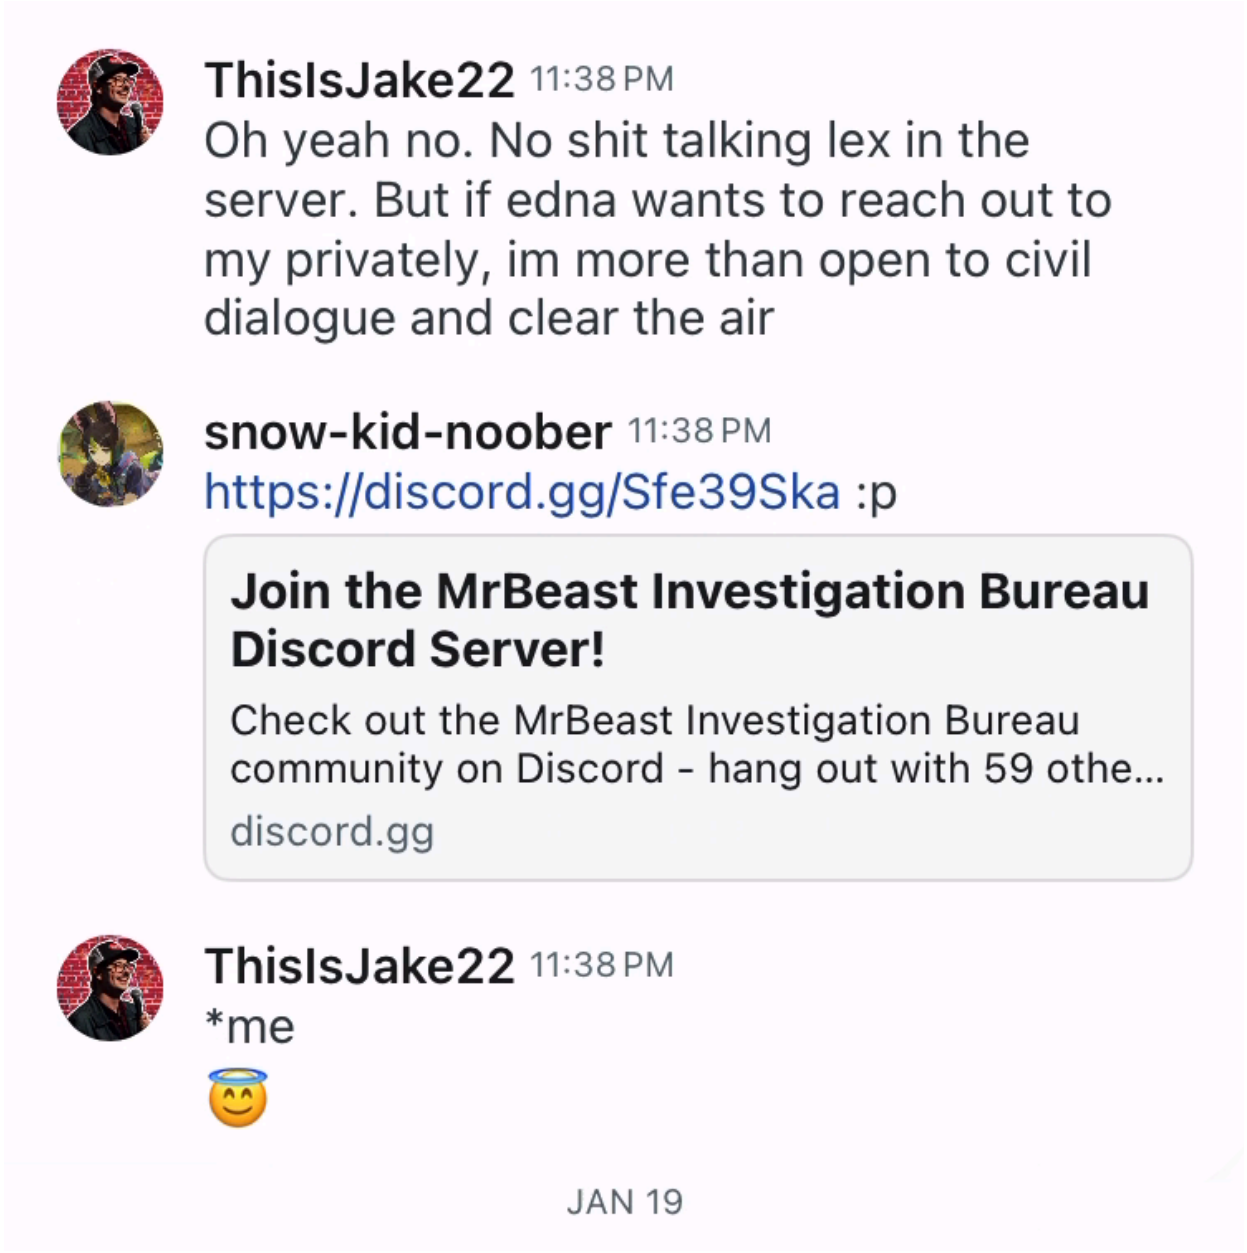

mb

ThisIsJake22 11:35 PM
And shes actively reaching out to exs of mine. Trying to further defame me. I have had exs beat the shit out of me. Like truly police arrived and arrested her

Oh ok ok ok

Jake expresses his willingness to have a civil discussion with Edna and says he won't talk badly of Lex on the server. Snow sends him the invite.

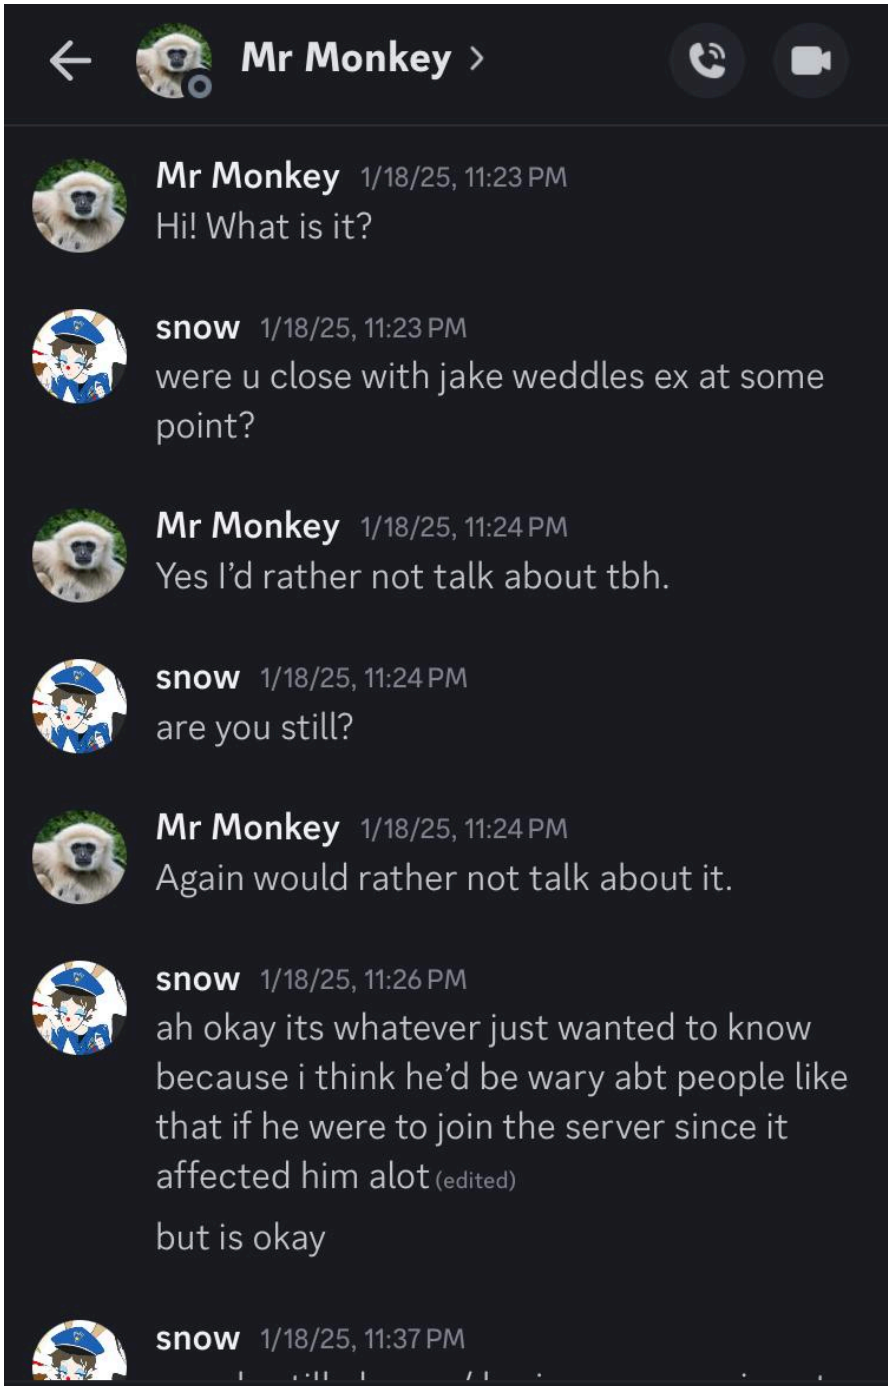

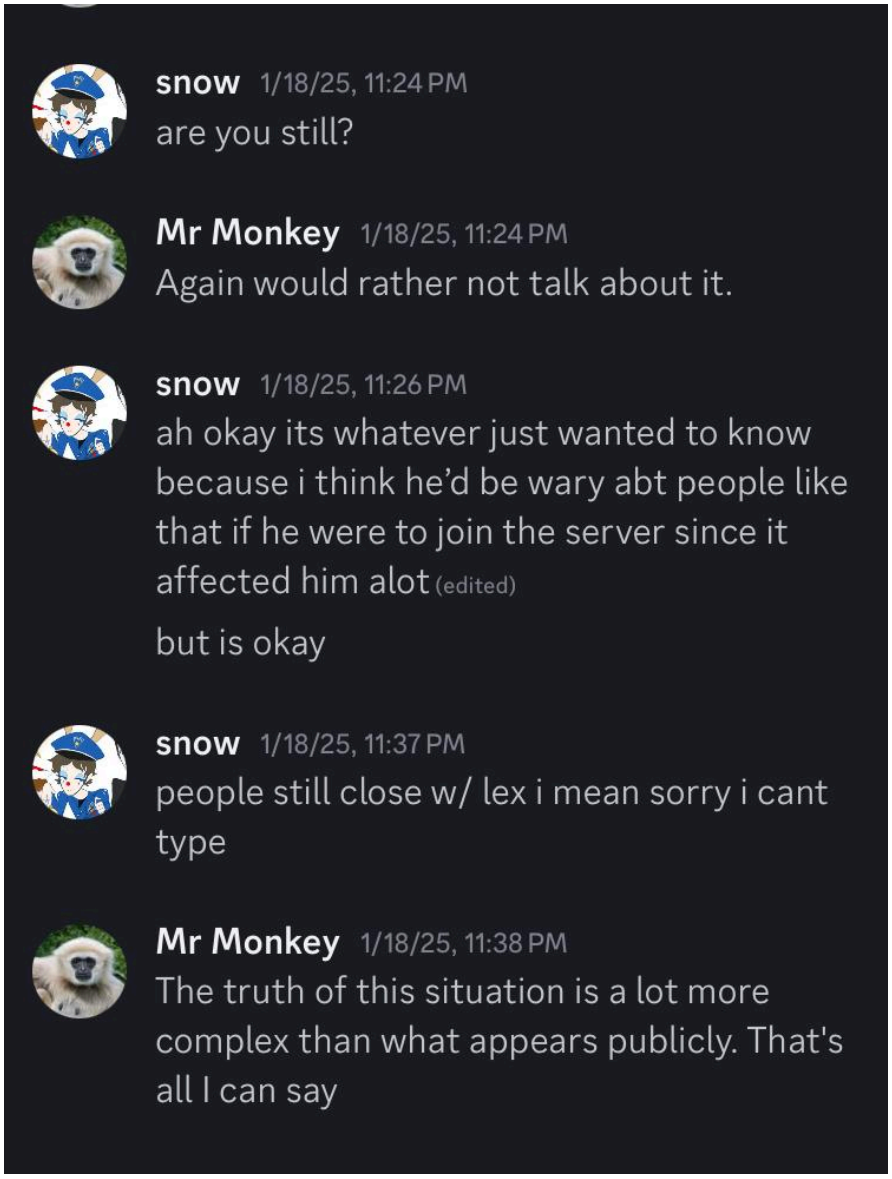

Here is Snow's perspective on the matter with additional clarification:

[redacted]

On the night of January 18th, roughly 3 weeks after we started talking, I invited Jake to the MrBeast Investigation Bureau (MIB) discord server after a member asked if he was on the server. Again referring to the Reddit conversations, Jake wanted to know if Lex was in the server, saying he'd refuse to join if that was the case. I asked Edna if she was, since Jake mentioned that they were close, to which he gave me a vague answer.

Hi! What is it?
snow 1/18/25, 11:23 PM
were u close with jake weddles ex at some point?
Mr Monkey 1/18/25, 11:24 PM
Yes I'd rather not talk about tbh.
snow 1/18/25, 11:24 PM
are you still?
Mr Monkey 1/18/25, 11:24 PM
Again would rather not talk about it.
snow 1/18/25, 11:26 PM
ah okay its whatever just wanted to know because i think he'd be wary abt people like that if he were to join the server since it affected him alot (edited) but is okay
snow 1/18/25, 11:37 PM

I thought nothing of it, wanting to respect his decision of not elaborating, which would turn out to be a grave mistake.
