- Taking Shit About Brett And Kiwi Theory

I started to become very paranoid. Brett was letting basically anybody into the secret lab channel. Combined with the Jake Weddle situation, I decided to archive everything and also later requested that the MIB server be nuked to prevent leaks. I figured that as the server got bigger, more and more vulnerable people would join. Because Brett gave literally anyone secret lab access I didn't want him getting innocent people in trouble through distributing confidential information, whether the trouble came for the witnesses or the people who shared that info.

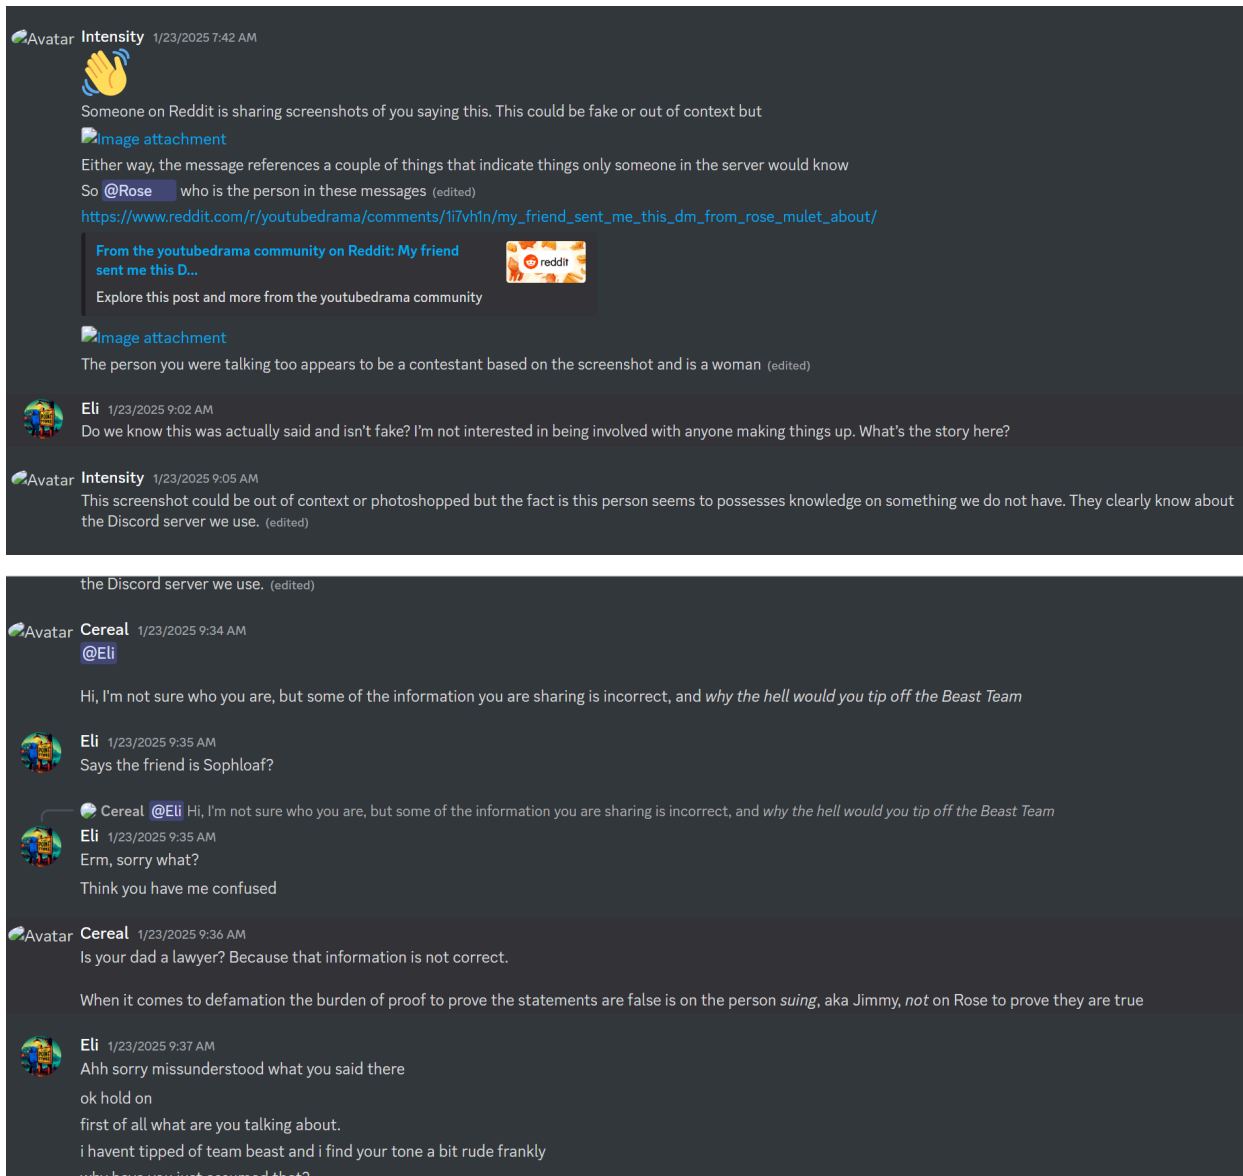

Edna (Mr Monkey), Rose and Eli created a GC named "The Front Lines". This was supposed to be a place for them to discuss things securely without any leaks or gay OPers as all three of them were planning to make videos on MrBeast. This GC is important because a good number of things happen here that eventually influenced my future actions regarding this situation. I will highlight some important things that happened in this GC.

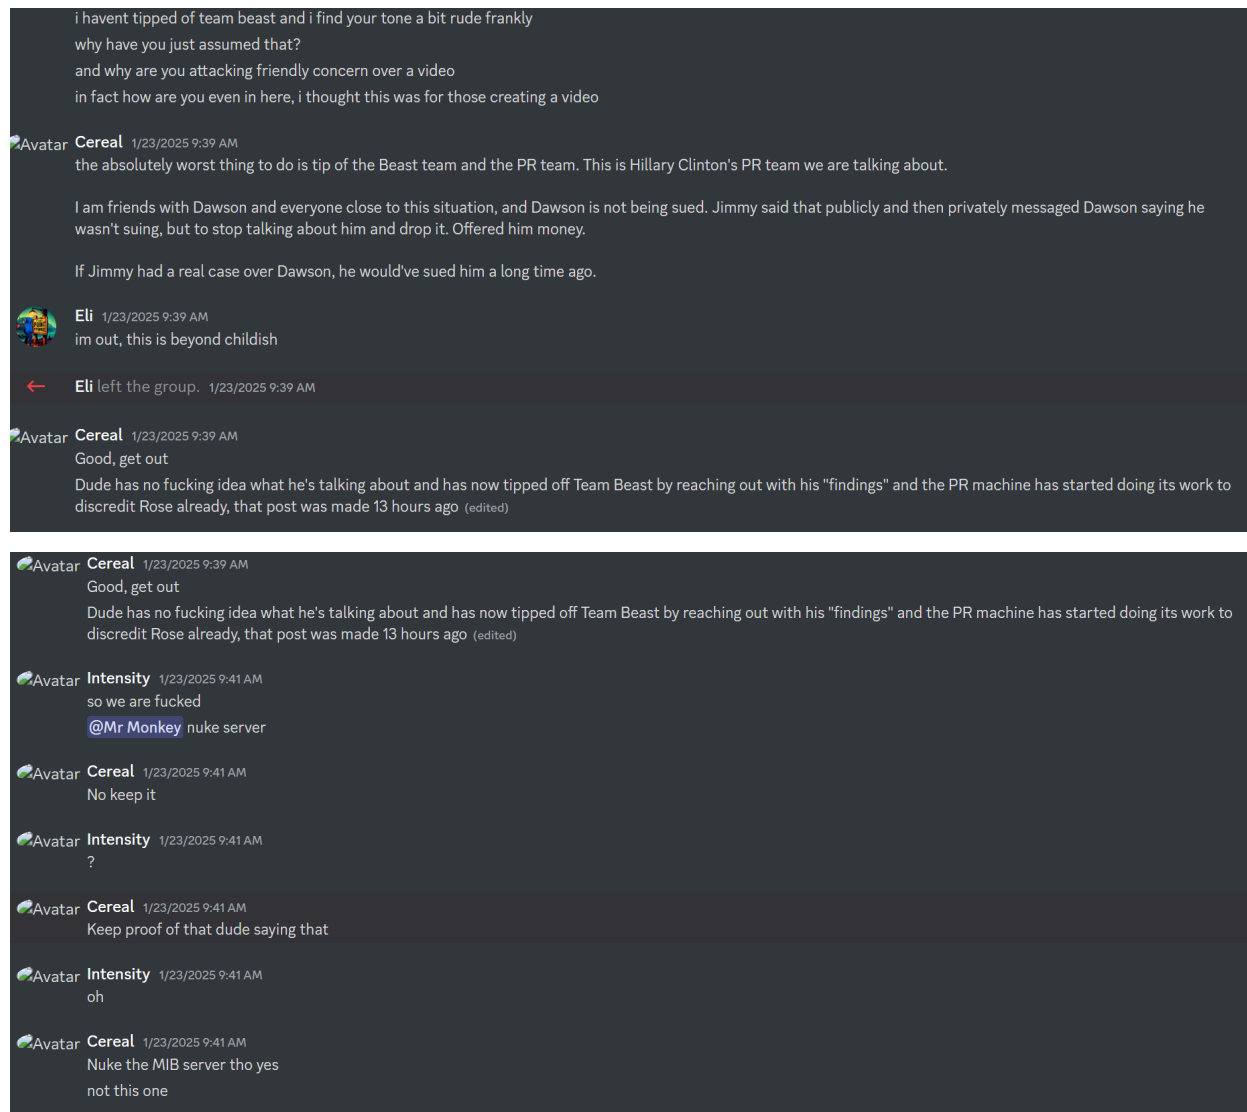

Eli

First off, I'd like to talk about Eli, someone who was in MIB that larped as a BBC journalist and claimed to be making a video/documentary where he would expose MrBeast.

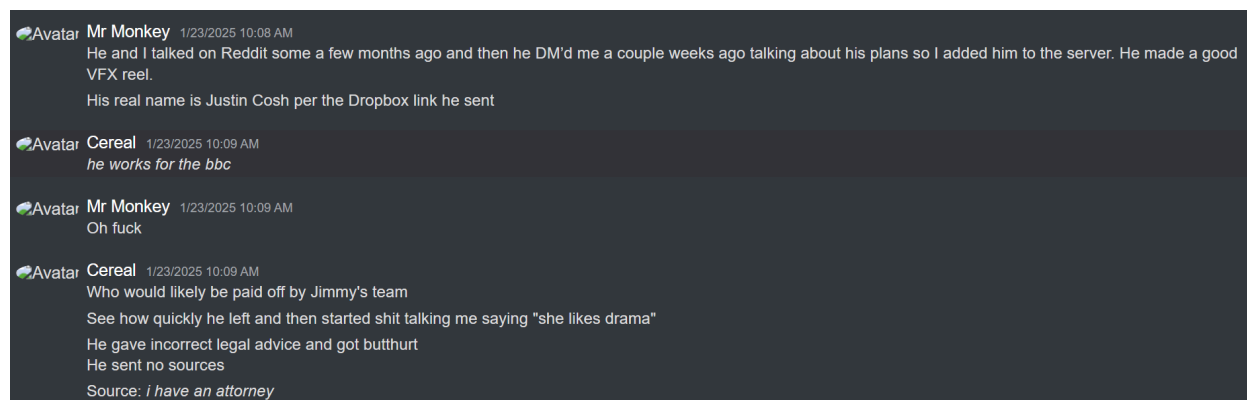

Edna soon invited Lex and myself. I would send a post I found about Rose on the r/youtubedrama subreddit. Lex would then start to argue with Eli and accuse him of spreading misinformation, and show anger at him practically putting the group on MrBeast's radar (due to him reaching out to the company for comments).

He got annoyed and left. Given this risk, I got scared and told Edna to nuke the MIB server to prevent any leaks or more malicious people joining.

We learned later on that Eli's real name was actually Justin through Edna's digging.

I decided to talk to Eli myself to get info, to see if this guy was actually a journalist. I doubted he was actually who he said he was given how suspicious he was acting. I was trying to interrogate Eli because Lex was skeptical of him and his claims. I wanted to figure out what his deal was and who he was. He never showed anything to prove he was actually a real person or doing the work he said he was, and would get aggressive when we requested things like this.

 @Eli you guys are the worst. go team. im done

Silly goose Today at 10:45 AM

So firstly, let me explain why there is a matter of concern. Firstly, why did it take this long to send a screenshot of this? This is not bad nor does it affect your privacy. The response itself does not really line up with what you said because in the email you stated you wanted to substantiate the claims. No one here has accused you of sharing messages of Rose or others in the gc.

No one has accused you of doctoring Rose's messages.

You are acting defensive for no reason. We trust you but you have been acting weird regarding something as simple as sending one screenshot of an email.

Eli Today at 10:47 AM

eh yes they have...

thats how this started

Silly goose Today at 10:32 AM

All I request is a basic screenshot Justin. You do not see my real info as I try to be careful. I will be doxxed by those involved when the other stuff comes out. Regarding what you said

"you don't know what was sent, how did i sent a ss of rose's messages"

Nobody said that. The reason I don't know what was sent is because you won't tell us.

Eli Today at 10:33 AM

i gave you a screenshot. I dont want to see your info im pointing out that my real name is involved.

@Silly goose "you don't know what was sent, how did i sent a ss of rose's mess..."

Eli Today at 10:33 AM

I have told you

Eli Yesterday at 1:21 PM

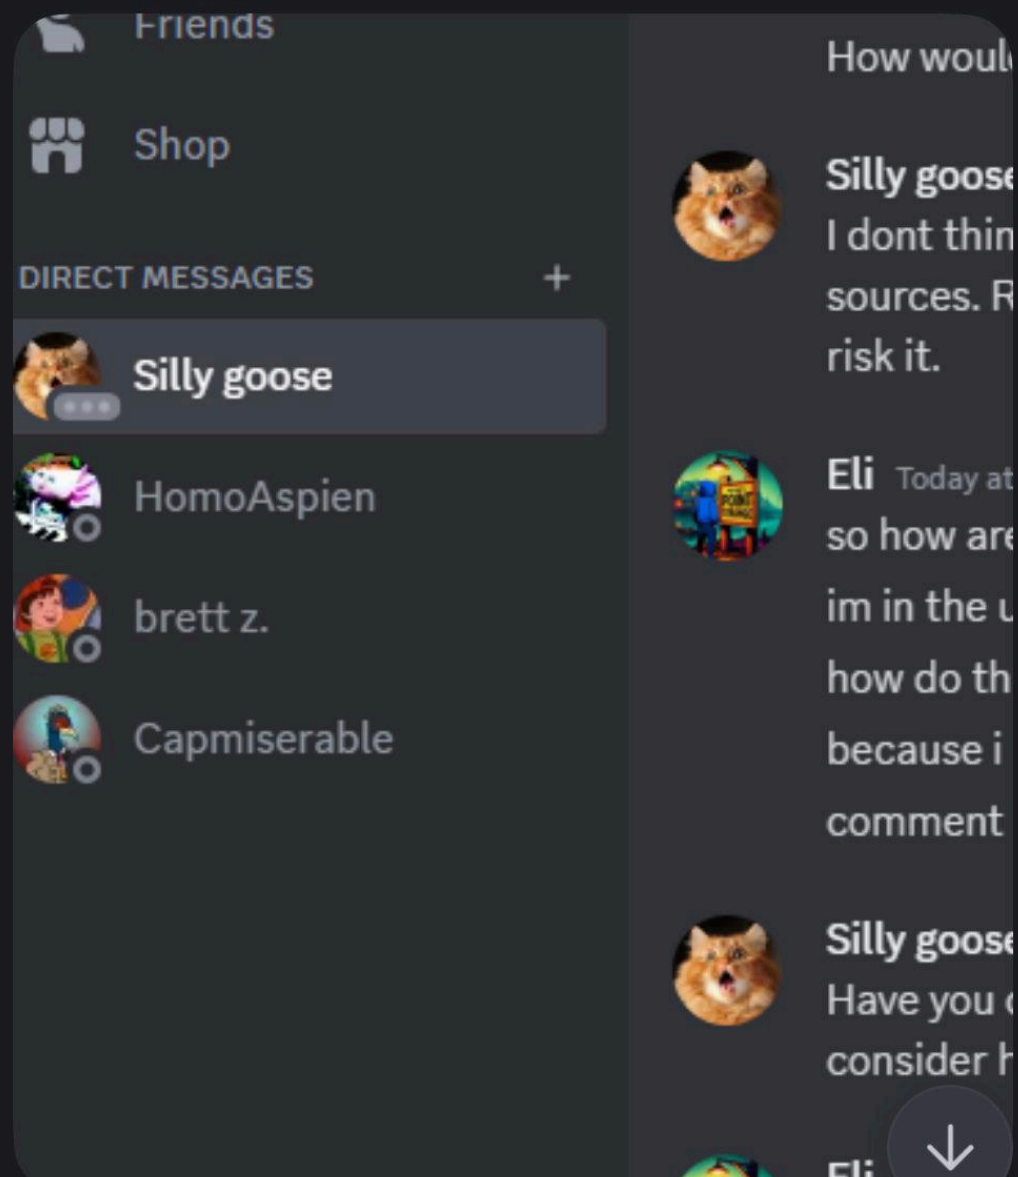

but seriously its outrageous to think this is connected to any of you. its franly arrogant really think about it how does my asking for comment lead to this...

and even if they did go and find the server, how did they get messages from rose?

the leak came from someone rose spoke to, thats proven.

the only people i speak to in messages here

Magical Appreciation Yesterday at 1:20 PM

Have you considered that perhaps the company after being asked to comment may have joined the server and already connected the dots? Not accusing you but consider how i feel. I get why you would ask for comment. It makes sense.

Eli Yesterday at 1:20 PM

how did they find the server?

how do they know?

think you should really be mad at the person who thought it was a good idea to post a link to it on the ressid group

Magical Appreciation Yesterday at 1:21 PM

No no I am. I am not angry at you think about it...

Eli Yesterday at 1:26 PM

youve just answered your own qustions

You dont know what was sent - how did i send a screenshot of Roses internal messages?

Magical Appreciation Yesterday at 1:27 PM

These are not Rose's internal messages

These are from other sources

Eli Yesterday at 1:27 PM

You said i spoke to them about being in a server - no i didnt, who said that?

He also would try to find holes in Rose's story and I would lie about it not being Rose's internal messages because at the time, I assumed Rose was a genuine victim of MrBeast Games which I doubt now given what I know about her and the full extent of her online antics. I do however believe they are a victim of stalking and as such since I filed a police report, Rose Mulet should involve law enforcement if she believes she is being genuinely stalked.

<insert screenshot here>

The above screenshots were me requesting him for proof he actually emailed Matthew Hiltzik \(Jimmy's crisis manager\) and what exactly he emailed, which he refused to send. Only after Edna fished the info out of him did we get to see it for ourselves.

Hi Matthew,

I hope this message finds you well. I am reaching out to inquire about two matters related to James Donaldson.

Firstly, I am seeking clarification regarding an artwork by the artist Shadman that is visible in footage of James following Ava's move. It is my understanding that this piece was originally intended to belong to Ava, and I would appreciate any comment James may have on this matter.

Secondly, I would like to set up a call to discuss Moose Toys, specifically regarding the types of plastics used in their UK-manufactured toys. As you may know, under UK toy safety regulations, plastics used in toys must meet strict standards regarding non-toxicity, durability, and recyclability. I have heard reports suggesting that the type of plastic used in some Moose Toys products may have been altered shortly before production, and I would like to better understand this situation.

Please let me know a convenient time for a call or if there is someone else I should contact for further information. I am eager to ensure all my information is accurate and substantiated.

Thank you for your time and assistance. I look forward to your response.

Best regards,

Best regards,

We were all suspicious of him when he mentioned this in the beginning. Why is Eli emailing Jimmy's crisis manager about information he thinks could threaten his company while working with people (idiots larping as investigators) who wanted to expose that information? It all just seemed very strange. Even now, we still don't know who Eli actually is or what his motivations were. Edna never confirmed his real identity.

Rose Being Told To Archive Logs:

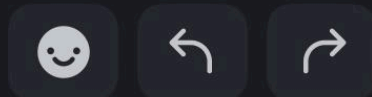

Rose was kicked out of the Beast Games Instagram GC, so she was constantly tweeting about how she planned to destroy MrBeast, take him down, etc (in typical Rose Mulet fashion).

<cite tweets here>

She also went on these types of rants in Front Lines as well. Despite going off about this, she never took action to archive any of the logs from the group chats she was still in, like the WhatsApp contestant GC.

Rose Mulet Today at 7:16 PM

Interesting things are going on in the group

I knew the longer she went without archiving it, the less likely she would be believed. At the time I didn't know much about her past activities outside of Brad Taste, but I didn't know the full extent of that, either. It was only when I started to dig into Rose more that I understood just how awful she was. Again, the more she blabbed on and tried to be someone who knew everything, more evidence would be destroyed, and she was just letting that happen. That's why I kept rushing her—it wasn't even really about Rose, but all the other contestants who were hurt by Beast Games. What if they didn't download these chats? What if there's other people who need that evidence? So I tried to get Rose to archive the evidence even if I didn't like her, even if I didn't think at the time that she was serious about exposing MrBeast. That doesn't mean other contestants weren't. I strongly believe in the preservation of evidence, no matter what; if there is something damning in those chats, Rose should archive them as quickly as possible. After enough pushing, I finally got her to archive these logs.

My main problem with this was that nobody but me was pushing Rose to preserve evidence. When I requested this, the rest of the people in this GC were very dismissive and even tried claiming that I was malicious. Looking at how things played out, I can see those same people will now think they were right and vindicated regarding that.

 For the stuff you claim about Oompa regarding the X, we would need to see the full Discord DMs and X DMs. From my end, you may think this is getting shit on but this is a honest criticism. What I need is all IG chat with contestants or higher ups downloaded, all Twitter DMs with employees as well as contestants downloaded and any emails screenshotted from the company.
 This may appear like a lot but it is necessary we have them

What also frustrated me was that Steven Asarch—a journalist—never advocated for Rose to download these logs. This was negligence at best to sloppiness at worst. When I asked Rose about this in the MIB secret lab in the beginning, she admitted he never told her to archive these chats.

Spoiler: Rose Mulet Thread Coming And Your Shit Gay OPs Failed

Rose Mulet Leaks Chud Logic DMs And Reveals Herself To Be Clout Shark:

Rose Mulet has leaked her DMs with Chud Logic. So, what happened? Brad recently released a video which was archived by @Bornana on page 45.

Spoiler: Archived Brad Video

Brad would start deflecting blame onto his ex instead of taking accountability. Given his past admission of being manipulative, this video feels disingenuous. Calling it a "betrayal" to be recorded while screaming is tone-deaf, and tying a suicide attempt to Hivemind comes off as emotional manipulation. Brad has a pattern of using his mental health as a shield—this is no different. Around the same time, Rose Mulet began asking why she was being blamed and decided to release her DMs with Chud Logic and Chud Logic accused her of trying to begging for credit. In Rose's defense, she claims that people don't realize how hard she worked to prevent Chud and other popular YouTubers from leaking the Brad Taste situation. That's notable, but also Chud himself pointed out that Rose wanted credit so this puts her argument of doing it for good reasons into question.

That I deserve criticism for and I deserve scrutiny. At the same time, if it was not for my actions of being autistic about archiving no one would have believed her given she only had a few out of context screenshots and she already has a bad reputation online. The evidence as stated would have been destroyed and Rose would have nothing of substance besides the few bits of pieces of evidence she had attained from her time there. Steven, despite being a journalist, did not advocate for evidence preservation from Rose. Maybe it was because he had access to these chats but preservation is still very important. Me and DestroyThemAll are both aware of Instagram group chats, Rose failed on attaining because she was kicked out which meant Rose yapping on Twitter allowed for potential evidence against MrBeast to be destroyed.

 Avatar Rose 1/27/2025 6:50 AM
I didn't message Oompa on IG
I got kicked out of that IG chat the day I saw those messages

Is that correct or wrong?

 Avatar Rose 1/27/2025 6:51 AM
Emails
But I include those in my video

 Avatar Intensity 1/27/2025 6:53 AM
So no communication on IG with any contestant?

 Avatar Rose 1/27/2025 6:53 AM
You really want me to leak all my private DM's
Why
If there was something interesting there I'd tell you

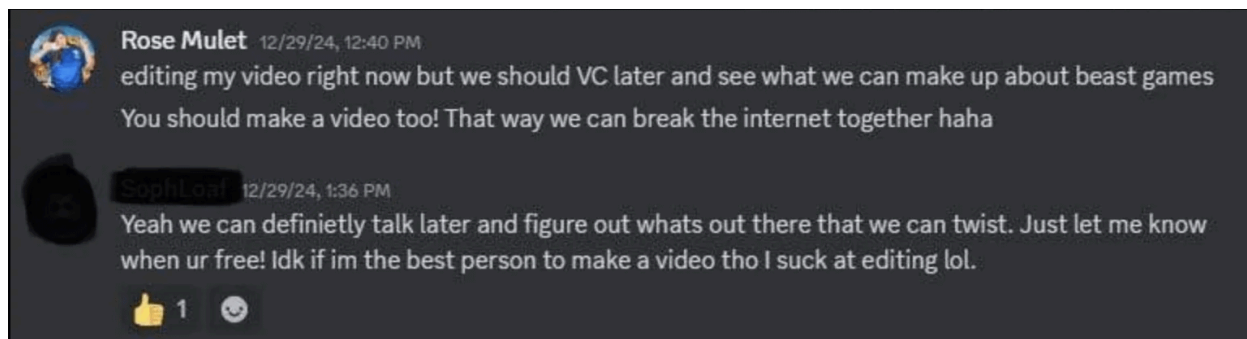

This means whatever damning screenshots she does have from the IG chats are worthless without the full logs. Rose continuing to act like a mastermind is frustrating, as she wouldn't know anything about the more damning parts of the MrBeast situation if she never met Lex and Edna or me.

Sophloaf Mention

Near the start of the creation of this GC, I linked a Reddit post that was showing a screenshot of Rose talking to another person, Sophloaf, pertaining to fabricating things about Beast Games.

Eli pointed out that the name shown on the screenshot was Sophloaf, but for some reason, Lex, the others, and me (for a time) thought he was crazy for knowing this. Somehow we couldn't read the name under the (very poor) censoring?? It was stupid. I still agree that Eli is suspicious, but this was something anybody could figure out by just looking at the picture.

He wanted to interview me for a video and I said sure if I have a say over the final cut, and he said that wasn't possible but he gave Jake say over his part
Wouldn't sign a confidentiality agreement either
That's your first vibe check of anyone you talk to like this
Whether or not they are willing to sign a confidentiality agreement

As I stated in the first screenshot, the OP of this post seemed to know about the MIB server based on the message shown. I told Rose I was concerned about there being a mole in her DM's, and it seemed like this SophLoaf person was leaking things. Lex suspected this to be a PR job made to discredit Rose.

Rose claimed that a guy called Steve had dmed her.

DeOrio MyBookie Mention

Another thing I wanted to bring up was me sharing my findings on DeOrio in this GC.

MyBookie is an online sportsbook and gambling platform. The company is rather sketchy, given that it's an unauthorized offshore sportsbook whose base of operations is in Costa Rica. It is also licensed in offshore territories. Since it operates internationally, it exploits this legal loophole where since it's outside U.S. legal jurisdiction while being licensed in the country it's based in, players in the U.S. can use the platform as long as it abides by the regulations of the offshore jurisdiction.

According to the New York State Gaming Commission, online sportsbooks must be licensed by the Commission to be authorized in the state. MyBookie is not a licensed operator in New York, so by the state's law, it is illegal.

Licensed Operators

- Bally Bet
- BetMGM
- Caesars Sportsbook
- DraftKings Sportsbook
- ESPN Bet
- Fanatics Sportsbook
- FanDuel Sportsbook
- Resorts World Bet
- Rush Street Interactive

It is also illegal to advertise or sponsor unlicensed sports wagering operators in NY as it is considered advancing gambling activity. I have done digging into MyBookie in the past and the platform has gone through controversy surrounding its legality and owners. However, DeOrio has accepted sponsorships from this business in the past, and he is located in New York. As if he can face any sort of penalty from it, it still is considered a legal gray area, but the entire thing is rather strange and most likely not completely clean legally. To test this out, we filed anonymous tips.

<proof here>

Again, if you believe a crime or criminal activity is being committed you report things to law enforcement, not make it into internet drama. Has Rose joined a lawsuit and has Rose filed any type of reports using the evidence she has collected? Rose claims she cannot afford lawyers yet her family is rich as demonstrated in this old clip where she states it. There is however no evidence her family are millionaires.

<clip>

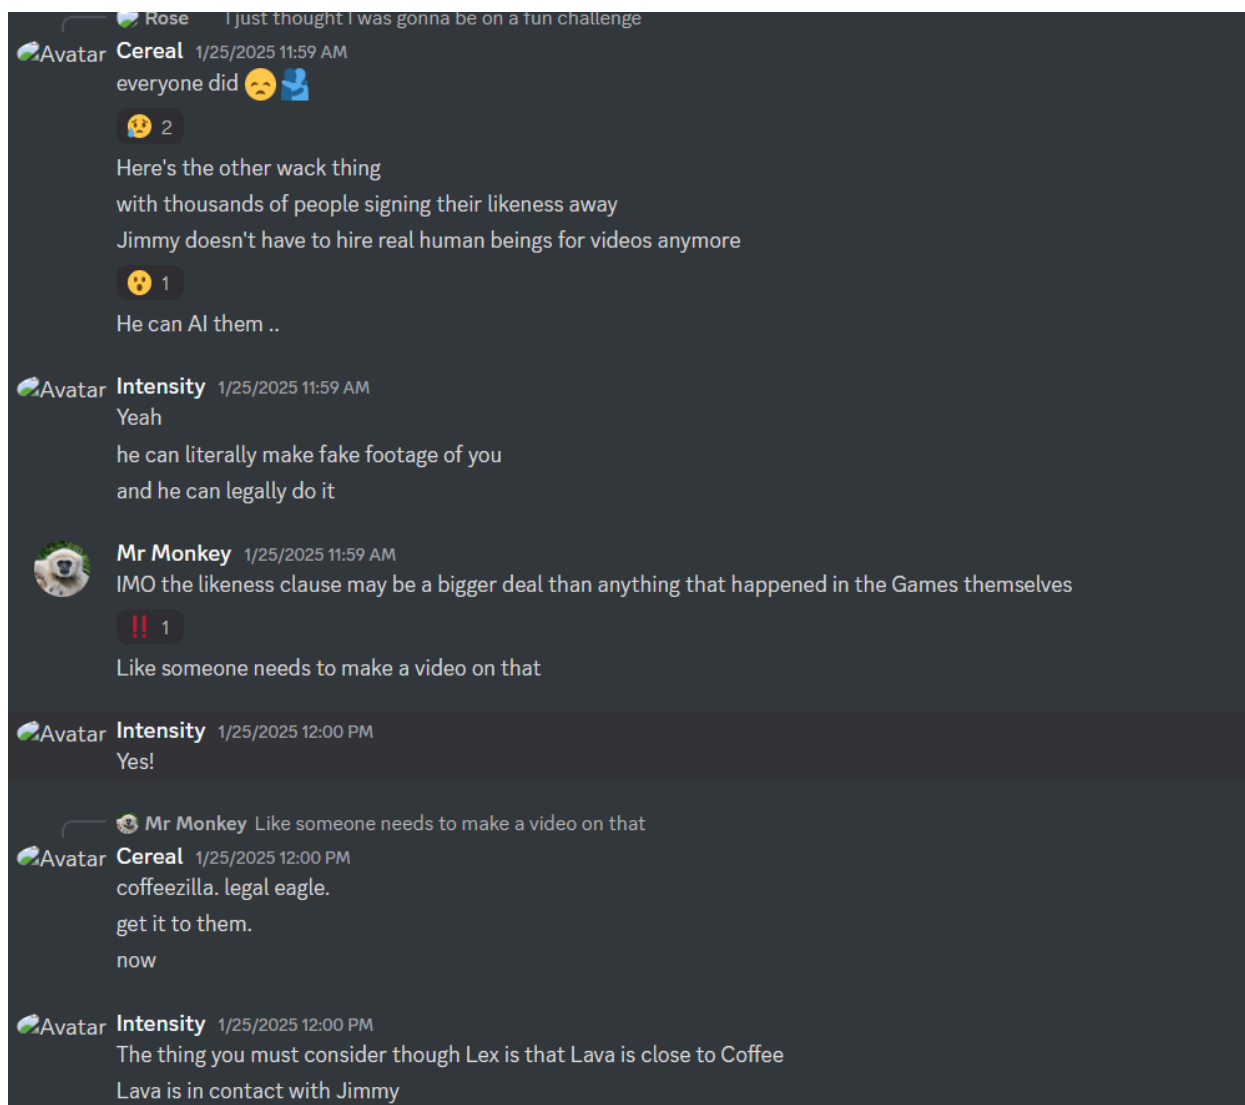

Here is evidence that Rose Mulet was offered to join a lawsuit but declined

<proof here>

I also began telling Rose to file reports and get a lawyer which seemingly Steven Asarch never told her to do despite being an experienced journalist. This was because before me and Rose fell out, I did at one point care about her.

Lava Paid Off Mentions:

- 1) While we were on the topic of the likeness clause Rose signed during her time in Beast Games, Edna said someone should make a video on it due to how severe it seemed. Lex suggested bringing it to someone like Coffeezilla or Legal Eagle, but I warned her that Lava and Coffee were close, and Lava was also in contact with Jimmy. This is the first time I mention Lava by name in this GC.

2) We were getting all excited at Lex's proposition of contacting the Anonymous hacker group to bring MrBeast to justice one day. I will go more into detail about the discussion about Anonymous in the Contacting Anonymous Larp section. We were discussing things we needed to do that we could offer them in hopes they would listen to us. Lex listed some info she could cite and mentioned Lava. I said that Lava doesn't consider himself a victim and helped out with the coverup of Ava's actions. Lex says that he's like that because he was groomed. Though me and Lava are not on the best terms, I will still respect his stance about not feeling victimized. We should have focused more on the kids who did.

Cereal 1/25/2025 7:15 PM

Them helping with the coverup will be a tell

I say that Nathan and Cookie were also discredited and ignored because of Lava and his mingling with the company.

3) Rose was discussing her video on Beast Games and she and Edna expressed sadness at how they would need a miracle to be listened to about Jimmy. I gave her some of my own insight, and mentioned Lava through saying that, again, he was involved in a coverup. I was upset at him for being partially responsible for the Tyson victims being forgotten. Rose also says something here that I'll talk about later.

4) We all mention later on that aside from being involved in the Ava discord, Lava did in fact work at the company at some point. Me and Lex both speculate that he's still on Jimmy's payroll, and that it may be the reason why he's tried so hard to discredit the rest of Ava's victims. However, there is no evidence to substantiate these claims, and I should have never made them for that reason.

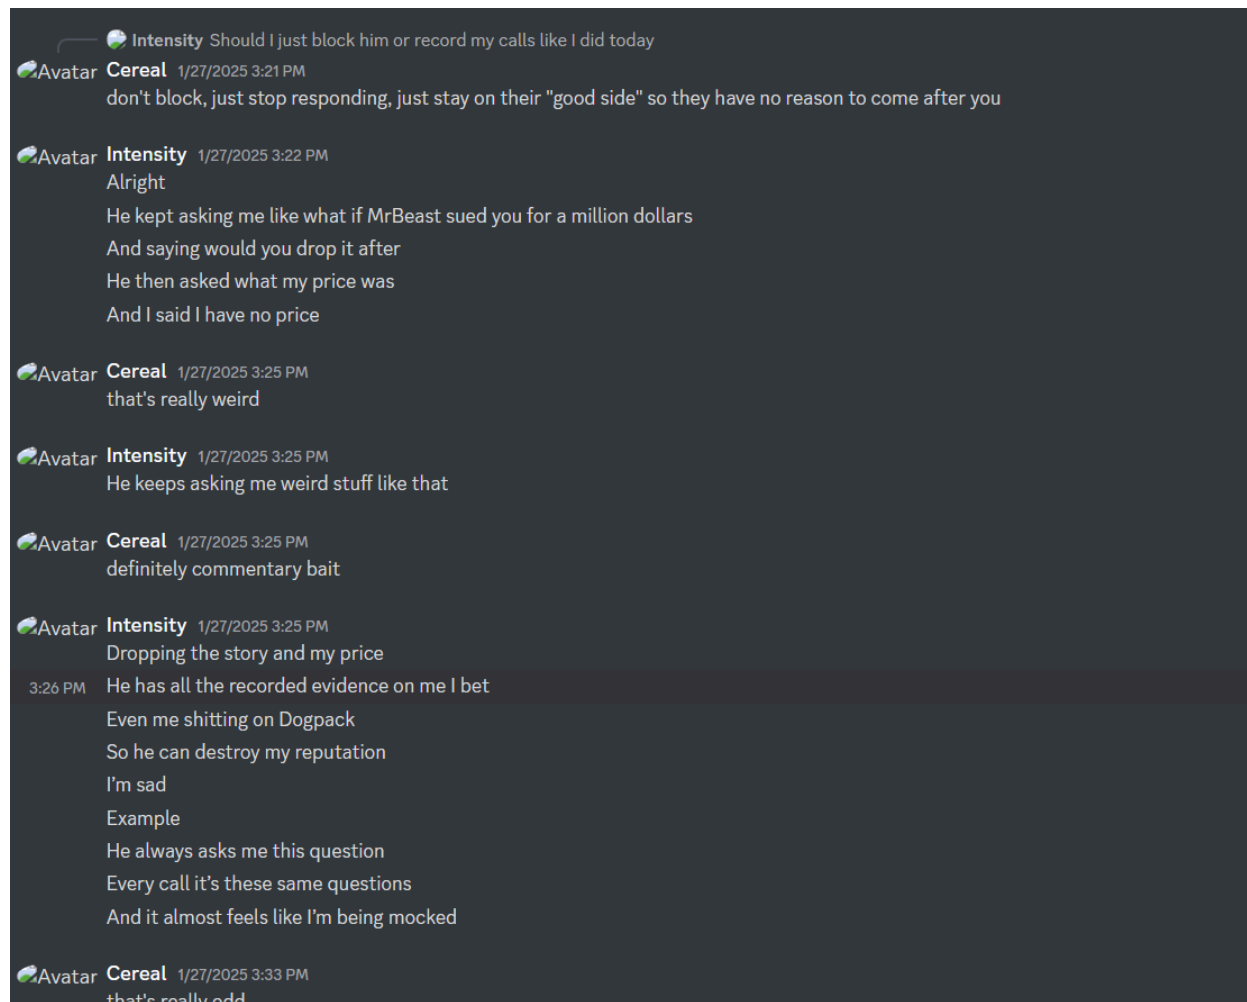

5) I was talking to Lex and brought up that I was talking to a Youtuber who I discussed a lot of things with relating to Ava. Lex told me to ghost them due to their weird behavior.

I brought up that this Youtuber was asking me strange questions that may have been intended to trap me. I knew him from way before MIB and I told him so much that I was afraid he was going to use dirt on me and ruin my reputation.

I also mentioned that he is in contact with Lava. Lex points out that I contradicted myself; I claim to worry about my OPSEC, and had refused doing calls with her in the past because of this, and yet I'm calling with this YouTuber. She was right to point this out and I was being a hypocrite.

6) More discussion of Ava. Lex and Rose both agree that they're tired of hearing about her. I politely disagreed with them and explained that if not for the Ava leaks, if not for Nathan and Cookie, the subsequent widespread criticism of MrBeast as a whole would have never happened. I make it clear that I want to help Ava's victims but also help Rose and try to separate the two things. Lex says Lava doesn't want to be helped and therefore there's nothing we can do to help him. She also comments that the Ava situation is "kinda redundant and unnecessary". I questioned her on why she thought to bring Lava up when he wasn't mentioned and also reminded her there were other minors involved. I'll comment on this further in the Ava Kris/Chris Tyson Dismissal section.

7) More discussion of Ava. Lex continued (see #6) to debate me on the ethics of continuing to pursue the Ava story and brings up the Jake/Snow situation.

I call out Lex for her skewed logic and she continues to argue that me pursuing this story hurts the victims more than it helps them. I tell her that nobody involved with that except for Lava is actually in direct contact with the company. I also bring up that I'll write a KiwiFarms post on Jake. Lex says she doesn't need me to do that and I reply that this isn't being done for her, but so Jake could stop talking to Snow. I still stand firm with my statements that Jake shouldn't have been DMing her for so long, and because he never addressed it, it spiraled into something it shouldn't have.

Deadnaming Ava Kris/Chris Tyson

I deadname Ava a lot in these logs. Despite my theories on her trans identity, I shouldn't have done so, especially with another trans person present (Rose). I wasn't doing it out of malice, but that is also something I still will take accountability for.

I'm too tired to teach

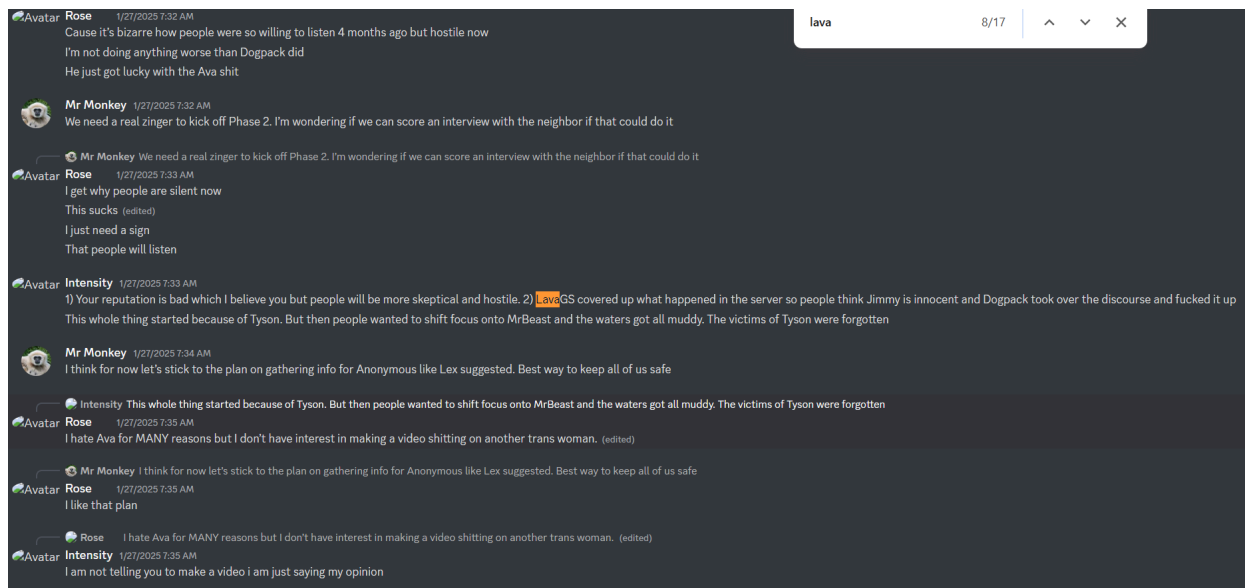

I actually did have an argument with Rose over this over a call, and I would promptly apologize to her afterwards.

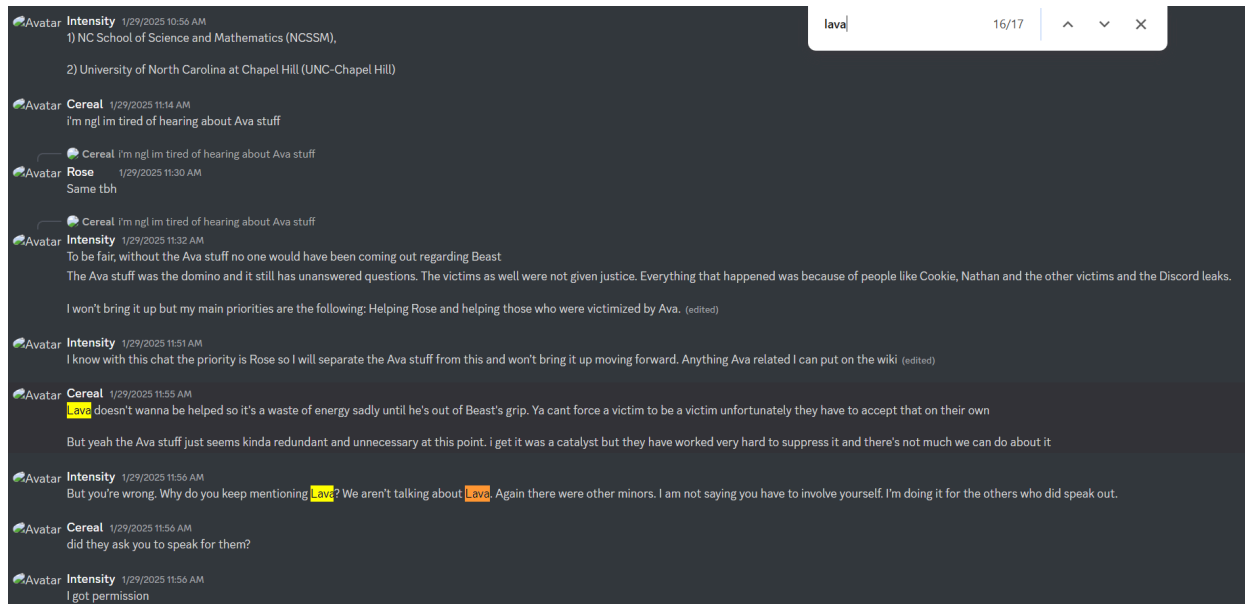

Ava Kris/Chris Tyson Dismissal

In the Lava Paid-Off Mentions sections, there are some screenshots I didn't go over or said I'll explain later. This is because I wanted to explain in a separate section that people in this GC were weirdly dismissive of Ava's actions, and it concerns me.

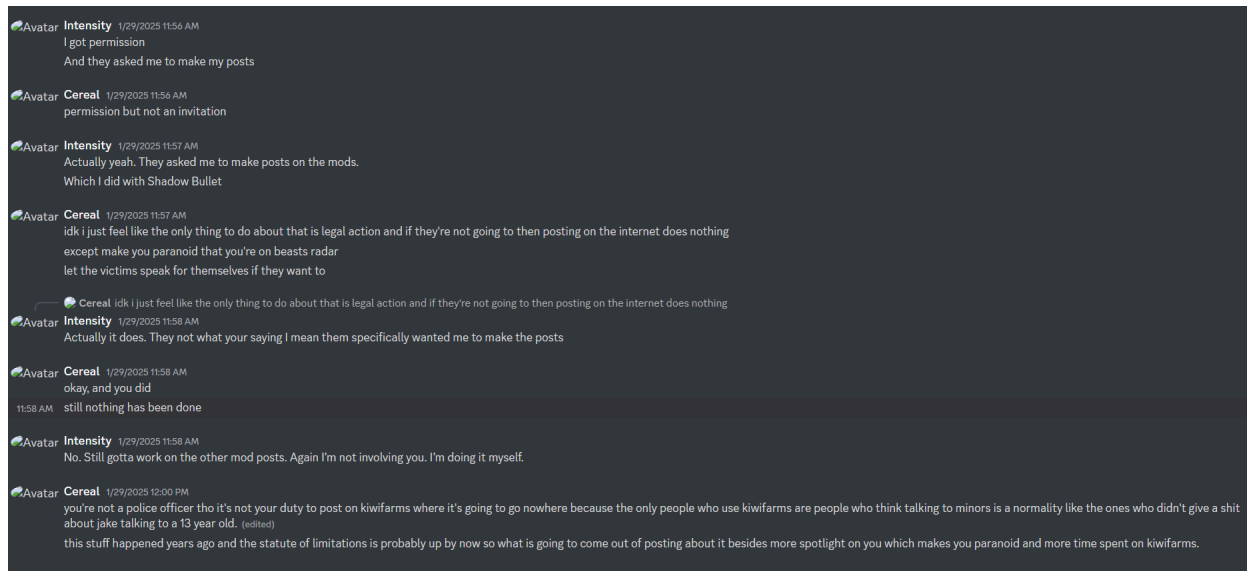

One example of this was during one of my mentions of Lava. I was explaining how Tyson's victims were forgotten, and Rose would reply to my message saying that she hates Ava but doesn't want to make a video "shitting on another trans woman". What does her identity have to do with anything? She is proven to have been inappropriate with kids (outside of LavaGS) and be friends with other pedophiles.

Lex would also say she's tired of the Ava stuff. She says we can't force Lava to be a victim and says the whole thing is "redundant and unnecessary". Why are we downplaying what she did? You say this about the Tyson victims and yet refuse to give Snow any peace, when her situation with Jake is also bad, but nowhere near the Tyson situation. So why do you advocate for Jake to be exposed and claim to care for Snow yet don't do the same for Ava's victims? Lex would question me about if I should truly be speaking for the victims.

She would continue to moralize about how speaking for Ava's victims and making posts about the pedo mods is useless for them. My priority has always been helping the victims and doing what they think is best. Her criticism of my steps to help them is also a criticism of the victims themselves, and that's disgusting. At the same time, I cannot claim to speak for victims or pretend to know how they feel. Given recent activities, I do not think they would support this or agree with how I handled things. In all honesty, I imagine they despise me.

I acknowledge that I know nothing will happen legally. Lex goes on about how I may be endangering the victims, and I explain that, again, I only do whatever they allow me to. I say that what's dangerous is enabling these people to go free by not speaking up. Lex says that Ava was already exposed and nothing happened, and says they might not know the danger of speaking out, also claiming that she's concerned for my wellbeing because the Tyson situation has seemed to take over my identity. I reply back that the consequences have been present since the start; the company trying to destroy the victims rep.

this stuff happened years ago and the statute of limitations is probably up by now so what is going to come out of posting about it besides more spotlight on you which makes you paranoid and more time spent on kiwifarms.

I won't bring up Ava in this chat. Simple, and I won't fail my promise. (edited)

Lex warned me that the company will go hard on me if I publish this info. I say I am prepared and that I can't forgive the company for what they did to the victims. Lex says the company is probably not interested in my forgiveness. I brought up later that I didn't agree with Keyblade (Kiwi I talked to who defended Jake, claiming he was autistic and didn't understand his own actions). I say that Jake should be called out for talking to a 13-14 year old and Ava should also be called out for her actions as well. I even link an article that talks about her SA of another trans woman (Jess/Mooskina).

I say that both situations should be called out and handled with care, and I also call out Lex as her logic can be applied to both situations.

What is concerning to me is the extremely consistent dismissal of Ava and how everyone in this GC seemed to hate her but said things that show they don't care as much about her crimes as they say they do. Lex is only involved in the MrBeast drama at all because of Jake; yet I've seen firsthand what went down when Ava's allegations first came out. If Nathan and Cookie never came out about Ava, the anti-MrBeast movement would've never found its footing. So for these people so focused on destroying MrBeast, to downplay that situation like this is ignorant to their bigger cause. How could you forget what started this movement in the first place? They forget that this is no longer transphobic speculation—Ava has been proven to have engaged in bad behavior, and yet these people refuse to give her scrutiny because...she's trans!

Anonymous Employee Call

Remember when I mentioned the call between Lex and Dustin Harris? It happened in this group chat. Lex was upset and needed someone to talk to, so Edna, Rose, and I joined in to listen to her talk to the employee. The conversation shifted to Jake—and then to Snow.

 Mr Monkey 1/27/2025 6:36 PM

Like what I missed

Lex asked if she should bring up Snow to the employee. Since I was undercover collecting info, I said yes to avoid suspicion, then later informed DestroyThemAll. We debated whether to keep gathering information or cut ties. I was also concerned the group might exploit the situation to discredit one of their biggest critics—Jake—who, while a lolcow, the DM situation had to be addressed in an ethical way that involves Snow's input (not what Lex or the company wants). Staying silent felt like complicity, even if that wasn't my intent.

I contacted Snow's parents and brother. I only considered sharing information with their consent and once I confirmed Jake was no longer in contact with her. I tried to stay impartial and respect Snow's feelings—even if that meant downplaying things. Going against their wishes would've felt wrong, especially since I was in direct contact with her brother so I knew some things others like Lex, Edna or Rose did not know about. My priority was doing what Snow's brother wanted and trying to manage a difficult situation but in the process I unnecessarily prolonged it and did many things I regret, mainly acting immature about this entire situation and also behaving in malicious behavior towards certain parties to attain information. I endangered Snow and I deserve scrutiny to the fullest extent. A person closest to me even questioned why I still maintained contact with this minor and how bizarre and strange it was and how I should leak the DMs and disappear forever. He was right.

Snow's perspective:

I was first informed about this call in February by DestroyThemAll, who gave me vague details about it and warned me that it was serious. Only when me and Goose got in contact again did I actually get to see the full thing. I'll focus on the part of the call where I'm mentioned.

Instantly I was taken aback at how hurt Lex sounded. Why is she acting like she's a victim here? She talked to the employee about my art, referring to me as the girl who "draws the femboy fanart of [Jake] and Dawson". When I found out she was actually talking to a MrBeast employee here, I wasn't really scared, but more so confused. This is how I'm introduced? Seriously? That's not even what I do! Lex continued to tell this employee about Jake's conversations with me and pretends to show pity for him while also making me look like an insane fangirl. I don't quite understand the fear Lex has of just talking to me like a human being; if you/Jake saw me as parasocial while you were dating, why didn't you say something? The funniest part of this has to be her whining about me calling her a bitch; Lex, after everything, I will give you something worse to cry about. Who are you to comment on my sanity when you have none yourself?

She calls Jake hypocritical for trying to call out Ava when he's having the conversations he did with me. Again, Jake is indeed guilty of being weirdly encouraging (and POSSIBLY exploitative depending on what comes out) of parasocial relationships with his fans and that should be called out and apologized for. But to compare him to Ava has got to be nothing short of an insult to the victims actually hurt by her and an insult to me. If you really don't believe that Jake is a pedo or that he was being sexual with me, why are you likening him to Ava? Do you realize the severity of that claim, especially when saying it to a MrBeast employee?

 @Rose Mulet I just wanna it clear that I'm not involved in any of this nobody said that. thats not the issue.

As an adult, Lex's behavior in this call is reasonable given that seeing a celebrity and a teenage fan in DMs may seem strange. But as a figure of interest, it's irresponsible. If you did not want to drag me into drama, you lied about that the moment you told this employee about me.

Jake cut contact with me not long after being informed about this call through Goose. It was a wise decision on his part, but there's still things I wonder about. Goose risked a lot getting this call that had his ex putting a child he seemingly cared about in the spotlight. Yet Jake never told me about it, and instead ran away, leaving me a sitting duck for the next time I was to post in the subreddit. I'm not sure if I think Jake ghosted me because he thought it was wrong to continue talking, because he dismissed the call in the conversation with Goose. He could have helped solve this. We really could have fought this together. Yet here I am 6 months later. What happened?

Discord Tokens

As I mentioned before, Rose procrastinated on downloading logs despite my repeated requests for her to do so. Lex said I was stressing her out, so I tried to hold off, but standing there would allow for evidence to be destroyed. do not give anyone ur discord token Lex would immediately freak out at this and tell Rose not to give me her token. She would scold me for this as well. I was scared that evidence was going to be lost, but I understand that I shouldn't have asked her for that. I would apologize to both her and Lex for this.

Contacting Anonymous Larp

One day, Lex was venting about Jake to the rest of the GC. She lamented how she did everything for him and he still chose to throw her under the bus. In her words, “he had a girl who gave him the world and he wanted a 13 year old instead”. I played along, of course.

 Cereal 1/25/2025 5:33 PM
i hope jake is disclosing his herpes positive status to all of his sexual partners

because his friends asked me if he told me

Not long after, Lex got an idea. She said that Anonymous, the infamous hacker group, would be one of the only groups that would possibly be willing to help them with MrBeast. However, they would need a lot of evidence. The larp only got worse.

 Mr Monkey Honestly should we present it as a concerned neighbor or could they track that and see we're lying?

 Cereal 1/25/2025 6:33 PM

Obviously, Anonymous isn't going to do shit against MrBeast as it's not worth their time. This was stupid and too much larping was going on instead of actual work. I'm a dumbass/retarded for ever engaging with this. Edna also suggests for Lex to bring up Jake and Snow in the email to Anonymous as well.

Once again, Jake is retarded and shouldn't have been DM'ing a minor in the way he was. But his actions aren't enough to get targeted by Anonymous, and this doesn't help Snow either. He's not with the company anymore. It's all just larp and again shows how these people don't deliver on their promises. They waste time doing shit like this.

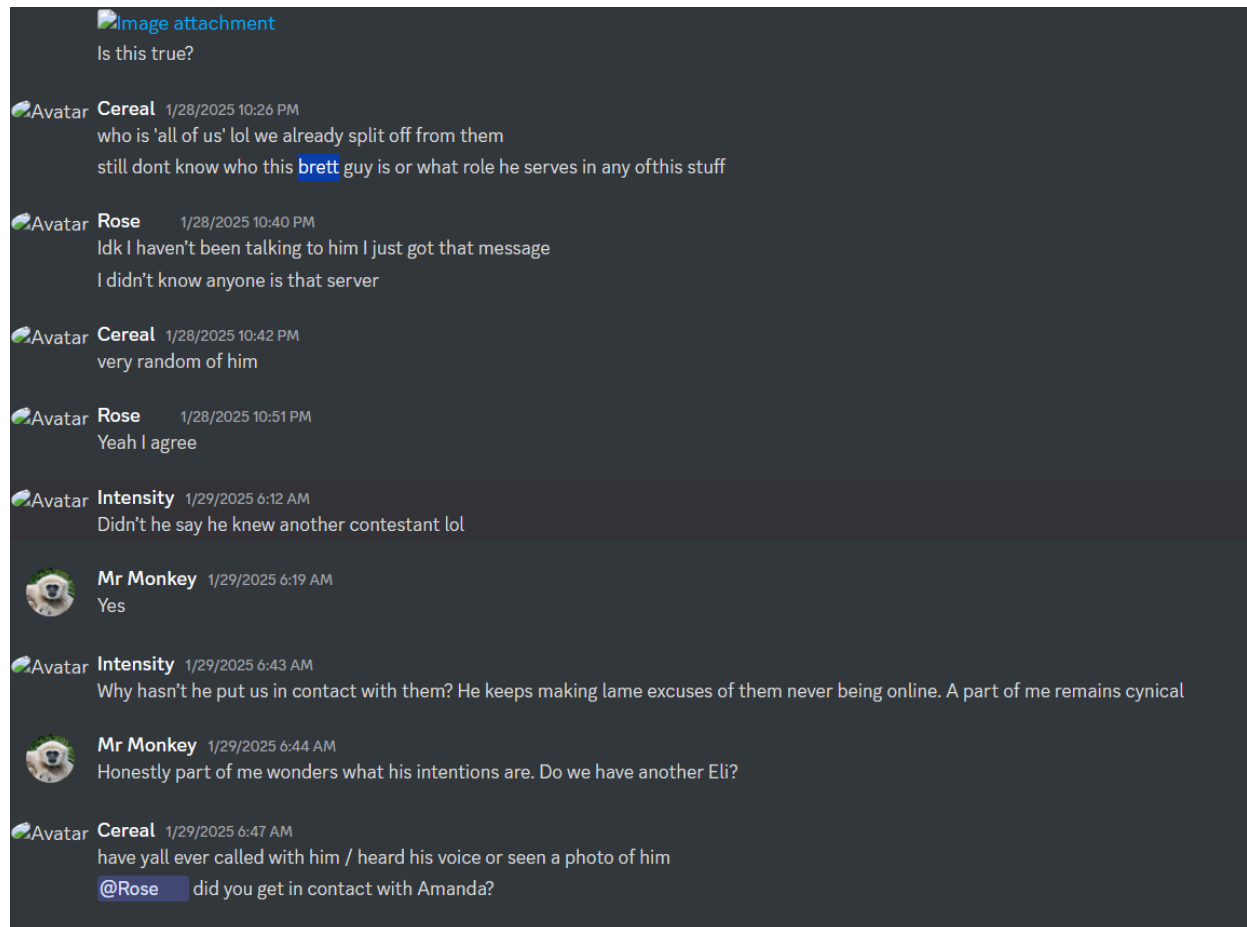

Talking Shit About Brett and Kiwi Theory

After I apologized to Rose about making her uncomfortable with my theories about Ava's trans identity, Rose would send a picture of Brett telling her everyone is splitting up. She asks if it's true.

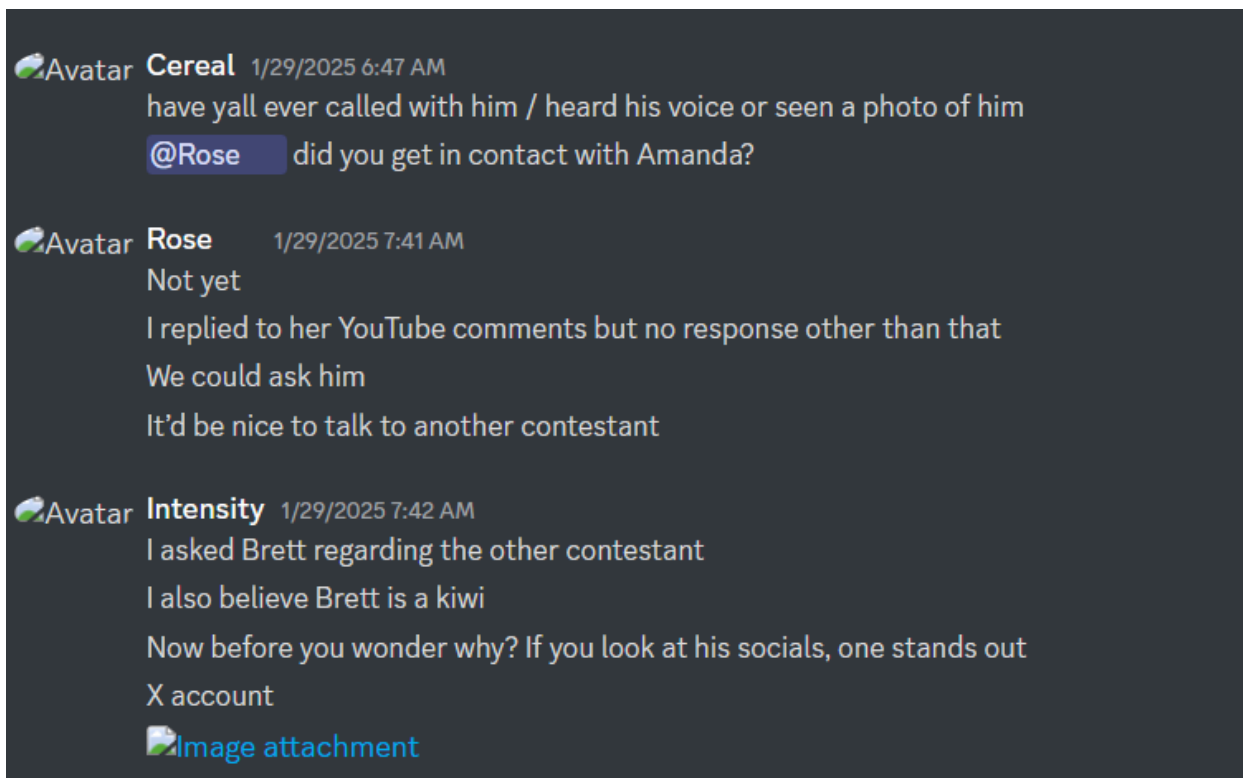

Lex says that she has no clue who Brett is or how he's relevant to the MrBeast situation. I brought up that he said he knew another contestant, Amanda Rose, and I was skeptical as to why he hasn't gotten us into contact with her. Edna speculates that we might have another Eli situation.

I said I asked Brett about the other contestant and also brought up the important part; my theory that Brett is a kiwi. Previously it's already been established the dude is a huge lolcow to the point some believe he's a troll. I brought up his Twitter/X account.

I would send pictures of Brett's comments and the posts of the accounts he followed. They were all conspiracy related and he even gets mentioned in a post talking about 9/11 being fake. Pretty awesome!

Mentions crisis actors, does not like MSM. But there is more besides this. Let's show

These screenshots all come from accounts Brett has followed/interacted with in some way. I speculate in these logs that he's either a Kiwi or someone from /pol/ trying to fuck with us to being connected to Null (not true). This is retarded. I do feel now he's probably just a possibly autistic dude who blabs a lot and is a conspiracy nut. I don't necessarily think Brett is a bad person. But I hate how he inserts himself in serious situations like these when he has no clue what's going on, and because of that, he's being used in some way by the rest of these people. Still, his account interactions do point towards certain political beliefs and it made me wonder if he's actually as superficial as he seems to be or if he is a masterful troll.
