WEEKLY OVERVIEW: APRIL 01ST, 2024

Apr 1, 2024

GRRRRR!! Last week was absolutely ruined, ugh. I got sick and feel better, but it ruined my plans. However, I did conclude that writing NBD while writing TSTT is not working, at least not the way I want it. So, until I finish Chapters 1 - 5 for TSTT, NBD will be put on pause.

Originally, I was going to aim towards having both done by June, but the way TSTT is, I have to pay extra care to it, so until I can get TSTT up to better standards, NBD is gonna have to sit back. I'll still be writing for it, but progress will be a lot slower.

TSTT: CHAPTER WRITINGS

Apr 3, 2024

Hello Lovelies,

Meant to post this yesterday, but didn't. But fantastic news, chapter one formating has been completed!! With new scenes and new forms of dialogue, such as text messages!! You get to have more choices of dialogue with characters, specifically Ro!! And you get more moments with him! As well as a short POV switch with Dante in chapter one.

Rewriting has been awesome and so much fun, so right know, I'm spending time on editing and rewriting some parts. Which makes me ultra excited for chapter two! I have no visuals at the moment, but at a later date, I'll show some!!

And another thing, the synopsis has been altered a bit!! So be excited for that.

TSTT: CHAPTER WRITINGS

Apr 9, 2024

Whew!!

Fantastic news!! I am on Act Five and revising and aiming to finish chapter one this week and aim for early release hopefully this weekend!! I meant to post yesterday, but man! I was working! I'm so excited about what I've done and can't wait to share!! And I have so much foreshadowing!!

CHAPTER ONE: ACT FIVE

"Running from me won't save you."

You're back where the dream left you. Chains slither up your arms and legs, wrapping tightly around your form. They burn painfully so. What have you done to desire this? He stands over you, yet he's not grinning—he's not smiling. He stares in pity.

How dare he?

You struggle against the chains. Feeling your skin burn and peel. You grit your teeth. How dare he cause this to you and feel pity. He could stop this. The ground rumbles and opens, hands from the deep latching onto you. Pulling you down. Dragging you to the pits of hell. It burns. It burns so much.

IT'S UNFAIR.

TSTT CHAPTER ONE - REWRITE RELEASE

Apr 12, 2024

Surprise!!

Chapter One has been fully rewritten and revised and I am quite pleased with the final product. Though it has not yet been viewed by my beta testers, but that's okay! I could go on and gush about you all, and trust me, I will. I adore yalls support and strive to be better daily! I hope that's shown through TSTT and NBD (but this ain't about her)!!

As always, it's found on my discord!! And I hope you enjoy it!

Apr 12, 2024

I have been gone for so long, but not without putting that work in! I've spent the entirety of March and April working on revising and rewriting so much and I am excited about what I've achieved!!

Though this release isn't public and won't be for a long while until I get all six chapters, I am absolutely grateful for those who have been supporting me these past months and my rambles.

TSTT PATREON RELEASE

WEEKLY OVERVIEW: APRIL 22ND, 2024

Apr 22, 2024

I completely forgot to do a weekly overview last week, but that's all right.

As you know April 12th, I released chapter one rewritten, which I'm super happy with, and since then begun working on chapter two! I have also worked on NBD and redoing a couple of the timers and how it works, so sometime this week, I'll fix it up and share it publicly.

Honestly, have been as productive as I could be, but finals week is coming up, so my attention has been rather split at the moment, but after May 6th, I'll have a lot more free time to really go into everything!!

DEV LOGS: APRIL 22ND, 2024

Apr 22, 2024

TSTT: I have added some more scenes in chapter two! A starter scene and expanded a lot between district police and such. A lot of foreshadowing has been done. I also have some sad news, the artist who drew Dante is no longer doing art! So I have to either completely redo everything and find a new artist or draw myself.

(Though, I do want to post more visuals!)

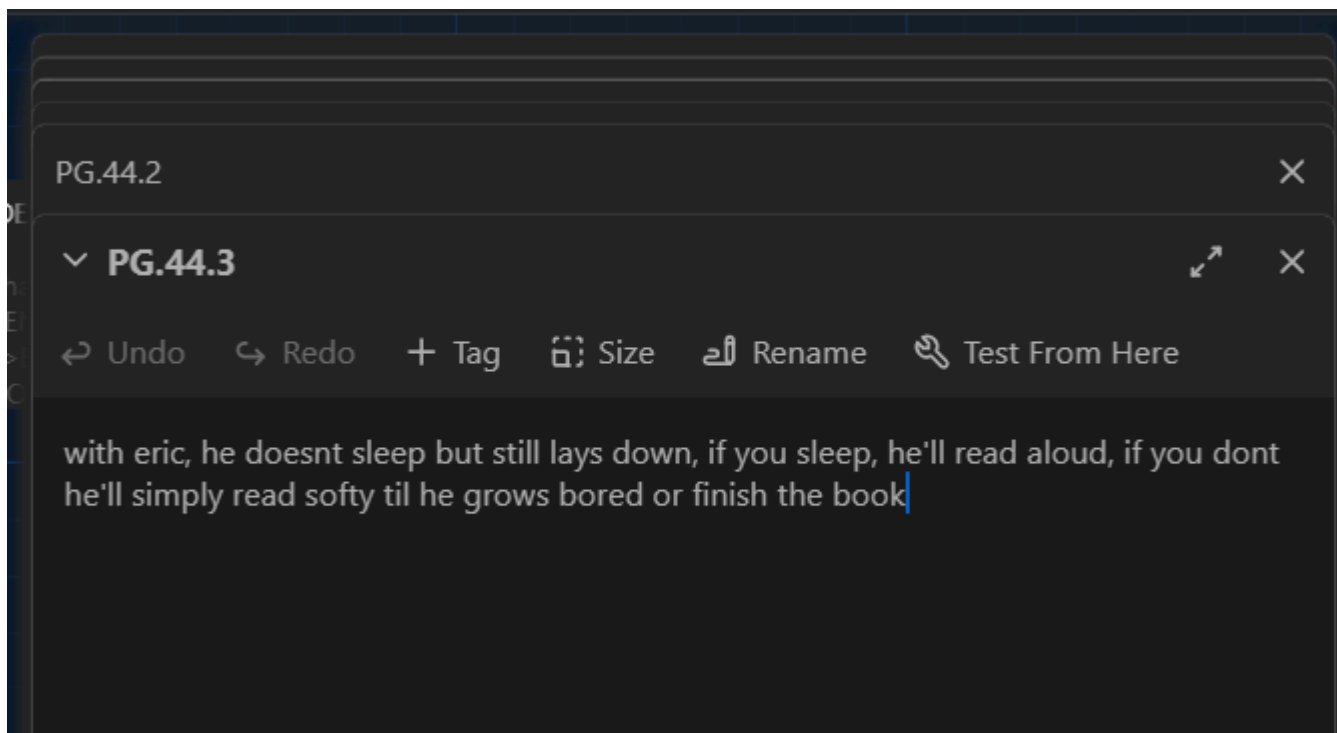

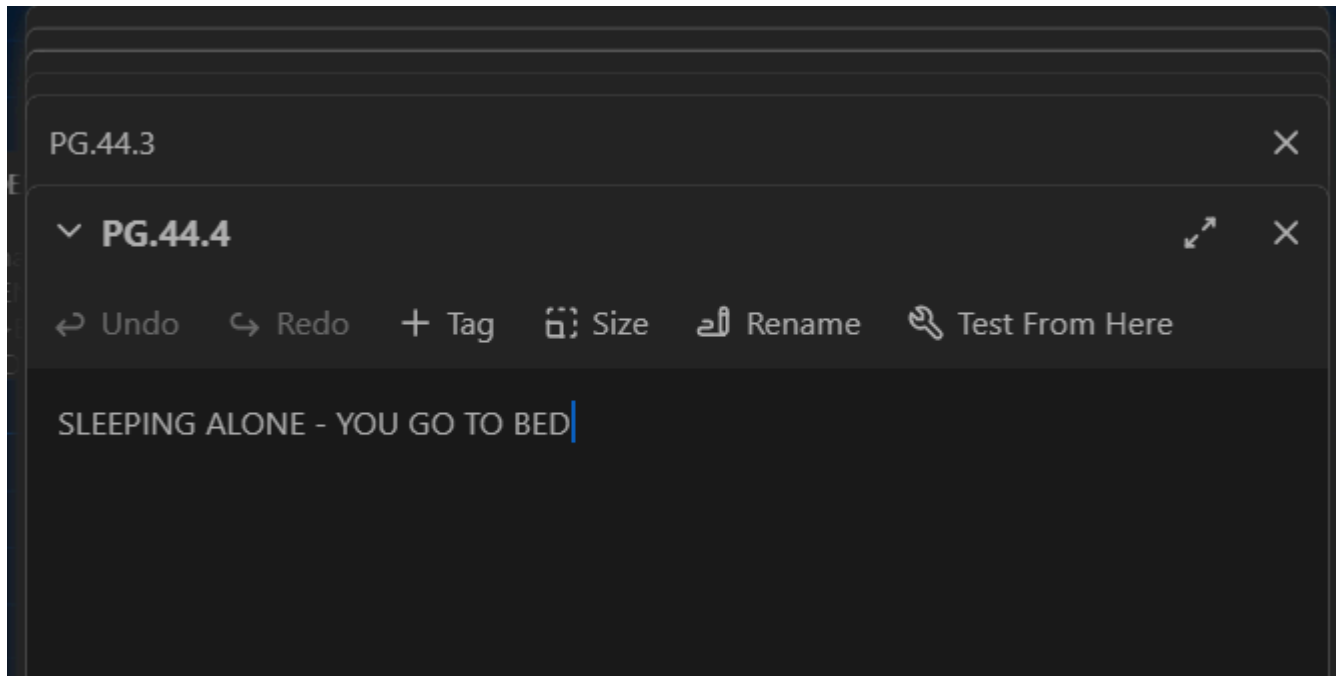

You feel numb. Ignoring the pain that envelopes you—feeling the water seep slowly into your clothes, weighing you down like a ton of bricks. All motivation stolen. Robbed from your very being and crushed. You're 22 with no time left. You let out a slow breath, stepping into the alley. The rain paints your form as you walk into the darkness, sweeping your gaze across. The alleyway was cleaned by the rushing rain. The alley has no exit.

You reach a wall and glance up. There's the smallest covering, stopping rain from hitting your form. Your eyes scan across the darkness, pulling your phone from your pocket and turning on the flashlight. Sweeping it across the alley. There's nothing interesting, except for a few cardboard boxes and a large, rusted trash can.

- ↪ Check cardboard box #1
 - ↪ Check cardboard box #2.
 - ↪ Check rusted trash can.
 - ↪ Check nothing.

NBD: Fixing my damn timers! Ugh. I've been meaning to do this foreverrrrr, but honestly, I'm doing it now. That's what matters. And for chapter two, here's a lil sneak peek.

May 6, 2024

A NEW MONTH!!!

I have been slacking and was on the fence about whether I should post a monthly overview of May and decided that I would! Since I want to get more into the habit! Anyways! There isn't much planned but a few exciting updates! I am officially done with close (w/ one more final) but I can finally start posting more daily as my schedule says!

THE SIX THAT THRIVE

I will be working on chapters 2 and 3 for The Six That Thrive and hopefully have a new demo for yall near the end of May, whilst also working on two new character pieces for Dante and Warden!! Which are in the works and when i have peeks and drafts, I will let yall see!! Im so excited for them!

NINE BLOOD DANCES

Ive taken a break long enough, so right now, its mainly editing and reworking, and posting the edits offically, when Im going to do that, I have no idea! But ill begin actuallu writng chapter two offically after a long break and hopefully finish at the end of May or Mid June!

QUESTIONS

QNAS

I want to get back into doing these!! Especially since ive built up more people to participate and I find em fun!

UPDATES:

I feel really good! And real positive! And hopefully tmrw Ill have somethings for TSTT!

WEEKLY OVERVIEW - MAY 13TH 2024

May 13, 2024

I was being lazy and didn't know if I wanted to do an overview, but I thought. Let me actually be productive. Okay, plans for this week. The Six That Thrive has been on the roll with a couple of new scenes for Chapter Two and Chapter Three, which has been exciting. I'll show the behind-the-scenes tomorrow and the comparisons and my favorite scenes that I'm planning.

Nine Blood Dances. I will work on her eventually, I swear. Which is lowkey annoying cause I have everything planned out, but I can't work on it til I get Chapter 2 and 3 sneak peeks out, which I will do soon! Outside of that, I got nothing.

Actually, I lied. Like a liar. I plan to work on a couple of picrews for the Commanders, Captains, the Phantom Weaver, and the Mortal Man. Which I'll post on Wednesday. I might do the ROs for TSTT and the other characters too.

The reasons that this is so important is cause my main goal has been increasing time and making it more believable, which is why I'm so excited cause I'm working much on the interaction part too! Plus i love this more "jerky" Dante, which makes me so grrrrrrrrr. (Is it obvious that i have no plans, cause i go with the flow. Ill get better swear)

MINI UPDATE

May 24, 2024

Didn't post at all this week cause of pure laziness ngl, but but I was productive! I finished Chapter Two this week and have spent the last couple days working on Chapter Three and art on Dante and the Warden which I'll share as I prep them for itch.io.

I'll also work on NBD with Aapo and Anil, which I paused cause I last minute changed Aapo's character design and have to make a couple changes on Tumblr and Itch.io which I've been dreading.

Question! Would y'all want Chapter Two as of right now, or with Chapter Three?

WEEKLY OVERVIEW - MAY 27TH 2024

May 27, 2024

Hey Hey Hey!

It has been tooooooo long. Sadly, I haven't been too productive, been feeling sick for the past week, nothing major. (I am drinking water and eating food, swear.) I have been working on TSTT and working on nonsensical stuff! Like lordt. Spent an hour on formatting colors but adding in new options.

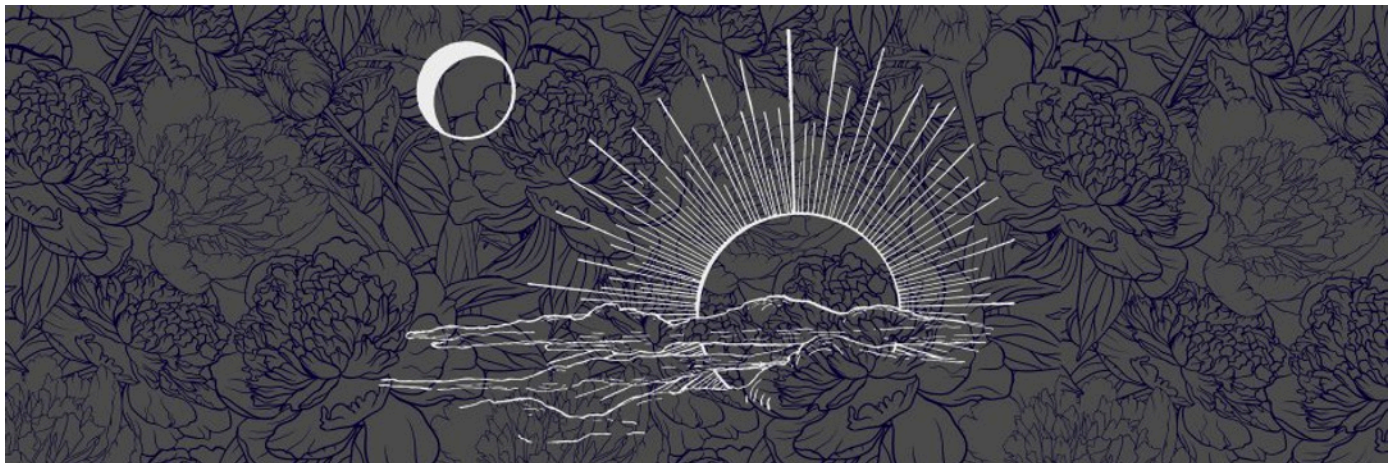

Like labels, chapter warnings, and the ability to skip the long animated scenes, so you don't have to wait for a timer!! Except for options, but outside of that. Slowly been adding in the deaf scenes for chapter one and chapter two, though I will probably have to go into it and recheck everything.

The main reason that this shit is taken so long is fr all the new scenes in Chapter Three and I'm really tryna include scars and tattoos, and a whole bunch of physical traits. Without making it sound weird.

ALSO!! ONCE AGAIN.

I am asking for Editors and Beta Testers!! To work with my current ones!! So please apply if that would be something you're interested in and have free time for.

Lovelies.

WRITERS BLOCK IS A BITCH.

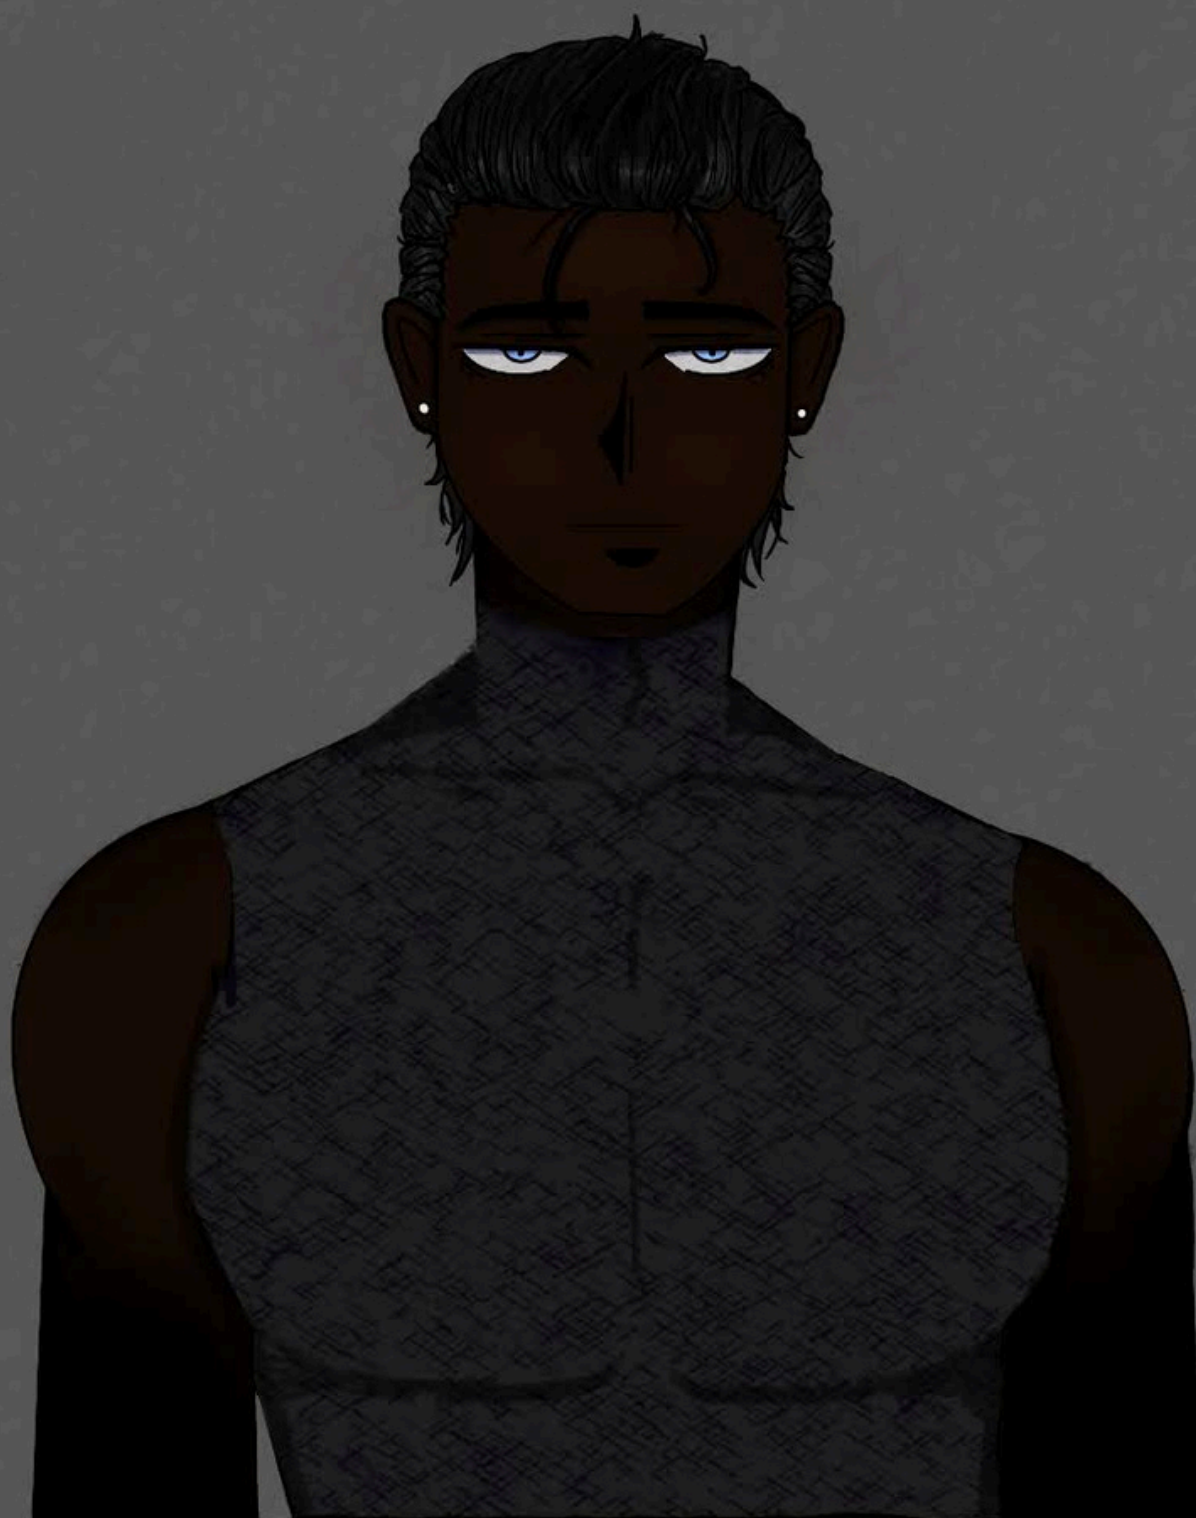

Every day. I'm fighting. Luckily, I'm working through it. Easy. But damn. Especially with my traveling for June. Ugh. Okay okay. New Plan. I am going to post Chapter Two on its own, cause I won't have much time in June and I hate making y'all wait.

Okay so while I'm writing chapter three, I'll just surprise drop it in the discord and then tell y'all. HOPEFULLY, while driving for my road trip, I can be a boss and multitask.

ANYWAY:

I have art of Dante and Warden. Might I add the first actual Warden Visuals!!!! (I'm still working on his helmet, but I'll share it at some point.)

MONTHLY PLANS

Jun 9, 2024

It is June! (Has been for a hot sec, but y'all know me)

As y'all know (I think I mentioned it), I've been traveling since the 5th and been on the road for a hot ass minute and visiting family and it's great to be able to sit and actually be able to type. If y'all on my Discord Patreon, you already know about the Chapter Two rewrite that I released without saying anything. I might do that more often, just drop stuff, but that has been out since the first and I will make an actual announcement.

ALSO. I have figured out a way to post twine demos on Patreon, so I'll be testing that out.

You will also know that I've updated NBD's timing and customization. So, there's that. I think after I work on Chapter Three, I'll start workin' on Chapter Two for NBD, and I'll just drop it together at some point.

I also wanna write for fun and simple snippets and short scenes as I write em.

QUESTIONS: QNAS

I have them written up and I'll be answering them and posting them at some point, sighhhhh. But I got a couple of RO romance questions and lil snippets, I'll share with them.

I am excited.

Look at me actually doing weekly overviews. I'm proud of myself. So last week, I dropped TSTT chapter 2 and portion of Chapter 3 and having a blast with timers!! I'm loving the rewrite and excited for Chapters 7-12, cause you can decide you romantic relationship between you and Dante, and possibly Warden. But that's for later.

Chapter 3 is takin' a hot minute to write cause a lot of it is completely new scenes, which has been annoying. But I'm adding days slowly to extend everything plot wise.

Been closing up any plot holes and tryna make everything make sense. Which will be great for later chapters.

For NBD. I ain't forget about y'all, I will work on it. I have everything planned and all the scenes, like sexual scenes....

Y'all lemme get to writing.

TSTT CHAPTER REWRITING

Jun 18, 2024

Chapter Three has soooooo many new scenes, and more moments to build upon your relationship with Dante and not immediately jump into binding, you still do but with a caveat.

You can refuse and Dante won't bind with you. But he works extra hard to protect you, which almost strains your relationship. But if you choose to actively bind with him, you'll gain romance points.

You also get a bit of Dante's backstory, more of your backstory if you bind with him.

Overall, I'm so so excited.

(I did this yesterday. Shut up. /jk)

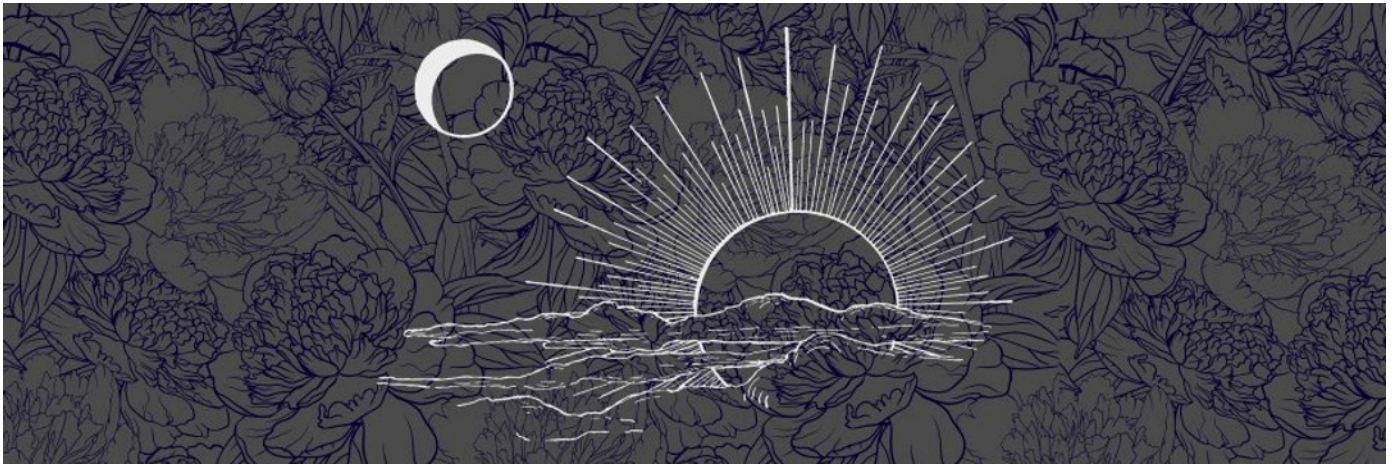

Okay. Y'all wouldn't believe what I did. I wrote Nine Blood Dances. I know. I know. Hold y'all applause. I'm awesome. I also wrote for TSTT, a lot of editing and throwing in more words for chapter three.

This week is just a do what I can and wanna. TSTT, I'm focusing on past scenes and family profiles and stats that I'm on the fence about. NBD is all dialogue and trying to set things out.

Nothing exciting honestly

Oh, I did get more official commissions of Dante and Warden that I'll post and will officially be used for TSTT. I'll also start a donation for commissions of Ro, Dragon, Angel, and Armadillo. Two at a time.

Then I'll figure out something for NBD.

MONTHLY PLANS: JULY

Jul 4, 2024

It has been a long month with me, mostly traveling and trying to be productive. I'm glad to finally be home and be able to work on TSTT and NBD nonstop. [Though I do feel sick, I pushing to be positive!!]
Pros and Cons of June:

PROS:

Alot of editing and adding in deaf features and reworking a few things

Alot of plot fixing and writing out

Character Visuals (my July goal is to finish up Ro, Dragon, Angel, and Armadillo.)

CONS:

I ain't post a full chapter three finish (loser behavior fr)

June was such a long month and I'm excited for all of July, though I do not have much planned besides trying to finish Chapter Three of TSTT and Chapter Two of NBD. And possibly work on two completely different IFs.

I also plan to rework the Patreon tiers and fix parts of my discord server! So those are things that I need to work on throughout the month.

PLANS:

Rework my Patreon tiers at some point.

Write more One shots, especially with NBD

Work on Chapter Four

FINISH CHAPTER THREE!!!

CONCLUSION:

Let me actually be productive. The first few days of July were real tough and I had slight writers block that left me stumped, but after sorta finding other ways to be productive. (Thank You Tumblr Followers. Mwah. Saved my ass) I want to say that I really really do appreciate you all that support me and as much as I joke, y'all really do inspire me to do better and create in a unique ways. Expanding NBD and TSTT farther than I ever thought.

Thank you!

Love Ciel.

WEEKLY OVERVIEW: JULY 08TH, 2024

Jul 8, 2024

My blood is pumping. Amazing news for TSTT fans. Warden and Dragon art commissions are in the process, leaving me to finish Angel and Armadillos sometime this month, which is exciting. And Chapter Three, Act Three, is finally moving. The words are coming to me. The game plan is, stay with me, finish it and finish it quickly.

I was fr a bum all weekend and filled with renewed vigor. So, a lot of it is mainly editing and reworking scenes, since all the major dialogue is out of the way. (Decided to give Angel a tongue piercing, so sometime Thursday or Friday, I might write about Angel and Dragon.)

For NBD, don't be mad, but listen, I'll work on it. I might rework parts of chapter one, the final section of it because I don't like it. But dialogue is done for chapter two, so once chapter three for TSTT is out the way, I'll work on the first half of chapter two and give y'all a sneak peek of it.

And and work on picrews, simply cause listen, picrew doesn't work on my phone nor laptop, so I have to use my tablet, so I will work on that, swear. I might rework a few characteristics with the characters. I will also work

TSTT: CHAPTER REWRITINGS

Jul 11, 2024

I just had to share.

I've decided to add more intimate moments with Dante without full-on flirting, and ill fs edit some of this, but do y'all see the vision. I'm also trying to utilize the character features, so don't worry. I'll have moments specifically for the other features, but right now, Papa is working on the scars.

You look at him through the mirror. You notice his scars, the large scar across the left side of his face, the one across the corner of his lip, the cut along his brow. The cut alongside the right side of his cheek, and the healed gash along the left side of his forehead. Plus a multitude of small cuts and scraps. You hadn't realized how many scars he had, especially not with how messy and long his black hair was. You're amazed that a pony tail band could even contain all his hair, well, minus a few loose strands. You eyes roam his face, from his heavy lower lips, the small black beard along his chin. Then his eyes. Intense gold eyes.

Honestly, my biggest regret has been not adding features and not using them enough, which is why I began rewriting all of this so I could really use them. [ignore that it is literally almost 12 am. The gods of productivity hate me until it is late at night]

I also worked on like two pages. Be proud. Aiming to finish Act One tomorrow. And I might possibly share it with y'all. And after Act Two, the rest of the acts are relatively short!!

WEEKLY OVERVIEW: JULY 15TH, 2024

Jul 15, 2024

Hey Guys!!

It has been a long week but very productive and so I think I believe last week I discussed character commissions, so I worked on those. I've also been working on I'm finishing up at the Angel and the Armadillo and hopefully, I'll have them sent in this week!

Good News, I know a lot of people are asking for a light mode and dark mode and it wasn't I wasn't able to do couldn't fully understand the coding for NBD but I figured it out for the TSTT, so hopefully demon release I can get that rolled out next time when I post. Cuz there's a few minor things I need to change especially light mode. There are a few minor things that I'm not trying to fix that are getting on my nerves, but other than that, everything is chill.

Update on TSTT, Chapter 3, I have worked a lot on it so right now; I have to go back and fix some things from Act 1 and then the majority of Act 2 is finished I had an edit some dialogue from the options and then I'm going down to dream sequences and then Dante's POV so hopefully, I'm aiming to have chapter 3 demo release dropped next week. That's what I'm aiming for, I don't know if I'll hit it, but that's what hope for and then roll out chapter 4. Which is going to take a hot minute, no, I think chapter five will be difficult, but for the most part, I'm rather happy with what I have for chapter 5, so it's not going to be too bad trying to rewrite everything because chapter 5 is what I'm aiming for writing-wise.

Now Chapter 6, is going to be a pain because I'm starting from complete scratch, but I have some things I know I want because Chapter 6 is so action-packed I'm going to have to add a lot. I really just want to get Ark One out of the way for TSTT and once I let that sit and simmer for a couple of months before I update it again, I can focus on NBD and push out a chapter or two.

I have entirely a Chapter 2 planned out for NBD, which has a lot going on so hopefully I'll drop Chapter 2 and then I'll configure light mode and dark mode. It won't be too stressful because a lot of Chapter Two is just interactions. And Chapter 3 is when you make the rest of the love interest.

Hopefully, I'll share some stuff I have for the six outside tomorrow because I do give you a lot of things with Dante that aren't outwardly romantic, just little moments with him. I did alter his personality which I love.

Anyway, Thank you as much as always! I love you! Mwah. Kisses. I promise to try to post more on Tumblr and be more active! I'm just trying to get this stuff out of the way. Swear, anyways love you.

TWO WEEK UPDATE: JULY 29TH 2024

Jul 29, 2024

Hi Lovelies.

It has been far too long, meant to update last week, but in fact did not cause I wasn't feeling all that well, but I am happy as a lamb today. And, I have a lot of good news. If you know, on my discord, I have shared the first visuals of Warden. And so that's so exciting. And with the Dragon commission, right now it has already been outlined and has a flat color. It's about to be rendered, which I'm so excited for. And so hopefully I'll post Dante's and the Warden's tomorrow so you can see how it looks. With the Angel and Armadillo Commissions are in the lineup.

SETBACKS:

Twine literally updated its systems yesterday which ruined A BUNCH of coding and like I have no way to fix it and I am pissed. Luckily, I had twine on my laptop, which is an older version so all is okay, but because of my writing process it'll take longer.

TSTT -

Chapter Three is completed! I'm simply editing a few pages before I share it, but I am d-o-n-e. And so happy about it. I'll go into deeper depth about this Tuesday. I'm hoping This week, I know I said last week, I wasn't feeling well, but you know. Also, if you're also in my Discord, you know that I added a kiss scene with Ro. I know, I know.

So, the first-ever kiss scene, so that's fun. I'll go more into depth about that. Now I'll start the outline for chapter 4, knowing Myself. Also, I'm not doing official commissions for Ro because I'm never gonna add him to the official Love interest list. But, he's a confirmed love interest. I'm going to have you all find that out yourself.

TIERS -

I wanted to now discuss... I have the angel tier, the dragon tier, and the armadillo tier. The reason being that I just realized that getting money as much as I find it helpful to pay for commissions, pay for all the stuff I need to do. I'm not as consistent enough as I would like to be. So, there's that, but I think it'd be so much easier to actually have stuff for the higher tiers, which is also going to send them trying to slip in new IF stuff. And so, I've decided that now "officially", quotation marks, have started working on.

The yandere fic and I've decided that I'm going to share other projects I have that I haven't really shared publicly and then I'm gonna leave that for my armadillo tier. So hopefully Thursdays I'll dedicate that to my armadillo tier and post stuff for them.

And then, writing stuff that I can share from a higher to a closer perspective. I really want to get back into writing. Like just little one-shots, but I haven't done a long time because TSTT is dragging my ass. I'm getting beat over here guys I'm in an abusive relationship with the story, at this point, I'm a slave, but overall, I'm feeling rather positive. I'm feeling super happy. I'm feeling super good. You know what? My AC's not working. I think that's what it is. I feel a little sick sometimes, I am not good in the heat.

NBD -

Chapter Two, I've started working on a little bit of I think what is annoying I think I might go back and rewrite the ending for chapter one. I didn't really like it, so I'm going to go back, rewrite the ending and then write half, at least half of chapter 2 to share with y'all. Finish it out. That's the goal. Eventually, I'm also going to have to work on the dark mode and light mode for NBD.

Which is gonna take a hot sec.

Other than that, I have no other plans. It's a lot of writing. I'm so excited to be done with commissions. for a TSTT only to then do commissions for NBD and I'm most definitely going to use the same artist because I'm obsessed. I feel like they really capture the art style that I absolutely adore.

So when they stop drawing, I will be so sad, but I really appreciate them and if I'll share who they are tomorrow when I drop Warden and stuff. You should give them a follow. Support them because I love them. I adore them. They are a fantastic artist and they deserve all the praise, but so they will be doing all the character designs for Nine Blood dances, which is nine goddamn characters.

Until then, thank you lovelies. Y'all have been fantastic, amazing, patient. I love y'all. I adore y'all. Like y'all, y'all, y'all is what I do this for. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Love, Ciel <3

TSTT: CHAPTER REWRITING

Jul 30, 2024

Ro's kiss scene.

The first kiss scene in the game is important because ultimately, it is a goodbye kiss. [An optional goodbye kiss] It's not really emotional, nor was I trying to make it emotional. Because Ro doesn't give you a chance to really sit with the emotion of sadness or dislike with him leaving. Now ultimately, this scene and my intention with this scene may change in the future, which it probably will, especially if I get a chance to really really flush out Ro in earlier chapters, which will be the goal, but that's years down the line.

I feel for the scene it relies more on you and him creating an interest in each other. Though this differs depending on your relationship, if you don't like him or have a crush, it's one-sided pinning. But the relationship is ultimately up to your perception of it and at the end of chapter six, will you get to make an actual decision about Ro, such as.

Friends ONLY [Removes any future Ro romance]

Crush [Gives you a chance to avoid making a set decision until later in game]

Interested – Poly Route [You will later get to decide who you want a poly relationship with]

Interested – Harem Route [Automatically sets you up for the harem route with all characters, you'll be able to leave this route and select characters that you want in your harem.]

There's no monogamous route for Ro (reason explained later), but there will be for other characters.

↳ Kiss.
↳ Open the front door.

THOUGHTS ON DANTE AND WARDEN

Rewriting has been an awesome experience and has helped me flush out Dante's character so much more and I am absolutely obsessed with how he is in-game. Chapter Four is so you and him centric, with chapter three, giving you a Dante POV. Though not centered around you, he does think of you a lot. But it gives more of an insight to how he acts, which I love.

He's so chill, while still having his sort of humorous side, that I want to show more in Chapter Four and mainly Five. With him rarely present in Chapter Six. Until the end, which will give you his final POV of Ark One. The rest of his POVs will be reliant on you and his relationship and if you choose his specific POV over other characters, you'll get like 20 romance points.

And you meet the Warden like a chapter early with hints to Isra, which is always fun.

NBD: WRITING STATUS

Jul 31, 2024

Hi lovelies!

I'm actually writing today and posting for NBD. I know. I know. I'm awesome. <3

So, I mentioned Monday that I want to rewrite some of the ending of Chapter One and so it's not a tremendous change as I assumed, it was a very minor change in dialogue specifically with Alice on the pages where you chase after her and Anil. But I think the difference helps.

So not only did I do that, but I also finally built the courage to start writing Chapter 2 and didn't feel so "forced" to write for it. I'm so happy to finally be working on it, and I just let it sit there. The first page is officially done now. It's not a lot, by any means, but I admit that I've been having a sort of writer's block. I knew the path I wanted to take and what I envisioned but actually typing seemed daunting for it.

My hack always starts with base-level dialogue, which helps, and I can always edit it, but at times it's so taxing, especially with Interactive Fiction, but I don't want to harbor on that. I think I was in a hurry to finish TSTT and really put my everything into it because I felt so embarrassed with the first version, in the process, I sort of fell out of love with NBD.

IT HAS BEEN RESTORED, but I really want to work on them both and that just means, a little at a time.

I'm so used to writing out most of the chapters in huge chunks, but because I want to work on various IFs, I have to work on them a little at a time, or else I'll feel restrained and stressed. This means I'll have to give in to what I love to do, which is writing.

As always, I just want to say thank you so much for being patient with me. I know that I've not been updating y'all on Nine Blood Dances, but let's be fair. I wasn't writing anything for it. I'm going to really really try and dedicate Wednesdays to NBD and slowly chip away at it. This was really messy and just my thoughts more than about NBD with its status.

DEATH'S TANGO

This project isn't secret, but it's a slow work in progress, having me only starting with the names for your Husband/Wife/Spouse. But a few things I want to note is this story takes over 10 years, with each year being special with three endings. Staying, Escaping, Killing.

This will be different in customization, though there will be a lot, but due to the scene involving action and physical fighting and running, there are certain things I won't include or will have set decisions on like prosthetics will be rather Hightech. Outside that, customization will remain the same.

Another fun thing will be the use of tropes and spouse customization:

Your spouse's family is a group of yanderes, except for a few married-in members, but I'm on the fence rather I should give the MC moments with these characters or or keep it one "RO". Im using the term loosely because at the end of the day, my intention isn't to write a romance story, its to write a horror story and that grows crazier and crazier throughout the story.

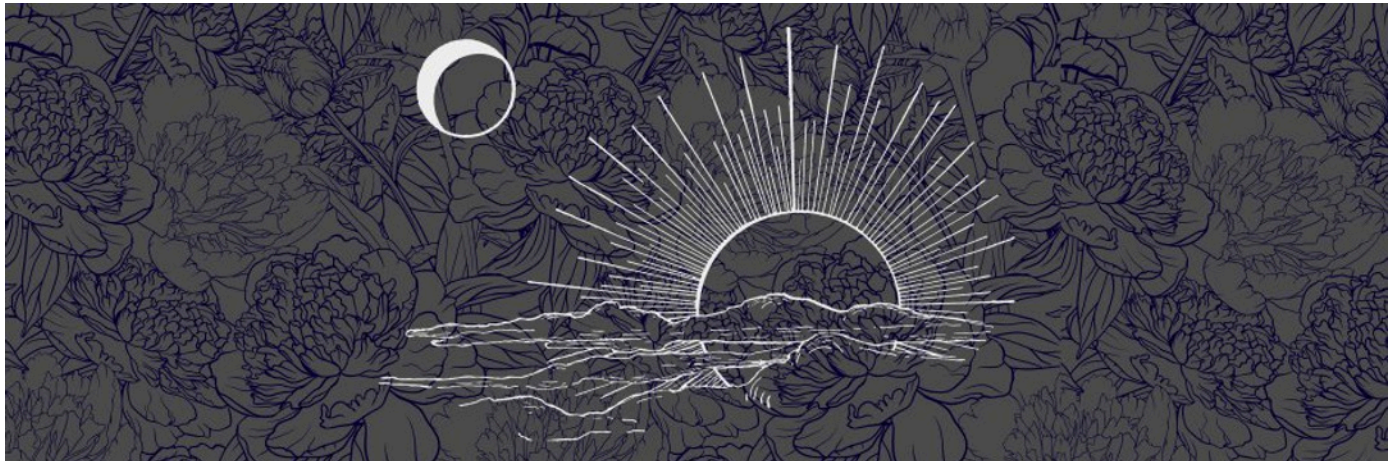

Ive started the layout, but still trying to figure out, how I want everything done. I am going to the the hell of the timer feature, Istg, like chase sequence first chapter.

TSTT: CHAPTER PLANNING

Aug 6, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

So, as you know, last week I dropped chapter 3 for the TSTT, which has I'm assuming which has been well-liked and well-received, despite there being a couple setbacks with, you know, editing on my part. whoops

But I also mentioned on my discord that Ive also just finished the entire layout for chapter 4. Which includes a lot more moments with Dante. I really wanted the first have of chapter four to build upon your relationship with him. So that's been fun to include those scenes and I'm actually really excited to write those.

I think it would also be a great chapter to include features that the main character has, such as appearance. And to include the hobbies in which you choose, and it also include the chance to describe your childhood and have that connect with Dante.

FIXES:

I'm not too worried about editing, like grammar, and just small subtle changes. Not until I finish all like six chapters and then I have to go back to the very beginning. And then include some stuff, see how I like it, see how I feel.

OTHER:

Other major updates? Isra commission was done. I dropped that yesterday. So that's been fun to actually get a visual of her. Its also great because she'll have an actual scene within Chapter 4. And then Lyra and Argon.

Anyways, as always, I thank you for the support. Hopefully, next week I can share. Some screenshots of everything I've written and then tomorrow talk about Nine Blood Dances.

Love Ciel

NBD: CHAPTER PLANNING

Aug 8, 2024

Hi lovelies.

I was supposed to post this yesterday. I didn't. I think that's just because my schedule for everything has been so wacky because school's starting up for my siblings. And I'm not even ready for my sophomore semester.

So I had to figure out everything to plan around my future schedule, because usually I try to have everything written like the night before or early day of and then post it, I try to have it post at 8 o'clock (MT)

So hopefully I'm either going to keep that schedule or I'm going to try to just shift things around.

I didn't do a weekly update because I decided I wanted to change it to a two-week update I think that should be better so I don't have to worry about doing two of them but I can do one I don't want to. So I'm not gonna.

So, I've been writing for Nineblood Dances. I have no scene to share with y'all. I said I was going to... But Alice is my main struggle. Like genuinely, I don't know what I want to do with her yet. And so I'm kindA switching having her making her this fun-loving character or having her being far more snippy and against MC.

And so I'm still teetering on the fence on how I want her dialogue to go and I'm leaning towards hers being far more snippy. Far more sarcastic and far more aggressive. She's such a hard character to write for.

Though to be honest, I'm gonna be so happy and so excited, genuinely, when I get TSTT out the way and can take like a two month break for it. Gods, I'm so over this rewrite Outside of that.

I just want to say thank you for your patience. I love y'all. I care about y'all. And I'm gonna just keep chipping away at the Nine Blood Dances because I gotta, but so I have two pages officially done. So that's exciting, because I just had the outline done before, so there's that.

Ugh, it's so hard writing from scratch.

It's so hard. I think the worst part is the characterization I'm trying to go for, and it's so... Difficult cause I never know what mood I'll be in when writing. And so since I'm deciding to have Alice a more snippy character, I'm going to have to go back to the beginning because I just add more stuff in with her not liking MC from the jump because that's honestly what I'm landing on.

Anyways, thank you so much.

Love, Ciel

TWO WEEK UPDATE: AUG 12TH 2024

Aug 12, 2024

Hi Lovelies!

The first weekly(cough) update of August! And I am king of the world!! I really appreciate the kind comments, the great feedback, and the positive reaction to Chapter Three and TSTT Rewrite overall cause, Lovelies, I was not certain of it. Like did I like it more than the original version, yes! But I was still worried and I admit that the demo isn't up to standards, which is why I'm excited to fully finish the demo eventually, have a kick starter one day, and fully fully flush out TSTT.

I am so glad that the new version is so loved. It means the world to me!! And has filled me with courage to write Chapter Four. Which I was doing real slowly, but I have been renewed with strength and speed.

Half of this update is me just gushing over how supportive y'all are. Y'all are fantastic. Still, I have no big updates, besides the Chapter Four outline planned. Which I'll share tmrw! I'm just so happy!

Love Ciel

TSTT: CHAPTER REWRITINGS

Aug 13, 2024

Hello Loves,

Chapter Four has so many new scenes to write so many fun scenes with Dante and more customization on MCs part, specifically with their childhood. You'll be able to decide if you were outgoing or more introverted and if that part of you changed or remained the same. Plus more on Dante's backstory, which is always fun!!

SPOILERS FOR WHAT'S TO COME!!

Act One I am soo soo excited!

he goes into depths about dreams/memories
he asks you about your childhood you ask why he says hes sentiment - hes being sarcastic

you decide parts of your childhood

(I am obsessed with this newer version of Dante, y'all don't understand. It's not shown here, but I did keep the older scenes of Dante being soft and physical touch with more to it. Especially if you don't like it to be touched. Gotta keep the stern part of himself. Periodt)

he says thats nice and hes envious you ask about his childhood he mentions that he was an only child--with a neglectful mother-he says sarcastically but he //had// a brother

you ask why hes being honest he asks if you want him to lie and be closed off you say no
he says that its best if you and him get along, and that he doesnt want to fight (at least not yet) hes going to protect you, so he should at least like you somewhat

ask if he likes you dont ask if he likes you (Say it with me. Subtle Flirting. I can't help it. And choices. Though your honestly get his approval/platonic points)

ask him if he likes you he'll say yes. more than most
but he's biased, he may be because he wants to eat you

you say thats not funny
he'll say he wasnt joking

you frown and he can practically read you face and that you need to work on being more aloof. If you are, he says, more aloof. youll understand once you meet the warden dont ask, but he can practically read you face and that you need to work on being more aloof. If you are, he says, more aloof. youll understand once you meet the warden

ask him if he likes you he'll say yes. more than most
but he's biased, he may be because he wants to eat you

you say thats not funny
he'll say he wasnt joking

(same scenes for the most part, with subtle changes)

ask more about the warden personality and memories he'll say they werent extremely close you ask if he misses him he'll say maybe he'll know if he missed W once he sees his stone cold face

The final scene and I really want to set a stage for his and Warden's relationship, which is a main part of Chapter Four. A lot of stuff is happening and setting everything up.

Oh, did I mention there will be a point where you can use/abuse Dante's bloodhound loyalty to you. I love a bit of angst.

Love Ciel.

TSTT DIVIDERS

Aug 13, 2024

Don't these just eat. I've been so productive, I'm just missing Lyra and Argon. The yellow and green already eat, I swear. I've been prepping for the revamp. I took so many SS, but Dante's picture is actually in TSTT now. So that's awesome.

SMALLEST OF SMALL UPDATES

Aug 16, 2024

Chapter Four word count, for the first page, is around 8K. Including coding, but so much is going on. I just thought I'd share. And Dante fell asleep mid-convo, so that's cute. Seeing with how productive I am and positive, ill probably get half of TSTT done within a month, possibly by the end of August. Which is fun.

Aug 19, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

Today, I almost forgot to do the weekly update, but here we are! Good news—I've started school again! Don't worry though, I've still been writing regularly. I've made significant progress, especially on the childhood options. This includes choices like sports, types of dances, and instruments, which will be important later on in the story.

I've also been working on a massive lore drop coming for Dante, delving into his past. I'm focusing on the dialogues right now and have a few pages done already, with dialogue done on page 97 for Chapter 4. The progress hasn't stopped, and I'm having so much fun writing! I'll dive deeper into this tomorrow for the TSTT.

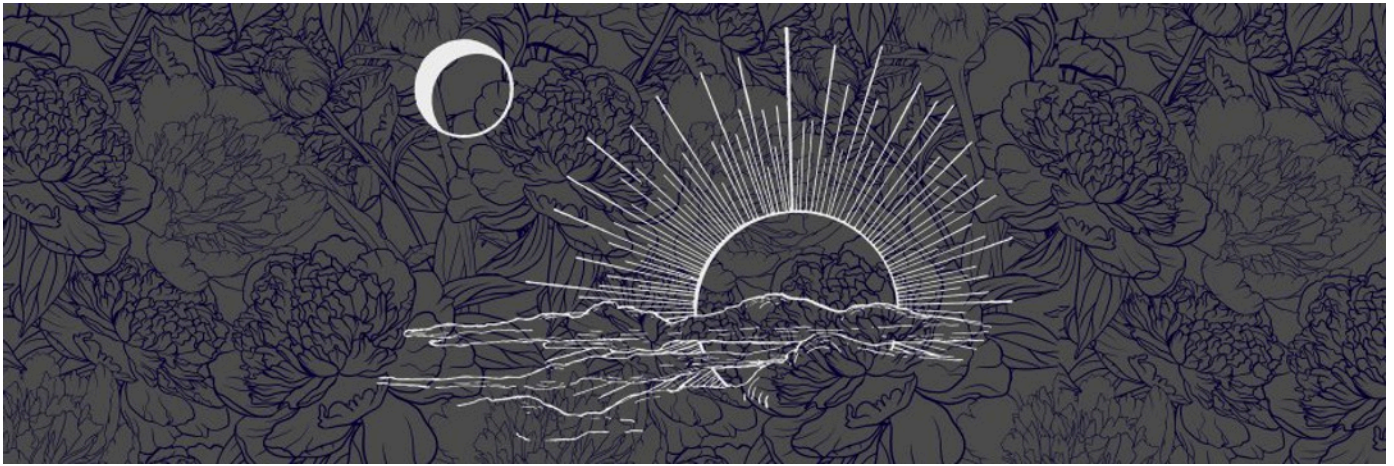

In addition to writing, I've been busy working on a few fics that some of you have requested. This includes a few short stories and one-shots featuring all the romance characters. One of them is a NSFW smut and the NSFW Alphabets. There's also a smaller story featuring the Warden, addressing some problems that come up within the storyline. If you're interested in seeing these in the future, feel free to share your ideas or prompts! If you don't want to go through Tumblr, you can always join the on my server, for more involvement.

I'm also deciding on the first actually NSFW scene in Chapter 5, which could be really exciting to include, but I'm still on the fence about whether to make it public or keep it private. I'll likely release it publicly, but all other NSFW scenes will be Patreon-only until the full game is released.

Overall, everything has been going smoothly. I feel so positive, healthy, and happy, and I'm incredibly grateful for your continued support. You all are fantastic, phenomenal, and amazing! Thank you for the love I've been receiving, and a special thank you to those who point out any errors. I appreciate it so much—I'm feeling really gushy about it all right now!

As August comes to a close, I'll be considering possible release dates for each chapter. I'll share these details with my higher tiers first, but I want to keep the public excited too, without setting up too many expectations. Because I'm not 100% sure about these dates yet. I'll share more about this later.

Love Ciel

TSTT CHAPTER REWRITE

Aug 20, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

The devil (rest) tried to stop me from posting today, but I'm a fighter. World-class champ. I wrote quite a bit for TSTT today, which is so fun. I am feeling so positive and thought to show yall some scenes from chapter four.

One of the biggest things is childhood and these are a few of the options.

YOUR CHILDHOOD.

- You were a troublemaker when you were younger. Often getting in trouble at school and home, but you mellowed out as you got older and left home.
- You were a kind $kid growing up. You hardly got in trouble and the sweetest child. You aren't as kind as you were when you were a child, since you left home, but you're still respectful and nice.
- You were a naïve $kid growing up and at times, people still see you as naïve. You were extremely kind as a child, which led you to sometimes get into trouble with others. You aren't as naïve, but you have your moments.
- You were and still a smart $person. You had top grades in school, never caused trouble, and had massive academic achievements. Said achievements that mean little since you left home.
- You were an energetic and popular $kid. Everyone would flock to you and love to be around you. You aren't as popular as you were growing up, but people still seem to just love you.
- You were a quiet $kid. A loner. You preferred being by yourself. You aren't as isolated as you were as a child, but you still like being by yourself.

This is also important for Chapter Six with MCs father.

And another part is a fun snippet of Dante talking about his past.

"With a neglectful mother, who hated her kids." He pushes off the counter, placing his hands against the couch. You couldn't imagine the pain he must've felt—bloodhounds were once human. "And I was a loner. <<if ($mcchildhood is "Loner")>> Like you, but better." He winks,<<else>> Unlike you, I had it rough." He winks,<</if>> pushing off the couch and walking around it. He sits down on the couch. "Until i got a brother. The man you saw with red eyes, the one I "killed". He makes air quotes with his fingers with the word 'kill'.

He's so silly

POSSIBLE CHAPTER RELEASE DATES

Aug 20, 2024

Hi Loves,

Okay, so I'm averaging about 2 months per chapter, and imma roll with that for the rest of the year.

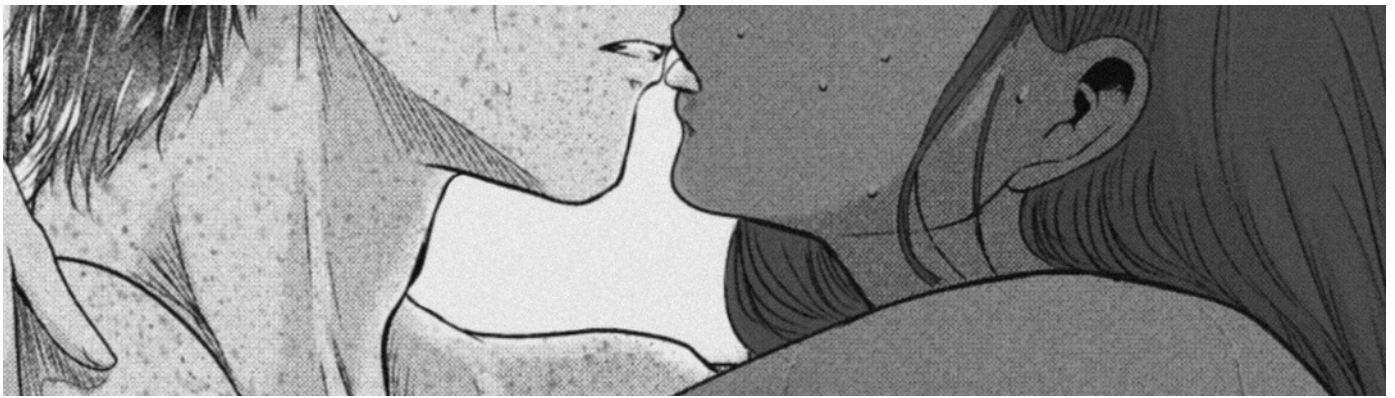

CHAPTER FOUR: MID SEPT

CHAPTER FIVE: MID OCT

CHAPTER SIX: MID DEC

Chapter Six is going to take the longest time cause it has so many action scenes, it's not even funny. With these visuals, I'll aim for the public release in January. Which will give beta testers time to look over it, and be to go back and add in features in certain spots, which will be easy.

Hopefully, begging that I get chapter four done earlier and chapter five, but who knows. This is what I hope for.

Aug 27, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

Did I forget to post yesterday? Yes. Was it because I was playing restaurant tycoon on roblox? Also yes. But that's not the point. But y'all get two posts today, cause I'm awesome and productive and doing this while in my ENGL class.

Last week I posted a fic of Armadillo, which has been a long time since I wrote casually cause TSTT is taking up so much of my time. But I have written a lot and fixed a few errors, one of them being stats, which I've changed. Idk how I feel about the stat bar tho. I might separate platonic and romantic. Also alternated Dante's likes and dislikes and require you to actually ask and figure them out, which will help relationships. I have a few scenes with Dante and crushes.

Also deciding which actions will have a lot of impact on relationships. More chances to decide if you're crushing on Dante, and more scenes about the Warden and the Dragon. Also done a lot of editing that I'll have to do with the features giving, which is gonna be stressful, but I'm excited to get the minor details out the way, before the public release.

This week is packed with school stuff and TSTT as always. I'm balancing my school out, and I have a good sleep schedule, but I'm having to decide to limit my tumblr and discord interactions cause I'm so busy. Anyways, thank you for the support, and to the new members, hi, I see you, welcome, I hope you stay <3.

Love,

Ciel

WEEKLY OVERVIEW: SEPTEMBER 2ND 2024

Sep 2, 2024

It is a new month!! September, how fun is that!

PROS AND CONS OF AUGUST:

It was a good month! I posted the Chapter 3 Demo, Began Chapter Four, Artwork of The Dragon, Rendering stages of Angel and Armadillo Art, and revamped my Kofi!

A pretty successful month!! I'm proud of myself!

PLANS FOR SEPTEMBER:

My Beta readers have gone over Chapter Three, so now I had to go through and edit it but I want to wait until I get chapters four, five, and six down.

The outline for Chapter Four is completed, and most of the dialogue is complete. I plan to finish flushing out the scenes, which have been difficult to write because school has given me so much work. I had so many assignments this weekend—it's crazy—like back-to-back. Hopefully, I can finish Chapter Four this month, in late September.

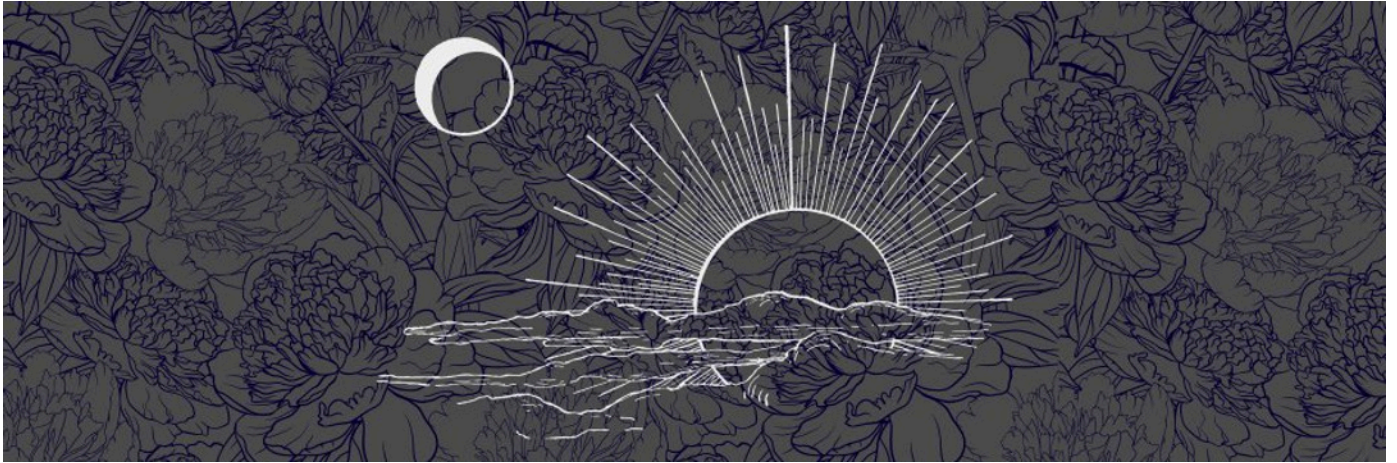

TSTT has taken up so much of my time, which is why I'm hoping next year, I'll be able to alternate between updates of TSTT and NBD, and possibly project Z, but I wanna write half of it before I post it publically.

I want to thank you for all the support. Thank you for having patience with me for giving feedback, and for interaction. It released a world to me and I really want to do right by you so thank you.

Love,

Ciel

TSTT: CHAPTER REWRITES

Sep 4, 2024

Was I supposed to post yesterday? Yes. Don't worry about it. Just know him here and with good news. Production for Chapter Four, which I was worried about before, has been on a roll and I've been so productive since yesterday and today.

I was stressed about not being able to finish before September, but those worries are easing as I'm actually happy with all that's happening.

So here's a lil sneak peek for it.

"I dont like how you reacted when i said i wanted to be alone."

"I literally said i was being shitty."

"Do //you// that!? Do you reall!y?"

"What do you want?"

"A sorry!? How damn old are you."

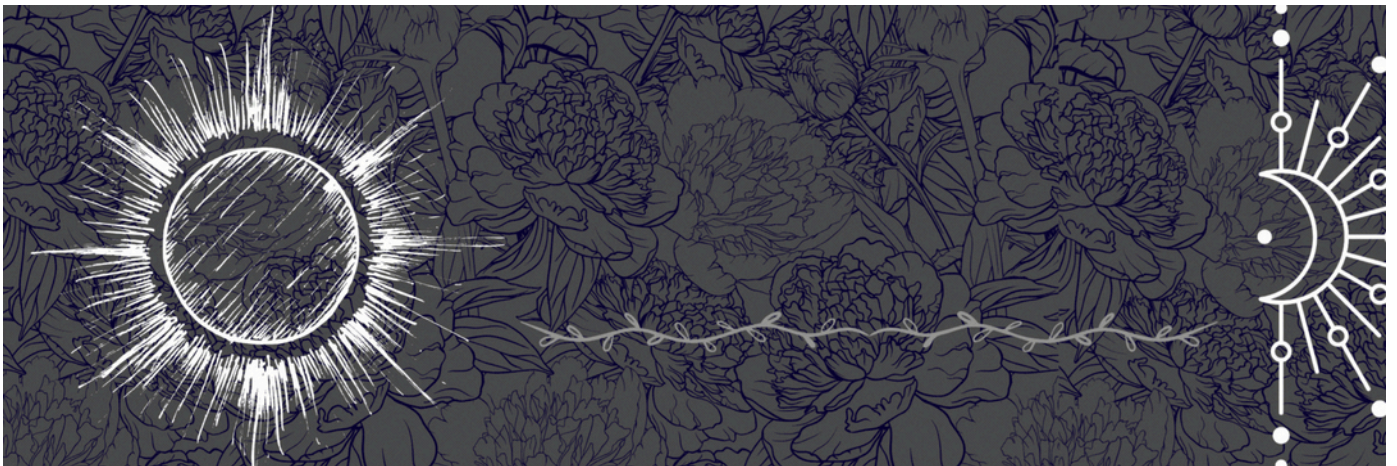

Silence settles over you both and the demon holds his hands up with a sigh. "I am sorry."

"For?"

He gives you a glare, before crossing his arms. "For reacting badly. I shouldnt have."

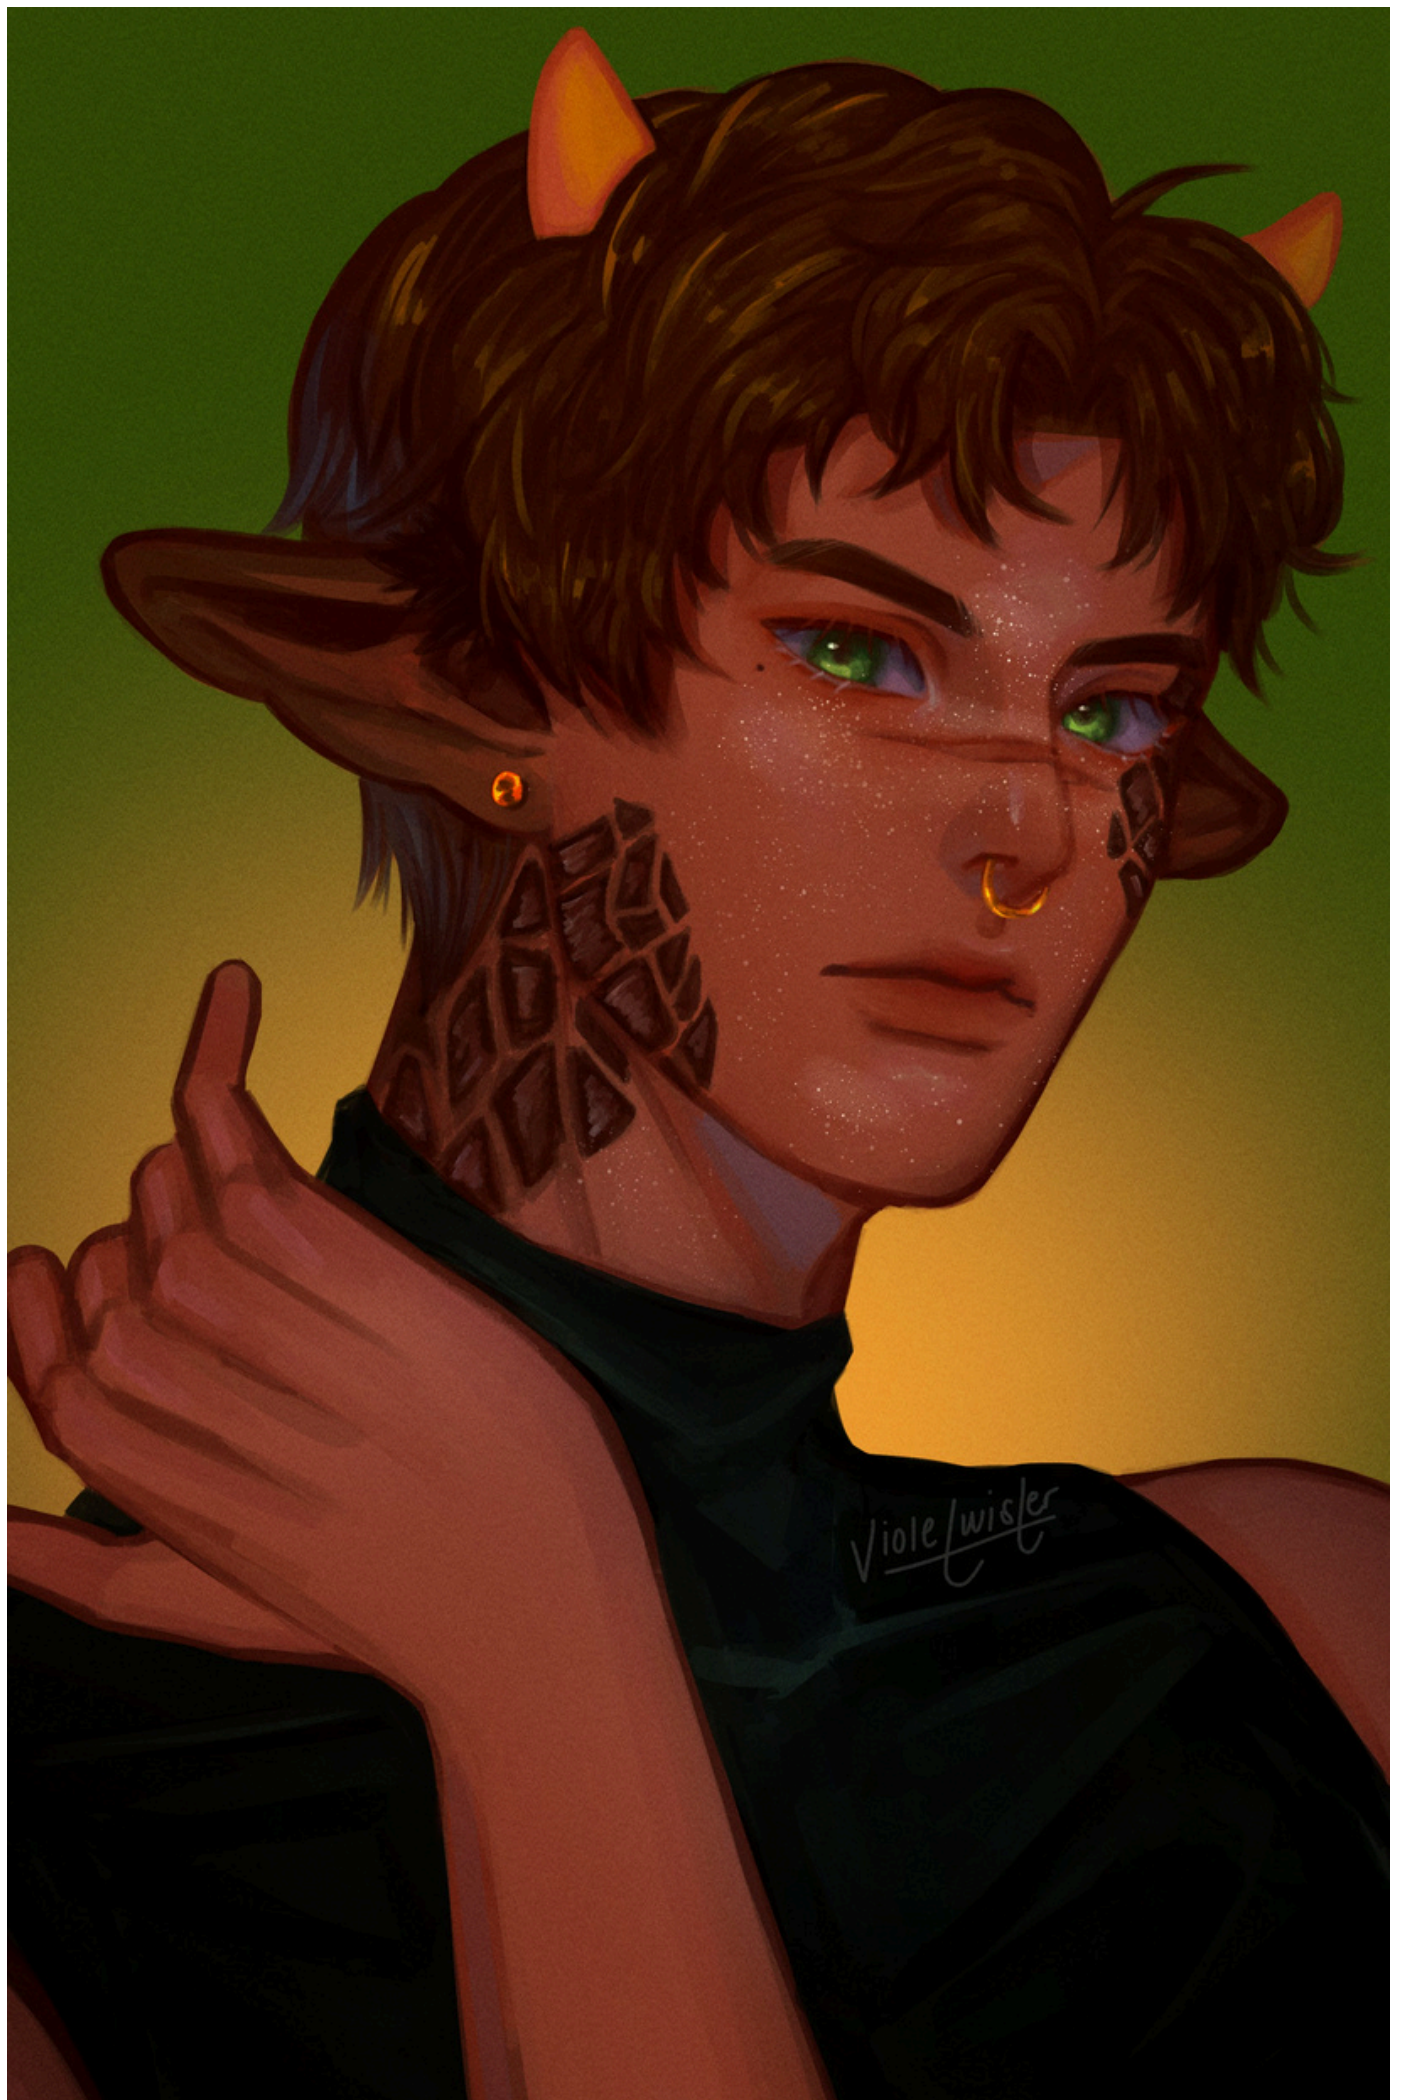

"Was that so hard?"/"Thank you for apologizing."

A possible argument scene with Dante~ his obedience foreshadows something later on for more angst

Hi! Lovelies,

It has been a productive weekend. Originally, I was going to wait, but then I thought, Nah. Let me share my WIP, which is audio for the TSTT Title Screen. I plan to make a few BGM for the profiles, and directory, and I can use SFX for my action scenes and possibly my NSFW (joking but imagine).

WEEKLY UPDATE: SEPTEMBER 09TH 2024

Sep 9, 2024

Hi, Lovelies.

It is another week!! And I was super productive!! I posted official art of The Armadillo and that was fun. The angel is in the final final stages so hopefully I'll have her. sometime next week! And then i'll share that as well, which is super exciting because then i'll have all the visuals for them done. Ro at the moment is not getting one. I decided I was going to keep him a surprise.

I've been working on it a lot on audio for TSTT and shared a clip of that this weekend as well.

I haven't done a lot of writing, as I would like. But I've been focusing heavily on preparing everything for when I'm aiming to drop the TSTT in December.

So I've been working on updated characters, introductions, changing up the personality a bit, and their appearance. Most of my focus has been working on visuals.

And hopefully at some point post an FAQ which has been in the drafts for a hot minute.

And so this week, I plan to finish up some scenes. So, last week, I shared that I finished up Act 1. And I'm aiming towards finishing act 2 and 3 this week. And next week, I hope to finish Act 4, Act 5, and Act 6, which is actually super short.

Then I'll drop it and then dive immediately into rewriting chapter 5. Which I'm excited for. And I'm super excited for writing chapter six because that's going to be something y'all If you haven't read it yet, and that is so much is happening to us.

Im trying to be able to have October, November, and then they already have a December focused solely on chapter six. and getting everything fleshed out and then have the completed everything dropped in.

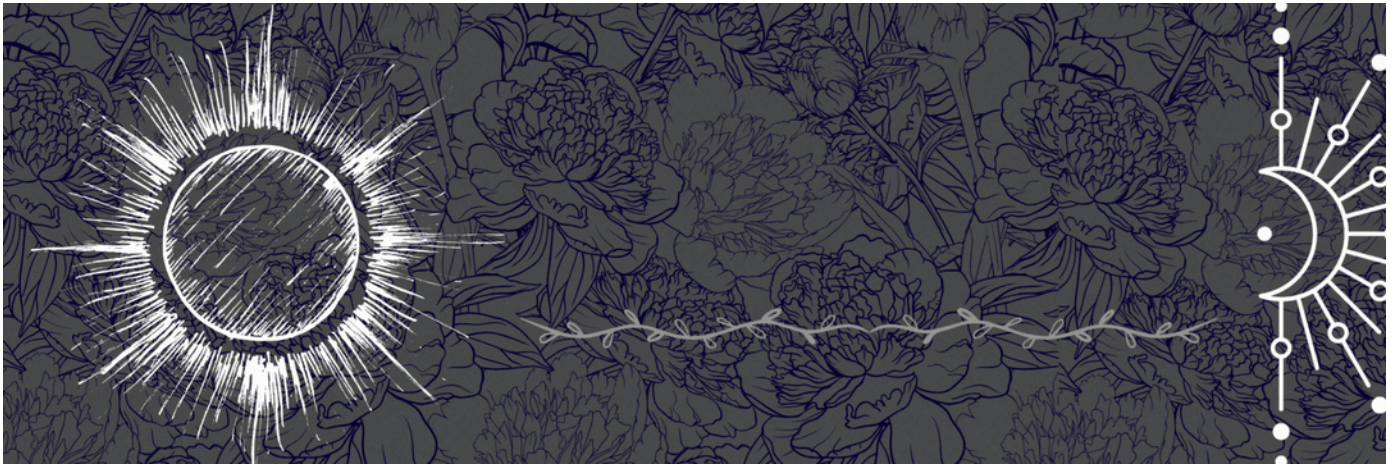

The end of December so I won't do it early release for chapter 6. So I just wanted to be a kind of a group surprise for the public as well And then I'm going to jump immediately, immediately into nine blood dances and pump out chapter two hopefully in January.

If I'm lucky, February. But I want to spend February working on I another one of my projects.

But anyway, that's kind of just a rough layout of where my mind's a Who knows next week this might change but I want to thank you as always for the support and the love.

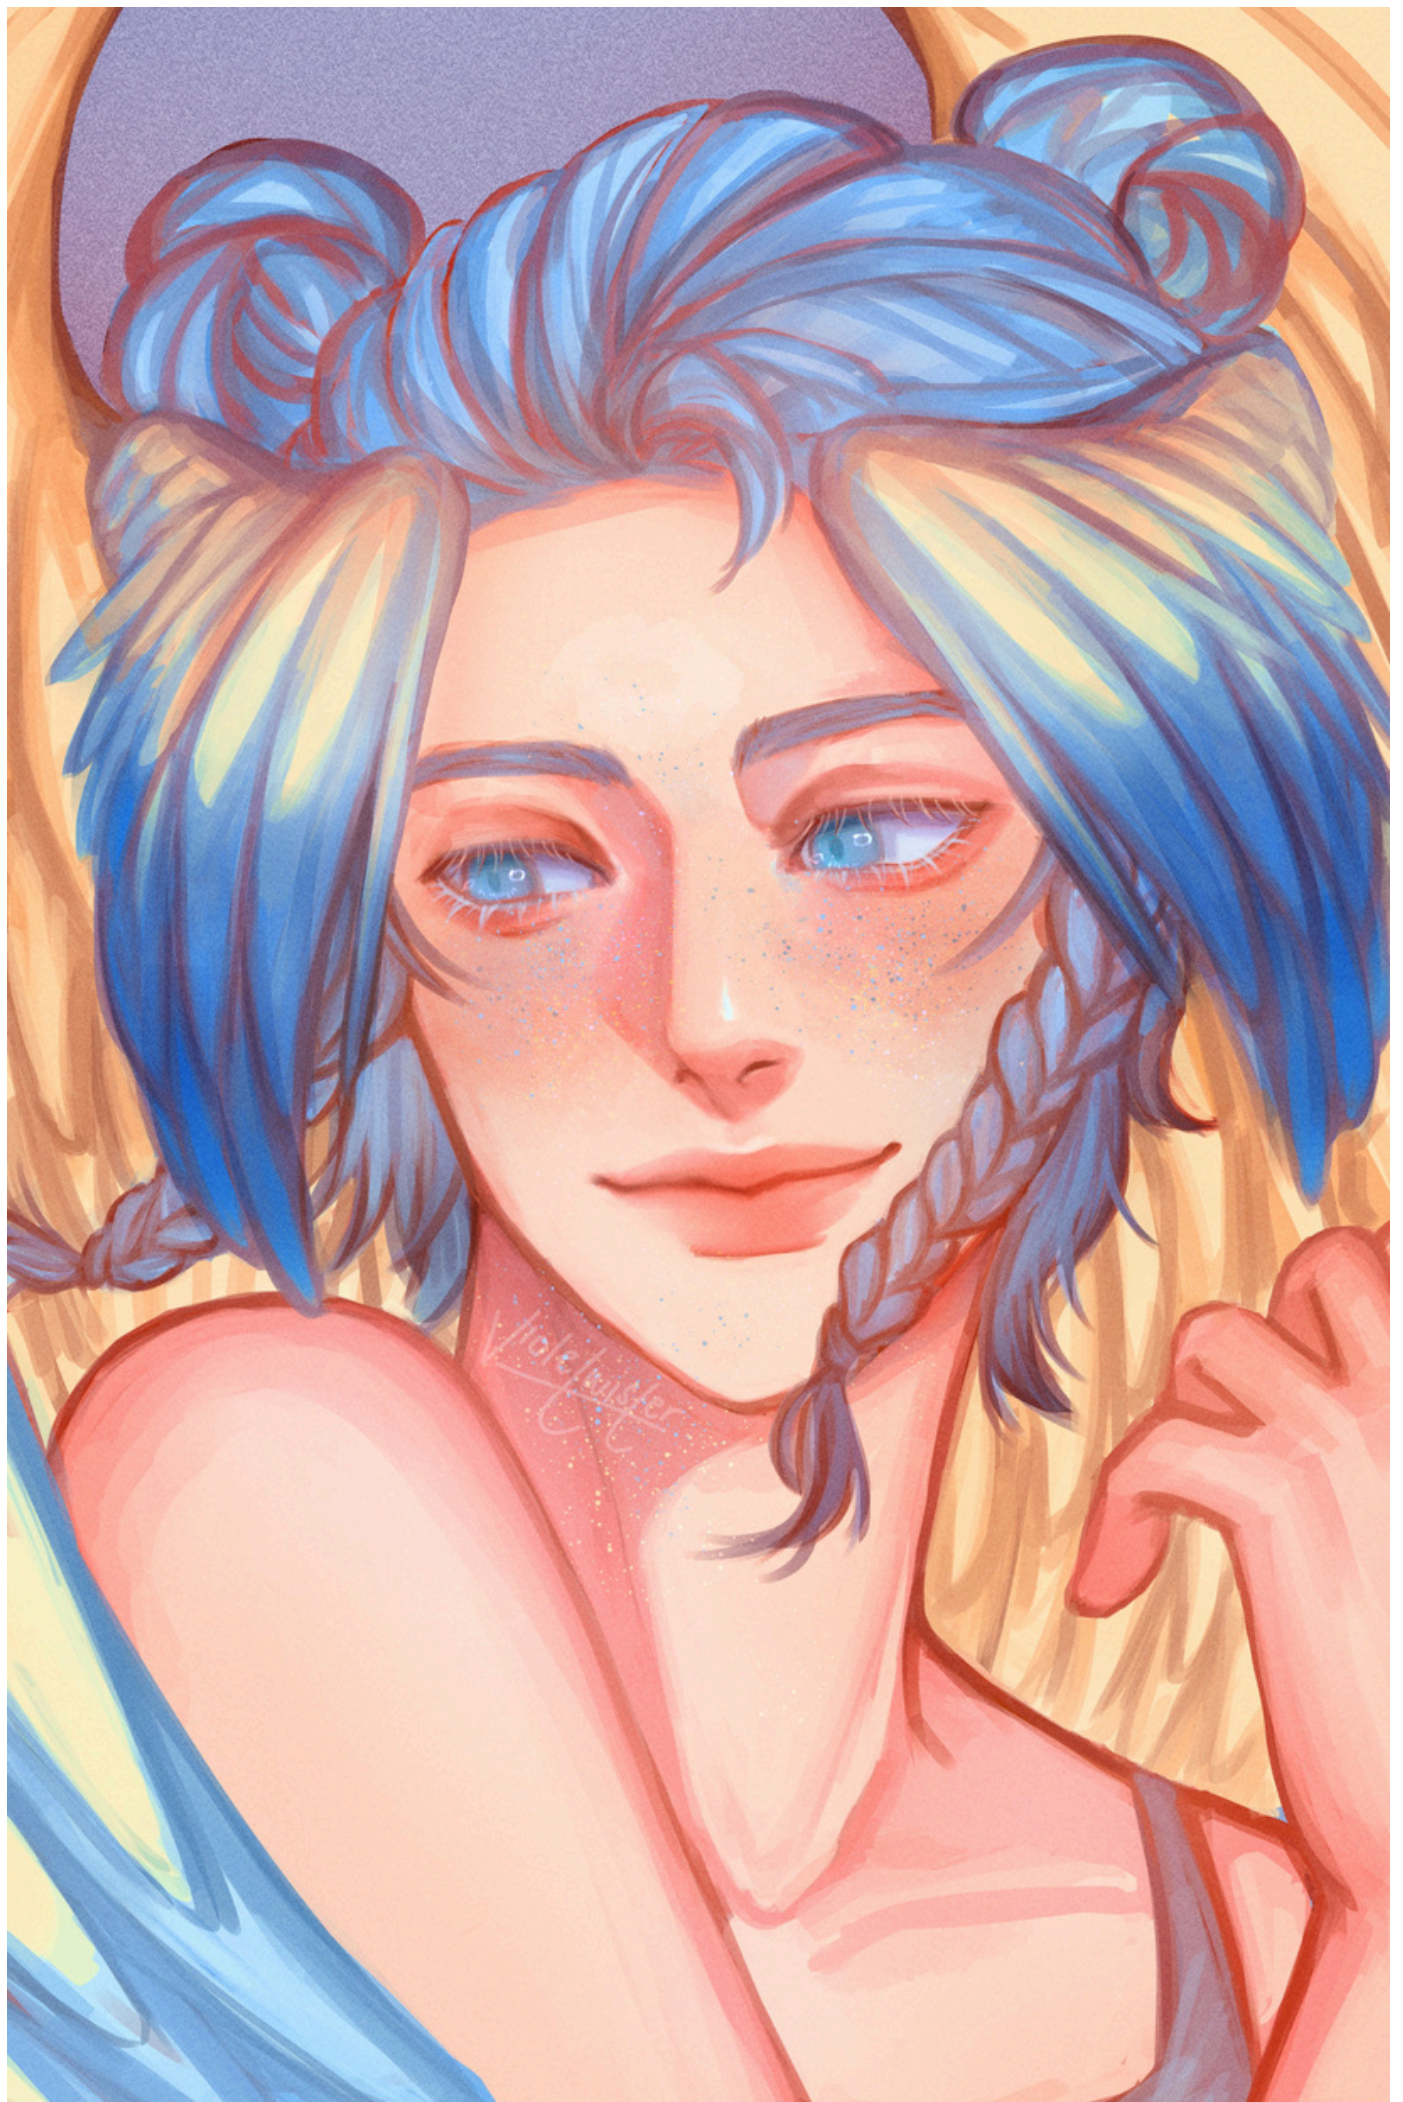

Love,

Ciel

WEEKLY UPDATE: SEPTEMBER 16TH, 2024

Sep 16, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

So, good news and bad news.

Good news being, I'm writing. I've been really productive with the characters. And I got a lot of writing done last week. Bad news. I did not finish Act 2.

And that's on me because I completely underestimated how much I had to do for Act 2 because it's a lot of new content. And so... That's on me me. I am busting my ass off to get this act done with acts 3 and 4, which should be easier because they're much shorter.

And all it is is just reworking some of the dialogue. Chapter 4, I'm not excited about, a lot of reworking cause a portion of it is from chapter five. What I'm seeing is that this is going to take me like this week and next to get it all done. Which I'm low-key mad about.

Act 6 and Act 5 are only one pages, and ya know what, funny thing that I just found out. I have a midterm tomorrow. Guess who didn't know until Thursday? I know. So it was crazy. I had it written down in my notes, but I've been studying for a midterm as well as trying to write.

And so that's been, that's been fun. I'm really trying not to have chapter 4 pushed to October because that's going to be so inconvenient for me to have another midterm in October as well for the same class. I know. Crazy. They want me dead.

So I could focus mainly in October is Chapter 5. But, I'm still writing, and so it's... Honestly, I'm grateful that it's more me trying to get content done and writing than it is being writer's block. So I'm grateful for that.

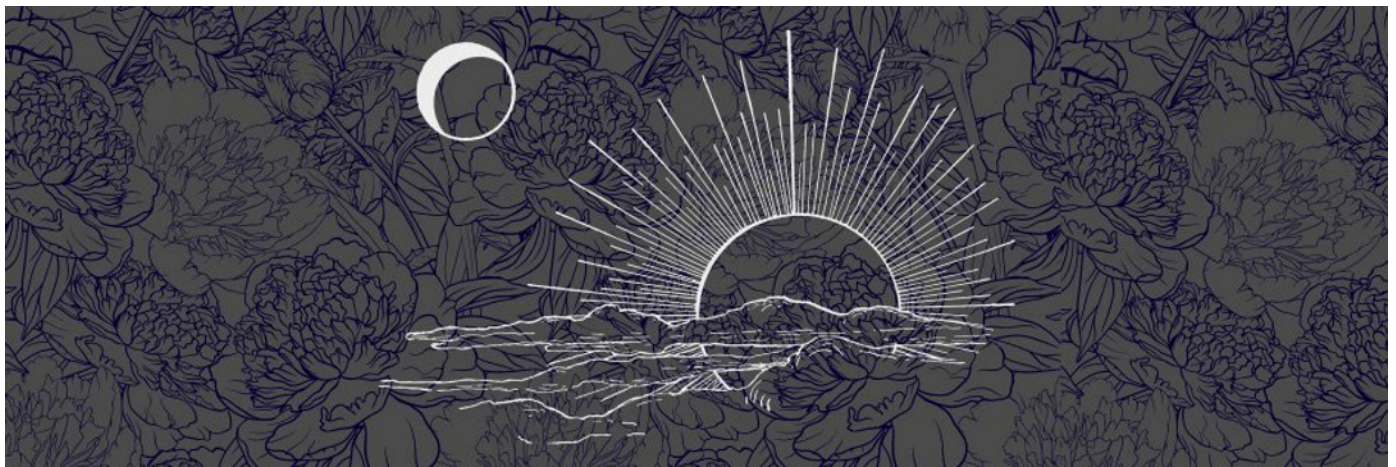

Tomorrow I'm posting more character stuff I have done. And then we'll share some more stuff for my higher tiers. I'm trying to figure out what to share tomorrow because I have no idea what I'm gonna share. I might even post nothing except little stuff and like maybe a sneak peek.

But anyways, as always, I'm thankful, I'm grateful for y'all's support while I'm going through this. And I pray for me guys. I have so much to do and I feel bad and I've not been posting on my ko-fi, so there's also been that so I'm gonna have to eventually get that up to date.

But as always, thank you for the support.

Love, Ciel

Guess who got it finished. I know, I know, thank you, thank you. But I also got Act Three finished as well. I'm behind schedule, but a win is a win and I will take my wins where I get em. So now I'm working on Act Four. While I do homework, cause y'all all I got ALOT this week.

But that's really it. This week is Act Four Central. And I'll weave in time to write out the last two acts and later talk about the demo drop.

But as always, thank you for the support.

TWO WEEK UPDATE: OCTOBER 07TH, 2024

Oct 7, 2024

Hello Lovelies,

It is officially October!! How exciting! As you all know, last week, I shared the demo of Chapter Four!! Which was so fun! My beta testers and I have been reviewing the chapters, looking into errors, and flushing out character traits! Which has been such a long process! I wanna thank y'all for being patient with me! I really couldn't do it without y'all!

This month and next, I'm focusing solely on Chapter Five, which is going to be a LONG chapter! I'm really pushing the options of interaction between this chapter and scenes. The first three acts is the entire length of Chapter Four! I know it's big(hehe)!

So, there's a lot of content. So it's definitely going to take some time, as I finish the outline! I've also taken time to slowly work on another project and I'll share more about it on Thursday and more information TMRW for TSTT.

Love,

- * ALL HEIGHTS - HELP HIM - PLACING HIS ARM OVER YOUR SHOULDER AND YOURS - AROUND HIS BACK SUPPORTING HIM.
- * 5'8 AND UP - PIGGY BACK RIDE - HE RELUNCANTLY HELPS YOU
- * ALL HEIGHTS - DONT HELP HIM

A lot of people have been wanting to help Dante and more action scenes, so I'm using the fact that we are indoors to really test myself!!

WIP PROJECT Z:

Oct 10, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

My wifi has been spotty all damn day! But I do wanna share a small update on this project, it's been going slowly, I've been tryna figure out the best way for character creation that keeps the reader engaged, and I decided to base it on events throughout your childhood with the RO, and y'all's wedding day.

"$mcname. You look beautiful." Your [husband/wife/spouse]'s sister, Annalise, casually mentions, taking in your appearance. You have a {body type} body, standing around [height] tall.

"And this color really compliments your [skincolor] skintone. A fine choice." Her voice is neutral and eyes blank as she stares, uncaringly touching your clothing. "What did i say about treating my love like a manicane." Your [husband/wife/spouse] mummurs playfully, gently pushing away her hands.

It's still a work in progress, but when I get a chance, I want to finish the prologue and share it.

Hi Lovelies,

So you might be asking, where have you been? Dead. Next Question. Joking. Last week, I wrote for two days and went on vacation for fall break. I'm starting to get in the groove, and I had no driving force to write, but I'm back on my grind!

There's no changes in what I plan to do, but I have begun planning for Chapter Six, cause why not be productive, so that's been a fun experience! The beginning of Chapter Five starts slow and builds up, and really laying the ground work, cause Chapter Six jumps straight into the action. Ultimately, I'm real excited and happy and pumped to write.

That's all I have for the moment, I'll share more information tomorrow for TSTT, so don't worry about it. Once again, Thank you for y'all patience with me <3

Hi Lovelies,

As I'm writing this, it's 1:30 in the morning, but I've been really productive. I've been so lazy for the past couple of weeks, and I know it doesn't seem like a lot, but I finished four pages of chapter five. So, I'm hoping later today, I can write a couple more. I'm really excited for these pages because it's you carrying/helping Dante.

So, it's a nice change to have Dante rely on the MC throughout the few acts. I'm really excited for Act Two and am aiming to finish Act One this week—maybe Wednesday. Part of why I'm posting so early is so I can focus later today on writing. That's all I really have planned for this week. As always, thank you for your patience and support.

Plans for this month are to finish at least Acts Two and Three, and start on Act Four. As we roll into December, I'll have so much free time after my university finals. I also want to work on the TSTT: Holidays IF and finish up Wardens and Ro's stories, little by little.

I'm slowly clawing my way through the NSFW scene of Act Two, which, my friends, is quite spicy~. I'm really proud of myself and might even finish Act Two this week or next and start writing a bit of Act Three.

Then, we'll take a dark turn into Act Four—which I am quite excited for. rubs hands together mischievously Tomorrow, I'm going to share a snippet of Act Two, so hold onto your britches!

Anyway, that's it—a small update for this week. As always, I want to give a big thank you to all of you.

Dec 2, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

A New Month! The same damn story. I am in the final stretch with Finals being quite literally next week so I fs need to lock in! But I am super duper excited for the little writing cause we are delving into action scenes. And I love a good action scenes and Dante demonstrating his strength.

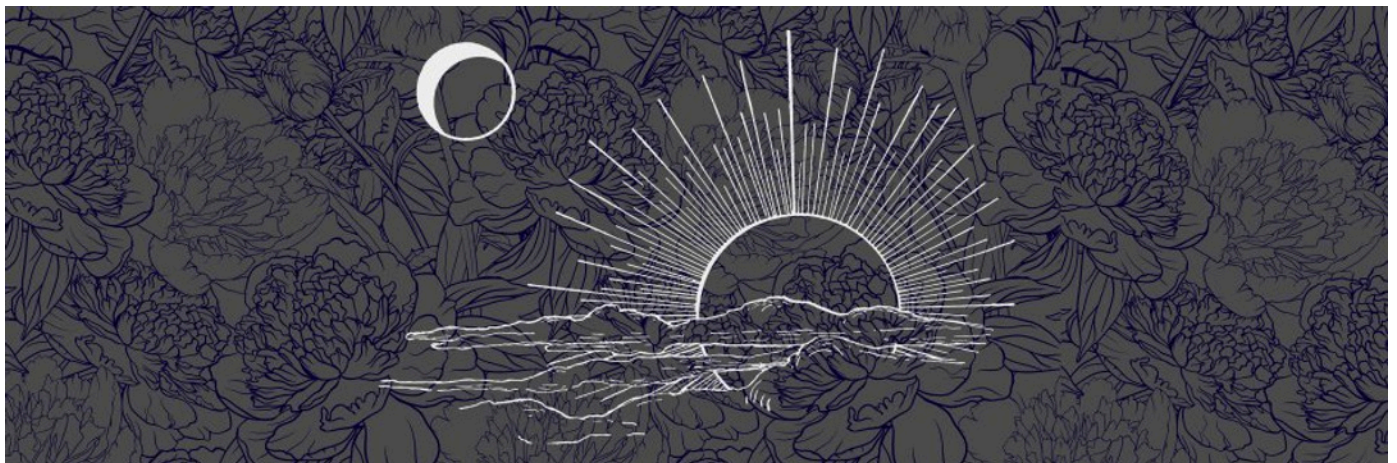

I hope y'all had a good holidays last week, I fs did and got some writing finished. Hoping to finally finish Act 3, since there are less different action scenes! So, I'm excited!!

As always, I wanna say a big thank you to yall. You're genuinely are the best, and thank you for having patience as I slowly work my way through TSTT!! Cause I am slow. (Fighting for my life)

But after finals, I'm free and hopefully drop Chapter Three, acts 1 - 3.

Love,

C

Hi Lovelies,

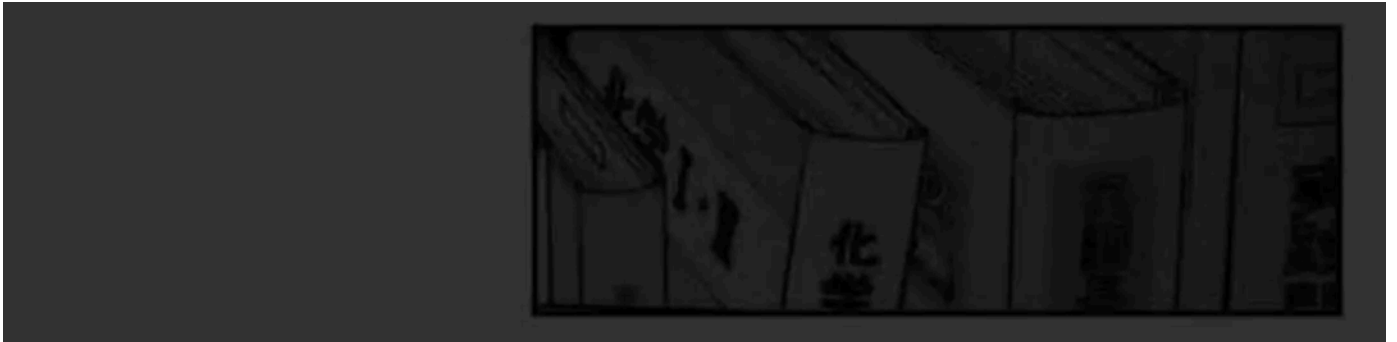

Wait, before you say something, i had an excuse. I was putting that educational work in and able to present you with this.

He isn't looking at you, his eyes moving across the building rooftops, then to you. Gold eyes land on your face. The air in your lungs leaves you, catching you by surprise. If he notices, he doesn't show it. You had never seen his eyes so close, and you could make out the smallest hints of red.

I love write up-close moments. There are a few changes I made for Act 3. Which is, giving you to options how Dante carries you, cause realistically, the others were extremely unsafe and two, who tryna write all that.

Maybe down the line, I'll give alternatives, but for today, you'll get to pick between two options. Which arent inherently romantic, unless you have a crush. Ive been tryna really focus on the option of being strictly platonic for scenes with Dante. Aka. Im fighting for my life.

Hi Lovelies,

Amazing news! I have finished Act Three. Which I am so grateful for, cause the rest of the Acts will be a BREEEEEZEEEEEEEE. Trust. I'm so excited to be finished with Chapter Five and take on the monster which is Chapter Six.

There are no major changes, but I have lots and lots of free time!! Which is great! Aiming to get Act Four done this week. Fingers crossed. As always, I wanna say a big thank you to yall. You're genuinely the best, and thank you for having patience.

Dec 23, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

A couple of days before Christmas! How excited! A Happy Holidays to everyone, even those who don't celebrate! I hope December has been an awesome month for you all!! So, my loves, I have good and bad news. Bad News first. I'm still writing Act Four. Ugh, tryna get through the boring part. It's rough. Good News, I'm working on more TSTT projects and planning things out. Don't worry, this won't take time away from the IF. A lot of lore-related projects! So that's always fun!

This week. I plan to post a couple things for my free members and patreon members with more behind-the-scenes scenes! Haha. Anyway, as always. Thank you for your patience and support!

Hi Lovelies,

Chapter Five has been Dante central and y'all should enjoy it cause y'all won't be seeing him for a hot minute after Chapter Six, Seven, Eight, and Nine. Prepare yourself now to be Dante depraved, but bask in Warden and Dragon.

I'm beginning the outline for Chapter Six, and here's a scene from it with Warden. (will be rewritten and have more to it.)

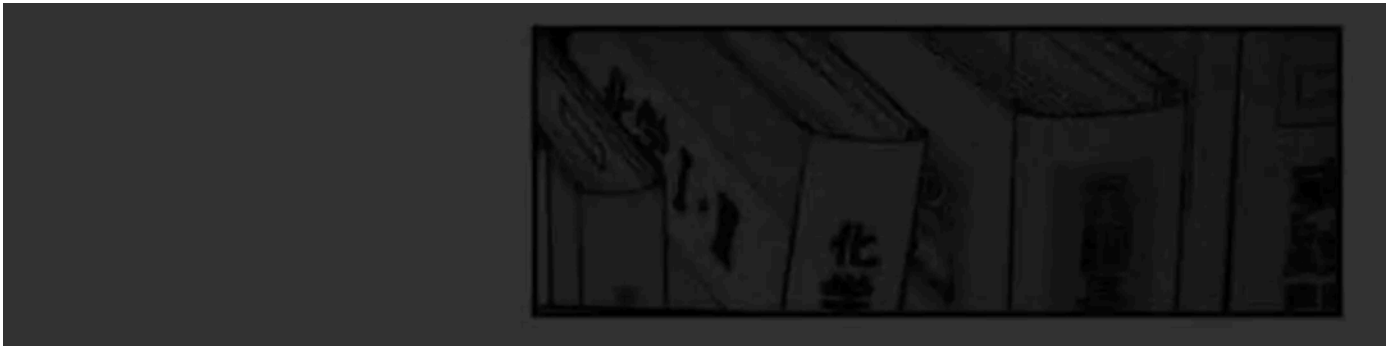

An outline of a man towers over your crumpled form, letting out a somewhat sigh, before stepping forward. You don't fight against him, not having the strength as he lifts you, cradle carrying you. The pain seems gone, ice creeping over the large gash and numbing it.

Giving you the perfect view of him. He wears a polished black helmet, similar to a great helm mask, dressed in an all-black suit and tie, with black leather gloves. He feels your gaze, staring down at you with unmoving icy blue eyes.

Your breath gets caught in your throat.

A man. Whew. Love to see it. Im so excited for Chapter Six and so motivated!!

Hi Lovelies,

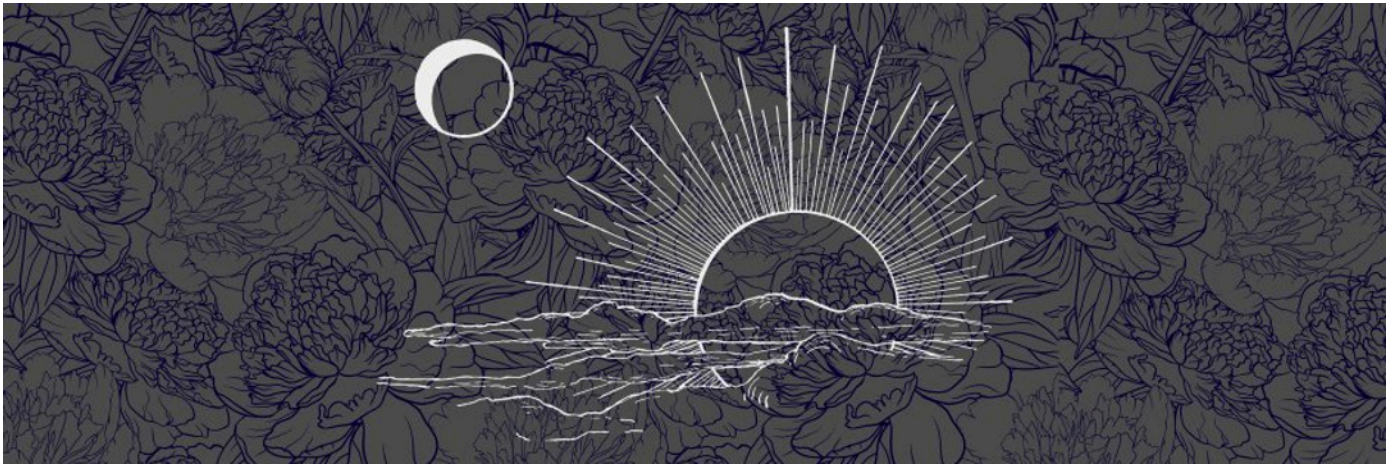

It is the last Monday of the year and so that's a little exciting and a little nerve-wracking and so I have a couple post plans for this week some good news is that I'm busting through chapter 5 and I'll for sure finish it this week and maybe if I'm if I'm real good I can post a little something something for the New Year along with the January Monthly Post and what I have planned and what will be doing and focusing on for this month.

Tomorrow, I have some TSTT stuff planned to share and get the last editing of Act 4 finish, so it's basically done. Then I'm super excited because Acts 5 and 6 are super short and I'll get through them soon and then I need to finish the rest of the layout for Chapter 6 and I'm looking to it.

I want to thank you as always for the support and patience. Thank you for being with me for the year yummy so much to me and y'all really make this worth writing.

TSTT: CHAPTER REWRITES

Dec 31, 2024

Hi Lovelies,

The Last Tuesday of the year, it's crazy. Happy New Year's Eve. For the last day, I decided to do something different and share a more serious/horror-esque scene in Chapter Five. I focus a lot more on sharing the romance scenes, but I really enjoy my horror scenes and just hadd to share.

Content Warning: Blood/Death/Etc

Naturally, you step back, bumping into something heavy that pushes away but swings back into you. Cold against your skin. It creaks. You slowly turn around, holding out your light. It's the hanging body of a man. It was Governor Marcus. With matching red curls and rolled-back eyes, his tongue peeking past his pale lips, with a brown rope wrapped tightly around his broken neck. The ends of his hands look bruised and purple, frost covering his arms and legs. But no bite marks nor claw marks. You wonder if it's self-inflicted. You hear a breath, a deep guttural breath, and something in the corner of your eye.

With this rewrite, I've been trying to get better at writing dread and fear. Then just the scene. Tryna build up that atmosphere. Which is a new challenge I'm having fun with!!

YEARLY PLANS: 2025

January 1

Hi Lovelies,

Happy New Years!!! A New Year, a new day for working on existing projects! This year, I have a lot planned and a lot of time to do it and I plan to put that work in! Trust. Last Year, was a slight setback, but a good setback. I hadn't planned to rewrite all of TSTT, but considering everything, I think I did pretty good with Four and a half Complete Chapters! It makes me hopeful!

••~•• ~••••• ••~••

THE SIX THAT THRIVE:

GOALS: Finish Chapters 5 and 6 and release them. Release the FAQ, and update the Tumblr blog post. I have plans for a mini-series detailing character backstories, but comes later! Release Chapter 7 and 8 if i am lucky.

NINE BLOOD DANCES:

GOALS: Finish Chapters 2 and 3 and release them. Release the FAQ. Outline Chapters 3 n 4.

PROJECT Z

GOALS: Finish the prologue and release a demo on Patreon n' Kofi. Outline Chapters 1 n 2.

DECIET'S CRESCENDO

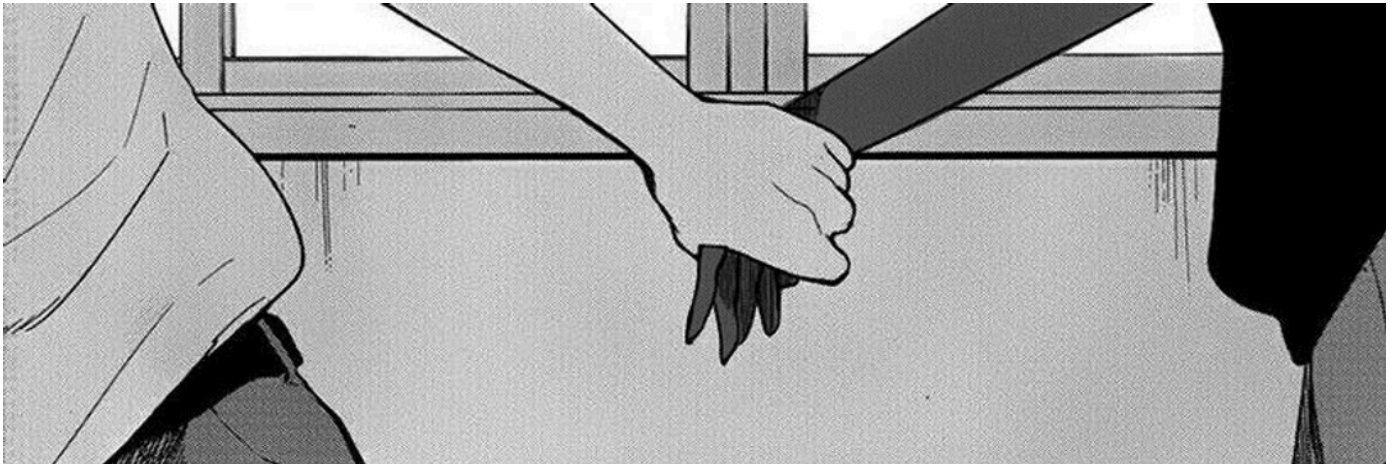

GOALS: Finish the prologue and chapter one and release a demo on Patreon n' Kofi. Outline Chapters 2 n 3.

••~•• ~••••• ••~••

A lot is planned, but with my speed, I believe in myself. Y'all are gonna get play-by-play throughout the year, so that makes me super duper excited. Especially to finally post publicly and consistently again. I miss it.

JANUARY MONTHLY PLANS:

January_1

Hi Lovelies,

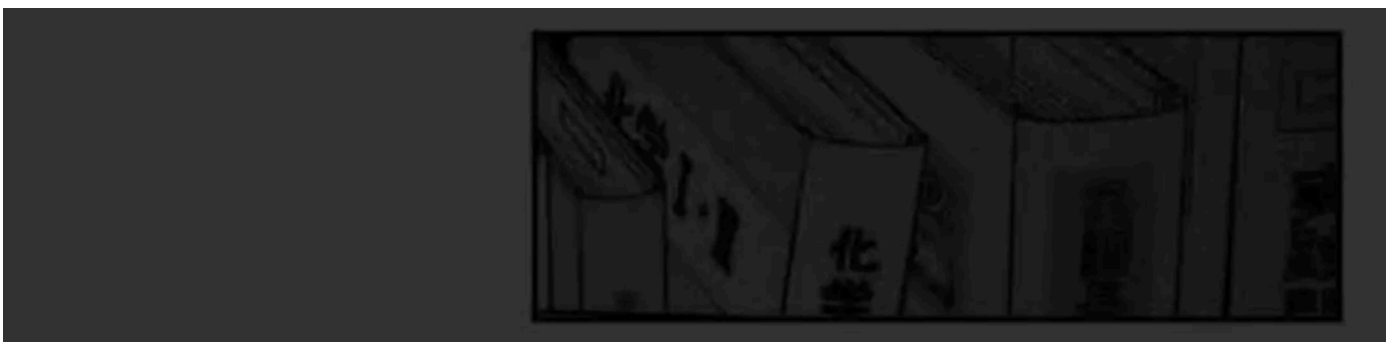

Two Posts in one day, I'm putting that work in! January and February are about to be intense months for me. I have so much to get done, but I am so so so excited! Especially with Chapter Six. Due to MC's Family getting a lot of backstory information revealed. Ready for this family to be happy again.

⋯ ⤵ . ○) ⋮ (○ . ⤴ ⋯

GOALS FOR JANUARY:

COMPLETE CHAPTER FIVE AND CHAPTER SIX, ACTS 1 – 3.

That's the main goal, I hope to get more done, but this is what I am aiming for at the moment. That's it honestly. Which shouldn't be too hard except the dialogue portions, which is probably the most time-consuming aspect.

Hi Lovelies,

The first update of the year and I share the grandness of news. Chapter Five has been completed as of today. Thank you, thank you. Hopefully, there are no errors with passageways, but I'm definitely double-checking and beginning the outline for Chapter Six.

And I'm going to admit. Chapter Five has definitely been my favorite chapter to write, especially Act Five and Four. But I also know I'm going to enjoy Chapter Six so much!! Especially the first acts of it. I am just so happy and excited for this year and things have been going amazingly. Thank you so much for the year y'all have given me. The support and belief. I am just filled with so much love for y'all. Thank you.

Several – Several New Scenes – A whole new fight scene too!

And a few old things, such as things you packed in chapter four, were fixed and shifted around. Realistically you don't have to go back and fix it cause it won't pose a problem in chapter five. A singular uncompleted solo nsfw scene.

Enjoy!!

“I don't want to die like this.”

Teehee. Can't you feel the love? The passion. The energy. Mwah Mwah. Ending Arc One – Ruled By the Demon to Arc Two – Ruled by the Warden. Kicking my feet, twirling my hair.

Hi Lovelies,

Late Tuesday Post.

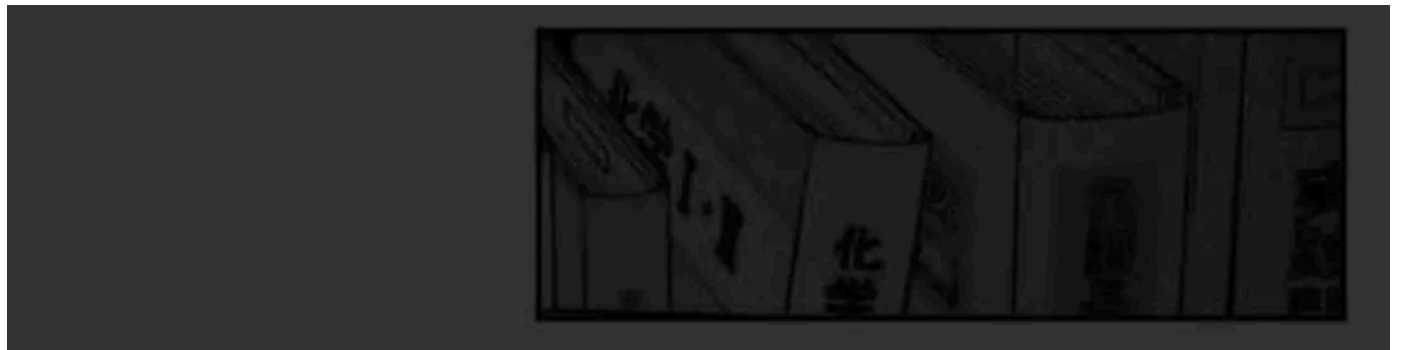

Had to do my hair today but I wanted to share a part of Chapter 6 - Act 1 because I enjoyed writing it.

You turn around slowly, and a random tunnel of light passes, lighting the darkness for a moment. You see his outline. The water rushes in as the dragon steps into the cart with you, closing the door behind him and relocking it. The water reaches your waist, its freezing against your skin. You can't swim. ♡ You step back.

Writing the M!Dragon has been fun I won't lie.

Hi Lovelies,

So, you might be asking. "Where were you last week?" And to answer your question, fighting for my life. School has started up again and I've somehow hit a wall. The ideas are flowing, the words are showing up when I type them so it's not writers block.

It's just that I low-key don't wanna write, but worry not. I'm taking care of myself and slowly working forward on Chapter Six, with all of Act 2 done with the latter half being a rough draft that I'll revamp thought this week. Plans this week, I'm hoping to finish Act 2 and get the entire Act 3 a rough draft done. Finish up this month's Q&A.

I wanna apologize for going ghost last week, but I'm back. Thank you for the support as always.

February 10

Hi Lovelies,

So, last week I didn't post, but for a good reason—I was doing a lot of writing. So much writing! It's been great. I also did a whole bunch of coding. Now TSTT is officially updated with the new updates from Twine and I did a lot of coding for mobile, laptops, and different screen sizes. Hopefully, everything works out!

Some great news: Act 2 is done! I finished it last week in just a couple of days. Act 3 is halfway done right now, and I'm adding some scenes that I'm really excited about. That means I'll definitely finish Act 4 and Act 5 this month, which is huge. Act 5 is the last act, so I'll be finished with Chapter 6, and that means it will be released in March, which I'm hoping for. I'll also be going back to fix earlier chapters and adding more unique characteristics and functions.

I'm super excited for that! I plan to share something tomorrow, and if I don't finish in March, it will definitely be done in April, but I'm hoping for March. It would also be great because if I finish this, I can start working on NBD for sure. If not, I'll save that for Wednesday, and I'll share what I get done then. As always, thank you for your support and love—I really appreciate y'all, and you're just amazing!

A part of you finds this embarrassing, but pain and exhaustion take over as your head rests against their shoulder. His shirt is soft. They walk forward, their strides long and controlled. They reach the other side of the cart; and the door opens swiftly, revealing nothing but a dark void. Cold air blasts against your face, and you shiver, tucking your chin into the collar of their coat. They step out of the train, landing softly on the ground. His soft movements make you tired, your eyes growing heavy. You don't fight it.

WEEKLY UPDATE: FEBRUARY 17TH, 2025

February 17

Hi Lovelies,

So, last week, Act 3 was finished, leaving Acts 4 and 5, and I am on track to finish Act 4 this week. No major plans, no major changes—just getting through Act 4 and Act 5, which is going to be such a big act, but not as big as Chapter 5. One of the biggest changes is that there's not a lot of MC getting to decide what's happening purposely, simply because of what is happening—you're more pushed along with the plot intentionally.

So, there's that. Hopefully, if I can get a break within my schedule, I can finish off both acts, and then we can spend the rest of February just doing revamps of everything. No big rewrite, nothing said before, but I'm really hopeful, really positive.

As always, I want to thank y'all for being super supportive, super positive, and so patient with me. Y'all are amazing, as always, as I work through this, and I'm so excited to finally post publicly—like, oh my goodness—and actually get a chance to work on commissions and Nine Blood Dances.

February 24

Hi Lovelies,

So last week, I planned to finish Act 4 and 5. I didn't. So, funny story—I got real sick last week, not super duper sick of it. I just have not been feeling the best these past couple of days and proceeded to hit a writing slump for the new acts. So instead, I've still been working—don't worry—but I focused on fixing up earlier chapters, which honestly isn't too bad.

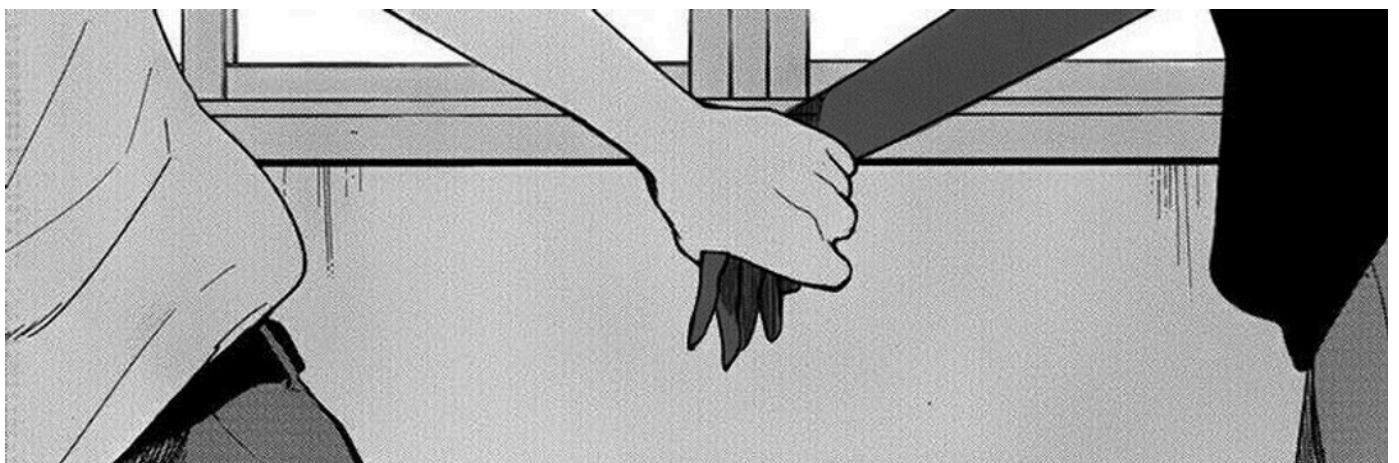

I'm still not feeling the best right now. I'm still feeling sick, but literally, this Friday is the last day of the month, and I'm so disappointed in myself. But honestly, it is what it is. I'm stressing myself out about this because I just really want to get it done. So, I'm hoping that by getting everything fixed up early, I can spend—I guess, very unfortunately —March still writing this damn thing. Luckily, I have some more free time because I'll have one less class, but who knows.

And so, I'll share some stuff tomorrow 'cause I said I would and just try to speed-run a couple of things. But honestly, that's all. I'm really happy with everything, so it kinda sucks. As always, I want to thank y'all for being so patient with me. Y'all are such a big help.

Lords, I'm speaking, trying to record this and make it text, and my throat is killing me. But I don't want to type anymore. I'm so tired of typing. So, as always, thank you for being such a big help. Y'all are amazing.

Love,

Hi Lovelies,

So a month of successes once again!!

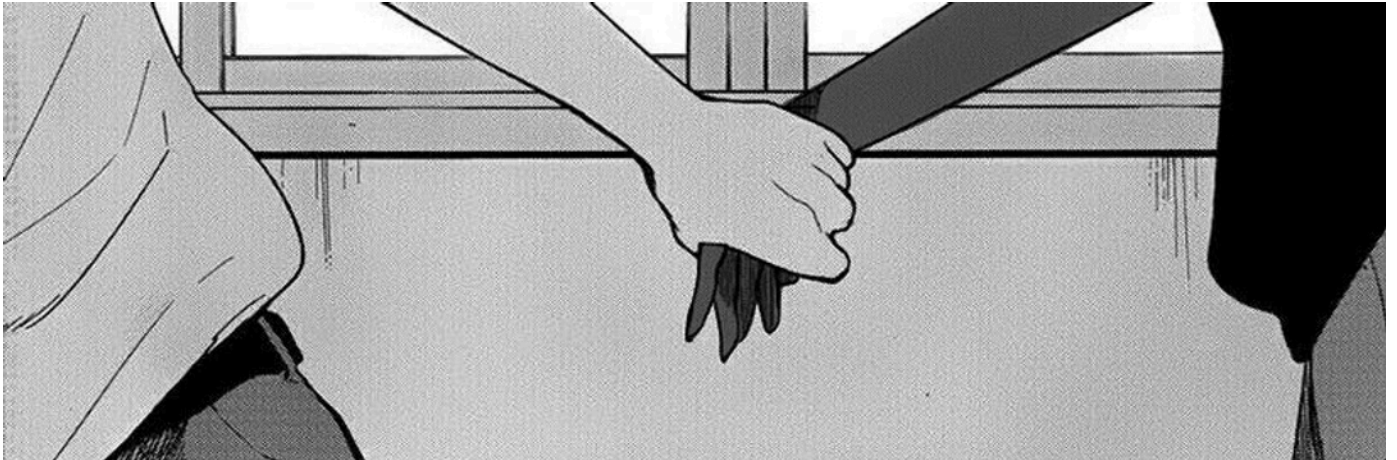

Act Two Completed and Act Three!! Only missed Act Four, which was a part of my goal, but that's okay. With NBD and commissions, I looked at them, wrote a word or two. But I've also been fixing up earlier chapters, which is really good.

I reached two of my goals, so that's amazing!! With how sick and in pain I've been, a win is a win.

I'm still quite proud and real excited for next month! Thank you for being on this journey with me. Y'all are really amazing!! And I'm officially 20! (Swear one of these days, my monthlys will be full of information and plans.)

A record I know. I wanted to give a tiny update cause I haven't posted in two weeks which is unlike me, but I also didn't wanna post anything when I had no developments, which will change next week, especially because I will have a lot of free time for the next two weeks.

WEEKLY UPDATE: MARCH 24TH, 2025

March 24

Hi Lovelies,

So, how y'all been?

I have been acting up for the last two weeks and not writing, in my defense, I had homework. I finally got a long break and a chance to write less, cause i was writing so much and writers block hit me like a train. I am happy to say that we have once act left. An act n a half but anyways.

My work has been slightly divided because I am learning a whole new system for editing to make it easier and faster. I'm completely confused with that and long story short fighting for my life, but yall know that.

Hopefully, I'll finish act for a completely this week and I promise myself that I finally take a chance to work on commissions because our girl (me) was lacking, so I'm going to do that as well.

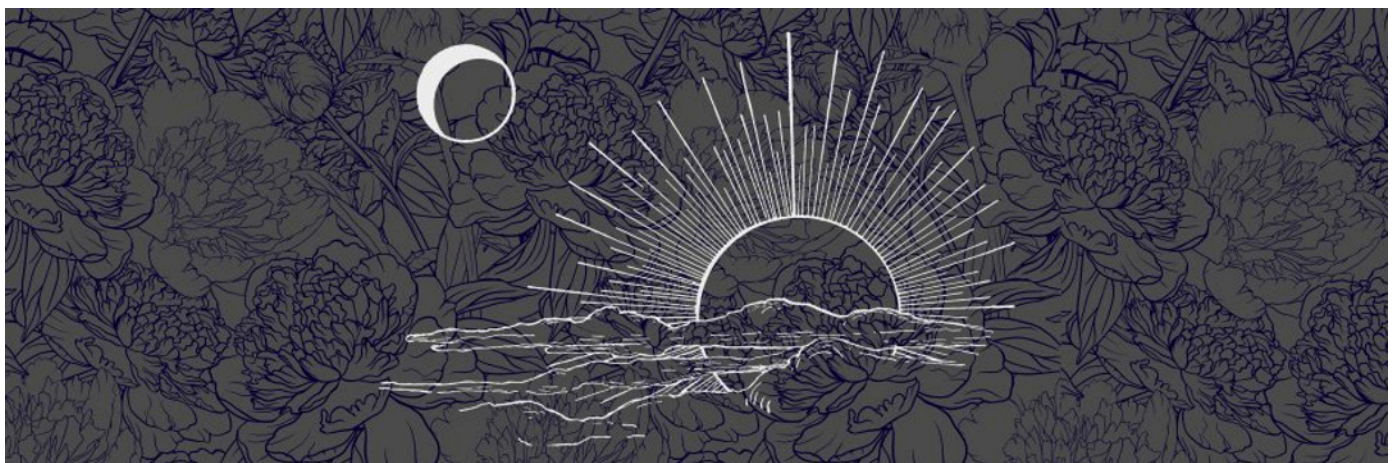

I will actually post tomorrow and share some more indepth stuff and more of my thought process when it comes to Chapter 6. I don't dislike it but I can tell that I'm rushing. It is not my best work but I'll fix it when I do revisions in April. And take a break from TSTT for a two month to work on NBD and other IFs. (I know who I am, NBD is gonna take a month and I'll be back in this prison)

As always as always cuz y'all been so patient with me this month. I want to thank you because a girl has been late and I hoping to be interactive on Patreon and Kofi, if not on Tumblr than here with y'all. Okay so thank you so much! Bye!!

Love,

P.S. If you see any errors, no you didnt.

March 26

Hey Lovelies,

So it's Wednesday. You might be asking, "Ciel, where the hell were you yesterday?"... In my defense, I have no defense, but I come with good news. The rough drafts of Act 4 is completely done, which means all that left is for me to finish flushing out the scenes but how is basically done. And act 5 is super short, I'm so excited that means for certain that Chapter 6 will be done this month meaning we can spend next month editing. Yay! Then I can do a do a public release.

Here's a short spoiler scene!

The cause for all of this. The reason that you're here, the reason you have a bond with a demon, a cut on your stomach, nearly drowned, nearly crushed to death, nearly eaten. All for a cure that no one can make or find. Your body feels heavy, and you can feel a headache forming. A part of you is angry that all of this is happening to you simply because your father couldn't let it go—couldn't accept that you were dying.

Your father shifts, facing you, placing a hand on your knee. "I was desperate—" You try to pull away; he doesn't let you, shaking his head desperately. "I didn't know I had the sickness—I didn't know it ran in my family." He pauses, watching your face. He's being honest. You relax slightly, and his shoulders slump.

Love,

C

P.S. If you see errors, no you dont.

I will begin planning out set time frames for the public release.

April 14

Hi Lovelies,

Oh my goodness. I've been fighting for my life all last week. I was supposed to post, but so much happened—it's honestly not even funny. Right now, I'm doing a lot of volunteer work and my classes, so I've been all over the damn place. It's currently 9:00 PM, and I just remembered, "Wait, let me update you," because If i don't, I wont.

So! Chapter 6 is done, and Arc One is officially complete! Yay Yay! The goal is to finish editing by the 20th, which might be doable. The biggest thing on my plate right now is editing—just going through the messy words and trying to clean things up. I'm not sure I'll get everything perfect, but it is what it is at this point.

Originally, I was going to do a full rewrite and add in more personal character traits, but I decided against it and I'll save it for the final rewrite. I'm using a whole new program (which I'm still learning), so right now, I'm focusing on just fixing the messy parts.

Chapter 3 has been edited, and Chapter 2 is almost done. The most annoying part is having to write scenes I didn't write, but I'm pushing through. Ideally, I want to finish editing this week or next so I can spend all of May prepping for the release. Once I'm done editing, I'll hand everything over to my beta readers so they can give it one more look. After that, I'll make any final changes as quickly as I can.

Then comes May. School ends, and I'll finally have some breathing room. I also have a trip planned—I'll be international, so I won't be posting that week. But honestly, I barely post anyway, so... y'all already know.

The plan is: finish all the chapters, prep for the public release, which will probably be at the end of May while I'm abroad.

Thank you so much for your patience and for sticking with me. I'm a hot mess right now doing way too much. It's all good stuff, but writing has definitely taken a back seat—and I'm a little sad about that. Hoping that once summer hits, I'll finally have the time to dive back in fully.

Just hit the writer's block and man, it's rough out here. I think especially with taking a break with TSTT until it's released and having to redo all the coding for Nine Blood Dances (I'm so sad about it) But I've been able to drabble some of the first scenes for the prologue. Trying to figure out customization for MC and I way to do it that isn't so repetitive.

Still on the fence if I even like this scene.

You feel [her/his/their] fingers squeeze your biceps, their lips pressing into the side of your face, then your ear until you smile. Asking you to sleep well as they leave for the day. Blankets soft and heavy, draping over your [mc body type] form, your head sinking further into the plush pillows, a muffled 'mhm' or 'bye' leaving your [mc lip type] lips. [She/He/They] chuckle in response, the bed dipping as [they] move. You hear [their] steps, but your eyes do not open. You're warm. Smelling [lover's scent] satin sheets, her/his/their smell for as long as you can remember. Their bed is your bed. Their home is your home. What hers is yours.

Also, you ain't hear it from me. But I do have another project in the works, but I won't talk about it fully until the prologue is done because it has a lot of visuals and a new layout.

Hi Lovelies,

For the past few months, I've been coming up with new ways to share lore outside TSTT IF and as a huge fan of Analog Horror, I decided to share my progress with what I have so far. My goal is to have videos for all of the love interests and decided to start with Dante because yeah. This doesn't have major lore drops, but I want it to have hints to the story.

This is a WIP.

END OF THE MONTH: MAY

June 1

Hi Lovelies,

Hey. Heeyyyyy.

I know. I know yall. Throw your tomatoes, i know shame on me. I was supposed to release the story this month, but I got super self-conscious about it, so I've just been rewriting and rewriting and going through it a couple of times. I'm still not satisfied, but atp, it's a rough draft and I'll get better as i write TSTT, not in a week. But I did do a couple changes with better coding and some housekeeping. With a set date for TSTT in June. That will not be changed or pushed back for anything! So, thank you for being with me while I speed-run through six chapters.

Love,

C

Hi Lovelies,

So, Chapters 1 – 6 of The Six That Thrive has been posted! Aswell as the YouTube video as of yesterday! So, you may ask, what's next? A nap! Lol!

This week, editing of TSTT will continue and I plan to start a rough draft outline for chapter seven of TSTT and working on a few pages of NBD. Editing a lot of chapters zero and one. So, writing rotation is starting up this month! Which is super exciting!

I'm happy to get back to NBD and finish up chapter two and switch between the two stories and commissions here and there, which i decided to remove from Patreon Tiers, due to how busy I am. Those who do have a commission already will still be worked on of course. I am aiming to get a lot done for the rest of this month, because next month, i will be out of the country for four weeks. I want to thank all of yall for standing by me and sticking with me.

Love,

Hi Lovelies,

Since the release of Chapters One - Six, it only seems right to start a tough rough rough draft of Chapter Seven, while I'm out and about, save all the coding for later!! I'm super excited for Chapter Seven because we'll be seeing District Six from a different perspective for the first time!!

A rough draft of an opening scene of Chapter Seven:

Your eye lids feel heavy.

Your limbs feel numb.

You feel salty saliva seep into your mouth, coating your teeth and tongue in a tingling sensation. You breathe out through your nose, feeling something rub uncomfortably against your face. Bile rises into your throat and your hands shoot up to your face, feeling the plastic ventilator covering your nose and mouth, you fumble to rip it away, tossing your body over with a grunt as you vomit. Snot rolls down nose, your knees slamming into the grated ground that shakes and shudders beneath you, your hands cling onto the edge of the bucked, emptying the contents of your stomach. Your hands fall to your side, dry having as your eyes flutter. Your father. You sway your head to the side, your vision blurry, head spinning. You can't find him. Your weight shifts to your knees, your father is gone. And. Your eyes move across the four walls, a rectangular box, a van. Your eyes slide up to what you laid on, a thin mattress with crumpled and sweat soaked sheets.

The truck is big, wide and tall, with two heavy double doors, thin curtains covering the small windows. While behind you was a ladder that led up to the roof and curtains the covered the front. You're alone.

Look at yall being alive. I hope nothing bad happens next.

Hi Lovelies,

So, I know I have some Nine Blood Dances Fans, hello to all five of y'all, LMFAO, but today, I plan to revamp the aesthetic a little and update the coding, which is my main goal and go through Chapters 0 and 1 and editing small things here and there. Story wise it consistent, but writing ways, it's not so I'm fixing that up.

Low-key bummed myself out from negative feedback but that can't stop me from moving forward.

Chapter Two is already outlined which is great, now actually writing it is the annoying part but I'm really excited for the scenes in this chapter. I will keep y'all updated!!

Love,

WEEKLY UPDATE: JUNE 17TH, 2025

3 days ago

Hi Lovelies,

So, I forgot to post at 8—totally on me. (I was going to post Monday, but I got sleepy.)

Thoughts on last week are pretty mixed. I didn't get as much writing done as I wanted. The closest I got was going through NBD and fixing some of the coding. I also started re-editing the first half of NBD, Chapter 2, so that's been a process.

My schedule has completely shifted, and I'm not as free as I'd like to be. I've been bouncing from task to task and putting in several hours of work, so I'm feeling a little tired. That said, I'm still in good spirits and trying to push through. After this coming Sunday, I'll finally be able to take a proper break from everything work-related and really focus on my writing.

As for TSTT, I'm not touching that story until maybe August. I'm just too tired and honestly don't even want to open the file. The major bugs have been fixed, so that's one relief, but yeah—it's on pause for now until I finish NBD, Chapter Two.

So, this week's goal is writing when and where I can, and easing back into the NBD mindset. It's not hard to get into the world again, but actually sitting down and writing the draft has been a challenge. As always, thank you—I know I'm a bit of a hot mess lately. I'm excited for things to finally slow down, because life has been going at 100 mph.

Anyway, love y'all!

Love,
