Aegis: This is Goyfire 55.

- Kwame Kilpatrick for Spitzer
- record foreclosure
- Oklahoma rids itself of illegals
- Silverstein wants more
- Rabbi says hang children from tree
- NPD's Udo Voigt charged over pamphlets
- the selling defective bombs to Afghanistan
- and Bear Stearns liquidated eight months before collapse

Aegis: Returning to our top story tonight, Kwame Kilpatrick the mayor of Detroit, is up on charges. The mayor faces eight felony charges: perjury, conspiracy, obstruction of justice and misconduct in office; while Beatty faces seven counts.

Alex Linder: A nigger with a diamond in his ear! He's running around and having an affair with his chief of staff. And then... Actually, rather like Bill Clinton using his security to cover up his shenanigans, when it gets found out the city gets sued. And they wind up... You know, they're already bankrupt. Now they have to throw another 8 million to pay off these officers. So, it's just kind of funny if you don't have to live around it. But increasingly, as Blacks spread, this kind of junk goes everywhere.

Aegis: It says here: "The whistleblowers lawsuit was brought by two police officers. The two police officers say they were unfairly disciplined because they looked into allegations of misconduct by Kilpatrick and his security detail, specifically for investigating claims that the mayor used a security unit to cover up extramarital affairs."

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Part of that, Aegis, involved a big party at the mayor's mansion. And there was some sort of embroiled video or something. And they all ended up at the hospital emergency room. And a White EMS driver said that he'd never seen such commotion. He said they were all dressed quite well. You can imagine these negroes in Detroit dressed to the nines, with the earpieces. And he knew that they were the mayor's security of people. They came in private SUVs. Or I guess it's made to look as if they were private, but they're public vehicles. I mean they're part of the mayor's fleet, if you will. And the stripper involved (I believe it was a few weeks later), was shot in a drive-by. I saw the video of that, and her car was hit. It was clearly... It looked to me like automatic weapons. And I think that's what they said in the video, if I remember correctly. So, she's dead. And the wife appeared (I believe as the wife) during the party unexpectedly. And she threw a big fit. There was some sort of knock down / drag out, and so it was the stripper who was taken to the hospital. It was a pretty big mess, and that's just part of it. Of course, that's just part of the drama. But in America these days, they love that as long as they're getting the drama. And as one nigger rapper said, "The White people want to see how we live. To them, it's a big show and so we have to show them that." And that's what MTV has been doing for years and years now. And that's exactly what they do. I watched a young White girl on live video today. She was featured on a live video. You know that they had the news streaming, and she was a good looking young White girl. And it was nothing but what she was talking about. She was talking with niggerisms, you know the usual Black patois. And she mentioned Kalamazoo, which I found interesting. In fact, I typed in that some of us were just up in Kalamazoo not long ago. And she was talking about... I mean some guy doing cunnilingus, and then the female pissing on his face. I mean this is a young girl (19, 20 years old) featured on live video. So, this is the kind of denigrated America that they've built. And it's crumbling now. To me, it's very much interrelated to the Kwame thing because this is a Michigan girl. And they're all over the United States. They're all over Myspace. This is how these kids are. They're like the walking wounded with their mental abilities.

Alex Linder: Yeah, they don't know anything other than Black standards. And wherever you have Blacks (and they're being promoted through the Jewish media), it amplifies their actual numbers. So, they might only be 13% of the population or even less. But, as in that one song (I don't know who recorded it), they seem like they're 99% because they're shown on TV. And people we know are getting most of their information from TV. And it's not like they're getting any different from the Church or from the schools. And so, they think that's what normal is, and they don't know any better. As they say, human civilization is only one generation deep. If it's not passed on to the next generation... It's not stuff they know instinctively. And I know a lot of older people have trouble understanding that because they've said to me. So, we always make the point to them, "The older you are, the more civilized an America you grew up in, the more you assume that younger people know what's right and know how they ought to act and are departing from it." But in fact, that's not the case. These kids don't know anything different. They didn't grow up in a civilized America. They grew up in an America that was a mix of races in which "sex puerility," as I call it, was the standard. The nigger has been normalized, and you can't...

Aegis: The appropriate norms have been imposed upon them, and disoriented and recreated in the image of Murray Rothstein.

Alex Linder: That's absolutely right. And we know that's the number one TV show viewed by young girls; and slightly older ones is Murray Rothstein's Nickelodeon for girls 5 to 12, and then MTV for ages 12 to 24. So, the single biggest source of televised influence on these is coming from a rotten Jew.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Well, then the entire media echoes it, Alex. This live video site I mentioned is not a picayune site. There is something like 1.5 million people reach. And they feature this young pretty blonde girl saying these sorts of things to live streaming, to lots of males and everything. And this is how virtually the whole broad sweep of the United States is (the great numbers of masses). This is how severely they're dumbed down. Maybe they know, at a Thanksgiving dinner, how to comport themselves with a bare modicum of dignity with their family. But it's a people who have been beaten. They've been psychologically beaten down over many decades, and that is the state of the United States. And then people such as us, who talk about it or draw attention to the facts of the matter, are ipso facto by those Jewish regulations, the evil ones by those social mores which is another layer of bizarreness that they put upon it.

Aegis: Yeah, well we have here another article about "Kilpatrick's meteoric rise to falling star: promise of Kilpatrick's political savvy pedigree fading under weight of text scandal". Again, this is almost an Obama parallel with Kilpatrick. The PR is beginning to fade under the weight of rampant reality.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, well Detroit's the microcosm. And the USA under Obama-nation will be the macrocosms.

Aegis: They say, "Tragedies don't begin tragically. They start with hope, which was on full display at the Marriott on election night 2001 with Kwame Kilpatrick sporting a bright smile and a piercing in his ear where a diamond used to shine."

Alex Linder: Well, you know, there's not one Black politician in America who isn't up to something like this. They're all in time revealed to be criminals and it's always, "Oh the great new Black hope". You know, he's been trained in the right sociology and civic management. And he's got his Master's in public policy. Well, they always in the end turn out to be a nigger. I mean just like Mugabe over in Zimbabwe, it doesn't matter how many honorary degrees they have from White institutions or real degrees. They ultimately are going to act Black, and Blacks are going to keep voting for them. And they'll ultimately keep on blaming Whites for every problem that they have. It doesn't matter if there are any Whites around or not. I mean Mugabe and Zimbabwe (who just underwent an election right before we recorded this) dispossessed the White farmers (who were feeding the country and had made the country the bread basket of the world) resulting in hyperinflation and no food available. And then he's still blaming Whites for his problems. So, there's really isn't any way to deal with Blacks or the liberals who pretend that they're capable of living up to human standards. It's just they have to be avoided, and power has to be taken from the crazy Jews and leftists.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Twenty-five million Zimbabwe dollars over there for a tomato, Alex. I saw the note, and the niggers are holding up a sign that says, "starving billionaires." They're going to be the richest country on earth in terms of billions of dollars.

Alex Linder: Exactly. If you go to google images and search Zimbabwe, they'll show you a picture of a little niglet. And he's got a foot-thick stack of bills for which he's begged in the street. I mean, the money is worth nothing now. It was at a hundred thousand percent inflation rate in January. I'm sure it's higher than that now. So, they're having that Weimar-era inflation we always talk about.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Aegis: You know, he was the “hip-hop mayor reading political blue bloods with a chest-bumping embrace and telling White-haired business moguls to hit him on his sky-tail gauge writer.”

Alex Linder: Wow. It turns out that running actual human communities is a little more difficult than appearing in some stupid rap video. But in a democracy, everything is made to appear that anyone can do it and all opinions are equal. But that's not in fact the case.

Craig “Chain” Cobb: It was Obama’s father. It was at Harvard or Yale he went to. I believe Harvard. And I think Obama got whatever intelligence he has from his mother's family. But I wonder... I mean... I used to go around Harvard square. I went to a prep school out there. And I would go into Harvard square sometimes, and dream about going there actually. But how in the world (even if he's there on a sports scholarship) do they pretend that these guys are making these grades in that kind of an atmosphere? It's just a total pretension. It's like an open secret. It has to be because there's no way he's competing with these guys in Harvard and scoring reasonably.

Alex Linder: I’m trying to find... I believe he went to Harvard. I’m not absolutely sure about that, but I know we've talked about him before.

Craig “Chain” Cobb: Any of these top schools, they just... I understand sports figures have a big pretension, and they just grade them. They must actually tell these professors, “You have to pass them. Give them a C.”

Alex Linder: They bring in... They specially groom minorities who are better looking or more articulate than average. And they treat them like they do Congressmen. They bring them in for their special training, and they can abandon any standard they want if they think they're going to be able to produce a generation of leaders (just like Marion Barry was originally a chemist and had some kind of training). But in the end, it doesn't matter. Like I said about Mugabe, he was trained in Jesuit schools. He went to the University of London and he ended up with about seven degrees and three honorary degrees. It doesn't matter though. In the end, it doesn't change what they are or how they act.

Aegis: “Like Superman, Kilpatrick often seemed larger than life. He rolled through the city in a Black escalade with what in 2002 was the largest mayoral security team in the nation.”

Alex Linder: Well, yeah. See, they cover him as though he's a hip-hop star or in a rap video. But why don't they put it in a different context and say, “He was just merely the latest in a long line of Black leaders that ultimately failed”? And even to say “ultimately” failed... It was pretty much off the bat and straightforward. They never put him in the correct context, and that's a sign of having a controlled media. If you didn't have a controlled media, you'd still have segregation. But the controlled media pushes desegregation through forced racial mixing. And over time you end up with these Black politicians. But it can't cover them accurately, because it would put the lie to “segregation being immoral and integration being moral”. So, they never put the failed

Black politician in context, which is basically that all Black politicians fail. And it doesn't matter because Blacks vote for them because they're Black. It doesn't show you that every one of these Black-majority cities is extremely violent and essentially bankrupt. Whether it's D.C., Detroit, Zimbabwe or East St. Louis, they all have exactly the same problems.

Aegis: or Obama's 13th ward in Chicago...

Craig "Chain" Cobb: That's right. I saw Obama in Eugene, Oregon in a video. You know, that's where Ken Kesey's wife Nancy made the yogurt. I guess that was some sleepy, hippie town years ago. And now the children and grandchildren were screaming for Obama as he entered this big auditorium. And the secret service contingent had maybe three out of six negroes. So that's not in proportion to their numbers in their society. So maybe Obama is going to have the same thing. He was elected where Louis Farrakhan's mansion is, and the whole nation of Islam is based (I guess), 13th district right there. And they say that no one can be elected in that district without the muscle of Nation of Islam, even though one would think there are theological differences between Jeremiah Wright and Louis Farrakhan's religion. Nonetheless, on the Black supremacy issue, they agree. So, after Obama is the president of the United States and these things come out, and he starts radically changing the amount of aid that people (the United States people) give Africa, that'll be another boondoggle. We've already seen Gates and Buffett give away their tens of billions between them to Africa. And Americans have been primed again by Jewish thought systems to believe that this makes them morally good. And this is what they must do, should do, can do and will do.

Alex Linder: Hey Craig, I'm reading here on Wikipedia about Kilpatrick. It says he has a Bachelor of Science in Political Science, and a teaching certificate at Florida A&M University. And I believe that's a traditionally Black college. And he has a J.D. (that means a lawyer) from Michigan State. But he has never practiced law.

Aegis: He faces eight felonies, each with maximum possible prison terms of five to fifteen years. The Detroit City Council passed a resolution asking Kilpatrick to resign and calls for his Alistair are likely to only increase with him facing felony charges.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: But Aegis, with a jury of negroes and two Whites or an all-Black jury in Detroit, what does that mean? I mean it's back to San Francis' "anarcho-tyranny". All of these terms and penalties are meaningless in an uneven application of law, to where potentially (and very really) Whites who commit so-called hate crimes with an added 10-year sentence are serving far more time than someone such as this coon.

Aegis: And "I look forward to a complete exoneration," he said after the charges were announced.

Alex Linder: Yeah, that's a little redundant. That's what exoneration means. But yeah. This is not the first thing he's had. I mean just looking at Wikipedia, he had... Let's see. He charged something like a couple hundred thousand dollars in food, lodging and entertainment expenses over the first couple years of his administration. They're not making any distinction between their personal use of funds and the funds that they have as the manager of the city. And then when they get caught, they blame racism (even if there's no Whites around in Detroit). The Whites have pretty much fled since the riots. We used to have Yankee Jim talk about how back in the 1960s, [they] drove the Whites out of Detroit (which used to be the Paris of middle America). They had all the big car factories operating in really ornate buildings.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: [There's] still great architecture there, but it's just decrepit.

Alex Linder: It's all squatted, destroyed or vandalized because the people aren't there.

Aegis: At one time, [it was] one of the most innovative and wealthy cities in the entire United States. With Henry Ford right there, with the assembly line production, the packer plan and all of those automobiles being built at that time, it was definitely one of the more progressive cities in the entire world and had cash flow to match.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Aegis, as openly and obviously as these facts are known to White nationalists, and as many times as we repeat them about Detroit, and with Detroiters crap website and so forth, still in all we're made to be seen as the most radical tellers of untruths and unrealities that walk the face of the planet. It's unbelievable.

Aegis: frothing at the mouth haters...

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, absolutely irrational. And all we're doing is speaking fact about this. And especially in places like South Africa and Detroit; D.C., St. Louis, you name it. And the best they will do is say, "That's the result of centuries of oppression by Whitey." I mean that's about the best they can roll out these days, which even that isn't...

Alex Linder: This kind of financial chicanery and corruption extends wherever Black political power extends. And let me tell you, when we had the rally in Kalamazoo... I drove up from where I am in Missouri. You have to drive up, essentially use outskirts Chicago and then drive around the southern part of Lake Michigan and then up into Michigan through Indiana. And let me tell you, there are more Blacks around there than I would have believed. You know how from Chicago, you go over to there (sort of Gary, that's always been a famous nigger town) and then around there, past there up into Michigan there are plenty of Blacks around there on that eastern side of Lake Michigan (more than I would have thought). I would have thought that was White and rural, but it's really more racially mixed than heartland kind of White farmer types you would have thought. So, there are more and more Blacks. And there'll be more and more politicians like this. And again, the key here is... The problem is the problem. But the real problem is you can't deal with the problem because you can't describe it accurately like we do here. That's why we do this show: to put stuff like this in the proper context. And the proper context is Blacks aren't fit for self-rule. Nowhere at no time ever in history have they demonstrated that they can run a simple town competently. And that's why Whites require a 100 percent divorce from Blacks. Politically, that's what would be in our interest. That's what would be good for Whites, which is our sole concern here. You know, we don't need these people around. We certainly don't want to be bossed around by them. And now we face the prospect of a Black being president. And they've got one who's a little... You know, he's half White. So, he's a little more articulate than your average Black. So, he can plausibly represent the fiction that you see on TV of the noble negro who's going to heal us and bring everything together with his superior spirituality and his hip-hoppiness. But the reality, in the end, is the same old thing. You know they're not capable of running cities, let alone running the country. And they very much have an axe to grind. If you saw Obama's speech about race. It's the same old shakedown of Whitey. "Ultimately, Whites have no complaints against Blacks. But Blacks have plenty of legitimate complaints against Whites. And we better pay them, or they'll riot." It doesn't matter how unthreateningly he says it. The message is exactly the same as the radical ones. "We're guilty, and they're innocent. We owe them." But we don't owe them.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Their hip-hoppiness at the church... And the Trinity Church there in Chicago is pretty inspiring on one level if you like that sort of comedy. I enjoy that. I like to watch that video. And I don't know if you've seen it, but they're singing. And then they're saying... What's the refrain, Aegis, to recall? What is it?

Reverend Jeremiah Wright: "No no no. Not God Bless America. God Damn America!"

Aegis: Anyway, they're hopping around. They have a choir singing. They've got a conga drummer and a guy shaking a gourd.

Alex Linder: I didn't watch it. I know the import of it. He was right about a lot of things. But of course, he hates Whites. But then again, he lives in a totally White area.

Aegis: Yeah, and he wears these traditional Black costumes that really are only worn by crazy American Blacks.

Alex Linder: yeah, the kente cloth and the dashiki or whatever...

Aegis: It's about as African as Kwanzaa.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: but height of fashion in 1968 or 1969...

Alex Linder: Marion Barry wore that stuff too. Yeah, they wear the kente cloth.

Aegis: Yeah, it was a regular nig jamboree. And his great line was, "If people say 'God Bless America', I say 'God Damn America.'"

Craig "Chain" Cobb: He's right about the Zionism though as Alex was alluding to. And there's a little bit of irony there because that's one thing that might pull Obama down. But I don't even think even Zionism once can stop America's nigger-mania. If they get on the tangent you know for this this guy

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

Reverend Jeremiah Wright: God Damn America!

Alex Linder: It's a sign of where they feel the power lies that he wouldn't back off from this guy. He said ultimately, "I will stick with him. I'm not going to abandon him." That's a sign that they believe whereas they can get.

Aegis: He's been in the church for 20 years!

Alex Linder: Yeah, I know but I mean Whites will back off of anything if there's any little charge of racism. They'll abandon someone immediately whereas your review of this nigger going off against Whites and this guy who's running for president won't even back off him or renounce him. I mean he'll kind of distance himself from the statements, but not really if you read what he says. And that's a sign that they think they can basically say and get away with whatever they want.

Aegis: Yeah, because being a Black man in America is just so difficult. It's such a harrowing experience.

Alex Linder: The key is they have the media on their side. You don't need anything else really than the media. And if you have the media and the courts on your side, you can do just about whatever you want, get away with these ridiculous double standards because it's never reported accurately.

Reverend Jeremiah Wright: God Damn America!

Craig "Chain" Cobb: To tell you guys some more background about this, this guy of course was born and grew up in Honolulu. And he went to Punahou, which is at the base of Tantalus Mountain. And it was a school where the Hawaiians used to send the "ali'i". They were called the royalty. But anyway, they were really not royalty. They were just people that the missionaries decided were educable. Anyway, he went to that school. And his grandmother was the first bank vice president in the state. Although she's White, even for her to be in that state that early and be the first woman vice president of a bank was quite early. And she lives at the corner ...

Aegis: Now this is the typical White woman, grandmother?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: No this is his grandmother. His mother was offered several husbands, or a couple anyway (and one that was in Indonesia, I think).

Aegis: But didn't he refer to her as "a typical White woman"?

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Her name is Madelyn. What was her surname? Madelyn Dunham, I think. She wasn't typical. I mean they said... People who wrote about it said she was highly intellectual for a woman and so forth, and very iconoclastic they said. But anyway, he lived with her a long time. And right there it's a building with big banyan trees in front of it, at the corner of Beretania and Punahou, about three blocks from Punahou school. And she still lives there. And I drove this guy one time. And I remembered as soon as I saw... It jogged my brain when I saw the address where she lived. I looked it up (411 or something). And the Chicago paper named her name, and I looked it up. But because no nigger in those days... He would have been 21. I was 31. And [I thought], "no way that's the one who went to Punahou!" And I remember talking to the guy. We sat and talked a while. He held me in Waikiki. Anyway, he was very glib and very cautious. You would say something, and he would think and look. But [he was] very fast with words! And of course, I was ten years older. And I mentioned [to him] that I'd gone to a prep school. And we talked about... I said, "Why is it no one here will admit (I'd only been there a few years at the time) that they have a lot of racism in Hawaii?" And I said, "They do have it, don't they?" And he said, "Yes, they do absolutely." He said that they're very racist. He just told me right off the bat, which was phenomenal that somebody born in that state (even though he was Black) would admit that. And especially [considering] that he went to Punahou and would admit that because he's in the ruling elite! Punahou and 'Iolani are the two top prep schools, by far. Most people would say Punahou originally was the more prestigious. Although 'Iolani became more for intellectual acumen these days. But anyway, he was right into that subject. He liked that subject.

Alex Linder: Who set those schools up originally?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: The missionaries did, from Connecticut.

Alex Linder: Yeah okay

Craig "Chain" Cobb: And they set him up.

Alex Linder: Do they have mostly Whites, but then have an elite of local Hawaiians?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Well, that's what some of the... In fact, that's what he and I talked about because... And now it's kind of morphed to where if you're a local family and you have power... There aren't so many Whites. They're only 33% percent of Whites there, even less nowadays. But a lot of Japanese go there. And they have a thing called William S. Richardson law school up. And where Obama's father went to school is at the JFK center right there crossing the theater. He probably stayed there and banged this 18-year-old White girl from Kansas, Obama's mom. But yeah. So now they have a lot of Japanese who go there. And there have been scandals after scandals after scandals because some of them who to go to William S. Richardson at least at the time when I was talking to Obama that's been 25 years ago literally spoke only pigeon English. And you would see them on the news and they'd be flat-out lawyers and they were beating Whites into the law schools. And you'd say, "Well gee, what's wrong with this picture?" You know in law, you have to know quite a bit about the spoken and written words. So, he just admitted that out front. He knew all about it. And I remember his name was Barry too. I even remember because I told my friend, "I drove this Black named Barry." And I said, "Maybe his dad's Jewish or something. It's unbelievable." I mean that would be like meeting a space man. In those days, it just did not exist in the state of Hawaii. So, he grew up under anomalous conditions to the extreme degree.

Aegis: So, he wasn't in the 13th ward of Chicago?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: No. He went there. And the early bios said (before he got elected to the Senate) he got a job (he sent out resumes all over) doing some sort of community activist work. Of course, that's what they always call it. And "racial organization" is what that transcribes to in the English language.

Aegis: Yeah...communist agitation.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Right. If a White were doing community activism, it wouldn't be called "pro-White work". But that's what he was doing. And he was doing it in the poor part of Chicago. Well, that's literally the south side of Chicago. I've watched Otis Moss the new preacher for that church and he his videos are on YouTube. And he says it right there. "We're in the south side of Chicago." You know the old Jim Croce song: "Bad bad Leroy Brown, the baddest man in the whole damn town, badder than old King Kong and meaner than a junkyard dog". This is the fucking place people. You got it? The fucking south side of Chicago!

Aegis: And so, he was there 20 years after that?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, he was there 20 years listening to this shit. The Nation of Islam is running the district, you know. This Nation of Islam runs HUD contracts all over the country too. You know. These big, beefy guys were bred by slave masters to be like big junkyard dogs (eugenics). Yeah, it's a mess. This is the America. So, Detroit is what the United States is going to morph into on a national scale when this guy becomes the president; no matter what they say because clearly, he has racial preference ideas and Black supremacy ideas. They're just all over the place, and he just completed practically the entire run for the nomination. And the national media wouldn't touch it. They wouldn't reveal these things. You think they [the media] didn't know these things in Chicago? They knew them backwards and forwards. They knew all these facts.

Aegis: So, he was seeped in one of the most hateful Black communities west of Harlem for 20 years, listening to this Pastor Wright and Mao Mao, and African this, and the Black value system that.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah. Well, the interpolation with that is we should be able to make Alex Linder president on that basis. I mean... Why not? You see what I mean. Fair is fair. They're really just the mirror image in a way of what we're saying. Except of course, they're doing a total irresponsibility. And the Black race has no histories of accomplishment the way the White race does. So, it's really... But in terms of favoring one's own people, they do what they do just as so-called radically as we do. And the people in the middle in that pudding mishmash are the fucked-up ones: the ones like that girl in Kalamazoo there that was on the live video and all these other kids and all the junk media that constantly hide these truths.

Alex Linder: You know Craig... Yeah, that's some good history there. And there's also... I'm looking at another article here on Kilpatrick and some of the background. You know, it's not just that. And maybe you've mentioned this before. It's not just this sex crime, but it's kind of the tip of the iceberg. And if they get into his text messages, they're saying that basically there was a stripper who was killed after a party at his mansion. And possibly there was even a second one that was also killed because they're saying there was someone else tracked down in Atlanta and shot with the same type of gun. And the son of one of the strippers named Green is trying to get into the text messages of Kwame, that I guess came up through this allegation of him fooling around with his Chief of Staff. And so, what does this guy say here? This is from worldnetdaily.com. Black guy. Ellis Washington. Article: "Calling all criminals, come to Detroit" (March 20th, 2008). What does he say? He says... He's basically comparing the way Kilpatrick operates to a gang where the final act to get into the gang is to commit some kind of crime. So they hold it over you, and he's saying that's how Kilpatrick's deal is organized. It's essentially Black political powers organized as a criminal gang, just like you see Mugabe has his henchmen beating up any opposition candidates (torturing people). This guy says the mayor knew the political and legal heat he was under when he appointed Bully-Cummings (that's a last name) Police Chief in November 2003. By that time, it had been over a year since his mysterious party at the Manoogian mansion in October of 2002. "Six years ago, the mayor Kwame with the earring threw a party (a party the police chief of Southfield Michigan was invited to), but wisely declined; a party that was investigated by Deputy Police Chief Gary Brown, Lieutenant Alvin Bowman and Harold Nelthorpe." And Nelthorpe's one of the ones who accused him of this latest thing. So, I was trying to find if he was Black or White. I don't know. But there are like three officers that are accusing Kwame right now, and barred by Bully-Cummings when the investigation got too close to his honor. "In fact, the very day Officer Brown's investigation memo regarding the mayor's Manoogian mansion party was to become public, one of the three dancers at the party, Tamara Strawberry Green, was viciously murdered as she and her boyfriend sat in a car at the corner of Roselawn and Outer Drive (literally around the block from where the Black writer grew up in the 60s to 80s). A second dancer at the party, which the mayor and Michigan Republican Attorney General Mike Cox still insist was an urban legend, was tracked down to Atlanta and reportedly killed with the same caliber police-issued weapon. 'All this drama for a party that never happened?! Like my grandmama used to tell me, boy where there's smoke there's fire.” So that's what's actually going on in Detroit and starting to unravel a little bit. This is in the context of a city that is bankrupt. It's entirely Black and the fantastic hip-hop Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick has gotten rid of hundreds of veteran police officers. And he's unable to fill the vacancies because you can't find any niggers that are qualified that aren't criminals themselves. And the greater context is you've got a media that's not going to report any of this as a racial problem, which is exactly what it is. It's just Blacks being Blacks. The only thing Whites are able to do (because they don't have any real political powers) is to flee the area and in Detroit that means get out past 8-mile drive I guess probably more like 15-mile drive at this point.

Craig “Chain” Cobb: I thought you said the east coast to lake Michigan or something, Alex.

Alex Linder: Well, they... Yeah and even there... I mean you can go north in Michigan. I'm just pointing out that it's not just niggers. And as you said, the south side of Chicago and then a little way to the east in Gary, Indiana (as you go around the south part of the lake). But it's even up beyond that into Michigan, and then probably inward a bit. I don't even know. You'd have to see a whole map of the place. But Black populations expand over time because they have so many illegitimate kids that each generation is larger than the last. So, you have these Black politicians talking about how bad America has been to Blacks. Well, they only ever brought... I think Buchanan claimed... I've seen the claim that they brought about 9 million Blacks to the Americas and maybe 3 million of them went to the U.S. But then again, I saw Buchanan claim in an article recently that only about 600,000 Blacks were brought to the U.S. And out of that, they've developed 35 to 40 million people. So, America hasn't been that bad to Blacks.

Aegis: That makes sense because even now, if you look at countries like Uganda (which only now are starting to reach certain levels of infrastructure and medicine), they're projected to have (I think there's something like 10 million), they're projected to have 60 million by 2008.

Alex Linder: I'll give you an example. When I was in college twenty years ago (1988), I wrote about South Africa. At that point, there were about 30 million South Africans of which I think about 5 million were White. Well, what is it today? There are like 40 million South Africans twenty years later, and 4 million of them are White. So, the population of these nigger areas just goes up over time. And that's purely due to the White man's medicine because as we see in Zimbabwe, they can't... Even in Zimbabwe, the population has gone down by about 4 million. They've got about 12 million people there, and about 4 million of them have left more or less because they don't want to starve to death. Blacks can't run cities, towns, states or countries. And most Blacks exist because of White medicine and technology. But they don't thank us for it.

Craig “Chain” Cobb: Well part of that... If I could just go off a little bit about that Alex. It's familiar with racist. It's that they're made so uncomfortable by the sheer number of accomplishments of Whites. I mean it's not lost on them: all of these things in science, history, architecture and everything. They know that the comparison is there, and it must be profoundly uncomfortable. It would be like existing in a world where everyone has an IQ of 200 or 210 or something. In a way, you would be profoundly cognizant of the contrast. And that would be a constant source of angst to your psyche. So that's another reason for separation: to allow people to be who they are. That's why the Blacks in Detroit seem to really enjoy it there, and the same in Atlanta, and the same in Compton and the same wherever they are together.

Aegis: Houston, New Orleans, Philadelphia

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, that's right. Why else would they stay together?

Aegis: Turning to the east coast, we have Elliot Spitzer in the news (a Jew governor of New York from a long line of Jews in New York). But here's the story. "Federal investigators have developed information that the prostitute, who Elliot Spitzer is said to have met in Washington last month, has some relationship with a man who the authorities contend is an associate of organized crime, according to people with knowledge about it. It is unclear on Friday whether the investigators have determined the precise nature or timing of the relationship when a 22-year-old woman and the reputed organized crime figure, a building contractor now under federal indictment in a separate case in Brooklyn." In any case, this is just further information on this scandal involving Elliot Spitzer and his resignation.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, there's a new woman now too. Some White with big tits from somewhere (California I guess) grew up to pimp in a trailer park. And so, she went to New York City. And they have her up on an eight million dollars. She was running a hooker ring, but Spitzer's original pimp was an Israeli. I don't know if he has his name on your monitor there, Aegis. But I've forgotten. I think he had a 21 or 22-year-old girlfriend. I think he's about 62 years old or something. And you can't help but wonder if this fellow might not have had connections to Israeli mafia. And they said also that some of the Goldman Sachs people definitely wanted Spitzer to fall. And when you're in the centers of power in a place like New York state, a lot of powerful people would keep their eye on what you're doing. And so, he was clearly subject to blackmail or pressure from various entities to do things. Yeah, he wasn't going to quit. He said it was not just... He in fact gave some pretty comedic responses. He showed up at some school and I think some little nigglet said, "I'll call you fool" (you know, a little six-year-old or something after the scandal). It's pretty funny because.... "A clown!" That was it. "A clown!" And it sounded like he heard his parents talking about it in front of the TV or something. He kept insisting that he was going to call Spitzer a clown. Yes, but Spitzer quit and his family was worth a half a billion dollars I read. So, here's a guy with a lot of power who's obsessed with more power and money and constantly double dealing even those hookers. I guess there's some question that he used state money to pay him at five thousand dollars an hour or something. So as wealthy as he was, in fact that was part of the deal. If he'd quit maybe they wouldn't prosecute him. So, these kind of deals... In fact, I'm getting sick of covering them on Goyfire. But what can we do? All the signs are there that it's a society in utter collapse and fall morally at least, and economically too at this point in many respects. Although there's still some strength to the institutions and some production facilities at least in the sciences. But it's pretty dismaying to see your country after all the promise after post-World War Two where I grew up in that time period. And for it to come to this and not more people to speak truth about what's going on. It's just really dismaying.

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Aegis: Well, how about... His replacement is a blind Black man who has admitted to drug use and an extramarital affair.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, he likes his cocaine. He does everything. I've been joking. I said he probably plays harmonica too. It's unbelievable.

Aegis: I mean he's blind?! I mean come on... Couldn't they find a Black person that could actually see?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, well these are the extremes to which Americans will go to prove that anyone can do anything, and that there's virtually no difference between one human being and another. They're just the extremes of Jewish ridiculousness in the social sciences carried to the nth degree. We're not going to say in the end of it it's going to get worse I guess you wouldn't think so, right? But yeah.

Aegis: I mean you would think that the one guy who was supposed to be the leader of an entire state (most fit individual to govern that state) is in fact a blind Black. Is that what we're led to believe in The Wall Street Journal and The New York Times?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: I'll tell you. I hope we have an illegal story today because I was just remembering in the 70s and 80s. I remember all the Jewish experts; Dershowitz and these kinds of people were all over your TV saying how these Mexicans just want to come here and work. And many Whites said, "That's right. They sure do. You know that she's got a good point." And on and on and on. And now finally they're waking up to that, although it's taken a great, long many decades (I guess three; two of them very intense). And they seem to be able to foist these fallacies off on tens of millions of White people to their utter ruination with very little reaction until after all the damage. You know, the dyke is busted. So that's why we need our own media, which is what we're doing but to controvert that. And we seem to be making some progress on the Internet, a lot of progress. I know we are, but they've had one of these things after the other. One of the first ones was that "women are our equals" in terms of intellectual acumen, accuracy in the corporate world and so forth. And a lot of people still insist that. So, they might have their place in pediatrics or something if they're a super genius woman.

Aegis: Yeah. Alex, did you manage to catch this story at all with Spitzer? What's your take on it?

Alex Linder: I don't have too much of an opinion on it. What I noted was the libertarians were noting the irony of how he was caught. I think the feds are basically spying on him through his email and whatever. So, the security state that he helped to put in place and his type (kikes put in place) tripped him up through his personal dealings. No, we just don't need...

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Aegis: The IRS were tipped off because he was moving money around. And they thought he was bribing people or something like that. And it turned out...

Alex Linder: Yeah. Well, since they passed the Patriot Act and these other various acts that empower the executive, they've enacted ever tighter financial control. So that if you maybe I've said this on earlier Goyfires if you go into a bank and try to open like a checking account or a business checking account, they will overtly ask you, "Are you going to be doing international money transfers wire transfers?" They will ask you about four or five different specific things without knowing what kind of business you're going to do or whatever. And you're like, "Well, why are you asking me this kind of thing?" "Well, we have to because of the Patriot Act." Yeah, and it's already been the case for a number of years. They have to file something whenever you move more than about ten thousand dollars. But now it's even less than that. It's nine or eight thousand. And they're basically supposed to look for anyone who's evading it. Also, if you want to read about this stuff, read James Bovard. He's a columnist. He's also written a few books about this this kind of thing. Essentially, it's one of the Marxist planks, which is complete financial controls on any kind of capital leaving the country. They want to know where every last penny is. And once you understand that, you can plot out what they're going to try to do. They want to know who... They're Jews. They're essentially paranoid. And what form does that take? Well, it means using all available technology to track anyone who might potentially become their enemy. And so, the ADL trains the cops to think about people the same way the Jews do. That is, any White male who's into privacy and then living his own life is a potential threat. "He's an extremist." "He's a hater." "You need to watch him." "You need to know where all of his money is." "And you need to know what he's doing at every hour of the day." So, all the technology is geared to that end. Now this happened to be a Jew caught up in their web. Somehow, they figured out that he was using prostitutes or doing some kind of malfeasance. To me, it's not particularly interesting. But it's a typical "Sopranos" type stuff. The kike attorney general is using some prostitute who has ties to the mob. And what are you going to say? We don't need to live in a country with Jews in it anymore we do need to live in one with Kilpatricks in it. You know, "Kwame Kilpatricks". If they're White and Irish, that's fine. But we don't need niggers with diamonds in their ears, and we don't need kikes using call girls as our attorney generals.

Aegis: Well, we also have on the economic front: "Analysts predict that as many as 2 million homeowners could enter foreclosure this year caught by a slowing economy, falling house prices, and in many cases, adjustable mortgages with rates rising from high to higher. In Las Vegas, 1.9 percent of homes in the Las Vegas area were in the foreclosure process in January, almost triple the rate of the year earlier according to First American CoreLogic Inc., a Santa Ana,

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

California, real-estate and mortgage data company.” So, this is actually a story of guys who go around bribing people not to trash the whole house after foreclosure.

Alex Linder: Yeah, well it makes sense. If they're not going to live up to their loan, why are they going to depart the premise they can't pay for? It's just most of these resolve back into some kind of a moral problem. And I guess one of the lessons here is if your house goes up in value (like it goes from 100,000 to four or five hundred thousand), you might want to think about cashing out right then. Unfortunately, the whole psychology is against it. But it doesn't go on forever. And you know a house is a depreciating asset. And if you don't think that's true you take a look at a house one of these houses that's unoccupied. And look how fast it degrades. There's a lot of money required to go into upkeep the house. A lot of these little itty-bitty houses are worth 50,000, or 100,000 or 200,000 through all of this easy credit made available by Jews like Bernanke at the Fed and through the giant banks. Their houses came to be overvalued as people got into speculation, and then took giant loans against what they thought was the everlasting value or price of the thing. And now that the housing prices have gone down, they're being foreclosed. And in a rage, they're trashing the places as the article we're talking about says. And it's so common. They're so used to it that they basically pay people to do what's right, which is just leave the house and not trash it because childish Americans want to trash it as they leave.

Aegis: It says here: “Light switches, outlet covers and thermostats were smashed. There was what looked to be crowbar damage along the staircase. A large bowl of paint had hardened on the living room carpet. It appeared that someone had dripped motor oil in a trail that wound its way through every carpeted room. The appliances were gone, as were most light fixtures. A cabinet door had been removed and left soaking in a full tub of water. Not a wall was left without a hole, including the pink child's room once carefully decorated with floral wallpaper.”

Craig “Chain” Cobb: The video on that, Aegis, said that 50% of these house vacancies are trashed. So, this again speaks to the moral turpitude and a decline of the United States. And further, they said that in the Las Vegas area (right there in Las Vegas, not just the area), between 150 and 200 homes are sold out there every day by the county or the city authority (whoever's overseeing the auction). Every day between 150 and 200, and 95% percent of those (95 out of every 100) remain unsold. And one guy who goes and offers them this money said that he paid one fellow. And the fellow said it would be in the bank's interest to pay me to the max and so forth. And he said that some people have poured concrete you know cement down the toilet. This is how fucked up the country is, and these are some of the same fuckers who are calling us racist and saying how terrible we are. So, fuck you people who think that. We're tired of dealing with you. You're some of the self-serving people who are really morally superior. Go right to Hell. Yeah.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Alex Linder: Yeah, there's no there's no connection between people except money under a hyper capitalist system.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah. Jewish America that's right that's what the protestant country so

Alex Linder: They don't feel any connection to the bank. The banks the bank's not a local bank. It's a national bank. The bank doesn't care about their credit worthiness. It's just trying to make money itself. "So, fuck you." "Oh Yeah? Fuck you!" So, what we have is a whole cycle of "fuck you" going around.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: You know here they're not going to jail. [They're] not even worried about the it a little.

Alex Linder: They don't care. They don't care. I mean... The attitude is no one feels any connection to anyone else. So, "fuck you." "I'm going to use you for whatever I can get out of you, and then abandon you." But here in two paragraphs is what went on. And this is a microcosm of the entire country and a lot of the West. "The owner, a 43-year-old man with two children spoke on the condition his name not be used, says he bought the property in 1993 for $140,000. Three years ago, he had the house appraised in 2005 for $140,000." So, from $140,000 to $440,000... "And he took out a $207,000 home equity loan to pay off credit card bills, and buy his wife a new van. His initial payments were an affordable $1,800 a month. He fell behind however after he went through a divorce, and his landscaping business faltered just as his interest rate was rising. He worked out a payment plan with a bank. He borrowed heavily from his father. But, including penalties, his monthly payments rose to $4,000. And after two months, he ran out of money. And the bank foreclosed." So, there you go. He could have if... I guess we can teach White people. Look, if you're in a $140,000 house that is suddenly priced at $440,000, you might want to just sell that. Don't take a fucking loan on it. You have to pay loans back. I mean... Sell the house. Take the $300,000 in profit. Use $100,000 to pay off your bills. Use $10,000 to buy a car for your wife, and fucking stick the rest in the bank. How fucking hard is it? But the psychology of it is, "Well, it went up to $440,000. Well, it might go up to $800,000! And if I sell it when it's $440,000, I'm going to lose that extra money." You know what they say about the stock market. "Bulls make money. Bears make money. Pigs get slaughtered." Sometimes you just want to stick that in the bank. I'm just saying what he could have done versus what he did. Now of course, he didn't know that the market was at the top. And he probably figured it was going to keep going up forever since that's the myth that is peddled by the real estate people. And there's a great blog that discounts all this and talks about the psychology behind it at great length called Housing Panic at blogspot.com that I read sometimes. Yeah. That's it in a nutshell. A $140,000 house that I guarantee probably wasn't even 1,500 square feet, if anything. And it goes up to $440,000. So, what does he do? He takes a $200,000 loan on it. To me, that's just a bizarre way to think about things. But evidently, a lot of Americans look at stuff that way. It's funny. I actually remember when I was a kid. My mom was mocking some commercial on TV. And maybe even you guys remember this. This had to have been about twenty to thirty years ago. And it's just one of these breezy commercials. And my mom just said, "Oh yeah. I just wrote a check in my EquiLine." And that was the whole thing. It was people doing exactly this. "I just wrote a check. I just got a gigantic mortgage based on the assessed value of my house." And my mom was just making the point that it's not that fucking easy. These people think it's light and easy. And then all of a sudden... What happens when you go through a little personal trouble, and all of a sudden that A.R.M. starts going up. And you don't have the money. And boom. This guy couldn't even keep up the charade for two months when he had a downturn. And all of a sudden, he goes from $1,800 a month to $4,000. "Oh, I just wrote a check in my EquiLine!" You know... "How easy it is!" That was a big national commercial probably in the 1980s. And it's not easy.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

Aegis: "Cruising the wreckage of the Las Vegas property market every day in a silver Cadillac escalade, the 38-year-old Mr. Carver has developed a connoisseur's eye for pointless destruction. Being of a home that was left vacant, the original owner bought the house new in 2003 for $131,000. A year ago, Mr. Carver says it could have fetched a quarter of a million."

Alex Linder: Aegis, let's try to get some value out here to White people. The thing you want to do... You got to be careful. If you want to speculate. I actually encourage that. But you've got to be but you have to you have to check what you do against reality. And you have to be careful. The way you want to do it is you want to go against... They're saying, "Oh get these easy checks to get this money based on the value your household." The value of your house can go down. But you're still left holding that that loan. And if you can't pay that loan, then boom. All of a sudden you have nothing. You're out of your house. And you're bankrupt or whatever. And the only fun you have in life is trashing that house on the way out the door. But what you could do is sell that house when it... What you want to do if it doubles or triples in value is sell the damn thing. Rent for a while. Wait for the market to crash. Then step back in and buy that same house again for you know maybe two hundred thousand. And then you've got the exact same house or one like it. And you've got a couple hundred thousand in the bank you didn't have five years ago. That's I'm sure there are plenty of smart people who did something just like that. I can tell that from reading the Housing Panic of blogspot.com. That's what the smart people do. The dumb ones did what this guy did. And they got in over their heads and lost it. So, the fact that the value of housing goes up and down is a reflection of the feds dumping money out there that people are using to speculate with in real estate and in the stock market. You have to understand that what goes up can go down. The stock market doesn't go up forever. Housing doesn't go up forever. It goes up, and it goes down. Don't be like these morons. Be smart. If you have something where you can make a lot of profit off of it, then take that profit. Stick that money somewhere, not even necessarily in the bank. Get some tangible value out of it. Don't use it as the basis for taking a large loan. To me, the psychology of that is just insane. It's got to be very, very painful knowing that you're sitting there day to day, and you owe $200,000 that you got at a rate that can vary. How scary is that? Why would you do that? You would only do that if you thought that the property was never going to lose any the price, and was never going to come back down. But it always does. So be careful. Be sensible.

Aegis: Well, we have another story here out of Oklahoma. "100,000 illegal aliens leave Oklahoma. Law prohibits illegal aliens from getting driver's licenses and specific government benefits. It prohibits the sheltering and transport of illegal aliens and it allows local police to enforce immigration law in the normal course of their duties. Several months later it certainly looks like the law has been successful. FAIR, the federation for American immigration reform has reported that since HB was enacted 100,000 illegal aliens have left the state of Oklahoma, either returning to the home country or to another US state with more liberal laws." This is big news.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Well, I remember they used to say... I used to watch a lot of talk television in those days when they'd all be defending Mexicans. And in fact, they were the same ones who built those houses in Vegas we were just talking about (the ones that were so cheap). But anyway, they would constantly make the point... The arguers for the invasion were quite often Jews (disproportionately Jews). [They would argue] "There's no way. It's just too big a job for law enforcement that all these people could be held accountable. There aren't enough courts. There aren't enough police. There aren't enough judges. And then we'd have a constantly churned up, stopped up legal system whereby nothing would get done since the sheer enormity of the problem precluded laws being affected to it." But when it comes to their stopping our freedom of speech, they can figure out ways to do that on a massive level. How many words does the average person speak every day? And that's something they can manage however. They don't have any problem with that. But back two decades ago with the Mexicans, [there was] no way to handle it legally. And now we see it... It's kind of like carrying out weapons. They always say that the "carry laws" and in every place where they affect them, crime goes down.

Alex Linder: Yeah. This is just perfect proof that the invasion is a political decision. And like Craig said, that's their softening you up by claiming that it's inevitable. "There's nothing that can be done about it." That's complete bullshit. There are multiple things that can be done about it. One, you post soldiers there and just shoot anyone who tries to come in. That would dry up the flow overnight. Two, you impose serious sanctions on employers. And three, you don't allow them to get any of these drivers' licenses and such. And that will end the flow. Right? That's what they're coming to. They're coming here to get benefits and to work on the side so that they have two revenue streams coming their way, whereas in Mexico they don't have shit coming their way. Once you reverse the incentive, you'll end the flow. And then it would just be a matter of mopping up the ones who are already here, which in itself wouldn't be that difficult. They're easily identifiable. I mean they're in certain areas. I mean they're known. Like here they're over in Mylan. They're working at the processing plant. I mean you could round them up easily. But all you'd have to do is go to... What you got to do is go to the head of these fucking employers like Tyson and say, "Look, we're going to cut you up unless this ends immediately." These are the people who are selling this out. They're not all Jews either. The Jews own the Congress, and they rewrite the laws to make it essentially a global labor market. And that forces business to have to flee. And that's the result. You know, they try to take in these people and pay them less. And the "negative externalities" (as the economists say) are born by ordinary Americans. They have to live around these shitskins playing their crappy music, stealing stuff and just being all around scumbags (the way Mexicans are).

Aegis: So, is this just a clear case of political mismanagement?

Alex Linder: Well, we also know here at Goyfire about the Jewish ethnic agenda. That's the other part of this that is never discussed. Some of the financial incentives of big business, republicans and democrats are discussed even in the controlled media. But the Jewish angle is never discussed. And that's the real driver behind the open borders policy. Jews want to play divide and conquer. And to do that they need people to bring in here to play off against Whites who are otherwise 90% of the country before the immigration laws were reversed under Jewish pressure in 1965. Before 1965, it was 90% White and maybe about 10% Black. And it was segregated so the two communities weren't hurting one another. Well, in reality, the Blacks weren't hurting the Whites because they were segregated. The Jews reversed segregation and they opened the borders to Mexico. And now 40 years later we have a country that's only two-thirds White. And a lot of those are nominal Whites. And the other 100 million of the 300 million are out-and-out muds, who are highly destructive. Many don't even speak English. They come here for our benefits and to take our jobs. And finally, we're starting to fight back a little bit through the official established process. And it's only made headway in Oklahoma apparently at the state level and among a handful of little towns. But there are so many activist lawyers. And again, law schools are dominated by Jews. And they have the backing of the press that's owned and edited by Jews. So, they are easily able to mount fights against the few local places that go out of their way to pass laws against these illegal invaders. So that's where we stand. And we are the only ones. Goyfire is the only place you're going to hear about the Jewish ethnic angle driving our invasion policy our immigration policy, which is that they don't like to live in a country that is a majority of Whites and Christians. They hate Christians and they hate Whites. They want to destroy homogenous European American countries whether in Europe or where they're in America. And they do that in part by importing these opening the borders to these people from the third world. And they've let in you know the today the Mexican population is larger than the Black population. It's probably about 40 million Mexicans have come here in the last 40 years. I've cited before, and I'll cite it again. A professor said that in 1960, there were more Americans like me of Swiss descent than there were of Mexican descent. You think about that. In 1960. And now (48 years later), Mexicans are the largest ethnic group in America apart from Germans.

Aegis: There are more Mexicans in America than there are Swiss in Switzerland.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Alex Linder: There's a multiple. There are only... How many Swiss are there? Maybe seven million or something. I mean there's 40 million Mexicans here. Again, we were talking about population changes. When I was in school, Mexico always had a population of about 90 million. And what is it today? I believe it's 100 million. So, Mexico has added 10 million Mexicans over the last 20 years. And south Africa has added 10 million niggers over the last 20 years.

Aegis: And that's minus the 40 million living here.

Aegis: I mean those are good Catholics down there Alex, as Buchanan would tell you.

Alex Linder: Well, it's not just Mexicans. I mean there's people from Brazil and from El Salvador who are also here in large numbers. And it's also Africans who are here in large numbers. Yeah. That's how it's going. We Whites have no... What's good for Whites? That's what concerns us here. What's good for Whites is living in a White land where the lowest common denominator is much higher than it is when we live in a land that's mixed with these people from around the Third World (these people of failure from the sewers of the world). You can't run a country with Nigerians. You can't run a country with Mexicans or El Salvadorans. They have nothing to do with what we do. They don't live the way we want to live: Norman Rockwell-type lives, middle class, where everybody's on the same page. They're not obsessed with money over every other value. They have decent morals. And you know, you don't have to lock your car or your door when you go outside. Is that the kind of America we live in today? No, it isn't. It's the farthest thing from it. You have to lock your door at all times. You have to be on guard. And the only way we can get to the kind of society we want to live in is to reconstitute it on a racial basis. Race has everything to do with the kind of country one wants to live in, no matter that fact is denied by the Catholics as well as the Jewish liars and the religious nuts who say that race doesn't matter.

Aegis: Speaking of religious nuts, we have a Jew in New York City by the name of Silverstein who's looking for "$12.3 billion in damages from the airlines and other companies associated with the September 11 terrorist attacks, his spokesman said Thursday. Larry Silverstein, president and CEO of Silverstein Properties, has recovered $4.6 billion in insurance payments." "The additional money is meant to offset the remaining costs of what was lost on September 11."

Alex Linder: "Pull it!" Who is this guy? Give us the background on Silverstein.

Aegis: Yeah, Silverstein was the property owner or manager. I guess he was the owner of the World Trade Center, and just mysteriously insured it to the hilt against terrorist attacks six months before a terrorist event happened.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

Alex Linder: Was it six months or six weeks before it happened? I thought it was very close to when 9-11 went off. He became the owner and insured to the hilt (as you say) the World Trade Center and has received billions in reparations for his losses and wants billions more. But he was the guy who said on film about World Trade Center Building number 7, that was not hit by any airplane, "We decided to go ahead and pull it." That's why that building along with the two others came down that day, which is pretty clear proof that the whole thing was rigged. Since you can't immediately just decide to pull down a building. You have to rig it up with some stuff.

Aegis: This story just seems to underline the fact of how brazen these people are. I mean you think now with the whole 9-11 truth movement, which is becoming pretty obvious even in New York City, that a guy like this even after collecting 4.6 billion dollars would decide to tone it down a bit. But he's going for the jugular here with an additional 12.3-billion-dollar claim.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Here's one of the ironies of that guys. And that is that all the lawyers... Again, let's go back a couple of decades. Maybe I'm older and that's why I can remember it. But he's suing the Boston Authority and Logan Airport, from where the hijackers who hit the Trade Center took off. So, the reason given that they weren't checked more carefully was [because of] the racial profiling laws. And they changed those. And if you look at the leaders who changed those, they were constantly a stream of Jew lawyers on our televisions. I remember on the public broadcasting equivalent on TV. You know the one with the fellow and his female sidekick? I can't think of the name of them now. MacNeil/Lehrer Report! Yeah. Anyway, they would have them on there [talking about] racial profiling. "Are we being sensitive enough yet?" "Have you curbed your White racism?" (and so forth...) "No? You haven't? Well, we'll change the laws then." "So, we don't have to check these guys at the airport just because they're dark skinned or Muslim or whatever." So, one of the ironies is that the Jews led the charge on that to prevent any kind of racial or ethnic difference profiling. That's the pretext they gave. That's the excuse that they gave. Well, we couldn't check them closer because of the laws.

Alex Linder: Yeah, well they never proved anything, did they really (about who was on the planes)? They didn't have the names of the ones they claimed later were the hijackers.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Well, that's true. In the 9-11 truth [movement], a lot of those things are still in question. But still the most glaring one is the event to me. There's the one you just named: the three buildings falling. Some fellow just made a video. And he said, "It's the first time in all humankind that three steel frame buildings have fallen from fire in a controlled direct collapse that took 15 seconds." It should have taken about 45 seconds. And they all happened in the same place on the same day.

Aegis: It was the funniest thing I've read recently. And basically, every day new facts come out, and things that don't add up. They were describing how NORAD completely lost track of these planes because the terrorists allegedly turned the transponders off. And some guy said, "Well gee! If the Russians had figured out that, they could have bombed Washington with impunity."

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Alex Linder: Just the other day, they came across some Russian plane, some MiGs or something up around Alaska. It's complete garbage that they couldn't figure out where these planes were, and they didn't know what was going on and they just somehow were able to get through. That's garbage. They stood down. That's why Cheney got all mad when [the adjutant] said, "Does the order still stand?" [Cheney responded] "Of course they do! Have you heard anything different?" That's what he snapped at one of his adjutants while they were waiting for the planes to hit the towers. They knew what was going on. And of course, it was prepared. They prepped the buildings up. They probably sawed through the things partly, and then bombed them a little bit or had an explosive go off to fully sever the steel supports. That's the thing. They had 47 steel columns in the middle of that thing. And there's no way in hell that that wouldn't have survived in some way, shape or form. But no. It all neatly came down in nice little 30-foot packages that could be immediately carted off and sold to Asia for scrap metal. So, it was totally a produced, planned event just like Pearl Harbor. But since the American people don't give a damn; even about Pearl Harbor after the fact when it's known and demonstrated that we had all the codes and we deliberately engineered them to attack us. They don't care. So, it's pretty brazen. Yeah, and too much is never enough for these Jews. They always want more money and more power. You know the guys only got 4 billion out of the building so. And he wants another 8 billion.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: You would think at least a novelist would arise who would write fictional stories of these big kike personages getting mass assassinated in a fictional society.

Alex Linder: Yeah, but you know what Craig? There actually is one that came out. It's not precisely about that. It's more about Jews producing these pretexts mentioned in the column by Paul Craig Roberts. I can't think of the name of the book, but it is about (I guess) the Mossad and the insiders in the U.S. nuclearly bombing an American city as a pretext to war with Iran.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Was that Des Moines? I think...

Alex Linder: I can't remember it. I think it was actually was the was the city that they nuked in the in the novel. And apparently, it's not a great novel. But so far has this kind of talk gone (that we're engaged in here), and so common is it now to understand what's actually going on at the top of the us government that it's already turned into a mainstream novel. People are already that knowledgeable. Or, they would say that cynical. But it's just knowledgeable. They understand how these things operate. If you know a little about the Mossad and you read Victor Ostrovsky's books, [then] you see the pattern. And the World Trade Center demolitions fit the pattern exactly. And this is what the Mossad does. It creates false flag operations in order to engineer certain results. And the result it wanted was getting the U.S. Embroiled in Israel's defense and its wars. And that's why Netanyahu the Israeli prime minister was grinning and happy he said oh this is a good well I mean it's not a good thing it's terrible but now they know exactly how we feel in Israel. You know so we're tied to them ever more closely.

Aegis: Speaking of Israel, we have: “Safed Chief Rabbi calls on state to exact revenge against pharaoh. Chief Rabbi of Safed, Rabbi Shmuel Elihu is calling on the government to carry out state-sanctioned revenge against Arabs in order to (in his words) ‘restore Israel’s deterrence’. In a peace pen for this upcoming week’s edition of the newsletter Haaretz Israel Shelanu, Rabbi Shmuel Elihu wrote, ‘It’s time to call the child by its name: revenge. We mustn’t forget we have to take horrible revenge for the terrorist attacks at Mercaz HaRav Yeshiva,’ referring to the incident in which eight students were killed earlier this month.”

Alex Linder: Yeah, well he says, “‘I’m not talking about individual people in particular. I’m talking about the state Elijah who wrote the state has to pan them to the point where they scream enough. So, as you see here, they always [claim to be] against collective guilt. Well, that’s [exactly] what they believe in completely. He’s not talking he’s not talking about the people who did this or inspired or whatever. He’s saying whatever he doesn’t care who they take it out of. He wants a lump of flesh taken out of Palestine. They’re collectively guilty of what? Well really [they’re collectively guilty] of not being Jews. That’s the Jewish attitude toward all non-Jews. You are collectively guilty. And remember that this action... This killing of these eight Jewish thugs that are being misrepresented as high school students by the liars at Fox News the professional skills, sellouts and traders of Fox News... Remember that this was preceded by the murder of 120 innocent Palestinians by Israel. So, the revenge taken was coming from the Palestinians who are living in a concentration camp that suffers from blackouts, economic embargoes and Israeli tanks on every other street. So, as always, complete misrepresentation by the Jews and extreme viciousness exemplified by their behavior, their actions and their mentality. You see how they think. They just hate all non-Jews. There’s no other way to put it. What’s an antisemite? It’s someone who’s not a Jew. And that’s what they really believe. They hate all non-Jewish people. In fact, they don’t regard non-Jews people. They regard them as animals. And he wants the Israeli government to go slaughter more of the livestock.

Aegis: Haven’t they been doing that all along? Is this something new?

Alex Linder: They have. They’ve been torturing the Palestinians for decades now, but we don’t hear about it in American media. All we hear about is... Like someone put on VNN Forum, “When the eight Israelis were killed, that’s on page 1. But the fact that five American soldiers died that day is on page 17.” So, Israel’s concerns are made to outweigh American concerns. It’s like our whole nation is set up to just do whatever helps Israel. And screw what’s good for us. Well, that’s what we’re saying. That’s why we do this show. Look at what’s good for White people. That’s what matters. And we have to identify as Whites in order to fight back against these criminals who take all of our money and our arms as we’ll see later in the show.

Craig “Chain” Cobb: This rabbi is the Chief Rabbi of Safed, which is listed in Wikipedia as one of the four holiest Hebrew (Jewish) cities. And one of those four cities listed (other than Safed) is Hebron. And Hebron is in the West Bank. It's not a Jew city. Instead, the Palestinians are supposed to have it. Although the Jews literally control the center of Hebron. They've really just kicked Palestinians out of the center of that city in the West Bank and taken it over. It also says here there's a rumor that Safed (it's not mentioned in the bible) was founded by one of Noah's sons. And you'll remember Noah as the 600-year-old alcoholic in the bible who built the ark.

Aegis: Right. You can't even ethnically profile people here in the U.S. because the Jews would take offense of that. That would be ethnic profiling. You can't discriminate against minorities. You have to yield to affirmative action, and not notice when your neighborhood is being taken over by Blacks. You have to be an equal opportunity employer, of all things. And meanwhile, they're doing what they damn well please over there in Israel.

Alex Linder: Yeah, we don't even know most of what they do. It simply is not reported. But a lot of what they do is destruction of property and shooting of innocent people. And you have to understand that these people are basically living in concentration camps. I mean it's surrounded by wire and walls, subject to blackouts, subject to tanks rolling through the street, and shelling apartment buildings and knocking them down; or just smashing through walls around properties, uprooting olive trees and orange trees. That's how Jews operate. They have no respect for other people because they don't believe that they're people. And they believe that they themselves are Gods among animals. "Gods among dogs" is perhaps a better way of putting it. And we subsidize these clowns to the tune of billions of dollars a year, and over a trillion dollars since the foundation of Israel back in 1948. Yet another reason to feel great about our country America, and what it's turned into, what it's devolved into under the Jews who placed between themselves and the Whites (who ought to take revenge on them), a class consisting of Kwame Kilpatricks and tens of millions of illegal invaders. Think about that, what we've discussed today. Clowns like Spitzer and this Jewish rabbi are running America. This Jewish arms dealer we're going to talk about in a minute are running America. In between them and the White people who founded the country is Kwame Kilpatrick (this incompetent murderous nigger with a diamond stud in his ear) and hundreds of thousands of illegal invaders kicked out of one state but free to roam the other 49, and get driver's licenses and all kinds of medical benefits. So that's America today in 2008. Enjoy.

soccer World Cup that prosecutors said called into question whether nonwhite players should be on the national team.

Aegis: Yeah. We're heading to Germany. We have a story here. Prosecutors accuse the head of Germany's top far-right party Tuesday with "*publishing a pamphlet before the 2006 soccer World Cup that prosecutors said called into question whether nonwhite players should be on the national team. also been charged, Herbeth said. The pamphlets showed the traditional white German jersey with the No. 25, worn at the time by the defender Patrick Owomoyela. They read: 'White, not just a jersey color! For a real NATIONAL team!'"

Craig "Chain" Cobb: A little bit of Jewish kabbalism migrated into German law! They don't like them fucking with the numbers, mystical numbers of the negroes. How long is he facing in prison for that one? That sounds pretty serious. A couple years?

Aegis: Well, they do take "incitement to hatred" pretty seriously. So yeah. Let's say one to five years.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: He'll think twice again before he puts numbers on jerseys or makes any allusion to... Alex had an article linked on VNNforum.com on the front page. And I looked at that. And it says that now in Germany they're claiming that the Jews are telepathically...

Alex Linder: That was satire actually. If you read it... I just skimmed over and saw one quote. And I thought it was real. But then when you read it... Yeah, it's satire. But like good satire, it's not too far off. It's plausible. I mean murder, rape... and "publishing a pamphlet"? I mean this guy's being prosecuted for publishing a pamphlet? This is what it's come to. And yet at the same time, "Germany is a free and democratic country." And you have freedom of press and freedom of speech and freedom of opinion? No, you don't. You can't publish a pamphlet saying there shouldn't be non-Whites on your national team.

Aegis: Alex, that was putting ink to paper here and distributing it. So, you might be underplaying the seriousness of this offense.

Alex Linder: I mean this is just beyond ridiculous. And this stuff is never reported in America or in Canada. Tight now up in Canada you have a battle going on over the Lemire case, where Lemire is defending against the Canadian hate commission which is kind of the star chamber that does the work of the Jews and their cat's paws like Richard Warman. And only now are they talking about free speech concerns there because Muslims have started to bring charges against Jews under the laws Jews created to persecute Whites. And so, when Jews start becoming the targets of these laws they set up to harass Whites, then it becomes a free speech issue. And "it should be written about." And so, you have the columnists who are almost all Jews themselves like Jonathan Kaye and Mark Stein (to name the two most prominent), writing about free speech. And of course, the only thing they ever mentioned besides Ezra Levant and (I forget the other Jew) Mark Stein himself (who are subject to attack under these laws) is the Fleming Rose case. He [Fleming Rose] is a Jew over in Denmark who published the anti-Muslim cartoons. So free speech means the Jew's right to criticize anybody, and hate speech means the Jew's right to attack anybody who criticizes him. So as usual, the Jews are trying to have it both ways. And part of their control over a country like Germany is saying that you can't resist their policies of forcibly integrating Germany with non-Whites. You can't say that your national soccer team ought to be purely German, rather than have a stray Nigerian or two on it. Or you get persecuted by state prosecutors, potentially thrown in jail for years as has already happened to Ernst Zundel, Horst Mahler or Sylvia Stoltz (to name about three of the people we have at vnnforum.com in our speech martyrs' sub-forum).

Aegis: Germar Rudolph

Alex Linder: Quite right. All these people... Go to VNNforum.com. Go to our speech martyrs. You'll see all the men who are in jail across Europe for things that they've said that their Jew-controlled governments don't want them saying, all while these same Jews and the media they control are insisting that these are free and democratic nations with a complete right of conscience and right to an opinion. But they in fact do not enjoy those rights. And you know that's why we do this show. [It's] because this needs to change. And the only way it's going to change is if Whites organize around their racial identity, and fight back against the Jews who are persecuting them.

Aegis: Speaking about Jews, we have another TJB (typical Jewish behavior). And this article is titled, "Supplier Under Scrutiny on Arms for Afghans". Let's see here. "Since 2006, when the insurgency in Afghanistan sharply intensified, the Afghan government has been dependent on American logistics and military support in the war against al Qaeda and the Taliban. But to arm the Afghan forces that it hopes will lead this fight, the American military has relied since early last year on a fledgling company led by a 22-year-old man, whose vice president was a licensed masseur masseuse. With an award last January of a federal contract worth as much as nearly 300 million dollars, the company AEY (which operates out of an unmarked office in Miami Beach), became the main supplier of munitions to Afghanistan's army and police forces."

Alex Linder: Yeah, you've basically got a kike who's barely 18, who supplied defective ammunition and arms to Afghanistan under these government contracts. This is just part and parcel of Jewish corruption. It's corruption you see wherever Jews dominate politically because that's what they are. They're essentially a criminal genetic clan. And they're going to network with each other like Elliot Spitzer up north in New York down to this little kike who's 22 years old down in Miami. It's the same corruption. And he's buying old, unstable, low-quality ammunition and occasionally supplying it to the troops out in Afghanistan or the Afghans who are fighting with us, and making a huge boatload of money off of it all the while. And now it's finally come to the fore. If you people don't think that our government is controlled by Jews, how do you explain story after story after story in which anybody who stands a thwart the Jewish agenda is being persecuted (whether in Germany, Canada or the U.S.)? Meanwhile, the Jews themselves are making out like bandits. They're killing and shooting everything that moves. They're supplying defective munitions to make a bunch of money. And let me tell you, I remember seeing some movie (I wish I could recall the name). When I read the story, I thought of it. I can't recall the name, but it was a movie made by Hollywood after World War Two (but probably before 1965). And it was about a goyish-type doing exactly this sort of thing. He knowingly signed off on defective airplane parts, which led to American flyers getting killed in the war because he wanted to make some profit. And of course, as I recall from the movie, the goy doing this had a German surname. He was no Jew. So, the Jew uses his media control to invert reality. In the Jews' movie, the goy is the bad guy. But in reality, as we see from this article, the Jew is the corrupt businessman. The Jew is getting people killed by supplying them with substandard ammunition and armaments. So that's why we do this show. It's because no one else is going to point out to you the ethnic connection here, and what's actually going on. You read it. You think, "Oh okay. Well, they got a bad supplier. They get rid of them." No! The whole complex is controlled by Jews. They steal all of our best technology. And they either sell it to China or use it in Israel, or do both. And then the crappy inferior stuff they supply to our army and our friends (our allies in Afghanistan) and make a boat load of money off of it. Or you got this other Jew selling nuclear triggers to Pakistan. Our government is controlled by Jews, and this story is just one manifestation of that control. How in the world else is a 22-year-old kid going to get a government contract for $300 million to supply arms to the army? How does that happen?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: You're oppressing this poor fellow, Alex, this poor Jewish 22-year-old arms dealer with only a third of a billion bucks. Maybe you're jealous, Alex. Is that it? That's what the Jews would have us believe.

Alex Linder: Well, I don't see how someone that old can have the experience or connections to come up with what our army needs. It just doesn't make any kind of sense whatsoever.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: He'd been at it for four years. He incorporated... They said that company was floating along, lumbering along a little bit. His dad had it. And by the way, when his dad opened the door for reporters in a video report, he was wearing his yarmulke. And this kid owned it for a while, one percent of the company. Then he literally incorporated it a month after he won the federal contract. And his one friend was a masseur. The other guy, who was a general manager (Levi something Meyer I think), said he's going to walk away from it. He said, "I'm finished with that." And then the Jew Henry Waxman... I have the pdf, and I'm reading it. The Jew Henry Waxman in the Congress has written in this real formal letter, "Mr. Levi Meyer, you are commanded to appear," and so forth and so on. I don't think he uses the word commander, but all filled with the viciousness. "Bring all the records that you have. We want to know the details of your business." Meanwhile, these kids are probably sitting around smoking pot and talking Ebonics.

Alex Linder: These are kike operators! Craig, D.C. is full of them! I saw people who worked at my company. And then they would go and work at The Washington Times. Or they'd work for Israeli defense contractors. They're all a kike network. That's what you said literally I'm living people's lives for us. What you White people living in the middle of the country don't grasp is that the country is run by a tight network of kikes operating on the east coast essentially, and also on the west coast. They all know each other. They're integrated. They employ each other. They're nepotistic. And they operate this country to their advantage. And then they run shit on TV that you buy like suckers. Slap a bumper sticker on your car [that reads], "I support the troops." Send your kid abroad to die for Israel while these fuckers are sitting there getting blowjobs, massages and selling crap ammunition to make boatloads of money. That's what's actually going on. It's not run in your interest. This country is run in the interests of Jews. And that has to be changed. I guess I really shouldn't need to say that. But the Jews have to be thrown out for any kind of sanity to be possible. For any kind of self-controlled government to be possible, you have to get rid of the Jews and the minorities. There's no way around it. You're never going to have any Black hope that's actually going to pan out. They're all going to turn out to be crooks and murderers and liars.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: This ammunition, by the way, came from Albania. It was Chinese ammunition manufactured between 1962 and 1974.

Alex Linder: Can you imagine this crap that's 40 years old and been shipped all the way around the world and been sitting in warehouses for decades?! And this fucking little kike... And you can believe he's a completely arrogant little kike. And I can just see this little kike. He probably goes out to the clubs every night. He's an arrogant little kike. He's selling this ammunition he knows to be utter shit, and making a boatload of money off it. You know, "Oh, golden medina! America is the best place on Earth for the Jews." This is how these people are.

Aegis: Yeah. Here it says, "Miami beach: Even before the suspension, AEY had lost staff members. Michael Diveroli, the company's founder, told a reporter that he no longer had any relationship with the company. Mr. Packouz, who was AEY's vice president, and Levi Meyer, who was briefly listed as general manager, had left the company too."

Craig "Chain" Cobb: They're writing it up as if it really exists, or that there was really something going on. It's bordering on a Ponzi scheme. It was just a company in Cyprus called Evdin, and there was a Swiss behind that. But the point is [they have] their own Jewish network, as Alex said. It's just like a big shitshow.

Alex Linder: It's just a bunch of bullshit. I mean it's... "Hey! I'm an arms dealer. Give me a 300-million-dollar contract. Okay. Put the money into this account. Once the money's in there, then I spend two million dollars buying this shit ammo. And I ship it to you. And all of a sudden, I've got 298 million dollars. And you've got a bunch of crappy ammo. And I'm happy." That's all it is. They're not doing any fucking thing with it.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah. How long is this Jew going to get in jail too? Is he going to jail for about 18 months? [Will he get] a 12-month suspended sentence because he was such a good member of the community until this happened?

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Alex Linder: You got to put all this together. Remember Karen Kwiatkowski, the libertarian writing about these phalanxes of kikes coming through her under office in the Pentagon? Well, who do you think those people know? They know guys like this. They know how to set up their own people to make huge profits. And they know how to misrepresent it through Hollywood what's actually going on and through the media. And they know how to make... This story no longer exists at Fox News, when it's about Israelis wiretapping all these American officials. So that they always know what's going on. We saw that in the case it was used to trip up Spitzer. In fact, although they tripped up Spitzer on something personal. So, it's not something that's going to ramify through the wider community. You know always using a prostitute, but they can use that same control over telephones and money and media to take down anybody. They find out your secrets. They track you. Find out where your money's going who you're talking to where you're browsing on the web and use that to blackmail you or take you down and use it to cover up information about their own shenanigans. Like this little punk kid who's you know making these hundreds of millions of dollars dealing this defective ammunition.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Check this. A couple years before this happened, he and one of his partners beat up a parking lot attendant severely. He was charged with a felony. And he went into court and said how he was a well-known who's working hard for the government to stop terrorism. This is what he told the judge and so forth. Can you imagine some judge watching that watching this snot mouth, little, know-it-all kid doing this? It's unbelievable. This is the kind of kid you see out in South Beach MTV beach party with the niggers hip-hopping. He was just the fucking same. And then his dad said he was a genius. And talk about huge profits, Alex. This is anti-reality. And the anti-reality is so far ingrained and so pandemic in the United States that... I said it makes the Weimar Republic look like a right-wing government.

Alex Linder: Who fucking gives a 300-million-dollar contract to this fucking little punk kid? That's where the story is. Who's the guy sitting there [saying], "Oh, we had 10 bids and we gave it to this little punk kike kid down in Miami"?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Check this. We're still accepting shipments from them, even after all this. I don't know. I think it's something like 30 or 60 days hence until they solve the problem. And they're going to have Henry Waxman from... This Jew is going to go up there [with] Henry Waxman. And this young kike will probably wear a nice suit. And for a while they couldn't find him. I'm not sure if they've even found him yet. Anyway, Levi Meyer got summoned. And it's just unbelievable. While our kids can't even get a fucking job in the 7-Eleven. Somebody needs to get shot in the head, a whole bunch of them. It's really, really wrong. Bear Stearns and the Cayman Islands registration and some nigger judge... This is where that goddamn thing is chartered. What is wrong with the people in the United States?!

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Alex Linder: And what we're also going to see is that's where all these financial firms that have sold these suckers all this bad paper are going to liquidate, in the Cayman Islands. And [they'll] declare bankruptcy, and protect most of their assets and let the investors go hang.

Aegis: Yeah. That's this next article here. "Bear Stearns Caymans Filing May Hurt Funds' Creditors. Bear Stearns' decision to liquidate two bankrupt hedge funds in the Cayman Islands instead of New York may limit creditors' and investors' ability to get their money back."

Craig "Chain" Cobb: All this shit, Aegis! It sounds like they're fucking reading from the onion website or something. It doesn't even make sense.

Alex Linder: Yeah. And who was it? Somebody with Bear Stearns just dumped... I don't know. He sold $60 million worth of something to cash out. That's what they're going to do. The higher end people in this are never going to suffer in the slightest. They're going to preserve 90% of their wealth. And their investors are going to lose 90% percent of their wealth, if not 100%. When you get involved with the stock market, it's a kike casino (as one of our guys used to say). They're the house, and you often enough are the sucker. Or, if you're not the sucker, you're not the sucker because you're extremely careful about how you played. And you got out when you were ahead. All these stories perfectly feed into one another to give you a complete picture. And hopefully we're helping in that regard. But my God! They almost tell the story themselves, if you see it. It's Jews running the country. And these are just different manifestations of the corruption and the crazy politics that you're going to get whenever you have Jews in control of something. They're running it to pursue their own agenda and for their own interests. And their interests are diametrically opposed to our interests as normal White people.

Aegis: "Filing the funds' bankruptcy in the Caymans, a banking center, 'is a nice little stunt, and it may work for a while,' Brandt said. 'Bear Stearns is trying to put a wall between themselves and these so-called rogue funds.'"

Craig "Chain" Cobb: I believe they were even chartered there, Aegis. I may be wrong, but I think that they were literally chartered there. So, all their paper somewhere would have had to declare that from the get-go. Right. There is a big high-rise in the middle of New York City. "And I'll run the thing out of it as if we're planning for a rainy day."

Alex Linder: Well, I think... Craig, doesn't that article say that most of these hedge funds or investment funds belong to companies that are headquartered in these islands? [It's] because they have... It's not necessarily... It's partly because of "a day like this might come," and it's also because they have more privacy and more freedom in the islands than they do in the U.S. (certainly and definitely better tax situations). I know the U.S. Regulators have been trying to get a better hold on a lot of these islands where they have different rules in the U.S. Because they don't... Like I said, we were talking about that. One of the planks of Marxism is capital controls and not allowing money to leave the country without their approval. And the U.S.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Regulators want to know where every dollar is. And of course, industry is going to try to protect itself for fair for foul. Come the rainy day, they can liquidate under judges who aren't going to go after the heads of these hedge funds. They're going to let them keep a lot of their assets and just fuck their investors.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: We have a video on podblanc.com. And it's by this guy Rogers, who's a well-respected White man (an investor-type fellow). And he says that the federal government knew all about Bear Stearns way back during the last quarter of 2007. And all these guys are driving $200,000 Maseratis in there. And when I say all of them, I mean all of them. That's literally a monster. This is what they did. They gave away 43 billion in bonuses (billion, not million) in December. And that's literally what they're doing. And the federal government didn't want to take it away from them. Why? It's because they're making a special dispensation since they're Jews (Goldman Sachs and Bear Stearns). And then they just give them all the cushy deals (just like they all got the cushy deal from the guy who stuffed the documents down his pants and got away). The NSA guy... Who was it? Sandy Berger. And just one after the other! You name it. They can talk about us as antisemites or whatever they want. But these kind of things... This million-dollar kid did really gets to me because... Imagine a federal government that would hand that kind of money. They're just literally throwing it away. I mean on a flim-flam! And the federal government is literally complicit. And they act as if these journalists can't find the guy who gave this to this kid. The awarders of the contract should be ferreted out within like 24 hours. They can backtrack that. They won't do it. They will not do it. And the journalists write it up as if, "Oh my! He was really in business and quite a success by the way, as was Bear Stearns!"

Alex Linder: You know what it is? It's like that MTV video editing style of just "boom boom boom boom boom boom". It has gone general in the media to the press as well because you don't get the context of anything. So that you never develop a true understanding. It plays into what Hitler said is the point of reading: to clarify and flesh out your picture of the world so that you can put every piece of information in your head into a sort of a pattern and see. And as you read, you read with a specific mission of clarifying and expanding that picture. But you can't do that with the Jewish media in itself. Or it makes it more difficult to do it because they don't put their articles into any kind of interpretative context. It's just "this happened and this happened and this," and you're never allowed to see the connections between them.

Alex Linder: Yeah. It's just a never-ending cavalcade of personality. I think they use the word epiphenomenon. They're just little bursts, like little ripples on top of a pond that go away immediately. There's never any deeper meaning to it. That's what we're trying to give you here on Goyfire.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

Craig "Chain" Cobb: "How did such a successful businessman go bad? How could a boy genius like that? Why did he abuse the wonderful creation he'd made?" I hope some Iraq veterans come back and change things (some Whites), not more than a few thousand of them.

Aegis: Yeah. There's nothing like having to defend yourself against a couple of Mujahideen, and your weapon misfires or jams because you got Albanian ammo in your clip.

Alex Linder: And not Albanian ammo from 2000! It's like from 1962 or something!

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, I saw the picture. Some of it literally had mold on it; rust and mold and corrosion.

Alex Linder: Albania has never been noted for the high quality of its manufactured goods. I'm not sure Albanians manufacture anything really.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Chinese...

Alex Linder: Yeah. So, they got it from the Chinese communists 40 years ago.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: And I want to tell everybody not to worry about the kike masseur (all three are kikes) because he's now a songwriter on Myspace.com. How about that? You know, maybe we're going to watch him on American Idol next. You fucking idiots!

Aegis: Well Chain, we wouldn't want such talent to go to waste. We're talking about America here!

Craig "Chain" Cobb: That's right. I want to see Henry Waxman and Levi Meyer. That'll be hilarious. "Mr. Meyer. Yeah, you have a quite a resume here. And it's not often that we see a young man impressed. But I would just like to know how you went wrong with all the great things that you'd accomplish down there at the massage table." Who knows?

Aegis: In any case, I do believe we are through the topics. So, any closing statements or anything going on at VNN?

Alex Linder: Let Chain go first. Let me think for a second. If you have something to say Chain...

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Well, Aegis just told me this. He keeps track of it. Goyfire is getting 240,000 hits a year. So, before the year's out, I bet it's up over 300,000. And they say viral media is 1,100,000. I think I've heard that. So, we're getting up there.

Alex Linder: Is that from tracking Goyfire.com?

Aegis: Yes. Downloads or click through it.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Alex Linder: Well, we encourage people to send us an email. If you want, you can send it to me at ALinder@kvmo.net, or info@goyfire.com. We've got a way to track some of our radio. I've just gotten into that recently. I'm kind of wondering about how people were... We don't like to speak. We just want to know that people are listening to it. So let us know from time to time, and we'll try to record these more often than we have in the last few months. But VNN's just going forward. I'm going to develop a few more... I've developed a lot of archive threads. And I'm going to do more on that front in terms of... Craig, the thread that you and I had built on the law schools... I'm going to rebuild that and restore it.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: I can send it over from podblanc.com.

Alex Linder: Maybe we can mutually, dually post it somehow. The way we did it the first time is simply... We went out and found the top law schools. And then we posted links and pictures of representative lawyers and just estimated the percentage of Jews as law professors at the top schools. And it's very easy to demonstrate. The Jews are essentially half of the Ivy League law professors. And that's conservatively. That's not knowing which ones are married to Jews. But that's just taking the most obvious Jew names out of it anyway. That's something I'm going to work on. And we got a bunch of other stuff we're working on in the newspaper also.

Aegis: Radio Istina

Alex Linder: I'm going to be doing that tomorrow. They're individually numbered and handcrafted.

Aegis: We do have a live feed up. There is a live feed up on podblanc.com.com with Radio Istina up there. So, it's a great show. You really go into your professorial depth.

Alex Linder: I try to... I think there's a lack of Aryan State University education, and we just go into it somewhat on this show. We talk. We try to give you the fuller context. That's more overtly just lecturing out of different books by the wisest people out there, and trying to figure out what's actually going on in this world. It's stuff you will not get in any university. That's for sure. So, there's a crying need for all that education that you can possibly come up with. And part of it is what Chain has put together. And you guys have done it on podblanc.com.com, putting together existing material such as videos of the first Americans. And this has to be used to re-teach people the truth about their origins. We say that we need to come together as Whites. Well, what's the background on that? Who are we? Where did we come from? All of that stuff... Bits and pieces of it are here and there around the internet, but it's not really put together by anybody. And that's what you guys have done with various videos of the first Americans. And I've got that archived at VNN. And there needs to be a lot more of that across the whole range of our history.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: But we have to dissuade people from their Jewish slavishness that, "there's no such thing as the White race". There's a whole generation of kids who believe that! I can't believe that they believe it! But apparently some of them do. At least they espouse it. I mean that's a pretty serious mind bender.

Aegis: Even now at eight percent of the world population, they won't believe it.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, and 74% percent of the U.S. believes racism is a sin. First of all, what's a sin? You know what, if you don't think that there's a... If you can get past the idea that there's not a supernatural deity, that means that you have this brief time here. And whatever you flush out here is what you get. And the way you're going to propel yourselves forward is through DNA. And that's the connectivity. You're the living connectivity between the past of that DNA and the future. And all of these things about context that you said. Alex, we don't have context. These kids can't string together three or four sentences or paragraphs.

Alex Linder: Then we have the government actively giving these contracts to these stupid, child kikes. These child prodigy kikes are at the same time covering up our past, not just dumping thousands of tons of rock and soil on our ancestor the Kennewick man. But I found another thing from last year: the clovis point which was created by our ancestors in Iberia. And they brought the technology over here to America before the Red man ever came to the Americas. They found a clovis point in Malibu, California, which is as far west as you can go. And they found it last year. And unfortunately, the land is owned by a homeowner, who's only allowed a limited amount and only been forced by the state to allow a limited amount of excavation. So, there could be more stuff there. But I haven't seen any updates on the story. But there are lots of exciting stuff like that going on, where the truth about the origins of and the peopling of the Americas is slowly coming to light. And what we're doing out there at podblanc.com and VNN Forum is putting this information together and letting you see not only the corruption of academic anthropology, but the way that all of this fits a pattern of lies to deceive you about who you are and who you come from; and deceive you about your line of people and its meaning and really deprive your life of the full meaning of it, and reduce you to a moment-by-moment consumer of personality and pop politics. We have something better than that. That's why we do this show, and why we do these different websites. And we encourage you to join us and help us in whatever form that is, as always.

Aegis: Chain, you're now doing two times a day live video broadcast?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: I'm going to start tomorrow afternoon to do it twice. Try to reach European people. Well, the stream... I guess this hits people visually. But Europeans know a lot of these things because they're not deracinated from their own cultures (at least these smaller countries like Belarus and here). And these Slavic people (and some of them in this country Estonia) are sort of leading the way. And they're not... It's so refreshing to hear them talk about our people. And they don't have any apologies. It's just that I can barely relate the context to you accurately because it's so different from the United States, where they're utterly ashamed even to have a conversation about anything White. Literally, the people will not do it in many ways. So, it's just a big difference. And media is the only way to give them any kind of context. Unfortunately, the bigger voice (the bigger megaphone) is who people are still believing. They will not believe evidence. And they also believe power. And the power is so corrupt now that the money is going down. The money has been ruined. I don't know what it's going to take. Are you going to your last dime? Let your daughters get raped? What's it going to take, people, before you make some action? I don't know. But I think you're really disdainful (not even pitiable). What's the word? I have almost disdain for you and people in the U.K. too. To think that those are my ancestors! A lot of them think that. They let them come to this, and even some of the Germans who've done it. There's no excuse. There's something in our genetic makeup that needs to be addressed because...

Alex Linder: Yeah, and that is the ability to having guilt inculcated into us to a remarkable extent. I was reading over... I showed you some of the... They're having a big conference the next few days (like from April 1 to April 5) on "White privilege". And this is the ninth annual congress. And it's a bunch of leftist activists and pseudo-academics from around the country convening to discuss so-called "White privilege," and talk about ways of dismantling systems of oppression and White privilege and White supremacy and oppressive structures. And it's a bunch of workshops, and basically a bunch of whining women and some men.

Aegis: Yeah. The videos are up. You can watch it in all of its glory.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: They actually call them "White supremacist consciousness" or something. And then they tell you it's not to be confused with "White supremacism pure" or simple "White supremacists".

Alex Linder: The point here is that what they found is Whites have (like a hostile computer seeking a port on a foreign computer to get in and mess up its system) this capacity to be fair or to look at things from a different point of view, whereas all the other races just look at "what's good for us". "Fuck them. What's good for us?" Whites need to get more like that to protect themselves. They have to intellectually understand, use their superior IQ to understand what's going on to fight back.

Aegis: They need an ethnic firewall.

Alex Linder: Yeah, that's a good way to put it. We need an ethnic firewall and say, "Look, that's why we identify." It's not just some 22-year-old kid. He's a fucking kike. It's not just this rabbi. He's a fucking kike. He's saying "revenge". Well, where does that come? Well, they don't believe non-Jews are humans. You have to understand these ethnic battles going on. And you'll never get that from the media and from a brainwashed public who's been trained that to be White is to be guilty or not to exist at all in any positive sense. And they actually have a whole pseudo-academic discipline devoted to inculcating guilt in White people, White women in particular.

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Also, under the right circumstances, if you're unwilling to kill someone because you have a superstition that you're going to suffer some eternal damnation because of it. This is the weirdness to it.

Alex Linder: Yeah. You're a sinner or you're immoral if you generalize based on behavior that you observe in the world. It's never immoral to use your brain to figure things out. And yet that's what these Whites have been trained. You see it in... I see it in... I read this stuff pretty extensively last night. And the woman says, "I learned that I shouldn't immediately shut down my feelings." She would have an inadvertent natural reaction to nigger behavior. And being a good White woman, she was trained to shut it down. So, they're trying to retrain her to, "No, you shouldn't just shut down your racist feeling. You should take it out and use it as a chance to learn." But not learn the obvious thing! Like, "Yeah, you're right. You are correctly seeing what's going on and responding to it." But instead, to unlearn your racism and linger on it and reinterpret it correctly in line with their orthodoxy!

Aegis: Right. Another technique I was watching on the film that was up on podblanc.com.com was they started with a confession of a White woman. She said, "I did think about it. And at the end of the day, if I had a choice, I would choose to be White." And so, they took this natural honest inclination of hers and turned it into a bad thing as if...

Craig "Chain" Cobb: She didn't lose all her marbles then.

Aegis: It was this self-admission that she was a racist. And therefore, she all of a sudden understood what it meant to be underprivileged. So, they take the natural and pervert it into their own communist manifesto. And I recommend all viewers or listeners check this film out because it is just so disturbing. And they have that one Harvard professor up there, the Black mulatto guy. He comes across like a psychopath. He's just a complete nut. Tim Wise is up there with a bunch of anti-racist people.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: That's the guy who cannot pronounce the word privilege. He says "privirege".

Aegis: [It's] just a real coterie of psychotic personalities lecturing and hectoring Whites who were probably forced to be there in the first place.

Alex Linder: Well, the thing is they've got all their political work masqueraded as academic work. So, it's funded by the state because all these people are hired as professors of sociology or whatever. So, they live a good middle class life while they carry on their radical subversion while whining about privilege which is the ultimate joke you know.

Aegis: Yeah, they're...

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Did you see that picture on Vogue magazine with the basketball player? He looked like King Kong and he has Gisele that Brazilian. She's a White model anyway. Annie Leibovitz took that picture. And of course, she's a Jewish. Artificially inseminated at the age of she gave birth that would never say who the father was, lived in the same building and was constantly photographed with Susan Sontag a real name Susan Rosenblatt. And so, they were two dykes. And I made a lot of photos there and got in with John Wiener years old. Or I guess she became a photographer for Rolling Stone and a very homely Jewess. And there she is fast track. And the Queen told her off at one point recently in a photo shoot. But there she is taking the race mixing photo and making a big thing of it on vogue.

Aegis: Yeah, the gorilla and the White damsel...

Craig "Chain" Cobb: That's right. People think we're making captiousness out of it or are somehow crazy. The "medicalization of dissent" is what the Soviet Jews called it. We cite case after case after case. Then people say, "Oh, it's anecdotal. It could be White too." So, all these people who don't think like that. I hope I live long enough to see the day when some of them just get murdered. When they say, "You know what? We're in a war now. We're in a civil war. You either get with the program, or whoever's got more armaments is going to pop you." And if there's civil disorder in the United States, that's what happens to societies. It didn't happen in the Soviet Union. But the Soviet Union... I think those people had their heads screwed on better because of long-term scientific and civic education. But these kids in the United States, the ones 30 and below, generally they're cooked puppies. They cannot reason by and large.

Alex Linder: They've been taught that reasoning is immoral. They've reached the conclusion that any kind of generalization is evil, just like they think racism is a sin. I mean racism is a generalization from [patterns of] behavior, and they've been taught to disregard all generalizations.

Aegis: Well Chain, tell them where they can deprogram.

Craig "Chain" Cobb: I have this program. It's called "Deprogram." It's not Ebonics, for all you wiggers out there. It's a deprogram. That's what we want to do. And I got the idea from Aegis actually because he was running a live magazine on Mogulis, a live magazine of videos like a "weapon magazine". I call it a magazine. And they had a big effect, like the one about the Israeli Supreme Court, the kabbalistic symbols and all the hate symbols they have. [For example, there is] the pyramid on the back of your dollar bill and all those things. It's right there on the roof: ley lines, which are sort of witchy lines, magical this, magical that...

Aegis: So, this is a live talk show called "Deprogram".

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, that's right. I talk live. I think I'm probably a little calmer than I have been here this evening. I hope so.

Aegis: And so, when is it on? What times are you livestreaming?

Goyfire Broadcast #55 (May 22, 2008)

-Transcribed by Patton (June 10, 2022)

Craig "Chain" Cobb: That's 5:00 a.m. in Tallinn. I'm in Tallinn, Estonia. It's 11:00 p.m. on the east coast, 10:00 pm central time, 9:00 pm mountain time and 8:00 pm California / Kosovo time.

Aegis: Okay. It does change. So, I guess people have to tune into podblanc.com.com to find out the new times. But you are live streaming daily, correct?

Craig "Chain" Cobb: Yeah, it's streaming every day. I just go up there and talk about news and everything. It's kind of like what Alex is doing on the radio, except I'm not as good as Alex. But I have to do it because I'm old. And you know what? I lived in a different...

Alex Linder: I'm not doing it daily. Yeah, daily is a real commitment. It's good stuff. And God knows it's needed!

Craig "Chain" Cobb: I've seen over here these beautiful people, and it was how I remember the United States when I was young (and my family and my cousins). And that's how it is here. And there's no reason it can't be like that again. But we have to redraw boundaries. And first we have to convince our people that we are a people. [This is] real basic stuff. It's like teaching fucking, remedial kindergarten to you people. I'm not talking about the nationalists listening now. This is exciting. We're people on the planet, and we're under the gun. And our numbers are waning. We're not replacing ourselves with a birth rate in any place. And we're not the source of the world's ills. [We're] just the opposite actually, I would say. We're eight percent of the world and plummeting.
