SHOWDOWN PHASE

12:00 UTC 21st of December

What's up, faggots. December has finally begun, and with it all that xmas craze. Big corporations preparing their targeted marketing campaigns for you to request their newest bullshit as a christmas gift, another pointless xmas event in your soul draining gatcha game, and your beloved family forcing you to come back to hometown you despise with passion: all this and few more nightmares make this the most memorable period of the year. So to commemorate all this suffering, we are gonna have a little tourney in your beloved skillful chinese dominoes.

Thanks to the Totally Innocent Intel Network i.e /mjb/Map, I decided to stir things up a little bit and change the formula yet another time, to shut up those whiny assholes complaining about civilized world european friendly timeslots. This time the tournament is going to be separated into two phases.

KILL'EM ALL PHASE: LIST OF ANONS THAT CAN START GAMES

<https://pastebin.com/TqXVRg8F>

How to start a game: go to this link,

https://mahjongsoul.tournament.yo-star.com/dhs/index.html#

/login , log in with your in game account, pick the tourney,

<https://puu.sh/E00rf/5a15d7c8c6.png> from this window assign people to the game, tick all 3 boxes and press START.

This phase will last for 3 days (or 72 hours if you are into that). Each player will play 5 hanchans against other anons within a newly prepared lobby. You can spread your games however you want across this time, that way every time zone will fit somehow. Since I am not going to be around for the whole time (because sleep, work and all that IRL crap), I will give 15-20 most active anons ability to start games.

EVERY PLAYER IS OBLIGED TO CHECK IF THE RULES ARE SET TO STANDARD BEFORE CLICKING "PREPARE FOR MATCH".

EACH PLAYER HAS TO SEND ME A SCREENSHOT OF RESULTS SCREEN WITH "TOURNAMENT ROOM" VISIBLE IN THE CORNER TO THE ADDRESS 7thmahjongtourney@cock.li

(something like this: <https://puu.sh/EOO20/78443ad4ef.png>)

Players are asked not to play any game past 5th. The only exception to this rule would be during Sunday, if there will be missing seats among players who have yet to play all their games.

I'll try to update the leaderboards as often as I can, so you guys will know how well you have to perform in later matches (hint - don't play all 5 hanchans on friday).

After this, the top 16 players among those who played all 5 games will advance to the SHOWDOWN PHASE which will happen the following week. It will be simple, single elimination tourney with "1st and 2nd advances". Three rounds in total, so it won't take much time (I'm directing this to you, "muh_timezones" faggots).

Less important info:

1. Registration is closed (unless you pester me on irc).
2. Main way of contacting me and other anons during matches will be, as always, IRC channel #yakuman/v/irgins at irc.rizon.net . I am always online so you can be sure your message will reach me. Feel free to ask questions, pitch ideas or tell me how you hate this god forsaken game. Use your in-game name.
3. I'll try to spread game-starting rights across anons from all timezones to ensure smooth proceedings of elimination phase, but if you think you should be included, write to me about this as well.
4. Games from qualifiers are not going to be streamed, unless I'll be really bored. Finals will be streamed and commentated on usual platform.

5. There is no entry limit, meaning everyone is welcome. Level of play during qualifiers will be varied, so as long as you have the basic knowledge, you've got a chance.
6. If it wasn't obvious yet, rules are going to be standard ranked. I don't think you are ready yet for 10+5s no tips. Maybe one day.
7. I'll announce info for co-commentators after the qualifiers.
8. Put the links in next OP.
9. Play fair and have a good tourney.
