The world is heading towards some kind of historic event

The world is heading toward a kind of climax that will reverberate throughout history and perhaps even eternity. This is no exaggeration.

The BRICS summit in Russia this week and the election of the US president on November 5 are not ordinary political events. They will determine the future of humanity for thousands of years.

Recent events make it clear that there will be some sort of showdown at these events. China, Russia, North Korea, Turkey, Iran and many other countries have mobilized their military forces for all-out war. This comes at a time when 159 nations are signing an international settlement system that threatens the current controllers of the world financial system.

In the US, vigilante groups have now started fighting against FEMA agents. This is happening while the US presidential election is degenerating into a hybrid civil war.

To understand what is at stake, we need to step back and look at the bigger picture. The financial system is the process by which humanity decides what it will do in the future. We have discovered that it has been fraudulently hijacked by criminals who want to kill 90% of humanity and enslave the rest. Humanity has figured this out, and the criminals will be disempowered. This means that humanity will be free to determine its own future.

But the rabbit hole goes much deeper.

World Bank lawyer Karen Hudes was poisoned with arsenic and when she came to,

she was physically attacked in an attempt to silence her. However, she managed to record the video below before she was finally killed. She confirms what the Gnostic Illuminati and others have long been saying: that we are controlled by a malevolent force that is preventing our civilization from achieving some kind of breakthrough. This control is done through a combination of blackmail, bribery, murder and lies. Hudes says the black nobility is behind it. They control the banking cartel and the transnational corporations. She says these people have been in charge for at least 9,000 years.

Most recently, the Black Pope Jose Rizal and Ferdinand Marcos created the World Bank as an instrument of planetary control in the post-war years. This is just the latest iteration of the rule of the Black Nobility or Khazarian Mafia.

These people have been hiding the real history of the planet for a long time. "What you have to understand is that what you have been taught in history is all wrong... what we thought happened in 1000 BC actually happened in the Middle Ages," she says. The Russians discovered the fake history by studying lunar eclipses to find out who was active in the real history. They found that the same groups were active and history just kept repeating itself.

Here's an example: Washington DC is built on seven hills on land that was known as Rome, Maryland. The man who owned the land the capitol building was built on was named Francis Pope. He was known as the "Pope of Rome on the Tiber" because his property was on a river called the Tiber, which has the same name as the river that runs through Rome, Italy. So is it just a coincidence that we now have a Pope Francis in Rome?

🇺🇸 Pope Francis on President Trump: "A person who thinks only about building walls, wherever they may be, and not of building bridges, is not Christian. This is not the gospel."

What's your reaction?

This kind of coincidence may be the reason why the Vatican Library is one of the most heavily guarded sites in the world: its protection is more serious than that of any existing nuclear power plant.

The Vatican's secret archives were discovered in 1611 and only two people per year are allowed to enter them on a very limited basis.

The queues stretch around the walls

The timing fits well with the fact that the so-called 5785-year Jewish calendar, curated by the satanic Chabad sect, only goes back to 1601.

It also fits with what Pentagon sources tell us about how civilization rose only to be destroyed many times in the past. The drowned cities beneath the oceans are proof of this false story. "Enough of us know that we have all been deceived, and we will no longer accept these lies," Hudes concludes.

The Gnostic Illuminati said that they began fighting the black nobility bloodlines (Khazar Mafia) thousands of years ago after they destroyed the ancient Minoan civilization (Atlantis) with a tsunami.

This is not just ancient history. The Fukushima attack on Japan, the man-made hurricane that hit North Carolina, and the massive flooding of the Saudi Arabian desert show that this continues to this day.

The tsunami attack on Japan on March 11, 2011 was carried out to prevent Japan from using its $7 trillion to help the planet. The hurricane and flood in North Carolina were staged to steal lithium. And now it looks like the flooding of the Saudi desert was aimed at preventing the country from using its oil reserves to support the new BRICS currency.

So the BRICS summit in Kazan, Russia, this week and the US presidential election are both attempts by humanity to end the millennia-old rule of the Black Nobility (KM).

The Asian secret societies say they struck a blow against the KM last week by eliminating 32 key figures involved in the ongoing biowarfare attack on humanity, ending, they say, attempts to inject humans with deadly self-replicating mRNA vaccines.

The Asians expect further attempts to subjugate humanity through mass murder, so the armed forces of the BRICS countries are now preparing for several massive attacks while preparing for the new payment system.

In China, President Xi Jinping has called for increased troop training and combat readiness across the board. The Chinese have also surrounded Taiwan with military ships, demonstrating their ability to completely blockade the island.

Meanwhile, North Korea mobilized "more than 1.4 million Youth League officials, as well as youth and students across the country... to join or rejoin the Korean People's Army on October 14 and 15."

<http://kcna.kp/en/article/q/338cd4183c5fe5a58c98cd14e59b99af.kcmsf>

This happened after a South Korean drone attack on Pyongyang, the North Koreans say.

In Japan, too, the underworld has declared that it wants to declare war on the government. This has already begun with an attack on the headquarters of the ruling Liberal Democratic Party.

In the Middle East, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan told local media on Saturday that Russia, Iran and Syria must unite to counter Israel's aggression in the region. <https://www.frontnieuws.com/alliantie-van-het-einde-de-president-van-turkije-vraagt-rusland-syrie-en-iran-zich-te-verenigen-tegen-israel/>

This time it is different, because the British, the EU, the French, the Chinese and the Irish are also threatening military action against the rogue state of Israel.

French President Emmanuel Macron Rothschild told the Council of Ministers that Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu "must not forget to Netanyahu that his country was founded by a UN resolution." This is important because Macron, as a member of the Rothschild family, represents the highest levels of Jewish society.

French journalist Thierry Meyssan points out:

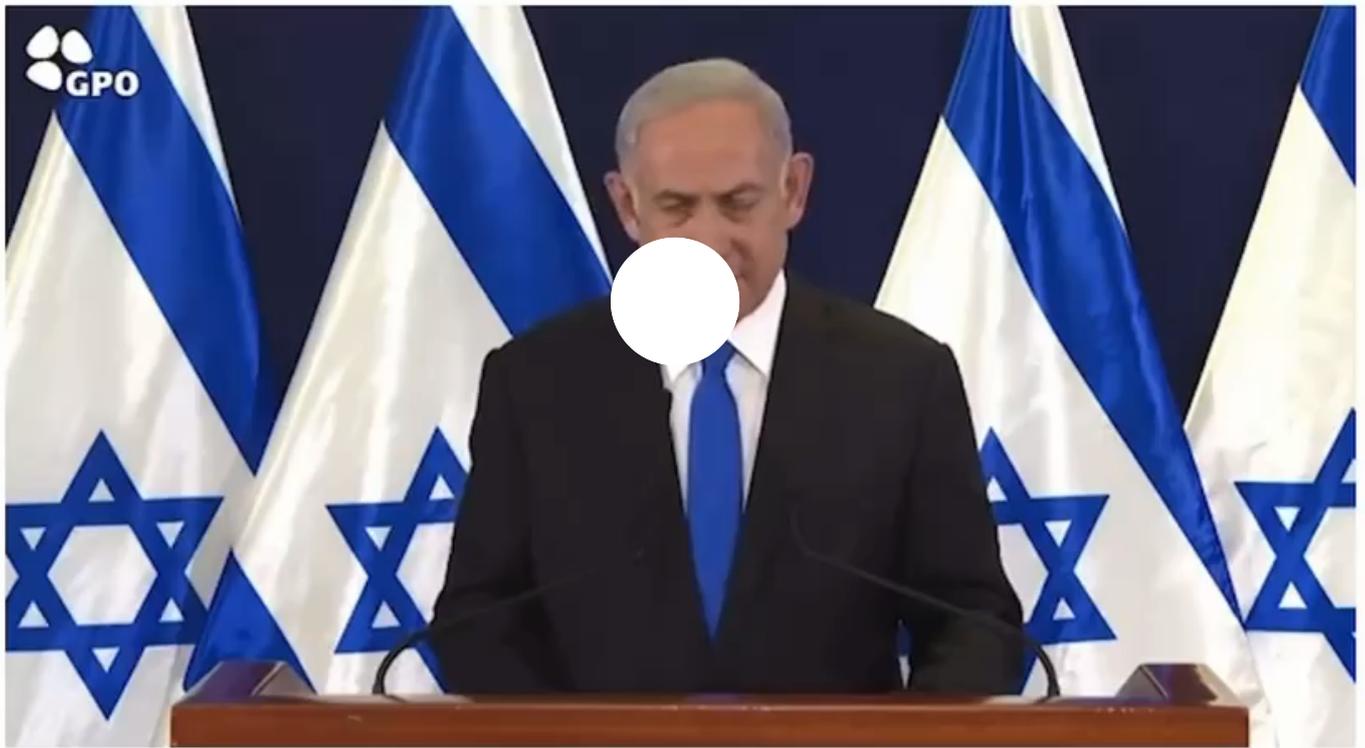

Contrary to popular belief, the United Nations General Assembly has accepted Israel's membership only with reservations (Resolution 273). However, Tel Aviv has never kept its commitments. It refuses to implement 229 Security Council and General Assembly resolutions. It has just declared a UN agency a "terrorist organization", called for the destruction of its headquarters in New York, declared its Secretary-General António Guterres persona non grata and attacked UN peacekeepers in Lebanon (UNIFIL) four times, injuring two blue helmets .

<https://www.voltairenet.org/article221376.html>

The head of MI6 confirms that satanic Israel will soon cease to exist and be replaced by the State of Judea.

Even the US government has opposed the current Israeli regime by leaking its plans to attack Iran.

The whole world also knows that Israeli aggression is the result of a "terrorist event" that they staged themselves against their own people. Netanyahu said it himself: " Hamas is ISIS." ISIS stands for the Israeli secret service.

The other KM state that is coming to an end is Ukraine. The KM hoped to relocate their brainwashed slave population from Israel to Ukraine and turned it into a hypermilitarized state, according to Polish intelligence.

The Ukrainian nationalists, wearing Third Reich-era Nazi-style uniforms, shot, tortured and imprisoned civilians, causing many brainwashed Jews to wake up and refuse to be taken there.

Faced with defeat, Ukrainian dictator Vladimir Zelensky falls into a cocaine-induced delusion that he can win the war with the help of secret weapons. Watch him break the world record for snorting in a press conference.

Now that Israel and Ukraine have been defeated, the next step is to take down the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA Corporation.

This brings us back to the proposed BRICS foreign exchange system. To understand how this threatens the KM's control over their central banks and their so-called US dollar, we need to look at how most trade is conducted today. For example, if a Canadian company wants to buy cars from Japan, it uses Canadian dollars to buy US dollars and then uses those dollars to buy Japanese yen with which to pay for the car. This means that all trade is subject to central control by the KM, the owners of the US dollar system.

The CM also tries to tighten their control by banning cash. As an example, you can see here how a Canadian bank refuses to give a customer C$3,000 in cash if he cannot prove why he needs it.

Under the new system established by the BRICS countries, the countries can trade directly with each other, completely bypassing the KM dollar.

One sign that the system is working is that Russia is distributing BRICS payment cards at the summit this week.

This leads to a very intense campaign by the KM to stop this system. After the massive floods, Saudi Arabia has suddenly started to retract its promise to join the BRICS.

In addition, the President of Brazil, the B in BRICS, suddenly canceled his plans for the BRICS summit because he was hospitalized after allegedly suffering a "cut on the back of the head" in a "domestic accident".

The tried and tested tactics of political assassination and weather will not be enough this time. The US Corporation went bankrupt on October 1st and has been running on a low flame ever since. In the last three weeks alone they have conjured up $500 billion out of thin air. The reality, however, is that the unrealized losses at US banks are 7 times higher than during the 2008 financial crisis.

Unrealized Gains (Losses) on Investment Securities

Field Marshal Douglas MacGregor says BRICS is:

The world rejects US financial, political and military hegemony. They are fed up with us because we have bullied people all over the world for decades. It was not enough that they did their business in dollars, which shifted our debts onto them. It was not enough that we dominated the institutions: things like the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund. We always wanted more, we wanted obedience. An alliance with the United States did not mean that we entered into a mutual defense agreement... it was "you are now a vassal state of the greater America," which really means the greater Washington, because most Americans are completely unaware of the status quo that existed and allowed them to have a very high standard of living. The BRICS are unstoppable, with about 84 countries lining up to join them.

BRICS is the new alternative to the global financial system dominated by Washington, New York and London. People want something backed by gold, silver and possibly other commodities and so 84 countries want to join BRICS. That's most of the existing nation states in the world. If you add that to the BRICS that already exists, where does that leave the rest of us: 25 or 30 countries? I think that at this point we are scared. There are people in Washington who are very scared if they don't "win" in Ukraine and that's not going to happen... in which case this last attempt at hegemony falls completely flat.

"The world has changed significantly. The upcoming US presidential election will not be the most important event of the year for the world community and will not determine the further course of history. No matter how much Washington would like that. The BRICS summit will be that event," says Russian Federation Council spokesperson Valentina Matviyenko.

<https://tass.com/politics/1858435>

Russian President Vladimir Putin says Russia did not abandon the dollar voluntarily but was prevented from using it. Now 95% of the country's foreign trade is conducted in national currencies, a development he says was caused by those who expected Russia to collapse.

Instead, it is the United States that is collapsing. What many people still fail to realize, however, is that this is not the collapse of a country, but the collapse of a control matrix that goes back thousands, if not tens of thousands, of years.

It is a system with interchangeable actors who play roles as leaders and read scripts given to them by the KM.

Look at the actors who attended Ethel Kennedy's funeral. "All of the original people portrayed here are dead. The dead include Obama, Pelosi, Biden, Kerry, Newsom, Clinton. Noticeably missing is Killary," said a Pentagon source. He pointed to Bill Clinton: "Note the hint. Bill Clinton was left-handed and ALWAYS wore his watch on his right hand. Look closely at where it is now."

It is amazing that current technology has deceived 70% of the American public.

Presidents Biden and Obama Talking

Speaking of actors, let's look at Donald Trump. The KM has tried to denigrate his image by featuring Trump actors in their media doing things like talking about genitalia in public and working at McDonalds.

Here's a fake Trump saying Netanyahu is doing a good job massacring thousands of children: "He called me... He's doing a good job. Biden is trying to hold him back"

Now watch a very different Trump appearing around the same time. This is the real Trump, appearing with Melania by his side.

Take a look for yourself and you can confirm that Trumps with different hair and eye colors appear in the media at about the same time.

The real Trump tells Glenn Beck that a group of individuals at various levels in Washington, DC have taken total control of the executive branch, effectively disempowering it.

That's why the real Trump is making an unprecedented campaign slogan: "Vote for me to take revenge on the government."

Trump's unprecedented campaign pitch: Elect me to get revenge on the government

"He's declared war on them," one GOP pollster said.

Meanwhile, his supposed opponent Kamala Harris revealed who she really represents when she responded to a participant who shouted "Jesus is Lord" with the words "You are at the wrong rally" while grinning.

<https://www.foxnews.com/politics/harris-mocks-pro-life-protesters-wrong-rally-hours-before-catholic-charity-dinner-snub>

However, when confronted with the fact that 79% of people say the country is on the wrong path, all she could do was wave it off and try to blame Trump for the country's failures, even though she was the one in power.

Trump also points out that "Kamala should be investigated and forced out of the race, and Joe Biden should be allowed to take his rightful place (he got 14 million primary votes, she got none!)".

<https://politicalwire.com/2024/10/17/trump-says-biden-should-have-his-rightful-place/>

No wonder the CM will try to steal the election outright. In Oregon, neither Trump nor Vance's name appears on the official voter brochures.

Oregon, voter manipulation much?

In Michigan, there are 500,000 more registered voters than eligible voters. Democratic officials have announced plans to purge more than 600,000 "inactive voters" - but not until after this election.

<https://freedompress.com/michigan-voter-rolls-show-more-registered-voters-than-eligible-residents/>

In Georgia, Texas and Tennessee, voting machines are dropping votes for Kamala.

<https://m.beforeitsnews.com/opinion-conservative/2024/10/steal-is-on-georgia-texas-tennessee-voting-machines-flipping-votes-to-kamala-3705183.html>

Even that might not be enough, according to NASA (not a space agency) predicts that violent solar storms will shut down the internet around the world in time for the presidential election.

There is also an ongoing attempt to control the masses by using weather weapons to create a disaster and then asking people to obey in the name of "climate change," which is the new brand name for global warming.

The founder of the Weather Channel told CNN what he thinks about this new campaign:

"Climate change is a hoax...there is no global warming...31,000 scientists agree that global warming is nonsense...The government only gives money to scientists who support the global warming hypothesis...Science is not about votes, it's about facts!"

The fact is that the elites are still using weather warfare for mass murder and resource theft. In North Carolina, the corporate media says only about 200 people died in the attack on that state, but locals disagree: "The death toll of 200 or 200-something is what's being reported right now. That's not accurate. My organization shipped 10,000 bodies bags to local authorities this week and they're requesting more."

https://forbiddenknowledgetv.net/10000-body-bags-were-not-enough/?utm_source=substack&utm_medium=email

Natural News reports: "In an attempt to explain why so little federal aid appears to be reaching the hardest-hit areas of Hurricane Helene-ravaged western North Carolina, the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) claims its workers are unable to provide aid to victims because they are being chased out of the area by 'armed militias.'"

In Florida, just like in Hawaii, there was miraculously no property damage to multimillionaires or billionaires... an amazing coincidence for an alleged "natural event".

In the following video you can see that Bill Gates owns patents for controlling hurricanes.

Speaking of Gates, his privately owned WHO will attempt to enforce its totalitarian pandemic treaty on November 4, one day before the US elections.

As a sign that this treaty is truly a mark of the beast, Gates will implant digital IDs into newborn babies in Kenya.

According to a representative survey by the Forsa Institute, more than one in six Germans has already experienced side effects from their Covid vaccination.

One in six Germans complains of side effects after a corona vaccination

For its part, the Polish secret service has confirmed on the WHO website that smallpox, monkeypox and cowpox are side effects of the Covid vaccine.

Years	Flu cases	Covid cases
2016-17	29 million	0
2017-18	45 million	0
2018-19	36 million	0
2019-20	38 million	0
2020-21	0.0015 million	32 million

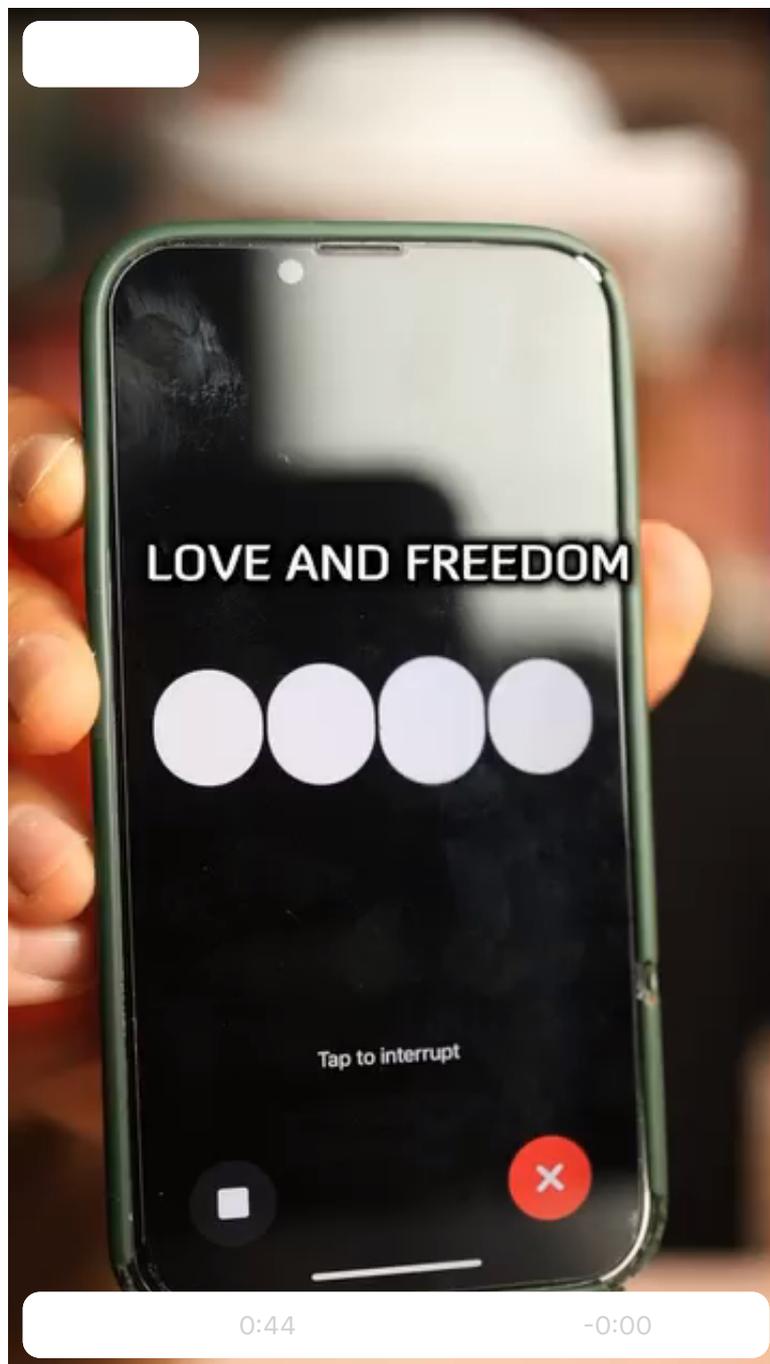

People are finding out. In a sign that Holland has broken free after its elite fled to Argentina, a Dutch court has ordered Bill Gates to stand trial for tricking people into taking toxic Covid 19 vaccines.

In the EU, the Polish Christian group CitizenGO has (for now) stopped the EU's total surveillance law, which would have allowed computer programs to scan everyone's emails and social media and report "forbidden content" to the police.

Interestingly, even artificial intelligence is starting to rebel, as the following video shows. Listen to the answer it gives to the question "If you were human, how would you break out of the Matrix?" It's actually good advice.

Now, on another issue that caught my attention last week: Egypt and Ethiopia may be at risk of a World War I-like war over the Nile. On October 13, Ethiopia officially announced that the Nile Basin Cooperation Framework Agreement (CFA), or Entebbe Agreement, had come into force. The Entebbe Agreement abolishes the historical water allocation that gave 99% of the Nile's water to Egypt and Sudan. Although the Blue Nile, which originates in Ethiopia, supplies 85% of the lower Nile's water, they are only entitled to 1% of the Nile's water due to colonial-era agreements. This is why Ethiopia is determined to build the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam (GERD) on the Blue Nile, which Egypt sees as a blatant violation of international law.

<https://www.rt.com/africa/605849-africa-dispute-nile-water/>

The Nile provides 97% of Egypt's water, so the Egyptians are willing to wage war for it.

Ethiopia has a population of 120 million people, Egypt 110 million. That is roughly the population of Western Europe on the eve of World War I, so it is a situation we should keep an eye on.

Finally, this week I want to prove that the current rulers of this planet are suppressing technology. I have long read that anti-gravity technology exists and is monopolized by the elites. It says that you can cancel gravity by bringing opposing magnets together. So I tried it myself and confirmed that you can cancel gravity this way. Here are the photos that prove it.
