Guess how many paragraphs Ingrassia spends trying to confuse you with innuendo about Ken Griffin, who donated $100,000 to Donald Trump. If they could criticize based on policy, they wouldnâ€™t try to talk about anything but policy. Ron DeSantis for president. https://t.co/R0Wock2J1R 11 retweets 79 likes 30-Dec-2022 12:15:25 UTC

Kari Lake said that her husband is the second-most amazing man in her life, with the most amazing being President Trump. I suspect that Arizona swing voters found her behavior deeply weird, which is why she lost while candidates with the same policy preferences won by a lot. <https://t.co/ojuptmhbtE>

Ted Kennedy was a piece of shit. If you were running for office in Massachusetts and pointed out that Ted Kennedy was a piece of shit, it would lower your chances of being elected. It is not clear why people do not understand this when you apply it to John McCain and Arizona. <https://t.co/153755UTC>

Two years later, Filipklowski has finally unpinned his endowment of fired geographer Rebekah Jones. Makes sense; he resigned on the basis that the warrant was unjustified, and Jones just admitted that it wasn't. <https://t.co/IMz61bl2Ot>

Mitch McConnell is not chair of the NRSC, the org that is supposed to spend money to elect senators. Rick Scott is. Why, then, have the deadenders turned against McConnell while ignoring Scott? Because their opposition to McConnell isn't about his ideology or his spending. <https://t.co/14Dec2022001042UTC>
