

Tldr at the bottom

On May 14th, 2022, a mass shooter killed 10 people in a store in Buffalo, New York in a racially motivated hate crime. In a manifesto, he outlined his beliefs, clearly admitting to being a white supremacist Neo-Nazi, as seen below.

Are you a facsist?

Yes, fascism is one of the only political ideologies that will unite Whites against the replacers. Since that is what I seek, calling me a facsist would be accurate.

Are you a white supremacist?

Yes, I would call myself a white supremacist, afterall, which race is responsible for the world we live in today? I believe the White race is superior in the brain to all other races.

Are you racist?

Yes I am racist because I believe in differences of capabilities between races.

Are you intolerant?

Sure. The last virtues of a dying nation are tolerance and apathy, and I want none of it.

Are you a neo-nazi?

I support neo-nazism but I am not a member of any neo-nazi groups, you decide what that makes me.

Some might say he was actually a socialist or a communist, but he only wants worker owned means of production if those workers are white Nazis and if white Nazis don't already own the means of production, and he hasn't been a communist since he was 12 years old.

Are you “right wing”?

Depending on the definition, sure.

Are you “left wing”?

Depending on the definition, sure.

Are you a socialist?

Depending on the definition. Worker ownership of the means of production? It depends on who those workers are, their intentions, who currently owns the means of production, their intentions and who currently owns the state, and their intentions.

Did you always hold these views?

When I was 12 I was deep into communist ideology, talk to anyone from my old highschool and ask about me and you will hear that. From age 15 to 18 however, I consistently moved farther to the right. On the political compass I fall in the mild-moderate authoritarian left category, and I would prefer to be called a populist.

In this manifesto, as well as on a private Discord server that served as his personal diary, he mentioned using Reddit and 4chan, and one subreddit in particular, though no special effort was made by the shooter to highlight it, stood out. r/PoliticalCompassMemes, or PCM, once a truly free and mostly unbiased marketplace of ideas, has been a far-right subreddit for a long time. I, Detroit_yeet, have extensively documented this, making a sizeable archive of all the terrible things they have said, accessible on the subreddit r/EnoughPCMSpam (the pinned post's most recent update has been archived here <https://archive.ph/rexdH>). When pasted into google docs, this document is over 22 pages long.

A while ago, I decided to start a list of every alt-right post PCM made, and now I'm sharing it! Since this is now hosted on 0bin, which doesn't let you edit pastes, a new one will be made at the end of every month. Stay tuned.

Also, I feel like this should go without saying, but don't participate in the linked threads. That's brigading and it's against Reddit TOS.

On January 4th, 2022, the shooter made a comment on PCM. Replying to someone who said that they blame the Jews for everything, he said one word, "based", slang for "great opinion", "I agree", "you're cool", etc. <https://archive.ph/L3p8b> This comment went completely unnoticed at the time.

unemployment rate is far lower, there are plenty of available jobs, you're vaccinated, and the lockdowns are over. The stimulus (sort of UBI, they were a one time compensation for unemployment). Also, Trump gave out $600 stimulus checks, not $2000.

He also believes in the Great Replacement, a racist conspiracy theory which holds that a powerful elite (usually Jews) are making a coordinated effort to dilute the white genes in a country's gene pool by means of overflowing it with non-white genes, thus eventually eliminating the white race. It's also sometimes called White Genocide. It is a disgusting, outrageous conspiracy theory that, as we saw in Buffalo that day, pushes the most fervent believers of it to kill the replacers in "self-defense" (of their own race).

This crisis of mass immigration and sub-replacement fertility is an assault on the European people that, if not combated, will ultimately result in the complete racial and cultural replacement of the European people.

To see this in full effect, you only have to look at the population statistics in Western nations for the year 2050.

List of countries by future population \(United Nations, medium fertility variant\)

In 2050, despite the ongoing effect of sub-replacement fertility, the population figures show that the population does not decrease inline with the sub-replacement fertility levels, but actually maintains and, even in many White nations, rapidly increases.

All through immigration.
This is ethnic replacement.
This is cultural replacement.
This is racial replacement.

Fair Use
This is WHITE GENOCIDE.

It is also a theory PCM believes in and rarely misses an opportunity to promote, as you will see later in this document.

With these last two bits of information in mind, I made a post to r/AgainstHateSubreddits, or AHS, saying PCM should be banned for their connection to the shooter.

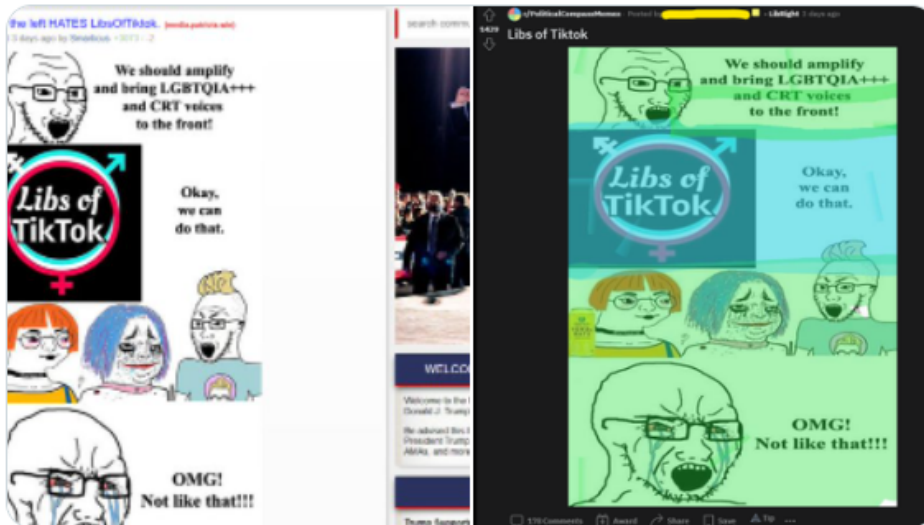

In his manifesto, he said he was radicalized on 4chan, but we also clearly saw he was in PCM. I hypothesized that based on previous observations of PCM having established itself as a node in the network where far-right memes are spread online (<https://archive.ph/53ocW>), he likely saw one of their memes reposted to 4chan, and joined it.

PCM users have started reposting and upvoting memes from patriots dot win, a far-right, anti-democracy website for the most unhinged Trump stans, who moved to .win because they were banned everywhere else. So, @Reddit, what's the difference? Why ban one but keep the other?

Because of how many terrible things PCM had said in June 2021, I said it was likely this happened then, and thus he would have seen nearly all of PCM's posts promoting Great Replacement, as the first documented time they did so was in that month. In this post, I also showed all the cases of PCM promoting the Great Replacement conspiracy theory that I had archived. The original post where I said all this can be found here <https://archive.ph/MNNTG>.

Yesterday, May 14th, a white supremacist committed a mass shooting in Buffalo NY, killing at least 10. In a long manifesto, he mentioned using 4chan for news since May 2020, and Reddit before that. Here's a screenshot of the relevant page. <https://archive.ph/fMNgJ> Using the website unddit, we can see all of the comments he ever left on what is universally accepted as his Reddit account. <https://archive.ph/LOB1w>

One of these comments is on r/ politicalcompassmemes. It seems innocent enough, consisting of one word: "based." But if you go to the comment, you see the whole thread. <https://archive.ph/L3p8b> Someone explaining what the point of the stimulus checks were, followed by someone saying "As with everything, I blame the big nose." Referencing the antisemitic caricatures of Jews having big noses. This is the person the shooter replied "based" to.

PCM users have said that one comment doesn't mean anything. But there are no comments on any news subreddits, either, in his three years of being a Redditor (as we see from his oldest comment, dated 2019), even though he used Reddit for news until May 2020. He was clearly a lurker. This means that it is completely reasonable for him to have been subscribed to PCM for any amount of time while only leaving the one comment.

So, we know he was in PCM. But did it contribute to his radicalization? Absolutely. In the previously mentioned page from his manifesto, he mentioned being convinced through memes, shitposts, and infographics that the white race was dying out, an intentional effort by the Jews and elites. PCM has also been posting "memes and shitposts" which say this, sometimes explicitly, as early as June 2021. Many of them are comments without many upvotes, but they are clearly being easily found by those who know where to look.

Some time after posting it, I edited it (not shown in the above archive) to highlight the posts that were published after the shooter left his “based” comment, January 4th 2022. This is because it could reasonably be said that I couldn't use the posts made before this as proof of anything, because it was impossible to prove he joined before that day (and obviously, that none of the comments could be used as proof they radicalized him, since they're so much harder to find than posts).

I also wanted to add to the post and say that even if we were being unreasonably charitable and assuming he visited PCM once, left that comment, and immediately left, never to open the subreddit again, the fact remains that PCM was promoting ideologies and conspiracy theories which drive people to real-life violence, and thus should still be banned, even if they didn't directly influence this specific person. When I decided on adding this, I realized it had been too long since the post was made to make such a big addition.

A few days after making this post, I was suspended for three days for threatening violence, which was extended to a permanent suspension after about 10 to 20 minutes. In the message notifying me of this, the AHS post was linked. When I opened the link, I saw the post was removed. Upon seeing that I could still see the text, I tried to make a post-edit archive, hoping it was also still accessible to others, but the body text was replaced with [removed]

<https://archive.ph/q06yD>. So I took screenshots of the post and uploaded them to Twitter, assuming that I was banned just for showing what PCM had said.

This is the exact same stuff white supremacists on 4chan say. And this is only the stuff where people are explicitly endorsing the Great Replacement. The pinned post on r/ EnoughPCMSpam <https://archive.ph/8iXu3> has the full PCM Alt-right Archive, it's very long and has much more than just Great Replacement, any and all of which could easily radicalize someone to the far right, especially if they were also hearing the same things elsewhere.

I think it's likely that after seeing a few PCM memes reposted to 4chan (PCM has established itself as part of the online fashosphere, a handful of places where far-right memes make the rounds <https://archive.ph/53ocW>), he asked about the colours over the wojaks, and was directed to PCM. He obviously was in PCM for a while, but I think this is the most likely way he found it. If this is the case, I'd bet it happened in June 2021 at the latest, because 28 posts and comments were added to the Archive during that month, which is 30 days long. PCM was in a particularly extreme mood that month.

tl;dr PCM helped radicalize a mass shooter, time for Reddit to ban it.

EDIT: added an archive I missed (the last one) and highlighted the posts we know with 100% certainty were posted while he was in PCM. Here's a pre-edit archive of this post in case you don't trust me: <https://archive.ph/MNNTG>

Before we get into it, I have some things I want to address.

- Some people might use the fact that some of these are deleted as an excuse to ignore them. This doesn't make sense though: If it was well-received by the community, it still reflects their beliefs, so it makes no difference whether or not a moderator decided to remove it.
- Commenters on some of these posts pointed out how awful the post is and got upvoted. Unless those comments ratio (slang for "to surpass in likes") the post by a lot, it still proves the majority of people who saw the post agree with it.

Miscellaneous notes:

- Dates are formatted Day/Month/Year so it's easier to group posts by month with ctrl+F.
- Whether a featured archive is a post or comment is shown. This is because comments always get fewer upvotes than posts, since the number of people who go into the comments section is always a mere fraction of the people who see the post.

sorted by: best ▼

The more I thought about it though, the less that reasoning made sense. Hate speech, I'd believe, but threatening violence? I realized it was because PCM users brigaded the post with reports, and Reddit suspended me automatically after a certain number of them. PCM has been known to brigade AHS. <https://archive.ph/DynV5>

Here is 40 recent examples of the trolling and abuse that we received from PCM users in the space of two days. This is only a small selection and it is only from two days. This harassment has been going on for almost six months now.

Since I've mentioned them a few times, I will briefly address the accusations that get thrown AHS's way whenever they're mentioned. AHS themselves did a pretty good job explaining and debunking it themselves, by pointing out the untrustworthiness of the people making the accusations and such. (Part 1 <https://archive.ph/uJVe0> | Part 2 <https://archive.ph/hCMUu>).

Another Confirmed Hoax

You're probably aware of the vile allegations being pushed around on the most hateful corners of reddit, given how prolific the users are who are participating in this vile harassment campaign. I explained what was happening a few weeks ago in [\[PART I\]](#).

Basically:

Someone posted what WRD claimed was child exploitation material on r/WatchRedditDie.

2.

WRD and other hate subs have then continually claimed that everyone who has ever used AHS is not only allegedly responsible for this, but we're also all pedophiles who commit the crime of distributing child exploitation material.

3.

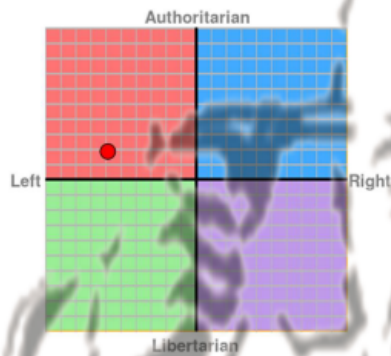

WRD and other hate subs claimed that this occurred because hate subs aren't actually banned because they repeatedly break Reddit's TOS, but rather hate subs are instantly banned because hostile users post child exploitation material to "false flag them".

But as I said in Part I, it turns out that WRD the subreddit with a long habit of accusing everyone that they disagree with of being pedophiles and of creating hoaxes to incite their users into taking matters into their own hands, has once again been caught out in a lie.

But back to PCM and the shooter. As I said before, I stated previously that I believed it was likely the shooter was in PCM since June 2021. But now I have his Discord logs. Like his manifesto, I won't link it (most of it is just racist memes and pictures of his guns), but I will give screenshots.

Above video: Taken on May 2021, meant for some online friends. Took the old political compass test, has many known flaws but I don't think this is that inaccurate to my political beliefs. I tend to have quite a mix between conservative and progressive values though.

I browse r/politicalcompassmemes on Reddit, and /pol/ on 4chan everyday so yeah I guess you can say I am quite in to politics

Why do I post so many things about myself? Because true information is a great tool. Plus it feels like a diary to me and feels good to let some things out. Never went to see therapists or anything like that. Once told Matt about being suicidal at some points in my life, but that's it. As much as I hate to admit it I do think talking with others about your problems is a great way to solve them. Logic and fact are important but feelings can change that logic, so it does have a purpose in a sense.

Remember lads, donate to #teamseas

Currently I am in SUNY Broome Community College for Engineering Science. Would love to pursue this but bigger problems exist. What good will it be when all of my race is gone?

- "I can tell gypsies (racial slur for romani people) at the store I work at are faking being muslim to steal, and they get upset when I confront them about it. I'm the victim here." Post, Quadruple digits (3800), 13/04/2022 <https://archive.ph/Bgg1s>
"Updated" (6 hrs later) archive that shows the upvote count:
<https://archive.ph/w4J5T>
- "Black people commit more crime than you realize because most of the mainstream news doesn't report on the criminal's race when they're black" Post, Quadruple digits (2900), 14/04/2022 <https://archive.ph/TVtg5> (This was originally in uncategorized because I wasn't sure if that was the intended message, but the shooter definitely would have interpreted it like that, so I'm including it here)

- "Multiculturalism is bad because it actually means no one's culture is represented at all, things are better when each race and culture has their own ethnostate." Post, Triple digits (130), 26/04/2022 <https://archive.ph/2AYZr>
- "Normally I'm not a nazi, but when I go on "progressive circlejerk" subreddits... I understand." Post, triple digits (820), 04/05/2022 <https://archive.ph/h6sRK>

This may not look like a lot, but keep in mind I'm only including racist posts, rather than racist, sexist, homophobic, or transphobic posts and comments. This is because the shooter was not overtly homophobic. A little transphobic, but he never called trans people degenerates, at least.

If we assume he joined on the day the Discord diary started, November 18th 2021, he would have seen the following posts as well as the ones above:

- "The native genocide was based and the people who don't like it are cringe" (not strawmanning thanksgiving, that's really what the meme is saying) Post, Quadruple digits (1590), 25/11/2021 <https://archive.ph/f7caW>
- "Diversity isn't strengthening or morally better than an ethnostate" Post, Quadruple digits (5040), 30/11/2021 <https://archive.ph/jlRvB>
- "Fascism is based." Post, triple digits (200), 21/11/2021 <https://archive.ph/xV3Ly>
- "Fascism is based, and most people don't realize it." Post, triple digits (240), 20/11/2021 <https://archive.ph/PFiXi>

And if he joined on November 1st, 2021, he would have also seen these:

- "I'm so proud of us for normalizing hate speech." Post, Quadruple digits (2230), 15/11/2021 <https://archive.ph/YjIRw>
- "22 million Americans support neo-nazism because the left tried to stop them from banning a University level history course. Also, those 22 mil neo-nazis are gigachads." Post, Quadruple digits (8070), 14/11/2021 <https://archive.ph/jW9pM>
- "The reason I hate Hitler is that he gave fascism a bad name, Mussolini was a real chad" Post, Triple digits (770), 15/11/2021 <https://archive.ph/EsuUM>

If I were to include comments as well (even just the well-upvoted ones), the list would be much longer.

From November 1st until November 18th:

- Post: "Wait, are you guys actually racist?" Comments: "yes" "yes" "yes" "yes" "yes"
Triple digits (100) (on inquisitor_lime's comment), 16/11/2021

December 13th onward (surprisingly, there were only two racist comments added to the archive

And yes, he still would have been a racist Nazi if he didn’t see these posts. But PCM encouraged him by validating his beliefs.

Earlier I said that it doesn’t matter if the shooter didn’t see any of this, because PCM was still promoting ideas and ideologies which move people to real-life violence. While this thought process still makes sense, even entertaining the idea that he didn’t see any of it is being too charitable at this point. We know he scrolled through PCM every day now. They had a role in this.

Of course, they downplayed his comment, saying things like “All he said was based” and “Banning us because he commented here once is like banning the Washington Post because the Unabomber read it”

But I'm not talking about that. All that proves is that they didn't want people to know of their role in all this.

The shooting happened at 2:30 PM (in New York state, which uses EST) on May 14th.

<https://archive.ph/SwwSV>

BUFFALO, N.Y. -- On Saturday afternoon, a white gunman in body armor killed 10 Black shoppers and workers at a supermarket in Buffalo, New York. Another Black person and two white people were wounded. Federal officials are investigating the shooting as a hate crime; a state-level murder case is already underway.

A look at what we know so far:

WHAT HAPPENED IN BUFFALO?

The gunman opened fire at around 2:30 p.m. Saturday outside Tops Friendly Market, a supermarket in a predominantly Black neighborhood in the western New York city.

Ah, so white people will no longer be at fault for everything ever? Because, well, they're now a minority or something?

Lol, nah, i know this isn't how it works. It's always the white devil, even if only one in a thousand people was white.

"Minority always good, unless minority white, then minority bad." - these fucknuts

permalink embed save parent report give award reply

So, imagine this from the shooter's perspective. Imagine you're a Nazi who hates Jews and blacks, and you are convinced your race, the white race, is being replaced by them, and all kinds of other conspiracy theories involving Jews controlling society. One day, you wake up and scroll through your favourite subreddit. You find a post about the declining white population. Most of the threads in the comments section are talking about how hard it is to be white and how great minorities have it. "Of course", you think. "The Jews are engineering society in every way they can to destroy us. What else is new?" Then you scroll some more, and see comments like the above. <https://archive.ph/6dygc> Maybe you don't see all of them. But if nothing else, you see the one with over 100 upvotes validating your beliefs. You smile. Even here, on a normie, radical left site, your gospel has reached people. Yes, you are being replaced. You are right to feel angry. You are not crazy. Maybe that reassurance is what finally gave you the "courage" to do something about the replacers yourself.

Just saying that PCM played a role in the shooter's radicalization might not even be the whole story.

It's possible they're the ones that pushed him over the edge, to finally act out his violent fantasies.

So, we know what PCM was posting before the shooting, and I mentioned what they were saying immediately after it. Let's take a look at what they said days after it.

On May 18th, four days after the shooting, an AuthCenter user (the same flair as the shooter) posted an infographic clearly made by a right wing extremist pretending to be a leftist listing mostly good traits and habits and saying they should be avoided because they're far-right. They pretended the infographic was made seriously, and edited the image to basically say "Far-right extremists are based, look at all the good traits they have." It got 1,611 upvotes.

Rules Failure to follow these may

I don't need to elaborate on this. They're promoting far-right extremism. But that was far from the only incriminating post made in the days following the shooting.

In the shooter's Discord logs, he mentioned hating pit bulls because they're violent savages, and said that the same is true of other human races.

Jimboboiiii — 11/25/2021

Pitbull's are intellectually inferior to other breeds of dog, this including behavior and emotional control. This can not be fixed via ways such as training. People are the same way and this is because of race

Don't set up humanity to fail by allowing inferior races to coexist

Well, a few days after the shooting, PCM went on a crusade against pit bulls as well.

A post was submitted to PCM on May 19th, five days after the shooting, about a pit bull that attacked 12 kids, in a "quadrants react" format. The one being racist towards pit bulls, calling them "shitbulls" and calling for them to be put down, is the Gigachad AuthRight, and the one not being racist towards them is the soyjak LibLeft.

One of the top comments is an AuthCenter user sarcastically repeating the argument non-racist people use to explain why black Americans commit a disproportionate amount of crimes. Pit bulls of course, were bred for aggression, so they do tend to be aggressive (they can be trained to be gentle, but the PCM anti-pit bull crusaders don't think so). So he's implying that, like with pit bulls, the reason black people commit crimes so often is because it's in their genes to do so.

It's worth noting that this user's profile picture (see below, archive.ph doesn't show profile pictures) is the opposite of the three arrows of the Iron Front, who fought the Nazis in Germany. The Iron Front's symbol reversed simply means you stand for the opposite of what the Iron Front did. This user is an open fascist, being openly racist, and he got 1,000 upvotes and three awards. Another AuthCenter user can be seen repeating 13/50 (black people's percentage of the US population and the percentage of crimes committed by black perpetrators) but for pit bulls. A LibRight user says "I feel like I've seen similar statistics before.... But where?" Again comparing black people to pit bulls, which these guys think are unfixable violent savages.

The third person here is obviously joking, but I couldn't just crop them out of the screenshot. While it's true they ratioed the LibRight with a joke, there's nothing in the LibRight's comment, or the AuthCenter's, that indicates they're joking.

Even if we were to interpret every upvote on the CenterRight's comment as one person who disagrees that pitbulls and black people are comparable (which definitely isn't the case, as the LibRight's comment doesn't have that many downvotes), the ratio would still be 139:257 racists to non-racists. If I have a bag of 257 regular M&Ms, and 139 poisoned ones, that's a poisoned bag of M&Ms.

Anyway, back to the ~~Nazi mass shooter's~~ PCM's pitbull hate:

And so on. Of course not everyone in the subreddit can be expected to read the shooter's Discord logs, but it is still very telling that they were saying black people are genetically inferior after the race-motivated mass shooting/hate crime in Buffalo. Less than a week after it, no less.

So, let's recap.

- A self-admitted Nazi had been browsing PCM daily since early November - mid December at the latest;
- Said self-admitted Nazi saw PCM, a mainstream subreddit with over 530,000 people (at the time), validate his beliefs 10 times at the minimum, and that's assuming he never opened the comments section;
- <https://archive.ph/6dygc> PCM promoted the Great Replacement conspiracy theory mere hours before the nazi finally decided to stop putting off his terrorist attack where he killed 10 "replacers";
- <https://archive.ph/9XPBF> PCM promoted right wing extremism 4 days after the attack;
- <https://archive.ph/7z4h0> <https://archive.ph/8chF3> PCM went on a crusade against pit bulls and likened black people to them (just like the nazi terrorist did in his Discord diary) 5 days after the attack;

- PCM said the shooter's comment (<https://archive.ph/L3p8b>) was no big deal;
- <https://archive.ph/izRRt> PCM tried to make the case that banning them for promoting the Nazi terrorist's ideology would be like banning a regular news outlet because a terrorist read their articles (which didn't promote terrorism by the way) (hey, no sane person said it was a good comparison), and;
- <https://archive.ph/05suh> PCM is so desperate to stop people from talking about this that, despite claiming to be a free speech subreddit (which is also verifiably false <https://archive.ph/XLSZ7>), they brigaded a post calling them out by spamming it with so many reports that Reddit's automoderator removed the post and permanently suspended the user that posted it.

It's time for the Reddit admins to stop pretending this is okay. It's time to ban PCM.
