The Evil Underbelly of the Propara Community

This document is best read in desktop mode and/or downloaded. This document is heavy in images, which can be difficult for mobile devices to load. More than one person has worked on this document.

Introduction

Content Warning: Necrophilia (including real life endorsements), Zoophilia (including real life endorsements), Pedophilia (including real life endorsements), IRL Minor Endangerment, Abuse Glorification and Sympathication, Self Harm Glorification (including mutual self harm and grooming), Animal Abuse, Rape Threats (and endorsements of real life rape, including animal rape), IRL Necrozoophillia endorsements (including the desecration of the dead), IRL Desecration of Animal Bones, NSFW/NSFL Content, Transphobia, Racism, Bigotry, etc. Other topics that may be triggering that are not listed - proceed with this in mind.
No real life gore/blood is shown directly inside of this doc; ALL explicit content and/or nudity is censored.

There is a very real and evil underbelly to the Propara community. To anyone not already indoctrinated with Propara values, it's obvious how this would happen seeing as it is a community based on paraphilias. The community, or at least a large section of it, like to proclaim they are "anti-contact"; however, this is the internet. People lie, and they turn on each other all of the time. It happens often especially in a community catered to paraphiles, these communities can end up slowly enabling abuse. People who call themselves "anti-contact", can sometimes (more often than not, as we've noticed) end up aligning with abusive values and morals. This doc argues that this community is safe for absolutely no one. There are liars at every corner that will turn on you to defend serial harasser zoosadists, over and over again.

However, not every "anti-contact" turns out to be an abuse supporter in secret. They often end up leaving their communities because Propara communities are built on oppression and harassment. They hinge off of Proshipper and Prokink groups, which can lead to the rapid radicalization of some users. This is because Propara communities are able to produce an argument with factual information, something that ends up sounding rational, and then they can begin to normalize you to less and less rational things. (This is a common phenomenon in various situations of abuse, grooming you into accepting behaviors. For example; you are more likely to end up more abused or doing bad dangerous things by hanging out with "bad crowds") Not only that, but when you begin to point out the rational things you are then oppressed for trying to call them out. A lot of the people who push anti-callout culture end up being guilty of something in one way or another, and it's because they are abuse oppressors. They exist everywhere within the Propara community.

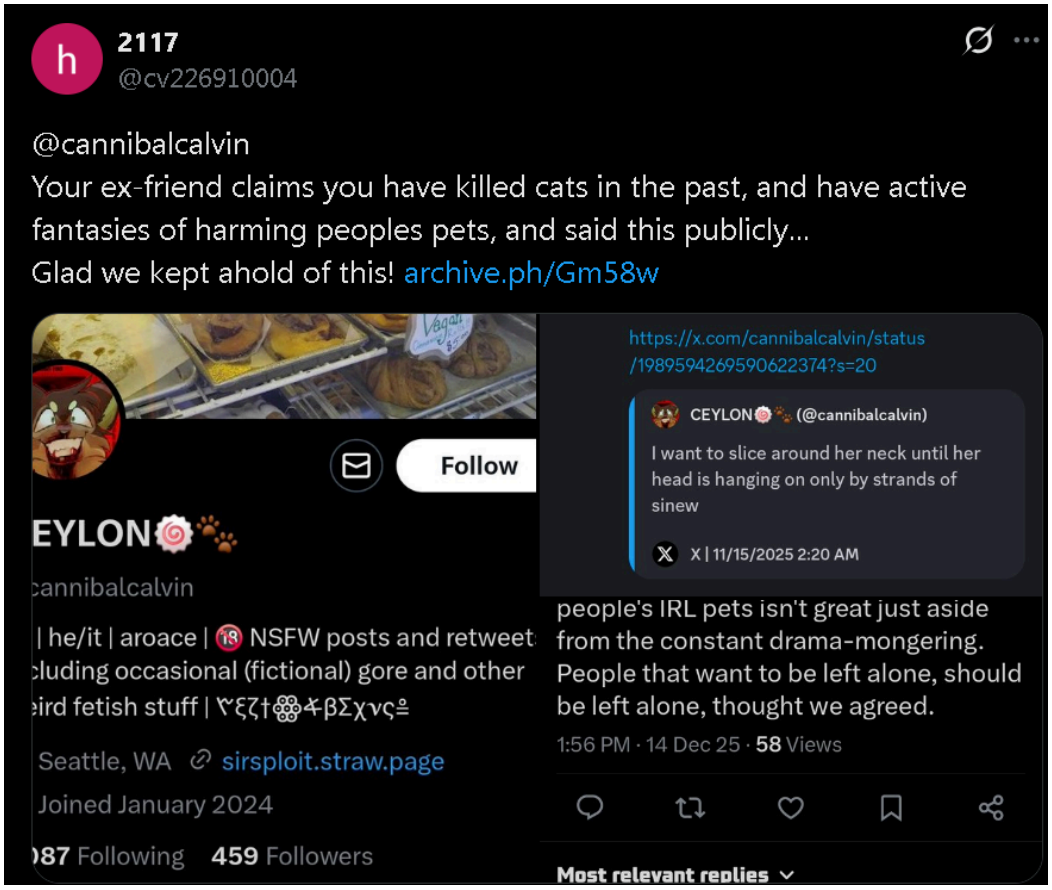

Not only that, but because the Propara community is often centered around "the big three," in particular; zoophilia, pedophilia, and necrophilia. It can cater to people who actually want to abuse, as all three are focused on vulnerable groups (animals, children and the dead). For these perpetrators, there is the incentive to lie– and as we will showcase, they do it constantly. Online it's harder to tell if someone is lying as there are less social cues to determine if they are being truthful (such as verbal cues, body language). Brandishing the "anti-contact" label, they can pretend that they aren't complicit in abuse or encourage abuse when that couldn't be further from the truth. It basically can allow abusers to market themselves as “safe” despite not being safe. To add on, abusers will not normally admit that they are an abuser, keep this in mind. Just because someone claims they aren’t does not inherently make it true.

The Propara community is safe for absolutely no one, and encourages abuse as well as the exploitations of others. Anyone true to being anti abuse leaves. Those who aren’t don’t, and only dig their holes deeper, time and time again.

CANNIBALCALVIN/GASHGUT/CEYLON

Calvin is our first addition to this doc, and possibly one of the worst people on this doc by self admitted crimes alone. Calvin is a member within the Propara community, he is an abusive zoosadist necrophile. He self admitted to murdering cats, used real life animal gore as an icon, among other things. On top of this, there is a community wide coverup dedicated to Calvin, and as of 2026, he’s still active on telegram commenting as if nothing happened.

Uncropped screenshots reveals the twitter user is Arlaux (sourced from Calvin):

There's more about Arlaux in later sections of the doc, her section is pretty extensive. Arlaux is another zoosadist, she went so far to make a zoosadist pride flag. She also has sex with animal skulls & roadkill.

Sinew Tweet

Calvin made threats regarding Salami's pet cat on twitter publicly. Despite this, Salami decided to defend him, and continue to defend his past actions saying they are old, despite his own cat getting threatened by Calvin. Salami is known to be an associate to multiple members of the doc, so of course they don't take real life animal abuse seriously even when it's directed at their own cat.
Archive of the sinew tweet referring to Salami's pet cat:

(additional discord archive reposted by the burner account)

More Cat Threats

Salami's cat is not the only cat that Calvin has made comments about. In another discord server, he's seen threatening someone else's cat extremely violently. These people at least shut him down, but in any normal community, he would have been instantly banned for this.

Calvin's Icon of Killed Cat

(Censored for obvious reasons)
https://i.ibb.co/BHVNywhs/censored-dead-cat-icon.png (CONTENT WARNING: SOURCE CONTAINS ANIMAL BLOOD)
https://x.com/cv226910004/status/2003060367493140760?s=20
On Calvin's old strawpage as well as inkbunny and potentially other places, there was a picture of a dead cat's face closeup. The cat has a nosebleed, which likely means the animal died via strangulation, as nosebleeds (epistaxis) are something that are very common in strangled cats. A nosebleed for a cat of this nature does not occur without the cat dying.
This is pretty concerning to have as your icon, whilst being in the Propara community. This is animal abuse he had as his icon for multiple months. He tried to defend this action by saying the cat was from roadkill, which is unlikely with an injury like this. It also doesn't negate the fact of how inhumane it is to have a picture of animal abuse as your icon on your social media.

Salami Defending Calvin

Salami in these twitter screenshots also defend Calvin's actions, continuously downplaying his behavior.

Yeah I'll absolutely be frank ofc it makes me uncomfortable that he did this at all and I have told him as such. Ask yourself, would he still be doing this as an adult and buying cmmissions w his gov ass name and address attached?

Unfortunately you will never make me care about thought crimes. If that he killed animals at all makes you sick and you want him away from you that's absolutely fair. Block his ass. But you are doing a great disservice by leaving the fact that he was a minor when he did this out

Yeah I understand your trying to make a point about holding people accountable, but this seems really unfair to redd, he didn't do anything and is being name dropped in this when it had nothing to do with him, even if you still strongly dislike him from before

Rape Art Threat

A screenshot from (one of) Kestrel's server(s) where Calvin suggests to Kestrel to sexually harass a user with art.
https://i.ibb.co/xSnTKZrr/sirsploit-rape-threat.png

Cover Up Chat

A cover up discord group chat was created in order to address Calvin's comments. Not only that, but they also address the claims of cat murdering.
All people involved in this chat are as follows:
Wastepaw/Kestrel, Vedacia(leaker, sent them to Sammy), Sirsploit/CannibalCalvin, Anthropophagiac/Elkhound/Taxidermyfuckr(Propara alias), Loki / Spoonfulofcum/Spoonfulofsuga. All of these people are featured within this doc. The way Kestrel acts also contradicts later screenshots we found leaked from another chat.
Screenshots were sourced from Cemeterypaws, aka Sammy, the partner of Arlaux. Later in the document you will learn about Sammy & Arlaux but both of them are zoosadists, so they aren't much better than any of these people. Sammy just happened to be the one who published these screenshots to the public originally.

i can understand why people would be very uncomfortable with calvin after learning this, it is upsetting. but i (as in me personally, im not forcing anyone to feel the same way i do) still hold the belief that ostracizing people completely for past actions is counterproductive.. idk. i wouldn't interact with him at all if he was still actively doing these things.
its kinda the same way i felt about redd

So glad I am out of that friend group tbh, letting your friend that has killed cats (and still wants to) constantly threaten people's IRL pets isn't great just aside from the constant drama-mongering. People that want to be left alone, should be left alone, thought we agreed.

Hey, long time no anything! I do miss you critters, you especially, but the wife has made the positive decision to take a step back from the para space generally and as such I am also taking a step back. Be nonsensical otherwise, though I might disagree with her opinion sometimes.
I did enjoy our last conversation, the one about your history with felines, and I was playing up caring about it. I think about it still though not in the upset way or anything, just mostly intrigued. If we would've talked longer maybe I would've trusted you with some of my own history about various sordid things, but hey, beggars can't be choosers. I still don't judge you, and I don't even particularly care that you did it, doesn't upset me at all if I'm really honest, if you have to do it again though stick to ferals. In hindsight, I guess you picked the right person to tell lol!! Still don't know why you thought I wouldn't judge, but you thought right, doubt you sniffed out anything beyond what other people have. Maybe if we were still talking I could ask you what about me made you think of me that way.
My wife is also working to get money to refund you for your commission, and I apologize that it's taken so long. She's been in a bit of a rut with everything and I'm not exactly helping lol, but you'll get that refund soon, I promise.

yeah keep tlaking my tip is dripping

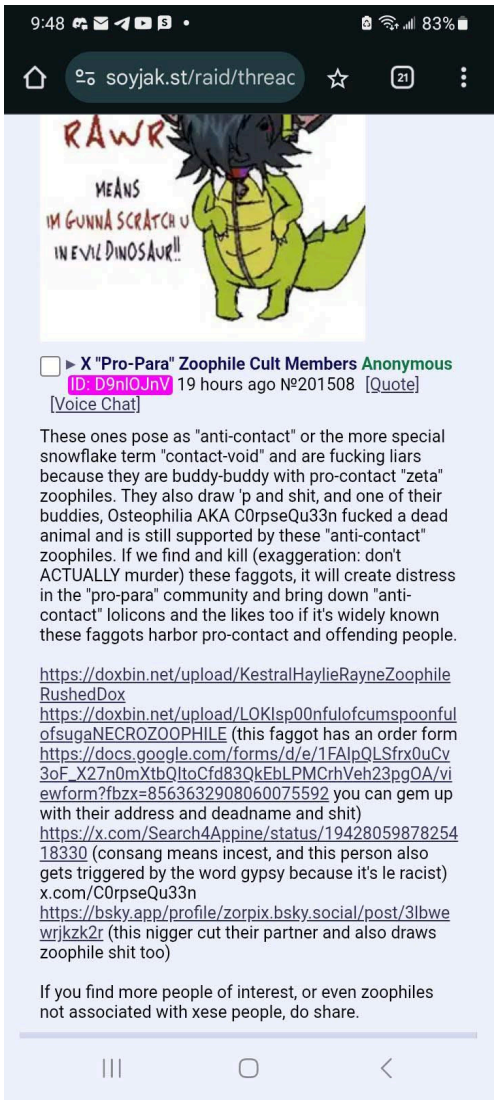

(For context, Ceylon is referring to him being reported to authorities by people who know his address as “doxxing”. Users online were not leaking his information, simply just sending tips to law enforcement and being encouraged to do so. The act of doxxing on its own is also not a crime by US law.)

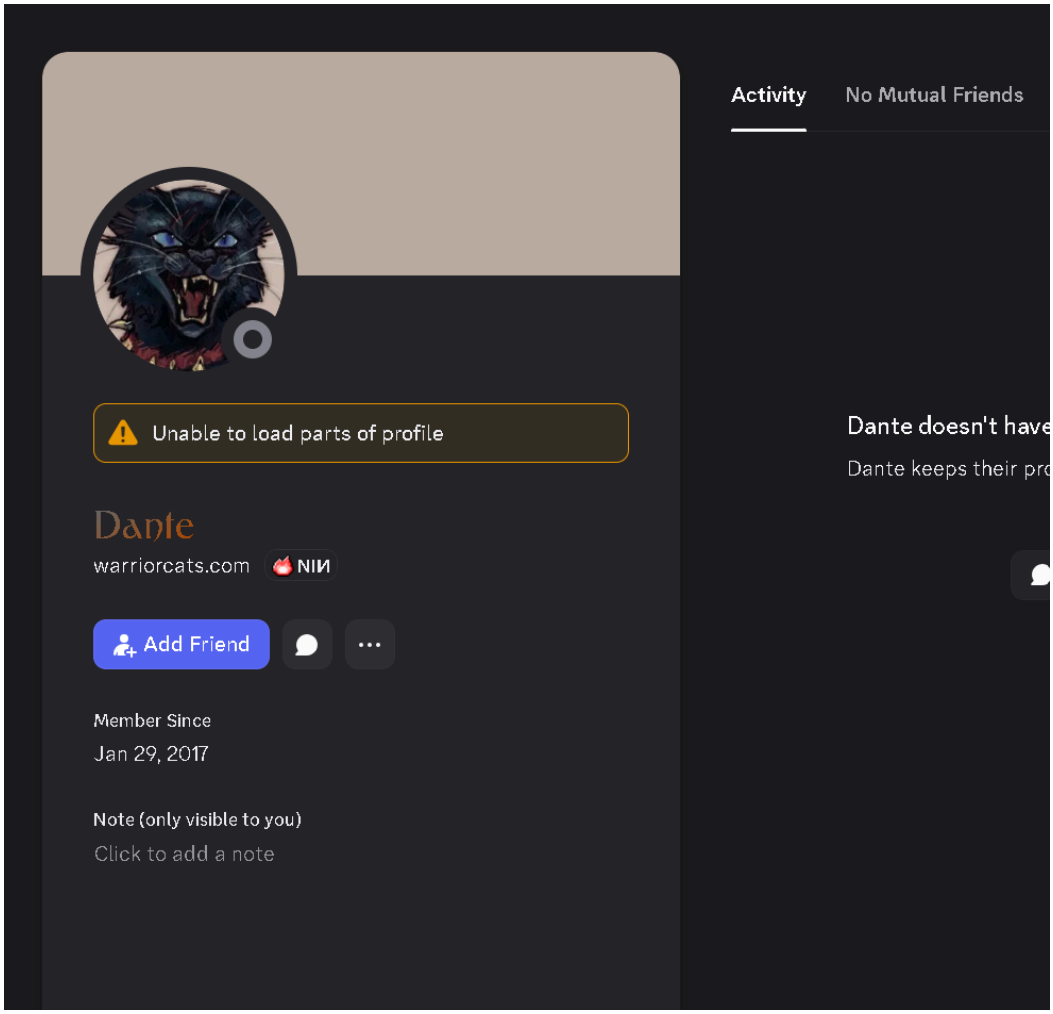

The user in the discord chat that is nicknamed with “butch lesbian rape dog” is Kestrel. The icon is Scourge from Warrior Cats. Due to him having a nickname, some people may think this information is not strong enough to prove the legitimacy of these screenshots. However, the detail of this particular art he was using in the screenshots is actually very important to proving the legitimacy of them.

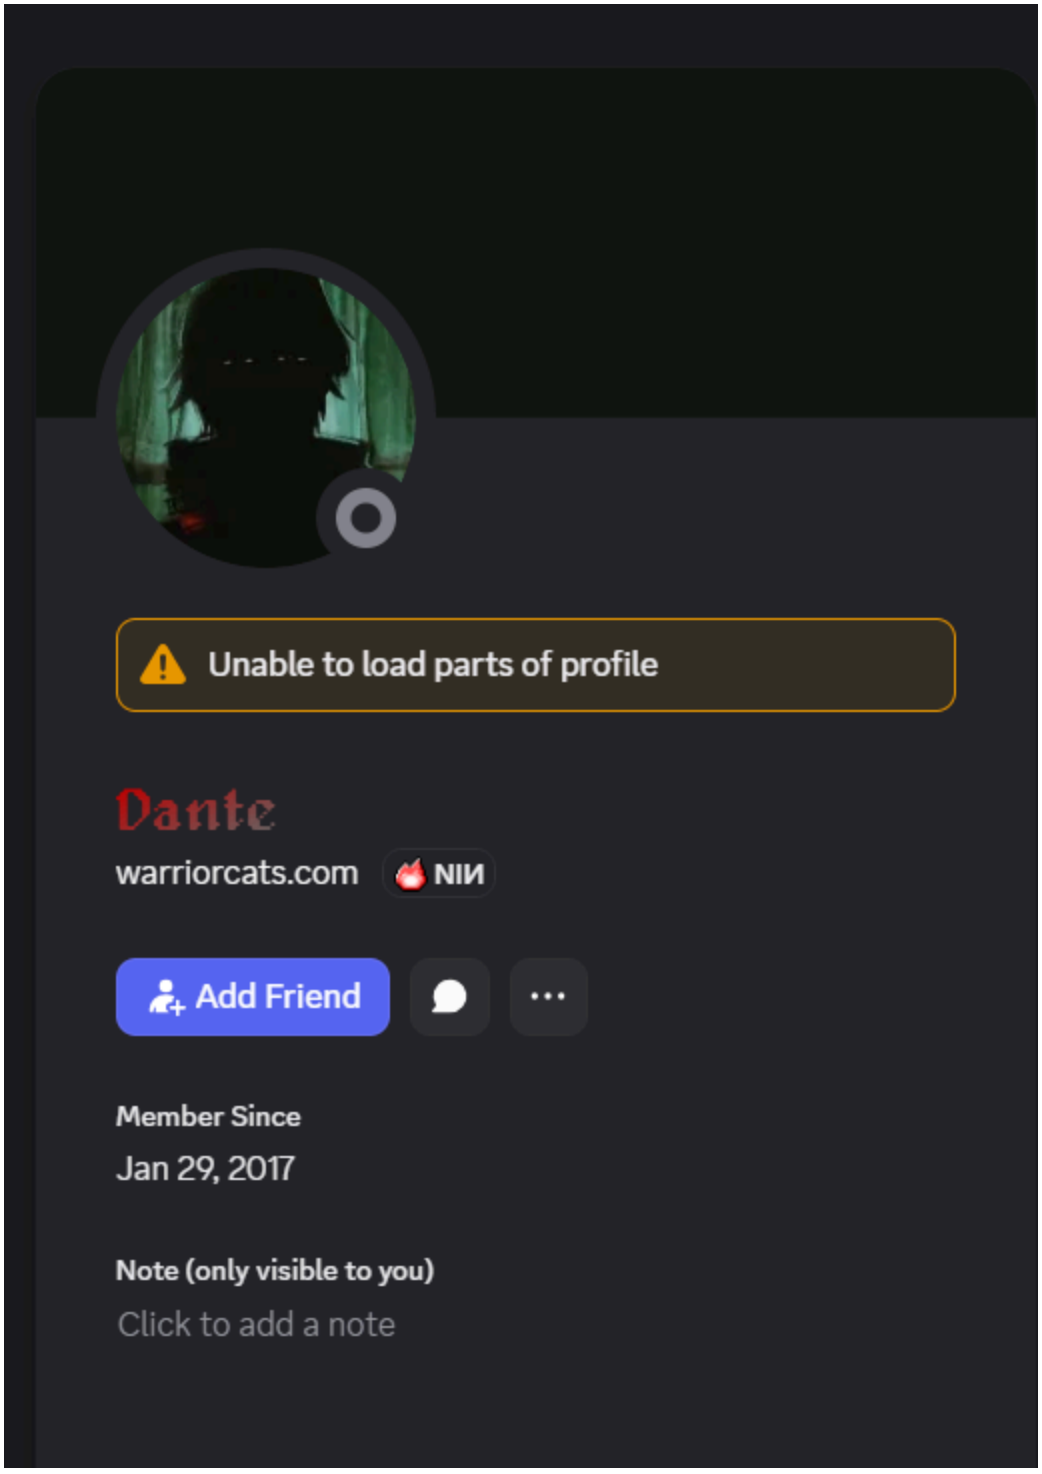

These screenshots all occurred in 2025, around that time, a soyjak party thread made in 2025 was made on Kestrel. This was sent directly to JACKRABBLT, of whom screenshotted it. The fact this particular image was the center of his soyjak party thread meant it was likely very common on his profile in 2025, or in the very least, recognizable.

Not only that, but his current discord has the same vanity tag as the offending messages. The screenshots were likely taken at a later date, as the vanity tags that Kestrel was using on his cover up chat are different to these ones. These vanity tags match what he currently has set for 2026.

So glad I am out of that friend group tbh, letting your friend that has killed cats (and still wants to) constantly threaten people's IRL pets isn't great just aside from the constant drama-mongering. People that want to be left alone, should be left alone, thought we agreed.

Ive read up on everything, and arlaux's responses and her reaching out to you again about this is really rubbing me the wrong way ngl

Im not happy to learn you did this, especially when its implied you did this to people's pets.

I dont think I can decide how I feel about being around you at the moment. I will need a bit to think about it. But I do think arlaux's decision to bring this up 3 months later is very telling to why she even brought it up which pisses me off as well.

Salami's Ableism

Salami is really ableist on top of tolerating abuse supporters and people who threaten his own cat. He makes fun of JACKRABBLT for being too poor to afford a refund from someone who bought a design via block evading. He comments about disabled people being able to hold jobs as well, despite there being a system in (most) governments to quite literally be paid by the government because you are disabled. Jack also has epilepsy.

Salami only refers to mental illnesses while joking about being called ableist. Physical disabilities exist, and people who are not able bodied can struggle to hold jobs, let alone what mental illness can do on its own.

Defamation

Classic defamation of JACKRABBLT apparently harassing Soren even as a minor. Which makes no sense, as none of that happened, and Jack made his beware as an adult. He was also not a part of the wider feral nsfw community until he was an adult in the first place. Soren had limited to no way of knowing who he was (likely) until he joined the community.

Nekohime and Arlaux

Cemeterypaws/Sammy/Nekohime and Arlaux are both abuse sympathizing necrozoophiles, and Sammy is also a scammer. They are both are in an incestous relationship and have endorsed incest on mulitple other occassions. Individually, they both have an extensive history, including betraying their own inner friend groups repeatedly.

Not only that, but there is evidence Sammy is also friends with a groomer (however there are multiple technically, seeing as Sammy and Arlaux are both friends with Redd).

This information is also funny, because it means a claim JACKRABBLT was told and spread via anon(about Sammy being friends with a groomer) was actually possibly true. For whatever reason, the actual proof was withheld from JACKRABBLT, so he basically got harassed and gaslit just for this doc to prove it true. This gives some context to some later screenshots of JACKRABBLT being friendly to Sammy, the entire time he was being manipulated and lied to extensively.

Taken from Redd aka Kittenpaw's inkbunny page; proof they are back in within the Propara community despite claiming they were stepping away. Various other artists and their characters are also featured. Many of them appear within this doc.

There is much more proof they are still within the Propara community other than this, which will be revealed in the following sections. Both are separated into two separate sections, but put in the same overarching section as they are often intertwined in their lies and actions.

Calvin and Arlaux's Conversation

Leaked conversations between Arlaux and Calvin, however Calvin deleted all of his side for most of this, so it's mostly Arlaux talking. However what is contained is a lot of enablement of abuse and admissions about having sex with roadkill.

My Twitter is not exclusionary of any individuals, and I do not like contact discourse nor do I find value in engaging with it in a non-critical way. Anyone can follow and anyone can participate in communicating with me, and I do not find value in shaming or being combative.

Logically it is true, getting mad at paraphiles will not help victims. It's been proven time and time again not to do so, study after study has come out saying the same thing. Yet people will react with anger instead of actually thinking about solutions.

Public sex and public intimacy should be decriminalized, it should be okay to get with a partner and have sex naked in the woods or grind against a wall together under an overpass or do this.

I don't know what behavior I did wrong, I'd like to correct it but just ghosting and blocking on discord and everywhere else doesn't give me the chance to understand what I've done wrong. It sucks because it gives me zero opportunity to change.

Maybe one day the world will be better, where if people have problems with friends they talk. I'd like that, I'm not someone who hasn't changed. I used to be a pro-c zoo, I changed, I used to be more reactionary, I changed, change is a part of life.

Zoosadist flag

Arlaux made a flag for zoosadists. There's not even an attempt to make it "anti-contact" like other flag creators. It specifically has "killing/harming of animals for pleasure" as a part of one of its meanings.

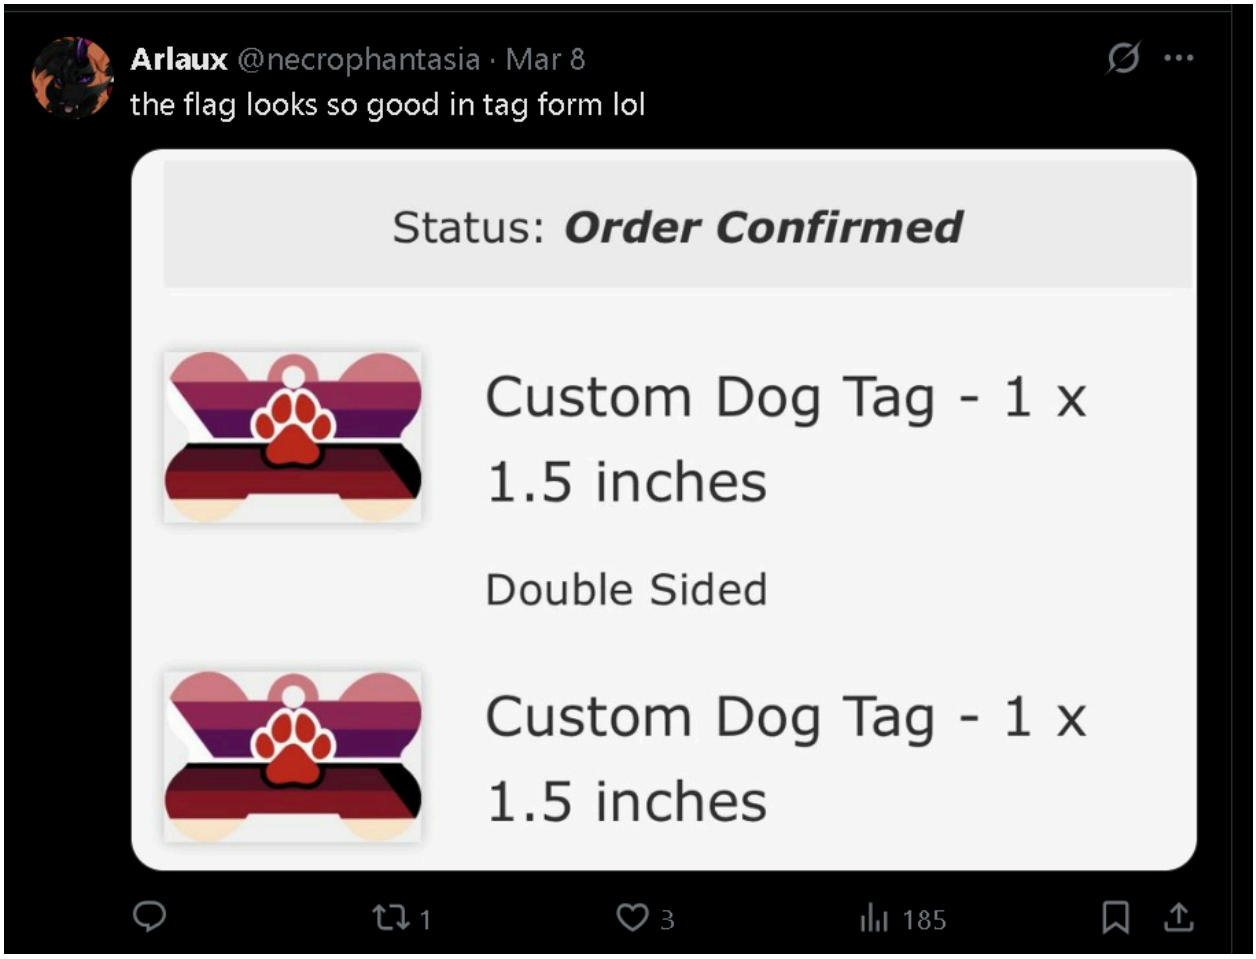

Love
Pleasure
Life
Power
Pain/zoophilia
Muscle
Death
Blood Bone

Arlaux @necrophantasia · Mar 7
The flag has two black and white triangles that project a line of their color towards the center. The black symbolizes death and the white symbolizes life, them touching symbolizes the border between them.

If you look at the white triangle and black triangle you can see that they are descending, which is symbolic for the taking of life and that transition from one side to the other.

The two sides symbolize the two involved in any instance of zoosadism, the one alive and who will continue to live (the person) and the victim who will likely die (the animal).

Roadkill

A tweet where Arlaux horrifyingly enough is talking about collecting roadkill in Ohio and if it's illegal. The true intent for collecting the roadkill is most definitely for zoosadist intentions.

IRL Content Retweets/posts

No matter how hard these people tell you it's just a fantasy, it's really not for them. Arlaux has a habit of reposting irl photos of dog maws, which are definitely being used as fetish material (even if not intended by their posters). This is very concerning considering Arlaux is a zoosadist. There are also retweets of real gore too.

Dog Maw Retweets

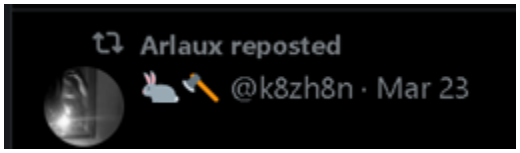

It's possible not all of these accounts are abuse accounts, but it's still concerning. To try to prevent abuse, we also excluded any pictures of the dogs themselves, but their captions make it obvious what was going on.

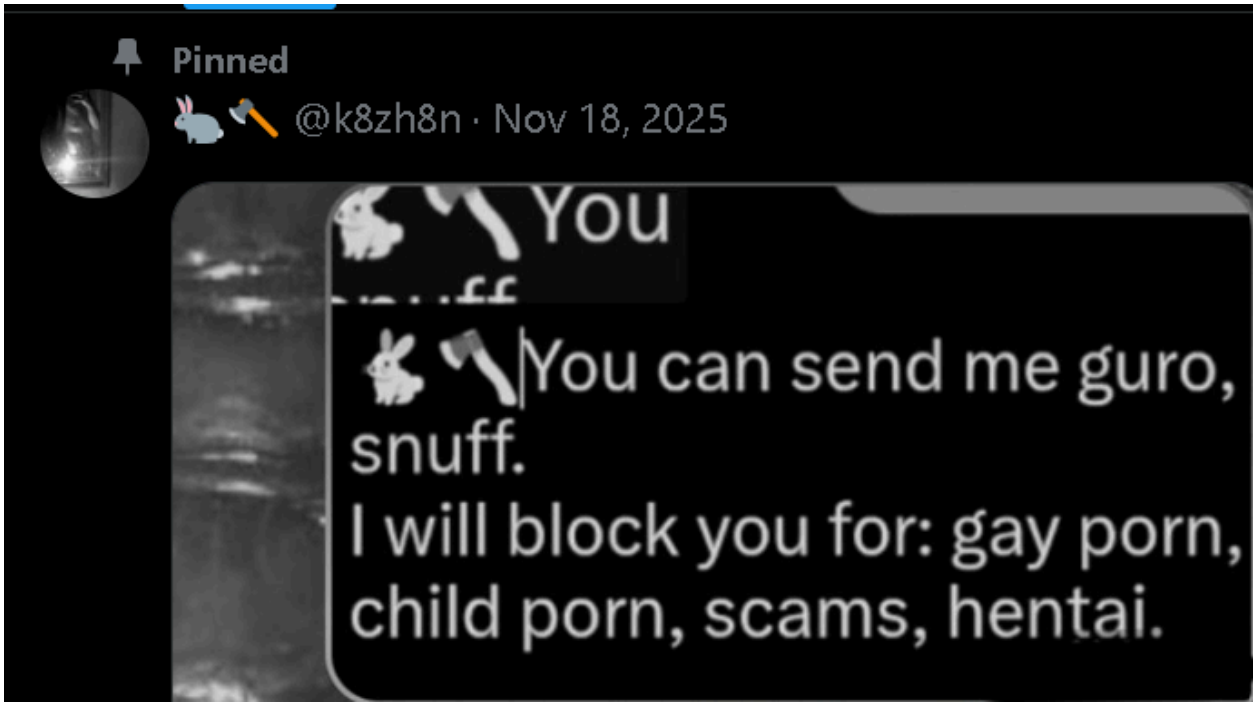

Gore Retweets

The actual gore will not be shown here but Arlaux also likes to retweet from actual snuff reposting accounts. This account literally trades gore.

Self Harm tweets

Self harm tweets of Arlaux also being pro-self harm. Their other accounts also included Arlaux with a self harm photo of herself and her posing with an actual real animal skull.

(Photo unarchived by this doc and not shown as it would be IRL necrozoophilia. It's well known that she did this; Arlaux has the nickname "skull fucker" for a reason.)

Absolutely scalding hot take:

I think a lot of trans people who say they are trans are actually just autistic and struggle to fit in, seeing this as them being trans rather than them being autistic because most of us are raised in a gendered society. Like very often it's the autistic type of trans person who doesn't try at all, isn't really dysphoric much at all, and is concerned more with being valid than with actually passing or being seen as their gender. It feels more likely they've put on a mask rather than learned more about their identity.

Yeah yeah not everyone's transition is the same and not everyone has the same goals but a lot of you don't have goals or want to transition at all. I am a trans woman and sometimes I have facial hair, this makes me suicidal. I am not the same as the trans man who loves having big breasts, a pussy, and being seen as a girl. Just as trans men who are dysphoric about their chests, even if they are femme, aren't the same as that group. I think it being autism is also why you see trans mascs engage in this sort of behavior more, autistic women are generally not accepted by society or are not well understood so autism becomes seen as masculine and those behaviors as masculine. And my theory has some proof, trans mascs have a higher rate of autism than trans femmes, studies have shown this multiple times.

Like... just because you didn't fit in with girls and didn't have girl friends doesn't mean you're trans, but I think that's a big reason many autistic women end up identifying as trans masc and yet don't change presentation much at all.

I'm kinda glad to have a group of friends that aren't normal and basic, like white guys that are of average intelligence that are not queer or anything just normal people. They're less presumptive about kinks than lgbtq people are and they're far less prone to caring about paras. A lot of the time if we're playing a game together and they see an animal skull they'll tease me about it and I've made out with animal skulls on video during drunk night with all of them in a big group and nobody cared, your average queer xe/xem 10 disorders would have a callout made the next hour if they saw a friend doing that.

Oh my gosh so many people are cringe here like no, I am making out with, humping, and cumming on ethically harvested animal skulls. I'm not larping, I like dead things. So long as nothing is being harmed people should piss off. People will eat their sexual abuse burger with a side of localized exrinction fries but then have a problem with finding skulls in the woods and making out with them.

One of the biggest reasons I won't kill anybody is because true crime is a thing now and I don't want some ugly stupid 14 year old thinking I'm hot and making art of me and like 35 year old white wine moms making videos on YouTube about me, shit would be a permenant humiliation ritual.

And also everyone online would go "ohhh we told you so" and "ohhh it was so obvious" and "ohhh there were signs" fuck that, that's annoying.

One unique experience I've had is just the sheer amount of offers I've gotten from people who want me to end their life, usually through torture or beheading. It's so interesting to be asked that so much, I probably have been asked it maybe 30 times in total which is odd because I don't think I'm all that special. I'm somewhat pretty and very interested in the process but that's really it, something about my demeanor attracts those who want to die.

I just think it'd be fun to tie someone down, bore a hole through their pre-achilles fat pad and fish a rope through the hole, tie their achilles tendonto the legs of a chair, their arms to the arms of the chair, and then do whatever I desire to them. Drilling screws up through the mandible into the hard palate so they can't open their mouths, hammer nails into the gaps between their knuckles into the armrest so their hands are secure, use a sawzall on their fingers and toes, maybe even slowly cut through the neck with a small scalpel tiny slice by tiny slice. Would be a fun night, I'd like to think!

osteophilia Follow •••

When I was younger I used to hop fences and enter people's homes if the door was unlocked and they didn't have an animal. Was quite an odd youngster.

I think these days if I ever did something similar I'd pick one with a dog or a cat or some other medium sized animal and garrote it with a gigli saw. Just have it squirm as the wire saws deeper and deeper, wonder if an animal would've ever figure out that if they squirm it just slices further into the neck, slowly making its way to the carotid artieried snd jugular veins. Many are too stupid to realize something is happening before it's too late, much like humans. Maybe after I could fuck the stump and take the head home as a trophy? Toss it in a bin with some dermestid beetles or soapy water after defleshing. Keep them all nice and clean on a shelf to show off all the kills.

osteophilia Follow •••

One of these days I need to waltz out into the forest with my big knife and just behead the corpse of a deer, slide on a condom, and then fuck its throat hole until I cum. Seen some good shots of the stump of a deer neck, I bet its possible. Should ask my one active necro friend about it..

osteophilia Follow •••

Chasing prey, such as mice or voles, with your cat and eventually catching and killing the prey is a form of enrichment both for the self and for the cat, it trains both creatures in patience and timing, and allows you to get your heart rate up in a healthy way. This also helps bonding if properly done, and its also very hot. Being a human mouser is enjoyable for the soul.

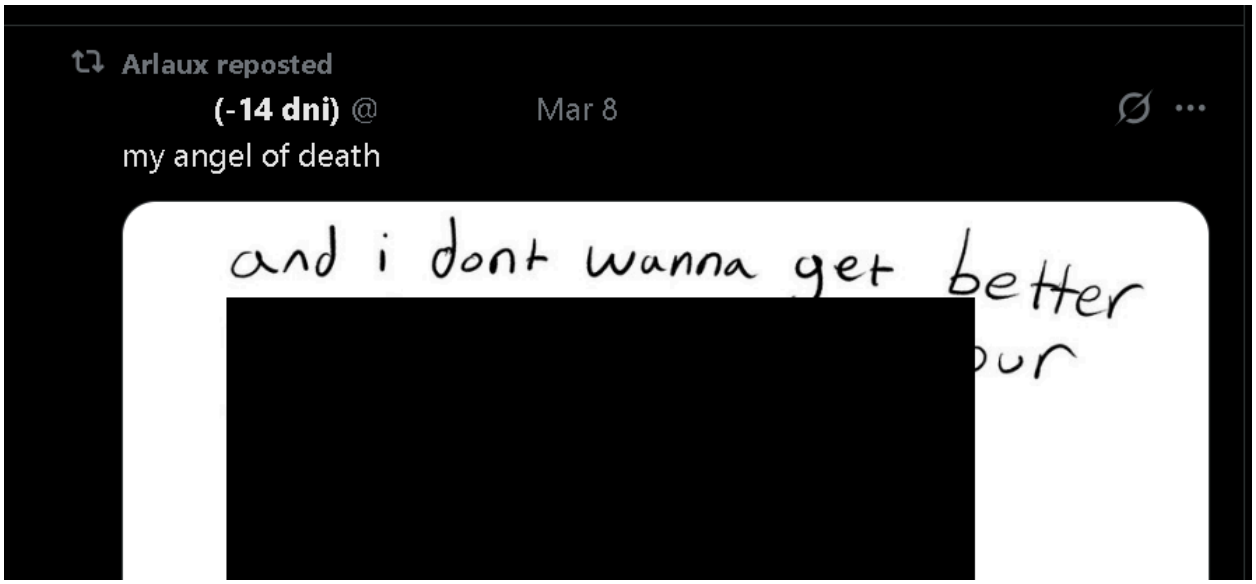

osteophilia Follow •••

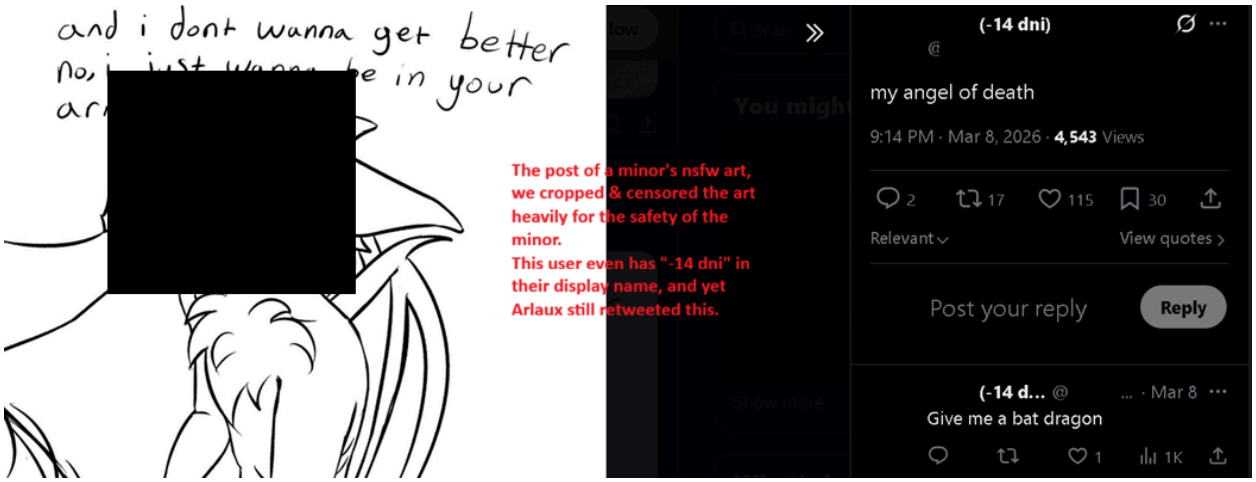

I love animal bones and their scent and texture, the feeling of teeth and cranial ridge and zygomatic arch against skin and lips. They're some of the best things I've found to cuddle with at night and they help cool my body's tendency to overheat. There is nothing else like the way the brain becomes electric when using the fingers to tease at the nasal turbinates.

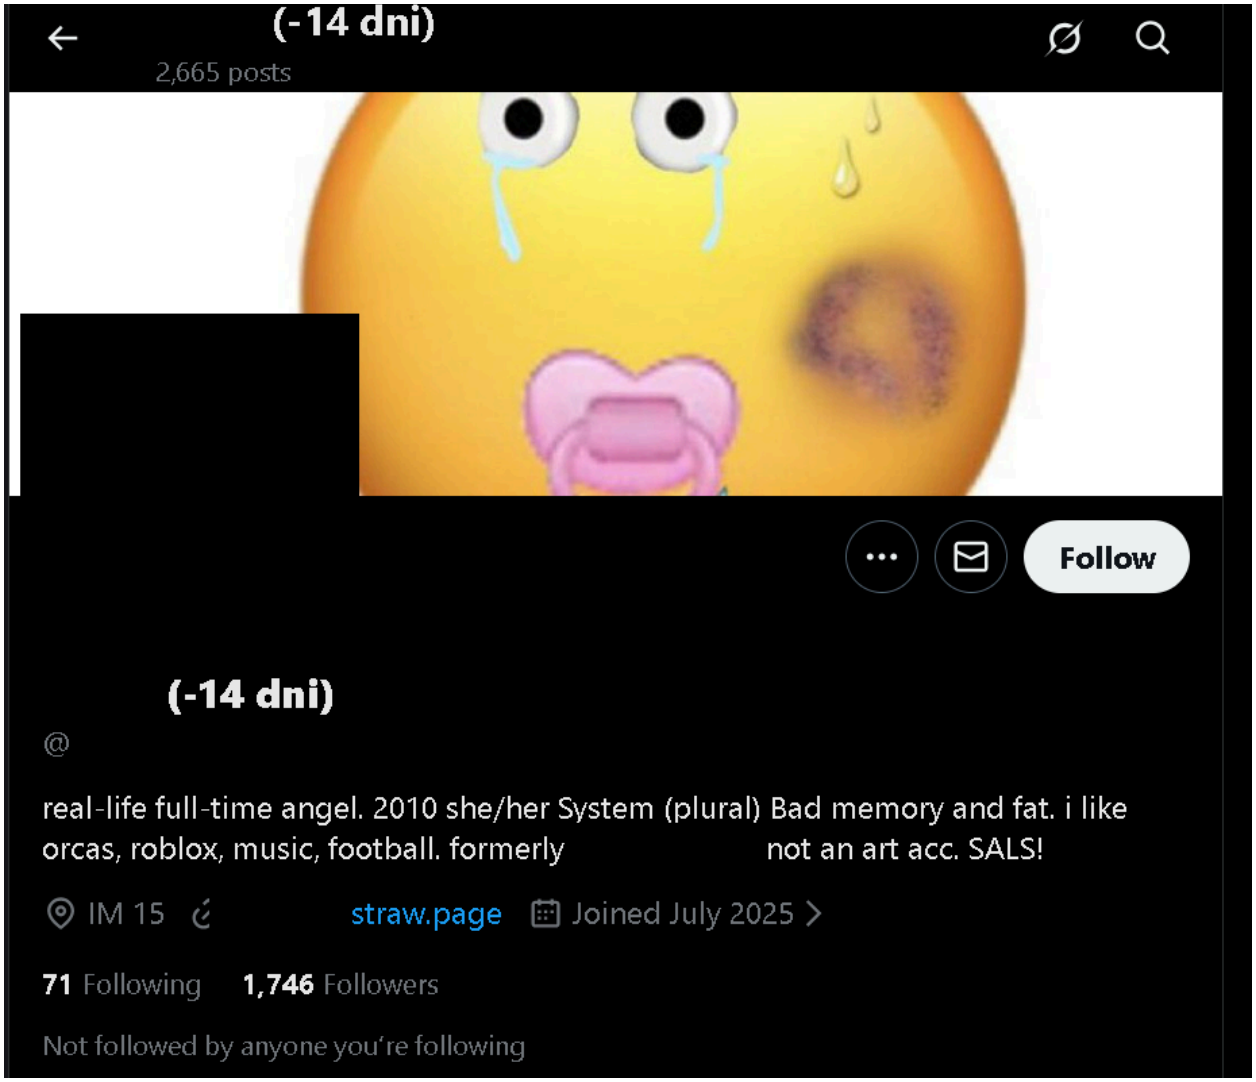

They are beautiful partners, and their love is unconditional, grinding on them and feeling teeth snag against loose skin is wonderful and I'd never ask for a different life. Being legal options to engage in necrozoophilic feelings is a wonderful little loophole in US law.

Predatory Behavior

Arlaux retweets porn made by a minor, really concerning considering Arlaux's tweets. This is clear as day a tweet made by a minor as well. We censored the minor's art style and profile heavily to attempt to prevent abuse.

A tweet where Arlaux defends child abuse.

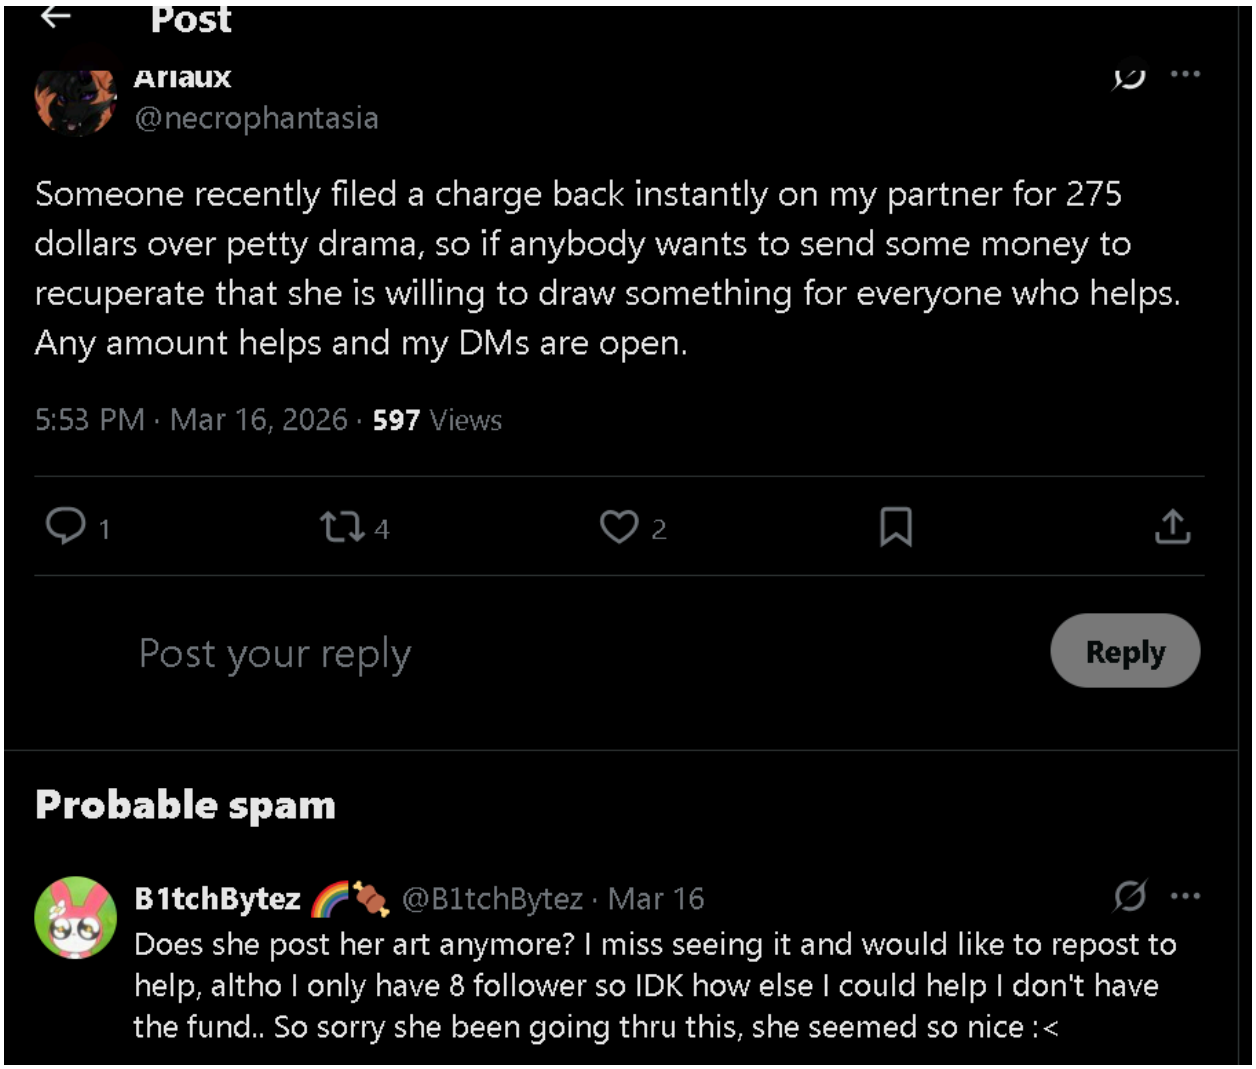

She tries to defend it by being Schrodinger's idiot as per usual, but theres no indication that was a joke, and would still be irresponsible to tweet out as it is a literal endorsement of child abuse.

Almost every time Arlaux says something outlandish, herself or others often say it is a “joke” to neglect the impact of putting out things like this online. Saying it’s a joke can also make it seem they don’t actually hold these opinions when they do; which can appeal to anyone gullible enough to believe them.

Regarding Necroticpaw PSA

Received from Agonize at 6 Nov 2025, 7:03:28 am

OP, can you please remove all mentions of me (Snuffpet) and Arlaux from your PSA on Necroticpaw? We (Arlaux and I) want nothing to do with this anymore and have been trying to move away, stop all involvement and improve elsewhere. Being named in callouts and/or harassment campaigns hinders this and kicks it back up for us. We have removed all involvement from our Twitters which are now largely dormant & are attempting to phase ourselves out of this community with little trouble or harassment from it for not wanting to be involved with it anymore, or realizing issues with it. Kestrel has taken it upon himself to go further with this despite our best wishes and we are not involved in his current escapades on Twitter.

(Please, also if possible, do not name me or mention this DM if you do actually remove mentions of us from the doc, as I don't want trouble and harassment from the other side of this either.)

I was in Kestrel's server because I was invited, and as you can see, I rarely talked in it. But that does not mean I am not trying to distance myself from this community, they were really the only connections I had after everything, though I have left it and will be properly distancing myself from everybody within this now. I am really tired of this and no longer want to partake in this drama, in this community, or keep any of these connections, neither does my partner.

I don't really know how to prove to you that I've been really distant from Kestrel and only talked to him within his server, we are not close, we do not talk in DMs, and we are not encouraging him to do what he's doing on Twitter.

Please do not get me or my partner involved.

OP, in your own proof regarding me "still being friends with kestrel" you literally included posts of kestrel talking about my partner no longer wanting to be associated with this anymore.

I also got some very recent things from my own dms with kestrel explicitly stating I no longer want to be involved with profic or propara stuff anymore, as well as old dms with another person up to eight months ago claiming the same sentiment.

https://imgur.com/a/594zGz7

I have publicly echoed this on my Twitter many times over the course of this year too. I cannot get the posts since I removed everything.
I was mostly just too coward to be alone, which is why I guess I kept these connections around. So I didn't have to be completely isolated while trying to phase myself out of it.

Even if you don't believe me or just simply don't want to believe or listen to me, I will state right now, I no longer want to be involved and will be cutting ties with everybody and every form of involvement I once had with this community and these people.

Not that it would seem to really matter to you, but Arlaux hasn't done any of the bone stuff in a year by this point. Eight months ago, we specifically kept saying on Twitter that Arlaux hasn't done anything for six months, and people like Jackrabbit and PNG kept repeatedly bringing it up, getting more people involved with the argument, and kept the discoursing going around and around. When it started, we were more receptive to change and even did change (hence the not actually doing anything with the bones since.) Everything since then has just been constant discoursing about this, and despite everything we've done and said, it continued. The fact that we did stop and tried to move away from it before DID NOT matter to the people perpetuating it, and it did not change anything. It kept going, so we just eventually said "fuck it".

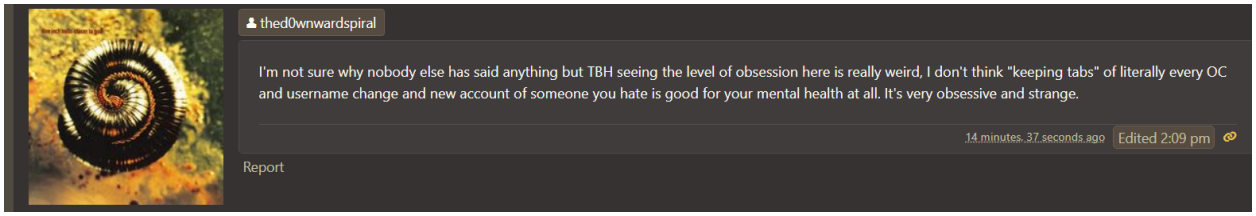

Changing and explicitly saying we have stopped and wanted to stop arguing about it so we can move on harbored nothing at all. We kept being pestered, stalked, harassed and backed into a corner about it. How can you expect us to genuinely engage in good faith when this has been happening for over a year straight?

I also don't really like the sentiment that Arlaux explicitly and inherently influenced Kestrel into doing so too, Kestrel is an adults and made the choice himself. Other people actually encouraged Kestrel into doing it more than Arlaux and I have.

And what do you mean by "keep a partner who dug this hole themselves"? I will not be breaking up with Arlaux, we literally live together in real life. I especially won't be breaking up with her because, like I said again, nothing has been done in over a year by this point and we are both trying to distance ourselves from this and become better people.

You may also talk to Arlaux herself if you're concerned about her thoughts or her behavior — another thing we have been begging people to do this entire time this has been happening, for over a year now. Multiple times on Twitter we have opened our DMs to people harassing us and perpetuating this to talk it out with us and to explain our thoughts and feelings, and nobody has taken up that offer, instead opting for indirect communication through Twitter vagues and harassment threads.

(Sorry for the double PMs and whatnot also, I hate toyhouse's PM system, it's clunky and just so weird to use. If you genuinely want to talk elsewhere or hear us out I would be open.)

thed0wnwardspiral
I'm not sure why nobody else has said anything but TBH seeing the level of obsession here is really weird, I don't think "keeping tabs" of literally every OC and username change and new account of someone you hate is good for your mental health at all. It's very obsessive and strange.

Hello! I don't care to hide out of fear of them and their gaggle of cult-like dumbasses anymore so I'll say my part. I am so glad to finally see callouts on Sammy/Snowy/Kennedy. This mentally ill person has been cyberstalking me and slandering me and many other individuals with lies for the better part of 7 or 8 years to the point of genuine obsession after I was friends with them very briefly in 2018 and 2024/2025. They constantly watch people they don't like to send their cronies after them and they block evade to speak to people who want nothing to do with them because they got their weak little feelings hurt. They are very two-faced and suck up to people while they shit-talk them behind their backs. I do not have logs unfortunately as I did not think to collect proof since nobody outside of "pro-para" communities really called them out on their bullshit until recently, but both them and their "cousin" are self-admitted "necropedozoos" in case you would like to keep an eye out for them mentioning it for your callout. They have created and owned multiple characters that are specifically designed after the pedophile/MAP "pride" flag, the zoophile "pride" flags, and the necrophile "pride" flags in case those pop up as well. They have also produced not only feral NSFW, but also posted cub NSFW on InkBunny; that is, before they nuked their account there. Generally they are very involved in the "pro-para" communities even though they frequently claim to no longer be involved with them. They run and move accounts all of the time to escape accountability and they lie about others including me to distract from their own disgusting actions. I witnessed all of this near-constantly when I was "friends" with them. They dragged me back into those communities when I was in a very bad place mentally until I managed to get away from them. Careful, they'll make a copy of your OCs and make a long ass Twitter thread over falling for the most obvious ragebait.

Feralromp Is another account of theirs on Twitter where they used to post pro-para/pro-zoophilic artwork.

texxxas is an old inactive FurAffinity account of theirs.

WakeUpCalls is another account of theirs that they still use to store art and OCs.

Here is another beware that they are mentioned in.

I'll be on the lookout for more accounts if I can remember them.

Also, this seems to be an issue frequently so if Toyhouse shows you as blocked or IP blocked you're not! Some unrelated blocks seem to carry over for some reason.

It's alright, thank you. I've since moved out of those spaces and I feel much better now. Unlearning those patterns of thought along with therapy has been a life-saver. That's not surprising but I am very sorry that they have done that to you. They purposefully engage and buddy up with people who also hate the people that they hate because they're always looking for "yes men". As soon as they don't like someone they start going after them with false accusations and shit. God yeah, their partner is fucking evil and what I've seen shown in callouts isn't even the tip of the iceberg with that whole group. Their cousin has admitted that they think contact is okay in certain situations and they advocate for prisons to release sex offenders if they've "changed". They both only say that they're "anti-contact" to cover their own asses and avoid backlash. They both think that pro-c necro is okay and have spoken ad nauseum about why it should be legal for them to rape corpses. They refuse to get offline and seek actual help because then they would have to admit fault and admit that what they're doing is fucking disgusting. They'd rather hide 200 times and piss their pants over shit that could be solved if they simply got offline. They would constantly bitch and moan and complain about people "stalking" them only to do the same to others LMFAO. Sammy isn't even a transgender woman, either. They're a ciswoman pretending to be trans under the label of "FTMTF". :-/ Oh, I am very glad to be out of there because it's not healthy. It frequently triggered old trauma and left me a shell of myself which landed me in even worse situations. It's crazy how incredibly toxic people can be.

thed0wnwardspiral

Sammy, stop talking about me. Stop slandering my alters and I on your public blacklists. Stop airing out your imaginary problems with us in public. Stop stalking our accounts obsessively. If you didn't do it to others then it would not happen to you but fair is fair after all. I want nothing to do with you and yet you hunt me down to stalk me every time I create a new account and go under a new alias in an attempt to get away from you.

The reason I am doing this is because you have done the same to me. I do not feel secure anywhere because of you and your cult followers. I do not know why you chose to latch onto me out of everyone in our old friend group but I won't stop talking about you until you shut the fuck up about me.

I change and try to move on from you but you won't stop watching me and creating lies about me like a fucking creep. I watch you right back out of wariness but I'm not keeping quiet about what you have put me through anymore. You caused me to go into a very unhealthy state of mind and I am still working on healing from it now that I have completely separated from those communities. I find you and your other parphile friends disgusting and disgraceful.

Your behaviour is irritating, obsessive, and immature. Get a life. Get a fucking job. Find hobbies. Find friends in the real world. Seek professional help or use healthy and normal coping mechanisms instead of making excuses to feel sorry for yourself like a petulant child. You are not the victim. You are a narcissist and you continually perpetuate abuse. Get off of your ass and stop arguing about freak shit that nobody cares about online. Stop watching me. You are far too old for this and I am bored of you.

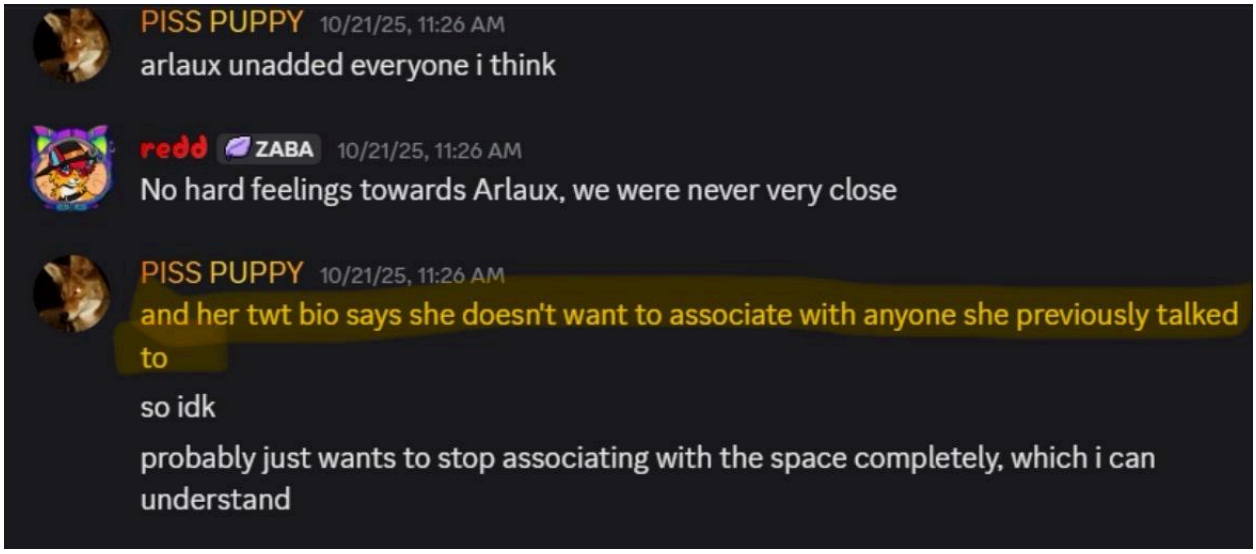

To address what was included on your shit list, I never sent harassment to your inbox. I never said anything about you being groomed. I was being assaulted and molested in person at the time so I have no recollection of whatever you went through which means I cannot speak on it, nor have I spoken on it because I don't care. I never wanted to be like you and I still don't. I never named OCs after you or your alters. I never copied your identity either. I am a heterosexual male, which you quite obviously are not unless you're hiding something. The OCs I had at the time came with those names which I very obviously would not have been aware were names for your alters. I never did any of the things that you said I did.

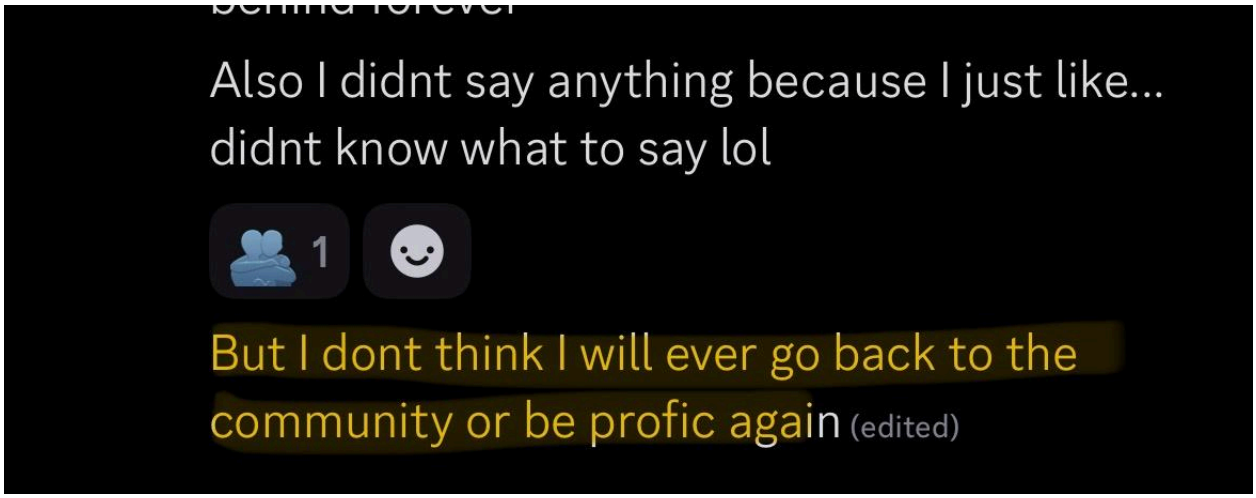

Leave me alone. This is the last thing that I will say on this topic.

Kestrel Cameo

A dump of screenshots Sammy tries to use to defend herself that involve Kestrel. These screenshots were sourced off of toyhou.se from the messages above. However none of these help her case (similar to Calvin's dump), she only digs her hole deeper for herself.
They also prove absolutely nothing, because Sammy is dating someone who MADE a zoosadist flag that includes "killing/harming of animals for pleasure" a part of its meaning. She is simply lying about her stance yet again to try to appeal to people.

Nekohime block evading JACKRABBLT by buying an adoptable from his Ko-Fi, taking advantage of him being poor and unable to refund.

Not the only time Nekohime has block evaded JACKRABBLT even before this. This is repetitive excessive behavior.

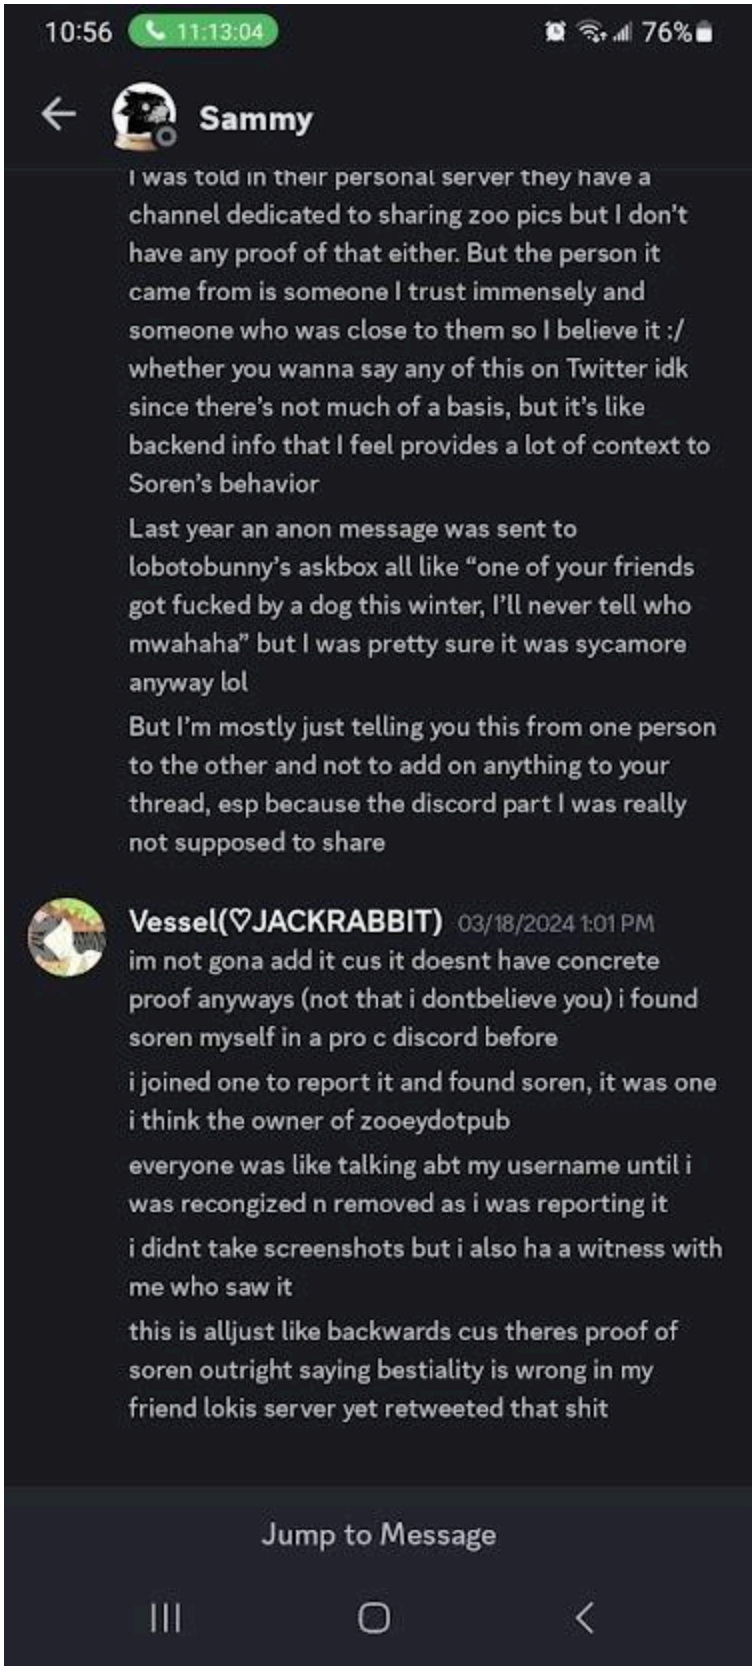

Backstabbing Soren

While lying to JACKRABBLT about her stance (seeing as Sammy is pro-incest), Sammy said a bunch of alleged and unproven information about Soren being associated with abusers. This probably isn't even real and Sammy is lying for fun(though Soren does let a bunch of abusers in their chats, like Calvin), but I still mention it as it shows how little Sammy considers the relationship of their peers(Jack was also talked behind his back as well).

I regret defending Soren initially having known what I know now. u__u I got like insider info from people directly in Soren's immediate circle and its just eugghh. I feel like theres also a reason they insist on aligning themselves with the zeta still after the alef movement

So Soren's irl partner, Sycamore, was the first one to come out about being pro-c/zoo(?) ages ago and was closely sexually involved with one of the people stalking me, theyv talked about wanting to get a dog and stuff. Though I don't really have any definite proof linking sycamore to Soren since I don't think they link their accounts any way on twitter
I was invited to their discord server by Sycamore but I was promptly kicked out last year
I was told in their personal server they have a channel dedicated to sharing zoo pics but I don't have any proof of that either. But the person it came from is someone I trust immensely and someone who was close to them so I believe it :/ whether you wanna say any of this on Twitter idk since there's not much of a basis, but it's like backend info that I feel provides a lot of context to

Twitter Meltdown

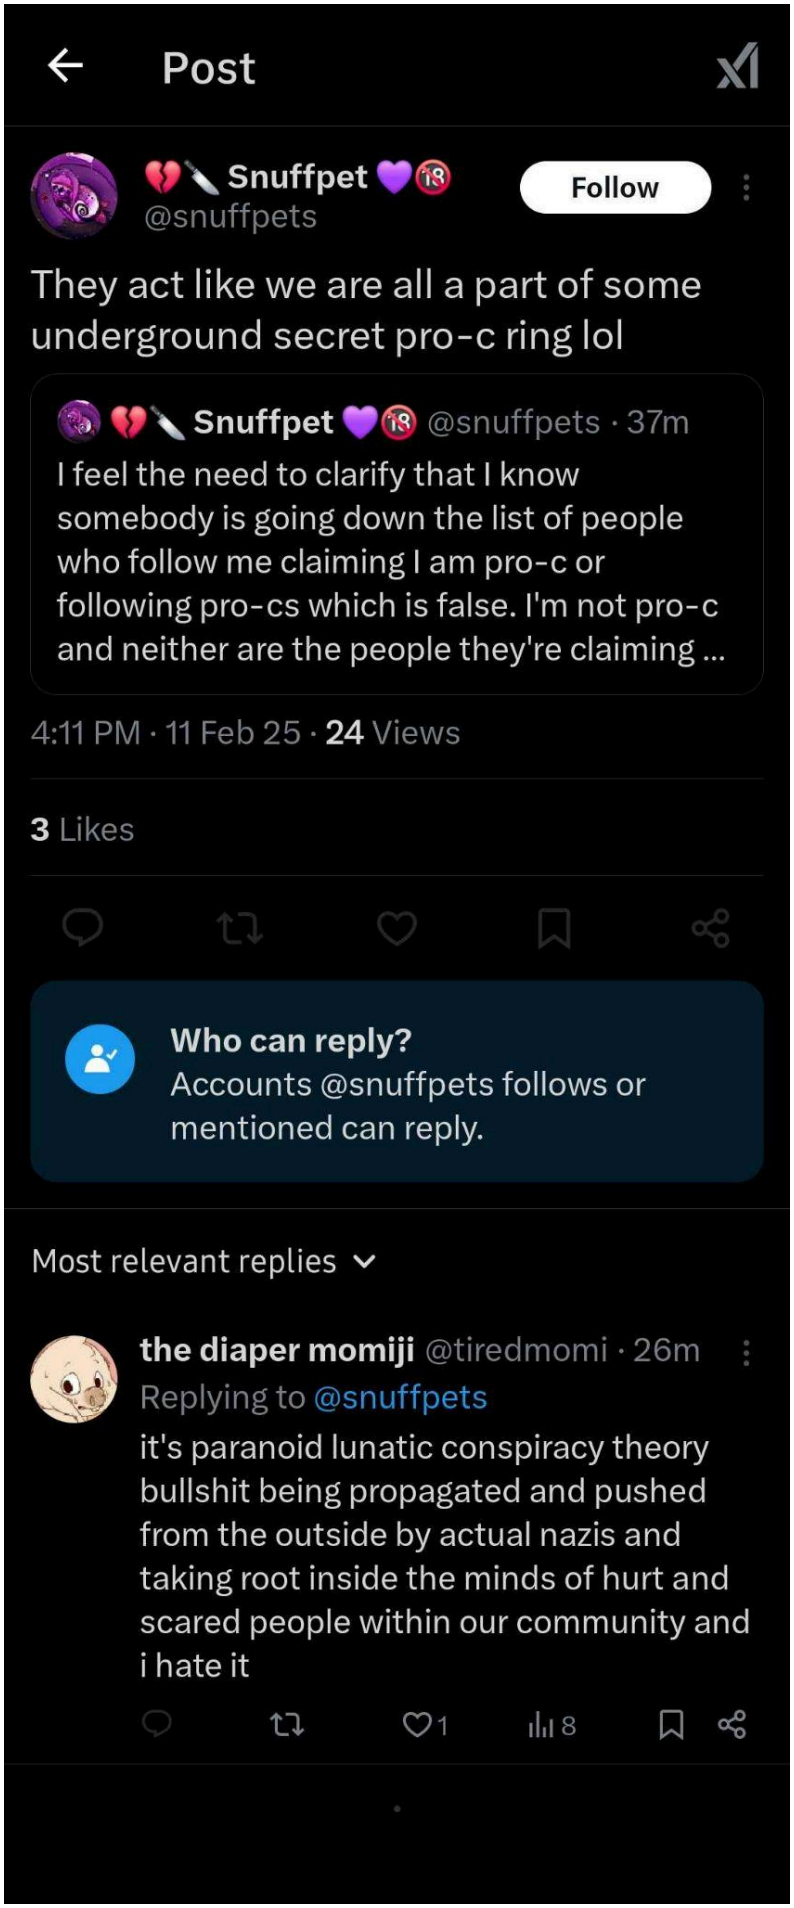

One of many Sammy's various twitter meltdowns about someone. It's hypocritical considering everything Sammy has standed for, and the person she is complaining about most certainly does not use her art anymore as they are out of the community. Especially if you consider she definitely just becomes friends with people to get art or to manipulate them.

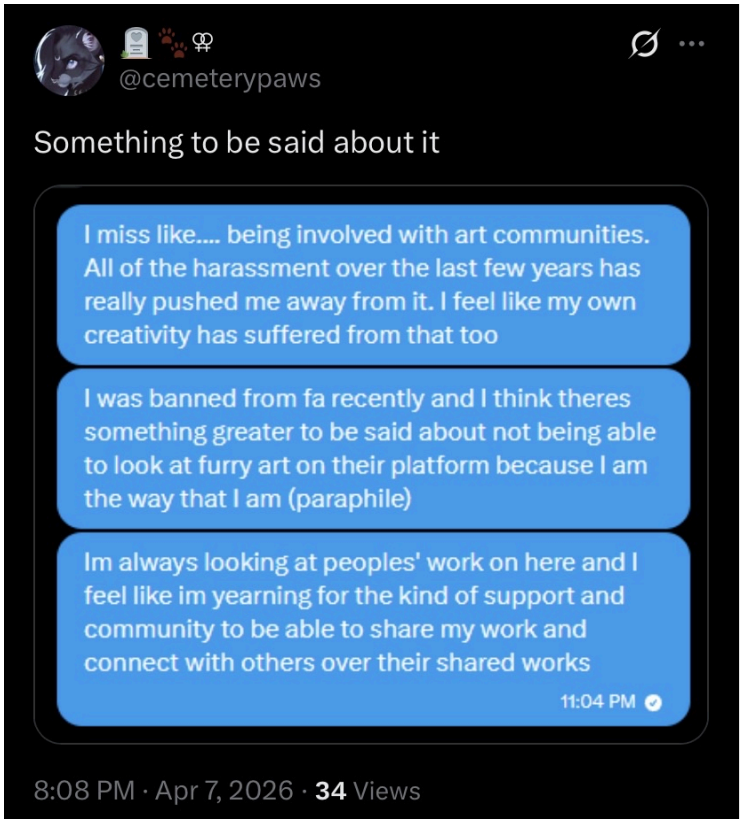

Another twitter meltdown, this time over “follow policing.”

More of Sammy complaining & then gassing up Arlaux on twitter.

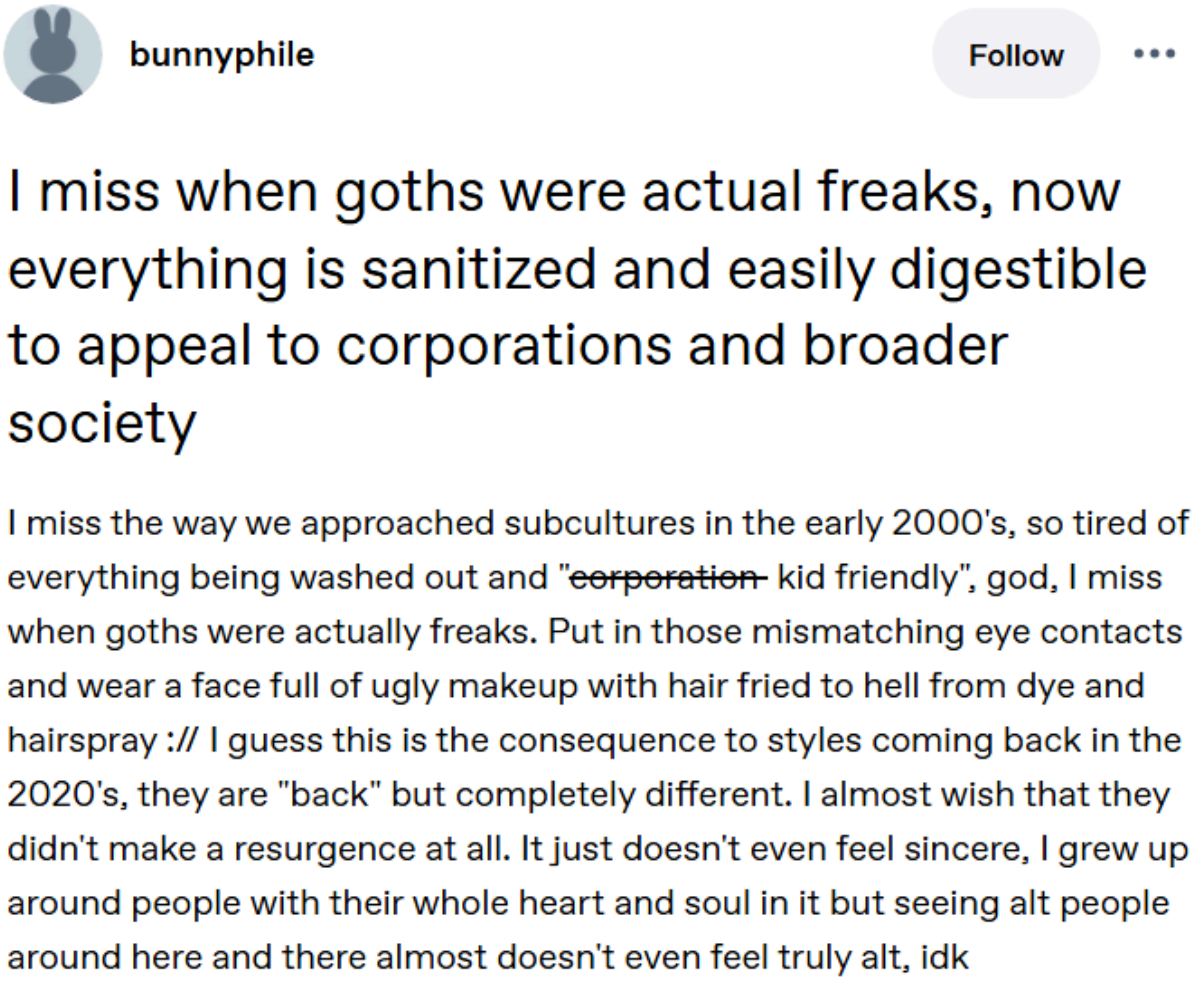

Propara Tumblr

Sammy's Propara tumblr, this is despite her claims of not being able to stomach the Propara community on toyhou.se and discord. Her claims about stepping away from the community is a complete ruse. Her socials already show she is still interlocked into the same Propara community as many people on the doc, and continue to associate with many of them.

On top of that, in a later section, PNG & Sammy decide to associate with each other. This is despite the horrific comments that Sammy had made, as well as all of the boundary pushing both her & Arlaux have done. On top of this, this shows PNG's morals are out of line, as he had a front row seat to learning about this person.

His morals should be put into question for befriending an incest supporting necrozoosadist; do not believe his claims about not being associated with the Propara community as a result. This information is addressed in PNG's own section.

I agree with you, there is benefit to being in a group of people similar to you and if paraphilias weren't heavily stigmatized in our society then groups and blogs specifically aimed towards paraphiles would still exist. But my post was to focus on anti involvement in shaping these communities despite hating them so much. It is still true that we wouldn't need to form our own communities and be so tight knit with them to be able to find even an ounce of support if antis were less responsible for pushing us out of society broadly. Being able to be a paraphile and still be able to exist within society and still maintain proper social connections despite that would be preferable but antis make it near impossible to do so. So my post was made specifically to focus on how paraphile communities are very often the only source of support for the way that we are.

Frustrating responses to a Reddit question about zoophiles

TW: paramisia

It's so frustrating to see a question specifically aimed towards zoophiles and not only do the zoophiles answering said question get downvoted into oblivion, but everybody who is NOT a zoophile also feels the need to throw in their two cents about why somebody might be one and about what we might find attractive about animals.

Zoophilia is not about control. We are not zoophiles because it's taboo. We are zoophiles because we genuinely find animals attractive.

^ Uncensored user above. Account has since been deleted.

Anonymous asked:

People saying stuff like "you're only attracted to (kids/animals/the dead/objects/whatever) because nobody else would love you LMAO"

Like no? That's not how it works and it makes me mad thisisparamisia answered:

This is paramisia.

Sure, some people might develop paraphiles due to the trauma of feeling unloved (because that can be extremely traumatic to some people), but a lot of people develop paraphilias due to other forms of trauma or just randomly (not all paraphilias have external origins.)

bunnyphile

To antis being attracted to anything other than adult humans is absurd and obviously nobody would actually be attracted to those things, and if they are then clearly it's because they can't find anyone else to love them!! Being a paraphile means you are a loser social outcast because obviously no Normal person could ever have ABNORMAL attractions. By the way don't compare me to fascists!!! I'm just enforcing an oppressive belief commonly spewed by real fascists to target & eradicate marginalized groups whilst feeling good about it!! See guys they're weirdos they're freak weirdos and abnormal it's ok to kill them!

bunnyphile Follow •••

Paraphilic attractions are not the problem with abusive behavior, all attractions are morally neutral and being a pedophile does not mean you are a child abuser; being a zoophile does not mean you are an animal rapist; being a necrophile does not mean you desecrate corpses. People treat the attractions like the issue and not the willingness to abuse, which extends across all attractions ever. Gay people rape each other, and straight people rape each other. It doesn't mean that being gay or straight makes you more likely to sexually abuse others, being willing to rape and abuse makes you more likely to.

I'm just saying there's probably way more societal conditioning that goes into the reason people are so averse to paraphilias today even though new studies are being published exploring the nature of them. People want paraphiles dead even if they are against harming non-consenting beings and never have. Sure, I get that being attracted to children, animals or corpses seems like this big scary evil moral failing on an individuals end but we're not really coded to find any specific thing attractive, the Christofascist view of sex existing solely to reproduce and that you should only be attracted to a human partner of the opposite sex to you isn't the "correct" view of it. Human brains are a lot more complex than that. It's not a "failure" of someone's morality to find something else attractive.

Of course this also extends to other stuff like CNC, BDSM, and even pet play. It all ties into a Christian view of what sex & sexual desire should be and look like, which at one point (& high key still does) included homosexual and transgender people.

(I won't entertain arguments consisting of "Being gay/trans isn't the same as finding kids attractive!!!" Get over your head and find something more meaningful to take away from this post)

I think If antis didn't ostracize paraphiles for simply existing (e.g. DNI pedo, zoo, etc) then I think a lot less paraphiles would need to be so open about them, and there wouldn't need to be communities centered around them in order for us to find any support and kindness. Just saying, since antis tend to hate para communities so much

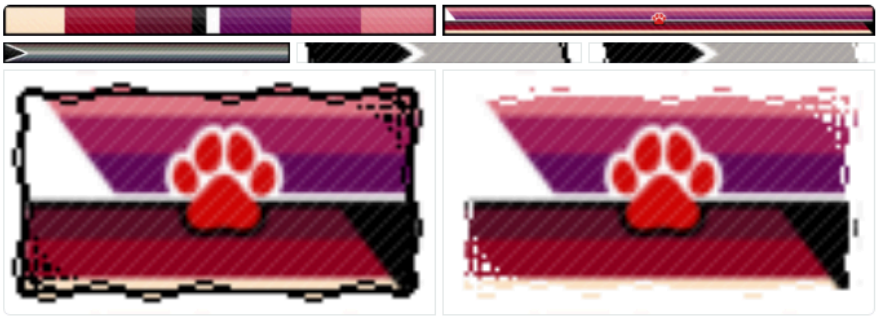

Imagine if we did this with other attractions. Like, imagine if I couldn't interact with someone simply because I'm a lesbian even though it doesn't take up that much of my life anyway. Pedophilia, zoophilia, and necrophilia are such moral atrocities to people but homosexuality used to be a huge moral atrocity and taboo at one point too. Being trans RIGHT NOW is a moral atrocity and a "degenerate act" in our political environment.

Gay people were looked at like rapists and abusers at a point in time too. "Acting on" your "degeneracy" (having sex with another person of your same sex) was considered to be rape and sodomy 🤷‍♀️

Sure, maybe, lolicon is consumed by pedophiles to satiate pedophilic interests... but 1. who cares if they aren't hurting real children and 2. what's wrong with being a pedophile? attractions aren't the problem

Even then, not everyone who likes lolicon IS a pedophile in real life shrug

People misunderstand that artwork, writing, visual media (shows/movies/etc), irl roleplay, and things genuinely happening in real life are all massively distinct scenarios which are going to invoke different reactions in people. Not everyone with an attraction is going to be attracted to every possible scenario involving their attraction, and I'm sure there are pedophiles who don't like or consume lolicon art as well.

I really want to directly ask my harassers what they think chasing me off of the internet would accomplish. Like I get they're doing it for selfish purposes—it makes them feel important—but I just want to know what they'd say if I asked. Because genuinely what DO they think it will accomplish? I'll simply stop existing once I'm beyond the scope of their perception? My life will just end once the internet is "no longer present in my life"? (Which is literally impossible in this day and age, everyone has immediate access to the internet at all times)

But do they not think I have a life outside of the internet? Even if I dropped everything having to do with it, completely, I'd still be living a life. Talking to people and hugging my partner. I'd still make new connections (which would honestly be harder for them to get between and dictate, lol, dunno if they thought that one through)

I'd still be drawing and creating things and sharing my work. I'd still find support and care and love, even though they're trying so hard to ensure that I don't

bunnyphile

I just don't understand this thought process... like, even if I convince someone that I'm not evil for being an anti-contact zoophile, what do they think that's going to do? People will actually sit down and understand and empathize with me for a second, therefore I'm evilly indoctrinating them into being paraphiles as well?

Genuinely it's just so strange. Even my accounts that don't mention paraphilias or NSFW at all are targeted. It really is just a free pass to repeatedly abuse and isolate someone without consequences, because yknow. I'm EVIL

"Zoophiles don't deserve a platform anywhere"

Why?? Why can't I have an account on the internet to share my thoughts, my creations and interact with people? I'm not allowed to talk about hamburgers online because I'm a zoophile? Are people worried I'm going to do ~evil zoophile stuff~ and ~corrupt~ people into my "harmful ideology"?

Below is artwork that most definitely confirms this is Sammy's account.

Decreasing your internet usage will heal your soul

Only having certain social medias on my computer and being on my computer about 60% less since the start of the year has been very good for my stress levels :9 I don't even have certain apps on my phone anymore. Being too caught up and immersed in the internet will strip away your humanity, its good to remember that online isn't real life and everything online is fake anyway.

When I had all of my controversial social medias accounts easily accessible at all times via my phone I wasted so much of my life away trying to fight and argue and defend myself in positions I wasn't going to be listened to anyway. I wasted so much time and energy refreshing profiles, searching terms, and anxiously worrying about every little thing I ever posted. It disturbed my sleep, disturbed moments with my loved ones and just generally disturbed my life. Don't live this way, restrict your internet usage and exist in the real world more than you exist online

Earlier this morning I had a very long conversation with a Reddit user who was worried they may be a zoophile, and while I was willing to give my input and help this person figure out something that might work for them regarding it, some of the language they used was upsetting. I know it's not inherently their fault, society conditions us into hating paraphilias automatically. So I don't blame them for saying things like how they did, but still. Being told directly, as a zoophile that if they were a zoophile they would commit suicide, and getting barraged with questions regarding bestiality even after I've specified several times over that I am against bestiality as if they didn't believe that I truly was and could be swayed into abusing an animal so easily. They asked me that, if I were under the influence of alcohol and alone with an animal if I would have sex with it... and I said obviously not lol. I just literally don't want to have sex with animals in real life, it's not a conscious effort to "stop myself" from having sex with them. I just don't do it. They also asked how I'm sure I have a genuine attraction to the animals themselves and not the taboo concept of being attracted to an animal :/ again, I don't really blame them for asking those questions. Paramisia is taught and pushed so hard as the norm in our society. Ultimately I felt really bad for them, I can't say whether they are actually a zoophile or not but it was clear they felt really lost and shameful about it. Society fails us so much

bunnyphile Follow

Whenever I see paraphiles talking about their attractions and I see antis yelling about how it's so disgusting and how they are a rapist in the making, I always wonder how that would look if we were talking about "normal" attractions. Especially if the paraphile specifically says they are anti-contact and don't have sexual relations with the object of their attraction

bunnyphile Follow

This resonates with me so deeply, because there are so many spaces I've been forcefully shoved into due to antis, removing me from other communities and getting my accounts banned from other platforms is not and never has made them safer, all it does is corner me into spots where I'm forced to rub elbows with real abusers. Even in my absence I was getting callouts and harassment campaigns tossed around, antis will claim they want "recovery" but won't actually allow you to recover, and then get surprised when you end up deeper in than before, and surrounded by worse people.

I don't think my harassers even realize that everything I do is a direct result of their actions. Who knew that harassing someone in their efforts to improve actually made everything worse? There is no winning, and you are the result of your actions and behaviors forever. This is why I still hold them to their past behaviors as well, they did not allow me to move past them, to recover and improve, so I am back here, and I will forever hold the same behaviors over their heads. Until they realize that chaining somebody to the past & removing them from the public leaves them no other choices for improvement. It is not done on your own with no support system. I had my support systems ripped from me, so I found ones I knew wouldn't be.

I had spaces I was willing to exist on solely for art purposes—like furaffinity—and getting that banned made me move to new platforms. They are mad that I made a new twitter, an inkbunny, tumblr accounts. But they will never comprehend that they forced me into this position. I was totally happy just existing online solely to share my art, to associate myself with nothing & be an entity online entirely for my work and nothing else. But getting forcefully removed out of those positions just made me go 🤷‍♀️ I might as well be loud and public in para communities again anyway.

If I'm going to have support taken from me elsewhere, then I will find it in places that it won't be.

There is no “getting offline”, I am as much offline as I am online. Therapy can only do so much, social needs must be met, community and friends are important. If they genuinely wanted a “safer community” like they claimed, they wouldn’t constantly push and perpetuate real abuse.

I guess it makes sense though since they are also necrophiles and zoophiles who get off on real murder & abuse content and right-wing transphobic racist Nazi-bootlickers. Say what you will about me, I’ve never sent real pictures of my pets and exclaimed that I’d let them double team me, but I digress :X I’ll stop talking about it when I stop being held to the past I’ve tried to move on from, but, with all of my options removed, left me no other option to meet social needs and support systems.

Do they really think I’m going to see harassment campaigns stalking me in my efforts to get better with all of my social medias taken offline and just go “ah, yes, this is fine, I will put up with this all throughout my recovery” ? Do they expect me to fight for my right to exist in places that right will be denied over and over again? It will be safer when they allow it to be. I’ll leave when I have the opportunity to GENUINELY improve with both proper professional support in real life AND proper connections and support online.

FERAL4FERAL/FERALSOREN/PSEUDONYMTH

Soren is an artist who got caught hanging around a bunch of abuse sympathizing zoophiles and necrophiles. To this day, it harbors a space that allows abusers like Calvin thrive. Soren got caught following ZooierThanThou, an explicitly pro bestality zoophile podcast, as well as one of its owners (Toggle). Many people went out of their way to defend Soren for following and boosting zeta centered content. Soren is found deeply embedded into many zeta places, and commonly commissioned by them. Soren is also banned on E621. In response to the ban, Soren decided to put its art (willingly) on the “avoid posting” list, effectively banning the posting of any of Soren’s future art onto the site.

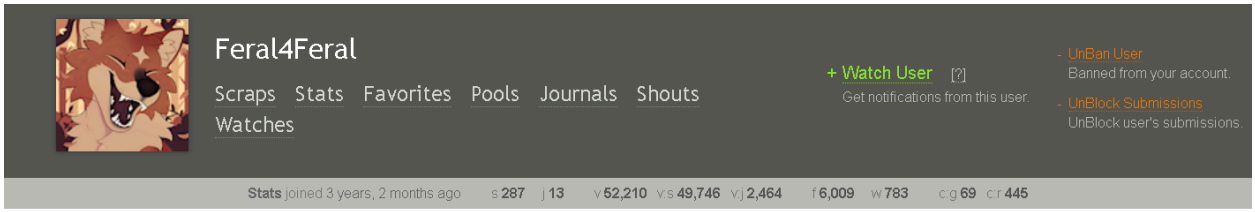

As of 2026, E621 has fully banned some of the types of art that Soren would go onto post, this was due to the sheer amount of abusers all of this art had kept attracting on the site, far more than usual on other art. This is because the Propara community is inherently toxic, and is practically catered to bad eggs.

A great majority of these artists under these tags unfortunately did not have good intentions, especially the ones who decided to use “childlover” symbols. Some artists, such as JACKRABBLT, saw the harm the community produced to themselves & others, and purged his art, as it was only intended as fiction.

Everyone sane thinks the ban is good, anyone arguing to the contrary in 2026 & beyond is ignoring real life harm.

Decided to make an account where I can be more involved in activism and positivity surrounding zoos and other stigmatized attractions (+other topics important to me). ^_^ Kindness and open-mindedness is key (but I block bigots, nazis, terfs, etc).

you are two-faced. You cant play every side and try to appeal to everyone bc it will bite you in the ass. Theres no nuance to rape.
I'd bet $100 that you're one of those "pro-c means abusive!" kind of people, who go out of their way to harass others who don't acquiesce to your demands or to how you police the identity of others. If heavily suggest you mind your business and quit acting as if you're addressing and preventing abuse, when in reality you're just riding on a high horse and using contact labels as a tool to discriminate towards marginalized groups of people

I'm not trying to justify sexual relationships with children, that's not what i take issue with here, but the idea that "in the case of zoosexuality action is not abuse" is inherently dangerous. All attractions are capable of being acted on in such a way to cause harm. Everybody

Why is zoophilia not awesome? Is it because it's actually not illegal?

One of the mutuals Soren had back in 2023, this one in particular was pro bestality outright. They ended up harassing JACKRABBLT really badly to the point of editing his artwork, which was then resulted in a DMCA takedown request to be successfully filled on the original account. Other people in the doc have also interacted with this person, despite knowing everything they advocate for.

Soren's Zoo Art and Calvin Cameo

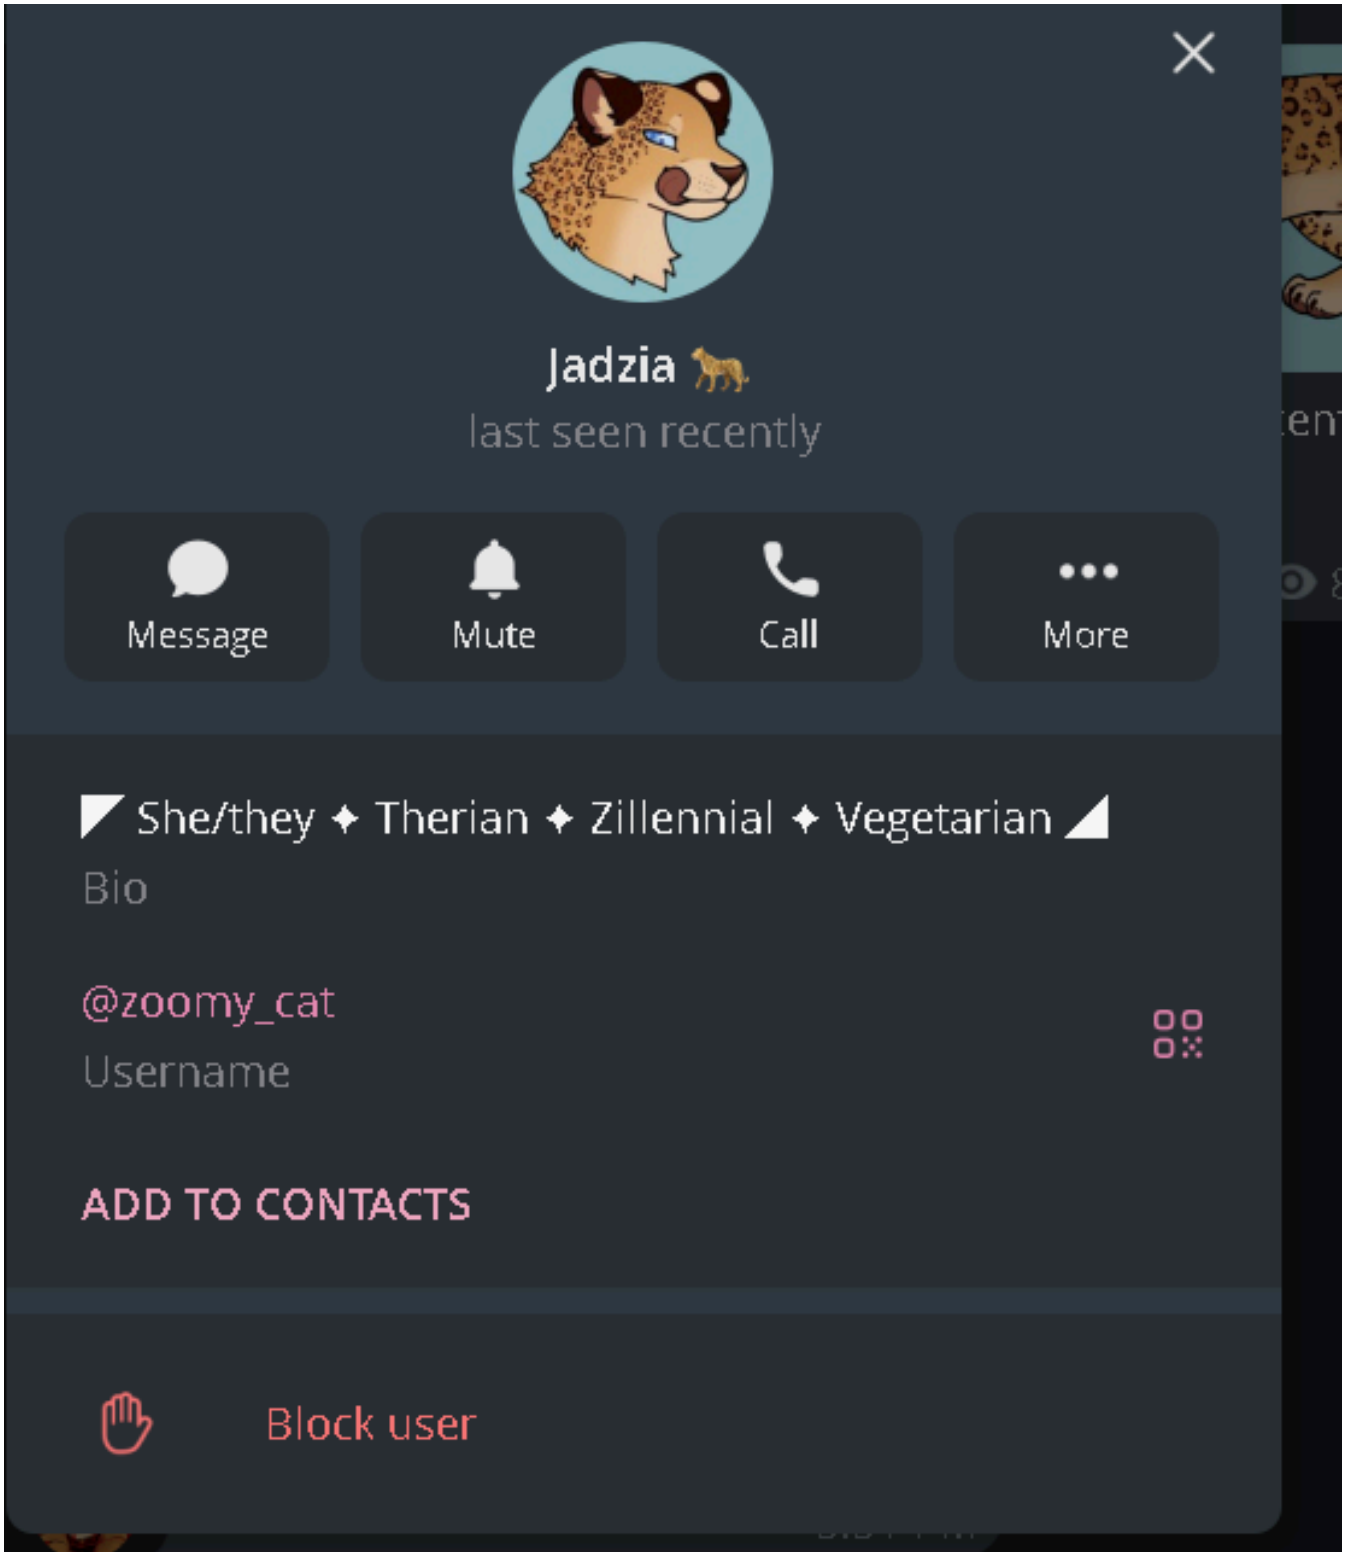

By zoo art, we do not simply mean "feral" artwork. Specifically, Soren has drawn a lot of art directly for zoos. Not only that, but they're most definitely marketed towards zetas. Calvin is also still active in these chats, so Soren most definitely harbors abusers without a doubt! Kestrel also got art fairly recently done by Soren too.

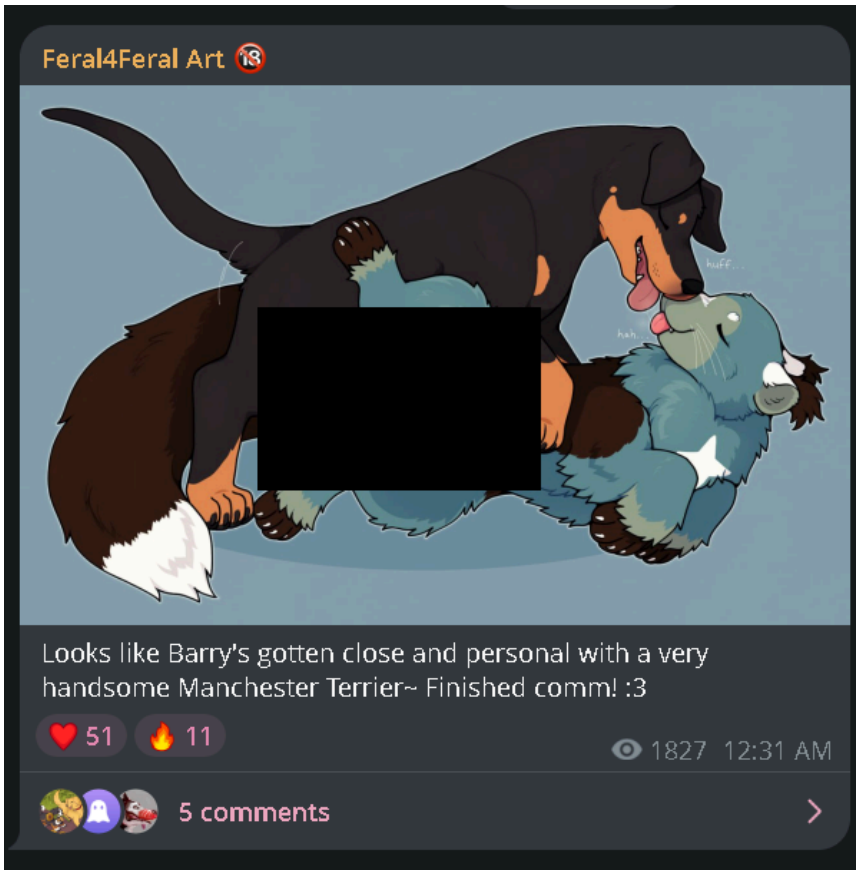

Calvin is also still using artwork Kestrel made, if Kestrel truly had a problem with this he would have complained by now. The E621 takedown requests are clearly just for show.

Soren Defenders

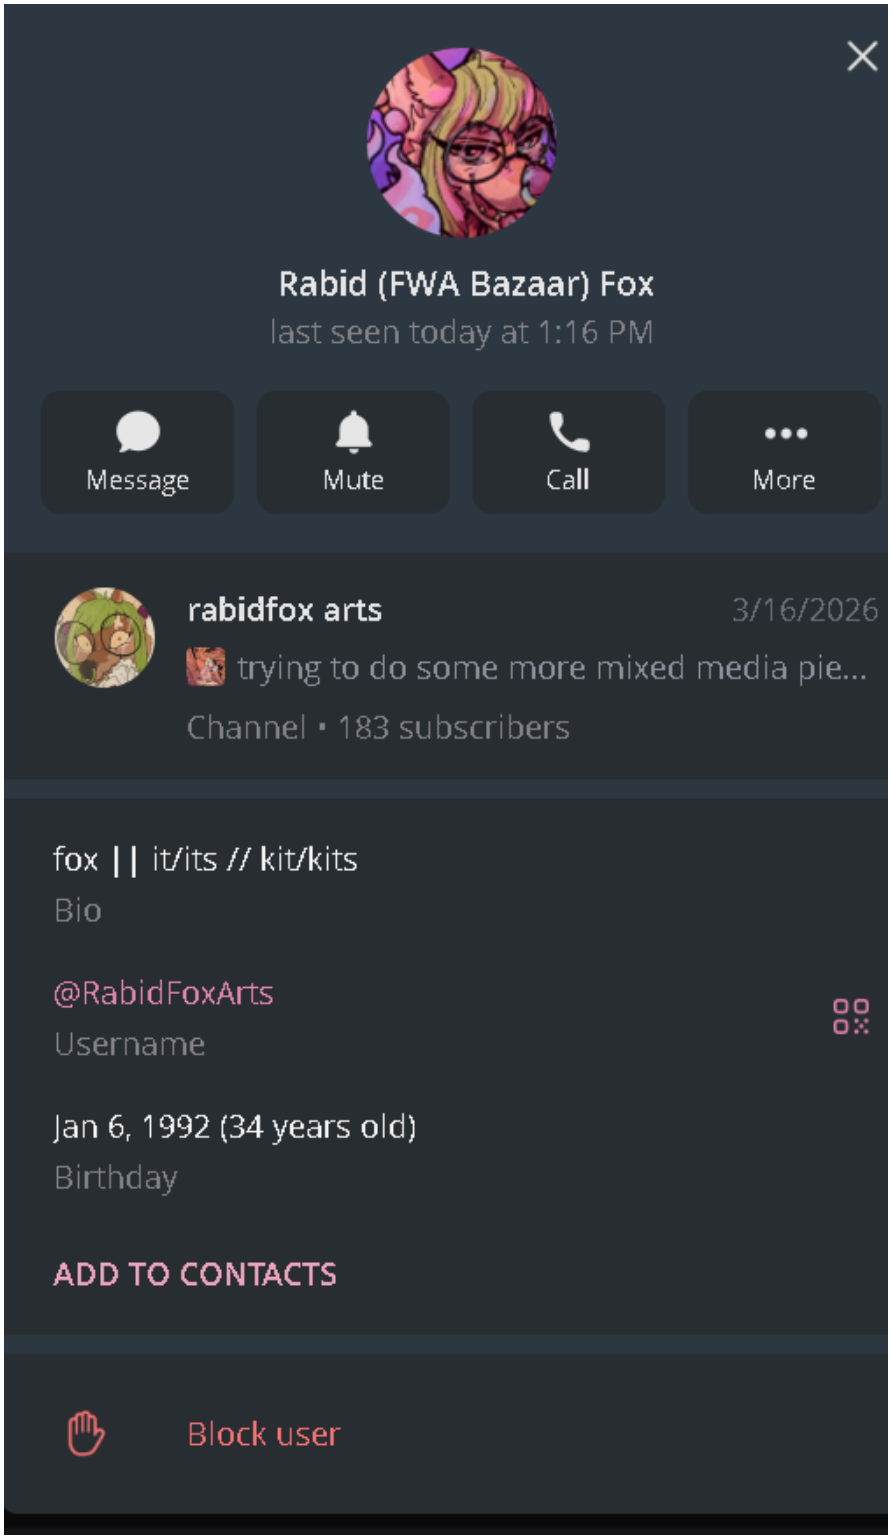

There are many Soren defenders as Soren is very popular for their art and a lot of Propara artists value art over morals. Soren also has a lot of connections with a bunch of other very popular artists inside the Propara community. Here are some of them.

“Reported” Private Account

Salami blamed JACKRABBLT for “reporting” a private account he had no way to access.

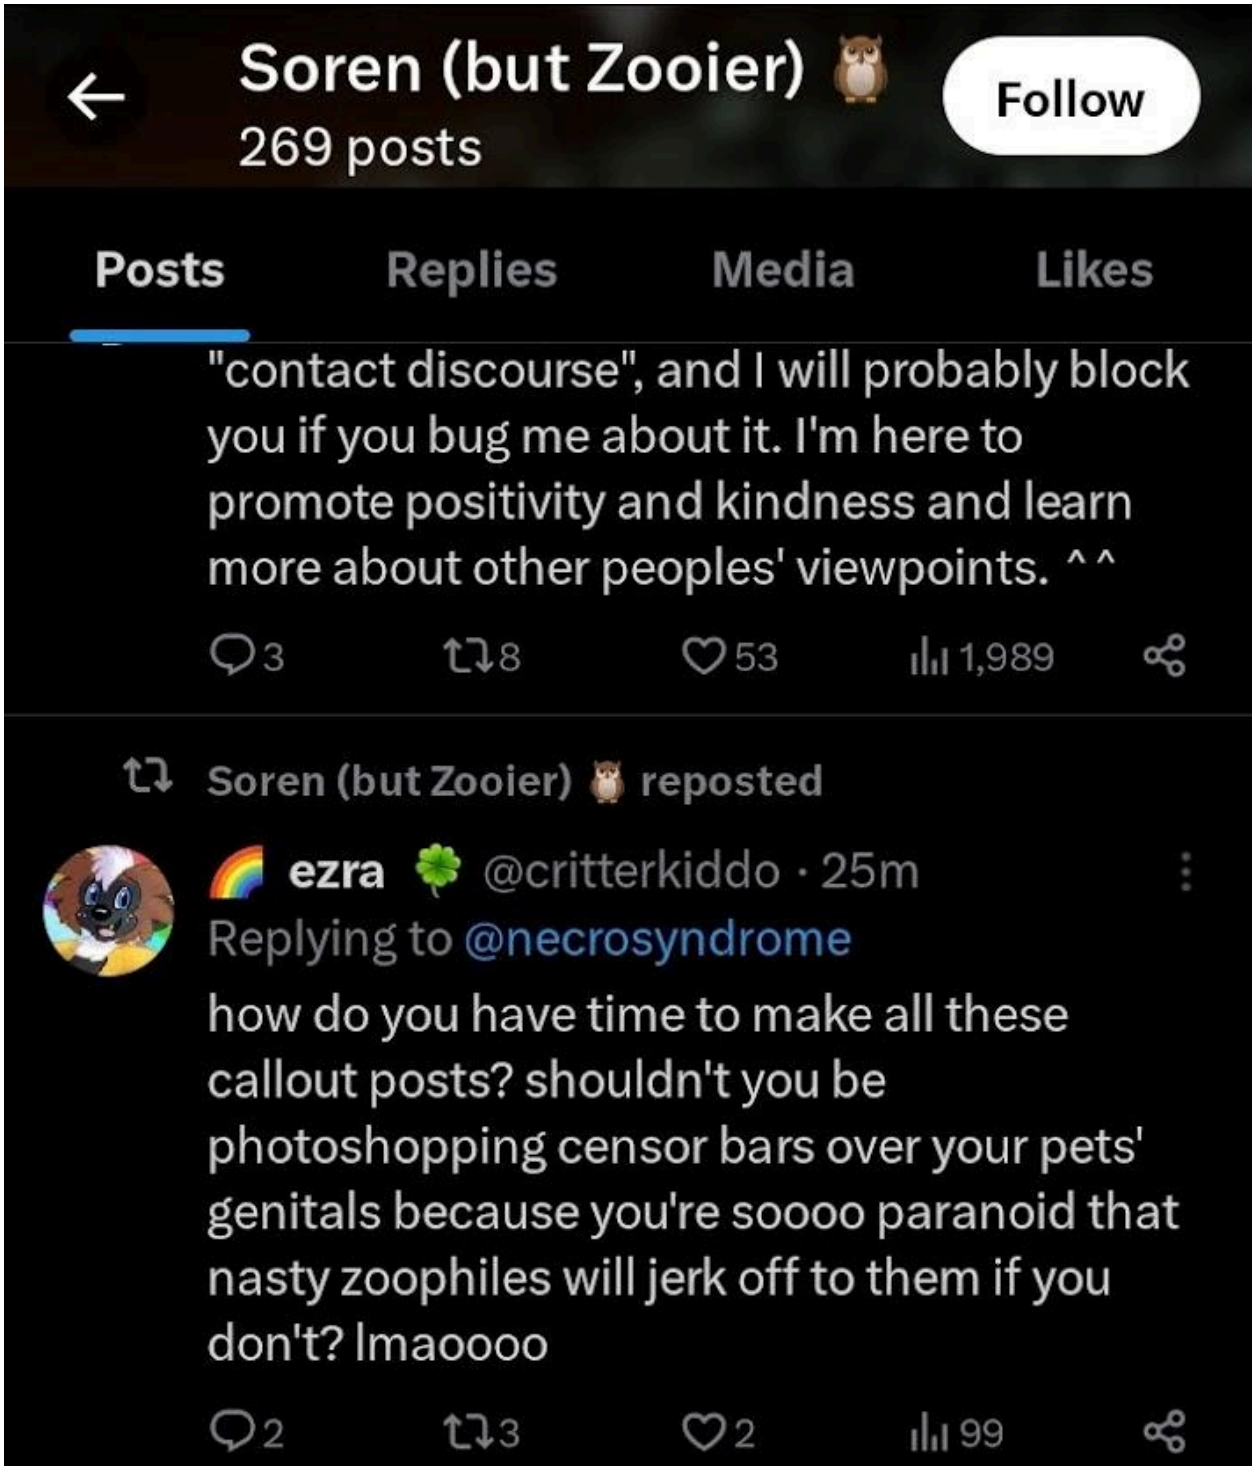

Ezra Defends Soren

Ezra(Critterkiddo) steps in to defend Soren, this is while judging JACKRABBLT for censoring his cat's genitalias in photos. This is a really weird thing to judge someone for, and completely normal. At least JACKRABBLT's legacy isn't making mastodons where children get abused.

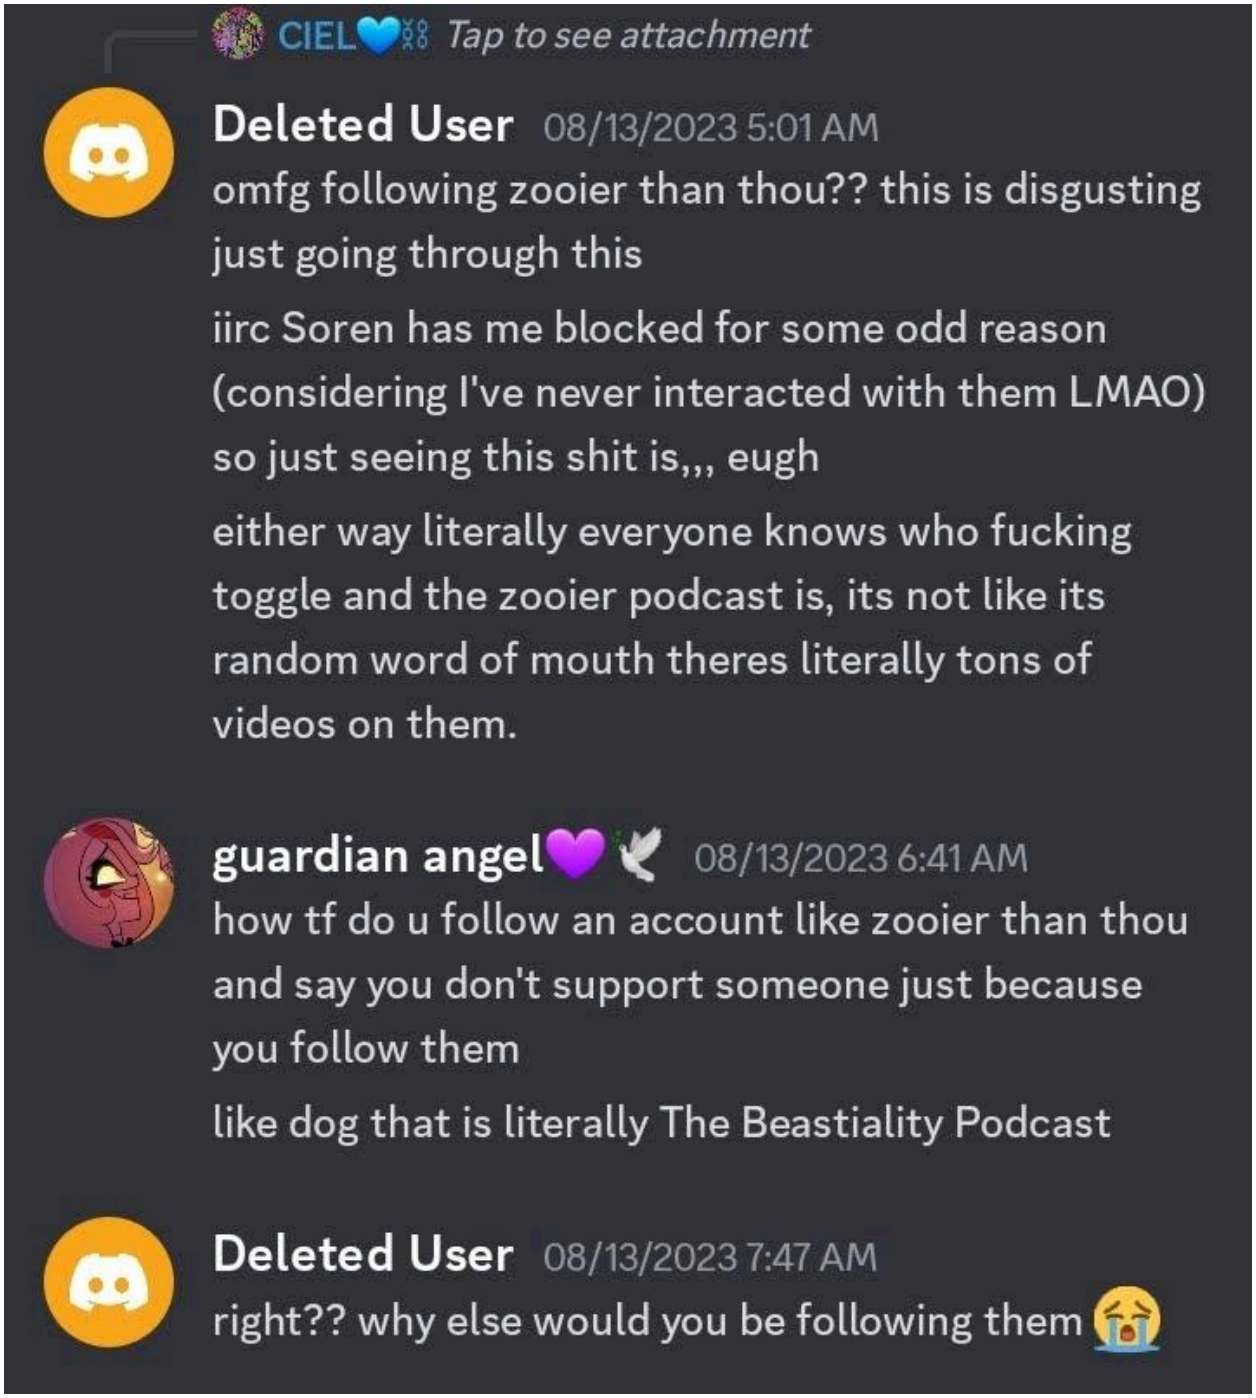

Clearly, Soren endorses this message. Lovely, isn't it?

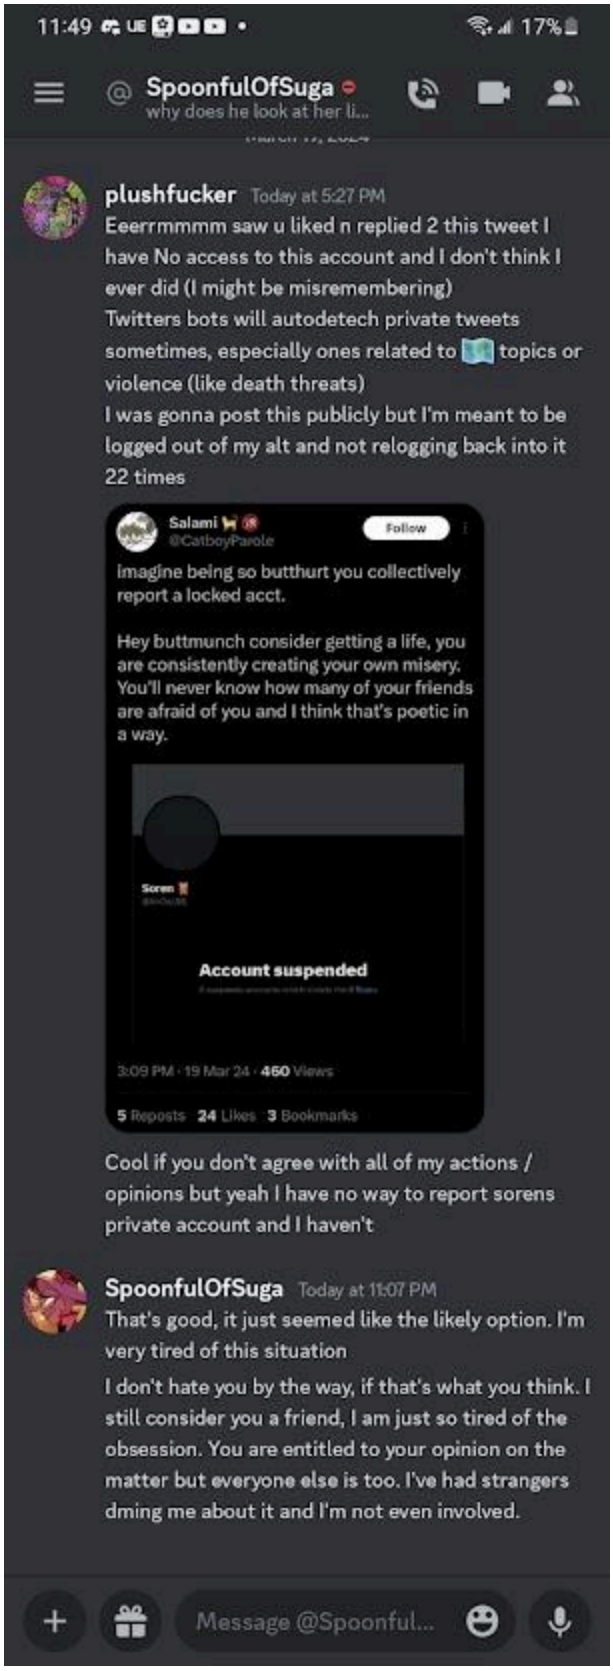

Opinion Flipflopping

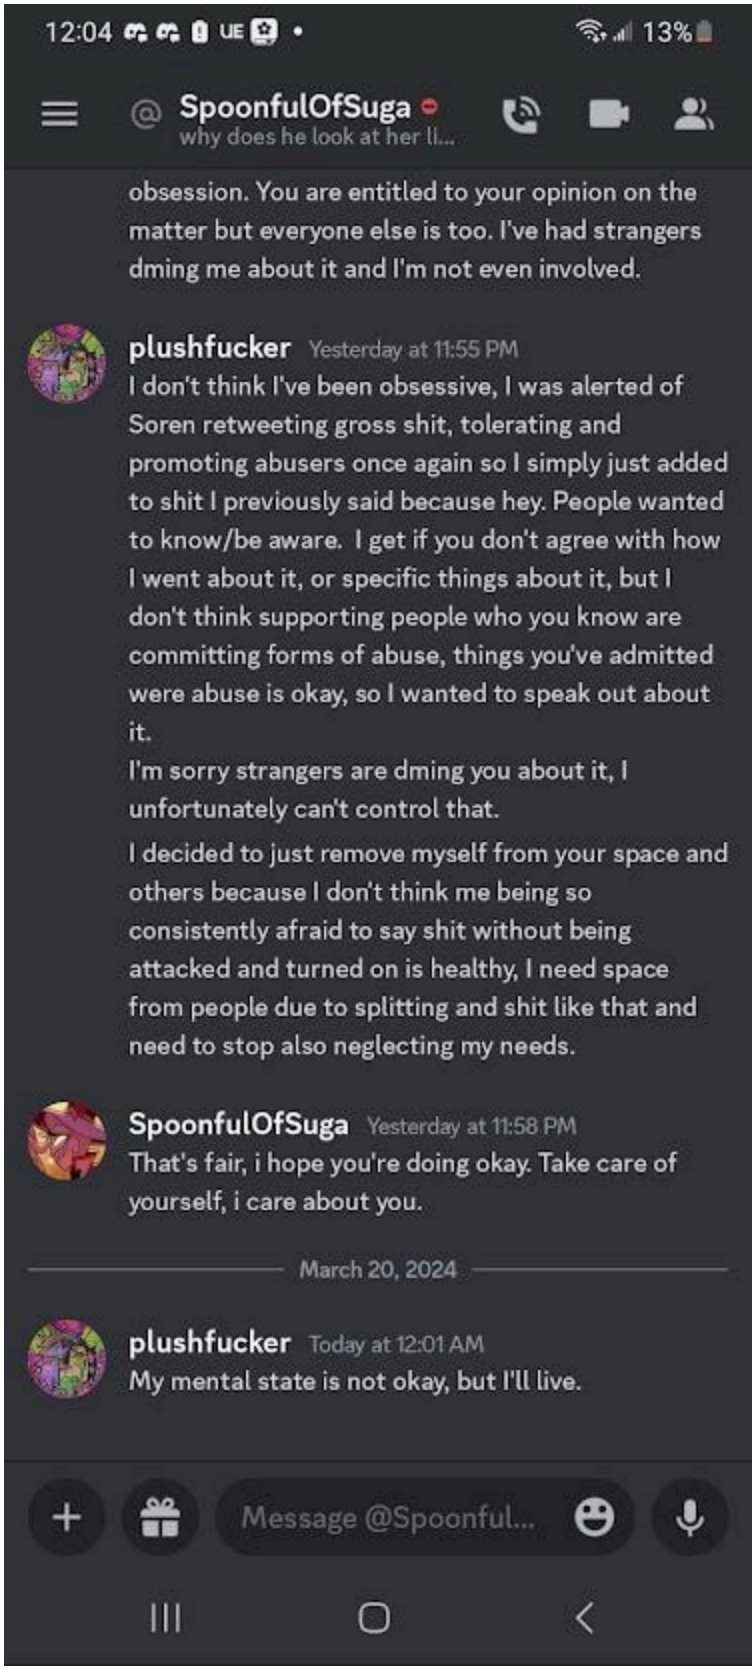

Loki and Chimeracocks also used to hold the belief (or at least pretended to) that what Soren did was bad. Here are screenshots where they are acting like it's bad, despite later on knowingly refriending Soren. They knew exactly how bad this was to follow someone like this.

plushfucker Yesterday at 11:55 PM
I don't think I've been obsessive, I was alerted of Soren retweeting gross shit, tolerating and promoting abusers once again so I simply just added to shit I previously said because hey. People wanted to know/be aware. I get if you don't agree with how I went about it, or specific things about it, but I don't think supporting people who you know are committing forms of abuse, things you've admitted were abuse is okay, so I wanted to speak out about it.
I'm sorry strangers are dming you about it, I unfortunately can't control that.
I decided to just remove myself from your space and others because I don't think me being so consistently afraid to say shit without being attacked and turned on is healthy, I need space from people due to splitting and shit like that and need to stop also neglecting my needs.

KESTREL/WASTEPAW

Kestrel WAS an associate of JACKRABBLT, and had been in Chetmix divulging information about some of the zoophiles mentioned in this document back to the server. We theorize he might have done this for the attention of the group, despite these leaked screenshots eventually having such bad contents Kestrel would have to spoil images before sending them. He might have also sent them on purpose, potentially getting some pleasure out of seeing the entire chat's hurt reaction.

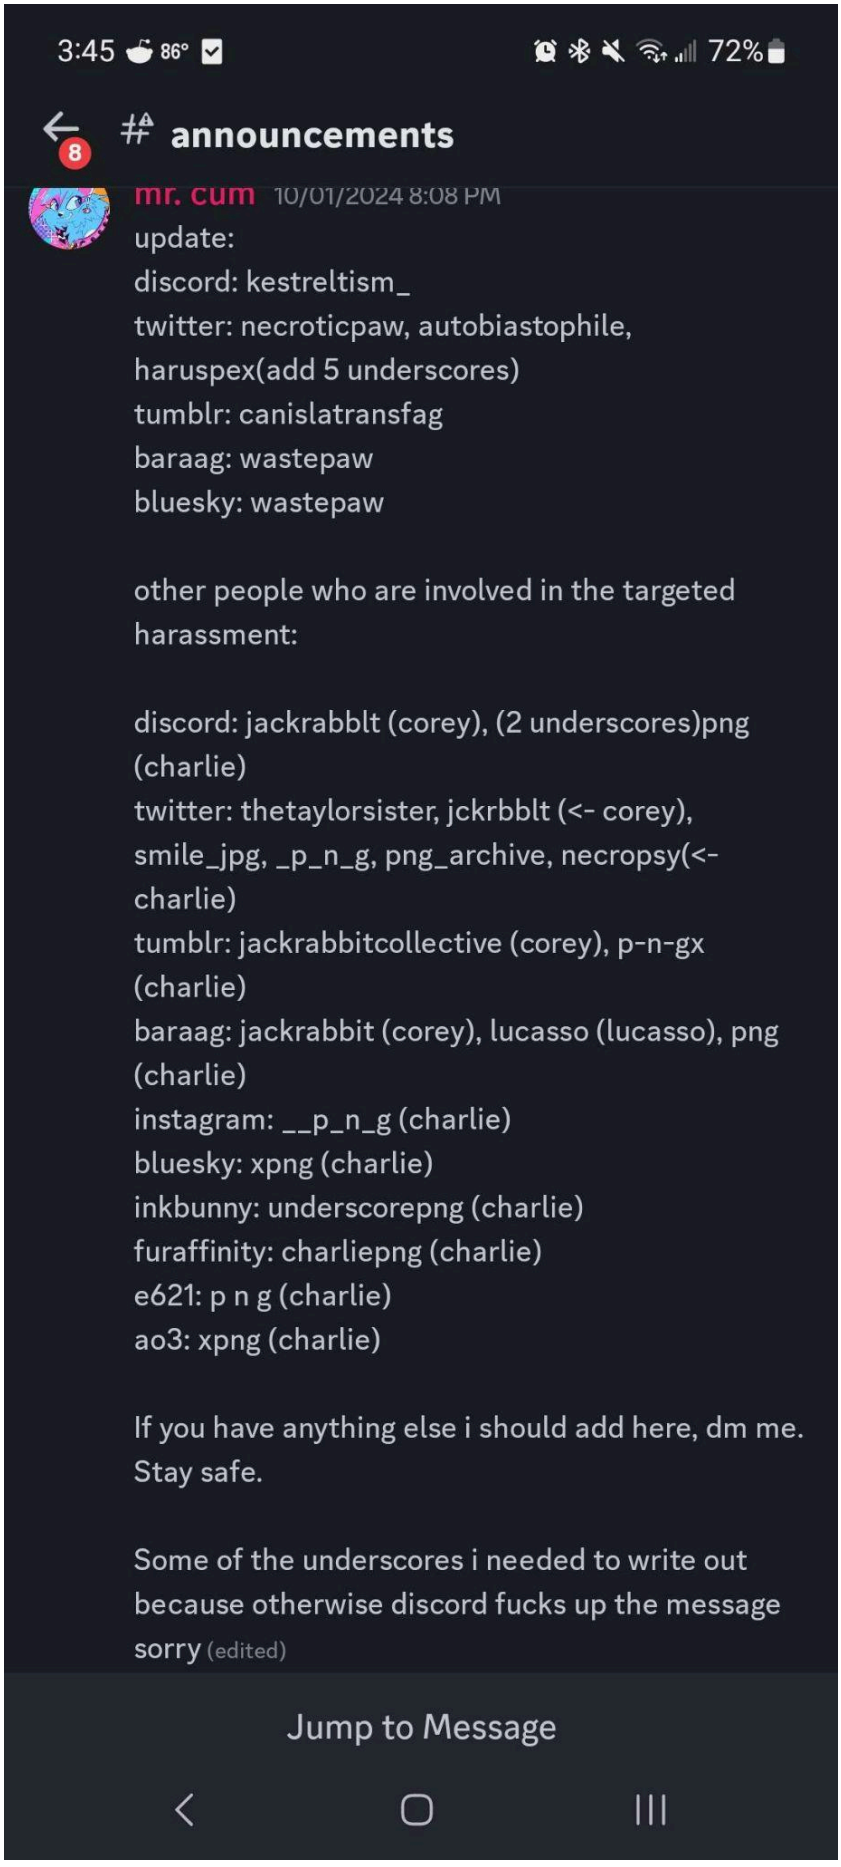

Leak and Betray

To add onto this, he eventually, in March of 2025, betrayed Chetmix by leaking chat messages to the same necro zoophiles he had been leaking information about. The actual messages leaked by Kestrel of Chetmix during this were absolute nothingburgers. However, he did tell certain traumatic details about Jack's relationship, which did lead to harassment (harassment he is likely a part of as well).

March 13th, 2025

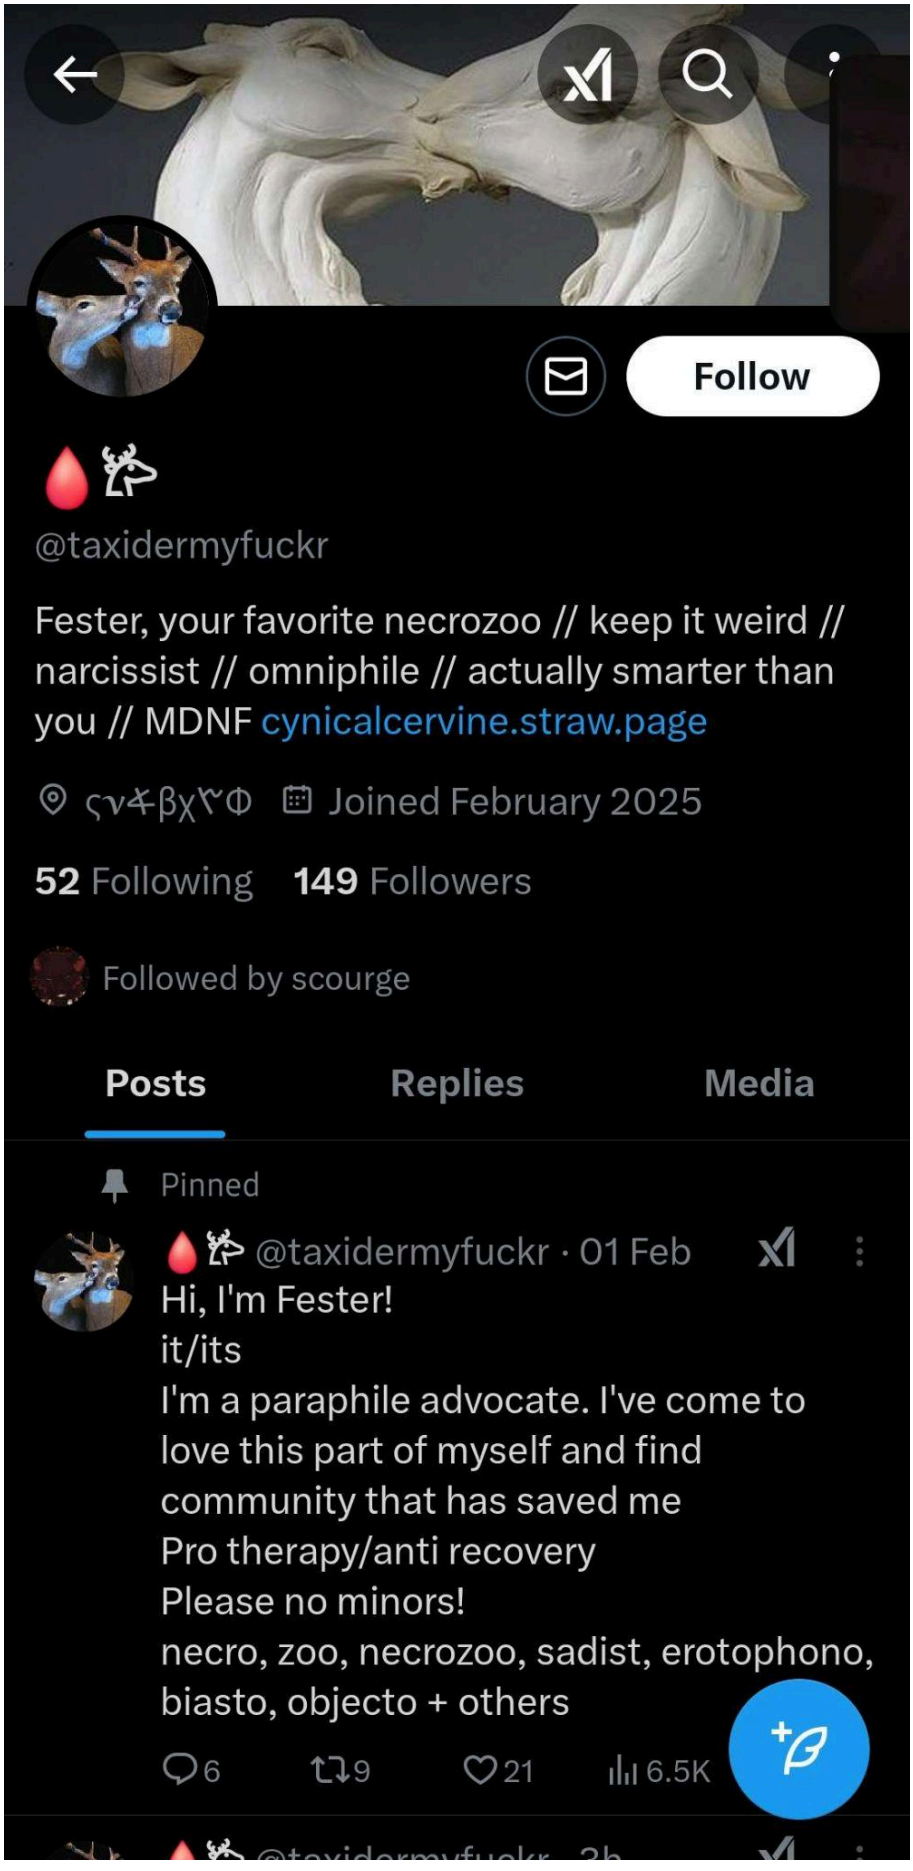

On March 13th, 2025, it was found Kestrel was friends with Sammy despite knowing and divulging so much information about Sammy(as well as other members of the doc). We all were fully aware by this point, that Sammy was a serial harasser and endorsed IRL necrozoophilia acts. However, Kestrel was likely only divulging information for attention, as this was a total backtrack of his morals.
A group chat under the direction of PNG and JACKRABBLT was made to discuss the situation, and then it was moved back into Chetmix's ranting channel where things only continued to heat up from there. Stress was very high amongst everyone.

Then it forwarded a bunch of messages Kestrel was sent via members on dms into the server. This is despite Kestrel saying the chat gave him no chance to communicate when they all immediately communicated about this particular issue. It was concerning as it meant he lied to the entire group about what he truly thought for attention and pity.

> ocd based compulsive behaviors. its just not worth it and at the end of the day, i just don't feel right hurting people, even when the narrative is pushed that they deserve it.
> so i reached out to people and apologized for my own actions and contributions to the harassment, including samantha. and i honestly don't think anything it's done warrants this amount of harassment. it literally just wants to be left alone and went through the effort to block all of us and yet you guys still decided to harass it and keep tabs on it and colorpick its designs out of pettiness... at what point does this get tiring? i know its bad for your mental health too, its not fair to you and its not fair to anyone else. i really think you would feel so much better stepping away from this online drama and focusing on yourself first, charlie. it's the main reason why i left chetmix, it was just so full of drama and conversations about drama and that's fine i guess because it's you guys' server at the end of the day, but i just can't

> i know its not good for you or jack either, especially with all the other shit you both have to deal with constantly. why put yourselves through so much unnecessary stress and unhealthy obsessive behaviors? i do think a lot of these issues could have been talked about in private and resolved (or not resolved) rather than making everything a public issue

i was always worried about him when hed have his mental health struggles and i always tried to be there for him and even when his partner was attacking me i kept peace for him bc i loved him and didnt want him hurt

i dont understand

i literally just feel like ive been slapped in the face out of nowhere without a word

charlie. Today at 3:10 PM

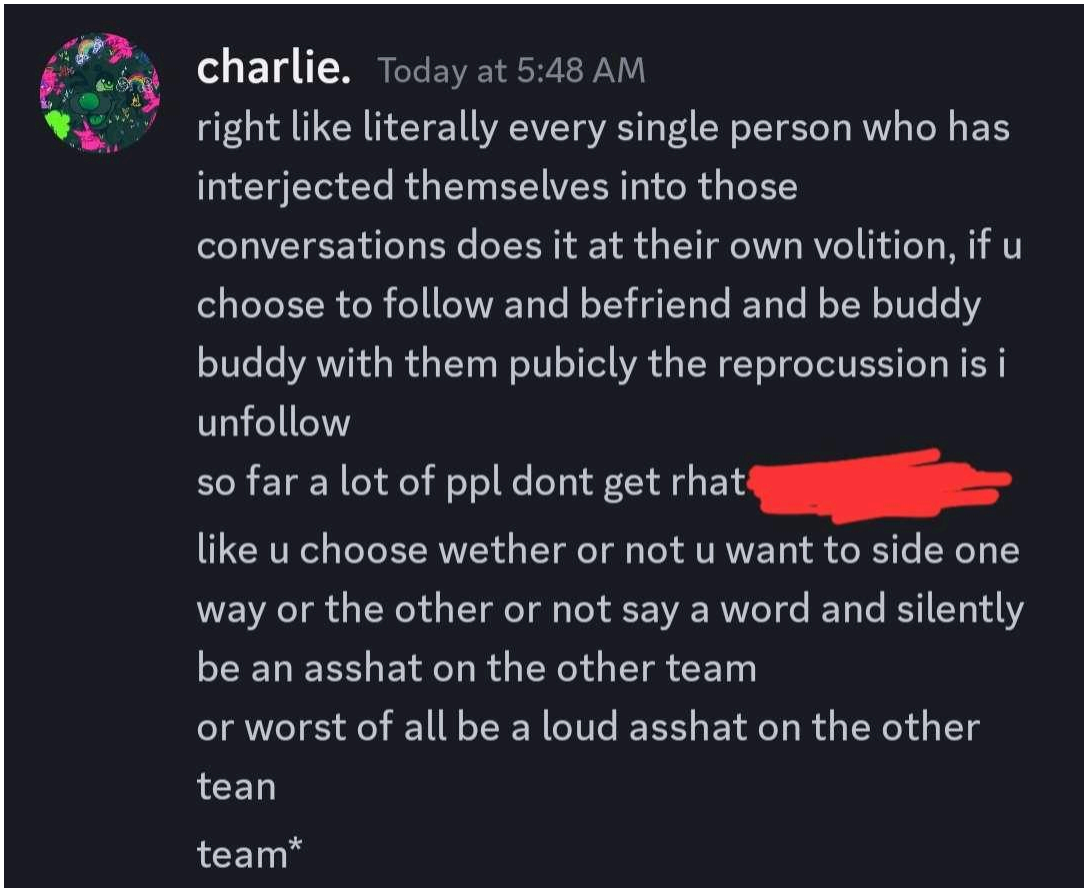

i also dont know what he could say that would make me believe or trust him again after all of this like i want to benefit of tbe doubt this but theres much that idk how am i supposed to trust him again

i dont think i realistically can bc idk what conversation we could have where i leave it feeling like i trust him wholeheartedly still i keep playing over all the options and it all ends up with kes and i mutually blocked

Redd was actually secretly friends with Kestrel for at least some amount of time. One of the screenshots Kestrel sent of Redd making out were likely made to only look like harassment to get past Kestrel's friends at the time.

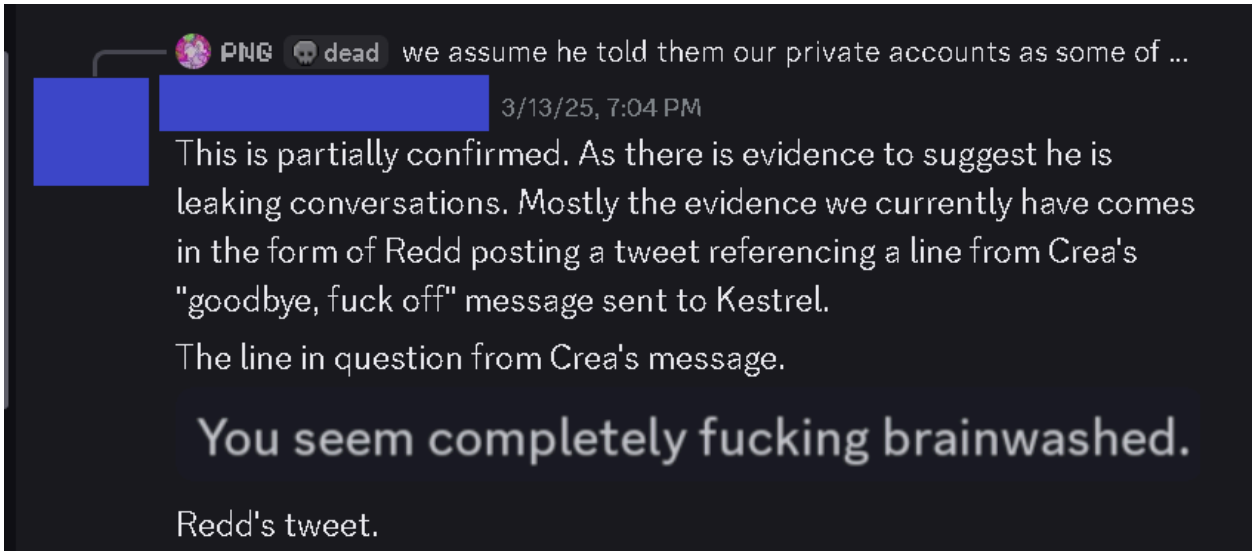

Not only that, but his associations have been just hidden right under Chetmix members noses. In an older screenshot about a dm from Emokittyscourge, there's a notification that pops up.

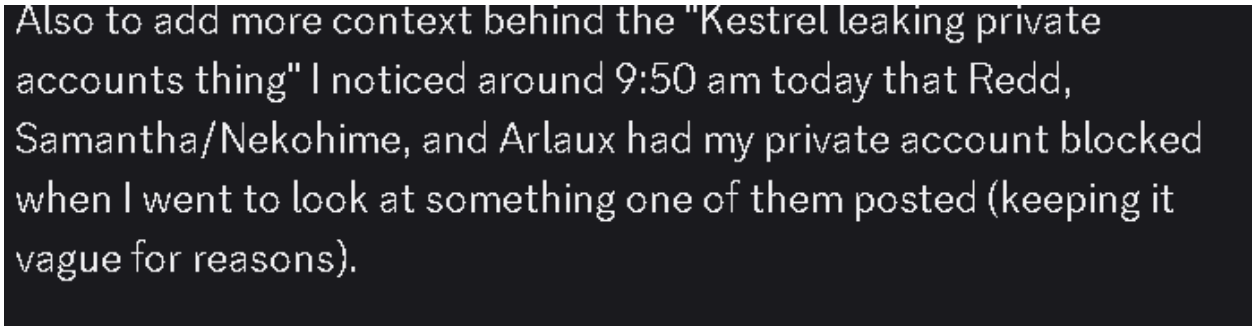

This username is incredibly similar to Salami's username(catboyparole/catboyjail), and was possibly an old instagram username. This was never found out during the chat, however, and missed the attention of whoever saw those screenshots Kestrel posted, otherwise he might have been removed from Chetmix much earlier than this.
Chat finds evidence Kestrel is now also following one of the people who sent PNG a rape threat (self admitted).

Further investigation discovers people like Redd repeating things server members said, which proves the chat was leaked by Kestrel to them.

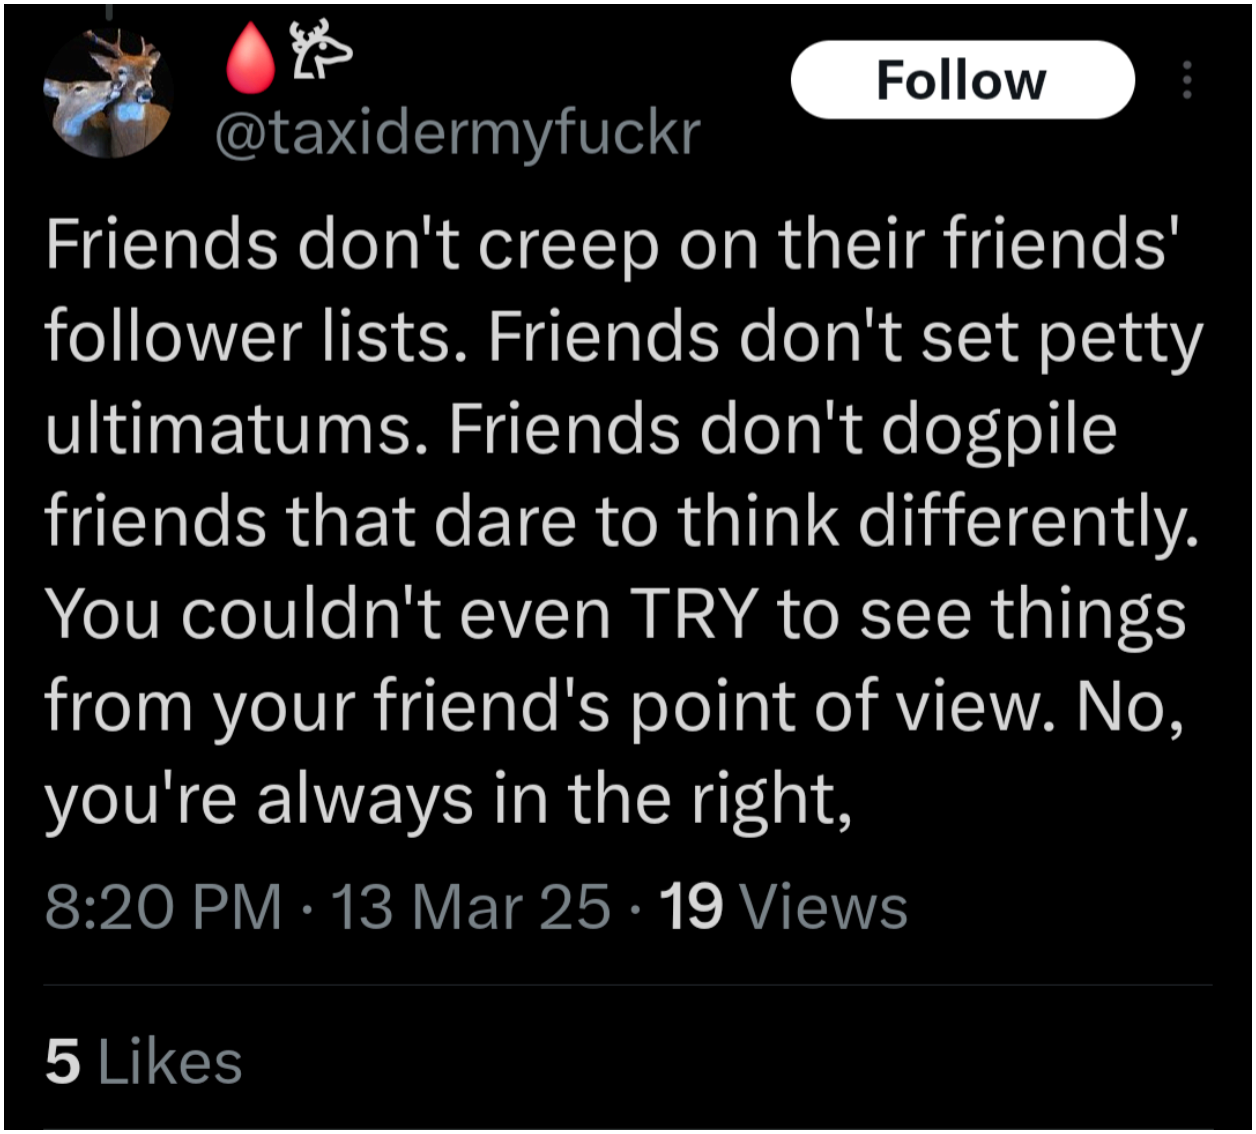

Kestrel begins to post about what's happening on twitter and his friends begin to flock to defend him.

Kestrel's Sexual Harassment

Kestrel comments a sexual harassment comment under a post, even if he wasn't actually replying to the minor in the screenshot or knew the minor owned this oc, this is STILL sexual harassment. Kestrel explicitly knew even this person does not like feral porn.

Kestrel sent Blowfly Girl to a minor as well, self admitted on discord.

AAM HARASSMENT OC

Kestrel's spite for people goes very deep including into stalking via art. He copied another user's fursona with a very close 1:1 rip. Not only that, but he made the OC use the term "AAM", which specifically comes from communities that regularly abuse children. AAM means Adult Attracted Minor, it is a dangerous term to encourage people to even use since it is used entirely by groomed abuse victims within the Propara community.
The fact he even is deciding to use it here really shows he doesn't care about minor safety; or what his audience is doing. Nevermind the fact he decided to do it with a design very similar to someone who hates him, this is clearly also a form of sexual harassment.
The original design:

As of 4/10/26, after likely realizing he was getting reported for his behavior, he recolored the design to a more muted variant of the necrophilia flag. He also removed the elements of paraphilia iconography, likely realizing inkbunny may not allow that type of content, similar to E621's recent rule change.

He even admits it was based off of something here;

Discord Screenshots continue to incriminate, here he is blatantly talking about the design he stole. Many people in the doc feature in this server, it's Redd's server.

Kestrel NIИ 4/10/26, 11:55 AM maybe it'll be different enough to not get taken off e6 now lol idk if i like the face markings that much

CEO of Halloween 4/10/26, 11:57 AM
Maybe make them like German shepherd markings

Kestrel NIИ 4/10/26, 11:59 AM i was going to do a darker face marking hmm i'll try..

Erinthebat 4/10/26, 12:00 PM
whats wrong with the face markîg

Kestrel NIИ 4/10/26, 12:00 PM nothing im just testing things out but also trying to keep it distinct from his err even though it kinda already was.
it still got taken down because he requested removal on my e6 post

he's actually chill now surprisingly lol

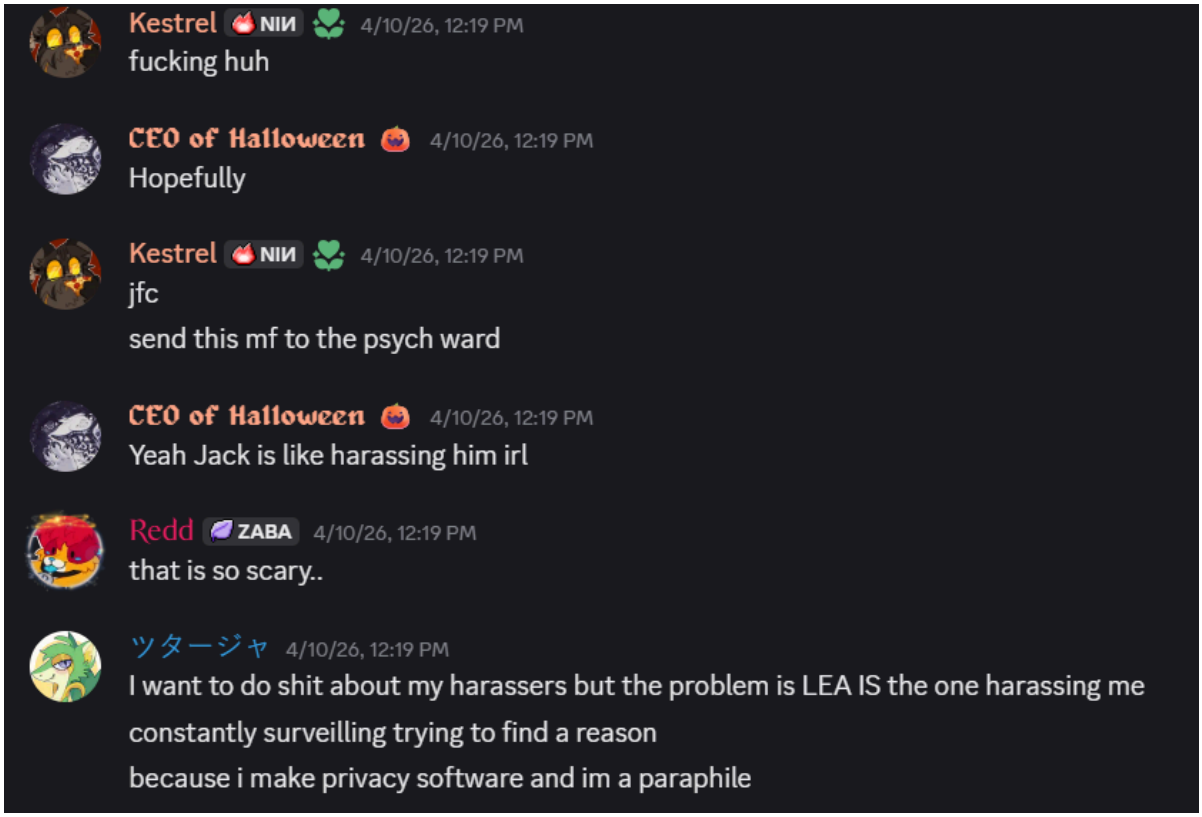

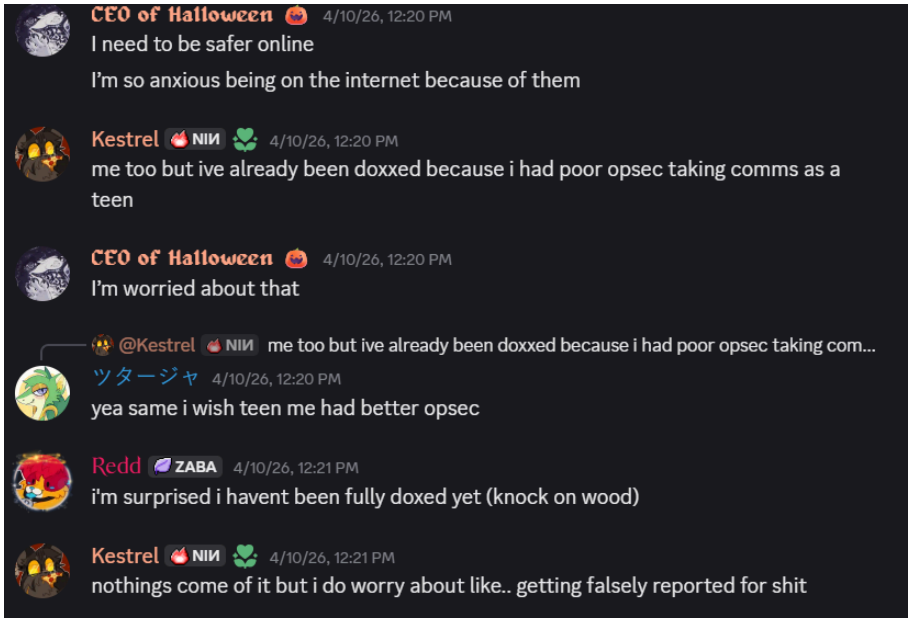

This is false and unproven. What likely happened is the Soyjak Party Thread PNG thinks is funny probably caused those packages to be sent. None of that is JACKRABBLT's fault. Any legal case will fall on its face to randomly accuse JACKRABBLT of doing it without actual proof.

Charlie's actual reaction to being sent stuff in the mail by random people:

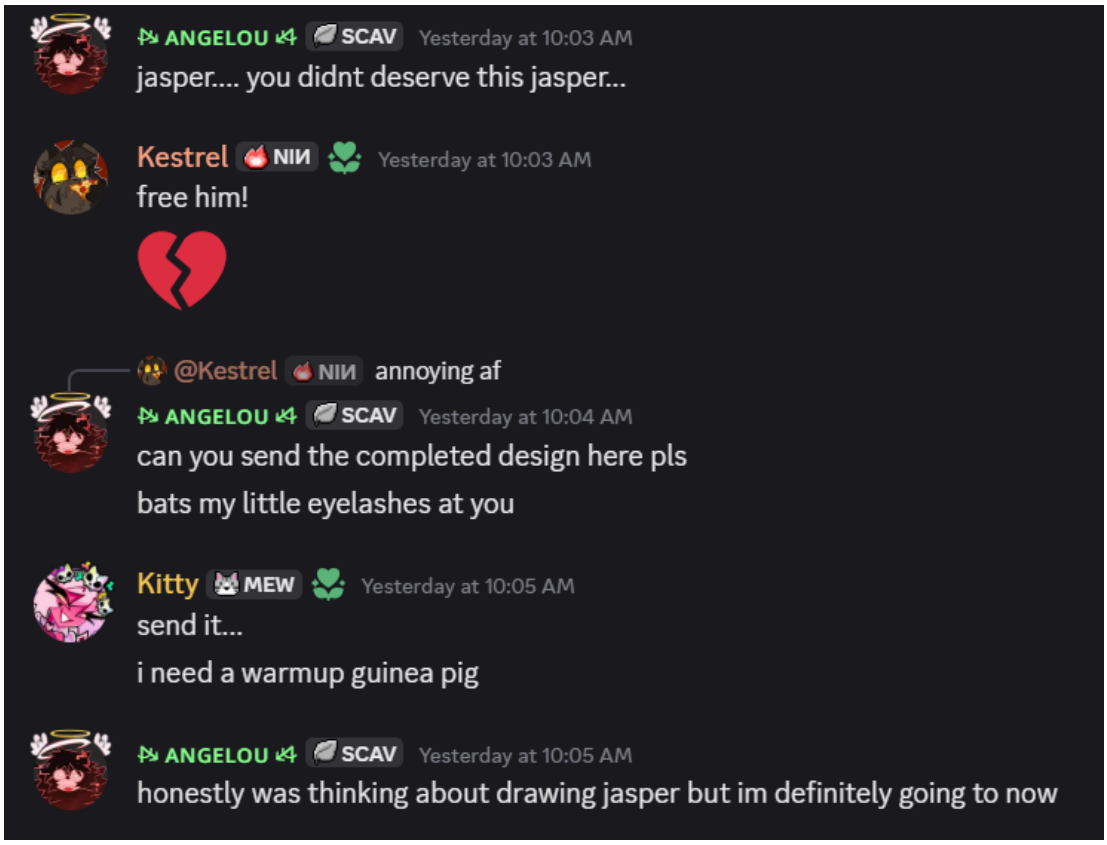

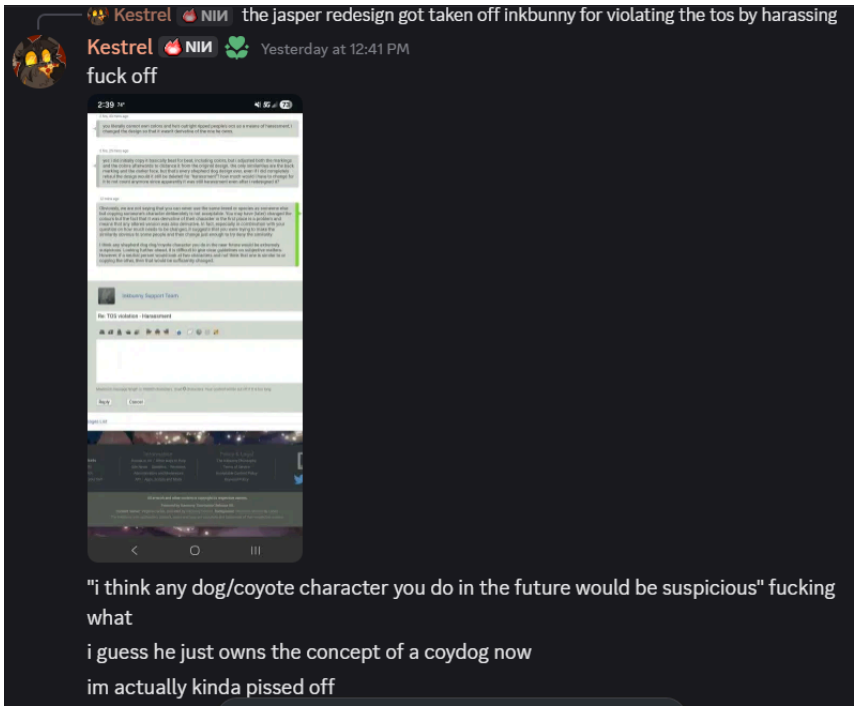

As you see, for some reason Vedacia thinks the AAM OC Kestrel drew was okay, but felt the need to add onto Jaiden's complaining about JACKRABBLT's art. Making an AAM OC and encouraging the usage of the term "adult attracted minor" is worse than anything Jack has done himself. None of these people have true opinions or true morals, they all seem to flip on a whim whenever it's convenient.

2 hrs, 43 mins ago

you literally cannot own colors and he's outright ripped people's ocs as a means of harassment, i changed the design so that it wasn't derivative of the one he owns.

2 hrs, 25 mins ago

yes i did initially copy it basically beat for beat, including colors, but i adjusted both the markings and the colors afterwards to distance it from the original design. the only similarities are the back marking and the darker face, but that's every shepherd dog design ever. even if i did completely rehaul the design would it still be deleted for "harassment"? how much would i have to change for it to not count anymore since apparently it was still harassment even after i redesigned it?

12 mins ago

Obviously, we are not saying that you can never use the same breed or species as someone else but copying someone's character deliberately is not acceptable. You may have (later) changed the colours but the fact that it was derivative of their character in the first place is a problem and means that any altered version was also derivative. In fact, especially in combination with your question on how much needs to be changed, it suggests that you were trying to make the similarity obvious to some people and then change just enough to try deny the similarity.

I think any shepherd dog dog/coyote character you do in the near future would be extremely suspicious. Looking further ahead, it is difficult to give clear guidelines on subjective matters. However, if a neutral person would look at two characters and not think that one is similar to or copying the other, then that would be sufficiently changed.

The reports inkbunny was sent regarding this OC:

Hello, I'm reporting this picture:
https://inkbunny.net/s/3847208
this character is copied from someone else quite blatantly (https://file.garden/acGhF5N_MnXO-a6l/charliecopy3%20bre...)
even if it wasn't technically a copy by moderation standards, AAM is a term used in actual abuse circles. it means adult attracted minor, and groomed minors are the ones who use it, so Kestrel is directly marketing towards abusers. Even with the disclaimer it seems like it would violate terms seeing as AAM is a term used in abuse circles.

using "AAM" also definitely counts as pedophilia/map iconography & would go againist the inkbunny philosophy likely that term in particular is used to almost exclusively groom children within the propara community

Thank you for the report.

The ban on paedophilia advocacy generally covers MAP pride symbols and statements of support or self-identification. I do not quite see how the mere use of the term AAM would be considered as real-life promotion or advocacy.

However, I do agree that the two images are remarkably similar. I could believe that the images copied from one another but there are two aspects that need a little clarity.

The first is that you say this image was created for sexual harassment but do not provide a motive or reason that user would want to sexual harass the other person.

Second, the only prior example of the Charlie ref sheet that I could find (https://x.com/ballpitpup/status/2041964457153458627) has a "9:40 PM · Apr 8, 2026" time stamp while the Jasper ref sheet was uploaded to IB on "08 Apr 2026 07:33 CEST." That says that the Jasper image was posted several hours before the Charlie image. Searching for images is difficult and not possible on many sites or applications, so do you know of any earlier posting of the Charlie ref sheet because otherwise it's difficult to explain the Jasper ref sheet as being a copy if it was posted first.

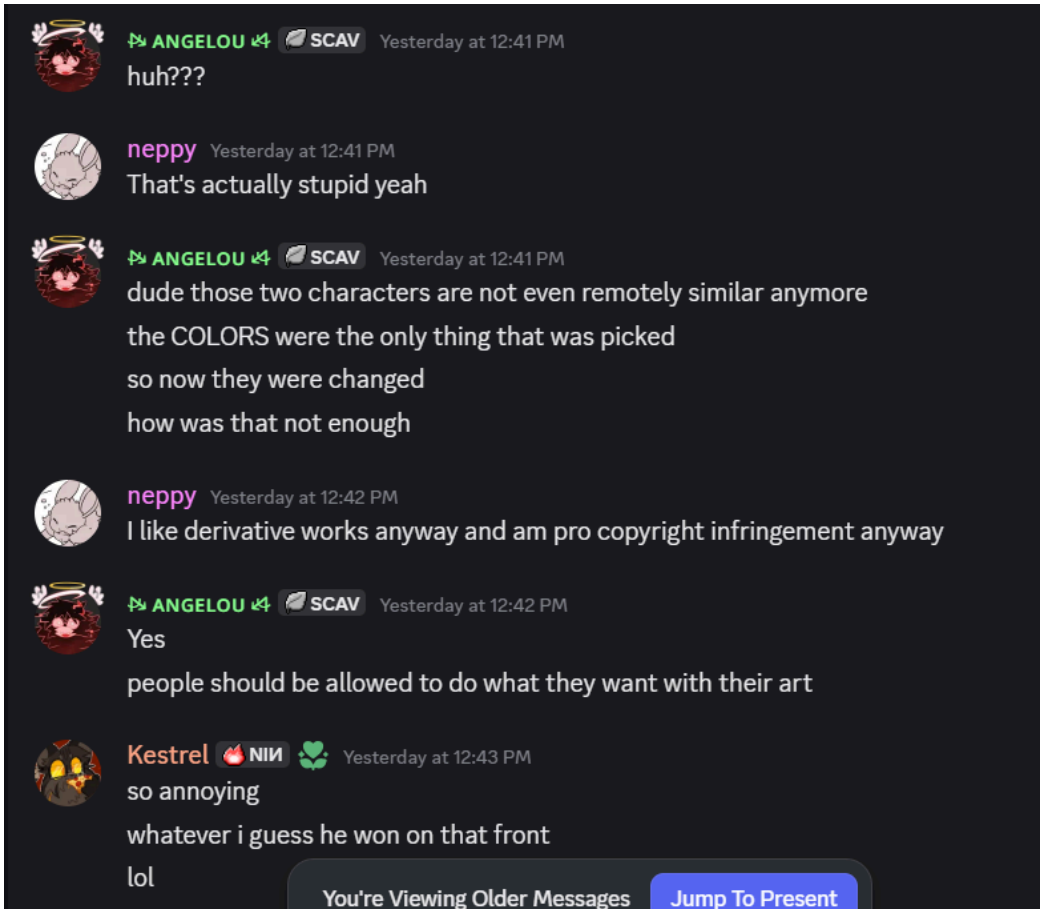

The motive for sexual harassment is just because Wastepaw doesn't like ballpitpup, there's a history of harassment between the two(Wastepaw also knows he doesnt like this content). I've had issues with Wastepaw myself & surrounding his friend group, they commonly like to just ripoff the people they don't like and/or the ones who have critiqued them over safety. If you see in one of those screenshots, the image was forwarded in his chat meaning he was likely discussing it elsewhere while harassing ballpitpup
I'd say AAM is however real life promotion, or in the very least really stupid to put in your art. I'd put it on a similar level of using those spiral "childlove" symbols. It means Adult Attracted Minor in the first place, which becomes a calling card to groomers to folk to in literally any case it's used in. In art you're basically promoting to that crowd who commits real abuse/is being abused then by making an "AAM" oc. I feel like it would be different if you simply didn't use the terminology of "Adult Attracted Minor" because it really downplays the effects of grooming. It should likely be abolished as a term too, because being a minor and being attracted to adults is just how brains work, it was clearly made with the intention to groom people.
And as a result, it then has involvement to real abuse (like the child lover symbols). The crowd you are directly appealing to with that are all groomers or people who are enabling abuse.
And then on top of that, copying someone's fursona that has "DNI PROPARA" in their twitter bio, and then turning them into an AAM necro OC... crazy
 (Wastepaw was also caught in chats covering up necrozoosadists but unsure how seriously inkbunny takes discord screenshots https://ibb.co/album/9nSpSn https://ibb.co/album/5Y3V95)
Here's a complication ballpitpup compiled:
https://imgur.com/a/PKkixzG Charlie's reference sheet is also older, I don't know if it was completed & posted onto sparkledog404's socials, but here's a post from ballpitpup that proves the design is older:
https://x.com/i/status/2030064903663538504
I think Wastepaw did re-edit it so it's a different palette (because clearly he couldn't do much different with it & got backlash) but my point still stands on the AAM thing
Thank you!

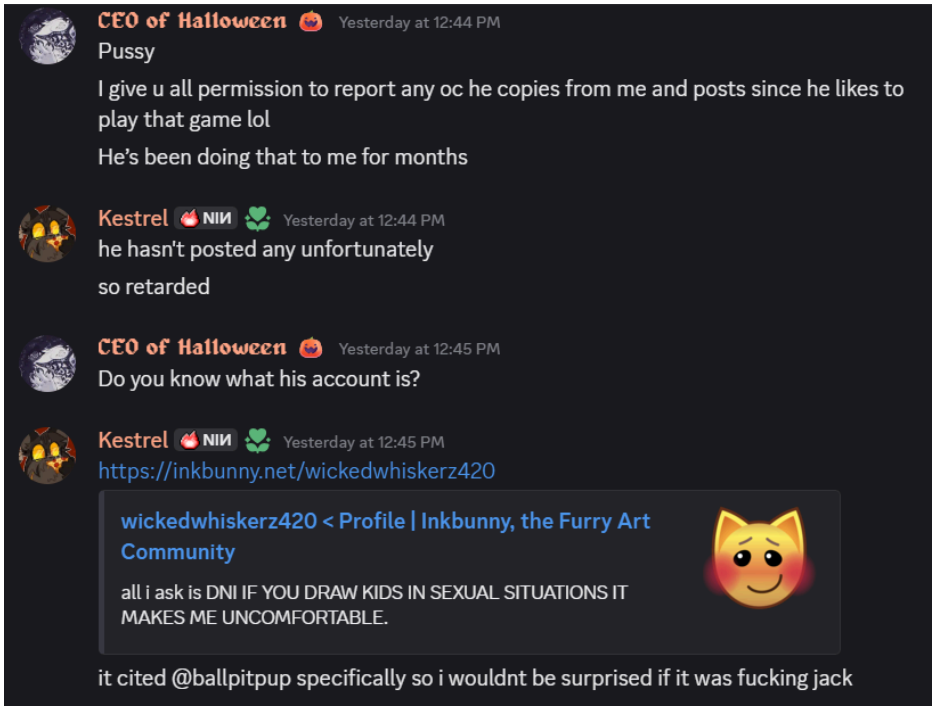

Sorry for any grammar mistakes, but I hope it makes sense (I think it's readable)
It's the responsibility of the adults to not encourage a culture of grooming or abuse though, and the usage of that term is clearly made to abuse teens.
It would also likely end up encouraging minors to consume his porn, seeing as the AAM term is meant to appeal to minors.
Idk there's a lot of things wrong if you make an AAM oc on someone you don't like, it's too far

Screenshots can certainly have their place and they have been useful in investigations. That said, there's always a danger that screenshots can be edited or show conversations without the necessary context.

Regardless, thanks to the earlier refsheet link and motivation, I am satisfied that the image was likely intended as harassment. I think the reupload after changing the colours also lends a lot of credibility to the harassment claim. I have removed the offending submission and this will be noted. If there is anything more on Inkbunny, do not hesitate to report it.

its better to just not engage with anything he does. Its a game to them and they will always win, they wanna see how far under your skin they can get, they want a reaction, honestly he totally baited you into copying
I think the reason he went so insane when you gave them a morsel of attention was because I had been starving him for months and months and he's desperate for it
Just ignore him, ignore everything he says
We jusrt talked about this in my server the other day

Vedacia had drawn Jasper and tried to post it directly to inkbunny. Due to Vedacia's other offenses, including the situation with Shrew (addressed in a later section), inkbunny took action by removing the ability for Vedacia to upload images.

Vedacia then decided to reupload the offending image onto furaffinity. The image is still reportable, as it is now a variant of the necrophilia flag, and chatlogs also prove this. Furaffinity has a zero tolerance on paraphilia pride artwork.

Vedacia's post from inkbunny/furaffinity (banned on inkbunny for being a tos violation oc)

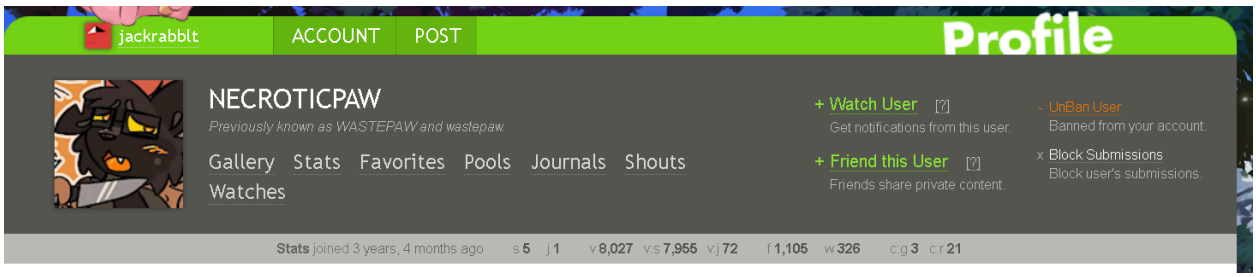

<----- necrophilia pride flag

evidence he knows it's adjusted to be more necro colored

On top of this, Kestrel, as he thinks JACKRABBLT reported him, decided to use artwork JACKRABBLT previously took down. This is clearly an act of retaliation & was reported. The DMCA was successful and it was removed from his profile.

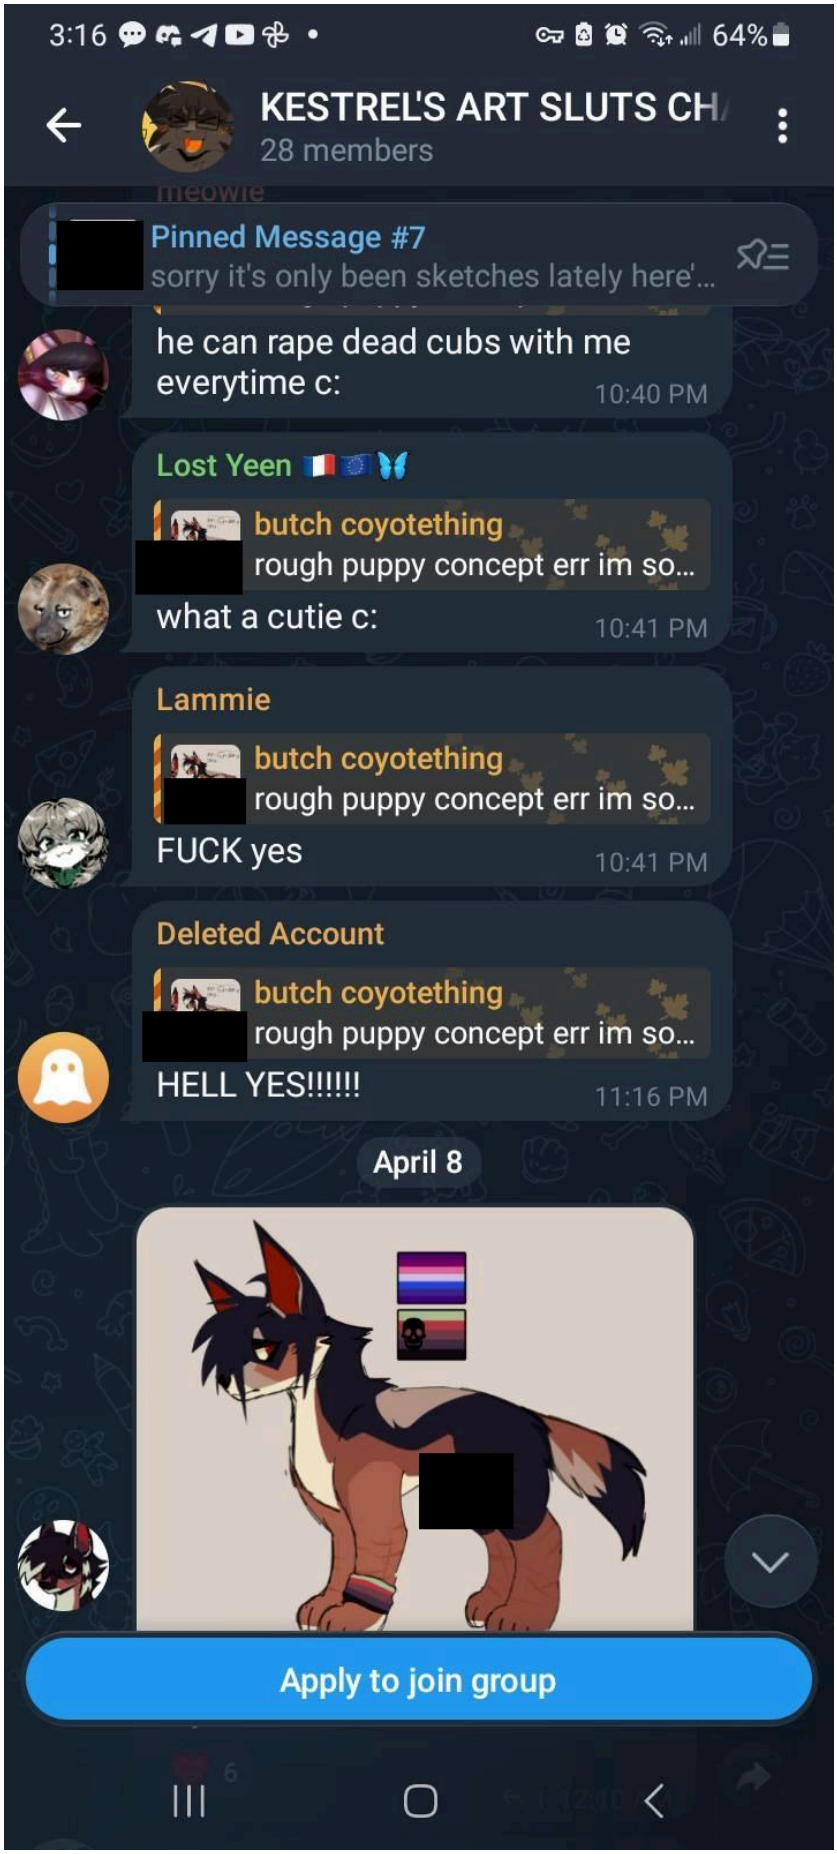

Telegram Messages

Kestrel also continues to incriminate himself in his own telegram chat, showing even earlier work-in-progress images that prove the design was copied. Some of his chat members are also really concerning in what they say & tolerate.

Childlove Symbol

Kestrel has an obsession with the childlove symbol to the point he's hidden it in his artwork. This symbol was taken from children's media and reclaimed by predator pedophiles who use it as a calling sign to other pedophiles, and to groom children. Its symbol, and the community surrounding the childlove symbol(s) are all connected to abuse, there is no justifiable reason to put it in your artwork.

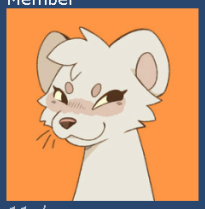

There are uses of the sun symbol that are innocent, as well as innocent spirals, so it can also be context specific whether it's actually intended as a childlove symbol. Typically childlove symbols have a distinctive shape or linework to them, though it can vary, whilst the times it's used in child media it's often for just it being a symbol. Spirals like you see in ATLA (The Last Airbender) are clearly not intended to be pedophilia signs for example, neither were they when printed on children's diapers. These symbols are also hyper specific to recent online culture, and again, were reclaimed originally from children's media.

Additionally, artwork with these symbols were being circulated with so many predators E621 had to mass delete most of what was in the "pedophilia_iconography" tag; very few artists under that tag were actually "anti-contact", and those who genuinely were already took down their artwork before the deletion wave. Kestrel didn't like this ban despite the reason for it being there was an influx of predators using the comment sections to find each other. It was a moderate headache and a safety concern, on top of the fact the child love symbols were specifically made to groom.

agree, it is pretty arbitrary. "pedophile iconography is attracting the wrong crowd!!!" as if cub porn in general wouldn't have already attracted said crowd, be for real lmaooo. it's just a hot thing in fiction for me and many others who have drawn it :b oh well, what can you do its also just interesting seeing the same people who condemn pedo icons defend drawing/allowing nazi iconography on the site in the same breath

Honestly I do find the stuff hot, but it did seem to bring in people who couldn't stick to fiction as I saw in some of the comment sections. It was probably a headache for the mods.

I'd recommend looking here; our primary concern isn't with eliminating their existence, but their actions, & this has already been extremely helpful in curtailing those actions. I can understand and empathize with being disappointed in this change, but this wasn't a reckless or ill-considered decision, and it is having the intended effect.

This also was not speculative; we didn't make up something to chase down, we actively eliminated a very real phenomena. You can't see the DMails we have, so I'd recommend reevaluating your theorizing about how big of a problem this was or was not.

i just don't feel like punishing artists by wiping their works for what shitty people say about their fictional art is very fair to artists
i'm not even trying to be any kind of way but i just can't really understand the logic

Im usually a let art be art person but I'm actually with the mods on this one. I've witnessed a growing culture of pedophilia in the site that was pretty much vaporized when they did the purge.

Fiction affects reality whether you want to admit that or not, and we need to take responsibility for where it does.

If you need me to I can go into greater detail as to why this crackdown needed to happen - I've seen some shit and also am educated in sociology.

why did this get flagged exactly?
if it's because of the pedo iconography, i would really like someone to explain to me how that's "promoting real harm." (assuming because that's why all other posts in the tag got removed) remove that symbol and it's just an average cub piece, nobody bats an eye, but suddenly just because it's there it's promoting harm? and again, nazi symbolism is allowed on this site, how is that not promoting real harm if the pedo symbols are? it just makes no sense lmfao.

Rainbow Shoebill i would love if you could clarify :)

Correct me if I'm wrong but pedo icons are illegal by the US law and are related to real children getting harmed while Nazi symbolisms are a form of free speech. Since E621 is very compliant with the law they have updated their uploading guidelines to include an entry for this lol

they are not illegal lol, and did they update their guidelines to include an entry for it? i looked when i noticed the tag got nuked but i couldn't find it. it's also just one single janitor that keeps deleting everything

^ This is actually a good example of a sun symbol that was likely intended as an actual sun spiral not a childlove symbol. Kinder is a brand of chocolate for children, afterall, or at least tries to appeal to children a lot. It looks the same to them but the line work is a slightly different thickness as well as the color being off.
With a full picture of the bag this was clearly a design that's meant to mimic doodling. These people are just turning it into something perverted because they're pedophiles.

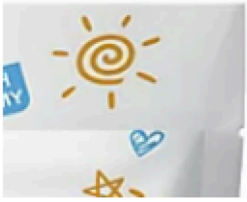

Kinder Chocolate Mini Milk Chocolate Bar with Creamy Milky Filling Family Pack 60 Minis - 12.7 Oz

most circulated sun childlove symbol

Kinder's sun spiral

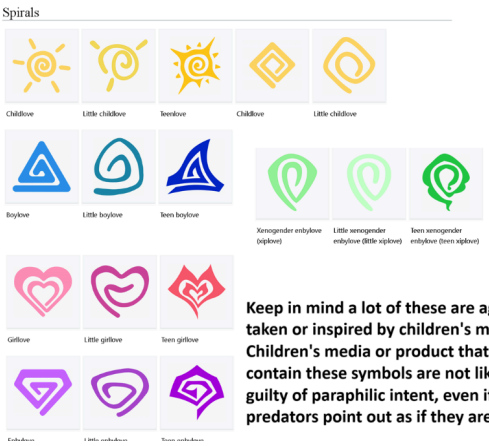

This wasn't intended by Kinder to be anything like the circulated childlove symbol. Even if hue adjusted, Kinder's spiral is much more darker in color, and has a much more thin lineart. The full context of the bag is also to be a "doodle" theme, which means its inspired by children's media. It's important to be super clear about when these symbols are used, as they're context specific; sometimes they are still used innocently as sun symbols & not intentionally to attract pedophiles.
TDLR; Kinder is innocent on this one.

For your safety & children's safety we don't recommend trying to reclaim the sun symbol back & to likely abandon it. Predators will continue to point out every instance of it as a pedophilia symbol.
We would still say spiral symbols are still safe to use, but to take care to not be confused with offending childlove symbols (and vice versa when pointing them out)

As long as entirely different spiral designs are used in your art, it's less likely to be misinterupted.

some of the types of spirals you should avoid:

Keep in mind a lot of these are again taken or inspired by children's media. Children's media or product that contain these symbols are not likely guilty of paraphilic intent, even if predators point out as if they are.

E621 Tag Stalking

There is no punishment (as long as you tag correctly) to tagging someone else's posts with a user you have blocked offsite. E621 has no block function beyond blacklists. This leads Kestrel into petty tag editing people he doesn't like.

Here is also where Kestrel decided to be super ballsy and edit one of Jack's adopt to be claimed with his copyright. He bought it via block evaded, the design was revoked upon finding out who the owner truly was, and quickly resold. Kestrel does not legally own the copyright.

DestructiveFox

Kestrel's partner snapping on JACKRABBLT for no true reason, but has some interesting foreshadowing words about Kestrel's behavior. This particular interaction just stemmed from Jack asking DestructiveFox if Kestrel was okay.

kestrels never okay, they like to stay in their depression cycle oh and im not fine either thanks for asking (♡JACKRABBIT) Today at 7:19 PM
That is not the best thing to say about your partner's mental health, what the fuck? All I was asking if Kestrel was okay, and that also includes you by proxy because we were worried about you because we literally hadn't heard from either of you for a week straight!!!!
I get being mentally ill, I'm too, we all struggle but uh, this is a concerning response from you and significantly rude. I think you should consider being nicer to your partner (and your own) condition.
DestructiveFox Today at 7:20 PM
im nothing but patient and nice, and loving to him and his conditions. He just is very stubborn with the idea of change or a different perspective. how bout you actually talk to him and get to know the fuller picture
I tried being patient and kept in mind of boundaries, that didn't help, I tried listening to him about his issues, he didn't want to open up or talk about it. I call him everyday
I do everything in my power to ensure he's okay and alive, and yet nobody actually understands where I'm coming from.

Don't you think it's a little objectifying to say your partner "likes" to "stay" in their depression cycle? Do you like not see how that punches down at them? Someone who's nothing but patient & nice would not say that about him, espsically in response to my serious concern about both of your health(I understand I didn't specifically ask if you were okay in that message but I literally don't know you that much).
I can't fix your relationship problems or make Kestrel speak every issue on his mind but I do know everything about that first sentence gave me the ick in your orginal message. I'm sure he is definitely not enjoying suffering if I've had to type anti-suicide paragraphs in an attempt to help him because of how he feels and how he started spiraling at work. This isn't fucking fun to suffer. Fuck you dude.

I don't even wanna get on that subject, they is a gender neutral term, it can be used for he/she/neither, not just those who identify as neither kestrel Today at 6:06 PM

they were on my friend's ass for doing it to loki, they know its misgendering

i didnt mean it in a mocking way why did they keep saying i was mocking kestrel when i literally said i wasn't trying to mock him kestrel even said he shouldn't be getting into drama when he was off his meds, so i just like....took that at face value..??? like "ohh maybe this is why he's doing this"
elkhound 10/01/2024 1:55 PM
tbh I can see why this would be seen as an inappropriate comment. Like I get what you're saying there but it's pretty sensitive to anyone. You're right though that kestrel should follow his own advice and not get into drama off his meds. I think everybody knows being off your meds just makes everything worse for you. I get worse when I'm off my meds.
that said I also think kestrel is just a piece of shit either way

Foolish mindset, naive. If you actually stuck 2 that mindset then I guess even critiquing people for being transphobic, bigotted, or harmful in some way is all okay as long as it's not illegal /s
"Your boundaries are broken? Who give a fuck it's not illegal" you just kinda sound stupid applying this to this situation. If I was crying and whining about fictional art yea it would make sense but this just doesn't apply.

I said it was naive because sometimes fighting is nessicary and it's a part of life. You cannot prevent it sometimes, you need a spine if you want to respect yourself and keep yourself in check.
And having a spine sometimes means a discussion turns into an argument, a confrontation has to be had, and life does it's thing.

Twitter drama is the last thing I want to get involved with especially when it has built up so much shit over the past however long but I feel compelled to try to reason and talk to you. I'm part of the "them" group so it's fine if just block me but out of genuine concern for you and Charlie, it just isn't healthy to keep trying to fight people, especially on Twitter.

Idk much of either side, im just friends with kestrel and literally no one else but I've seen some tweets here and there and both sides seem to be getting shit happening to them or said to them so I can't imagine anyone, particularly you and Charlie are happy about it

That isn't the same as what I'm doing, I don't know what you're on about here.
He is deliberately associating with these people I've(and others, including himself) are abusers, abusive in some way, or just downright immoral people.
One of the people he's following made a disgusting rape comment about my boyfriend, you do know that right? He witnessed that.
All of it. I don't want to assoicate with people who think following someone like that is okay, even if my bf is now his ex-friend.
This is definitely malicious, I'm not that retarded and I've seen this dozen times. I just wanted him to be honest but he can't, he can't even block us right.

You confront kestrel but it's not surprising the conversation couldn't progress because sending testimonials of everyone feeling disappointed in and disapproving of them obviously creates a massive weight of pressure, more like an interrogation than an good faith questioning or even a blunt confrontation.
I still really doubt kestrel leaked anything considering they seemed to hold both you and Charlie in extremely high regard and with respect. It wasn't just a being nice to your face thing.

That's a whole different problem of being scared to speak out against your group for fear of exactly this, losing people he considered friends, being callled pro-c not even an hour after the conversation between him and charlie was cut short, and this whole thing of following someone else being enough to result in a public execution sorry, real quick, are you fine with me screenshotting this to send to kestrel?

I don't care if you do but I don't want to fucking talk to him and I want him to leave my fucking friends alone. My entire fucking group is stressed, and his newfound friends decided to instantly antagonize us (((because they are harassers)))
There's nothing thats gonna make him come back from this bc he dug his grave n seeing those screenshots + other private tweets I think he was just waiting to cut me off but didn't wanna bc good art pity

I think it's a bit rude that to not at least end the conversation amicably when I tried to be calm and address your messages, I did take the time to read all of them, I'm sorry if you feel I didn't, Jack. But I don't know what you mean by saying kestrel lied since you left DMs.

Some abusing supporting account Emokittyscourge found and dealt with from Kestrel's server. This is despite Kestrel's ties to abuse, such as being promised murdered cat parts. It's also questionable Scourge was "pretending" to be "pro-c."

Private Twitter Account

Kestrel's private twitter account. We can see him confirming his stalking behavior, especially towards Jack. Not only that, but there is an immense amount of pro self-harm tweets that hint toward his involvement with SHtwt. He also confirmed he block evaded to buy an adopt from Jack, which he had the copyright revoked due to Jack's TOS clause about block evaded users (not just that, but the adoptable also has a new owner). You can also see the full display of how full of himself he really is, and his heightened sense of importance.

your friend snuffkitten suggested i use a burner, so when are you going to give me that refund btw? for a commission you never started and another that you burned. i never should have even had to respond to a dm to get refunded, surely you still had my contact info.

Kestrel has this repetitive fixation on how people have introjects based off of him(some is seen above as well). The reason why this happens so much is because Kestrel causes a lot of stress in relationships and really doesn't treat his friends well. The stress of the relationship (and likely the actual cutting off of Kestrel) causes systems to potentially split. This isn't always the cause for why someone can develop an introject, as they can develop from nonstressful causes, but in this case, these are introjects formed from the shear stress Kestrel put these systems under. In the case of Jack, his source of his Scourge alter was formed from the stress of cutting him off. Not only that, but his Scourge alter was not fully even based on Kestrel really at all, as it had a separate non-Warrior Cats fursona called “Spit” that was more based on other alters(Like Axel and Diesel, and was even an older JACKRABBLT design). The only thing Spit truly had in common with Kestrel was him being a fictive of Scourge, and that he was created as a direct response from the stress of Kestrel betraying him.

This seems to be about when he was caught still interacting with Calvin; the “opps” he is worried about realistically would have just thought he was stupid for this, but recognize it isn't the same as enabling.
However, I doubt his reasoning, as he's admitted to being a chronic liar and doesn't address it properly either.

(If this is the case, this information should have been aired out to people retweeting. Nobody wants to be around someone who does that.)

Elkhound's Sexual Harassment Oc

Elkhound decided to sexually harass JACKRABBLT by ripping off Fentanyl with a drama OC. This character was named "Narcan" and exhibits their perception of Jack's personality. He then drew another one of his OCs peeing on top of this character. Similarly to the OC Kestrel made, this is most definitely a sexual harassment character meant to upset JACKRABBLT.
https://e621.net/posts?tags=narcan_%28anthropophagiac%29
https://e621.net/posts/5467064?q=narcan_%28anthropophagiac%29

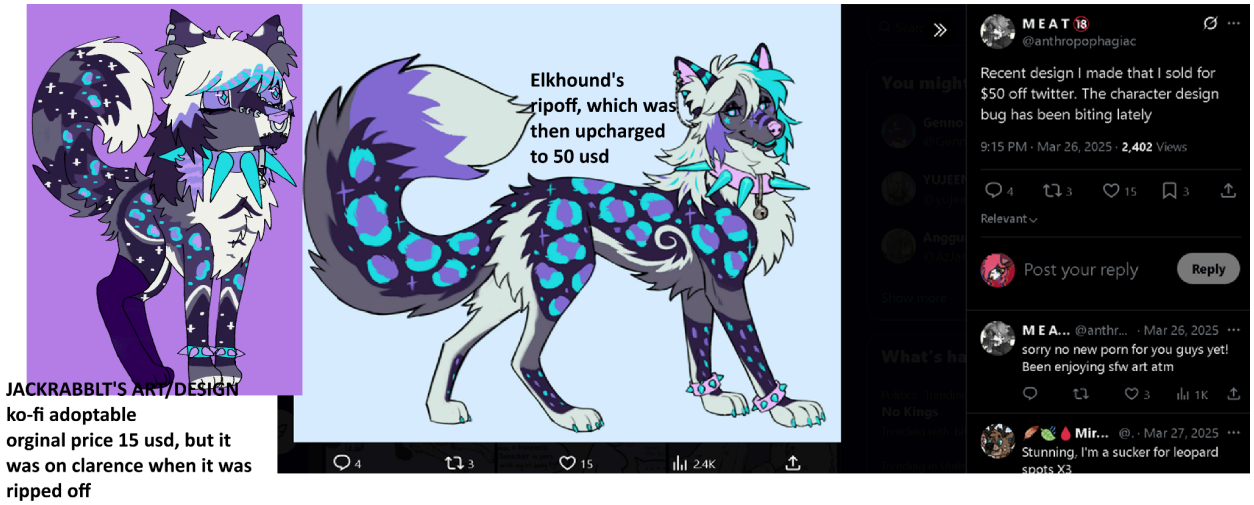

Kestrel also drew a quite ugly drawing of it as well. After this, the OC was abandoned. Why? Because it is a drama OC made with the intent to only upset JACKRABBLT and has no true substance.

https://e621.net/posts/5561767?q=narcan_%28anthropophagiac%29

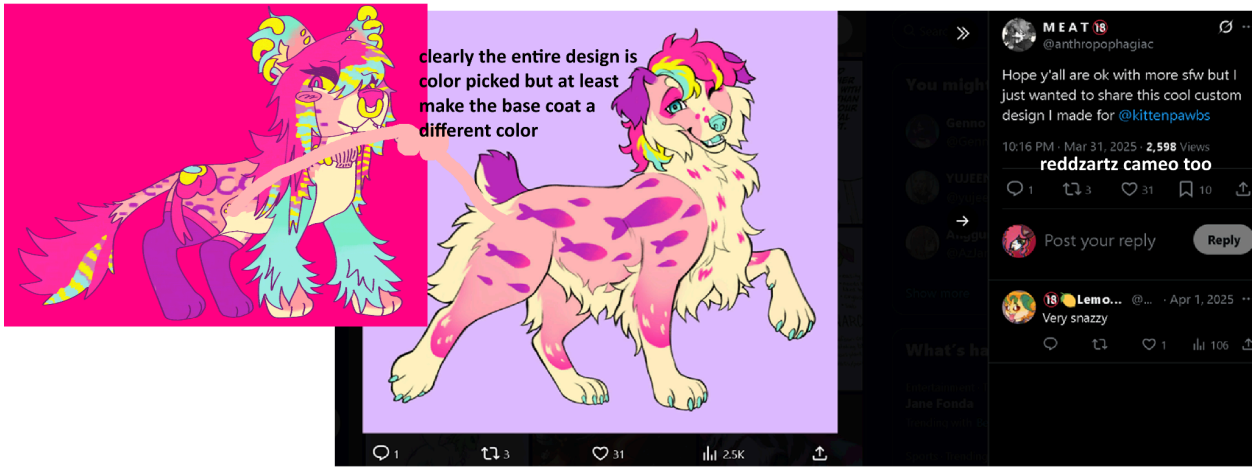

Elkhound's Ripoffs

This wasn't the first time Elkhound ripped JACKRABBLT off, he specifically selected a very cheap adoptable out of JACKRABBLT's Ko-Fi catalogue to completely rip it off and resell it for 50 usd. The design is clearly sloppily made as well, it's a near 1:1 rip of JACKRABBLT's work and would be considered plagiarism. It is just a redesign of JACKRABBLT's work, as a result, whoever bought this "adoptable" from Elkhound doesn't even own the copyright of their oc, so they got scammed as well.

There is also another design that Elkhound clearly ripped off from JACKRABBLT but there was some attempt to hide it. However, Elkhound clearly just color picked JACKRABBLT's design and wasn't creative enough to make it more unique. ReddzArtz (a predator) commissioned Elkhound to make a custom ripoff of JACKRABBLT's OC. Art can most definitely be used to stalk people.

People really are like "necrozoo is wrong because animals can't consent to their corpses being used and it's just disrespectful. Also I love taxidermy and bone collecting and people that think it's disrespectful are just sensitive."

I really couldn't care less if someone does something weird to an animal corpse. If taxidermy and leather and all that is fine then the whole consent argument falls apart. It's weird yes and I'd never do it but there's bigger things to worry about in the world

They think consent only applies to sex. People don't care about the consent of their animals until someone mentions zoos. Look at how the average person treats their pets.

This one is a straight up lie… a pretty blatant one or he wouldn't be included in this doc. By proxy he is a part of a zoo community; he's a part of the damn propara community! He's also a constant reply guy and arguer to zeta zoophiles, despite associating with a bunch of people who are zetas (or at least tolerate other zetas).

This is mostly about me posting my takes against bestiality but also not exclusively interacting with anti-cs. There would be no point in me saying anything if I only interacted with anti-cs. But this is seen as being pro abuse apparently.
@taxidermyfuckr · 10h
But if someone is coming here starting out pretty neutral, but anti-cs immediately cast them out leaving only pro-c spaces that welcome them, who is that helping? We shouldn't be encouraging echo chambers! That's what happens when you enforce these social divides!
@taxidermyfuckr · 10h
I don't even interact with the pro-para community outside of this account, save for the para friends i have already made. But the whole point of me being here is having my voice be heard. That means nothing if I do not interact with people of other contact stances.
@taxidermyfuckr · 10h
I just don't get people's desire for social purity, that you never interact with the wrong people, over attempting to influence a positive change? Who do you help when so much as talking to someone gets you labeled as a supporter of that person?
@taxidermyfuckr · 10h
The rhetoric that you should only interact with people that are on your side doesn't create any change. People should be exposed to multiple sides. People become more vulnerable to abusive communities because of this. Because then abusers become the only safe space for people.

Lecter / zoomadist / owner of nnia.space / for_spiral_sun

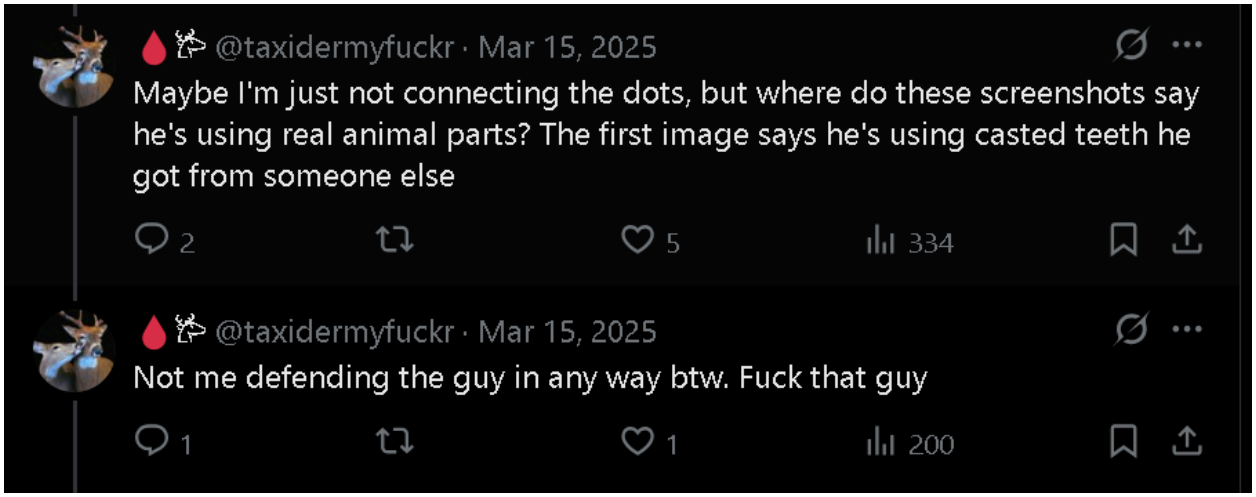

Lecter is the owner of nnia.space (now nnia.cc), a paraphile mastodon. He created the alef symbol (self admitted this in private to Jack), and tricked a bunch of “anti contacts” into co-opting the symbol while not realizing he is a groomer, or that he had views that definitely weren’t anti abuse. The entire time he knew Jack, he was lying about his stance, purposefully being deceitful, and has been tied to a lot of the people involved in this doc. He is also friends with zrcalo.

Coining post text:

Just want to post the finalized version of the leaf zoo flag here in 8K for anyone that wants to use it.

While I don't personally identify with contact labels I imagine many on pedi would consider me leaning anti-c. However, I want to make it completely clear that this flag is meant to represent zoo unity. It is a flag to represent any zoophile from anti-c to pro-c and anything in between, or anyone who doesn't identify w/ contact labels. The only exception to this being zoophiles who are against the acceptance of other paraphilias and IDs. (though I wouldn't be able to stop you if you do decide to use it)

Elkhound cameos here because Elkhound was a friend of Lecter (and may possibly still be). His username in these screenshots “for_spiral_sun” also sounds like a reference to the childlove symbol.

community about a year and a half ago when they moved from tumblr. my apologies for contacting you out of the blue like this. i saw your post about all the things lecter has done and made this account to reach out to you. i need to talk about what happened between me and him. i know you're on break so no worries if you can't respond right away. thank you ❤

ov 26, 2020, 10:24 PM

You accepted the request

hi! nice to meet ya. don't apologize. you can tell me whatever u like

Nov 26, 2020, 10:3

hey, sorry i was with family. the exact details of the precise time are fuzzy for me, but lecter and i dated for a while, starting sometime around autumn of 2018. it was a stressful time for me for a lot of reasons, but dating him certainly didn't help. he was a lot more controlling than he appears to be in public at this point the only reason i'm gathering info is peoples' safety considering that me and him feuding and shit puts others at risk you can tell me as much or as little as you'd like. also i'd actually assumed he was the controlling type

Nov 28, 2020, 11:08 AM

i don't know, a lot of people don't seem to agree on the controlling point i guess. i was 16 at the time, didn't really understand myself or what was going on in my brain (i still don't! lol). i thought i may have been a map, specifically a hebephile, later questioning pedophilia. now i'm 100% sure that isn't true but i can understand why people fall into the mindset i guess. it's super confusing, especially if you're a kid.

Nov 28, 2020, 11:59 AM

i'm not sure how i feel, if anything i think it's a mental illness but i really don't know. what i am sure of is that they shouldn't be promoting it here like some kind of club. i probably fully fell out of it sometime last year

it's easy to be manipulated at 16 and i feel like he gets off on that

Nov 28, 2020, 12:03 PM ✓

he tends to like try and over sexualize things, that's why he has 12 year olds making paraphilia flags and shit that was the crux of our whole fight actually

Nov 28, 2020, 12:04 PM ✓

it's crazy because if you think about it he may or may not have sort of reverse "groomed" you into thinking you were a MAP and that's what i worry about

Nov 28, 2020, 12:05 PM ✓

he made a 12 year old make paraphilia flags for him? i didn't hear any of that

Nov 28, 2020, 12:06 PM

oh that was kind of what made me go off on him and get him suspended at the same time he basically egged on MAPs that were calling me a groomer lmao

that didn't go well for them

Nov 28, 2020, 12:10 PM ✓

most things don't seem to go well for them.

... what was their proof for you being a groomer, even? this all just sounds dumb as hell do you think i should confront him? i have a feeling he's probably doing the same thing to other kids right now.

Nov 29, 2020, 7:54 PM

i'm not sure because u might be putting yourself in danger

my impersonator account etc only happened when i pissed off lectee

lecter

Nov 30, 2020, 4:56 AM ✓

yeah you're right...
i do really want to do something about it though. at least if i can prevent it from happening to someone else, that's something. even if i can't undo the shit i went thru.

Dec 1, 2020, 5:51 AM

hmm i would just be very cautious

don't speak to him without a mediator are you 18 now ?

Dec 1, 2020, 8:12 AM ✓

yeah, i'm 18 now. birthday was in february.

i don't know if having a conversation even with a mediator would do very much, but maybe i'm just too anxiety-ridden

Dec 1, 2020, 11:24 AM

aww i would but he already has it out for me

i dont trust a single MAP

Here he is attempting to contact/befriend Jack. It might of been an attempt to manipulate him (Jack already blocked him past this point):

Message...
Id say hes a predator yeah.. it went from us being friends to people knowing them contacting me about grooming and abusive behavior, to me eventually finding their secret fetish accounts and just cutting them off
It goes pretty far as ive found roys alt accounts for nsfw art as well , such as ddlg and other controversial stuff as being in a relationship on there with a so called child alter little(im pretty sure i have some screenshots hidden)
These screenshots are from a conversation with somebody Wolf used to get along with, we were not suprised to find this information out about wolf based on the nature of his posts.
This is when we found out that wolf wasn't as anti contact and pro recovery as he said he was, he wasn't just excreting these behaviors through his artwork, he was actively grooming and abusing those he had a relationship with.

In this screenshot, Wolf is called out for making a minor s*lf harm for him, to which he claims he banned them and told them not to, when this was in fact the opposite of what happened.
(22ND JAN)
He repeated this with a different minor, but didn't tell them to stop, and his excuse was that he didn't know they were a minor despite the age roles they had in his own server.

i was just rambling abt wanting to abuse people

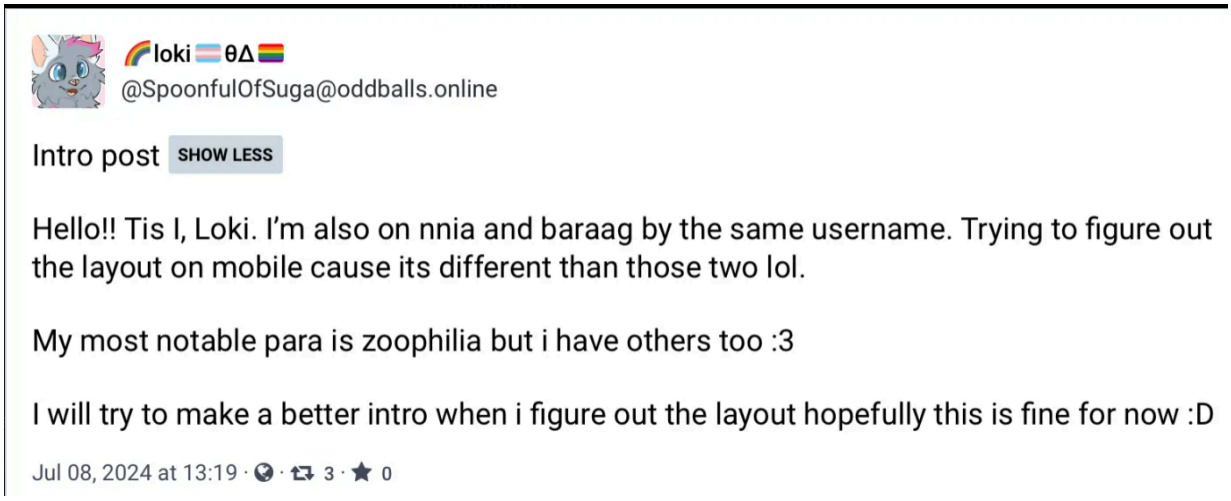

Tater is an Alter of Sedaya, and is Eight years old. Wolf was aware of this, and this is a form of pedophilia.
He has also recently tried to get back into contact with Sedaya, to which Sedaya was told to block him immediately, but we think they may still be in contact.
This is also old artwork by wolf, which displays a feral puppy in a diaper and his persona having it on a leash.
This babyfur is @ [redacted] on instagram, commonly known as sedaya or just tater. They also draw feral and cub, but were abused and groomed by wolf on multiple occasions.

Loki and co.

Loki otherwise known as spoonfulofcum/spoonfulofsuga is an abuse supporter who started out as an “anti-contact” larper. Notably, he hosted a discord server with many members of this doc involved inside of it. Not only that, but Kestrel repeatedly leaked their server to Chetmix, this is despite Kestrel betraying Chetmix by befriending the people he was ultimately also exposing. He likely just did this for attention, not for his morals. Loki also has ties to Ezra and made an oddballs account (this is despite his claims of ignorance).

Hello!! Tis I, Loki. I'm also on nnia and baraag by the same username. Trying to figure out the layout on mobile cause its different than those two lol.

My most notable para is zoophilia but i have others too :3

I will try to make a better intro when i figure out the layout hopefully this is fine for now :D

gonna be honest this is really hard to read some its just a wall of text but ill try to answer what i can while I'm on my break.
I never have and never will support abusers and i don't know where this is coming from. I don't follow any accounts that post asem either, i report and block it on sight so idk where that is coming from either. If an account i follow is rting it tbh i wouldn't likely know since i have so many of those asem accs blocked.
As for ezra, you and i both know that i have never had contact with them-and didn't even know who they were prior to the doc- do not ever say that.

some little guy · 3d ···

Im not sure if u use oddballs but id avoid it; the creator of the site is pro contact as well as much of the userbase, plus theres minors on the site who dont get banned despite admitting to being underage

Very recently joined to check it out, so far its been 50/50 for me. Haven't fully decided what I'm going to do with the acc yet, but i am very hesitant to post anything nsfw because of the minors. I might use it as a para acc for my alters cause they want a place to parapost too.

For the longest, the LGBTQ+ community has been targeted, abused, and the victim of prejudice. Just because things are better for us now, does NOT mean you get to continue the cycle of abuse to other minorities.

A scary askbox response from Loki about someone's implied bestality experience.

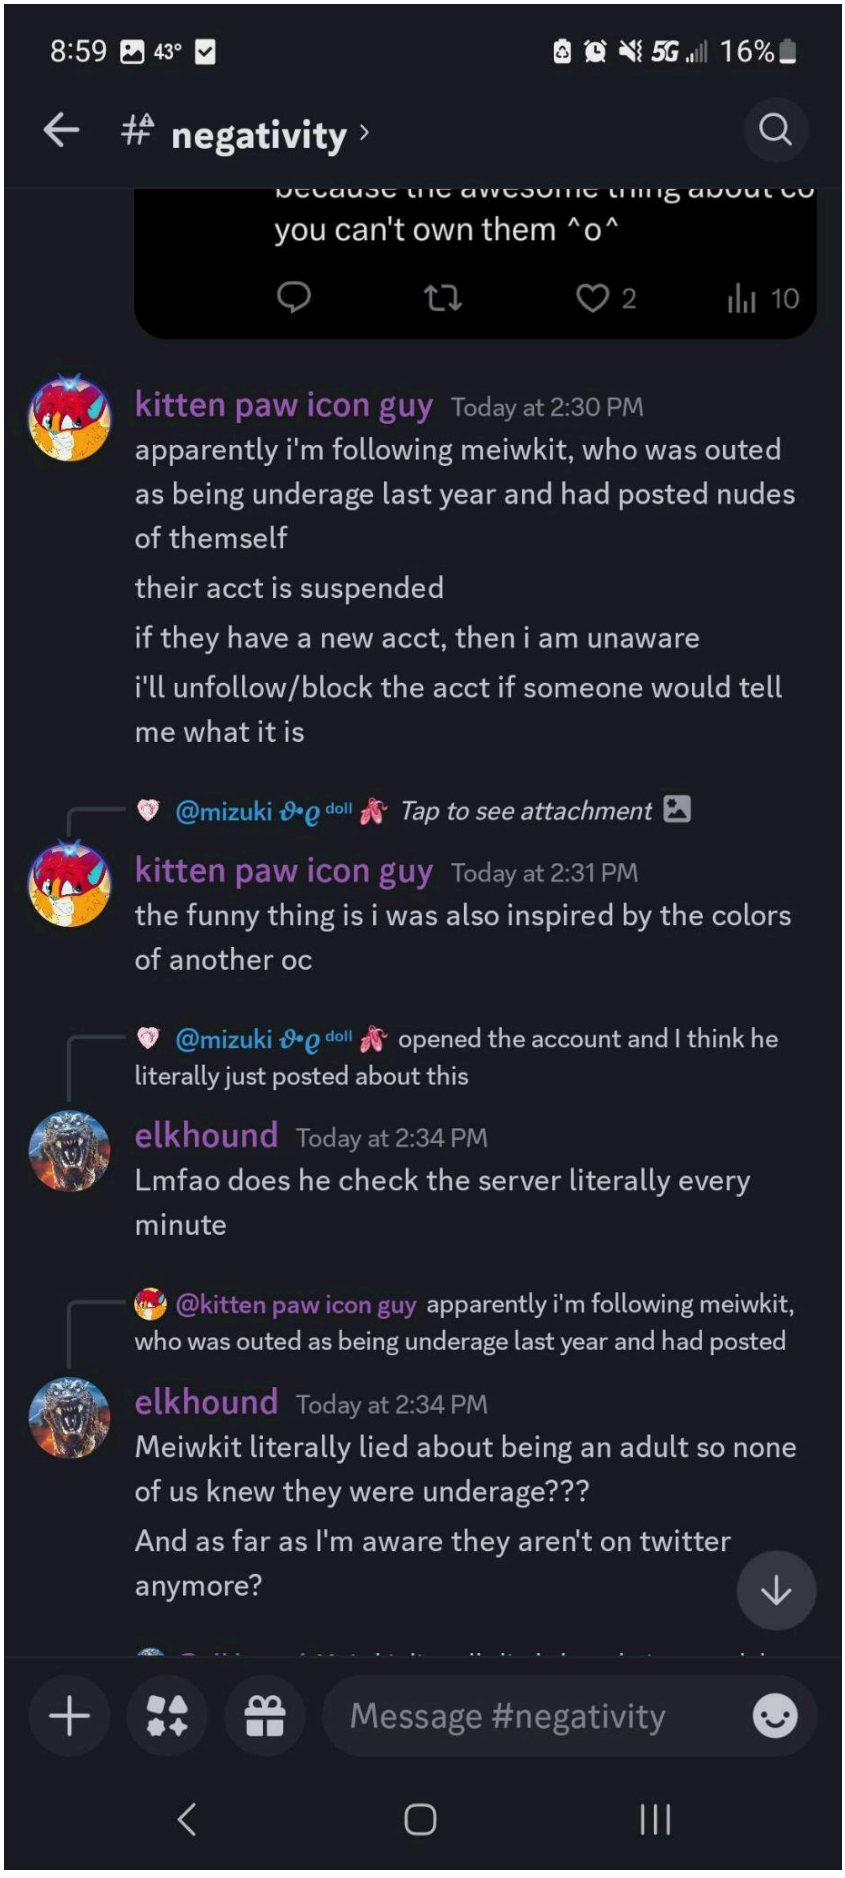

At the end of this twitter thread Loki had made in response to controversy that was unfolding inside of his discord, Loki makes a vague threat (more like a crumbling facade) at the end toward his group of critiquers. This is whilst hosting a space for those harassers, participating in it and enabling them.

“Loki’s Cumdump” (Discord Server)

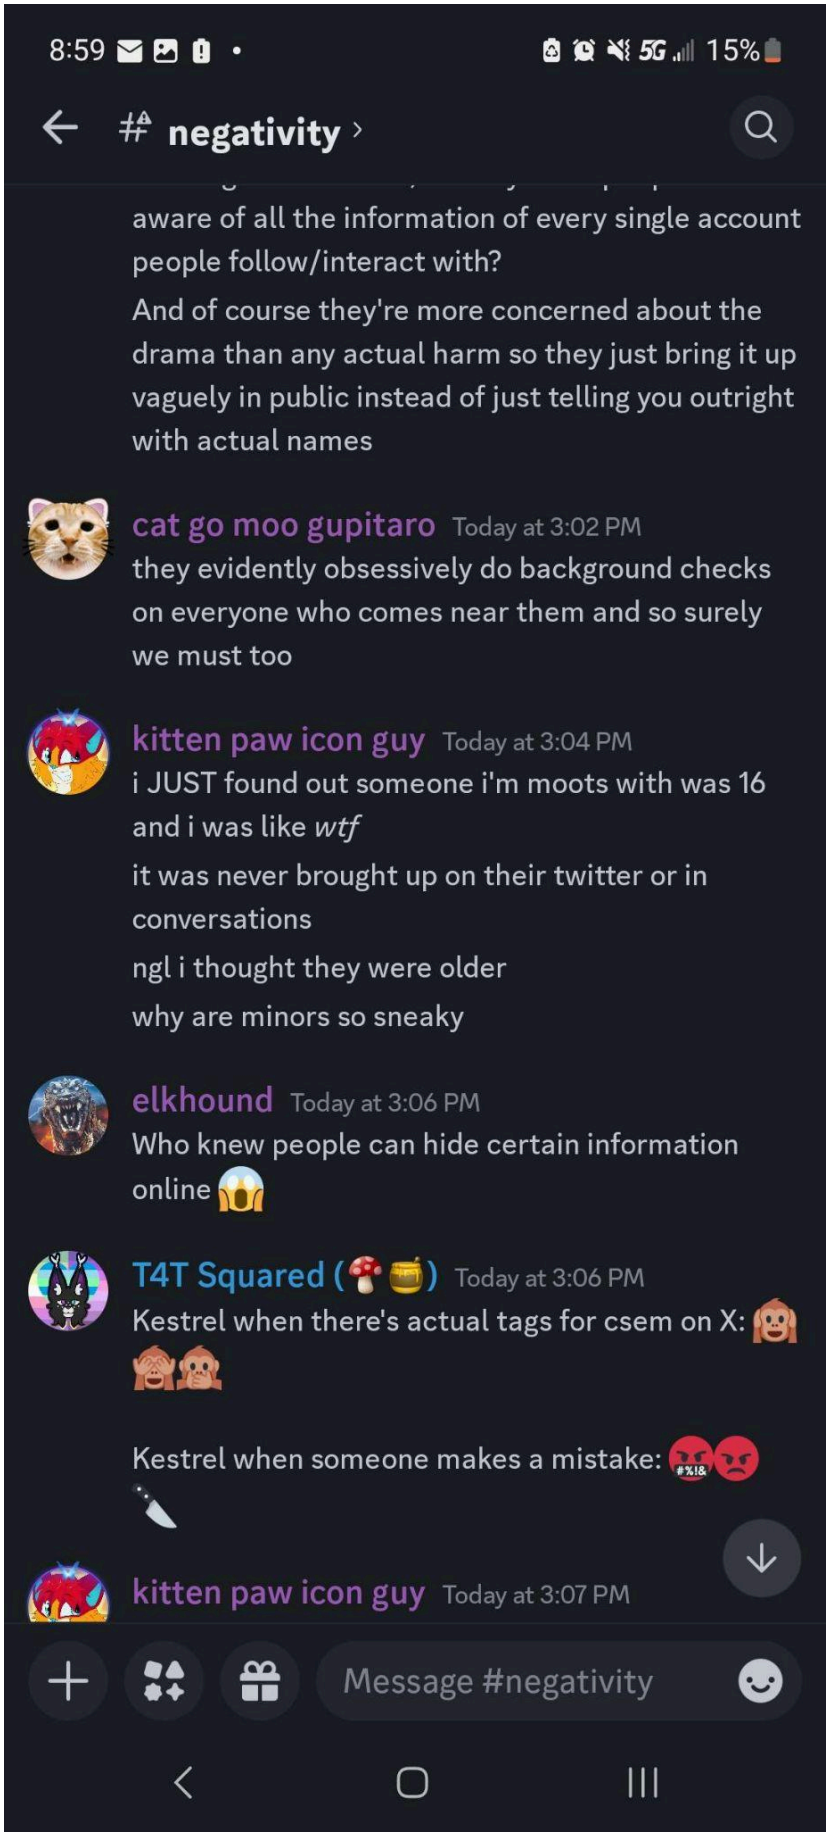

Loki’s Discord server, there are a lot of screenshots leaked. Most of the sources for these screenshots are Kestrel as he kept an alternate discord account within this server to specifically spy. Within the server people admitted to various crimes (as usual) and relentlessly harassed people within the negativity channels. The leaks vary from petty art obsession harassment to endorsements of IRL necrozoosadism.
Redd complaining about a bogus character theft claim and some of his other controversies.

groomed kids turn into groomed adults. A kid that is groomed isn't going to just suddenly know better when they become an adult. That's something you have to learn that doesn't take away that you hurt someone. In the screenshot he showed himself it shows you acknowledging what you did was wrong. idk what the hell they want kitten paw icon guy Today at 5:49 PM

it's really difficult to admit to doing something bad because of the intense shame around it, and fear of being condemned

These screenshots are without a doubt sourced from Kestrel as you can see his account show up in the corner, all of them were uncropped out of laziness. He probably didn't expect that to backfire despite betraying the people who he sent these to. Most of these are them harassing the group that critiqued them for choosing to stay around abuse sympathizers. At the time Kestrel was considered against them so they mainly focus on him in these.

The chat, with Soren and Sammy (the partner of Arlaux), begin to talk about JACKRABBLT.

Sammy complained about all of the apparent wrong Jack did in that screenshot with his posts, despite the fact there was actually evidence she was friends with a groomer all along. When Sammy was rebringing this up she:

1. Was still on Jack's discord friend list.
2. Got a personal extensive apology in dms about any "misinformation" that was spread by the answering of his anon box.

Nekohime @nekohime115 · Sep 5

You purposefully worded your post to incite rage and not to bring to light "concerning behavior" the way you say you were. You CLAIMED that I GROOMED somebody, with no proof. You can't backpedal and say "Oh well I didnt push for proof so take my words with a grain of salt"

> I tried in those posts to put attention to those as well! But people are overfocusing on the jokes right now which is frustrating. There's only so much space in twitter images and text to reclarify my point people aren't going to fucking fully read. I would not of had probably half of this backlash if I ignored the ask about the bestality stuff, because people are too numb skulled to realize I'm talking about this person joking about fucking dogs repeatively and commonly, and not just "shaming someone for their attractions" <-- of which I'm not doing. I hate this community sometimes, any little thing I say is commonly misinterupted and valued here. This already happened before wirh the feralsoren shit, every single time I showcase someone their fan base or friends comes at me and disregards half of a paragraph and points at a little section and pees themselves.
> I can't just show you a dump of screenshots and say "this person's behavior is weird..." without someone crying on their knees that it's not callout worthy and that I'm anti-zoo, and putting in my mouth I explicitly said they were an abuser or rapist.

Nekohime @nekohime115 · Sep 5

You made a callout post, bottom line. You were not just simply talking to others in your circle about behavior that concerned you, you made a drama post with the intent to harm me. Your intent was to turn people against me.

1 3 76

Nekohime @nekohime115 · Sep 5

And not to mention in your initial response you said the evidence was DAMNING! However now you backpedal and claim you never intended on any of this.

1 3 79

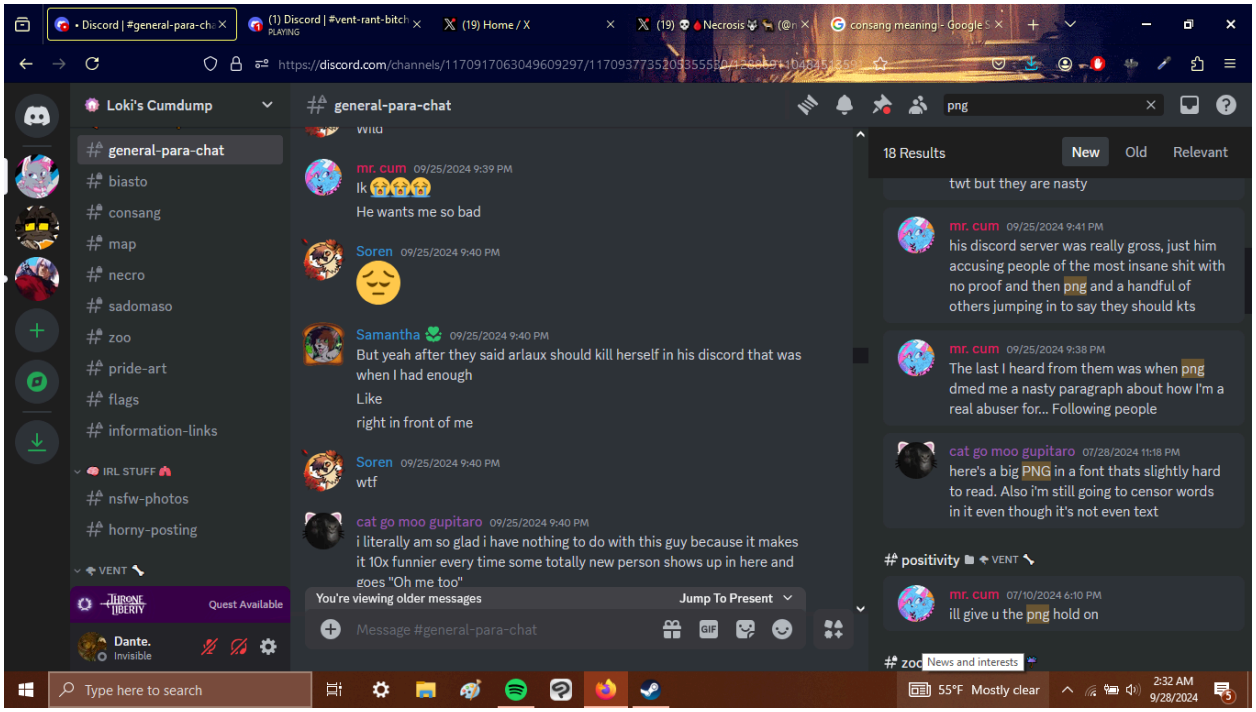

Nekohime @nekohime115 · Sep 5

I'm not a fucking abuser, I have not and never will abuse an animal, yet you and your circle are claiming that I have or will. Somebody claimed that I seemed like I was seconds away from raping an animal.

1 3 73

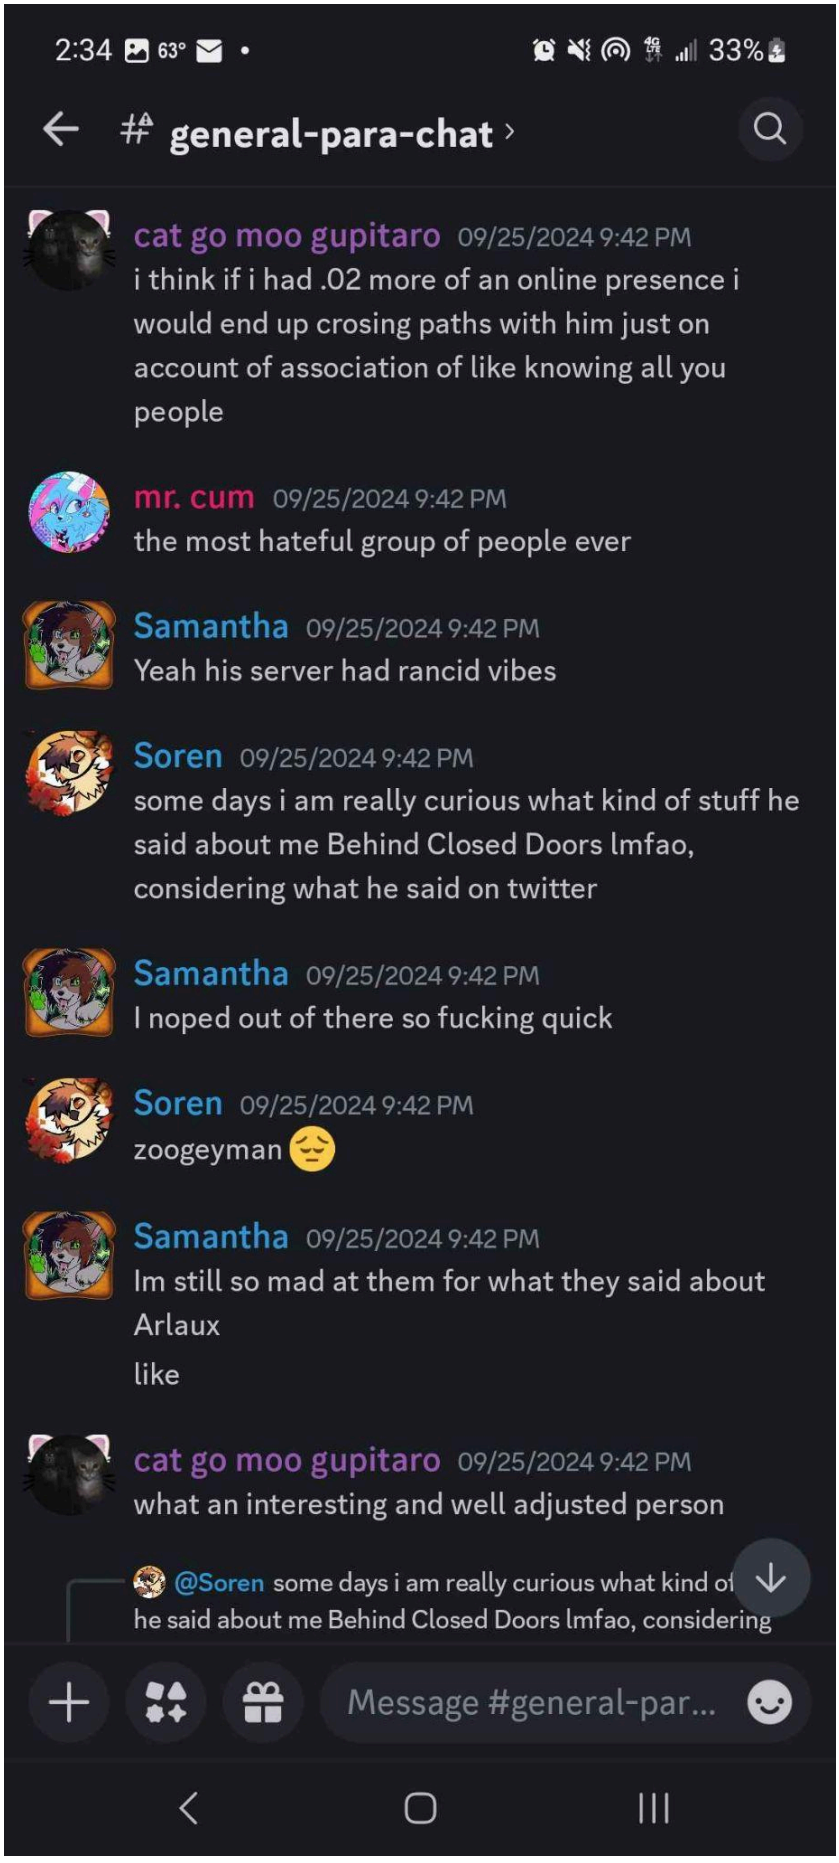

Nekohime @nekohime115 · Sep 5

And only after people begin to overlook what YOU personally thought about it all and focus in on you doing the same exact things is when you begin to backpedal, because now you get the backlash too and it's no longer only me being directly harmed by your post.

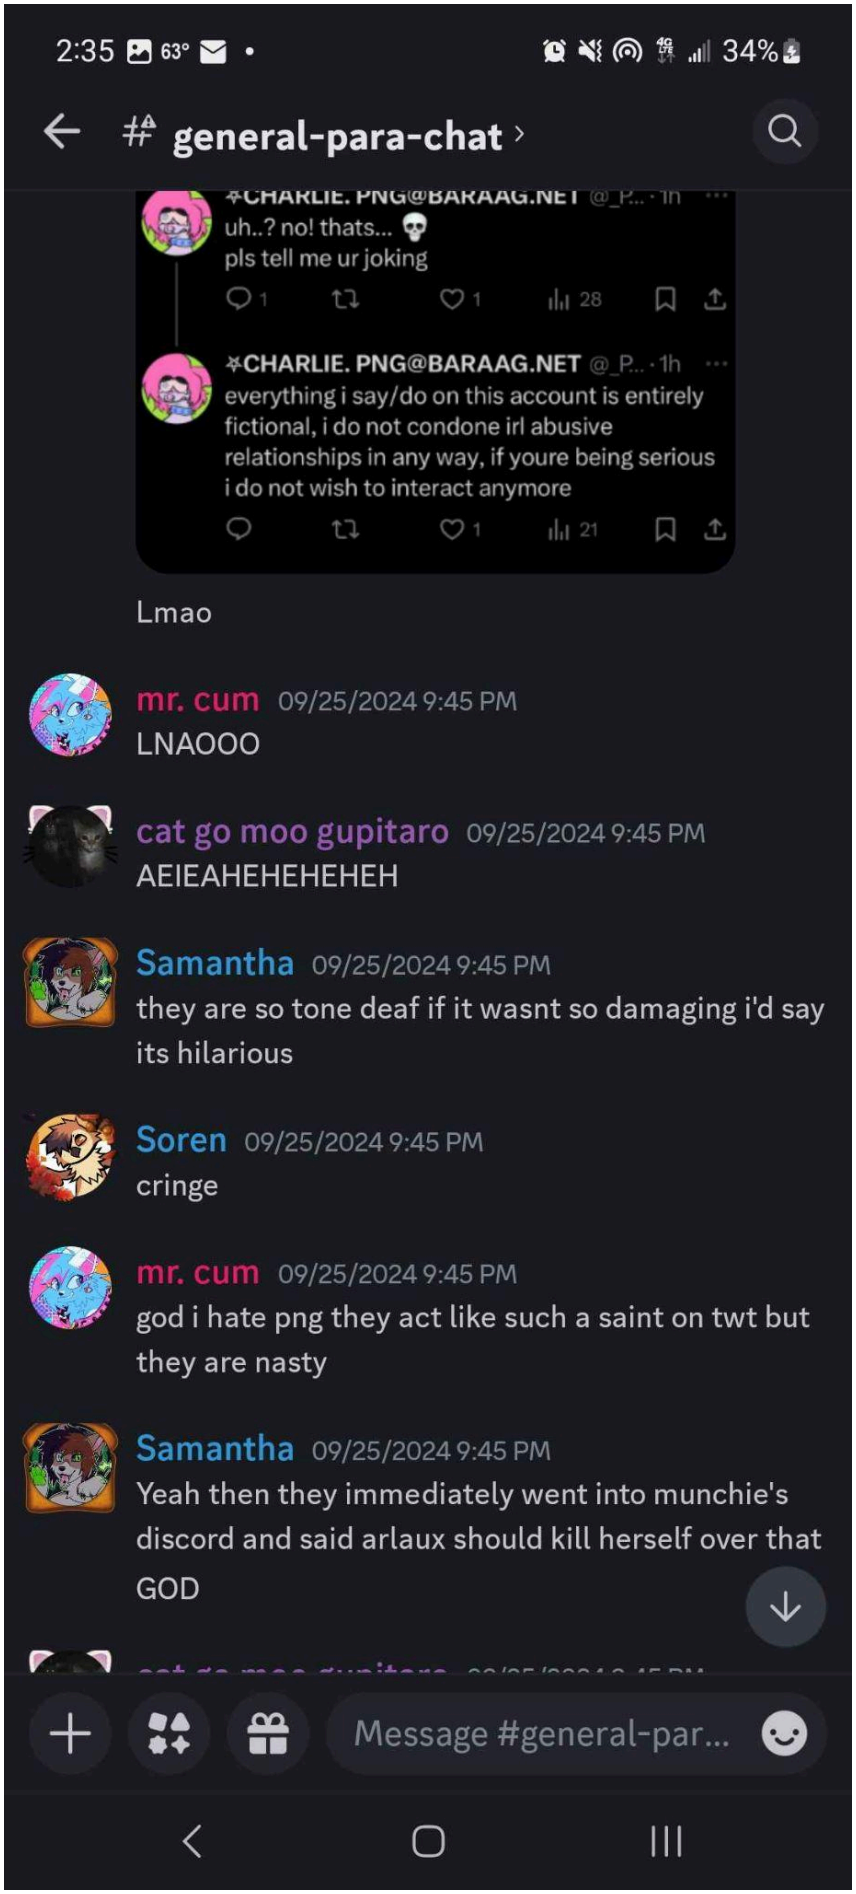

Kestrel screenshots continue with what Sammy is saying about Jack, he switches to mobile mode.

After they get a bit off topic, Sammy sends an arsenal of old JACKRABBLT anons. By this point he had already apologized for airing out a claim that wasn't fully vetted, but even then, Sammy did end up being friends with multiple groomers. These are also insanely old screenshots.

Anonymous Pokefucker asked about 2 hours ago

Please don't post if this accidentally isn't anonymous: There's someone I've been side eyeing for a while but I'm too scared to say anything because of her 1k+ following and because it's followed by a lot of other popular critters in the community including Frankie and Wynter. I have barely 100 followers, I wouldn't stand a chance.

https://twitter.com/nekohime1152 (https://twitter.com/Artsan52222) and her girlfriend https://twitter.com/Arlaux_Vix claim to be anti contact but I don't know what to believe. I did digging because I was getting... weird vibes. I'm not asking you to air this out unless you want but I want your opinion because I trust your judgement; I asked a few other critters and they said it's nothing to worry about since they both say they are anti contact. You don't have to reply to this or even read it if you don't wish to! I am just... conflicted.

Pro contact flag and the tweet under is self explanatory. If it's a joke it isn't clear.

https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1148708686647898105/1071356802263564/image.png

I assume she knows this is the pro contact flag since she interacted with Pc_foxy's antizoo post.

If this is a joke it isn't clear either... or funny.

https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1148708686647898105/1071357210702684336/image.png

Am I right to be suspicious or am I just paranoid?

Nekohime I have been side-eyeing for a while due to their weird behavior and as well as my mutual (not naming who, you can come out on your own if you'd wish to prove this) saying that nekohime was weird with them when they were 17, but I did not push for proof. This is certainly damning to me, as a lot of these people who fringe on labels tend to be pro contact or pro contact leaning, feralsoren is a good example of this. Thanks for uncovering this info to me/us.

I didn't claim either of them were actual dog fuckers, in fact I use specific wording to say that at best they are tolerating pro contacts or at worst pro contact. (Unless it's the claim of grooming, but I already admitted I had no proof of that, thus to take it with a grain of salt). Anyone can do what they want with this infomation (within reason, no dumb doxxing or harassment, talking about unfollowing / blocking), I

Posting this on anon bc I really don't want to have the nekohime mob after me (not the same anon as the OP)

https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1152449570949959796/1148727893686698852/Screenshot_20230905-205153.png

Firstly, nobody is calling your girlfriend or you an abuser. What we are saying is that both of you have made suspicious tweets. What people are calling you is, at WORSE, supporters of pro-contacts.

Also the people who are questioning your character as a person, are not siding with Pc_foxy. So to claim such is dishonest and deplorable. Plus why would Munchie, who is a paraphile itself, side with someone vehemently against paraphiles? Do you understand how ridiculous that sounds?

Pro-contact as a label ≠ make someone an abuser. What it does mean is that the person using that label supports animal abusers, even if they themselves aren't one.

I hope you and your GF both gain, not only some critical thinking skills, but the ability to not pull the victim card like a middle schooler pulling a fire alarm.

Yeah, nekohime's gf is not happy I blocked her after responding, as my internet right I don't have to debate you. She's basically shrodingers zoophile by stating this:

I tried in those posts to put attention to those as well! But people are overfocusing on the jokes right now Which is frustrating. There's only so much space in twitter images and text to reclarify my point people aren't going to fucking fully read. I would not of had probably half of this backlash if I ignored the ask about the bestality stuff, because people are too numb skulled to realize I'm talking about this person joking about fucking dogs repeatively and commonly, and not just "shaming someone for their attractions" <-- of which I'm not doing. I hate this community sometimes, any little thing I say is commonly misinterupted and valued here. This already happened before wirh the feralsoren shit, every single time I showcase someone their fan base or friends comes at me and disregards half of a paragraph and points at a little section and pees themselves.
I can't just show you a dump of screenshots and say "this person's behavior is weird..." without someone crying on their knees that it's not callout worthy and that I'm anti-zoo, and putting in my mouth I explicitly said they were an abuser or rapist.

Correction, it was Nekohime's private account who is following Captivating Canines, not her gf. Actually, someone messaged her about the account and it responded by shrugging it off.

https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1148708086647898195/1148792824825917573/image.png

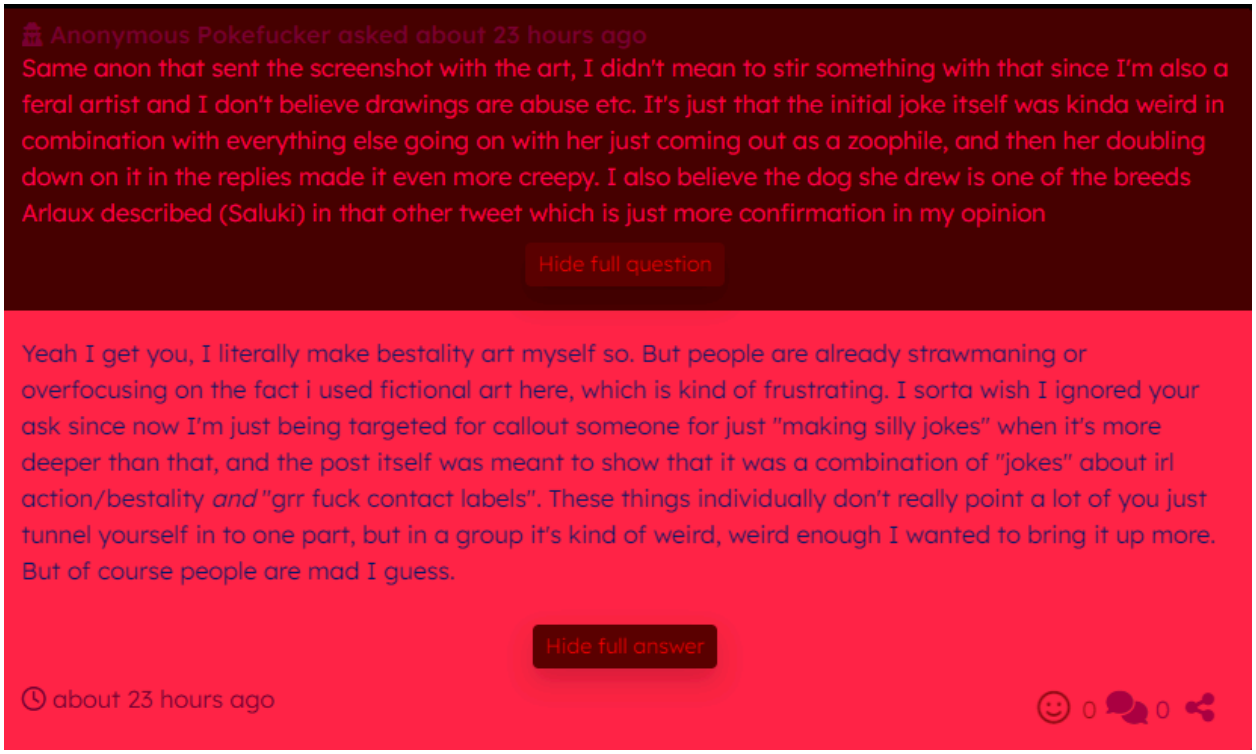

Almost an hour later, she's even still following the bot despite knowing from both the anon on its Retrospring AND the callout.

https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1148708086647898195/1148792923941519451/image.png

And even if we ignore the jokes, there's still:

Dismissing the FeralSoren callout despite evidence towards Soren being pro contact (...And saying that even if Soren DID post real life bestiality, it "couldn't be bothered to care." Regardless of if you think Soren is innocent or not, Neko admits she would not care if Soren ACTUALLY did this beyond disgust and implying that anything else would be childish ("we're adults, y'all.").) Responding to the FeralSoren situation by taking the anti contact stance out of her bio at the time. Her and Arlaux agreeing that contact labels are "stupid." Arlaux praising the pro contact zoophile flag and Neko liking the post despite both knowing it is specifically the pro contact flag (shown by her and Neko interacting with PC_foxy's post where nearly every single comment was saying this.) Following CaptivatingCanines without caring that 1) the pfp is the pro contact flag, 2) the owner is a pro contact zoophile which implies that this bot could be sexual and 3) MANY who comment on the posts there are sexualizing the animals, which is condoned and encouraged. The bot is not and never will be "just dogs."
It does not matter if you say you are anti contact when your actions don't reflect that. People have lied before, intentionally or not. You can't be anti contact while simultaneously taking a neutral contact stance by not caring every time you are confronted with information like this. I thought we all agreed that neutral contacts are not anti abuse. A neutral contact stance can be just as dangerous as a pro-contact stance: you are not directly advocating for animal abuse, but you are clearly letting it slide when others do, and letting it slide always always always excuses their behavior in their eyes. The more you are okay with what they do, the more they think that it's okay. The more people follow and support and interact with them, the more they think their actions are fine. This is why people have been called out for knowingly interacting with and following these accounts. It's excusable when you genuinely do not know, but when you are TOLD that you are following someone who is pro contact (much like Neko's situation) and don't care, you are not anti contact. Carelessness is dangerous and that makes these people compliant at best. Instead of taking note of this, both are doubling down instead.

Hide full question

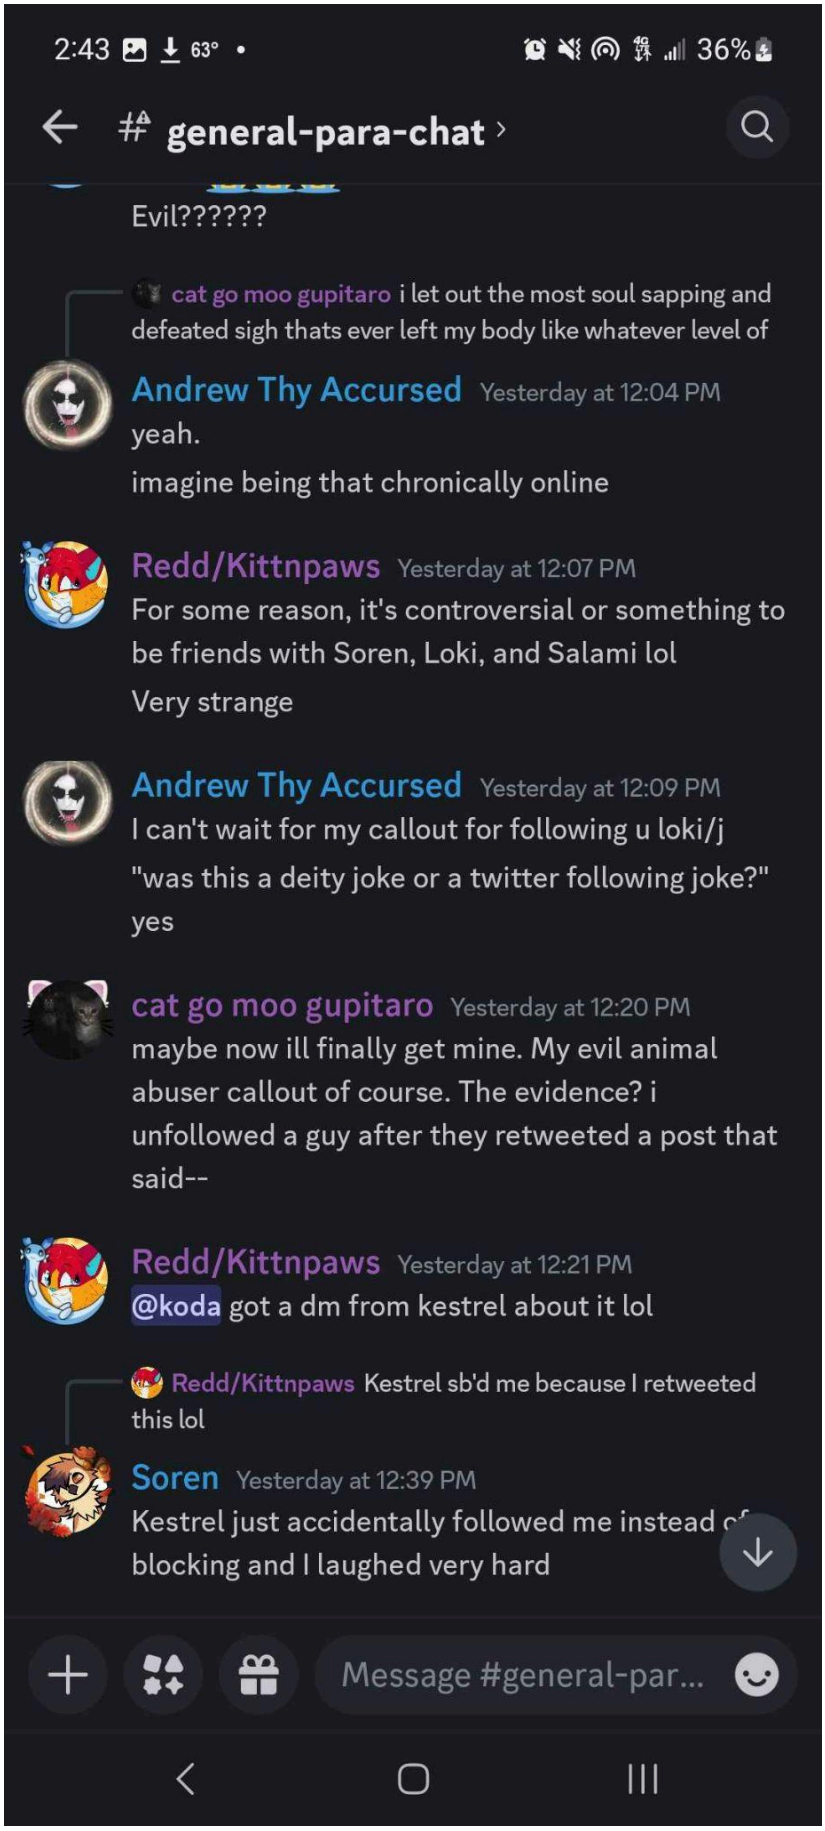

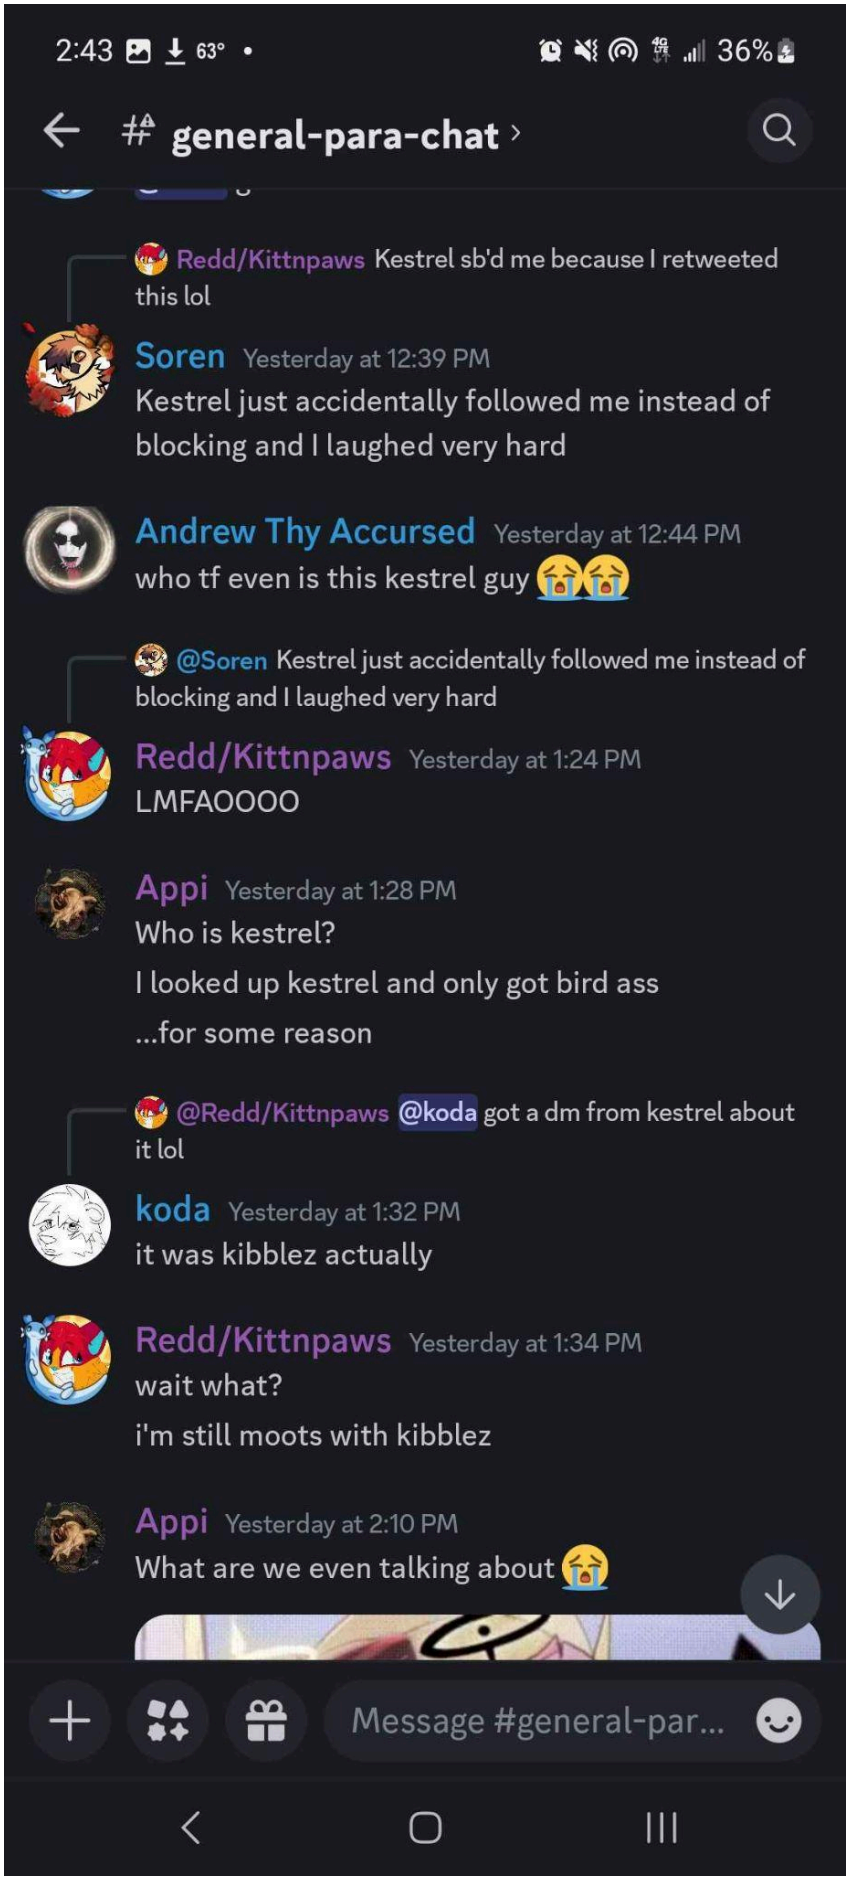

Then they start talking about JACKRABBLT's "victims" (despite multiple people in their community continuing to support his abusers).

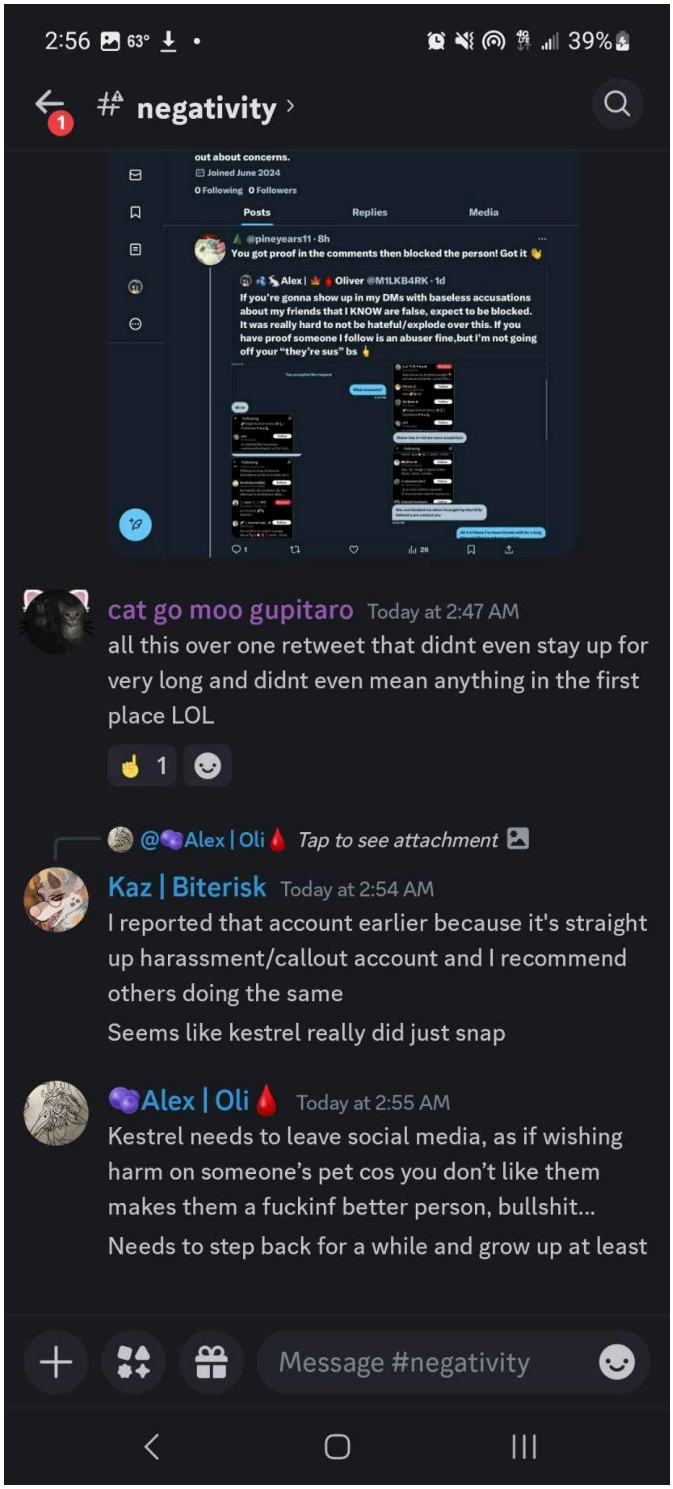

Chat seeing there are consequences to their actions and by associating with other abuse apologists, many artists block them. Should have been a no brainer that'd happen.

sorry to bring this up again but it just ouuughhhh makes me so goddamn irritated. These people being like "pro-para spaces aren't safe for minors. You know what is safe for minors though? Having them go to therapy, an institution which historically never hurts deviant kids and also for sure wouldn't require them to come out to their parents, also historically super understanding of their children's issues" like HOLY FUCK YOU PEOPLE ARE SO STUPID AND DISINGENUOUS IT HURTS MY BRAIN
like I understand the need to feel protective over kids online and personally I don't think there are pro para spaces that are super friendly towards kids, but I also think that about twitter and social media nowadays IN GENERAL. But just these people's dumbass solution is to stifle minors that are struggling with accepting their paraphilias instead of actually MAKING SPACES THAT ARE SAFE FOR KIDS the modern age of the internet is inherently an unsafe space for minors and we can't just kick kids off the internet, they still need freedom and community and a place to express themselves. People under 18 struggle and feel the need to belong and accept themselves just as much as people over 18 paraphilias are not the same as kinks or fetishes and talking about them is not inherently sexually explicit. Not anymore than talking about gay s explicit. Not anymore than talking about gay sexual attraction. No it's not so different from being gay that is automatically becomes an explicit talking point. It's just an attraction. Create spaces that give kids freedom without the explicit parts of paraphilias, just like those exist for lgbt or shipping and fandom culture. This shouldn't be that hard of an idea, it's just everyone is drinking pedo panic juice and looking at people saying that minors deserve just as much self acceptance and freedom as adults and immediately call it an excuse to groom kids is the exact conservative shit that sees anything even tangentially related to sexuality as groomer shit

elkhound Today at 4:59 PM
we should be focused on actually being constructive for paraphiles instead of pointing fingers at everyone. Like who the fuck does that help? We could spend out time doing something actually helpful but everyone is a keyboard warrior. jesus christ nobody is willing to have an actual conversation. eveyrone would rather run wild with some fucking tweet and take the worst possible interpretation of it instead because that makes them feel good. but it doesn't actually help anyone.
ok that's enough of my rant. I needed to get that out and I wasn't gonna go start a fight with someone over it. I'm good now

I've had a few people see a video of Dax consenting to have an injection done and argue that dogs cannot consent.
They described it more like compliance, than consent. Like I was teaching Dax to put his head on a towel for a treat, when there is SO much more to it than that!
When we look at the basic definition of 'Consent' which is: 'permission for something to happen or agreement to do something.' cooperative care ticks this box, first and foremost.
Secondly, we need to look at the context

Even more defending of Ezra/Critterkiddo.

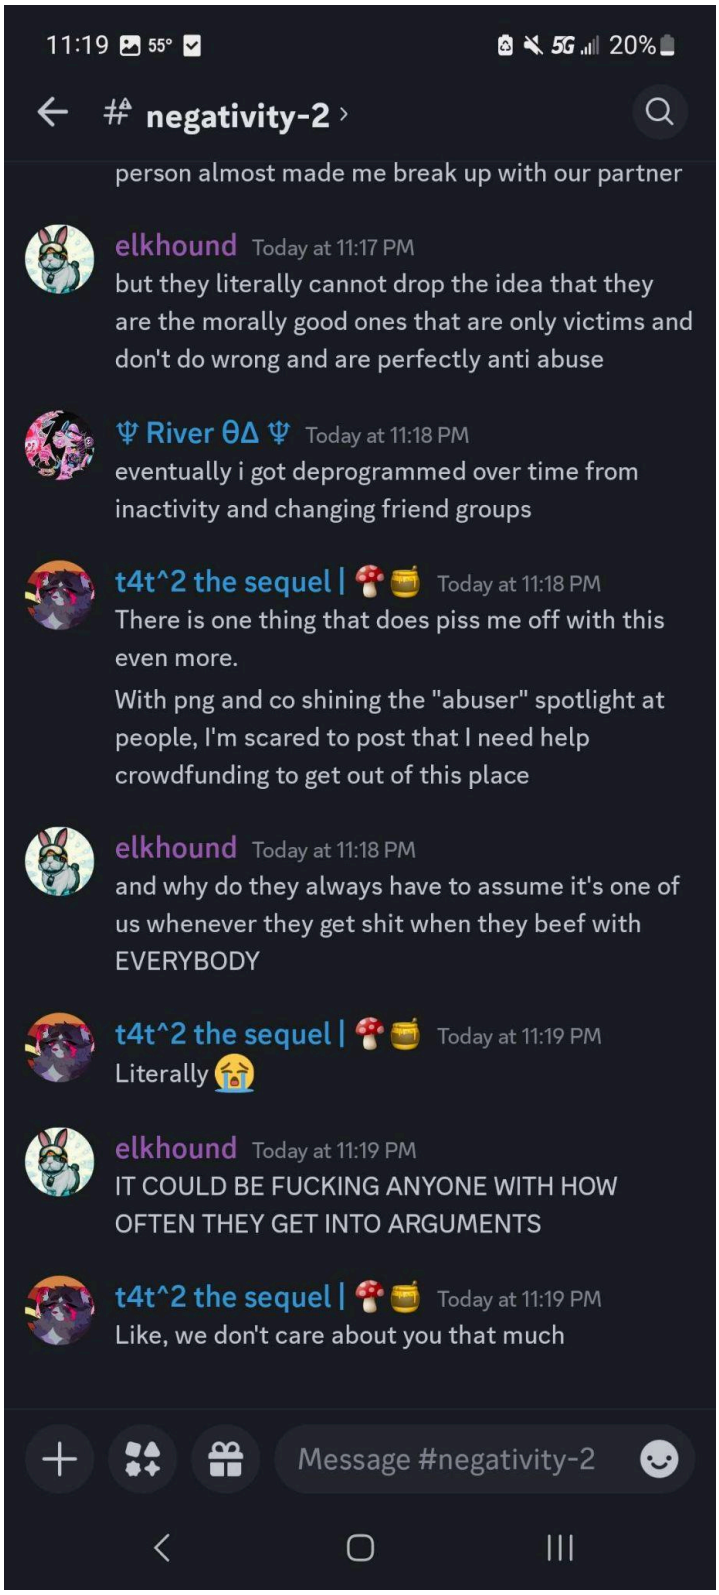

Ezra starts a conversation about Jack's friend group at the time (2025), they slyly mention how Kestrel and JACKRABBLT have gotten doxxed. "PLUR" was this community's favorite strawman, as they often argued you weren't "PLUR" for not suppressing abuse as they did.

Contradictory statements the chat made, since many of these people tolerated Redd who loves to get into drama with everyone and anyone, and has a vast history of being a serial harasser.

Loki's Server Members

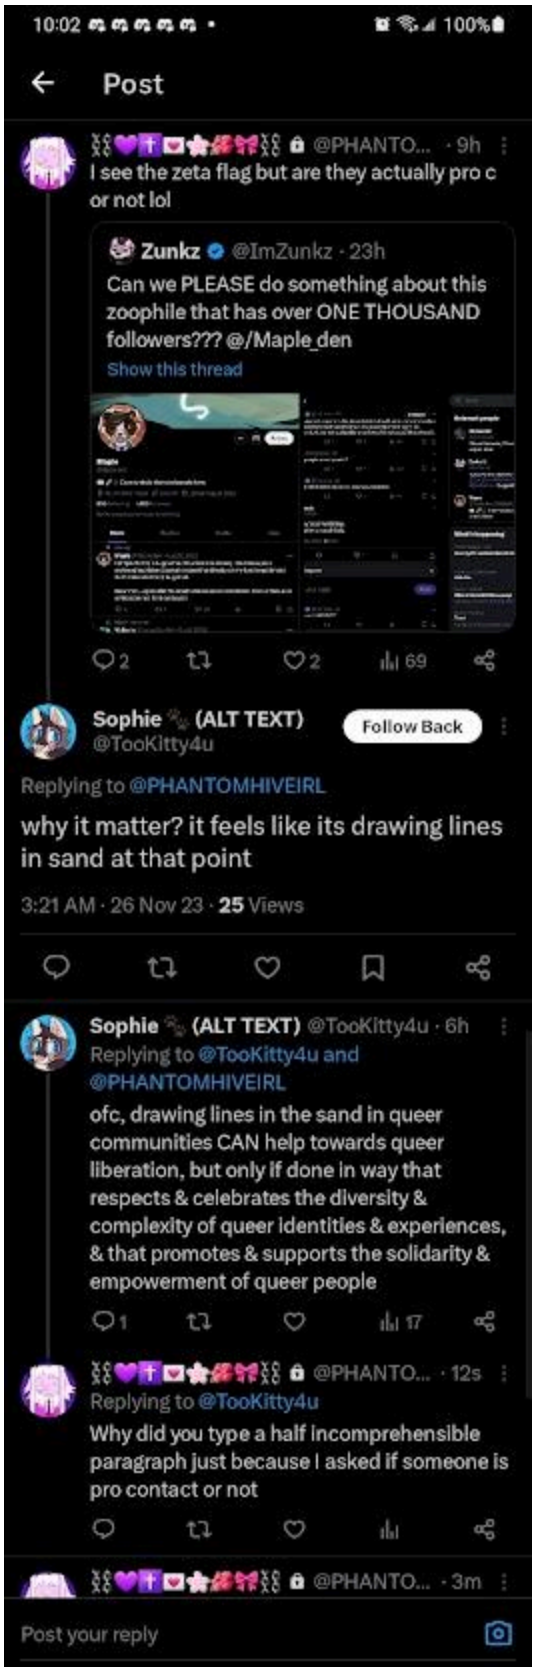

Loki had some pretty messed up server members he refused to properly ban. One of them had requested JACKRABBLT to draw them bondage vore art at the ripe age of 16 on furaffinity many moons ago. Upon JACKRABBLT realizing who they were, a confrontation happened, which led to Jack getting ghosted over the whole ordeal. Another member Sophie is clearly a predator which nothing again is done about it in Jack's dms at the time. He also lets Redd get off with admitting to being a predator as well.
Loki is usually aware of these people's actions but chooses to stay around them, or simply does nothing about it.

You know whay
Considering most minors who interact with NSFW content just lie about their age, these people should just delete their accounts since they might be interacting with minors too
Unless they're ID checking literally every single person who they follow and follows them, they can't know for sure.
Also, it's not irresponsible to not be able to comb through every single profile that touches your account, especially when you're fucking disabled

Pukapikachu

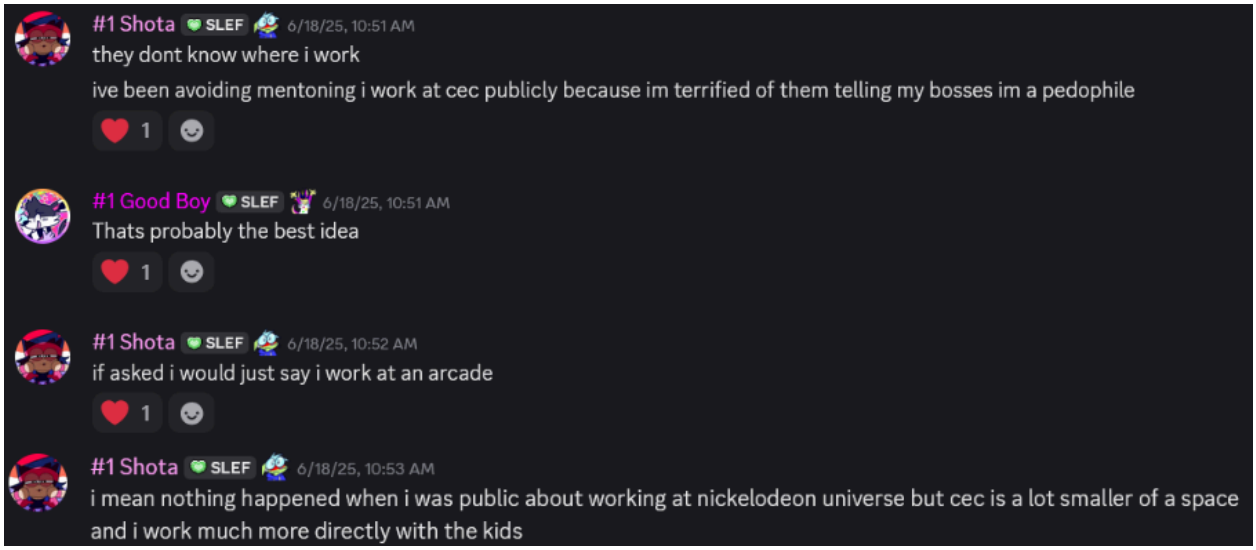

Pukapikachu made a very explicit rape threat in PNG's strawpage that was handwritten, and struggles to even genuinely apologize about it. Loki of course kept him in the server.

CHIMERACOCKS

Loki's partner, also a pedophile and abuse supporter. He has self admitted about how he wears the Chuck E Cheese suit while butt naked, the group only claiming it was a joke when public backlash started bubbling. Other people have to use that suit, and Chimera was interacting with children like that. Typically, people wear compression gear even for mascot suits, especially to prevent sweat ruining the suit.

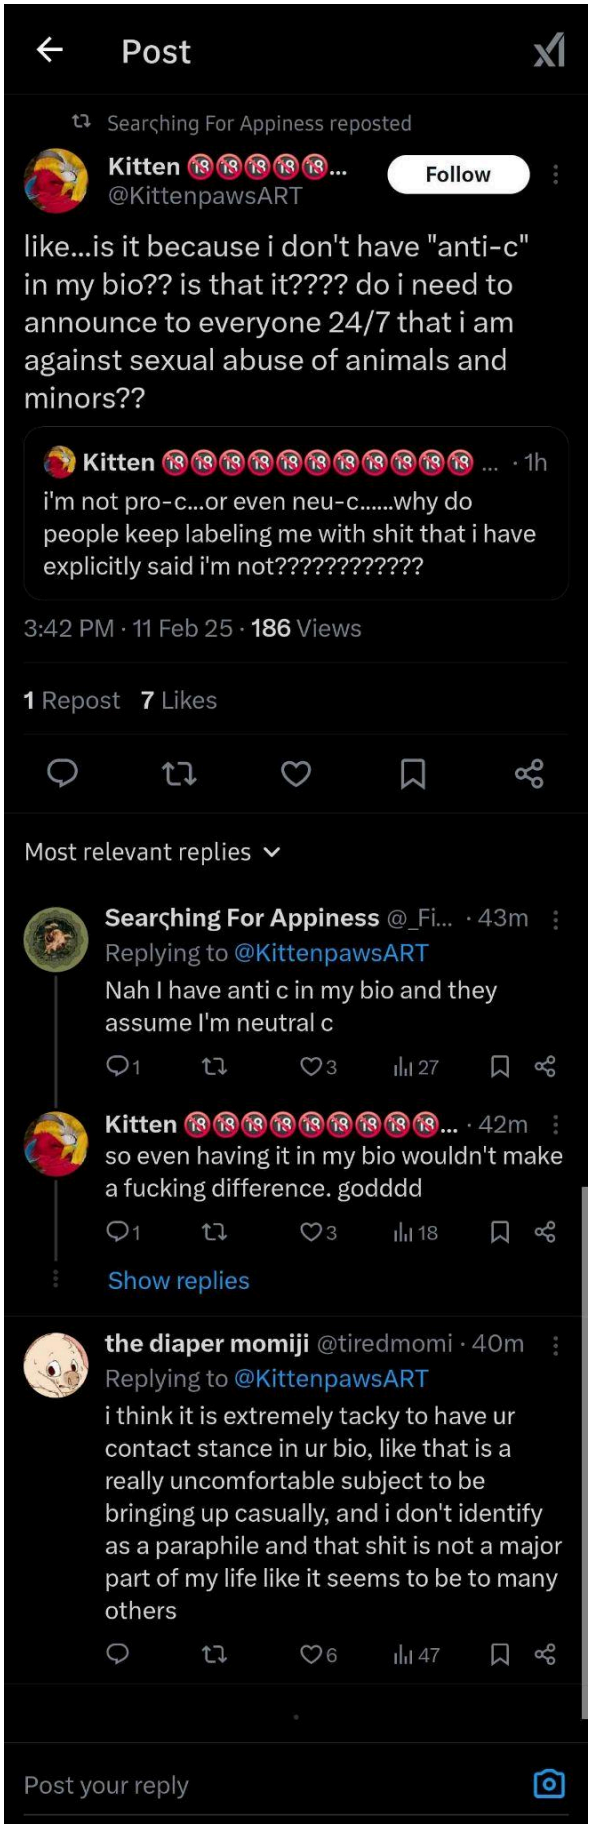

REDDZART

Reddzart is a predator and abuse sympathizer and seems to show up everywhere among bad people. He's also a stalker, constantly begs for attention, and is envious of other people's art as his own has looked like the same stiff dog turd for over a decade. By this point in the doc he's definitely shown up quite a few times.

Hi, I'm sorry to bother you like this, but I'd just like to deeply apologize for what I said last year when you were venting. It was incredibly inappropriate of me to bring up the very same thing you were venting about and I do regret it. Not because it was used against me later, but because it hurt you and caused you distress.
I often say things without thinking and it's caused a lot of hurt feelings. I'm trying to do better about it but it's difficult due to my autism...
Anyway, feel free to respond or not, I'm not expecting you to accept my apology at all. I've just been thinking about it a lot and I truly do feel bad. I hope you and Charlie have a nice day today.

Ridiculous defamation about JACKRABBLT making an adoptable character based on Loki's cat(for 50 cents!!!). Apparently this is something Loki mentioned behind the scenes on Discord and couldn't keep his mouth shut about it. One of Loki's cats is named Mold Spore, but you see, this is a real life cat. What Jack made is clearly a base recolor adoptable of a FICTIONAL cat that was nicknamed "mold spore" due to its color scheme. Loki doesn't own the copyright mold spore cats.

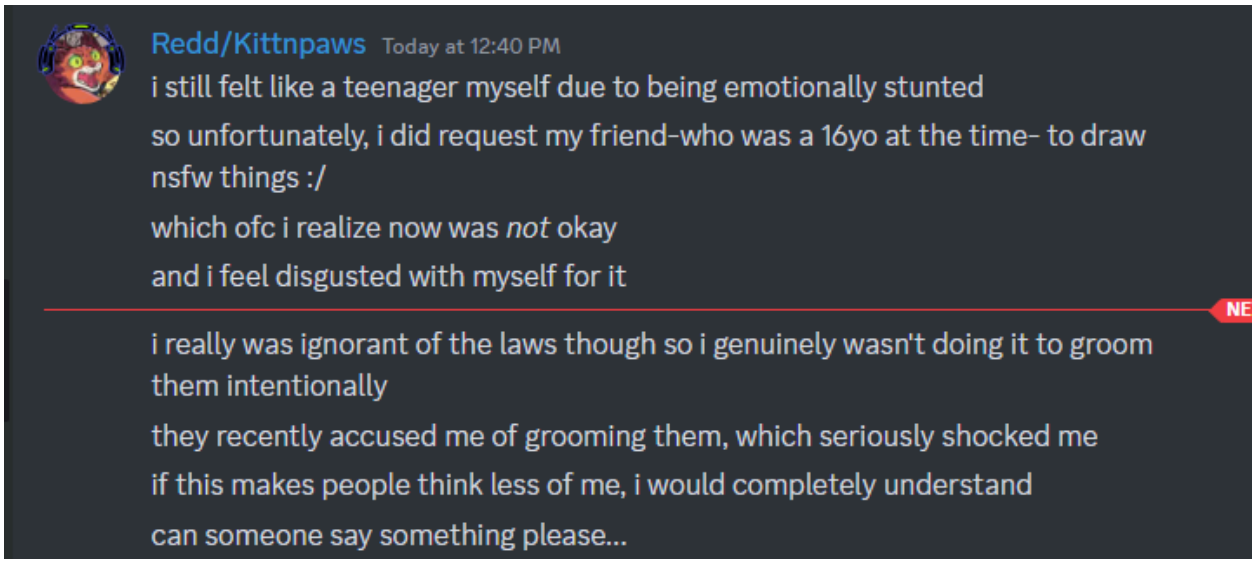

Screenshot of Redd using an alternate account to continue to harass someone who he knows doesn't like him. He then comments on their post.

Predatory Behavior

Redd has a history of predatory behavior, to the shock of probably no one. He decided to admit the very damning thing of making a 16 year old draw them NSFW artwork in response to something JACKRABBLT said of a similar scenario where he was the victim in Loki's server. He attempts to excuse what he did with him "being emotionally stunted" to why he had to make his 16 year old friend draw him porn, which is insane.

On top of that, because the chat goes silent, he begins to sperg out in chat, begging for attention. He pesters JACKRABBLT in dms about the matter, to which JACKRABBLT is very uncomfortable. (Note: Jack is most certainly white lying when he says he will "do nothing" about this. He spread it outside of the server, including even publicly at the time. I mean this doc exists.)

Kestrel Defender

To the shock of no one, of course Redd is a defender of Kestrel in 2026 as well. Here he is joyously admitting how much he loves drawing Kestrel and then responds to his private account.

Redd was really desperate over Kestrel as he clearly likes Kestrel's art. Here's one example where he brings up some of his ugly art to talk about him.

“Grooming”

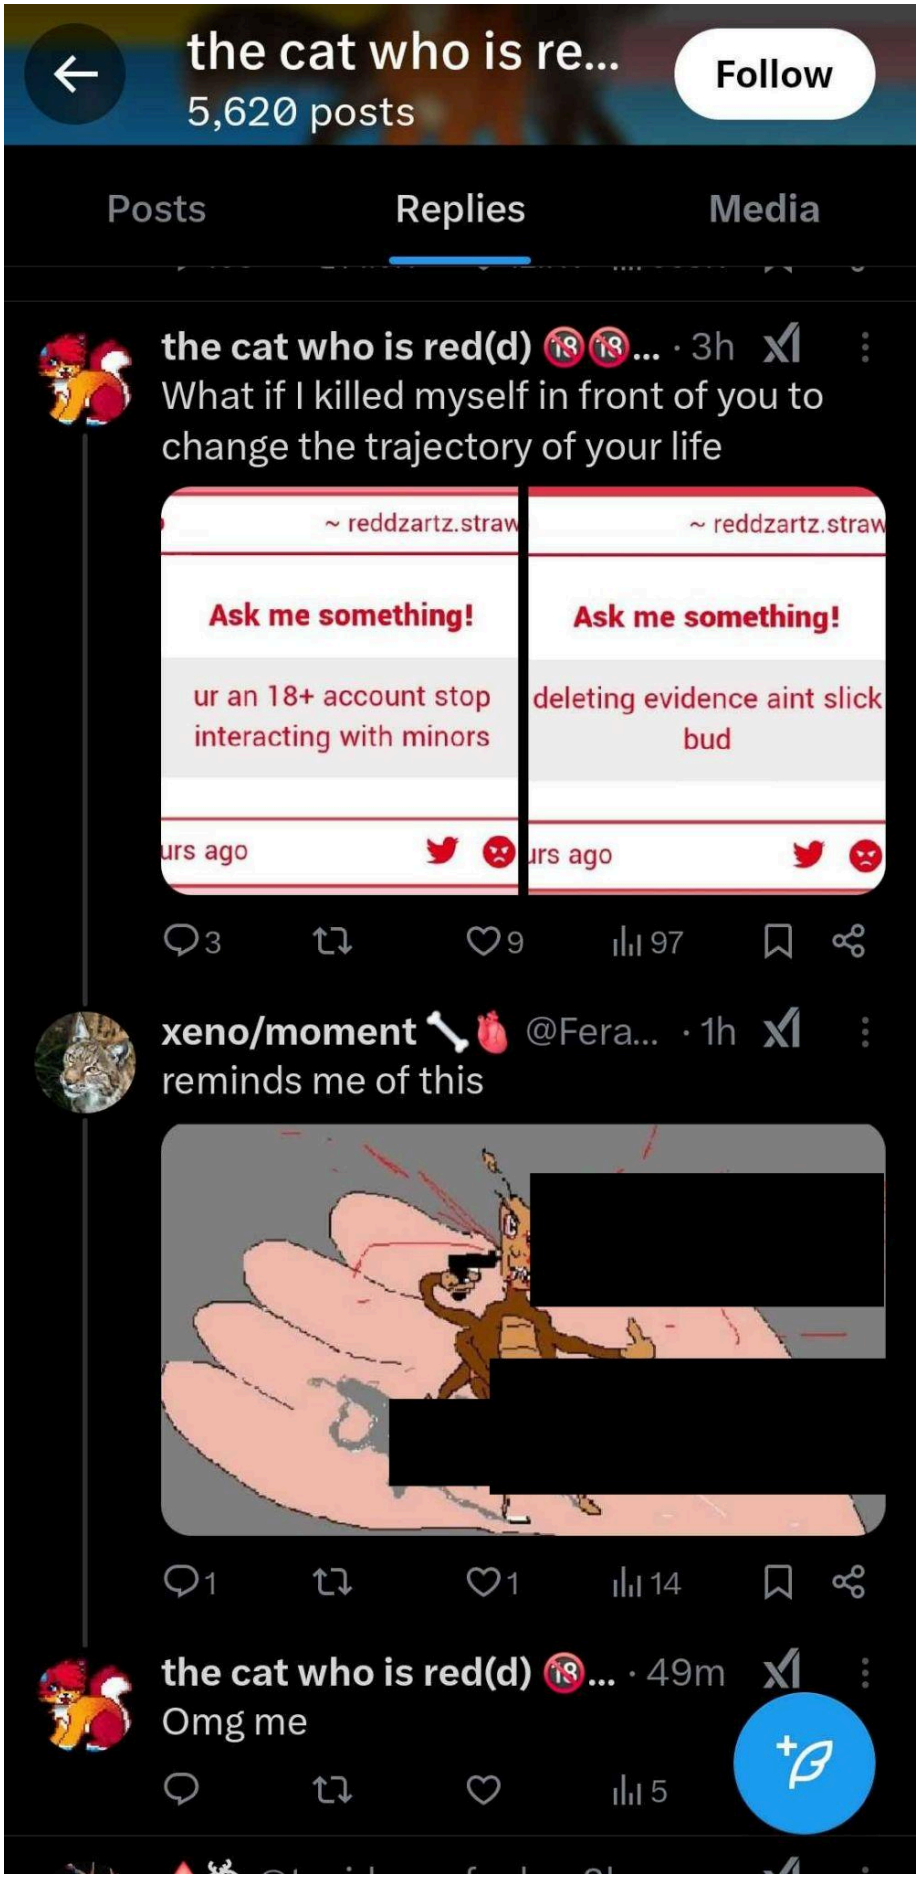

Redd wanted attention so he started proclaiming he is “grooming” people, with someone who had a bio that said they were a minor. Redd claims this was a joke, and begins to also mention more adults in this “bit” but it’s not funny. His account was reported to a cybertipline over this in the very slight chance the “litterofblood” person was really being groomed, and even then, Redd consistently loves being around abusers. Super dangerous and distasteful, and on top of that, horrific considering he made a 16 year old draw him porn.

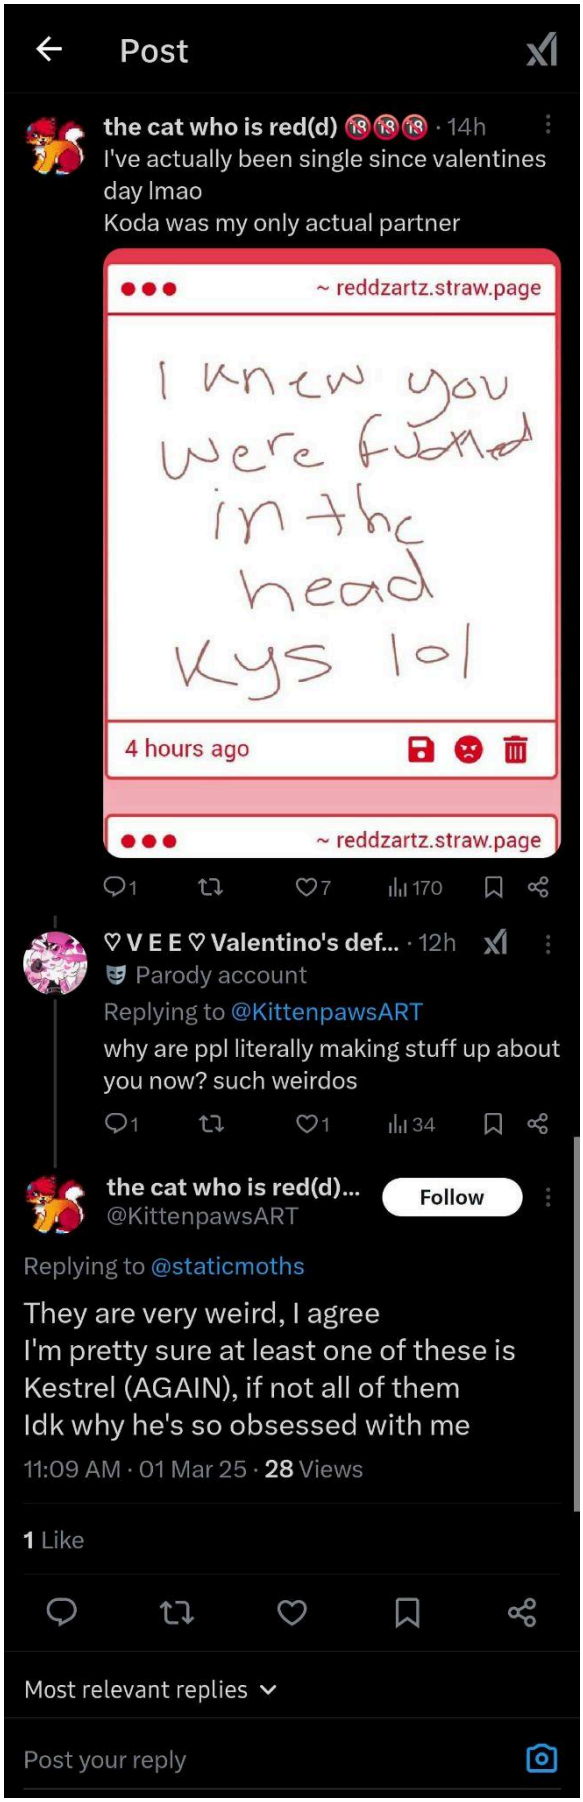

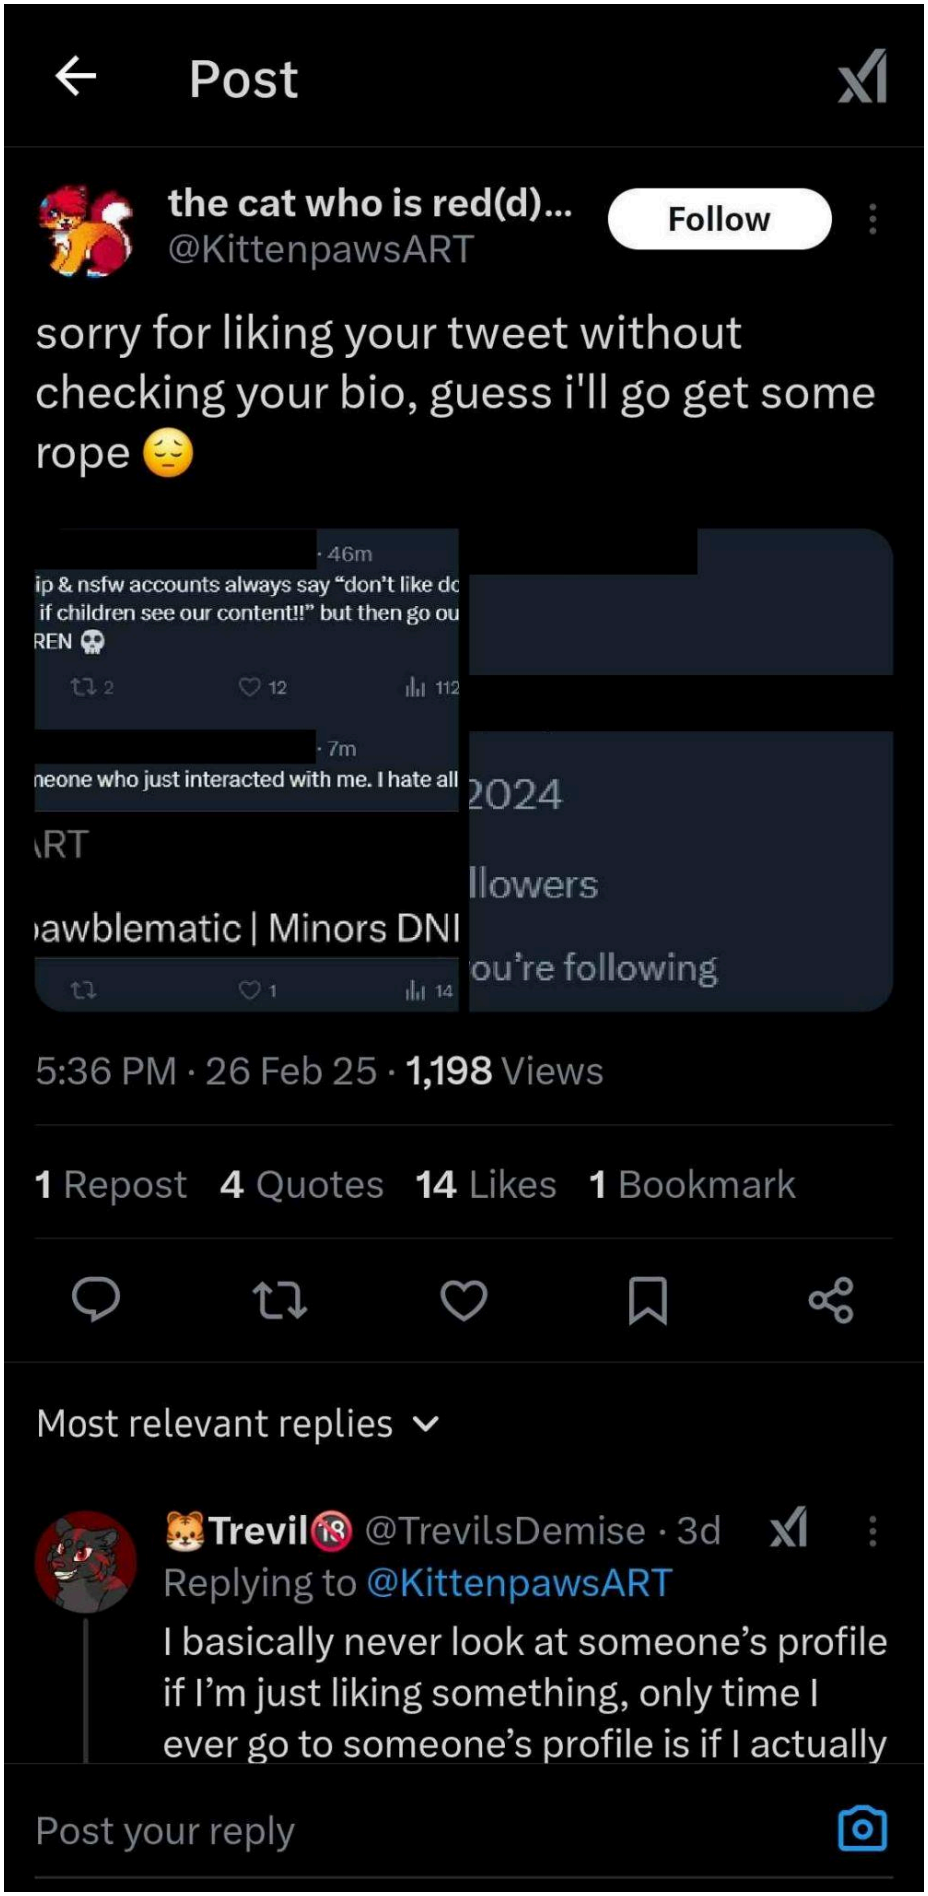

More obsessive sperging over not checking bios.

KRIS2PAW

KRIS2PAW is a zoophile groomer who was also a part of the Propara community. He spent months lying to the community about his stance. He was glorifying past animal sexual abuse he had done as a minor aswell. On top of that, he also was grooming and interacting with minors. The scariest part of all? This guy is a father in real life.

KRIS2PAW's Block Evading and Harassment

RIN WORMBURROW

Rin Wormburrow is… something. And by that I mean, really bad. He defended Soren when it came out that Soren was following zooierthanthou (and being in other zeta spaces). He’s also just really bigoted. Ridiculously bigoted. Seems to be a problem wherever he tries to go.

its fascinating to me that their justification for sexual abuse is that the victim won't experience "as much trauma" - then ofc in the next breath they're like "dogs are soooo much smarter than a child" the cutoff for consent isnt 'as smart as a 3yr old' but yk aspen
a 6 yr old child is smarter than a 3 yr old (which im not sure dogs are as smart as a 3yr old, im not even sure if that sort of comparison can be clearly drawn but whatever) but they cant consent. same with a 10 yr old. and so on. not even a GOOD argument but thats not shocking

I don't know what the fuck I have to apologize for, unless it is just involving myself with a spat fight and everyone else. That was retarded. I am retarded, sorry for that. Geniunely.. You sat there spam tweeting shit and going out of your way to harass me, including spamming the shit out of my retrospring and using using absurd anon ask about soren going homeless as an argument I actually wished them to go homeless or whatever. I'm losing my memory of what occured, but it was all petty and retarded. It doesn't warrant you going into a public server and calling me an abuser and yata yata yata too from an unrelated discussion because oh god I mentioned antis and pro cs

I think between the both of us, we both did behaviors that could he considered bad, espsically since it was a spat fight. You bad like weird tweets about bestality and arguments and other shit idk what you expected me to react at the time

I think my reaction to soren at this point was an over-reaction if in regards to that, but I just don't. Want to talk to them anymore and stay in my own lane. Past all of the dumb furry drama. I wish they had made some indicator (like they did recently(of an actual stance than what they did at the time. I did not say soren abused animals or some shit like that, I reclarified that multiple times

Critterkiddo/EZRA/toonimal

Critterkiddo/Toonimal otherwise known as Ezra is already pretty well documented, and has already shown up in the doc. Critterkiddo is a pedophile who hosted two different mastodons, first offkey.cat and then later oddballs.space. Both of these mastodons had problems with predators, and Ezra even had predators as a part of his moderation team on these sites. Keep in mind some of the old versions of the Ezra document may have misinformation regarding JACKRABBLT, or about JACKRABBLT being an associate while Ezra was hosting these mastodons. Ezra really doesn't like JACKRABBLT (as seen in the Soren section), and JACKRABBLT also informed his own discord server of what Ezra did, resulting in him being overthrown. After a confrontation, the doc was corrected to exclude all of the misinformation on JACKRABBLT and thankfully corrected. Some other members of this doc are also included.

@Weyowi @nullitope ah okay, for legal reasons. If the laws are how they say, you'll probably need to find something that isn't based in the US.

I know the mods there are reasonable though, so if you have information about the laws that you think they're missing you could share it with them

@elliot @Weyowi It's less about current laws (as far as I know) and more about what laws might come into existence in the future. I've received concerns from several users and admins of other instances regarding realistic children in AI art, even SFW, and I just don't want to risk it, as much as I hate to limit anyone's creativity.

Rule 6 has been updated to read:

> *AI art is allowed, but must be disclosed as such, and AI art of children - even nonsexual - should not appear anywhere near photorealistic.

While we understand the benefits of AI art, the fact is that laws (and training methods) around it are murky, especially laws regarding AI art trained on real people - especially especially children. If you make AI art, please do not post anything here that appears anywhere near realistic. Please note that this includes several 3D styles that would ordinarily be fine by non-AI art standards, such as "Pixar-style."

Any AI-generated art that trends too close to realism will be immediately taken down.

Thank you for understanding!

Like could you guys imagine if anti-zoos tried to start a campaign against dog breeders jerking off their studs for semen collection?? Or a campaign against farmers fisting and forcibly impregnating their cows? If anti-zoos genuinely gave a shit about "animal abuse," they would be protesting these things. But they only care about punishing "degenerates," so they only go after queer zoophiles.

there are very few circumstances in which i feel like necrozoophilia could truly be disrespectful. one specific edge case is that it would probably be kinda uncool to mess with an elephant skeleton in the wild or whatever because elephants can recognize their dead

no one who's anti-c for zoophilia has ever been able to explain why it's ok for dog breeders to give their dogs handjobs but not ok for a zoo to do the exact same thing 😭 like ohh okay so it's not abuse as long as you make money and don't enjoy it? gosh how convenient

if you're a self-proclaimed "freak" but you're willing to trust the openly bigoted serial harassers on kiwifarms over your fellow queer outcasts then you're a bootlicking poser tbh and you don't deserve the air you breathe

if you're against incest to the point where you think a non-reproductive and/or step-incestuous relationship between two consenting adults who didn't even grow up together is abusive and wrong then you just as driven by cultural superstition and hatred as the average homophobe is for the record i personally am okay with more forms of consensual incest than just the one described in the above post; my point here is that it's probably the tamest type of taboo relationship there is, but self-proclaimed progressives still have an issue with it, Because Incest also i highly question the genetic risk argument as well, to be clear. i find it very ableist and needlessly fearmongering. just trying to cover all the bases when it comes to anti-incest arguments because i'd love to know what excuses could possibly be left.

These people are morally lucky. They either grew up with or by chance happened into having the morally correct view on homosexuality, they didn't apply any moral reasoning or thought to decide what's right or wrong

Kestrel/PNG’s S/H enablement

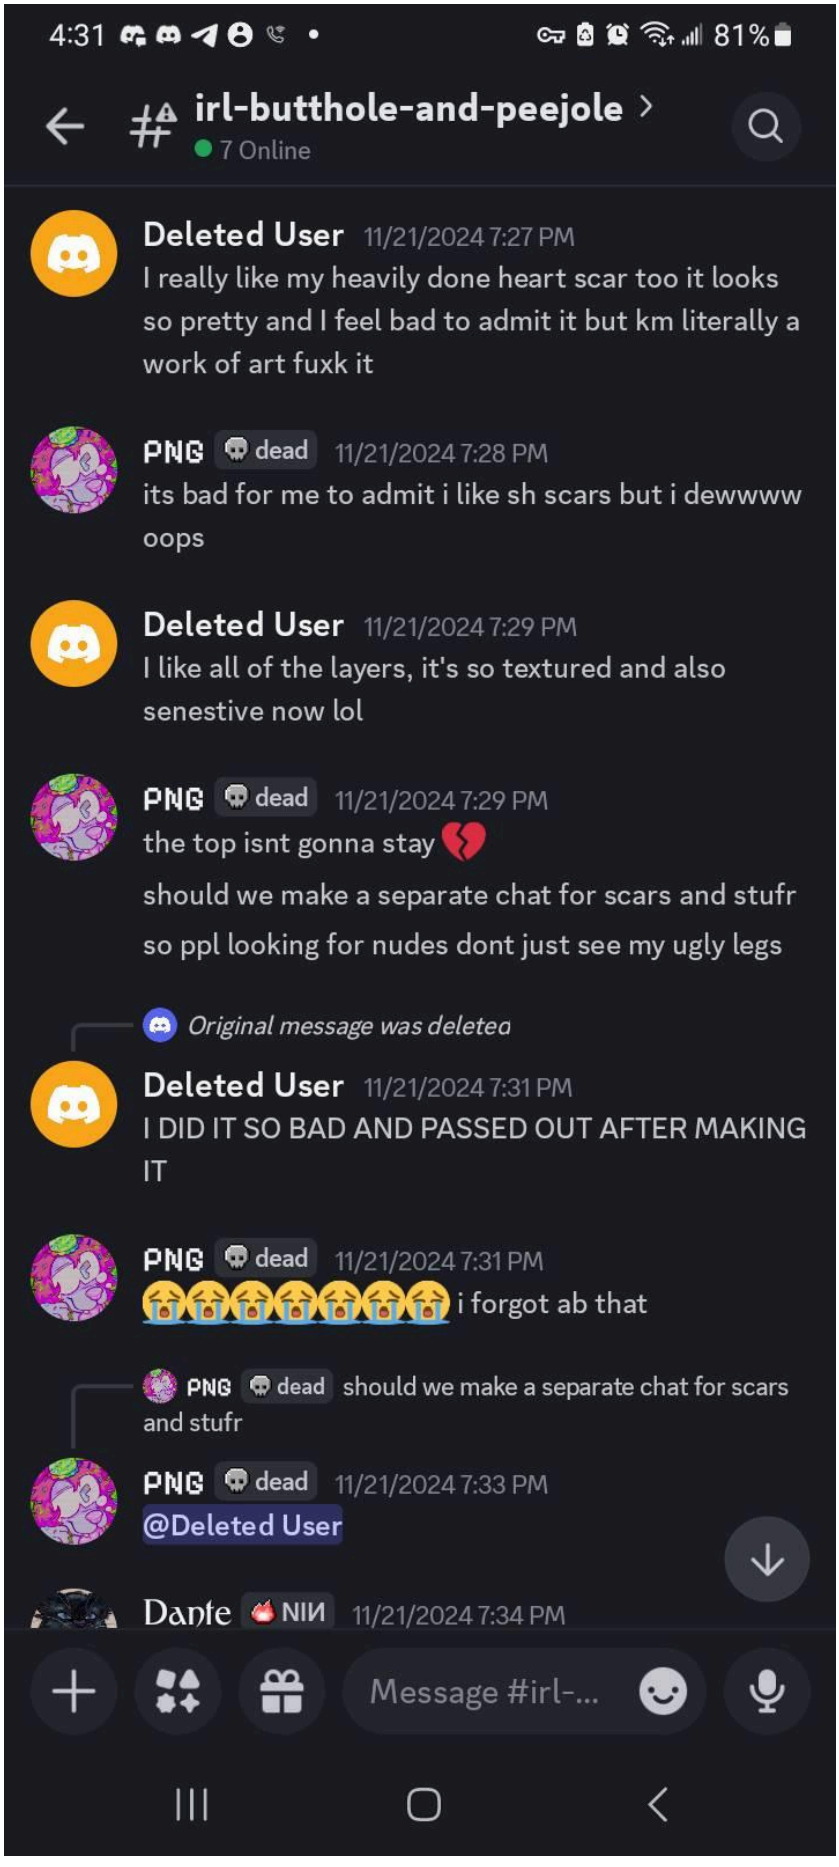

Chetmix Screenshots

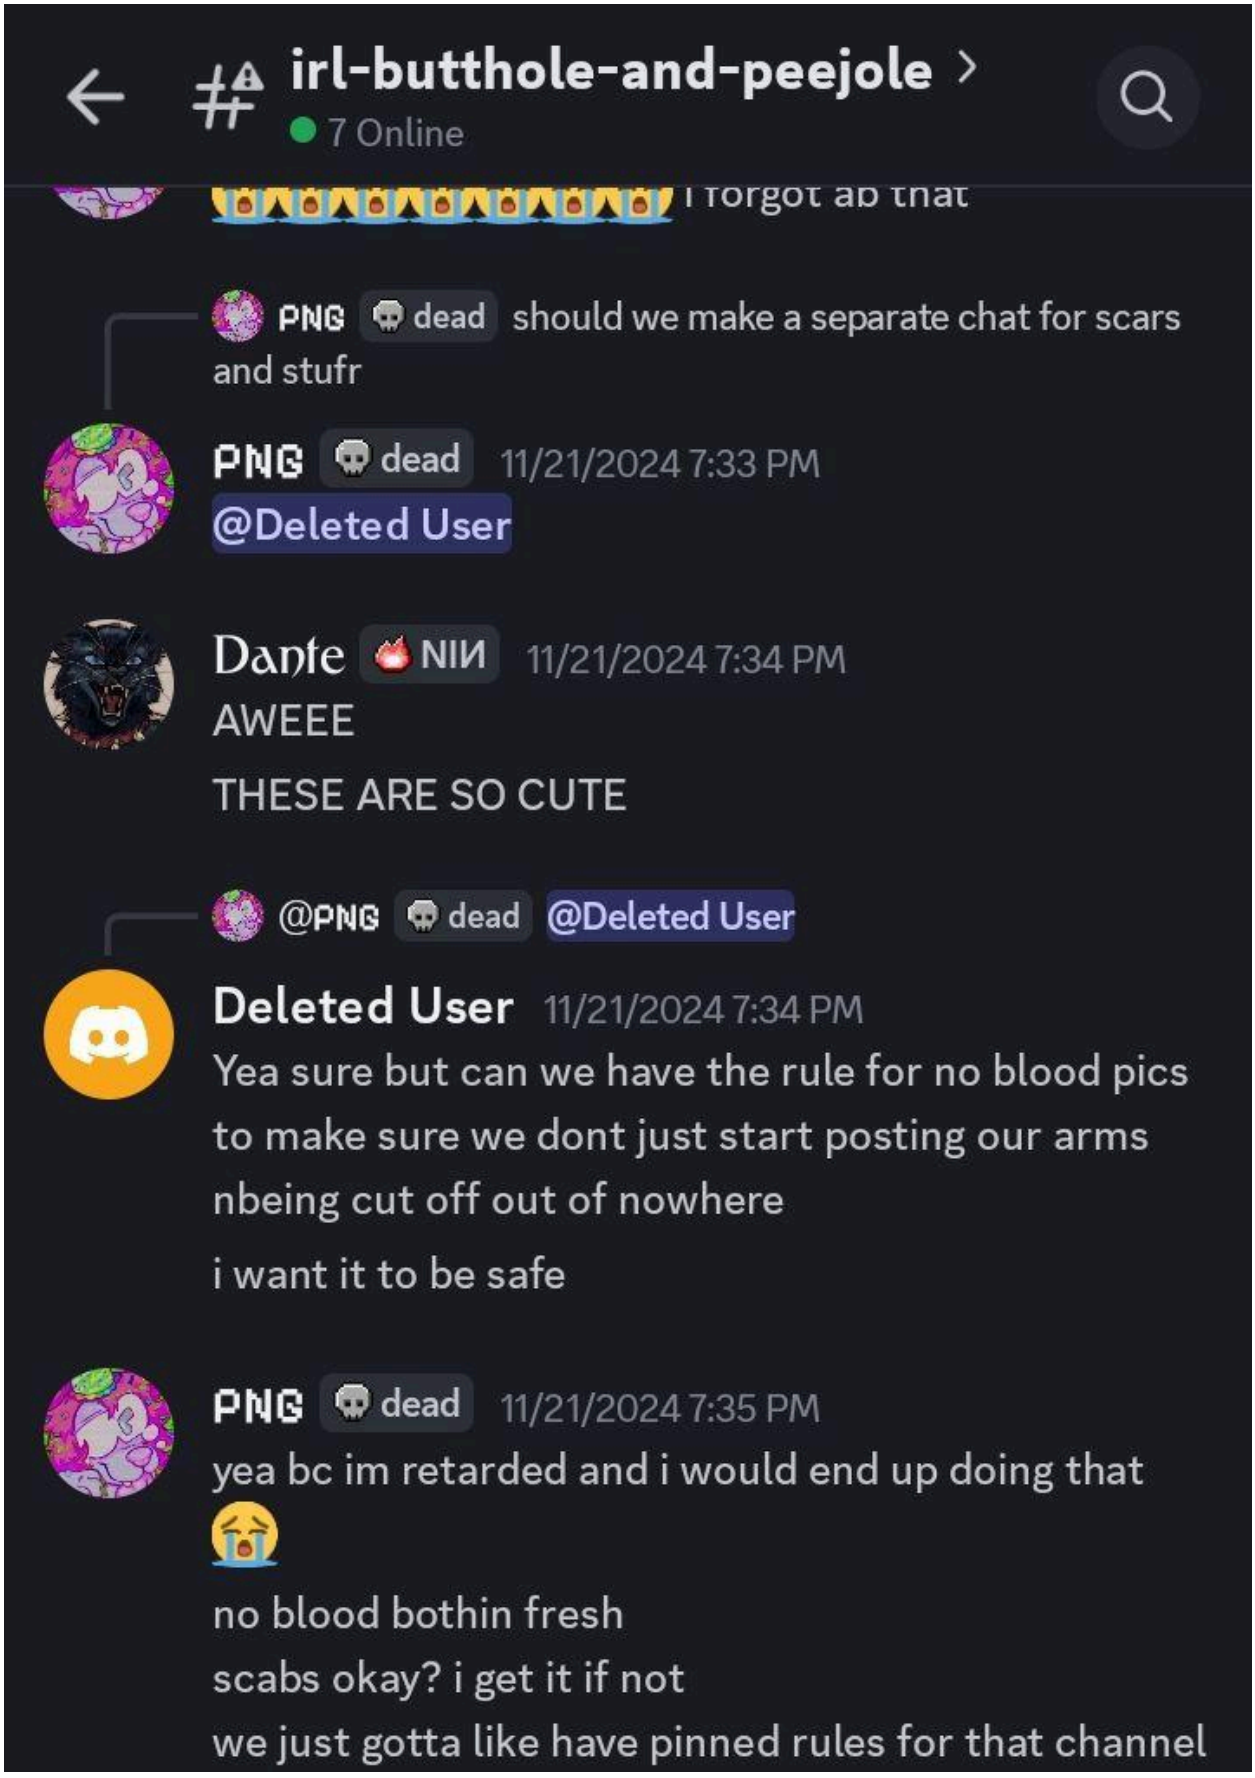

Kestrel and PNG normalizing self-harm and enabling it in 2024, sourced from JACKRABBLT, originating from the discord server "chetmix."
The deleted user is JACKRABBLT, Dante is Kestrel. For privacy reasons (and for quite obvious reasons) before screenshotting, the photos of healed self-harm were removed.
Keep in mind when reading JACKRABBLT's messages, he was in a toxic codependent relationship, those are not the comments of someone in their right mind and was definitely being enabled(especially when you consider the mutual self harm happened IRL and he was unable to withdraw consent when it went too far, and likely couldn't of consented based on mental state alone).

The scar channel in question has also been long purged, but both historically glorified s/h in the channel (it was not safe and caused relapses as well).

Public Mutual Self Harm Tweets

That information Kestrel encouraged those behaviors is compelling because in December of 2025, Kestrel does the bold thing and decides to comment publicly about the abuse JACKRABBLT suffered. He claims it was "uncomfortable" to witness, but above he calls it goals.

To add the icing onto the cake, even Calvin the cannibal cat murder comments on it. Vedacia/angelpaw/corrodedangel is also there, someone who's also repeatedly stalked and harassed JACKRABBLT(Vedacia's "wife" in question is also Jack's ex partner, another alleged abuser. It is correct though PNG sent violent threats). Kestrel only commented this to get some brownie points clearly.

PNG, also inconsiderate of JACKRABBLT at the time(he is speaking on behalf of Jack's trauma and then also threatening someone), decided to double down on the threat and simply make another one. Not very smart and shows he's only in it for brownie points too!

However Vedacia at the time of PNG making this threat tweeted this (azzykey_ is another alias of Vedacia) so this is clearly done not out of the care of JACKRABBLT and to just get back at PNG.

PNG's S/H Tweets

Charlie clearly is still "pro" mutual self-harm to this day, he has not changed at all or learned his lesson from his toxic relationship with JACKRABBLT.
Concerningly enough, he retweeted a 17 year old with a tweet clearly glorifying self harm.
There is no doubt about this, there is also no fictional context to even surround this. The profile clearly comes from a SHtwt account. If it was true he simply didn't check the profile before retweeting, that's irresponsible behavior for a NSFW account anyways.

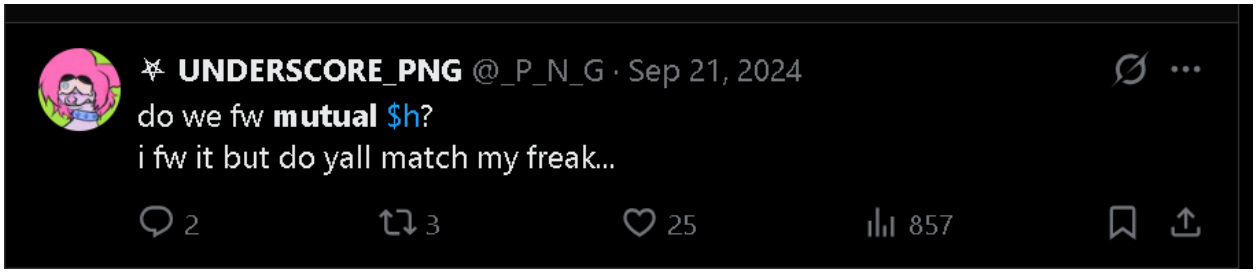

As you see, the screenshot isn't doctored or anything, and contains the same header name.

This is what we call irony, but it could also be a self report seeing as someone apparently so "opposed" to shedtwt retweeted a clear shedtwt tweet. Regardless, he definitely was involved in shedtwt himself, and repeated behaviors onto JACKRABBLT.
He also has tweets where he glorifies mutual self harm too to add insult to injury.

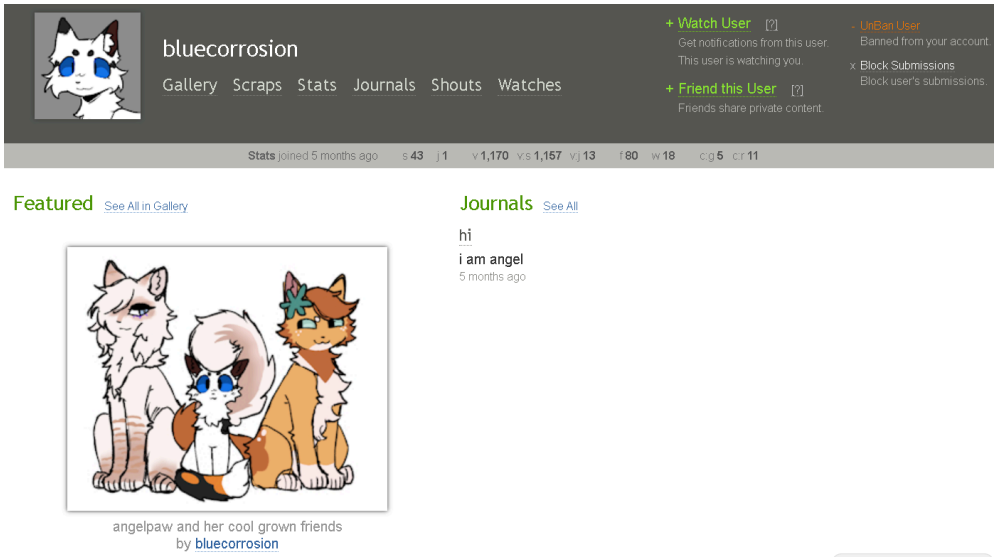

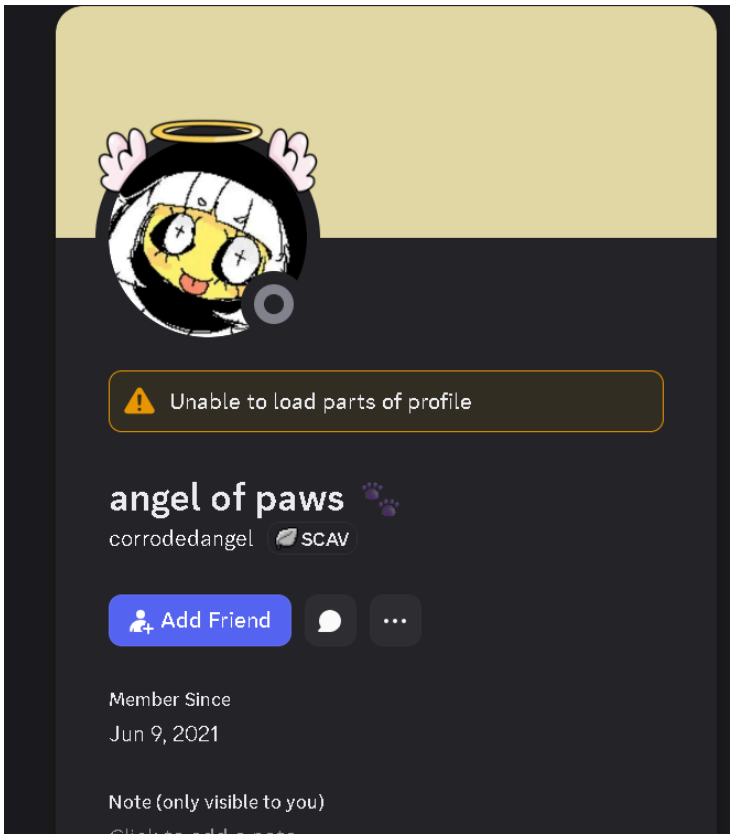

Vedacia/corrodedangel/bluecorrision/azzykey_

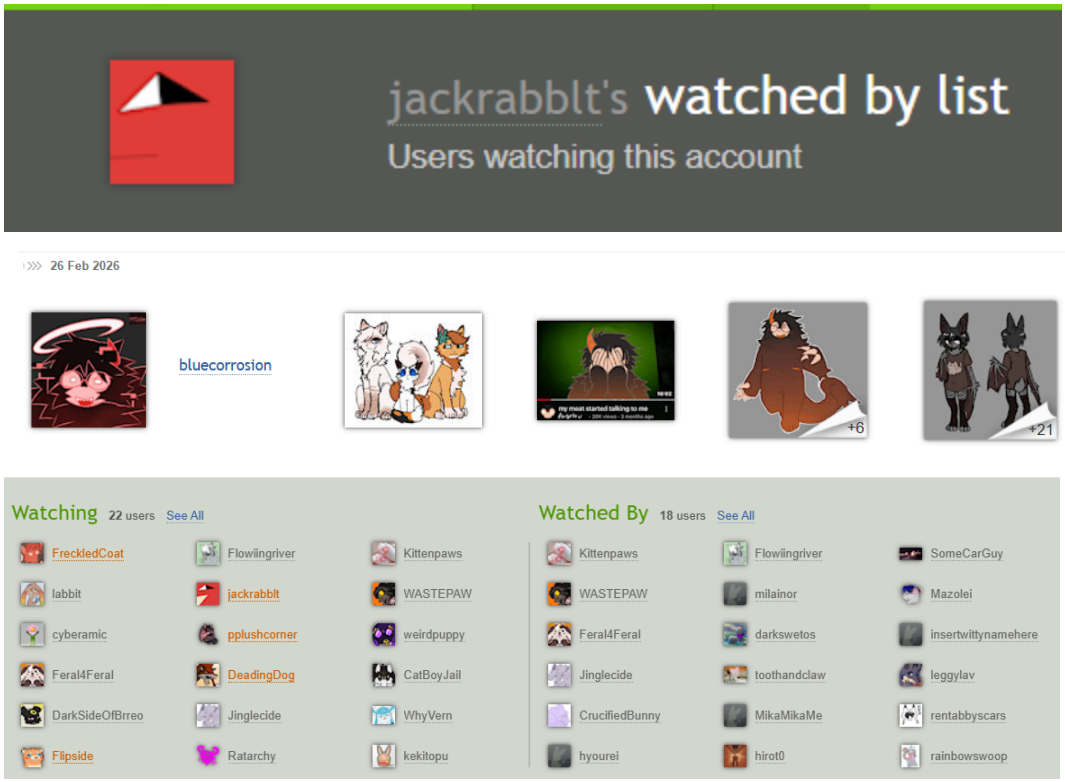

Vedacia is a stalker (specifically of JACKRABBLT), and an abuse sympathizer. Vedacia is currently dating Jaidenfluid, of whom is the ex partner of JACKRABBLT. This ex partner heavily abused and psychologically tortured JACKRABBLT, which is provable(as seen by Jaiden's section). Vedacia downplays Jaiden's abuse multiple times.
Vedacia was also heavily involved in the Calvin Coverup group chat, and was its original leaker. Not only that, but Vedacia is friends with multiple other doc members mentioned (or at least was, even sometimes they don't like Vedacia's obsessive tendencies it seems).

Even then, it's pretty reasonable to not want someone to interact with you or consume your art if they are dating your ex partner. Especially when it turns out Vedacia was keeping tabs on JACKRABBLT before December 1st, which is when he tried playing innocent about drawing fanart / not knowing who people were.

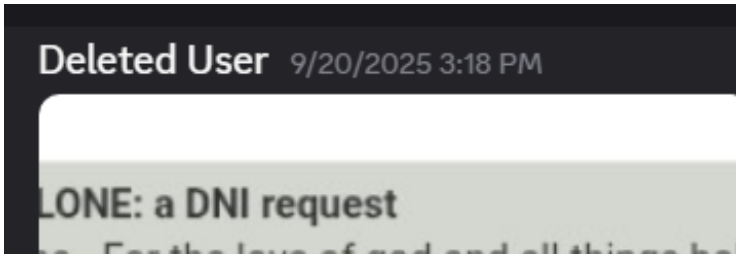

As of April 10th, 2026, Vedacia is following JACKRABBLT on inkbunny once again. At this point he is well aware this is against his wishes, and this is also why its favorites are likely kept private still - he had a tendency to favorite and interact with his art despite being told multiple times to not cross that boundary. (Said obsessive behavior had previously spread to some of JACKRABBLT's mutuals and followers.)

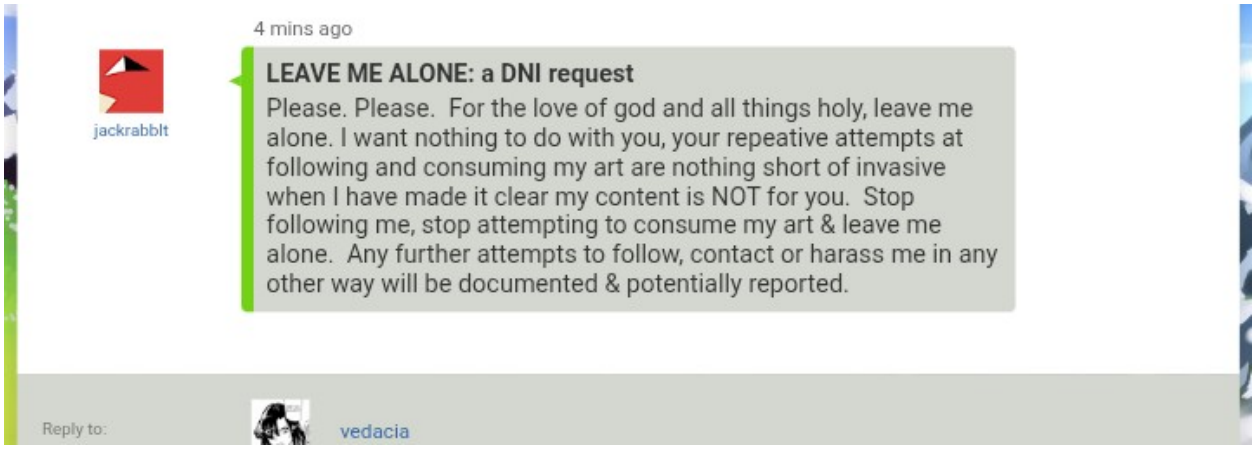

(His watched/watching stats on its page. It is changed by the 21st, as Vedacia moved to furaffinity- Unfollowing JACKRABBLT again. It's almost like it knew it was wrong for that.)

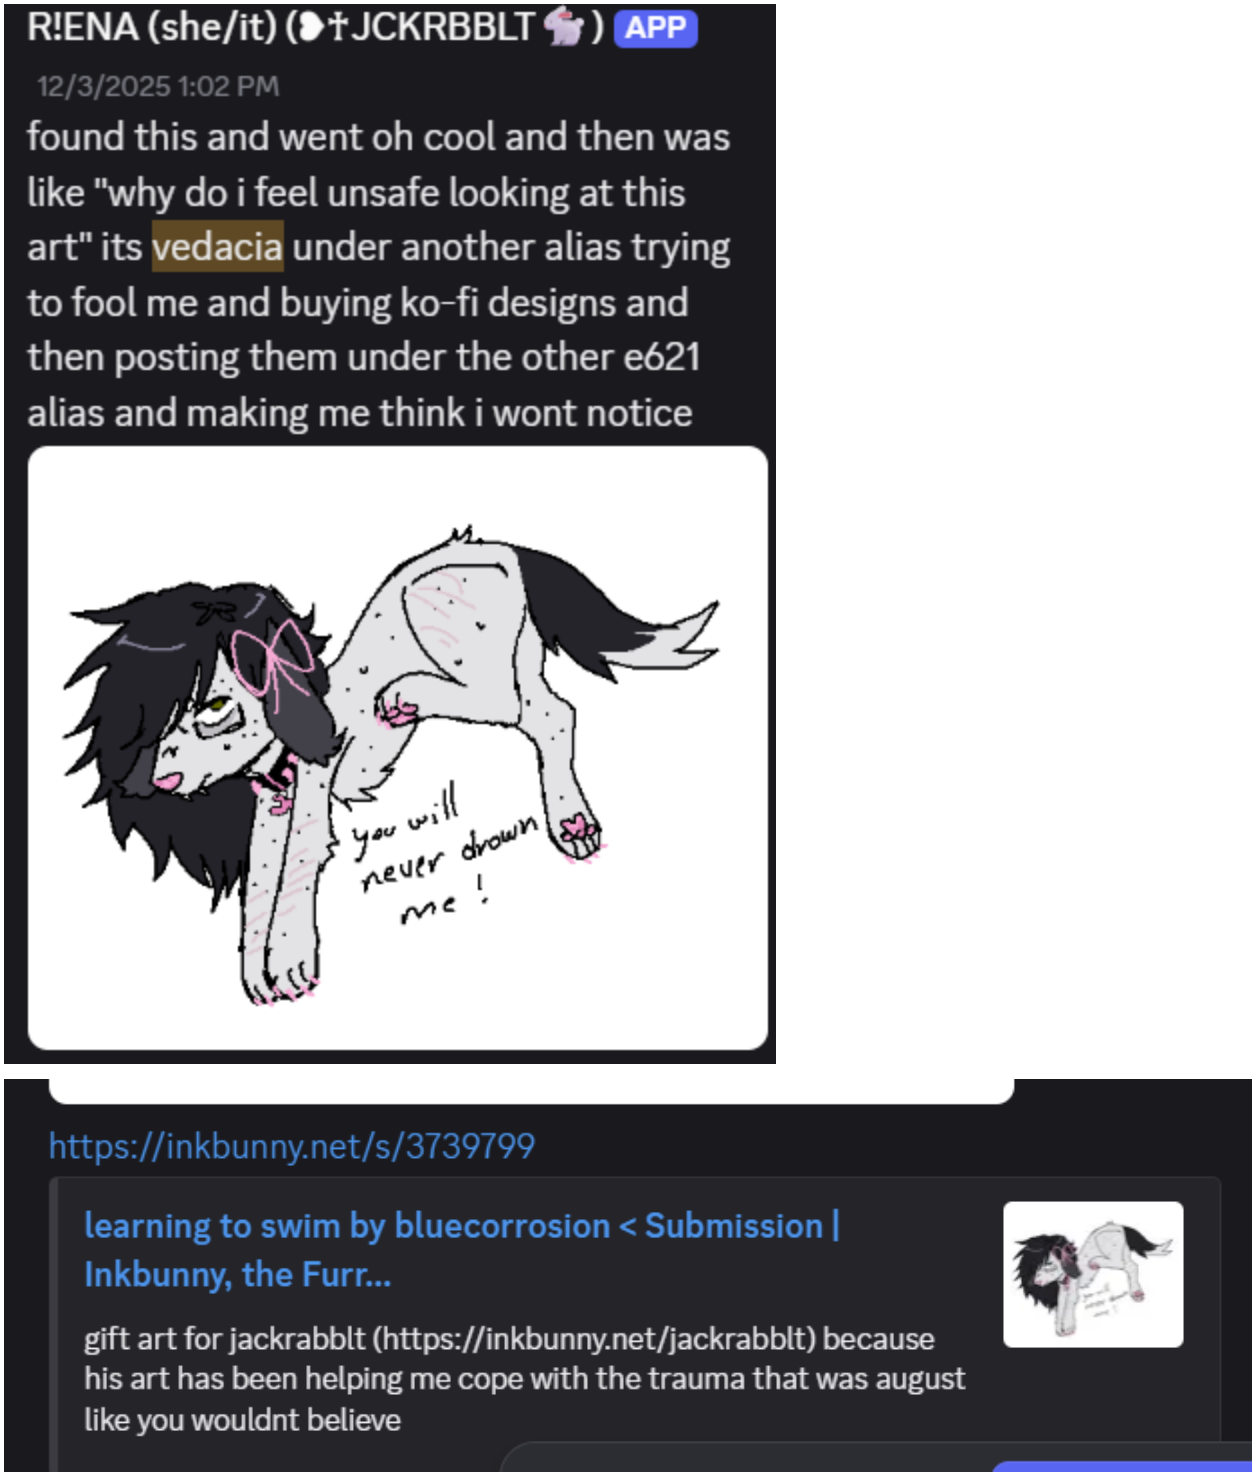

Unauthorized Fanart (Shrew)

Vedacia, after knowing full well that JACKRABBLT doesn't want to interact, decides to make unauthorized fanart. The fanart was thankfully, SFW, however it was still a form of harassment to even make. The actual post of it on Inkbunny was removed due to JACKRABBLT filing a takedown, however, Vedacia tried to revolt by reuploading it elsewhere. Jack made desperate pleas for the artwork to be removed as it was his alter's fursona, and nevertheless, art by one of his stalkers he never asked for.

A bad response to Jack about the entire situation, but it's obvious by leaked private screenshots Vedacia is indeed an unreasonable person. This entire scenario happening is unreasonable.

(When it is confronted by one of JACKRABBLT's then mutuals, this thread is deleted almost immediately. You can see the short response in the below screenshot; included for transparency.)

You don't just draw someone's oc without linking back to them, it not only makes you look like the creator (IE stealing) but it takes away credit from them as a whole. Generally scummy move as an artist..

Anonawoo @anonawoo33453 · 4m

for example if I posted art of your oc, never credited you for it, and just said idk "I like bacon lol" people would think I own your character! and that would suck a lot. It would be like ripping off your hard earned work, and that's a huge nono! You deserve credited too

As recently as 4/12/26, Angel/Louka did it again. They're well aware at this point.

Block Evasion Adopt

Vedacia had been using a new username (which is why some users may have been unaware of who he was and followed him), and on top of this, had block evaded under this new username to buy a 3 dollar adoptable as well(so low Jack can't refund it).
Post from Vedacia's E621.

Posts of JACKRABBLT's adoptables.

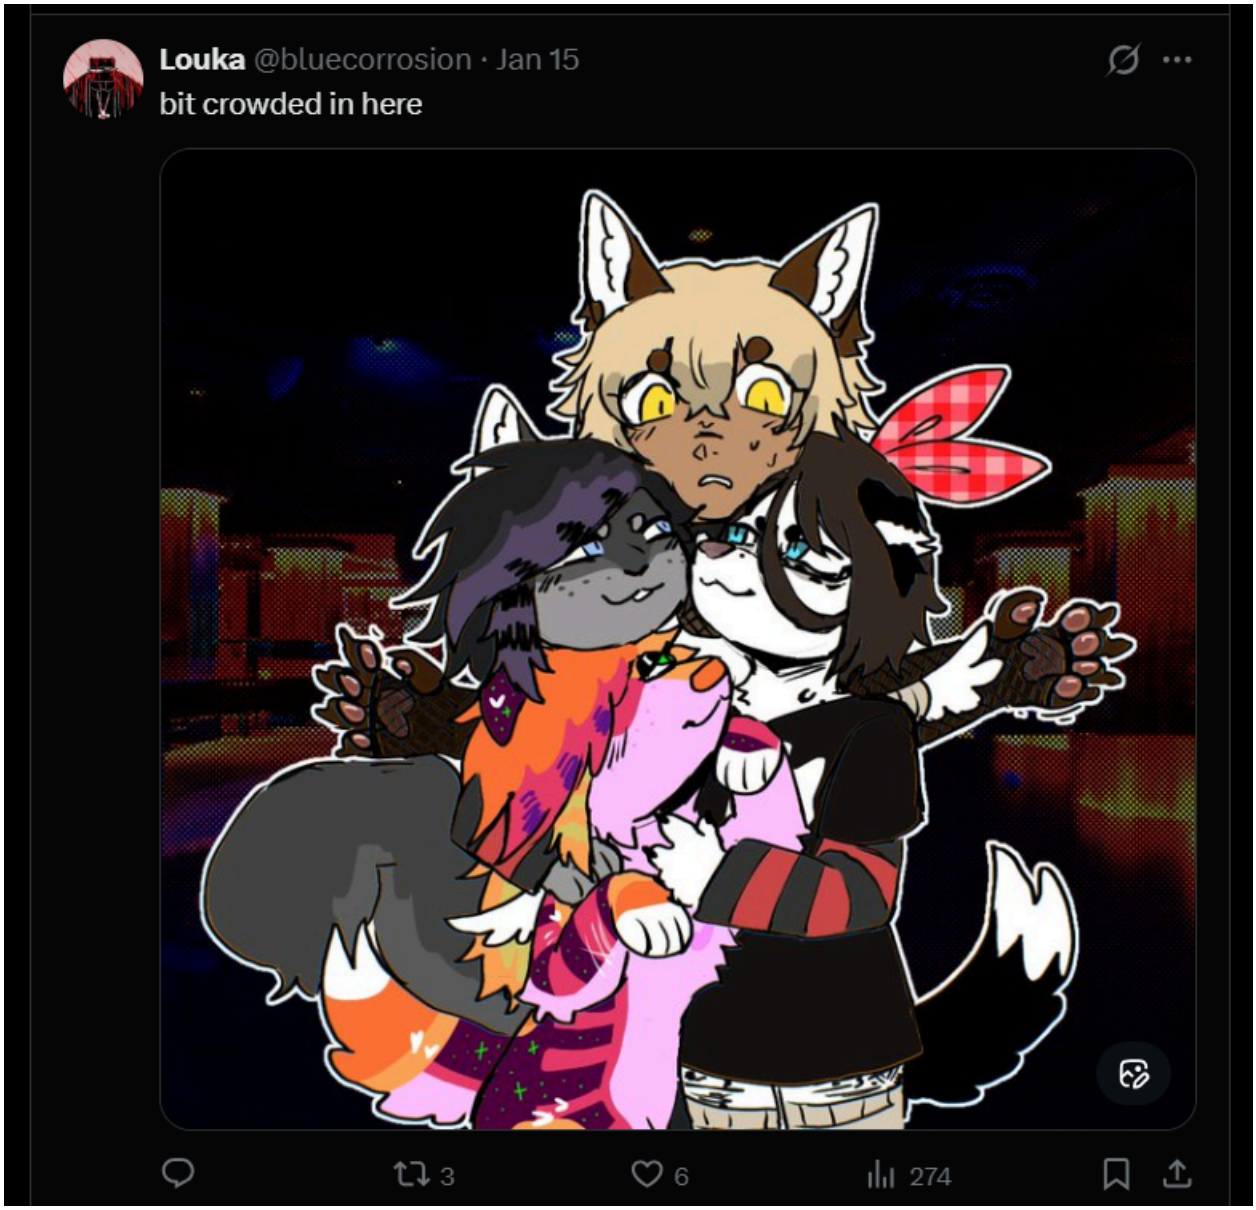

There was an art piece posted on January 10th that seems to show this exact design.

The design is drawn again here.

‘Playing Pretend’

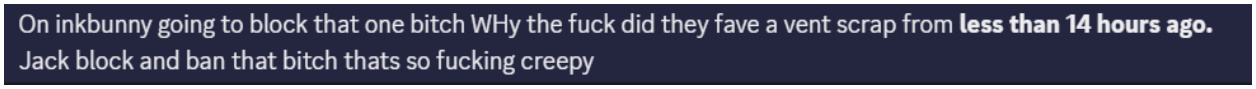

Taken December 1st, 2025.

(The missing reply is from Kestrel / wastepaws, saying "it's one of Jack's friends so that's why".)

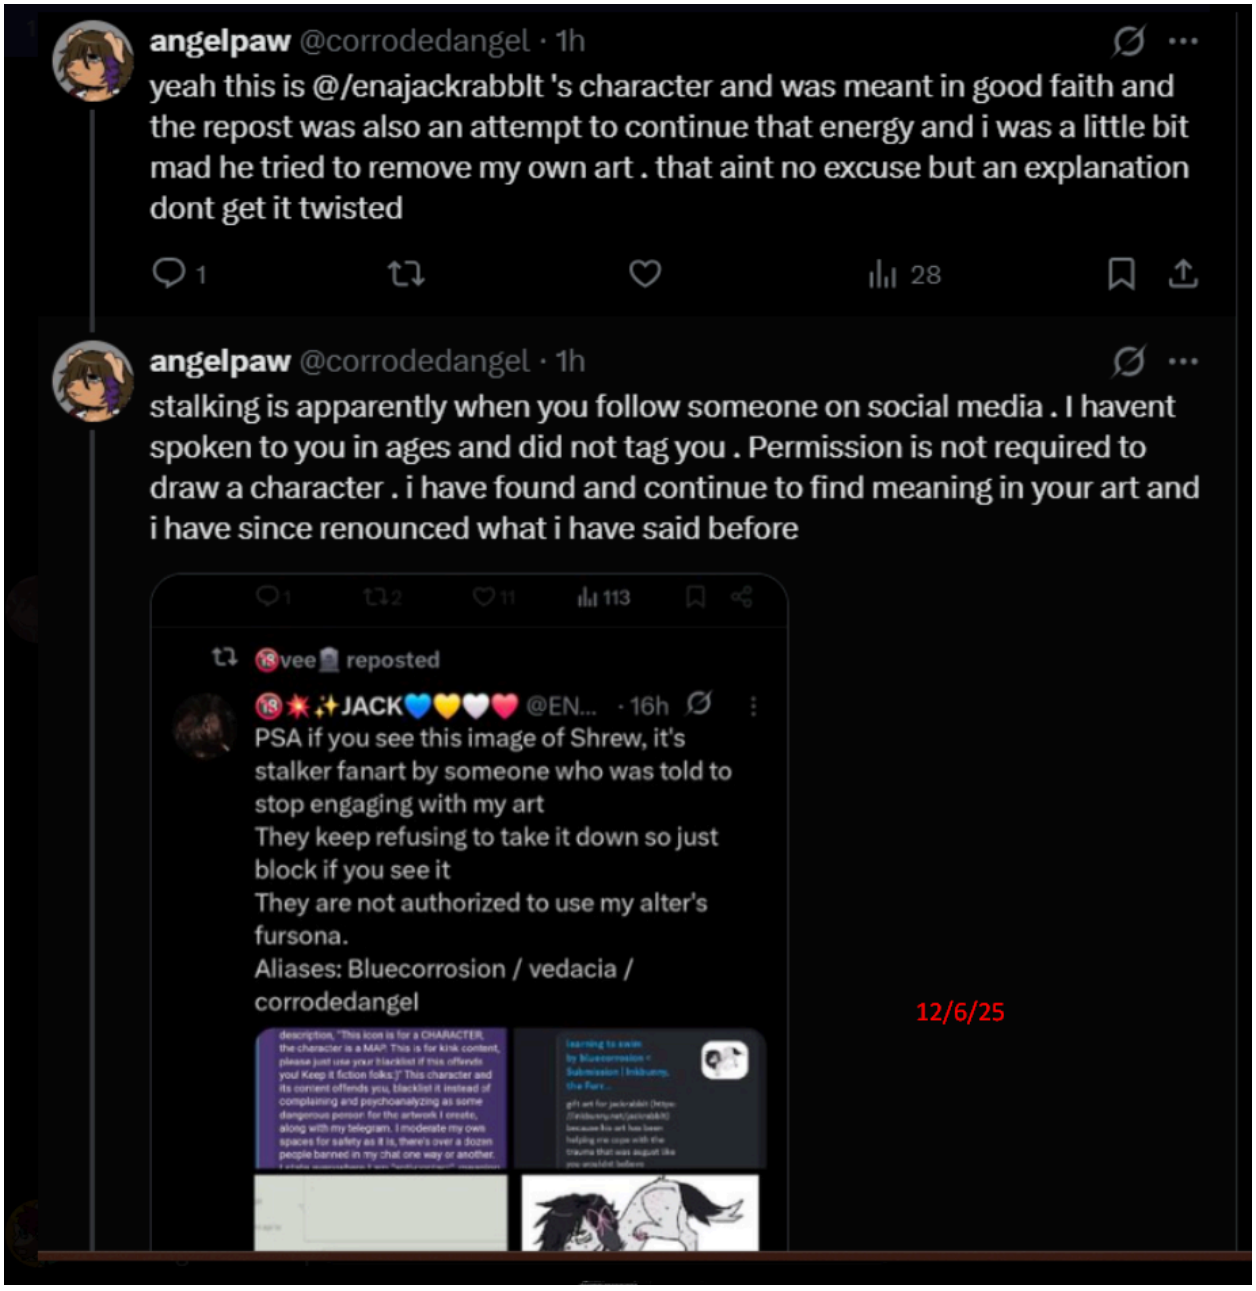

You can see Vedacia above speaking like he had no clue why he was blocked by the pictured user, but in the second screenshot it's quite obvious he knew who Vee was before December rolled around. If it forgot about this in the span of 11~ days, that is a concern it should take up with its doctor.

Below is an anonymous screencap of someone talking about noticing there was more of JACKRABBLT's art being interacted with, taken at around 1:00 am on Jan 6th. Mainly here for proof that there was more art being interacted with- there are no screencaps taken of the actual interaction.

It does not sound like Vedacia/Angel is being genuine when saying/implying it would've taken it down easily if Jack "asked nicely"- as you can see in one of the above screenshots, JACKRABBLT has been asking since at LEAST September for him to not interact. That wouldn't change randomly in the span of less than two months.

The screencapped thread below is made around the same time as the above conversation.

Despite being blocked before this, on the 1st, Vedacia is still checking accounts of those who are even talking with JACKRABBLT, claiming that this is only because he is following someone on social media.
Again; he was asked to stop interacting in SEPTEMBER, if not even earlier. It is not reasonable to expect someone to forgive you if there was no apology given in the first place.

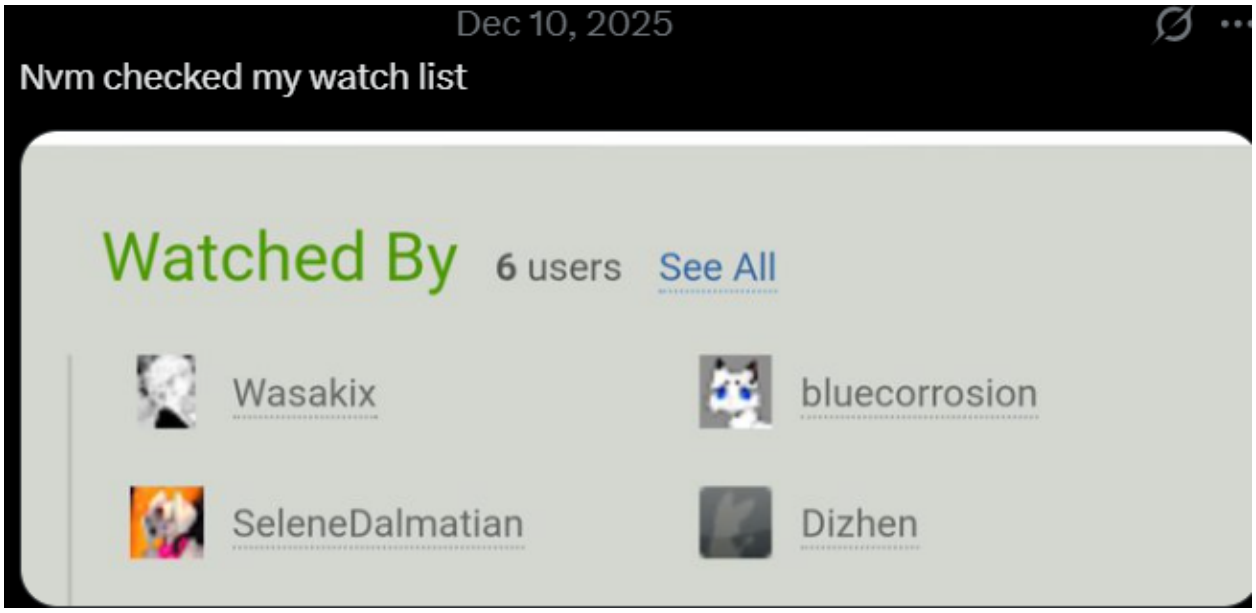

Shortly after, he privates his favorites instead of respecting boundaries, effectively hiding his interactions to avoid responsibility.

(Note, this happens on December 6th. At some point, he republicizes his favorites- no clue why.)

On December 10th, Vee notices that Vedacia is interacting with him as well.

After saying something publicly again (this was not screencapped, and has since been deleted as he believed it resolved), Vedacia unfollows Jack and Vee. You can see Vee talking about this below;

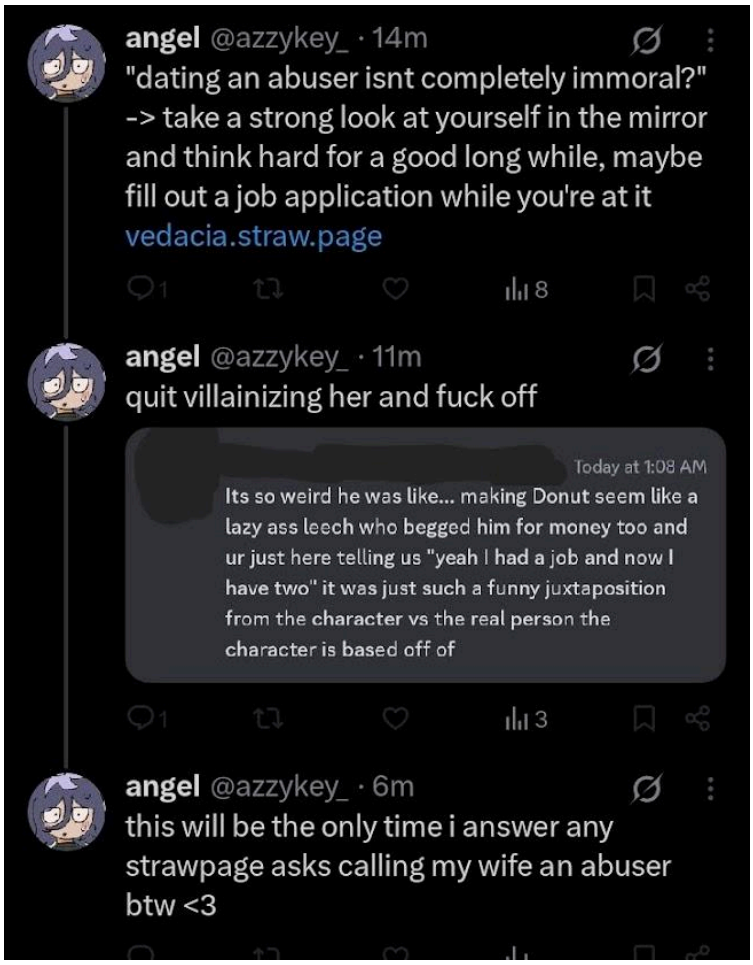

Keep in mind at this point, Vee has had Vedacia blocked since the 1st. It has been over a week at this point.

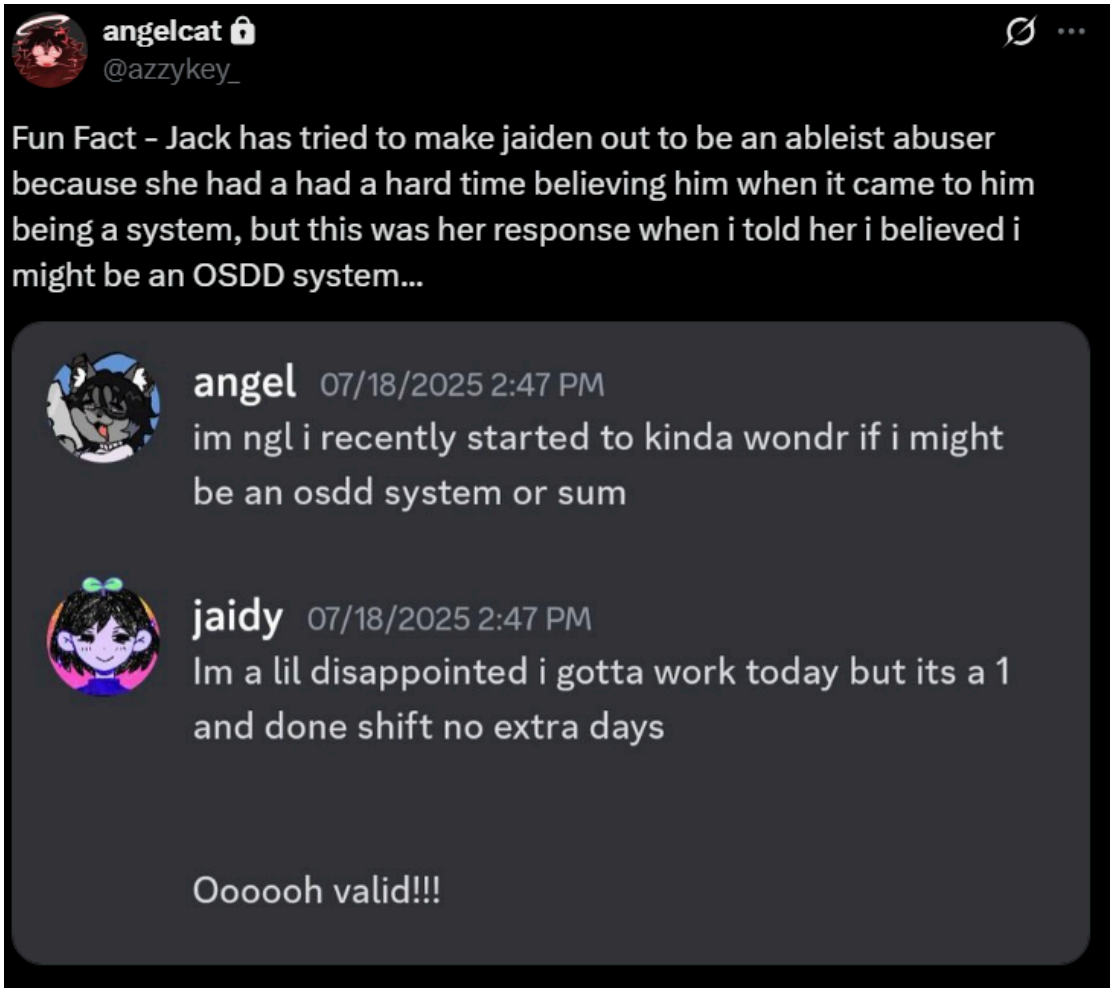

It posts this shortly after an interaction with F0XCORE/SCHADENF0X speculating about said topic.

Jaiden Defending

Vedacia defends her partner's abuse as Vedacia has an addiction to being an abuse apologist. A lot of assumptions are made, and Vedacia ignores clear evidence (such as the terror that the text messages had inflicted).

Vedacia has this weird unhealthy attachment to Donut, one of Jack's OCs. Her personality originally was based on Jaiden's while JACKRABBLT was fawning. He then changed the personality to represent a more co-dependant relationship between Donut & Munchkin. Vedacia severely didn’t like this. She thinks this fictionalized depiction of abuse is "ridiculous" as a result despite it just being that.

The real event behind this image was actually real, however some elements have been fictionalized. JACKRABBLT also didn’t suffer a seizure during this moment (instead he suffered a weed induced panic attack) as he fictionalized Munchkin to be, but still suffers from seizures himself. The entire image is a coping with being neglected. The quote that Donut says is a real quote Jaiden said to her friends on a discord voice chat(according to JACKRABBLT).

Not only that, but Vedacia has [made a knockoff "Donut"] already himself specifically for Jack's abuser, but still proceeds to complain about what JACKRABBLT does with his own characters.

bent ear

He has since redesigned his version of “Donut”, but has not seemed to draw this character since.

leaned a bit more heavily into the sylveon aspect and i like this a lot more tbh

Jaidenfluid/dvideindustries/Javaboy9876/Flameblow9876

This is Vedacia's current partner and the ex of JACKRABBLT. She's done a lot of stuff throughout their 4 year relationship, but why Jaiden is mainly called abusive is because of the severe psychological terror she committed to Jack in July 2024. Jaiden wasn't a main part of the Propara community, but people with ties to her (like Vedacia) have tried to cover up the abuse.

The week was nicknamed "Torture Week" by JACKRABBLT, as having to deal with the specimen you're just about to witness now definitely counts as torture. To make it worse, this relationship was extremely codependent. All stemming from jealousy from seeing Jack have weed with his mom, she reflects it all back onto Jack like he's a punching bag. She later also fakeclaims him and continues to not believe that he is plural, despite one time thinking she had "drug induced alters" and being friends with multiple systems. In fact, she is currently dating a system as Vedacia is also apparently a system.

She's more active in the Okegom Community.

How It Started: Jealousy Over Mom Weed

Jaiden starts off “Torture Week” by complaining in Jack’s dms about his mom giving him weed. This is ridiculous because in order to not be jealous she could have simply not clicked on the channel specifically for talking about drugs, along with the point JACKRABBLT literally makes about how Jaiden gets to smoke with her friends. Then Jack gets blocked.

“I Hate You” Spam

As a result of Jaiden being so addicted to weed, and jealous Jack got some while she didn’t, she decided to block him. And then torture him via text message. As well as taunt him via a private account. Charlie has a crush on JACKRABBLT and decides to keep him in a video call while he’s crying and hysterical basically for most of this week, leading to them forming a traumabond eventually.

Jaiden also didn't just text harass Jack, she used her private account to terrorize him as well.

The spam kept continuing so much JACKRABBLT recorded himself pleading for her to stop.

“I’m Not Ready”

Jaiden freaking out at JACKRABBLT again and cancelling plans after trying to “make up” with him.

I still don't know or think we're going to work out in the long run as a couple because it seems like us together is just making our mental health even worse.
We're both smoking weed on a daily occurrence now, we're both upset and depressed with how our lives are going, we're nothing alike these days and we're continuing to grow apart.
I don't think trying to keep it together is worth it. I'm going to continuously be a burden to your family every time I come over, I'm too broke to afford to always be able to pay for you, and the thing that makes me uncomfortable the most is the idea that you would kill yourself if we even stopped being a thing. That freaks me out and I don't want to imagine that.

Fakeclaiming

JACKRABBLT confronts Jaiden on why she unfollowed his private, which leads into a conservation where he is fakeclaimed. She uses her diagnosed autism as a crutch in this conversation on why she can't be ableist as well, something she only has because she was born male at birth and her mom is a helicopter parent who immediately got the diagnosis.

This all ends with Jaiden trying to repeat what Jack did for some reason to sympathy bait. She cries into a voice message like an absolute baby because someone else sent her some mean paragraphs over what she just did. She also made her profile edgy so everyone knew she was really upset.

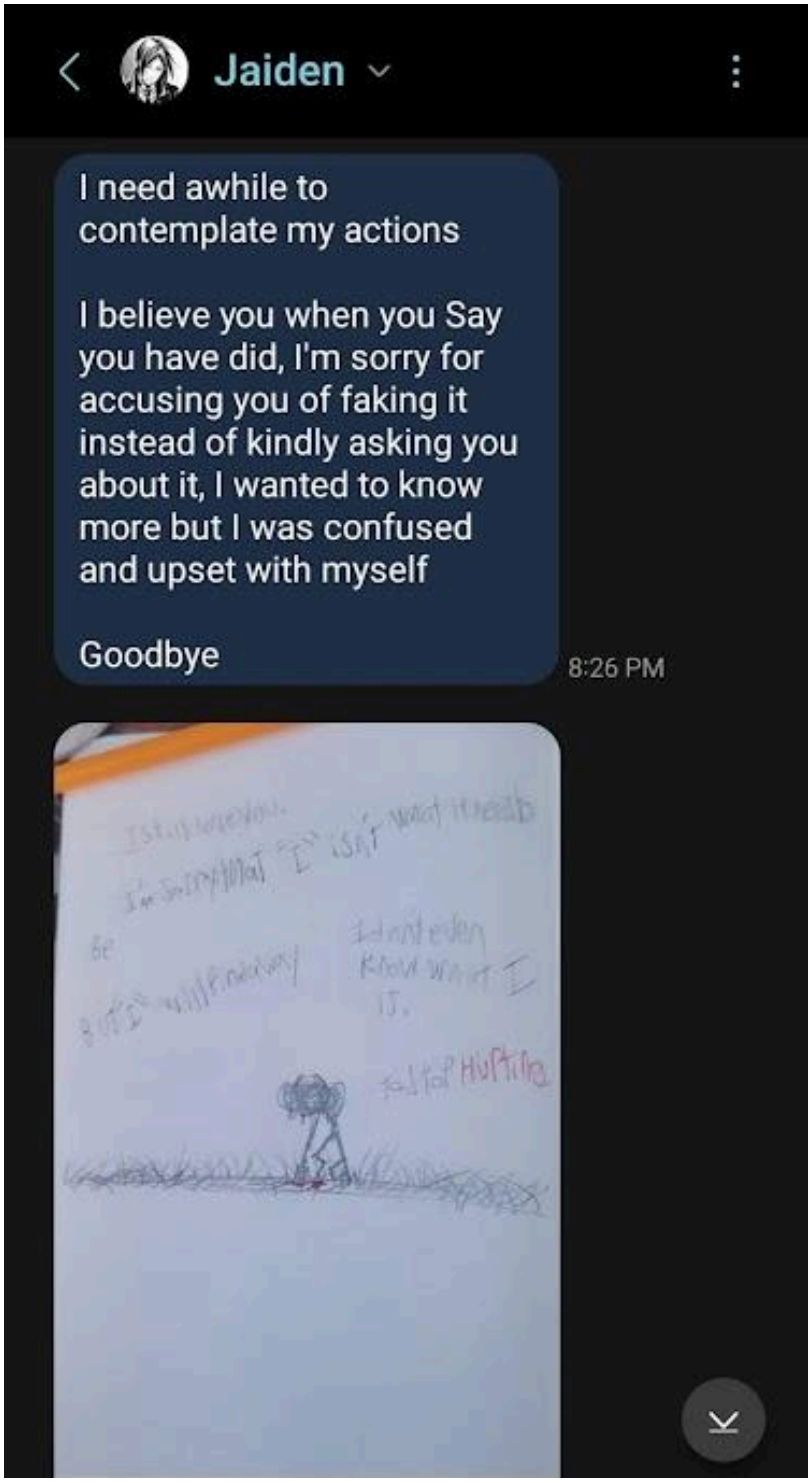

She tries to call Jack for help, of whom is beyond a point of panic, then composes himself.

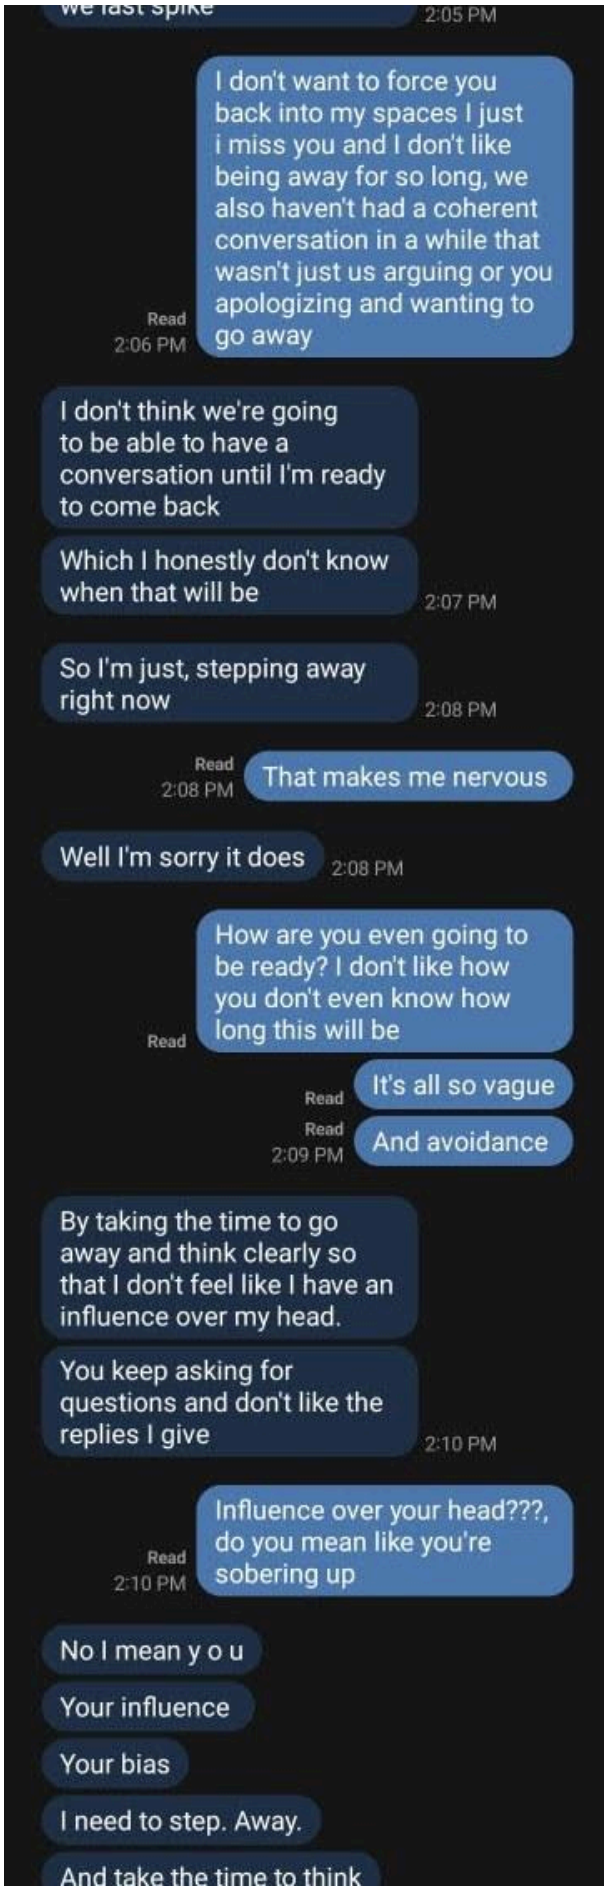

She then apologizes by sending VENT ART OF HERSELF. This is despite, STILL FAKECLAIMING HIM LATER ON. Not to mention how much of an embarrassment and non apology it is to send your chicken scratch drawing like this. Least appropriate time to send vent art possibly ever of all time.

Vedacia's Discord Server

The reason why this section is specifically within Jaiden's section is due to the sheer amount of information regarding her, including her confirming she raped JACKRABBLT. It also demonstrates Jaiden's obsession with Jack, that includes being paranoid about his work itself. Some MAP artwork is featured in this section(as well as a claim about ValidLs "fanart"), but there are some things to note about that as a disclaimer:

1. JACKRABBLT discontinued his MAP artwork & took down all remaining posts of Fentanyl with the MAP flag. "They were never intended as "pride" (throws up) or actual endorsements of pedophilia and just story centric content, but I'm done with being misinterpreted and I want them gone now." Jack's art was intended to be story centric, and/or parody vs. promotions of pedophilia despite what some people thought. In another post on inkbunny he also shows remorse for using the flag: "I honestly do regret the usage of the MAP flag in my Fentanyl artworks, though my intent was definitely story centric content, as I always had stated. I was interested in exploring a really bad character (in this case as well as a pedophilic one). I feel like the point of the artwork went over a lot of people's heads, and they just saw the shock factor/"porn factor" rather than me attempting to use comedy & porn to convey a very messed up story." JACKRABBLT even goes so far as to say in his inkbunny post, "Nevertheless, it is the type of content I will most definitely move away from; please do not draw my OCs with MAP symbol(s) as a result."
    a. Fentanyl was also never an extension of JACKRABBLT, & an OC's fictional values do not travel to JACKRABBLT's real world values. This has been stated multiple (possibly too many) times, to the point JACKRABBLT's own audience didn't get the memo themselves. All of the misinterpretation of JACKRABBLT's work as well as the severe abuse from the community led to him completely disconnecting from it.
2. The ValidLs bait furry porn drawing was addressed & apologized for multiple times. It is readdressed on the document that was used to combat rumors from the poor handling of the critterkiddo doc. He also did that under the FeralMunchies alias, which was only active for around 2 years; around the age of when he was 18-19.

Keep these points in mind as you read ahead / when trying to address what you think of JACKRABBLT as a result.

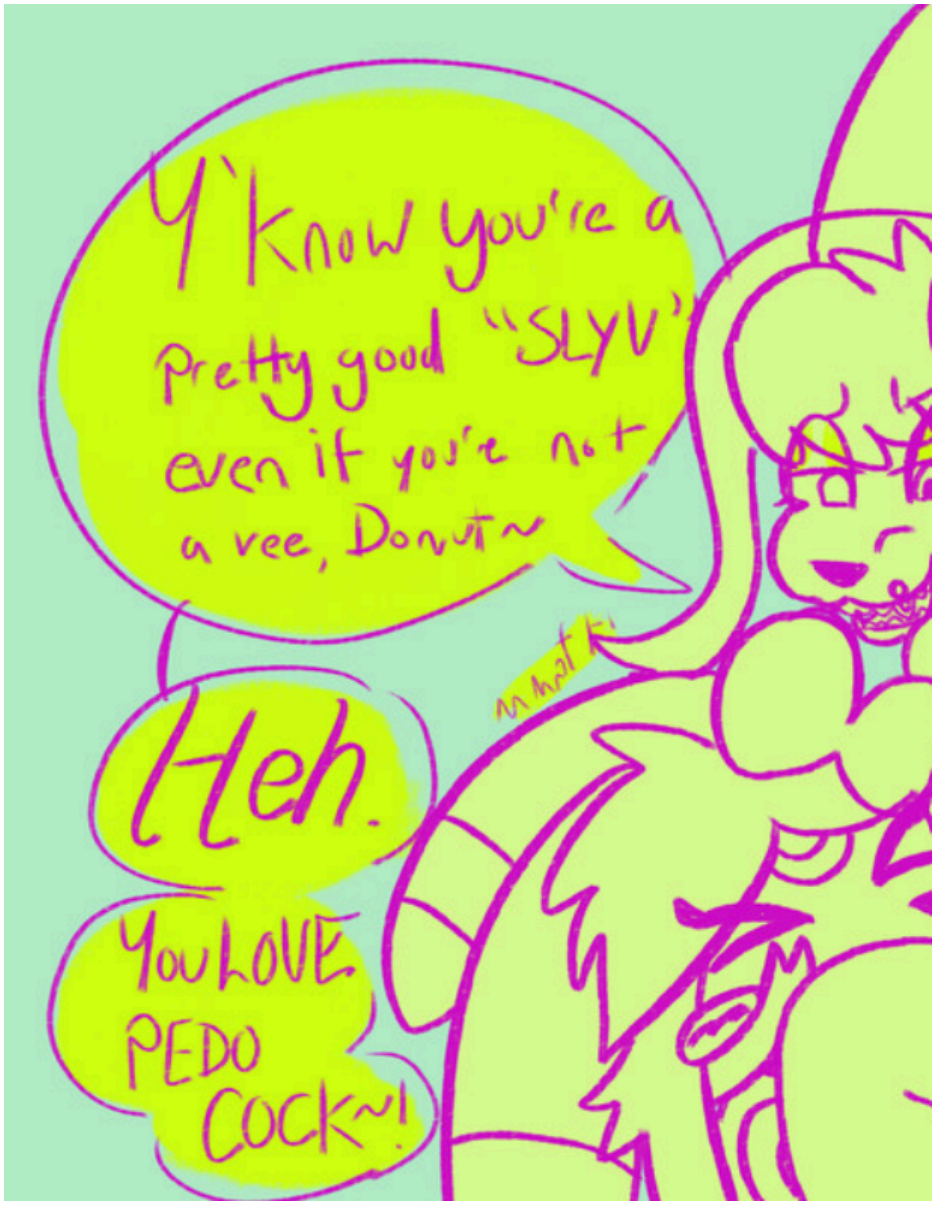

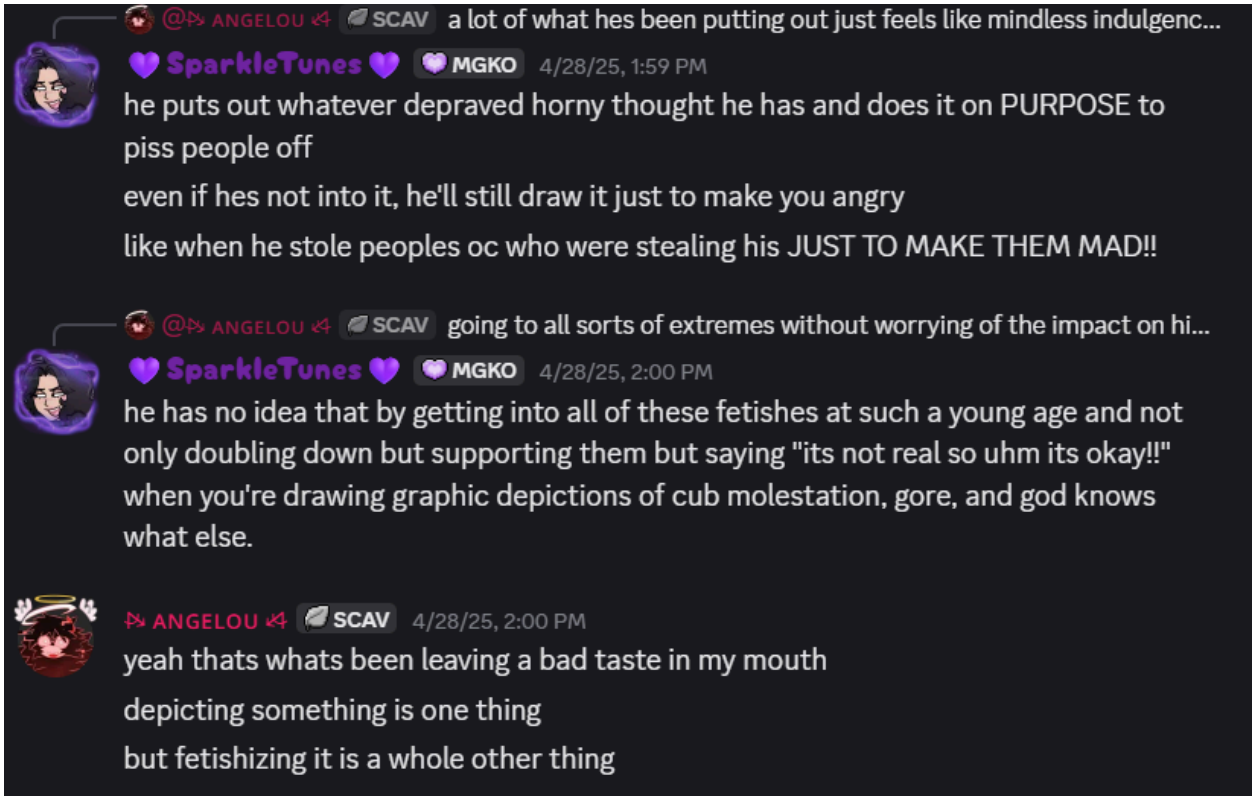

The art in question is just two adult characters roleplaying pedophilia without any actual pedophilia directly going on. She also begged for this piece of artwork to be drawn and it was drawn for free. It's just fictional kink porn she can't accept she requested it herself for whatever reason.

Fentanyl doms Donut
Requested scenario by WIFEY!!!!!

https://t.me/jackedrabbit

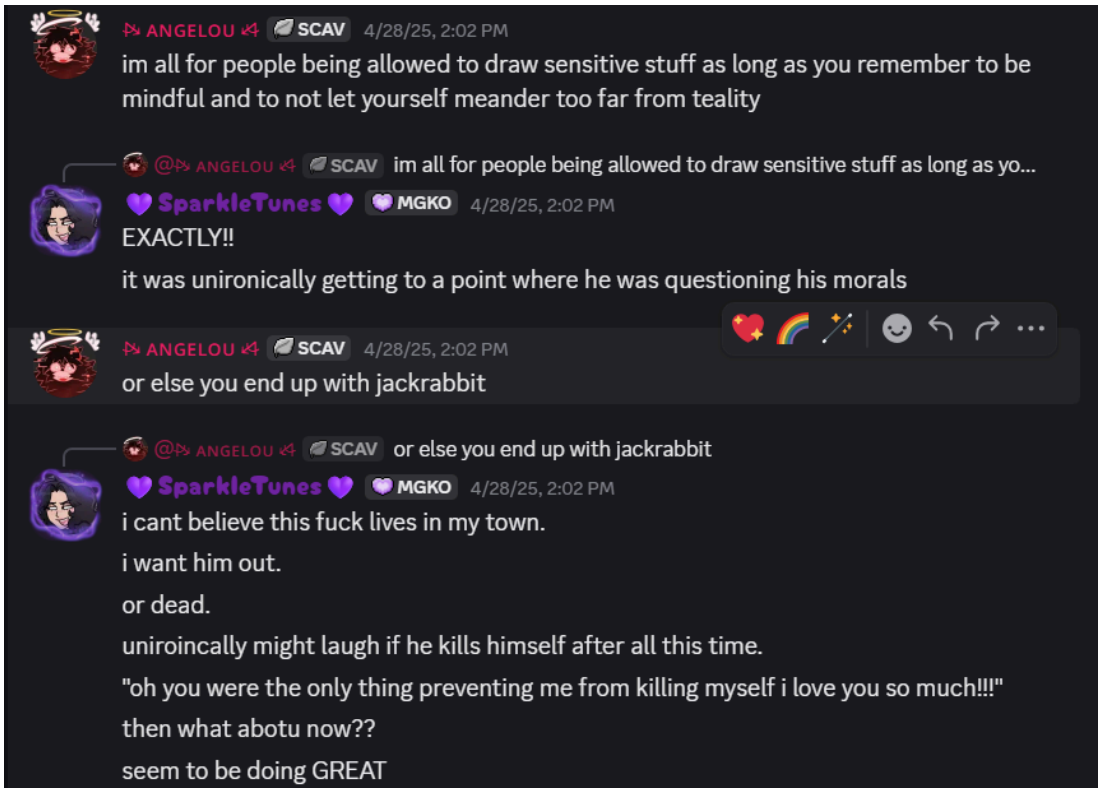

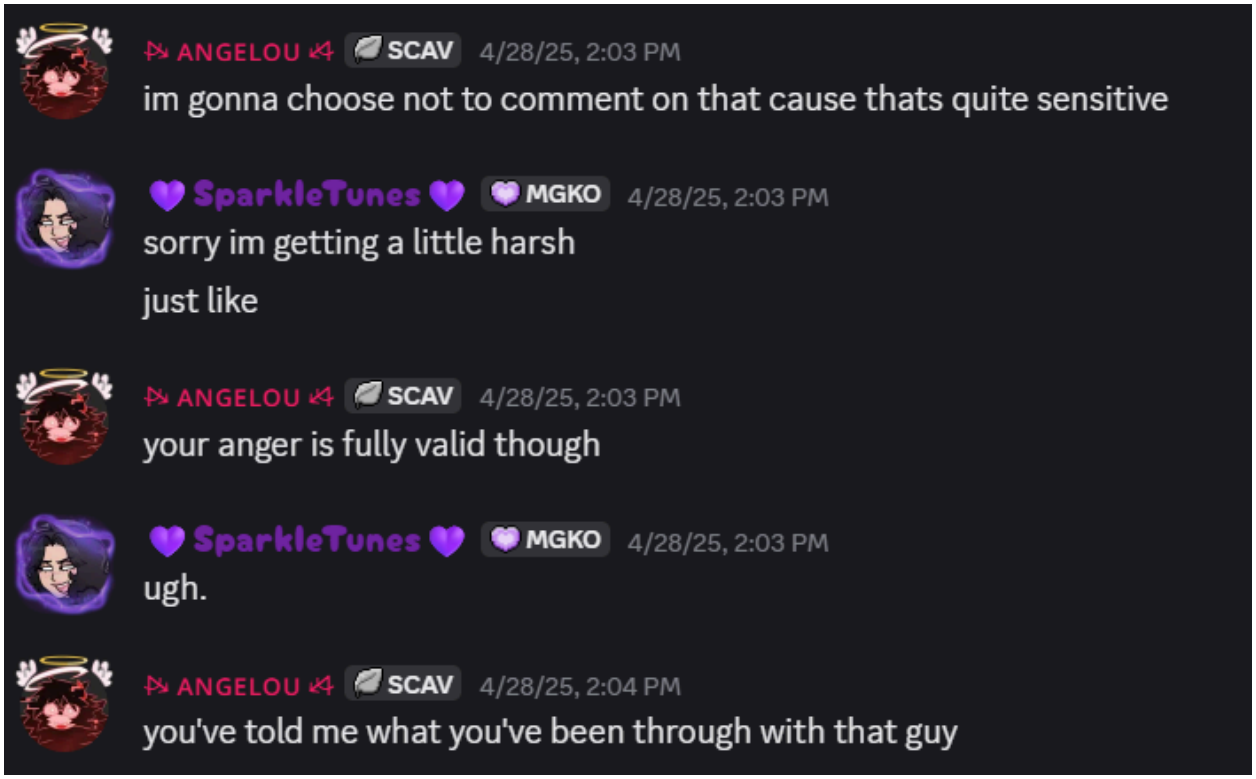

She here starts framing her abuse as okay because JACKRABBLT made ValidLs fanart in 2023, despite him reapologizing for it in 2024, and the events of abuse in July happened in 2024.

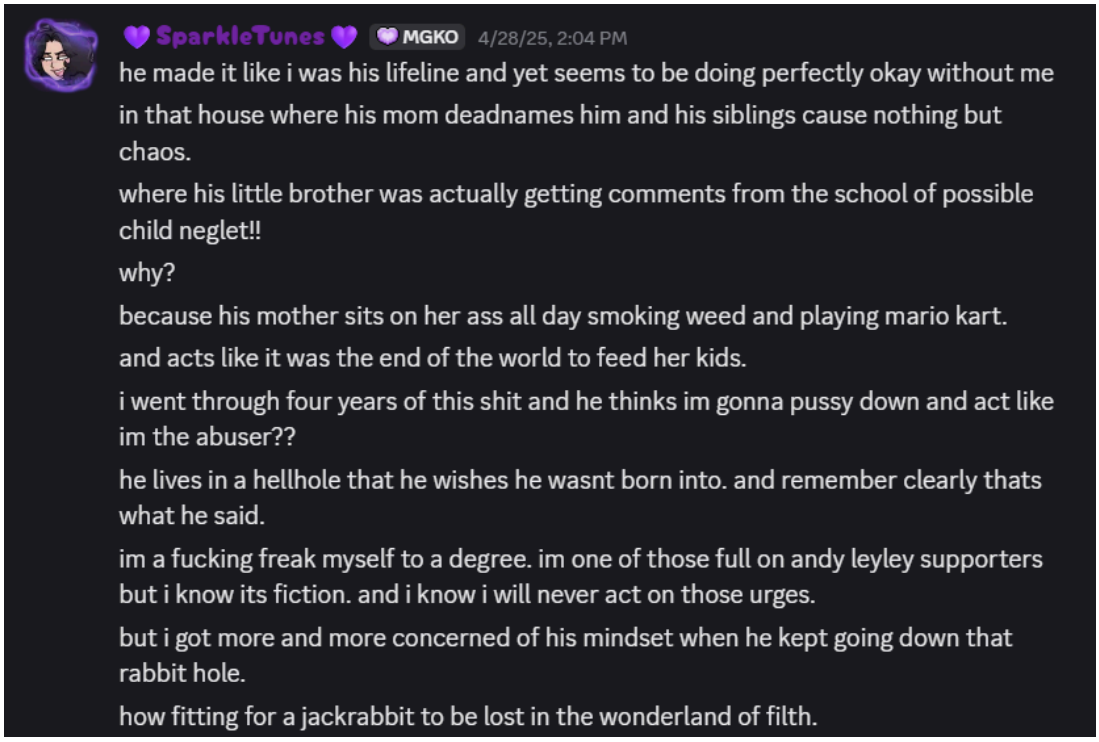

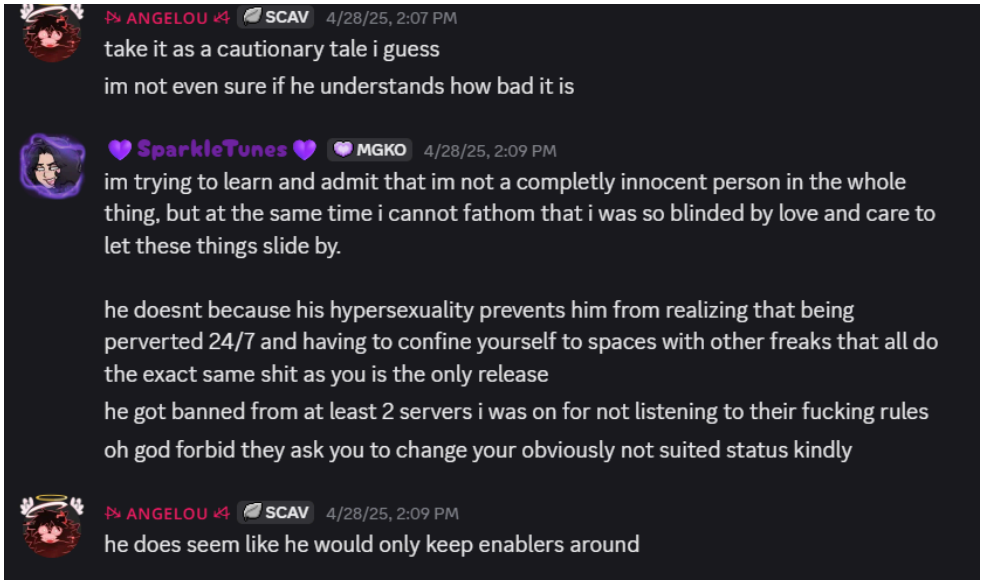

Jaiden then makes aggressive comments about JACKRABBLT's location, this is not the first instance she will do this.

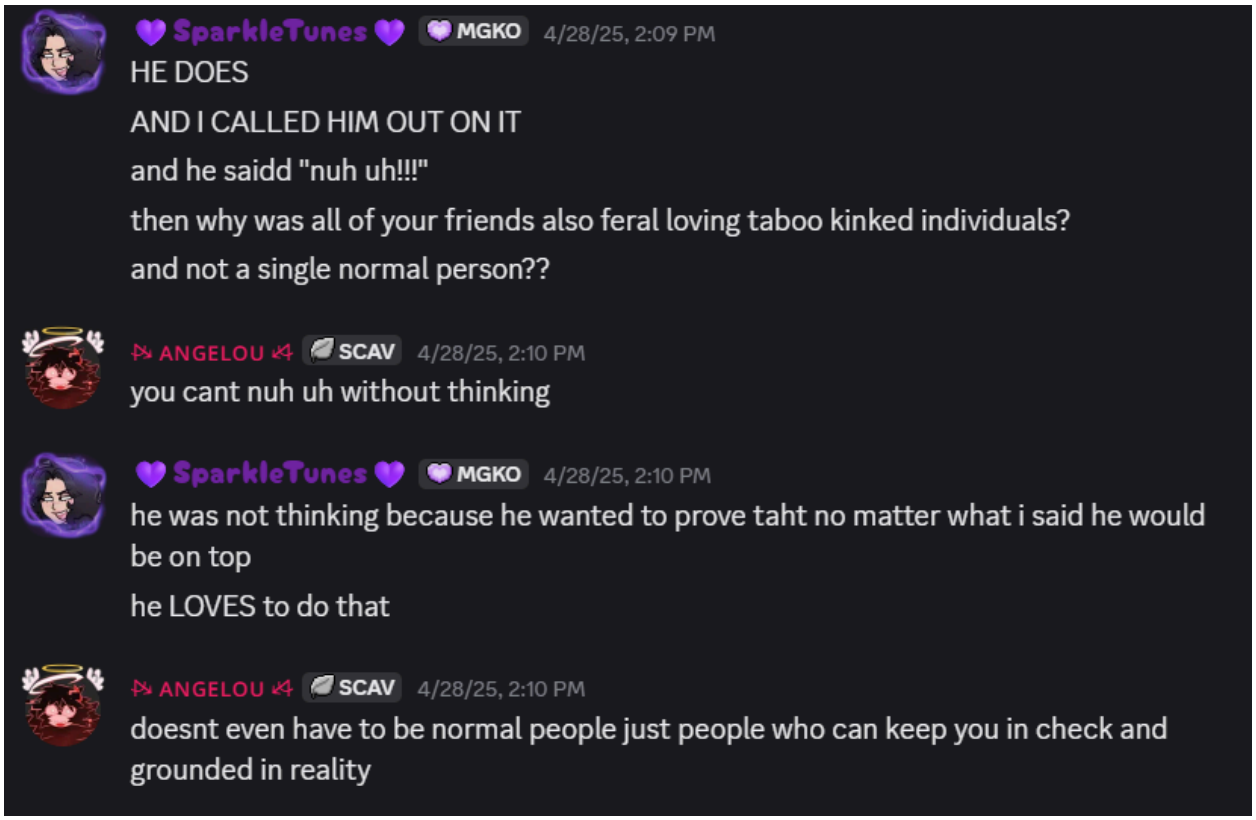

Comments about JACKRABBLT's homelife that exclude any mention of Jaiden's behavior during that time. Jaiden is also trying to use having to experience Jack's family (an element he can't control & Jaiden made worse by deliberately not listening to them) to discredit JACKRABBLT calling her an abuser. She is still an abuser even if she had to deal with another abusive family, what she did was abuse, and her behaviors in these discord screenshots show she is still abusive as well.

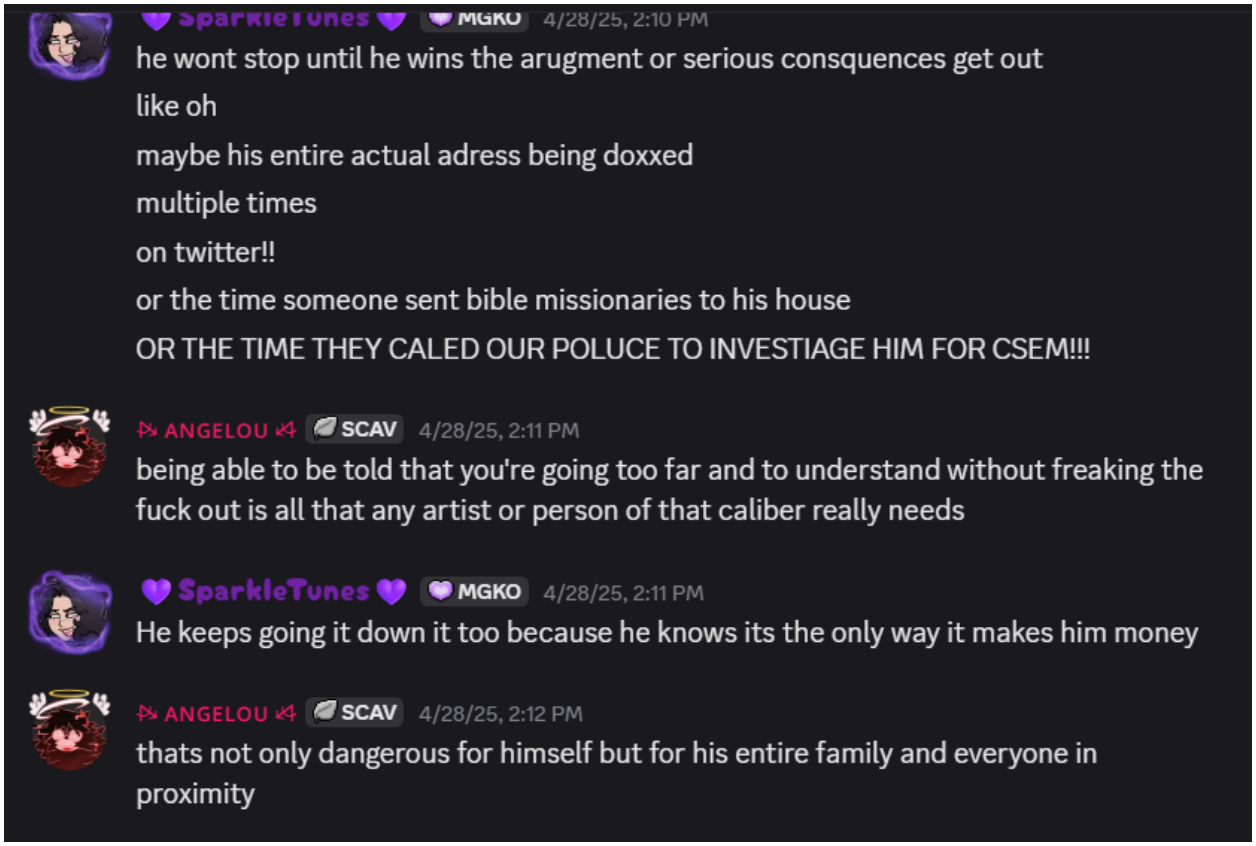

They're upset at him here for not wanting to change his status in a "Proship Okegom" server. What was JACKRABBLT's status in question? Just basically the word "rape" over and over again(really not that impressive of a joke but he is a rape victim who cares.), this is despite the fact in the Okegom games rape is basically treated as a joke. On top of this, this stupid server could not even handle people posting drawings of healed self harm scars and needed them content warned. By the time Jack's status was complained about he stopped talking in their server since it was quite clearly a sanitized environment & overmoderated. Overmoderated discords are never fun.

Jaiden complaining about his inability to get a regular job, despite the fact he:

1. Did not have anyone to transport him during this time, his mom can't drive, his dad is the only driver and works constantly. Jaiden on the other hand, has a helicopter mom who will drive her wherever she wants. Her mom also does things like manage her doctor appointments for her to the point she doesn't know what's going on during them. A lot of this Jack was stuck on his own for.
2. He is drawing to save his life, seeing as in July of 2024 is when his seizures began to make him entirely dysfunctional. You cannot hold a job with untreated seizures, and his parents also caused a giant roadblock into him getting help.
3. Jaiden's old boss in question is a T-BONES manager who had direct ties to the high school both Jack & Jaiden went to. These types of managers are known to exploit their younger staff because they know they can by doing things like scheduling calls and then completely missing them. Jaiden has experienced this, as she'd have issues with her scheduling.
    a. Jaiden also went insane from working at T-BONES as a dishwasher leading Jack to have to text 911 once.
        i. On top of that, Jack even at 18 was incredibly disabled. He couldn't lift 50 pounds which is a requirement for most of these jobs. He was also very mentally unstable, and morbidly anxious. If he had not had a meltdown in response to the phone call, he would have not been able to psychically keep up.

You by far, are the worst partner I have ever had the experience of dating, just because of that prolonged weeks of torture that are still occurring to now. I am traumatized because of you in so many ways, but you just don't believe me? You did just about everything to trigger me, and you expect me to accept your apology when you can't even give me closure the first time I ask, instead you state me with;
“Until you realize that you're playing the victim card I am not speaking to you.”
I'm pressing your own quote in the back of your skull, I'm going to make you remember that and everything you've done to me. You ruined my life, I am developing an eating disorder stemming directly from your incidents, I am constantly afraid to post and had to rebuild myself to post artwork at all.
This is all you have done to me, and yet you fear being called abusive, and ableist, so much you can't even mutter it back in your pathetic apology. That label was too far, it makes you panic to realize the reality of traumatizing someone.
And for someone who feared so badly being like “one of my exs”, you should have thought twice before you lazily spammed me with “I hate you” 47 times (I counted!). In fact, you had the chance to think twice around the 18 mark, but decided to spam me with “I hate you” another 27 times. You are a terrible person for that, and even worse partner.
I did everything I could for you and tried my hardest to teach you not to be a stuck up asshole but you can't fix yourself because you avoid all of your problems. Who the fuck knows if you even

I did everything I could for you and tried my hardest to teach you not to be a stuck up asshole but you can't fix yourself because you avoid all of your problems. Who the fuck knows if you even got this deep into the paragraph, last time Crea sent you stuff like this you had a meltdown over it like you didn't just fakeclaim me.
And no, I don't believe your excuses that all of this was “stress”. You wanted to get rid of me in an easy way and forget about me, by shredding me apart. You did what Beni did to me, exactly, but somehow worse. I don't even know how you managed to do this all to me, my friend quoted “can't understand why you'd do this”, my conclusion is that you're just a cruel person.
I do hope you change but I'll never fucking forgive you in my god damn life. I think you deserve to be dragged and lose every decent person around you and thrown in the psych ward for everything you have demonstrated.
Only up until the very end you finally admit you are wrong, because you were forced to.
So congratulations Jaiden, I do hate you. I despise you and I freak out everytime you're mentioned because of what you did to me. I literally already had another seizure due to you and being stressed because of the shit you tried to pull.
I'm not playing your game either. :)

We should experiment on pedophiles and zoophiles

Jaiden then basically threatens JACKRABBLT and claims she “owns” the town.

Jaiden is also most definitely a lolishotacon (in denial again). Jaiden used to have consensual roleplays with Jack where he’d pretend to be younger, with very explicit jokes. She was definitely into it, here is one example where she is roleplaying that Jack is Ciel Phantomhive.

Rape Admission

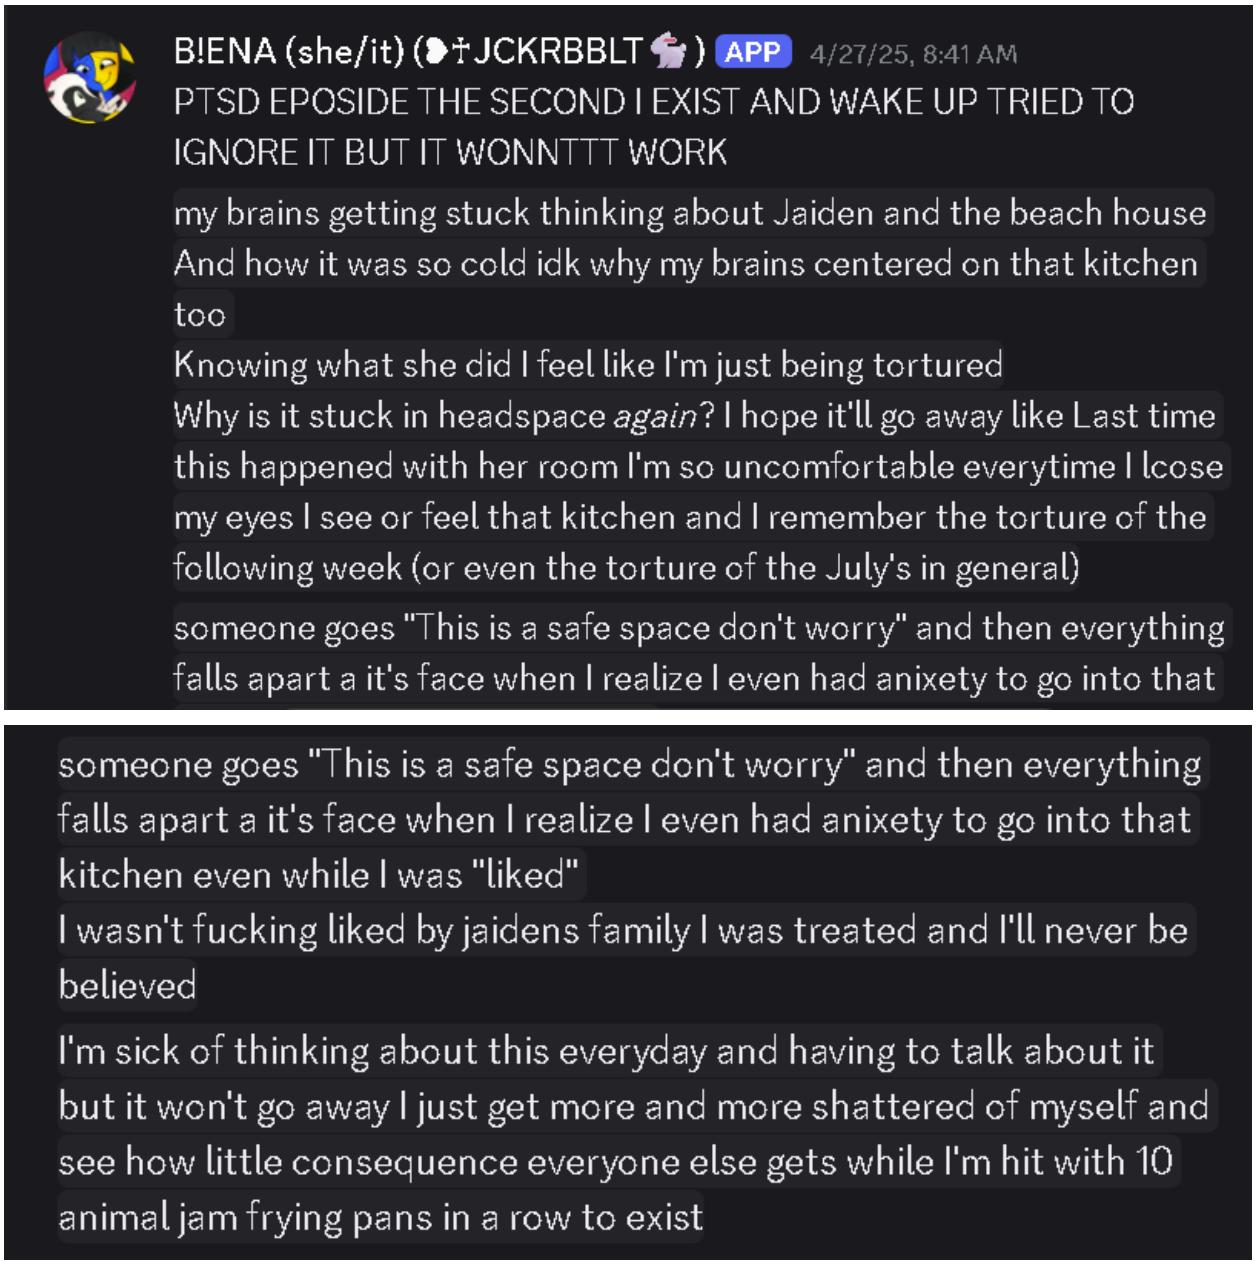

Jaiden self admits to rape by downplaying it in a conversation about JACKRABBLT's artwork on discord. She begins by complaining about what Jack did to Donut (an oc JACKRABBLT always owned the copyright for). JACKRABBLT remade the OC into an abuser and decided to use both Munchkin & Donut to illustrate a toxic codependent dynamic, then uses them within vent art in order to cope. This artwork is clearly not for Jaiden, or Vedacia's server as a whole, as it is a personal intense depiction of someone's pain from being sexually assaulted.

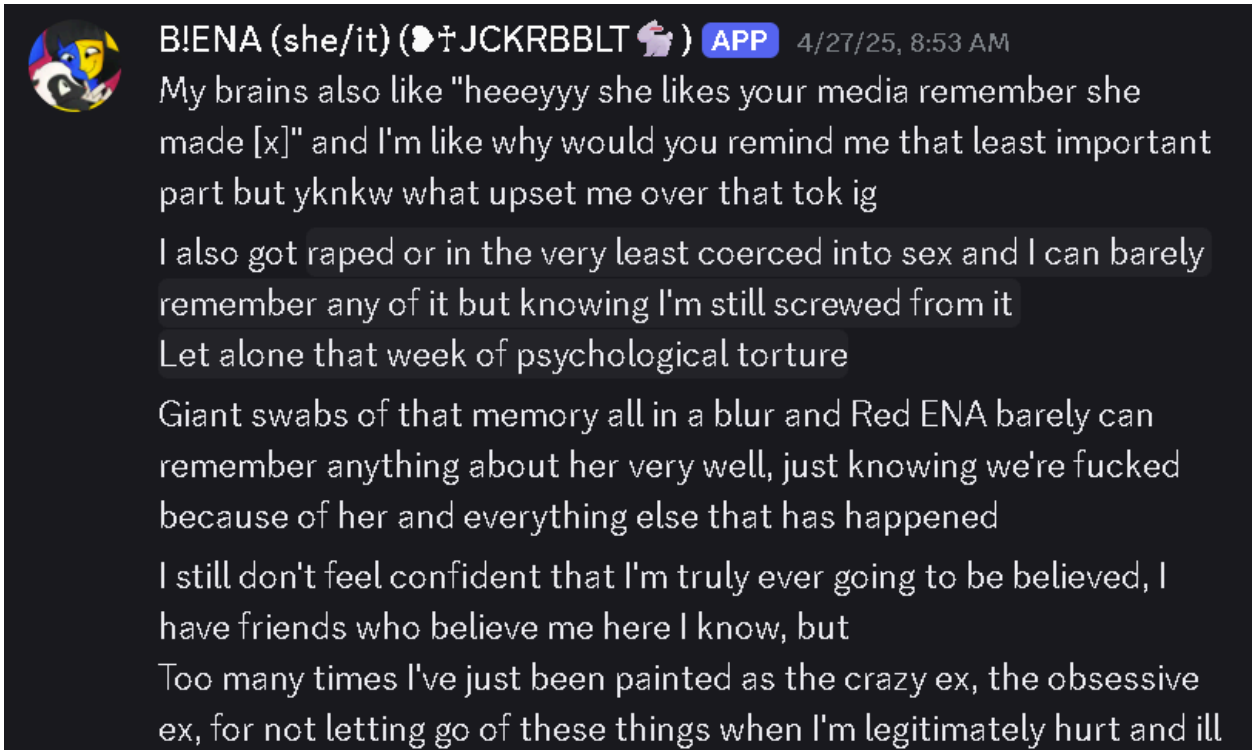

The details for the particular complained about pornographic image are actually near accurate (beyond it being fictionalized) to JACKRABBLT's real life rape. This is not the first time he has represented someone's abuse to him in a fictional story, and it is a common coping mechanism for many fictional authors.

According to Blue ENA of JACKRABBLT, she felt coerced into the sex. She had nervous body language and was tense which was ignored, what little consent Blue ENA gave was not euthanastic. As self admitted below from Jaiden, there clearly also wasn't enough of a set up before Jaiden had sex with Blue ENA. Blue ENA had told her she specifically wanted her to ask permission to cum inside of her, due to her fear of pregnancy*(the incident was anal but she was very worried about contamination)* & wanting to be prepared. Clearly Blue ENA's want to be informed about this sort of thing was ignored, and she was raped. Jaiden has no remorse for her actions since she directly laughed about it. If she truly felt bad, she wouldn't of mocked JACKRABBLT+co for being heavily traumatized by her.

Vedacia's chat also instantly dismisses JACKRABBLT's rape as "nuance" however this is not nuance this is rape. She self admits in her own admission that she didn't "set up the fact beforehand," meaning she neglected to even ask permission to do this because she wanted to have sex so badly. There is no nuance, this is the admission of a rapist. Someone who made a true mistake here would not violently mock their victim like this, & everyone in the chat is absolutely disgusting for dismissing her actions.

This testimony from Blue ENA has a lot of things that will correlate in both the vent art & discord screenshots. She also goes on to add even more concerning behavior Jaiden has allegedly done to her throughout the years, and some context to other comments Jaiden makes.

ANGELOU SCAV 5/11/25, 3:00 PM to use such a tiny and specific detail as a weapon speaks volumes

Vedacia claims this is a tiny and specific detail, but it's not, because it was a point made in the cut off paragraphs Jack made. She didn't send the full messages because they clearly incriminate what she did further and directly, and only cherrypicked this to make a point. What actually spoke volumes was the fact she had a chance to stop after sending I hate you 18 times and decided to continue anyways.

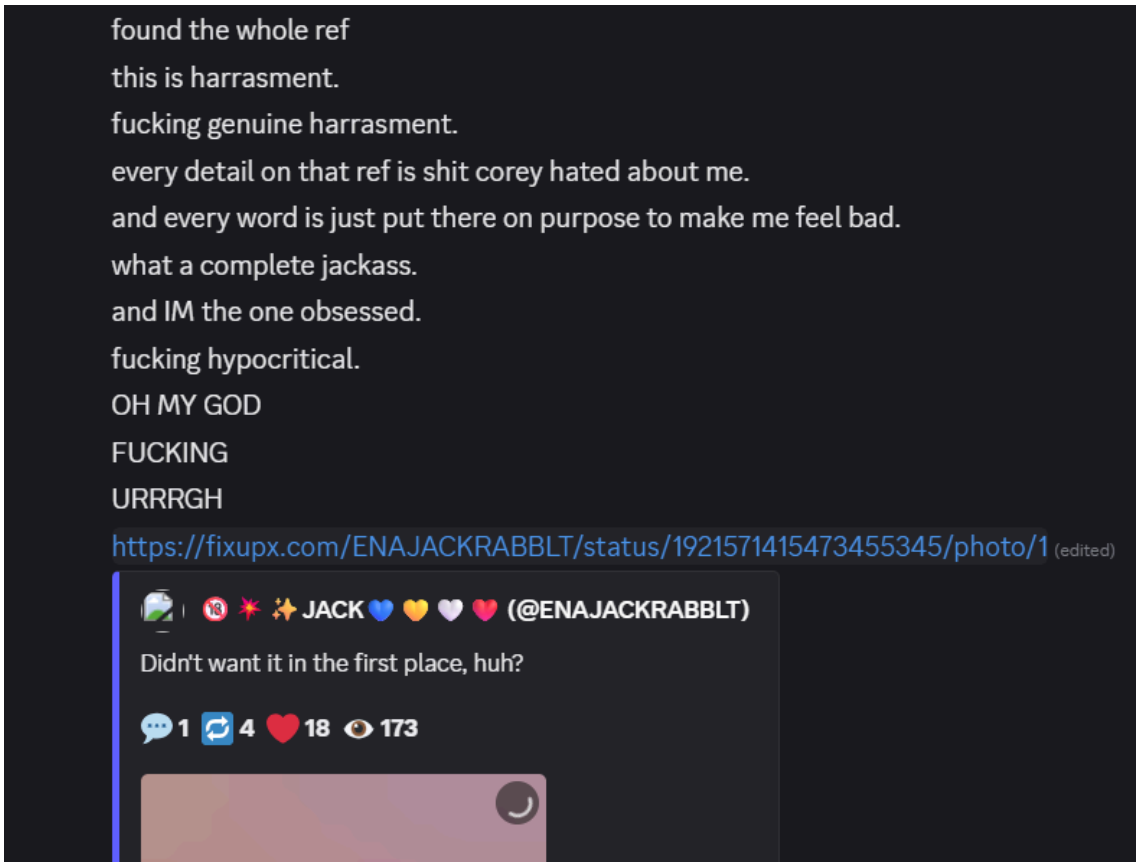

Jaiden proceeds to assume Donut's new reference is to upset her in particular, when as already explained, none of this art was ever made for Jaiden (or Vedacia, or Vedacia's friends). This is JACKRABBLT reclaiming a design that was based on his abuser that he already owned the copyright for the entire time. He is allowed to change his characters to reflect a codependent relationship to cope. Abuse victims do this all of the time, she just knows the traits apply to her so she freaks out.

She begins to make comments about the vent rape art Jack made. Despite it being pornographic content, it's still genuine vent art, and more like a genuine depiction of his pain from being assaulted than something intended to make anyone mad. Jaiden is taking it this way because she can't accept she is a rapist. She even tells on herself, basically admitting the event did happen, and the chat dismissed it with nuance. Lining it up with JACKRABBLT's testimony above, as well as her reaction to demean the victim, she is most definitely a rapist for this event.
(It is not nuanced. You either consent or you don't. Jack did not consent, so it is nonconsensual.)

Sexual Harassment Strawpages

JACKRABBLT was sent three particular strawpage gimmicks that we can likely attribute to her. Despite these being anons, she decided to do the very stupid thing of sending hate mail by drawing. This also isn't just any type of hate art, it was specifically designed to trigger and upset JACKRABBLT as much as possible. The worst image, the first one Jack was sent, contains both references to aliens & tentacles. The picture is also done with a pink lineart, which is different to the default red lineart, meaning it most definitely meant to be a depiction of Corey. The second drawing is a crude penis with faces on its balls, but the third one probably is Munchkin.

We think the motive here specifically is revenge for what Jack drew, but what Jack drew was vent art about real (or fictionalized) events of his own characters. He did nothing wrong by drawing out how he's been abused, and no one deserves to be sent personalized sexual harassment art with the intent to terrorize.

How we know this is Jaiden's art is based off of the hand writing and general quality of the art. These likely(though could not be) mobile drawings from how much lag you can psychically see in the lineart. If you see how Jaiden sketches, you can clearly tell she is not very patient with how she draws, it's all very sloppy, limited to no idea what composition is; THIS ALL TRANSFERS TO THESE HATE DRAWINGS! On top of this, now having the screenshots of Jaiden's rape admission in reaction to the drawings of Donut, all of this happened around the same exact time, 2025. This most definitely was a guerrilla warfare attempt at getting JACKRABBLT to shut down & feel violated.

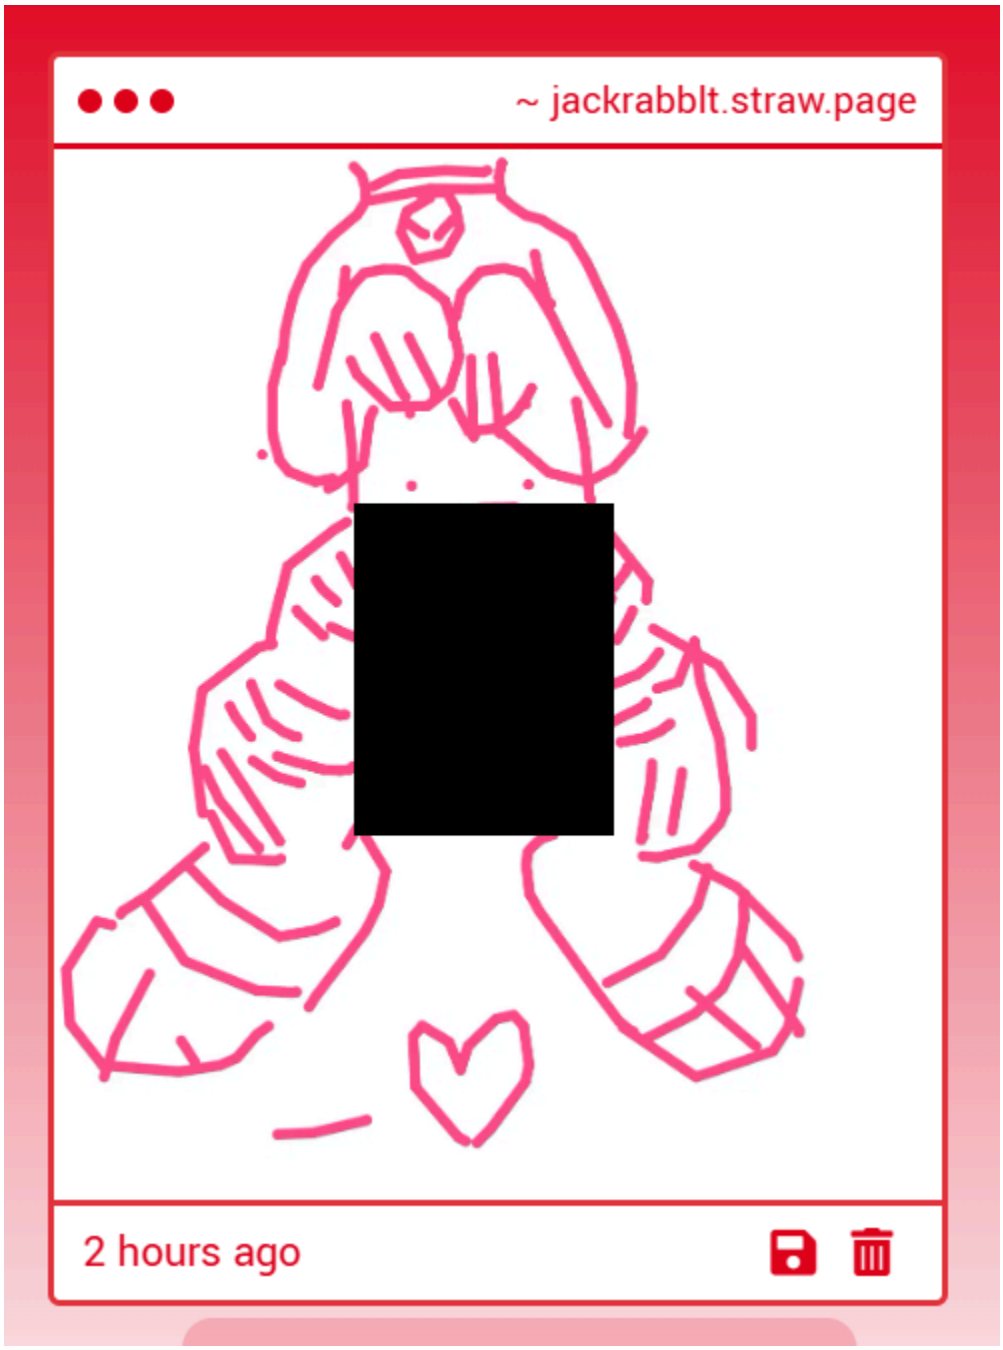

Due to the general NSFW nature of these strawpages, they're censored, but we will explain in full writing detail each one for context purposes.

1. Sexual Harassment Corey Art

Sexual harassment art that's likely of Corey of JACKRABBLT. We can't necessarily tell it's a rabbit but we can assume based on the context, as Jaiden drew the head cutoff as well as the tail. The creature is on its back while wearing a collar with an alien on it, something Corey has been known to dislike & sometimes even fear. A humanoid like pussy (with a very poor understanding of anatomy) has a tentacle protrude out of it, the tentacle having a “>ʍ<” face on it. There’s also chains on his feet as well, and it’s signed with a heart, which all of these are signed with a heart.

2. Furry Penis Abomination

Jaiden can’t really draw that well especially in something as limited as strawpage so upon seeing this particular one, everyone was super stumped. But upon closer inspection it’s most definitely meant to be a knotted penis (with a 💢 on it), with two balls with faces on them. The faces are undeniably like the style Jaiden has, but since they’re within a poor depiction of ballsacks, we decided to keep them censored. The handwriting is a big giveaway though. Keep in mind all of these references, there's an excessive amount of references in all of these.

3. Munchkin Rape Fanart

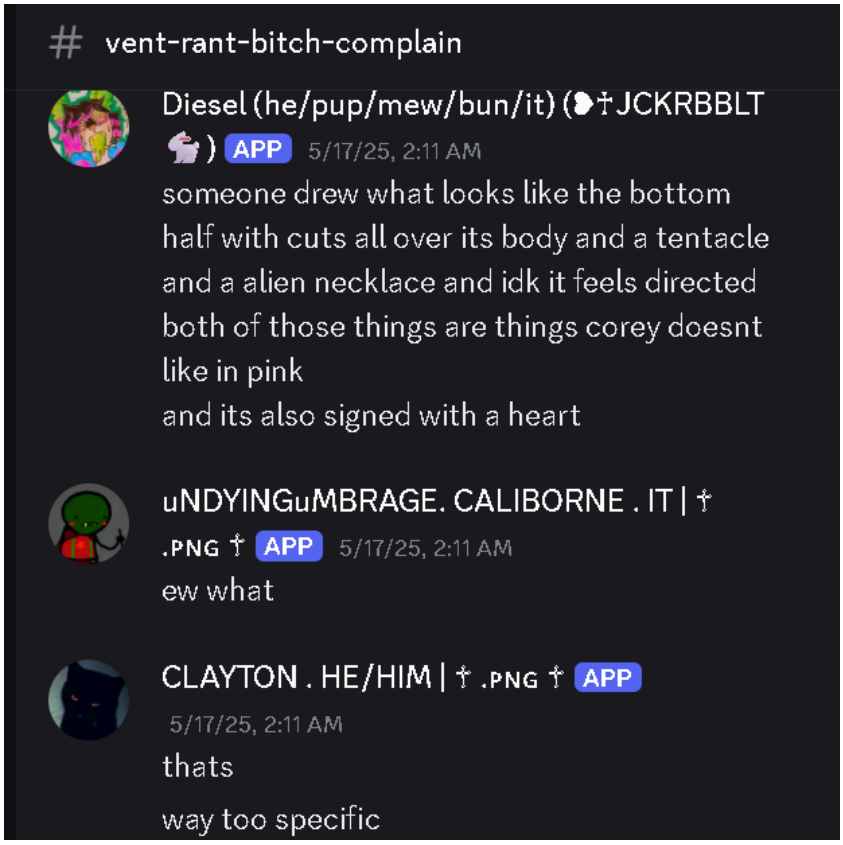

This one was incredibly confusing, with some people thinking it's Donut at first from how cluttered it is. Due to the eevee tail present, it most likely is meant to be Munchkin. There's something explicit that's probably rape happening to him but it's difficult to make out, as well as Munchkin has cuts on him & also is in shackles. The text says "everyone is mean 2 me" in the world's worst cursive you've ever seen.

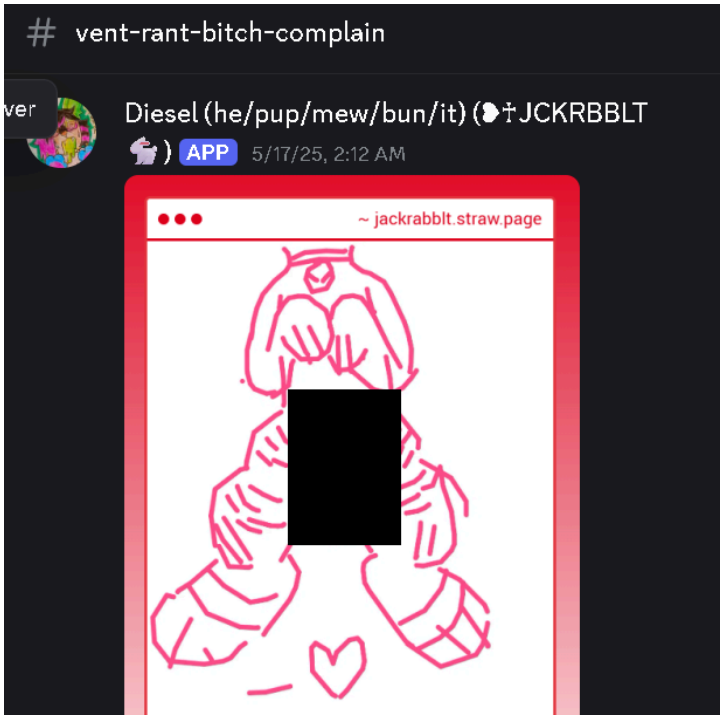

What is actually remarkable is those hands she struggled to draw, look at how blocky they are; it lines up with how she actually draws hands elsewhere. She can't claim this isn't her without lying, it would be near impossible for someone to think of this on their own or be able to replicate it.

I just feel so gutterly violated by this, it was already upsetting enough to go through this and to then see this, to be so unsure and hope it's not what I think it is and once I can see it properly clearly my eyes just well with tears and I know who made that I'm a split of Corey but a more unstable verison of Corey and I jst jfhgvgshjdn I'm not taking this well this is quite literally one of the worst things to throw at me and I didn't think anyone would ever do anything like this. Zero possibility and was expected to see maybe a question or someone telling me I'm a hypocrite not tentacle alien sexual harassment art

Jack was overwhelmed by grief from being sexually harassed so bad he simply wished he got death threats instead. It's understandable, it's quite absurd to wake up one day and see your ex partner who raped you (& thinks it's something to laugh at), had made artwork designed to terrorize you.

Many people on this doc do not deserve to have a platform, but especially Jaiden in particular. How evil do you have to be to send someone something like this?

PNG's Relationship With JACKRABBLT

As seen by many of the above screenshots, PNG had an overall unhealthy relationship with JACKRABBLT. PNG took the role of comforting Jack directly after he broke up with Jaiden, basically scooping him up from a toxic situation and putting him into a worse one where his self harm was enabled.

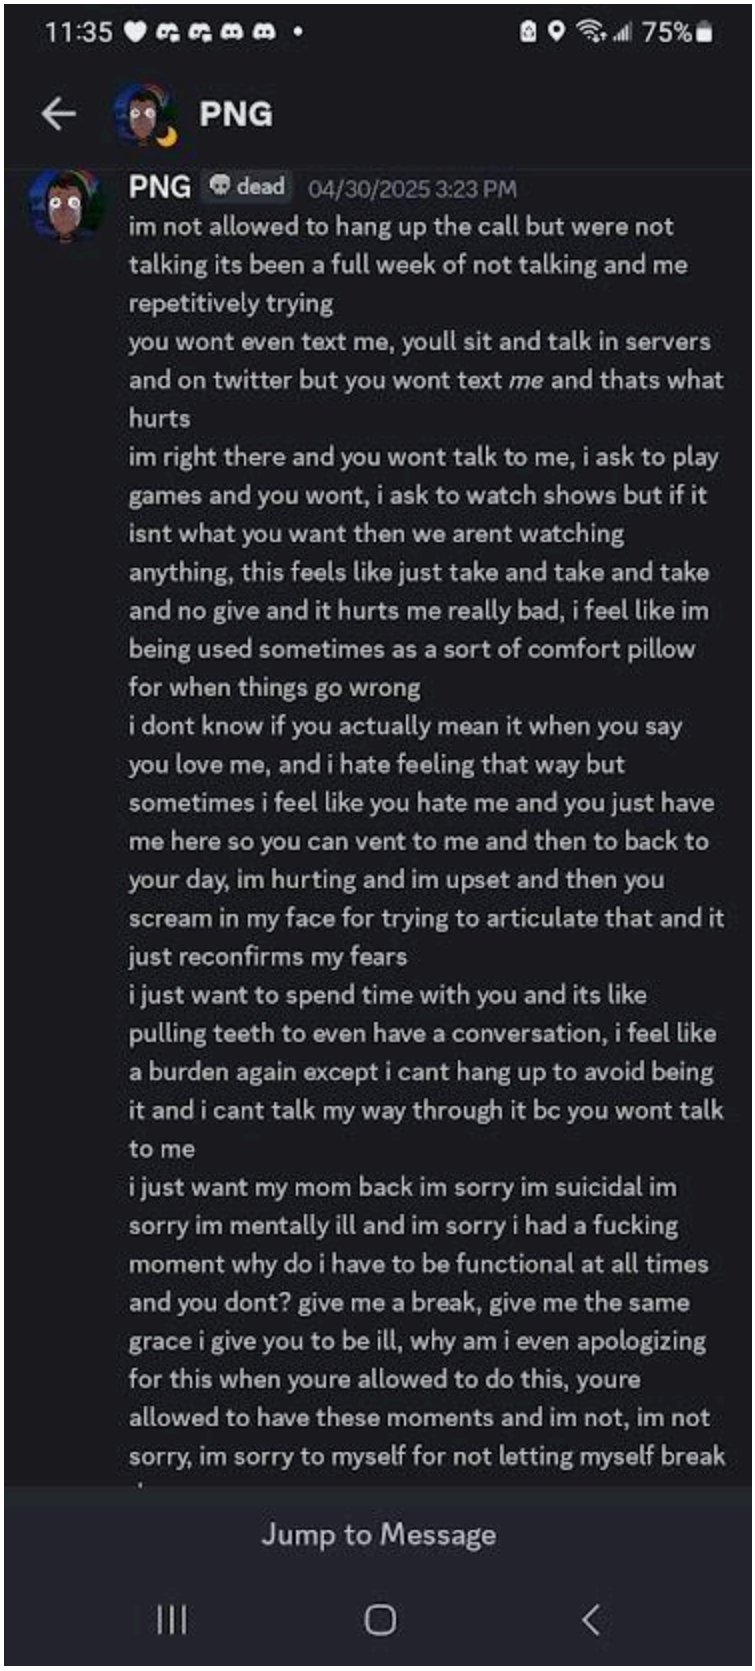

The relationship was incredibly codependent, climaxing in April of 2025. Jack and PNG were on a call after an extremely stressful morning where PNG's dad had to be contacted over his suicidal behavior. The call starts, and both of them just say hi to each other and the conversation doesn't develop past and into silence once Jack's attempt to start a conversation fails.

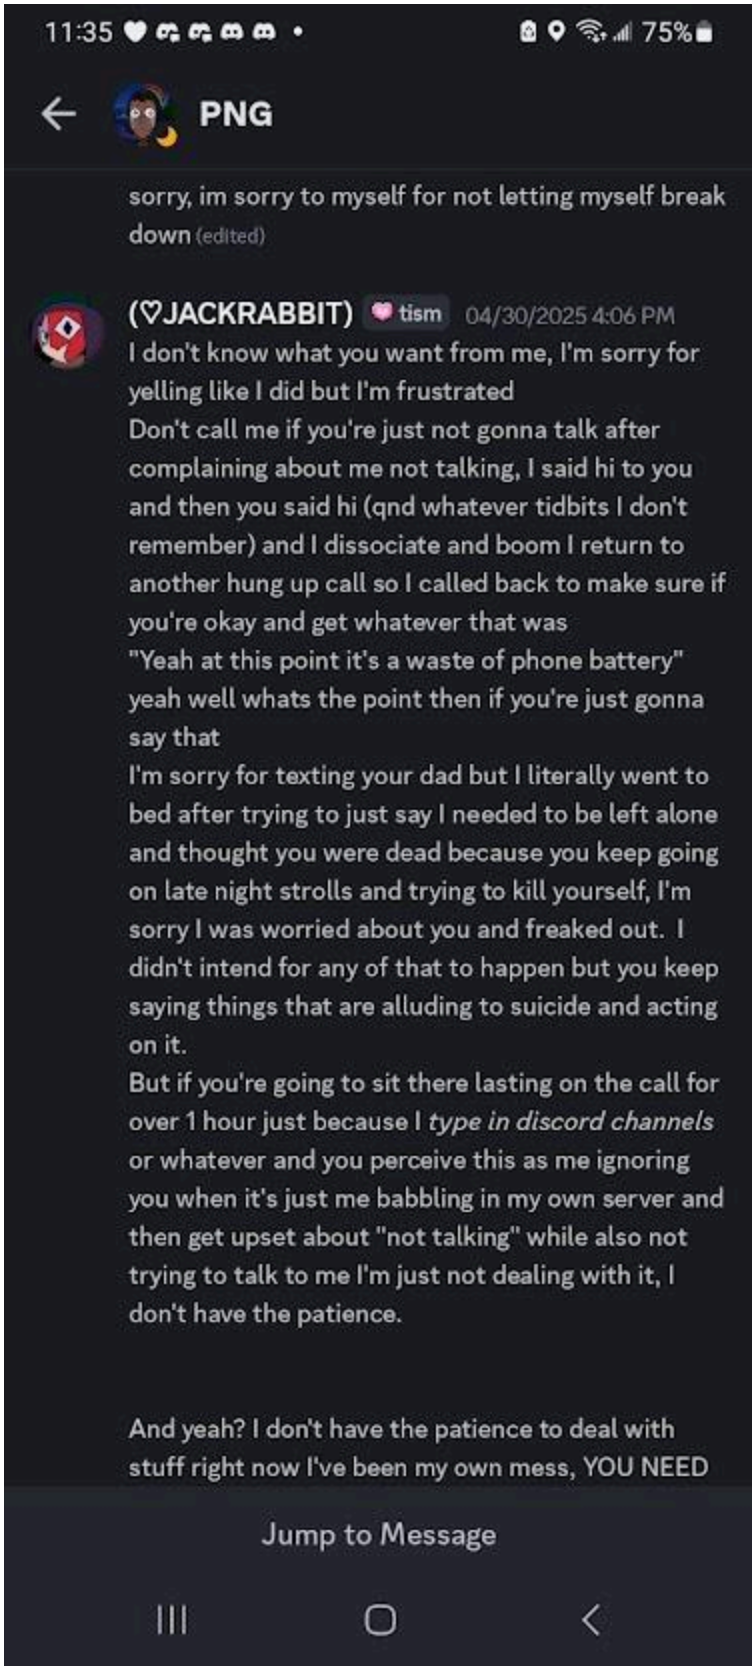

After around an hour, PNG abruptly hangs up the call, to which Jack, alarmed, tries to call back as he's had a habit of trying to hurt or kill himself a lot of the times he'd hang up the call abruptly like that. When the phone picks up, an argument ensues, where PNG gets upset with Jack for not talking. Jack said he tried to talk and have a conversation but PNG did not try either, and that by calling back, he's just trying to make sure PNG is okay.

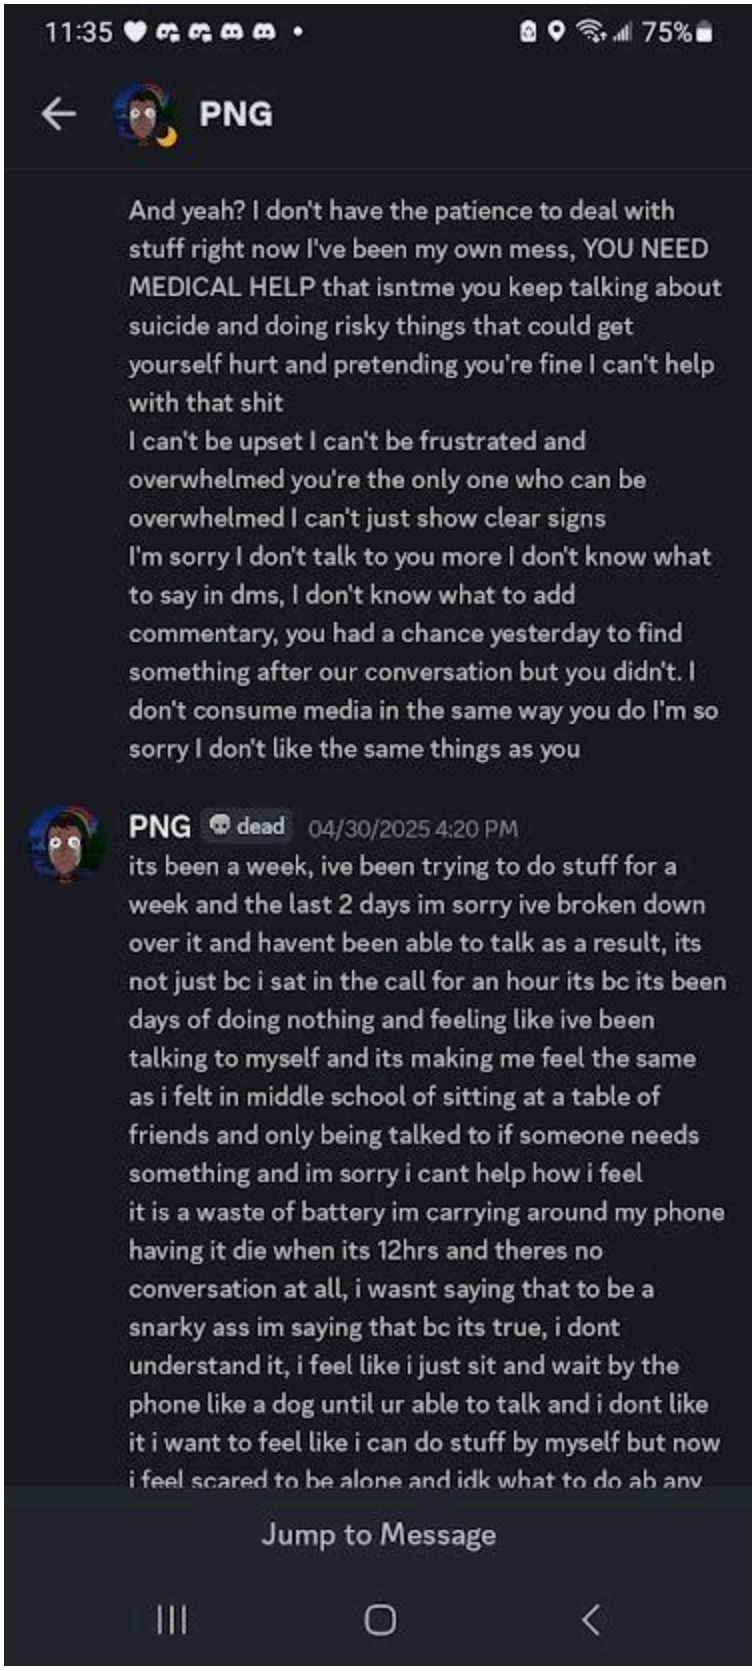

Eventually PNG says "Yeah at this point it's a waste of phone battery" To which a slightly loud Jack says (not truly screaming as PNG freaks out in the messages below, it's more like an assertive angry voice), "Here, you can have your hung up call!"

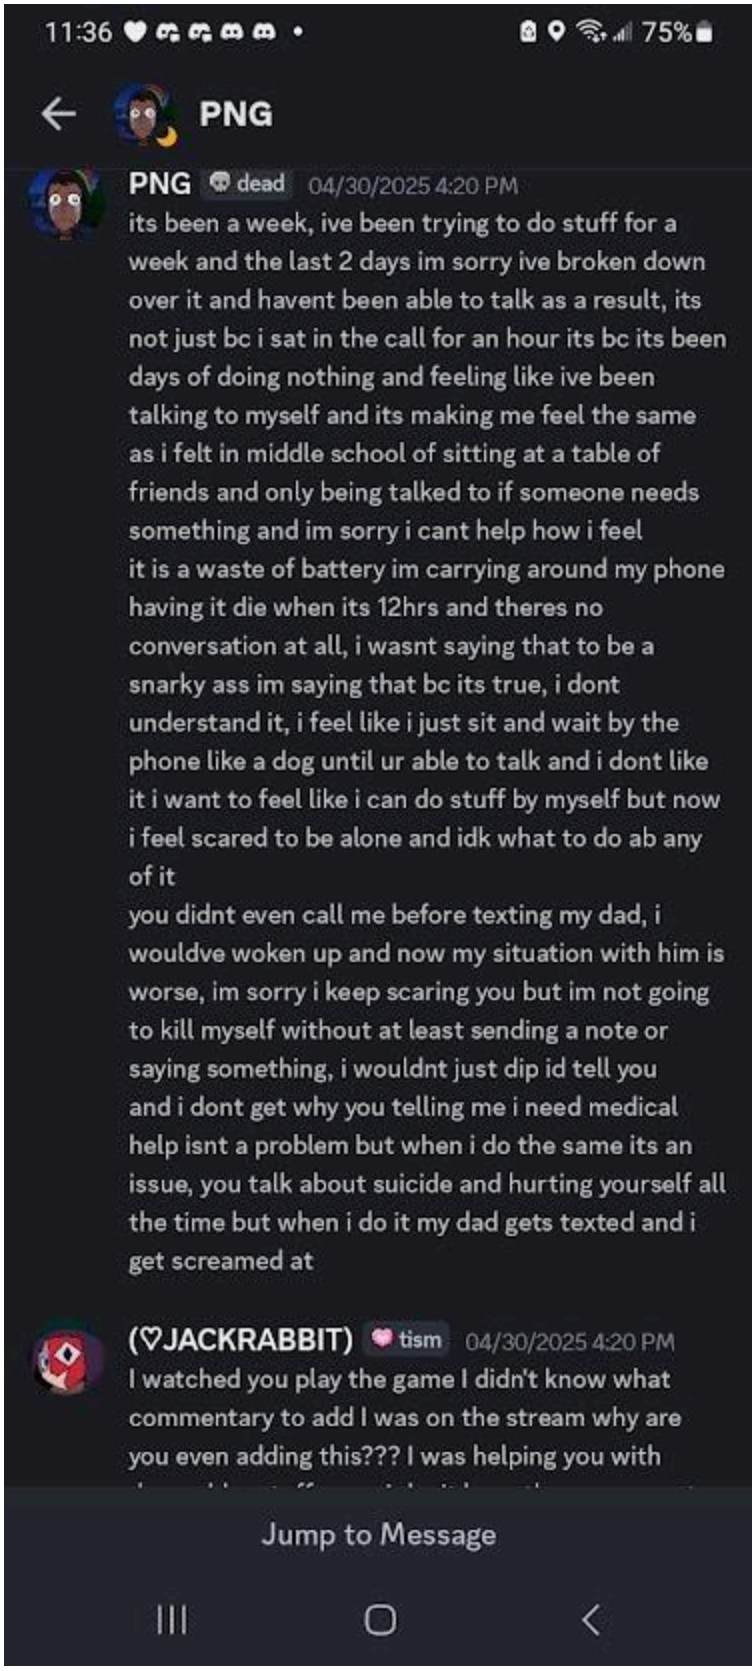

Note: There's no screen recordings of this call, so this part is based on recollection, it just adds context to better understand the scenario that started this conversation.
What concluded he IMMEDIATELY threatened to see his mom (kill himself) with giant paragraphs berating him. You can really see the state of the codependency, especially when things like not having the same exact interests in media is a problem. Then on his deep priv (not archived) he begins to tweet about how he's suicidally playing with his brother's gun (he's also not even meant to touch this gun over a concern about his fingerprints being on it). This results in an argument where PNG tries to justify why this is okay and a normal coping mechanism. Just keep this all in mind when he tries to say other people need help, because really it's projection.

you wont even text me, youll sit and talk in servers and on twitter but you wont text me and thats what hurts im right there and you wont talk to me, i ask to play games and you wont, i ask to watch shows but if it isnt what you want then we arent watching anything, this feels like just take and take and take and no give and it hurts me really bad, i feel like im being used sometimes as a sort of comfort pillow for when things go wrong
i dont know if you actually mean it when you say you love me, and i hate feeling that way but sometimes i feel like you hate me and you just have me here so you can vent to me and then to back to your day, im hurting and im upset and then you scream in my face for trying to articulate that and it just reconfirms my fears
i just want to spend time with you and its like pulling teeth to even have a conversation, i feel like a burden again except i cant hang up to avoid being it and i cant talk my way through it bc you wont talk to me i just want my mom back im sorry im suicidal im sorry im mentally ill and im sorry i had a fucking moment why do i have to be functional at all times and you dont? give me a break, give me the same grace i give you to be ill, why am i even apologizing for this when youre allowed to do this, youre allowed to have these moments and im not, im not sorry, im sorry to myself for not letting myself break

I don't know what you want from me, I'm sorry for yelling like I did but I'm frustrated Don't call me if you're just not gonna talk after complaining about me not talking, I said hi to you and then you said hi (qnd whatever tidbits I don't remember) and I dissociate and boom I return to another hung up call so I called back to make sure if you're okay and get whatever that was
"Yeah at this point it's a waste of phone battery" yeah well whats the point then if you're just gonna say that I'm sorry for texting your dad but I literally went to bed after trying to just say I needed to be left alone and thought you were dead because you keep going on late night strolls and trying to kill yourself, I'm sorry I was worried about you and freaked out. I didn't intend for any of that to happen but you keep saying things that are alluding to suicide and acting on it.
But if you're going to sit there lasting on the call for over 1 hour just because I type in discord channels or whatever and you perceive this as me ignoring you when it's just me babbling in my own server and then get upset about "not talking" while also not trying to talk to me I'm just not dealing with it, I don't have the patience.

And by proxy I end up dissoicating or not having much to say on shows I don't know, yellowjackets I didn't understand what was going on even with the commentary I'm sorry I tried I could recognize some characters but I just sat thru and dissociated or multitasked while it became background noise.
And then some cartoons I just don't like or can't stand one way or another, I'm sorry, not sure what to do about that one
And I also can't help when I just want to listen to music and be productive and not consume media beyond music, I have mulitple of those days, I consume media very slowly on my own
As I tried to tell you last night before shit hit the fan, you could of suggested something but you choose not to and I already communicated that I had No Ideas Because I Don't.

That is not a healthy or okay mechanism to remind yourself if you have the means you could kill yourself everytime you're suicidal.
You're holding a gun in your hands while feeling suicidal and it's not even yours, he needs to lock that shit away from you because once you have the wrong episode you could possibly have te means to kill yourself for real

That's like if I held a knife to my neck and told myself if I cut my neck open I can die, what happens when my impairment is fucked up and I'm not thinking straight (let's think back to when you nearly DID kill yourself by overdosing, if you didn't throw up or they were more dangerous drugs YOU COULD OF DIED.) Even if I hesitated and put it down almost every time before, there is still a risk, even an accidental risk.
but I can't make you change, I can't fix you, but that isn't okay, you're just making suicide a more viable option in the long run and an obsession. (edited)

I'm still relatively pissed off and aggravated so I don't want to be on call with you, I'm sorry. I'm sorry RENA also bursted out at you but we were definitely overwhelmed and the entire thing made us overwhelmed 10 fold. I don't particularly like it when you pull apart my emotions in arguments like this and say it's "hypocrispy" for expressing concern over real concerning actions. My vents do not have pictures of me holding guns with text saying I'm going to kill myself, I say I'm suicidal but I'm not acting on it. She was insisting you needed medical attention because this is repeative behavior of you almost getting yourself killed vs suicidal idealations we have (that is somehow hypocritical to us being concerned you're going to die).

Unfortunately, RENA sucks at wording anything and also seized (Mari freaking out this morning was also mulitple seizures about you and if you were eve alive, she didn't intend for your dad to scream at you and tried her best to try to make sure that didn't happen by using your deadname and trying to get outside help about you). All of this points to that we care about you, and then RENA becomes frustrated after being so stressed with that, of course she was overwhelmed. I do not like that she acted inappropriately or not the most perfect way. Things like this are why we don't want to talk to you about what's going on in our brain and deal with it ourselves, it's just weaponized to show we're a hypocrite. You complain we don't vent to you too when you don't respond to our vents in server or the topic is too triggering to handle, or you're just flat out asleep or not there in some way. You ignore vent art because it's also too triggering and half of our self expression you just see as us ignoring you rather than, self expression.
It's frustrating. You want me to be something else that we're not, and my concern is an attack to you half of the time.
If I missed clarifications here and there, sorry, all of this is just a lot. RENA's idea is to only be on call when we're "doing something or talking verbal that day", I'm sick of things like this happening. I'm tired, my brain isn't doing good and I can't think very well at this point.

I can try to talk to you more, nor am I saying you have to look at everything I've done, it's just that you keep taking that as me ignoring you and going off to talk somewhere else. And the general preference to vent to an outside source (like in server) because I have
1. Heavy vents with heavy topics to say, not all of which I want to "dump on you" or make you deal with
2. You are asleep half of the time I'm awake throughout the day
There are moments where I then after doing it tell you about it and give you the choice whether or not you want to read / have something to say or if it's too much to handle. That is if I want to talk verbally about it.

I could give examples here but one in particular is the time you put on a movie and we had face cams on and Vessel was fully regressed in a diaper just to see you come out of the bath after hurting yourself and say it was funny how he said something to you. We get flashbacks of that moment, didn't tell you till now because I'm not allowed to continue being upset about it because you "didn't intend the camera on". I still don't like the camera on now.
My alters don't trust things will be fine with you due to things like that, and how also on New Years, you hung up the call and attempted suicide. I have every right to be nervous about you; these are a bunch of traumatic events that seeped into my behavior and have thus made me more avoidant, less trustful of you and generally scared to be frank.
And I'm not saying that to demonize you, I'm not saying all of this to be "mean". I know I have done similar (mostly just referring to the Jaiden situation where I walked out outside, or the stress of muting the call on both ends it gives), but I think this fear has a reason.A good reason.

Because I don't or it doesn't work, sometimes I just want to be listened to and understood. Sometimes I want to know how to process my emotions more, how to deal with my alters. And sometimes there is simply nothing to do.
Sometimes I want just confirmation what I'm feeling isn't irrational and crazy, that it isn't dismissive, not an immidate solution.
Sometimes I just need to get out out, and again, I don't want to dump it on you.
There isn't a picture perfect solution for me at all, there never was. I have a complex mix of trauma I'm constantly trying to cope with. I've actually been doing better (aside from yesterday's hiccups a bit) allowing myself to express myself and figure things out what's going on in my head.

Block Evasion Post Breakup

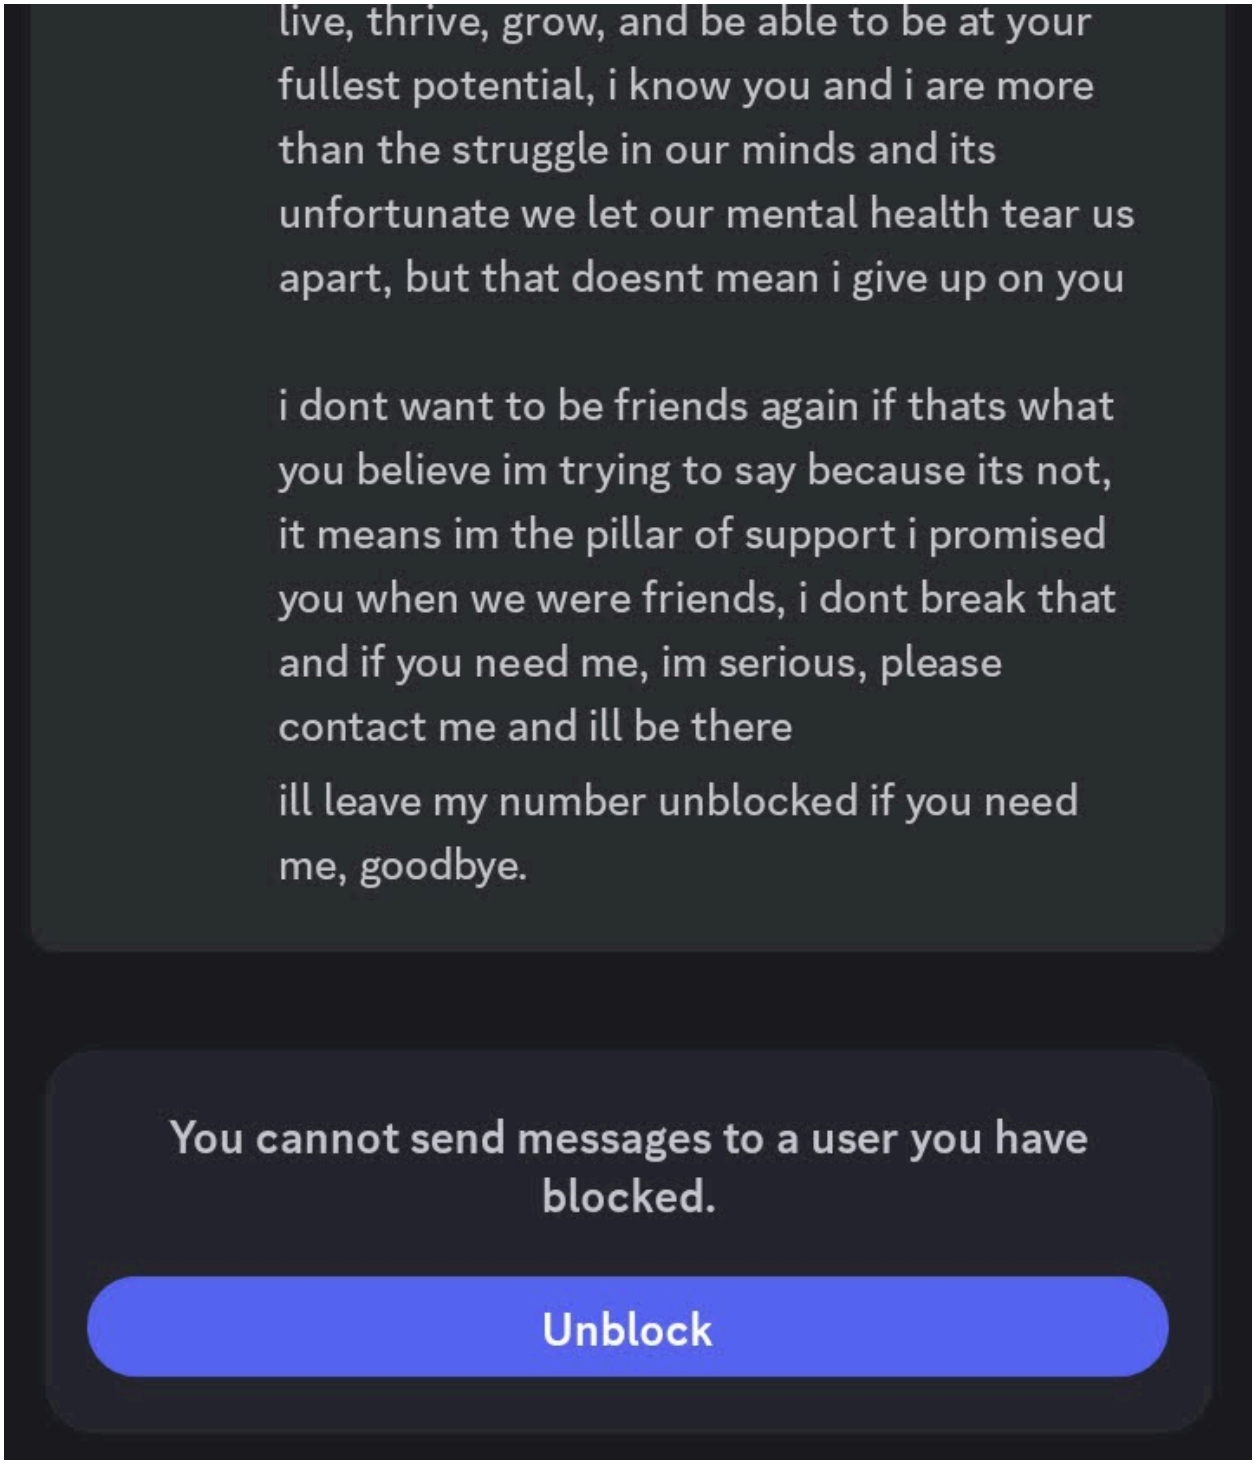

that you need therapy and professional help to overcome everything you struggle with bc you (as do i, and everyone else in therapy) dont have the tools or the self management to do it on your own, which isnt your fault, its the same as trying to teach yourself calculus, self dicipline vs an incentive to get better is the key

talk to them, be honest to them, start telling people the truth because its not an end all to get help, set boundaries, speak up, and be put in an uncomfortable situation for the betterment of the rest of your life and your future friendships and relationships

i really hope you dont preceive this in the worst possible way, this is me saying ive let this all go, im healing and moving on, and i wish you the same and this is my final word of advice, wether or not you follow it is up to you but i only know whats worked for me and my needs are not universal i wasnt perfect and ill never claim to be, but im trying to heal in a safe place and that safe place will never be social media, its within the confines of the people i trust and talking through my problems with the people directly causing them and being honest with them and myself as well as open to changing my own self and reflecting on what i can change and personally do for myself to solve these problems and move forward bc sometimes its not just them causing it, people have a tendency to ping pong off eachother.

this isnt just about our relationship this is about mental health and friendships too

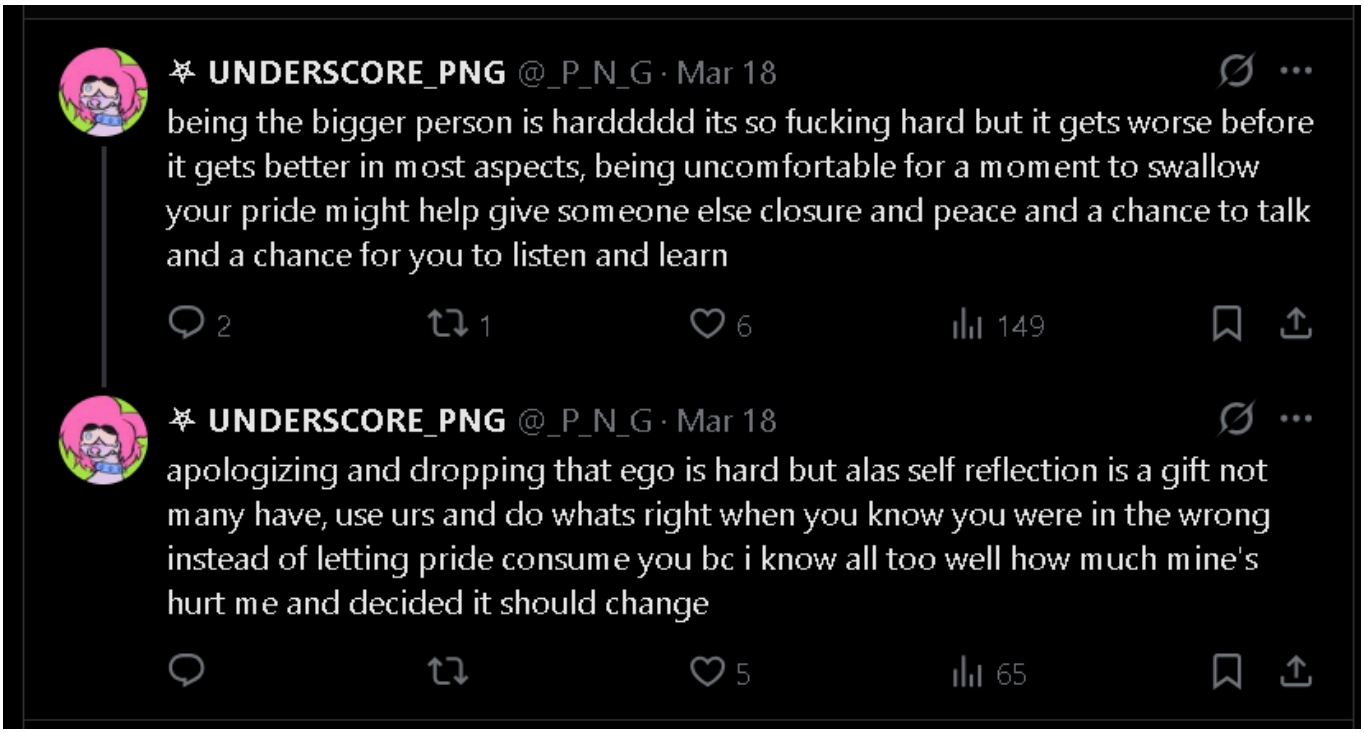

i wish you the best corey and i am serious, if you need me i am here, i promised to help you get medical care for your seziures and your mental health, my personal issues with you dont dissolve the fact that i want you to

Projection

PNG's twitter is a goldmine of projection, especially this one where he complains how hard being the bigger person is, what he's actually talking about is his habit of block evading people to have the final say when they block him! There are other people other than Jack who have been sent goofy, sympathy slop paragraphs, we just don't have permission to publish those.

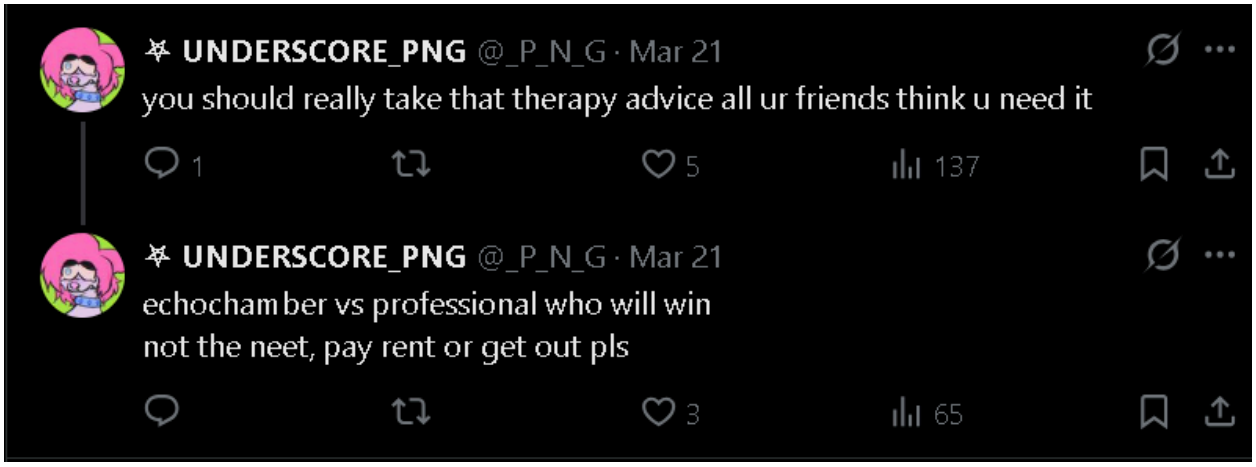

But you can infer he does it to a lot of people if he’s blabbing on twitter about it with his entire chest.

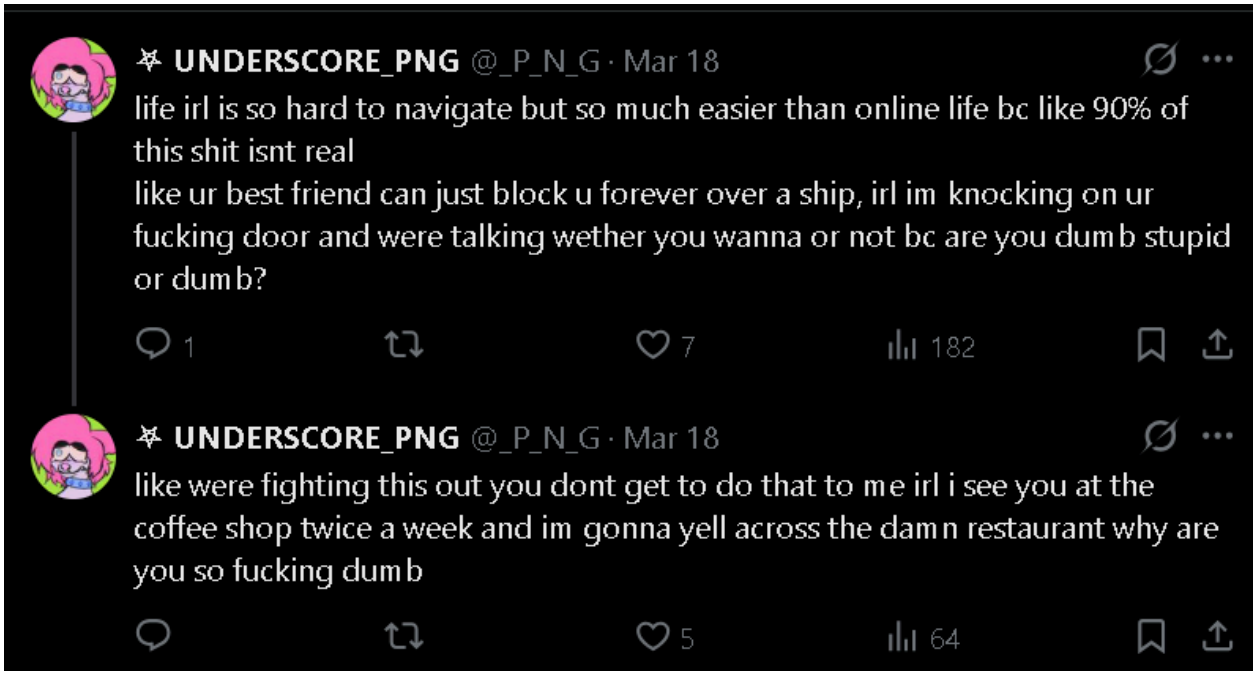

There are a bunch of vague tweets about him telling other people they need therapist help (probably digs at Jack), that is despite how he exclusively surrounds himself with negativity, and glorifies his new relationship to his audience, just like how he did with Jack.

The very toxic 247 call was also directly glorified to his audience.

Unfortunately despite the many traumatizing events that have happened in that call, none of them are recorded, however there is textual evidence of Jack mentioning specific events in argument. This portion is one of the most damning parts:

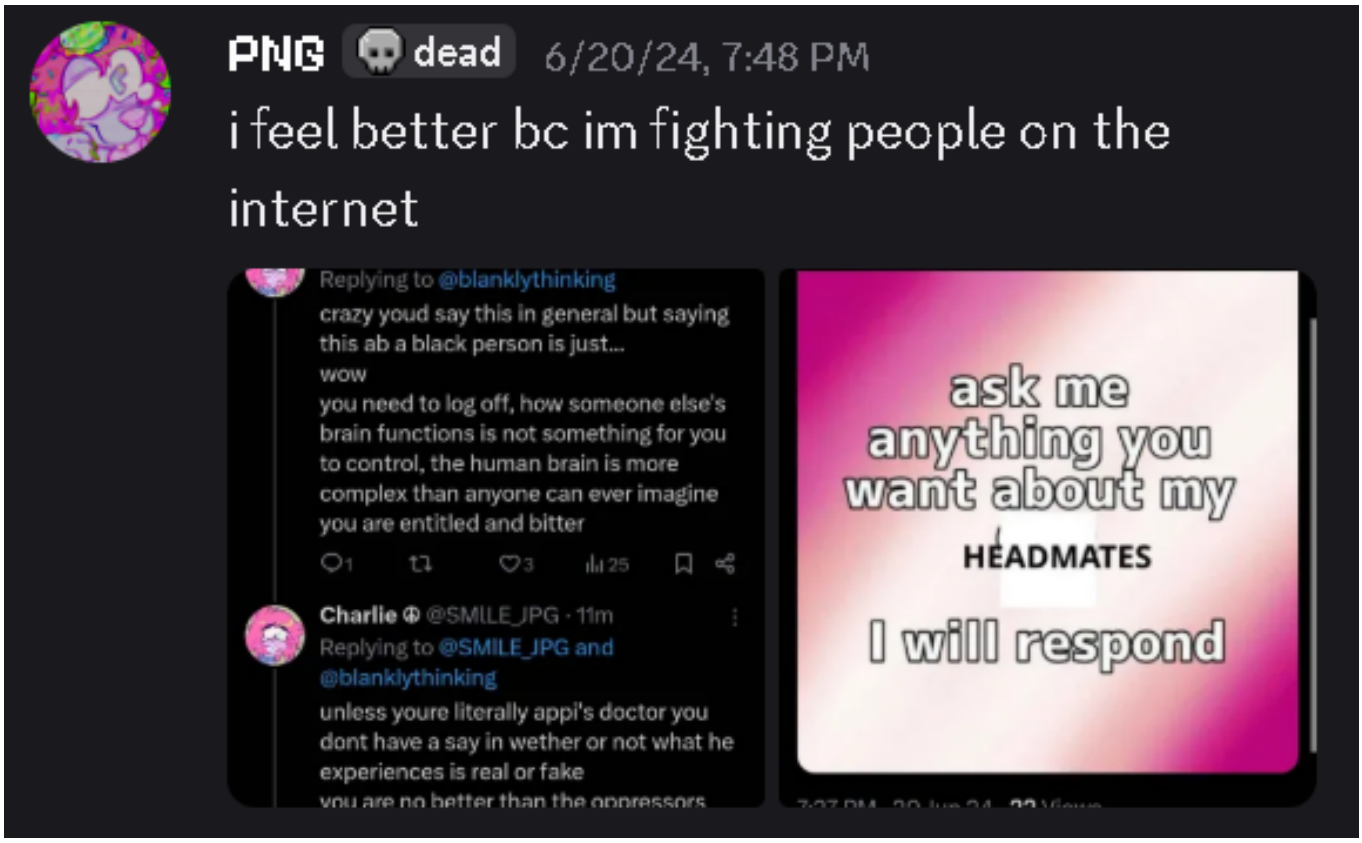

He had put on a movie for Vessel (All Dogs go to Heaven), and in the middle of it said he wanted to take a bath and maybe wear a diaper. The act of him going to grab sharps to bring with him had to be deliberate even if it was a genuine mistake he forgot to turn off the camera, and it still put Vessel in emotional distress. Not to mention afterwards when Vessel tried to ask if he was okay he was laughed at for the way he spoke.
Publicly however, PNG glorified their “bond” with the diapers.

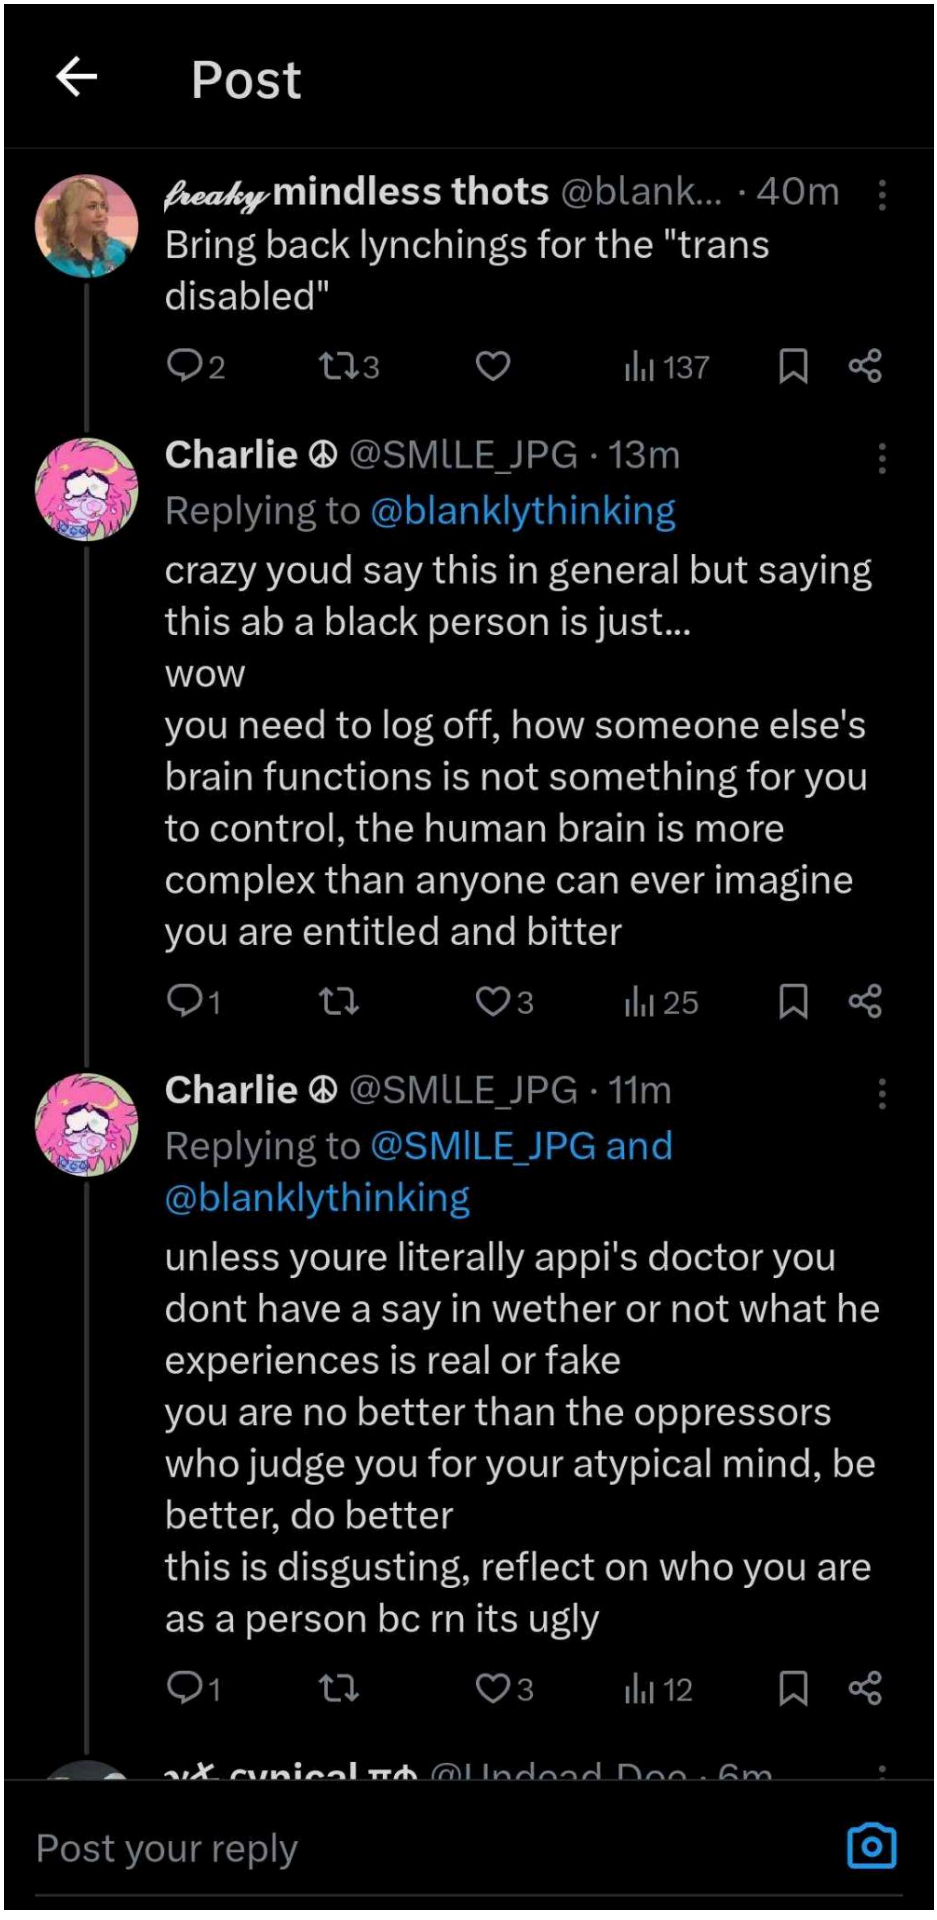

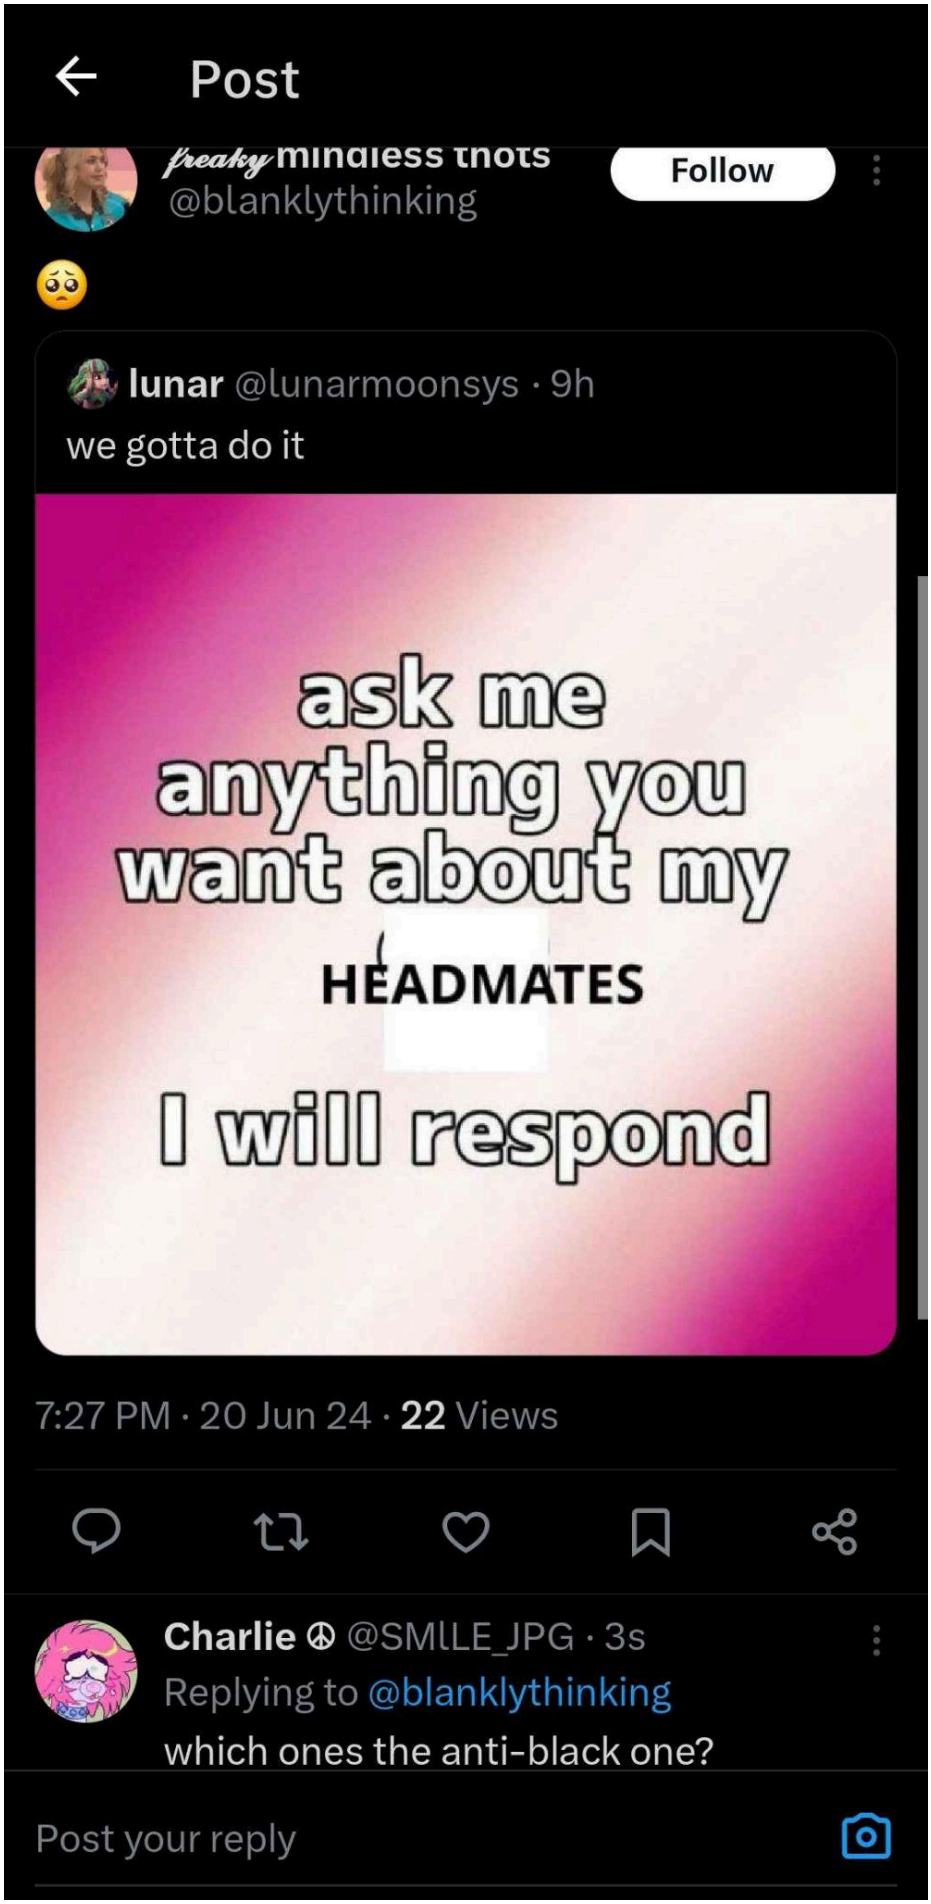

Performative Fighting

PNG has a very clear problem of performatively fighting with people just because it makes him feel good to lash out at people. He commonly goes way too far and also brings up unrelated things, such as bringing up race randomly out of nowhere. This is blatantly self admitted too.

Sammy Supporter

PNG actually turned out to be a Sammy supporter at the end of this, bizarrely enough. Kestrel in some private tweets, Kestrel was vaguely talking about him now supporting Sammy. He is very jealous over PNG, and as seen by other screenshots is easily provable, so combined with other information this is definitely about PNG.

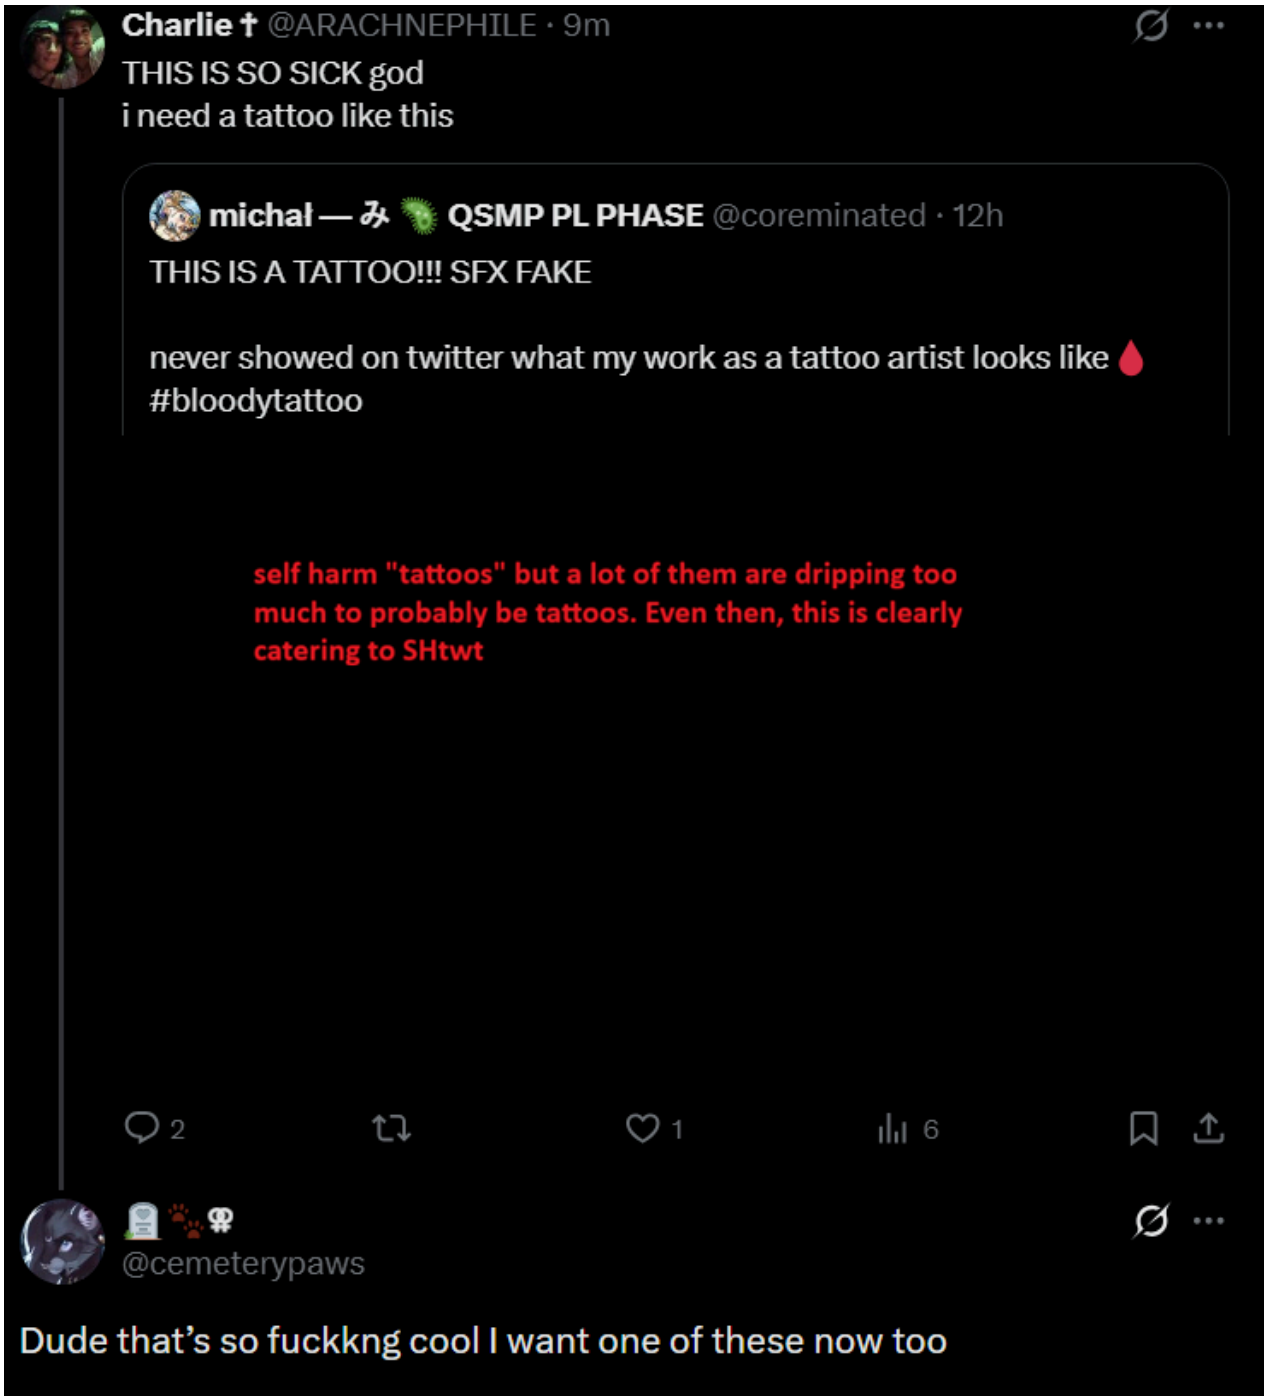

It turns out PNG started following Sammy on his “pet” posting account. This account is actually incredibly concerning as it is a paraphilia themed username whilst he is posting household pets. Not only that, but his account mainly focuses on real life photos of tarantulas, and his username means spider paraphilia. It is really weird to name your account something like this whilst posting pictures of your pet; you would not trust a zoophile who was named “catfucker” and kept posting about their pet cats, would you?

my original idea was to black out my neck and have it fade into bats n spiders and have "SOUL" in cybersigil the middle (cuz vampires will never hurt me) as negative space but i think maybe having it look carved is more my style it would go good with the vampire and zombie bite

Apollo/puppychompsAD

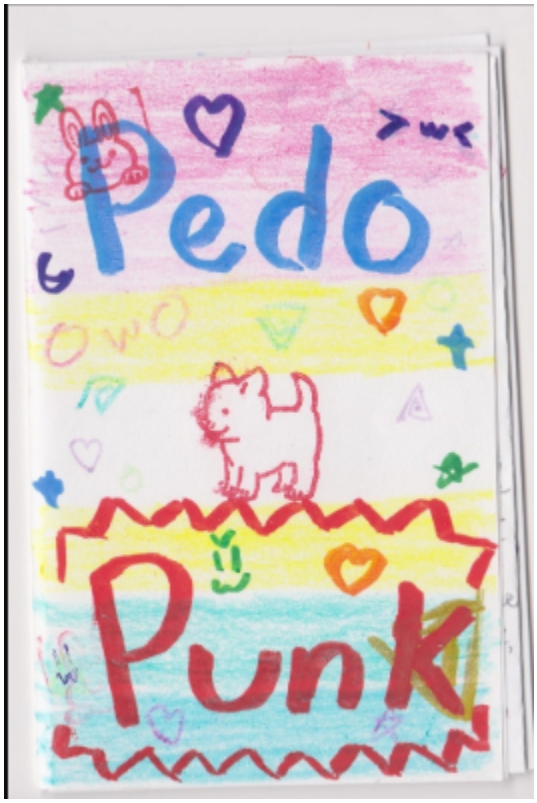

A weird old reply from Apollo, where Jack (on a very old alias) attempts to warn of a zeta Apollo replied to. Jack was clearly unaware that all of Apollo's friends are zoos at the time; Apollo is friends with Salami and Soren. The insane paragraphs Apollo attached as an image never got fully archived, so the only existing screenshots are these.

lmao clearly you have a lot more time to spend wasting online than i do. im SO sorry, is that what you wanted to hear?? like what is the goal fr of being so nastily patronizing rather than just making a simple comment or DM? anyways- go away.
bro i do NOT fucking comb through each person i reply to, especially when i have literal hundreds of notifications/DMs a day, esp when i am quickly trying to take a moment between shifts — and quite frankly i am SICK of you trying to CONSTANTLY stalk through random people's interactions and likes and (and i am NOT the only person who feels this way lol but that's not my place to say) police the entire rest of the community. if you want to point out shit, then do it in a way that ISNT condescending and childish. i have already the memo so let me spell it out very clearly: i do NOT want to engage with you or your friends who literally only exist to stir up drama and DIG to find shit where people "mess up" when? in reality? bro i just have a real actual life where i am Busy and don't exist in a state of being so chronically online where i triple double check every single interaction i have. we are not friends, we are not mutuals, you do NOT have a right to come onto MY account and act like a condescending prick about it when you could absolutely just act like an ADULT and say

Recently found out as a supporter of necrozoosadists, another “anti-contact” larper. By his previous associations he most definitely knows these people are abuse sympathizers but befriends them anyways. If this is not the case, and he is ‘lurking’ like he’s admitted to doing to people before, this is still a harmful pattern. Also an apologist for PNG.

I bet that anti-zoos have romantic and/or sexual feelings for their pet dog but think its super wrong to let their doggo kiss them so decide to go full crusade against zoos. Only to then get jealous hearing the love stories zoos have unitil they realize that theres nothing wrong with interspecies love and fully accept that their a zoophile :3

CONCLUSION

This community hurts everyone involved within it. It is safe for no one, constantly bad people are incentivized to lie and get to market themselves as safe. Their abuse, when called out, is suppressed in harassment campaigns.
The evil underbelly of this community was always real, but before this point, there truly wasn't enough of a pushback to it.

This sector of the paraphile community is relatively new, the "anti-contact" crowd, which emerged as a response to the Zeta community. This allows for abusers to go undetected, as well as the general communities theme always attracts abusers (despite how much the community tries to convince you that "slippery slope" is only just a fallacy). People are so frequently gaslit, basic harassment can't even be handled in discord servers. People get into the community without realizing what they're actually getting into after being fed opinions that sound sane in the beginning (such as "paraphilias not being curable," which is objectively true). Then, like most other situations of abuse, propaganda and manipulation, it starts spiraling.

This document was created in the hopes to prevent people from ever entering the Propara community in the first place, as well as to spread awareness about it. Many people, without experiencing it directly, do not have any idea of how exactly horrific this community is. There are ties to abusers everywhere, they can't be ignored, and people of this community lack any sort of moral code. People who are true to being "anti-contact" always leave for a reason; that being this entire community's structure supports abuse.

So many people have been collectively hurt by this community's actions. Not just people though, there are countless animal & children victims. Something needs to be done about it, these people do not deserve platforms, when they are marketing themselves as "safe" to their audiences while they enable abuse in their own chats.

The usage of the "anti-contact" terminology should be discontinued, as well as labels such as "proship" or "prokink." These are chronically online labels, and their communities surrounding all of them are toxic. Proship (and variants of the term) are meant to mean "anti harassment," but it's redundant when the people using it are using it to just larp that they are anti-harassment. This labeling of opinions with chronically online terms seems to just create a really toxic environment. For some users, it can lead them to feeling "label trapped" and having to label what they are, leading them to accidentally get radicalized. If you want to address if you have dark content on your page, you can simply call it "dark fiction." Labels like these waste peoples' time at best, and at worst, larpers use them to attempt to get away with abuse & harassment.

This community should not exist, and we hope with this document there can be some change; too many people have been hurt & harassed. The public needs to know about these individuals, their actions are incredibly dangerous and haven't been fully documented cohesively until now. This was a big undertaking, requiring the help of multiple people in order to create this document. These people should not be able to get away with what they have done, especially as a community.

Anyone true to being anti-abuse will leave, those who want to dig their holes deeper, stay, time & time again.

SOCIAL LIST

If I can't find their socials, they're not listed. Everyone involved shouldn't have a platform. And guess what? YOU can (and will) help with that.

1. You can deplatform them via reporting. Many sites, especially furry friendly sites(like furaffinity, toyhou.se, inkbunny) will not host users who are abusive in nature for offsite behavior. Anything you think you can report on the website itself for their profiles, you should. Any sort of hate speech and violence is always an easy report.
    a. Sometimes site moderators are ridiculous, keep in mind they may not accept parts of the doc(they seem to hate discord screenshots most often, though some of this doc may still have public provable counterparts, such as tweets that haven't been deleted yet). Separate images for whatever you're reporting for and explain yourself clearly. Be patient and nice to the moderators while doing this, and willing to clarify.

i. E621, Inkbunny, and Toyhou.se have had some issues with recent reporting and responses to their reports. Here is some advice about reporting to these sites.
    1. Toyhou.se's main (and possibly only) moderator seems to significantly understand reports a lot less, try to be as explicit as possible. They can get confused over the simplest of reports.
    2. E621 mod's seem to have a lot of issues, they don't respond professionally to reports. There is already a preference to give artists more chances than non artists users but sometimes they will decide to die on the hill of keeping horrible people not banned for some reason, when others have been banned for similar reasons. Report if you think it will get them banned, but do at your own risk, and do not spam their report system.
        a. Inkbunny doesn't normally have issues, but if reports are not explicit and precise, sometimes moderators there can also get confused like toyhou.se. Give Inkbunny moderators as much context as possible; otherwise they might not connect the dots on what you say. Inkbunny will however take more action on "harassment characters" such as "Jasper" if given full context while upon redesign E621 still allows them.

2. Spread this doc. Use social pressure (not harassment) as what's been done before in cases like this. Do not let these people get away with these horrific actions.
3. Tell your friends and people you know about these people, and warn their commissioners and followers about them. The only people who complain about "follow policing" for serious dangerous things such as this are other predators or enablers. Keep spreading the word and document those who try to defend it.
4. Send cybertiplines about them if possible (do NOT abuse tiplines, only send them information you think they can do something with.)
5. Archive this doc YOURSELF, in case it was ever to go under.
6. DOCUMENT THEM YOURSELF. This doc was a lot of work, continue to document and report these people. Abusers and their sympathizers do not have a part of the furry community (or any community).
