

Dear QAnon plan trusters,

I don't make this comic in order to mock and belittle you for my own humor. I'm not going to tell you to "cope". I don't want to see you endure any more pain than you already have.

You are not deranged conspiracy theorists, redneck hick morons, or any of the other vitriolic insults that have been hurled your way. You are good-meaning, well-intentioned people who have fallen for a horrible, massive grifting psy-op designed to lull you into inaction for as long as possible.

Trump didn't drain the swamp. He didn't release the sealed indictments. There is no "plan" - well, there is one, but it's not a plan to stop the very real and ACTUAL cabal of globalist pedophiles entrenched in our government. Trump, in classic Republican fashion, has done everything in his power to lie to and betray the White working class and pave the way for another pendulum swing of globalism, dystopianism, and anti-White legislation.

What were Trump's last actions as president? Well, he began the processing of some hate speech bills about anti-semitism, pardoned an Israeli who assisted Johnathan Pollard in giving state secrets to Israel, and pardoned a black rapper or two. He didn't pardon his supporters, several of them plan-trusters like you. These brave men and women risked their lives coming to his defense; one of them, Ashli Babbitt, was murdered. They did this BY TRUMP'S OWN ORDERS; only to be totally betrayed by him in the worst possible fashion. He won't do anything for them because he doesn't care. "Stop the Steal" was just one final grift for him as he runs away with his bag of cash to pay off some of the debt he's incurred. (Regardless of whether or not there was election fraud; which I believe there was, this whole thing is designed to fail. Trump doesn't care about you, or whether or not he's sitting in the oval office as long as he's safe and can pay off his debt.)

The point I want to make here is that you cannot expect to get results without action. You will not get muscular by just reading books about weightlifting and eating a good diet, you must TAKE ACTION and pump iron. You will not become intelligent by buying books and leaving them on your shelf, you must TAKE ACTION and crack them open to read. You will not uproot the global cabal that occupies the American government, dominates the world financial system, and exercises control over every aspect of society by sending money to e-grifters, sitting on your hands, and "trusting the plan"; you must network with others and work to TAKE ACTION that will generate fruit.

I will end this note by expressing my sympathies for you and your cause. Once again, I love you guys and I understand you have nothing but the best and most wholesome intentions. I, and many others with like-minded ideas, reach out our hands to you in solidarity. I hope to see you among our ranks in the coming months and years, and that we may go on to win the hearts and minds of other good-meaning Americans. Things are going to get very rough before they get better - we'll be a lot better off if we stand together for collective action, rather than disconnected isolation and hand-sitting inaction.

Yours sincerely,

Hedgewik
