I would like to stress that this announcement is NOT a notice of graduation.

I need a coffee and a morning shower. This all feels like a weight off of our collective shoulders.

Dang im sorry that happened ;_ ; taking chances with agencies and such is a big hit or miss. Regardless, happy to see you go indie again and hopefully bounce right back into the groove of fun times awu

I suppose there is little reward without some risk, I had known Reii since 2022 so it was my hope that his intent was legitimate. Maybe at some point early on it was, but it became clearer as time went on that there was no real "there" there.
