ANNOUNCEMENT

This is not a graduation

To my LabM8s, friends, and fellow creators,

Today as of December 12, 2024, I am announcing my decision to part ways with VIRTUX.

I very recently debuted under the agency on November 22, 2024 as a member of their SAGA wave, but this decision comes after a year of being in communication with VIRTUX and being part of the agency. I initially sought out an agency to be a part of in order to receive various forms of support for my activities and projects, and when I initially signed into VIRTUX, I was promised things such as support, opportunities, and various forms of assets that I would not have been able to have access to as an independent VTuber. I was looking forward to a bright future with VIRTUX, excited to be able to start projects I haven't been able to with my limited resources as an indie. I wholeheartedly trusted the agency would deliver on its promises and poured a whole year of my time and effort into it, as did our managers and my fellow talents. However, as time progressed, it became clear that many of these assurances and promises would be significantly delayed, many never be fulfilled, while some repeatedly promised opportunities were entirely non-existent from the very beginning. This continued failure to deliver on promises time and time again, the complete lack of communication, as well as the failure to fulfill multiple points of the contract to this day, has hindered my growth as a creator and put immense stress on myself.

I want to express my sincere gratitude to those who have supported me throughout this short but tumultuous chapter of my career, and the wonderful people I've met through the agency whose kind support throughout this year I am endlessly thankful for. Your unwavering support, patience, and kindness has been a source of motivation and strength throughout this entire journey. To my fellow talents and managers, I cannot thank you enough for all the work you've done, and I wish everyone nothing but the very best moving forward.

I will be continuing with my content creator journey as independent VTuber AQUA+ and AKU-A once again. I would like to sincerely apologize for cancellations, delays, and inconveniences caused as I navigate through the aftermath of this chapter, and look forward to a new one.

Thank you for your support LabM8s.
Let's continue to create amazing things together!

I want to apologize to anyone who might have trusted and worked with VIRTUX due to my affiliation. I truly and wholeheartedly believed in this agency and trusted my long-cultivated community and deeply personal brand to it.

I feel so incredibly ashamed and devastated.

I will not be releasing a document myself, but I will be QRTing my fellow ex-talents and their documented experiences below.

Please give them your love and support, as many of them have had a much harder time than I with this agency.

This document describes my own personal experience as a talent of the Vtuber Agency Virtux. To my community, I hope this serves as an explanation for my prolonged absence.

I'm sorry that it came to this.

I am a (former) pre-debuted talent of Virtux. This document outlines my experience with this vtuber agency and its CEO ReifiFlynn.

Please be kind to the other talents and staff. Nobody deserved this.

Thank you for all of your support. I'm happy to be an indie VTuber!

Will try and chat about what I can on stream tonight. 💜 take care, thanks for reading!

As of today, December 12th, 2024, I am announcing my departure from agency VIRTUX VE.

I recently debuted with the agency on November 22nd, 2024 as a member of the SAGA wave, however I have been signed onto VIRTUX much longer than that in the last month, myself and my fellow VIRTUX talents have uncovered many unfortunate aspects of the company.

We were promised many things, whether they be partnerships, collaborations, watch a long opportunities, funding, etc. Unfortunately, all of it was a complete and utter failure. Myself and many of the talents were given false information which led us to make decisions we may not would have in any other situation.

I heard all of my fellow talents' stories. There are some that are simply heartbreaking. I consider myself very lucky to not have as harsh of grievances as them. I will continue to support their journeys as independents and wish everyone nothing but the best.

I WILL CONTINUE AS AN INDEPENDENT VTUBER.

If there is anything that I have learned in the past year, it is this: YOU DON'T NEED AN AGENCY.

Do not let the thoughts of "an agency can give me more support and backing" stop you from improving what should be your first and foremost priority: YOU.

Please let my accomplishments with the baselab collaboration and the MAGCAD driver partnership be a testament to this. My "agency" assisted me in getting these projects. It was my own hard work as an independent, as a person who's main goal has become "let's push the boundary of where VTubers can go".

Trust yourself, give yourself more credit, and find your own excitement and love for what you do. No one, no agency, should ever hold things over your head you are the only one that should have control over your own happiness.

I am excited for what's next in my VTuber journey, and I'm glad to be free from such a toxic situation. Thank you for your kindness, support, and most of all, patience with me as I navigate this strange world of VTubing.

THANK YOU AND SEE YOU SOON!

Announcement

This is not a graduation

Dear Sweetlings,

It has not been long since I debuted as part of VIRTUX VE as a member of their first wave. However, effective immediately, I will be parting ways with the business. Today, December 12th, 2024 is the last day I will be tied to the company as one of the talents.

When I was contacted to join VIRTUX VE in the early-spring of 2023, many promises were made—promises of support, new opportunities, connections, and resources I would have otherwise not have been able to achieve on my own. However, as the debut got pushed back time and again, multiple commitments were never fulfilled or simply were non-existent.

Communication was lacking to the point where it'd be weeks before I had an update on anything. Even today - well after debut - there have been breaches of said "contracts" as being unfilled. These challenges proved to be a greater hindrance to my progress as a content creator when initially agreeing to the partnership.

I'd like to kindly thank those that supported me in this rough new endeavor and to those I met while being a part of the "agency". Everyone has been so supportive, kind and welcoming since we all first met and I will continue to support those that have come into my life through this partnership as they have supported me. I greatly appreciate each and everyone of you.

I will be continuing as an independent VTuber from today on as MukyaVT and carry on later this week as usual. I am committed to making my channel a place of comfort and entertainment for those who travel from their own world in search of a place to rest their feet and lay their heads down on a welcoming lap. Through this small change, I hope it will lead to brighter opportunities and better tomorrows.

Thank you everyone for your patience with me while I take this next step in my journey.

Love,

It is with careful thought and consideration that I announce my decision to part ways with VIRTUX Virtual Entertainment, effective as of December 12, 2024. While I recently decided under the agency on November 22, 2024, this decision comes after a year of being part of VIRTUX VE, where I signed a contract and developed genuine friendships with the staff, talents, and even the CEO, Rei Flynn. Unfortunately, circumstances have made this step necessary for my personal growth and the future of my content creation journey.

When I initially joined VIRTUX VE, I was promised substantial support, opportunities, and resources to help me thrive as a VTuber. However, as time progressed, it became clear that many of these assurances—some of which were entirely non-existent—were either significantly delayed or never fulfilled. This failure to deliver on key promises created challenges that hindered my ability to achieve the goals I had envisioned when embarking on this partnership.

Additionally, malicious rumors about internal staff and talents, originating from the CEO, have resulted in defamation and created an environment where I felt there was no freedom of speech. This toxic atmosphere ultimately made it impossible to continue working under these conditions.

I want to express my gratitude to those who have supported me through this chapter of my journey. Your encouragement, feedback, and love have been a source of strength and joy.

I enjoyed being a manager while it lasted 🤔
I will not be elaborating further on the subject. For more details, it is better to hear it from the talents themselves... they suffered for so long. Their recounts are listed below

Hi everyone, I want to make a statement since things are starting to be released by other talents. I was supposed to be apart of Virtux VE's next wave (it was supposed to be a space themed wave).

During my interview @/reiiflynn made unprofessional comments about other agencies (Phase, Hololive and Nijisanji) which should have been my first red flag. I was genuinely blinded with how happy I was that an agency liked me.

Rei had promised a new outfit (or model but my 3.0 was already in the works) + more and I was supposed to sign with them in September of this year. Unfortunately after last month I was doubting that it was even going to happen as rei basically ghosted me after our interview. As of a few days ago all of the talents have left the agency based off of treatment from rei.

I want to say that I'm heartbroken about this entire situation and also mortified that the talents were treated in the ways that they were. I'm also equally as sad

I don't have much else to say other than please support the talents that went through months of ghosting and unfulfilled promises.

Their stories (those who have posted) will be 'ed below.
