

“Taking a Step Back”

(2026 Edition)

By: Justin Hasty

Hey... Justin here,

So I recently came to a very shocking realization that I am depressed. I know that this is kind of a poorly timed post/document with Max G./HHD talking about his struggles with health and suicidal ideation but swear this is not just me jumping on a hype train. This is more of me realizing over the span of the last few months that I am extremely depressed and isolated. I think that with college on the horizon and me being once again being unemployed I should take a step back from the public internet. Here is my reasoning for all of them & what will happen to these accounts.

“X”(Twitter)

Reason: Platform Toxicity, Addition, Excessive NSFW Content being posted.

What Will Happen: My accounts will be DELETED not private but DELETED. My main account(@BigAndRotund) will be private for 1 Month then deleted. A public archive of my Tweets, Music, And Art will not be kept unless already posted to YouTube or NewGrounds.

NewGrounds

Reason: Porn(I'm NOT puritanical I just don't like NSFW anymore), toxicity

What Will Happen: My NewGrounds account will remain public BUT I will stop using the platform for good. All Music, Art, & Blogs will be private and my profile will be cleared.

SoundCloud

Reason: Bots, I Just Don't use it anyway

What Will Happen: All Music on SoundCloud will be public but I will set the name to “DEAD ACCOUNT” and all personal information will be removed.

YouTube (ALL CHANNELS)

Reason: FNF/FNaF Community

What Will Happen: All FNF music will be moved to a Friday Night Funkin' Music playlist and unlisted. Future songs for mods that release will be public but on my Old Channel. This is because my new channel has virtually no difference in following and I have more original music on my Newer Account. As for the FNaF channel I will switch over to playing more than just FNaF and playing more proper horror games (I also have a webcam now for that channel).

BluSky

Reason: imaturity

What Will Happen: I will be removing my current handle BigAndRotund.newground.com over to jhasty and all old post I don't like will be deleted. This will become my ONLY public profile that I post to just to showcase my game dev work.

FaceBook/Instagram

Reason: personal/irl

What Will Happen: Privated and rebranded to my irl name and the like. My Facebook will be deleted however I can't deal with my fathers side of my family reaching out.

tl;dr: I'm leaving "X"(Twitter), SoundCloud, Instagram/Facebook, & NewGrounds because of my deteriorating mental health.
