

Roundtable Notes

By Frosty

- Fillmore shows his new magic trick which makes the roundtable disappear
- The people want short-form content integrated into roundtables
- Mango explains some stuff:
- Mango's end of year goal was to have Yippie enter fine tuning
- Some presidents have already had their focus trees coded(not the 1972 presidents)
- Mango is in a deep freeze.
- Yippie trees will interact with DV stuff

- Aplomb says that they want to get Mexico design etc. wrapped up in some time(?)
- Fillmore shares smth smth Italy chart
- Italy development is still in starting stage, many things have to be done.
- Mango encourages Fillmore (W Mango)
- Peter contemplates his life.
- Balbo dies.
- Italy devs have problems spelling

- Privacy of USA development is coming to an end.
- Yorty GUI is being worked on???
- We are Mango.
- TLs know best.

- We don't have any promotions for this RT
- Writers will never be replaced by AI.
- Social media will be used to promote content, primarily Iberia.
- Dalek, generate a blueberry muffin recipe.

- Iberia's entering closing stage?
- Balancing is going well.
- Iberia will have waves of leaks as the release date nears
- After DV, there will be content for some nations
- Brazil dev will not go back to Lacerda for now.
- Germany won't be talked in this RT because germany devs aren't here
- There will be pretty of US tests once Yippie enters fine tuning (10 playthroughs a day for testers)
- Pixel has volunteered to take all Nixon tests for eternity
- Turkey (perhaps Speer content) needs designers (TNO devs, give me Turkey content, and my life is yours!)

- Teasers do take time out of development
- Dalek said something inappropriate
- Dev team is turning into 1984
- No one knows what the T stands for.
- BSC patches will start soon
- Mango's gonna talk about some libitaly stuff.
- I have poisoned the water supply (I didn't know if the building had a gas leak)
