I've been meaning to make a summary of this for months. Sadly, I have not found the time. Thankfully, someone else finally did. While I'm not a fan of linking to youtube videos in this case I will make an exception.

Brendon Lee O'Connell released a couple of videos about DoD IIA program today. This is must watch information for anyone that's made it here. It exposes the game and how mainstream media, e-celebs and most everything you see, read, share and consume on the internet is directly controlled by the powers that be.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IGJhTNxMsRU>

The above video is the best introduction into IIA psyops I've seen so far. It will save you months of research and reading. He's released another video related to Mike Gill. Someone you should also look into. As he's exposing the corruption within the US court system.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iqrKEuqGbUU>

In fact, most everything on this channel is worth watching. But I understand most of us don't have hours upon hours to consume content like this. You'll notice the low view count and lack of promotion of this channel. It's suppressed and I'm shocked it hasn't been banned yet. If you subscribe to it you'll find out that you do not get updates in your timeline when he uploads.

This summary is better than the one I used to link here which was 2 hours long. If you have 40 minutes I highly suggest watching the first video I've linked. If you're going to waste time watching "e-celebs" this is the one you should be watching.

Another channel I'll suggest that covers this type of thing is Matthew North's. Lots of his videos have been deleted and he was anhero'ed recently. So you know he was barking up the right trees.

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC66IBH4uFkBTzEh2oIFFJSg>

I suggest this video in particular. While it's two hours long it should have no problem holding your attention. It proves that people like Alex Jones and Joe Rogan have the same employer and work for the same parent company (called Disinformation by the way. Their logo is an avatar of the devil. See: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Disinformation\_\(company\)) ).

Did you know that Jamie the faggot that produces Joe Rogan's podcast is the son of a CIA agent? Did you know his Dad's best friend was the famous "Hot Dog Harry"? Did you know these people openly supported the CCCP? Just coincidence I'm sure.

In closing, I highly recommend lurking Brendon Lee O'Connell's channel. He names the jew and shows the link between Israel, the East India Trading company (Rothchilds), Henry Kissinger and many other players in the game we're all witnessing. He's also one of the only people I see talking about China's Belt and Road initiative and the links between it and Russia. He's the only one discussing how the base of power is being moved out of America and back to Israel. Where they'll rule over the NWO Smart cities. Never forget. You are not immune to propaganda.

This is the only time you'll ever see me promote or suggest watching a "youtuber". If I had time I would summarize this information in text for (you). But I don't. Even if I did I doubt most would read it due to the short attention spans of newfrens.

I hope you find this information helpful and will take the time to view it. I hope you'll go down the rabbit hole and learn what I've learned. If you are like me you're looking to lash out at the enemy. But every time you think you've found him you find yourself swatting at shadows. That's by design. The IIA program is designed to misled you and keep you chasing your tail. Stop getting wrapped up in their bullshit. The real enemies hide in plain sight. If you take the time to view this information you'll understand who they are instead of getting side tracked by yet another political candidate, e-celeb or trapped in yet another honeypot.

You have to become a ghost in the machine to do battle with the ghosts in the machine. Warfare has changed.

Also I find it funny that cloudflare suddenly told me my connection was "not secure" when I attempted to post this thread. It took me over an hour to post it. Despite my test posts in other threads going through without issue during the same time frame.

Note I am not blaming the jannys. I blame cloudflare itself. Because it's part of their command and control network. Something within my original post tripped their keyword searches.

You will not make it if you do not understand psyops and the IIA program. Modern warfare is about the final battleground: your mind. As a wise Chinaman once said. The highest art of war is to win without fighting your enemy at all.

Best of luck. Shout out to /32/. The best board that ever existed on fullchan.

By the way. I do not have time to upload them right now but I've backed up the majority of the videos I've linked. If they are removed or not available through your ISP let me know. When I find time I'll come back and post links to the backups.

Great thread, thank you for cataloguing this information in one place.

I love Matthew North, his videos on Mormons are particularly good. They are some of the goodest of goys.

But to the point, nice job fren. I've seen the 2 hour vid before but watching again.

I guess I should inform you who Brendon Lee O'Connell is. He's someone you should all be aware of but probably have never heard of. He was the first person thrown in prison for hate speech in Australia way back in 2009.

<https://www.smh.com.au/technology/man-jailed-for-posting-antisemitic-video-online-20110201-1abm3.html>

>Man jailed for posting anti-semitic video online

>The Jewish victim of a verbal racial attack that was posted in a video online says a three-year prison term given to the man who called him a "racist, homicidal maniac" outside a Perth supermarket is not enough.

>Brendan Lee O'Connell, 40, was sentenced in the District Court in Perth yesterday after being found guilty on Friday of six racial hatred charges.

>Chuckling and smiling as the counts were read out to him, O'Connell appeared unaffected by the sentence handed down by Judge Henry Wisbey.

>O'Connell represented himself before a jury after firing the lawyer who had been defending him against an accusation that he posted an anti-semitic video online.

>He faced seven charges related to the posting of a verbal altercation he had with Stanley Keyser and Timothy Peach, who are Jewish, and was found guilty on six.

>An argument broke out between the three men at an IGA supermarket in South Perth on May 2, 2009, where a Friends of Palestine group was holding a protest against Israeli oranges.

>O'Connell was using a video camera at the event and in a video he later posted online, he labelled Mr Keyser a "racist, homicidal maniac".

>"You have a religion of racism, hate, homicide and ethnic cleansing," he said in the video.

>During the trial, O'Connell refused to acknowledge Judge Wisbey when he entered the court and, instead, rose to bow to the jury.

>Judge Wisbey said O'Connell showed no remorse and his behaviour "was that of a bully".

>About a dozen supporters in the court cheered when O'Connell labelled the proceedings "a kangaroo court" and gave a long, repetitive rant about the King James Bible and the Constitution.

>As he was led out of court, O'Connell shouted: "Don't forget about the Gazans!"

>Outside court, Mr Keyser said O'Connell had forced him to "suffer" for 18 months.

>"I wish he was in [prison] for longer," he said as he rushed passed reporters.

>Family friend Steve Lieblich told reporters it was a "very distressing" time for the Keyser family who were happy to have it over.

>"I think it was a victory for decency and against bigotry and prejudice," he said.

>"On this occasion it was the Jewish people who were the target of this bigotry but on future occasions it could be Muslims or Asians or any group, so we we should all be happy about this result."

>Mr Lieblich said he hoped O'Connell would have time to reflect on his views during his prison term.

>He said the internet made it easy to "spread hatred" and it was important to address the issue.

>"This has got nothing to do with free speech," Mr Lieblich said.

>"There's clearly a limit to free speech, there's a limit to all freedoms we have in society because we have to consider others.

>"Words can hurt and cause a lot of damage and people need to recognise that they have to watch their words."

>O'Connell's sentence has been backdated to January 24 and he will be eligible for parole, but a date for that period was not specified in court.

Since he was released he's gone to war against Israel and the powers that be. He's visited Iran and many other places. Met with a lot of high profile people. Released a lot of content related to what's going on. Tried to educate anyone that will listen. It's amazing that he isn't more well known. I am sure he's legit and not another paid actor. Mainly because he tells you right out of his own mouth that you shouldn't trust him either. He'll accept your money but he'll call you retarded for sending it to him. I don't think he makes that much considering his videos hardly get any views and his entire channel is suppressed.

No matter what he is the information contained within his channel is true and I've verified it all with my own research over the last several years. His summary of the psyop and IIA programs is spot on.

I've noticed that the bots and shells refuse to engage with this guy or anyone talking about him. They do not want to bring attention to what he's saying. They don't even bother to attempt to label him a kike or left/right hater. They don't even bother to attempt to label him a racist.

Please watch Brenden's latest video first. It's 40 minutes long and well worth your time. My only goal here is to make people aware of what the Department of Defense's IIA program is and who's on payroll. So far, I've discovered that just about everyone with a platform on the internet is on the payroll. Even the so-called "banned" people like Nick the spic and Alex Jones.

Remember to archive everything!

One final note before I fuck off for my daily work load. I personally spent years contributing to organizations like MAPS without realizing who I was really working for. In fact, most of my work between the late 90s and mid-2010s contributed directly to our current problems. I am sorry. I am going to spend a life time attempting to make up for it. Many were fools like I was and unwittingly contributed to our genocide. We thought we were changing the world for the better. We didn't understand that we were being played.

That's the game. They present two sides and create chaos. Once chaos is everywhere and people want order they present the third option. Which was their end goal the entire time.

Do not get demoralized. No matter your background they have demoralization and lies ready for you to accept. You are not alone. There are still good people in the world and we must fight together to prevent the genocide from happening. It isn't just a genocide against one race or religion. It's a genocide against our entire way of life and the freedoms we used to think we had. They've been directing things for a long time. No matter how far back into history I study I always find them there lurking in the shadows.

They do not have morals. There are no lines they're unwilling to cross. They are not like us. I am sure they do not even experience feelings or empathy. It takes very evil people to abuse the herd like this. They control us all in many ways. One of the main ones they use is language. Words like the "masses" instead of "humanity" is a great example of how they push agendas. I could cite many other words like that. Be careful of the language you use and the opinions you form based upon it. "kids" instead of "children" is another one they use a lot.

>I just watched the videos. This is - yet another - 'Q'-tier faggot narrative.

I will not engage you in this personal attack. I just find it amusing that you waited until you thought I'd left until you posted this.

You obviously did not watch the video because you did not have time. If you had watched the video you wouldn't have attempted to associate it with Q nonsense. Which is just one of many IIA operations.

Everyone else take note. They assume you're stupid and will fall for shaming tactics like this. Believe half of what you read and almost nothing that you watch. The videos I linked contain lots of links back to Israel, Rothchilds, Bankers, and major players in the game. Companies like "Disinformation Inc." which produce most of the youtube/internet/alt-media based content that you watch. A shell company run directly by the Department of Defense. Just like Google, Facebook, and so many others. Never forget they study us like lab rats and keep us contained within our own little echo chambers. It's becoming almost impossible to reach anyone outside of them. But there is a fatal flaw in their control of MSM and the internet: it can not control or track what you do IRL. At least as long as you do not have a cell phone in your pocket.

There is no "Q-tier faggot narrative" contained within anything I've linked. Q is not mentioned one time. Stupid phrases like WWG1WGA are not cited. It's just a cold hard look at the people that produce things like the Q psyop. A psyop that took the winds out of the sails of anon and could only spread when anon's home was deplatformed and replaced with the bullshit we have now: 8kun, telegram and hordes of facebook boomers that think neocons will save the world and jews are really innocent.

In short, the post I'm quoting is both a bad attempt at attacking the messenger and an insult to your intelligence. Do not fall for things like that. Look at the information and make up your own mind. Don't be blinded by hate and these lame "go with the rest of the herd" tactics they employ.

I don't have time to give you a history lesson at the moment. I'll just say this: If you refuse to read certain books or watch/listen to certain broadcasts based on someone coming along and saying things similar to

>He said the holocaust was/was not real

>He said Hitler did <x>

>He said Trump was <x>

>He does/does not name the jew

Then you've already lost. YOU ARE NOT IMMUNE TO PROPAGANDA. NEVER FORGET THAT. If you have empathy and the ability to trust you are susceptible to it.

I've linked to about 3 hours worth of video content total ITT. This guy was here for 15 minutes before he posted the accusation that it wasn't worth your time. He did not even have time to get through the first 1/4th of the 40 minute video I suggested you watch first. It's obvious that he's not here to learn or worse he's so consumed by propaganda that he refuses to learn in the first place. Note how he doesn't give any example of the content he takes issue with. He just attempts to label it all "nonsense".

I ask you dear lurker; Have I posted in code? Do I tripfag? Am I asking you for money? Am I attempting to bait you into committing a crime? Did I try to influence your politics? Did I shame you for being or not being of a certain race, religion or political party? Did I promote anyone and attempt to lure you into sending them money? Have I lied?

Search your heart and find your own truth. Be careful that you don't accept someone else's as your own.

Best of luck.

This is a good and essential informative thread.

Many of us know and have known for a long time that these kinds of mechanisms are in place, simply through inference or possibly reading some of the works about it after looking deeper into it. However, information on it is few and far between, and it Certainly isn't anywhere other than dark dusty forgotten shelves of libraries and so called "Verboten" places on the intarrweeps.

It is VERY important that the neophytes of this information understand just how bad things really are.

When things such as Pokemon Go™ are revealed to be nothing more than agency mapping and surveillance—"LifeLog(FB)"'s Farmville game as an intrusive data-mining and dopamine addiction test lab, and myriad other nasty little poisoned "EasterEggs" and astro turfing techniques are unknown to 90%+ of those being subjected to them, having real knowledge of these things is extremely important.

This is, I am sure, preaching to the choir here, as most all the frens here already are aware of them. But with the ever narrowing real data-stream info, those who came to the party late NEED to know just what they're up against...

...And how to circumvent it.

Hopefully this thread will develop not only to expose these things in a deeper way, but also provide methods to detect and avoid them.

(kek! just throw a "rock" in any direction at this point)

Again, nice effortpoast.

>YOU ARE NOT IMMUNE TO PROPAGANDA. NEVER FORGET THAT. If you have empathy and the ability to trust you are susceptible to it.

This is also KEY to understanding how sophisticated these manipulations have become.

It is egotistical HUBRIS to think you cannot be affected just because you know about a tactic. Most of them,(screen based,) operate on a level that research has shown is hardwired for one into human cognition, and secondly is undetectable 99% of the time without equipment and programs to detect them.

If "Knowledge is Power", the key to defeating an opponent is to make the information so chaotic as to become worthless—then those in power have free reign to dictate narrative. This is probably the main drive behind all the deepfake and chatbot emergence.

Again, this too is likely preaching to the choir, but don't forget you have the ability to download, archive, DeepDig(FM) and disseminate.

Any Frens lurking this thread who have good resources for the anons just wading into this scrum, please poast 'em.

A simple GIT GUD doesn't really help anyone, so a little bit of early spoonfeeding can ONLY help our guys.

>I hope you die a painful and agonizing death you nigger faggot kike.

He came back and deleted his original post where he asked me to list more words that are examples of tweaked language for thought control. That's how I knew he'd only been here 15 minutes between his original post and the one where he tried to associate the information in the OP with Qanon. Obvious disinfo agent is obvious.

This brings up an important point though. That no matter where you post something on the web these people get alerted. There are entire battalions dedicated to censorship on the internet. They operate "pods" all over the world staffed by IT people and shills.

>One question though, in that Matthew North video he mentions a Jan Irving(sp?), I lazily tried to find more information about this guy previously but nothing ever really came up. Did I hear the name wrong or who is this guy and what is he saying?

I will have to watch the video again and see if I can find this guy. I only discovered Mr. North after he'd been anhero'ed because I'd checked out of social media and youtube for the last several years. These people are being suppressed and their work isn't getting out of their echo chambers these days. With the deplatforming of 8ch I've lost my main source of information outside of my own echo chamber. Which is very small considering I only participate in places like this one.

Another good example of how they have set-up echo chambers are websites like Godlikeproductions. Which was proven to be hosted on Government owned servers decades ago but has somehow become the main/fastest news source outside of MSM for false flag events. People assume it's pro-free speech because it allows for anon posting and let's the users discuss topics that are banned everywhere. But it isn't true. The very first post I made on there in years got me instantly banned by a bot because I mentioned the DoD IIA program and the methods for censoring websites like youtube. They practice soft censorship over there like they do elsewhere. You'll get posting errors or your posts simply don't show up. You assume it's an error and move on or that it will appear in a few moments. But it never does. Post things like that often enough and you get personal shill squads following you around operating out of the DoD pods.

Things are really really bad.

>If "Knowledge is Power", the key to defeating an opponent is to make the information so chaotic as to become worthless—then those in power have free reign to dictate narrative. This is probably the main drive behind all the deepfake and chatbot emergence.

That's been their main method since about the mid-2010s. Overload you with so much bullshit that you can't be sure what is real and what is not. Things move so fast now that legit stories get buried under mountains of BS within hours. Just look at the recent Ohio train derailment getting not coverage by MSM. They do not send the EPA. They do not send in FEMA. The usual "green new deal" grifters don't fear monger about it or use it to fleece people for donations.

But the car you're driving to work everyday is killing the planet and the balloons in the sky are coming to kill us all. Don't forget about dem aliens.

Illegal biolabs engineering viruses that target individual races of people for genocide? Nothing burger. But make sure to get your vaccination for the common cold or you'll die!

Russia and China are coming to kill us because they're jealous of our freedoms. They are our mortal enemies. Don't mind the fact that all the leaders go to the same meetings and are from the same young leaders groups. Don't peek behind the curtain. Let the rich and powerful deal with it. Everyone else that talks about it is a schizo don't ya know.

They do all of these things to keep us divided so we don't deal with the few people that are causing all of our problems. They rape you of your labor and sterilize your children. They experiment on us like we're lab rats. They tell you that you're killing the planet by buying the food they provide and the gasoline they deliver to your neighborhood. But no one ever says anything about the factory dumping chemicals in the rivers everyday that the rich own. They tell you to live in a pod while they set up their own children in 25 million dollar penthouses in the heart of NYC. Bill Gates 26 year old daughter just moved into one yesterday. This is after he claimed he was going to give away all his money so he wouldn't spoil his children.

It's all bullshit. Kind of like Alex Jones and the other "dissidents" that are the only ones allowed to have a platform. There to make anyone that can see the real problems look crazy. It isn't a bunch of richfags ruining your life and killing you. No no. It's inter-dimensional Reptilian aliens. They're harvesting your children's blood for some reason. Guess because it gets them high. Please pay no attention to the organ harvesting or the old richfags that seem to live forever and always have a fresh heart of liver available to be transplanted into them.

I could go on but you get the idea.

One last video for today. The Kay Griggs interviews. It's over 7 hours long so you'll probably need multiple viewings.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4fdS5cdtPOA>

Kay Griggs was married to George Griggs. A Marine Corps Colonel with connections to people like Henry Kissinger. In these interviews she describes what is going on in the higher levels of the US military. Things like sodomy in return for promotions and the sex, drug, and weapons trafficking rings.

If you haven't seen these interviews you should probably take the time. She backs up her stories with a lot of proof. This is the same ring that's running things today. It has been awhile since I've sat through them so I can't give you specific details at the moment.

Again, I am surprised this is still on youtube. The last few times I've searched for it I could not find it at all. I can only find it on PC now with a direct link. I can not get it to come up in search results on other types of hardware like game consoles, phones and smart TVs. Again they practice a lot of soft censorship like that. Highly advised to back this up. I have a backup somewhere in my local archives.

Since I'm linking Brenden O'Connell's work I should post this list of videos that detail how Israel has taken over and subverted the US critical infrastructure.

https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLIDxOv3vXbAe3yPHdQn1ML\_yD9jC7enX2

These videos have everything from how they've taken over Microsoft and moved all operations of it back to Israel to their control of the back doors within all CPUs to their iron grip over our power grid. Even if you understand what things like Intel ME are you should give this a watch. It exposes a lot of stuff you probably don't know about. Like the Israeli team that's had full control over Windows Security center updates since 2009.

Linux will not save you when they have backdoors into all your CPUs. Just like re-flashing your cell phone with some other OS won't stop the spying when the baseband chip has control over everything on the hardware level.

This is a better summary than I could ever put together despite my many effortposts about it in the past. Some of these videos are an hour or longer but most are under 20 minutes. Do yourself a favor and lurk them.

It rained today so I'm going to catch up on my sleep. Have a good day.

I like rabbits and have been using AI to generate them. Pic related is one of the random ones the AI shit out for me. Hopefully, the mods will let it stand. I promise not to avatar fag. I mostly post images so I can quickly find my last reply in threads I participate in. I'm trying to use the AI to design a patch for my own amusement. My first toy was a stuff rabbit that I proudly keep displayed in my house. Like Alice I've been chasing them all my life and keep finding myself falling down their holes. Really nice animals. I bottle raised a few wild ones last year after a black snake ate their mother. I keep brush piles on my property so they have a place to live. Don't really know why. I just like rabbits. They don't act like assholes.

It's telling to me how much this place is comped with this thread getting no traction.

I'd never heard of this O'Connell guy but he does a good job of tying people into ZOG. I watched that Griggs interview years ago and mostly thought she was a schizo, it's wild that he has been validating some of what she says and directly tying that back into

I watched his Rats in the Ranks series and it was really good. All his best stuff seems banned from YouTube.

Keep posting fren, have a great day.

If you'd prefer text this wikipedia article is a good place to start. The JEDI cloud is the DoD's new cloud based solution to national security. There were many big tech companies in the running for the contract. At one point it was assumed Amazon had it locked down. But then Trump stepped in for his buddies in Israel. Result? Microsoft was awarded the contract. Where is Microsoft based out of now? Israel. Who supplies the hardware for the servers? Israel. The entire National Security infrastructure of America has been out sourced to our "greatest ally".

But wait. There is more. This was considered unfair. So the solution was to re-name the project and award the contract to multiple big tech companies. The renamed project was deemed "JWCC" in 2021. This happened around the same time then president Biden signed an executive action on national security that effectively merged all the big tech companies with the Department of Defense.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Joint\_Enterprise\_Defense\_Infrastructure
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Joint\_All-Domain\_Command\_and\_Control#JWCC

THEY'VE OPENLY MERGED BIG TECH WITH THE DOD SINCE 2021 AND NO ONE TALKS ABOUT IT. It's all true. I have the executive order right here.

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/presidential-actions/2021/05/12/executive-order-on-improving-the-nations-cybersecurity/>

Every time I've attempted to discuss this I've gotten crickets in return. It's the biggest news in the /tech/ industry in my entire life.

This is the basis of the upcoming digital cash system, social credit system and control net that will run the smart cities. It was beta tested in China and now it's coming to the rest of the world. Prepare your anus.

O'Connell has done a good job showing where the people on this came from (hint: Soviet Jews that immigrated into Israel in the 1980s). There has been a massive brain drain of /tech/ workers into Israel since the covid pandemic started. They now employ more /tech/ workers than anywhere else in the world. 60%+ of them do not qualify for citizenship under Israel law but they're being let in due to their skill sets. I could have gone myself but I'm not into genocide and killing my own people.

>It's telling to me how much this place is comped with this thread getting no traction.

It isn't the staff. It's the usual suspects attempting to control discourse. They've even signed up for janny positions multiple times and attempted to shit the place up. The admins have been pretty good about controlling them.

I've tried to warn the owners that this would happen. I think they've starting to believe me now that they've been dealing with it for months. I knew it was coming because it happened to me when I attempted to host a platform to discuss these issues. They really do not like free speech and people that aren't willing to sell out.

>WITNESSED

>I could go on but you get the idea.

Yes, and MANY of us have for a LONG time

Just last night I watched a GLR video, Rockwell was speaking at a college, and another GREAT bit of propaganda info was dropped by Mr. Rockwell himself—an English propagandist very much in line with,(VERY possibly an integral part of,) The Tavistock Method of mind control.

I'd Never before heard of this book before and downloaded it Immediately:

SARGANT, William - Battle for the Mind (1957).pdf

<https://docdro.id/cj6o33f>

The Rockwell recording itself is enlightening as well, I've gained a much deeper respect for how he presents his arguments. Here is that bitshit link:

ROCKWELL SPEECH AT UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON IN 1964:

<https://www.bitchute.com/video/CszlNQ0RYSb1/>

I also DEEPLY appreciate Rockwell's stance on both the "Negro" question and the JQ. Worth the listen-

I downloaded it, since The "MINITRU" has been Mem-holing uncomfortable and dangerous info at a staggering pace.

(different VPN, but same Kot)

The internet was basically the thing we needed to make this happen. I'm not talking about any bitcoin or web3.0 scam either. We should be in a second renaissance and enlightenment age right now.

We have the ability to freely exchange data. That means ideas and creations. With each other for no cost. Yet we continue to operate in a debt slave copyright troll system that artificially limits our ability to freely exchange ideas and data. This ability should have revolutionized every industry, creative work and the very nature of society itself.

In a free society it would have happened long ago. We didn't get the internet until the 90s. Even then it was slow and not able to carry much throughput. We should have gotten this in the late 1800s or the 1960s by the absolute latest.

We can still examples of what free exchange looks like. I hate to keep citing it but it's one of the few places we see it: Look at the 2hu community. Look at the sub-community focused on music. It produces more content in a month than most outlets produce in 100 years. All of it for free. All of the creators supported directly by fans. If your work is good you can rise to the top and make millions of dollars. If your work is decent you can make a living off just a few fans.

Celebrities are a subversion of the above process. They have handlers (managers). They censor themselves. They make back room deals and suck cock for exposure. It's no different than hollywood. It's an edgy version of hollywood presented as counter culture to entrap people that have figured out the mainstream is garbage.

The University academia system would not be able to exist in a free climate. Again we see something that only exists as a form of control. Imagine how far we could have progressed with truly free exchange of information and access to resources. 3D printing is nothing compared to what we could have. You should be able to download a car IRL by now.

The root cause of all this boils down to the debt slavery Federal Reserve paper money system. The currency and the control of said currency. I don't know what it should be replaced with. Perhaps nothing at all. Currency only exists because of greed. People only have to use it for food and shelter because of greed. People mostly spend it on things that do not extend their survival like music. Something we used to hum for free around camp fires.

Great book. Upload it to the local library if it's not already there please.

>I also DEEPLY appreciate Rockwell's stance on both the "Negro" question and the JQ.

As do I. I hate seeing him propped up as an idol for people that promote genociding all the niggers. They always leave out the part where he was working together with the blacks in America towards a common goal: Getting rid of our overlords that keep us divided.

The Negro question is something that mostly solves itself in absence of powerful people using them as pawns. All we have to do is live in separate communities from them. We can peacefully co-exist like that and deal with any issues that arise among ourselves through an honest system of courts. The Black Panthers understood this. Rockwell and his group understood this. The black Islam movement understood this. Whites are not without guilt either. We've been riled up plenty of times to lynch an innocent nigger for something that was ultimately the scheme of the jew.

In short, in-fighting with other poorfags will not solve our immediate problems. I also don't feel like it's right to dictate to another race how they should deal with their own people. There are plenty of blacks that understand the nigger problem and want to do something about it. They hate seeing their own kind look bad. It's the same way I feel about white trash.

Of course. It's hard to discuss such things on the internet now because an army of bots, shills, glow niggers and bad actors will show up to use it as a point of D&C. Younger whites that first wake up to our problems want to lash out at them. Often times they first problem they see is a local nigger doing something like selling drugs to the local white women. I've seen plenty of that myself and many good girls ruined by drugs. Niggers typically don't sell to their own kind unless they're already too far gone. I wish I could say the same about the white drug dealers I've met.

I've met plenty of blacks that are not a problem. They work, they take care of their children and they understand the jewish question. I would fight side by side with them to get rid of the real enemy.

I do have one bad thing to say about Rockwell though. His book is not very good because it's too wordy. He has a habit of ranting too much about niggers. There are places where 10+ pages are just the same point repeated over and over again. Rockwell was great at giving speeches but such talent doesn't always translate to book writing.

He would have gotten into the White House if the Government hadn't murdered him. Many good people like that have been murdered over the years. Patton was one of them. JFK managed to get in before they murdered him. Probably many more we don't know about. The country has been subverted for a long time. Some say from the very start but I think the cancer didn't really set-in until the mid-1800s. In the early days there were too many people that had bought-in fully to the Constitution working in Government so they had to be more discrete and bide their time. By the mid-1960s race riots they'd already seized full control and were just setting us up for mass genocide. The 60s is when they destroyed the family unit in BOTH the white and black communities. Which are the actual "Americans". You can argue that the blacks shouldn't have been here at all. But they are through no fault of their own. It isn't like they came willingly like the poorfag whites did. Before their family units were broken they were mostly integrated and well behaved. They also stuck to their own areas. They didn't start flooding into white communities and demanding stuff until the Government agents started riling them up. For example, no one wanted to integrate the public school systems. That's why they had to force both whites and blacks into it at gun point.

I think OUR goal should be to actively pursue the creation of small communities, made up of a group of just these kinds of people—Well rounded with as many of the skills needed within the "village" can muster—and also networked with other WHITE communities and businesses that not only sustain and incorporate all the strength and innovation of Whites, but also becomes a sought after commodity,(Our products and services,) which, when accomplished with a collective of Unconscious competents is surpassed and equaled RARELY by any other racial group.

I've been pondering this a lot myself lately. The problem is there is no place to hide away now. They come and smash any community like this. They usually call it a cult. Just look at Waco.

If you could set-up such a community it would be very important to do a lot of PR from the start. You'd be fighting an uphill battle there as well because they control all the comms. But still you'd have to try. It's the only way to prevent getting labeled a cult and them coming with modern weapons to blow you the fuck out. At Waco they murdered everyone because there were rumors of them owning "machine guns" AKA AR15s AKA the same fucking small arms the grunts in our Army use. Meanwhile, the military has drones and all manner of high /tech/ toys to rape your asshole. People claim the 2nd amendment and their rifle is going to save them. It's a lie. You can not own the same weapons the military has. Your glawk pistol and AR15 rifle is not going to do shit against the robots, drones and trained killers they'll send in after they keep you awake for 30 days with constant psychological warfare. The media won't save you either nor will the internet. They'll cut all your communication to the outside world and make the media stand 10 miles away. The idiots on twitter will cheer them on because they heard you were racist. Things are really bad.

Not an attempt to demoralize. You have to know what you're up against. Know the enemy like you know yourself.

Still I've been thinking about ways to get a community like this started and ways to obtain funding. Ironically, the best example are actual cults. Look at Scientology and the nip version called "Happy Science". They're both run by obvious con-man. The "Happy Science" guy declared himself the reincarnation of Buddha about 30 years ago. He's got about 30,000 followers. He writes a small book every week and sells them for $10 each. All he does is LARP and tell his followers to love themselves and give him money.

This guy is amazing. Not because he's LARPing as God. He's amazing because he's achieved the dream of every weeb and poorfag. He's making 24 million dollars a year and producing his own animes. He's building temples all over the world smack dab in the middle of major cities. He's got an Army of men and a large harem of young-middle age women of his own race willing to do anything he asks. He's living the dream (really too bad he's going to hell for spitting in the face of God).

I wonder, can such a scam be run for good? Could we do something similar to amass a large number of followers that buy into the truth instead of bullshit? If this obvious con-man can fleece 24 million a year from obvious bullshit why can't >we< do the same thing for something productive?

Admittedly, I haven't looked deeply into his connections. He could just be yet another person getting paid off by the Government. But considering his politics run counter to most of ZOG's I'm not that sure. This man advocates for independent Japan and nuking China and Korea. He can't be all bad. Aside from the LARPing as God bit I mean.

The "make a small community" plan has been around for decades now. I've never seen anyone get close to executing it. Every time the ball gets rolling someone manages to D&C the group. Even if you pulled it off the fight wouldn't end there. They won't let you live in peace. They'll do everything in their power to ruin it. Their goal is world domination and full control of humanity. They won't allow a community to exist where freedom of thought is happening. They know the first thing the people there will do is talk about the people that ruined the rest of the planet.

>interesting ideas but babbles like a schizophrenic

They aren't ideas. They are facts he's researched and can prove. Which is why they hate him so much. He's not ranting like a schizo either. Maybe he's long winded and his editing can get facebook boomer tier from time to time. But the information is solid and well presented. Plus he includes sources for most everything.

>complains about jews while denouncing antisemites.

It's almost like poorfag jews don't into Zionism. This man was thrown in prison then beaten into an inch of his life by kikes. If anyone should hate them all it's him. But he doesn't because there are some good jews just like they're good niggers.

What he's saying is he doesn't have time to waste talking to idiots like (you) who only seek to D&C and distract from the information that he's presenting. It's controlled op designed to distract from the (((real problems))).

>kinda cringe tbh

No one asked about your opinion. Fuck off. This isn't a catboy chat room.

Which reminds me. In the Happy Science LARP religion Satan is a homosexual cat boy. I'm not kidding. The anime Happy Science produces is insane. God hates catboy satan because catboy satan has a large harem of fags and catgirls down in hell. At least that's what they show in the anime.

I do not disagree that he's long winded. If you know of a better source post it >someone

Why not (you)?

>jewish question

I won't play devil's advocate for the kikes. I'll just leave it at this: It's dangerous to start putting everyone born into something they didn't choose into the same box. This is the same type of thinking the niggers have with whites. Where they blame people like you and I for the problems caused by the goodest of goyim. I am not a golem and I'm guessing you aren't either. I don't want to be grouped in with the people committing genocide against my family.

The same holds true with the blacks. Where at least 1 in 10 are aware of the JQ and want to live in a peaceful orderly free society. They're the allies we need because they're the ones that will Govern the black community after the real enemies are dealt with. I know these people exist. I meet them all of the time and have worked with them a lot in the past. Like me they pretend to be retarded to survive. You have to get them away from the group before they take off the mask and show you that they aren't sheep. Mentioning the illuminati is a good way to shit test them. If their ears perk up you know. Especially if they mention the jews.

In the past I often found myself on work trucks with a lot of black people (I moved to a city at one point). Truck held 4-6 people. I could find one of these smart blacks on almost every truck. So the true number is probably higher than 1 in 10. I don't really care what the true number is. I know most of the ones that outright hate "whites" have been misled and blame my people for the crimes of the jew.

With jews most of the ones I know do not attend temple. They are rare in my area. But the vast majority I went to school with were not religious at all. Sure you could argue that they were just jewing me. But I'm convinced they weren't. Now that they're adults they've been brought into the fold mostly because of open racism towards regular old jews. Who are not the primary problem. The primary problem are the zionist Israeli types. Who stir up the jew hate to lure people like I'm talking about back to the "homeland".

The two jews I went to school with hung out with nazi nigger haters all of the time. It was hilarious when they'd get around people ranting about murdering kikes. I could tell you some funny stories about that.

My greater point is you shouldn't alienate potential allies based on this sort of thing. Judge them individually. Why throw away a good spy? A jew can go places and do things a goyim can't. He can gather intel you can't. Such people are needed in war.

As they say, trust; but verify.

I took the 3 minutes of trouble and uploaded it to the library here.

Short of "Dangerous" titles and manuals, I hope more Frens utilize the library here(both uploading AND Downloadeing.)

I've included several new titles to it just today.

As far as the building of a community goes, I've been mulling this one over for over 15 years—longer if you count the years previous to my redpilling.

I truly believe the way to go at this point is only two possibilities:

1) Move out to the Northwest territories and either hook up with the NWF or start your own satellite community that networks with it, but doesn't fall under their direct jurisdiction.(my heavy leaning at this point)

~or~

2) Go in on 100-200 acres of decent land with 10-20 other families or "Family units" who all hold 3-10 acres as personal property, and the residual 70-150+ acres are held in common, under a unifying trust that ONLY allows transference rights back to the trust, the board of which is made up of all the landholders in common. These things can get dicey when politics, greed or lust get involved—That's why the trust. The land trust itself can either be funded by several years of allowing some of the "Commons" to act as part time campgrounds for music festivals and the like, or, better still, one or several productive business ventures that create both skilled workers,(apprenticeship programs,) and high demand, Quality products that many people want.(My Ideal.)

An example to point to would be durable goods; Furniture, homesteading tools and products, ceramic water filters, custom use electronics like control boards, etc. And Housing artisans and products; Yurts, non-perm housing, skilled home system designers/builders, Metal goods, etc.

There are all manner of good, relatively clean,(undetrimental to the area,)industries that could be used. I've been sitting on a ceramic water filter design(scratch-built,) that would be an easy one to set up.

The key thing with skilled artisans and craftsmen is, the Raw materials are CHEAP, it's the skills that make the products valuable. Any hack can cobble together some pre-made garbage from a box store and make bank these days, sadly.

A master craftsman/artisan in plaster fixtures uses jigs and forms he makes himself, his artistic nature, some sacred geometry, and $165 worth of plaster to produce a $9000 ceiling treatment in a high end home.

The sad, cookie cutter consumerism can actually become an asset at this point—people with money want the bespoke, quality craftsmanship—and much of it is DYING.

I'd bet I'm not the only Fren here sitting on Multiple patent-able ideas, all because they KNOW, trying to get that patent just opens them up to profound jewing.

I found this out first-hand after being on a crew that built a McMansion,(albeit a nice one,) for a couple Kike lawyers, one of whom was a patent lawyer—At the end of the job, there was a "Wrap Party" where I picked his brain on the subject—It was the slimey-est shit I'd ever heard.

Still—Key to the whole thing is the skills that go into it.

AnyFren heard of Sol-Viva earthworm driven septic systems? I have several of my own designs cooking.

I DON'T think that good PR is the way to go—I truly believe private land with multiple family "units" HELD PRIVATELY is the way to go.

I've seen the festival scheme work too, but often the inhabitants run into all manner of personal issues like infidelity causing a family to want to dissolve/sell-off. not to mention, the unwanted attention that naturally comes when festival goers bring drugs or other disruptive/illegal shit into the mix.

I should apologise to you OP. I still think this guy is kinda schizo but at the same time he is going a lot deeper than I've seen anyone do previously

If I were to attempt a summary, it's that Israel is working with Big Tech to backdoor the entire world? Would explain why they didn't need Epstein's primitive blackmail techniques anymore, I suppose

Part of it also is Greater Israel being at the center of Eurasian Trade via the Belt and Road. Might not even need to annex the Gulf states if you can just do stuff like the Abraham Accords

The scariest part is that Israeli tech probably does have the power to pull off the WEF's cyber pandemic. If they ever decide to pull the plug on the USD system and usher in a digital SDR that would probably be helpful

I'm watching his old covid videos now. Thanks for the recommendation m8

You are basically advocating for following the Amish model. Which is a good idea. I still think PR is needed to some extent. The normalfags have to know that you're >harmless

>someone that they can do business with >people that produce something of quality

The problem Waco ran into was they were seen as a kooky cult by outsiders. Add in a shooting range and some guns. Next thing you know you're labeled a terrorist group and the ATF has an excuse to kick in the doors. Defend yourself and they'll lie and claim you shot first. I'm sure you know how this story goes.

I was trying to do the things you're talking about. I was supposed to have 250 acres of land that I was going to transfer into a trust mostly to avoid paying taxes on it. But also to ensure it'd stay in the family forever. You shouldn't do this with just the land. You should put everything into a trust including the weapons, equipment, dwellings, tools etc. It's the only way to ensure the children end up with it after you die. Sadly, I was screwed. So the 10 dwellings I wanted to move families into sit idle and will be torn down to building low income housing for niggers. I'm having to start over.

I honestly think the NWF idea isn't going to work now. No where in the lower 48 or Alaska is safe. It's right in the heart of ZOG and they can keep too close of an eye on >us. If I could get out I would try to set-up shop elsewhere. Like Asia. But that complicates getting other people to follow. I think it'd be safer there though assuming you didn't park it right next to China. It would certainly be cheaper to get started.

>The scariest part is that Israeli tech probably does have the power to pull off the WEF's cyber pandemic.

It isn't "probably" they've had this ability since the mid-2010s. Right now they're busy tracking, tagging and IDing dissidents. They want to make sure they purge the bad goyim all at the same time. No one can tell you the whole plan because we can't see the entire chess board. But the basic idea is going to be something like >power grid blackouts for weeks

>ZOG death squads under cover of darkness using robots and drones

>no food/re-supply at places like grocery stores

>USD crashes

>dissidents rounded up for the FEMA camps or just killed outright

After they've mopped up whomever is left will be allowed to move into the new smart cities. As long as they're willing to accept the beast system. Which is basically new digital currency+social credit score system. They don't need to convince them to accept a device that will track all this stuff. It's already in their pockets.

If you want more details this video is a good summary: <https://www.bitchute.com/video/O49oE00oODUV/>

I can't confirm if it's real or LARP. However, if the date it was originally posted on is true (early-mid 2019) then most of the predictions he made have already been proven true.

there are plenty of specific groups out there that do not get attacked, plenty of actual cooky religious and hillybilly things. Theorizing about waco doesnt do anyone good. Its just part of the realm of online only exhaustion.

There are plenty of ways to become more able. Like inviting in a foreign power to offset the zog a bit. Becoming sports oriented. Or just going fully your own way and trying it out. They cannot waco everyone, because a waco has severe PR consequences. Just do it already. I am getting tired of this online only "intellectualism" talk with no action.

Bump for excellent thread by OP. I have been listening to Brendon O'Connell for about 9 years. The minute he got Bergy to tell all about the IIA program and Dynology, everything started to make perfect sense. Highly recommend the videos and materials provided by OP, also this video for the new frens:

Post on small message boards and used small suppressed YouTubers and bitchuters to push the info so the small number of people who think they know what's going on, like people in this thread, are influenced. >The "make a small community" plan has been around for decades now. I've never seen anyone get close to executing it.

Hutterite colonies (think Amish but with technology) exist all over western Canada, and they even start new ones from time to time. The similarities between them and what we want are numerous. The differences?

1. They have been around for like 150 years or maybe more. They were there before Western Canada was anything but a frontierland. They are literally older than Zog, so harder to root out.

2. In addition to above, they aren't explicitly White. Yes, they are totally White without any possibility of ever being anything else, but the origins of their community are their faith

They are an excellent template, but in absence of a faith-based glue for the society of a small village, how would you bind the community? Also, the biggest issue now is establishing something new without getting Zogged immediately. Joining an existing Hutterite colony is unfeasible if not impossible, we would seek something similar but with our own interests.

Food for thought, I guess.

Okay so reading, watching and meditating on this subject for a couple days now. it all fits so much with things I've been noticing. For instance once disgraced comedian Louis ck is back after his influence in Hollywood was destroyed. His mom was a computer programmer, Mary Louise Székely, she attended a few colleges and took courses at Harvard and MIT, intelligence stomping grounds. From her obituary:

> In 1982, she became the 4th co-founder and first employee of Progress Software Corporation, where she worked developing software until she retired in January of 2013

One of the other cofounders was a journalist named Joseph Wright Alsop V. He is well known to have worked with the cia and was a part of project mockingbird, just checkout his Wikispook for more info. So Louie's mom was a spooky programmer. Now remember where CK had a show when the war in Ukraine broke out? LA? Brooklyn? Langley? Nah he was in Kiev when the war started. Reminded me of the gong show and newlywed show host Chuck Barris. Chuck claimed to be cia. He said that was why the show would honeymoon people in Russia and nearby areas at times, which didn't make sense for the married couple to be in snowstorms for their honeymoon but it did for his missions. Was he really? Idk but tv chief Julia Child certainly was and she was famous and on tv at the same time.

Anyways Louie is a comic's comic. They loved him even when he ignored them for Hollywood, he was their god. He wasn't canceled with them. He was embraced. And there was his new way to influence. what does every comedian have? A podcast. Who started podcasting by the way? Adam curry. MTV disc jockey. On his show no agenda he has talked about how his family is full of spooks, he almost brags about it. Anyway Louie goes on one of the biggest comedy podcast around, time dillon show. Now listen to these talking points.

<https://youtu.be/aadxXxfLfeM>

Those are state department lines. That pivot to the color revolution in Iran? Like dude be more obvious, maybe he's adjusting to his new role, but still. I think even Tim knew he was talking to intelligence there.

It all had me thinking about a lot of podcasts so I tested a favorite of mine that I really thought was grassroots to a certain extent. I mean they did test episodes which were just recordings of their daily phone calls while working, just shooting the breeze. Andrew spade "spud" and bill mckusker "gay bill" started a podcast called war mode. A house painter and a truck driver talk conspiracies. Normal dudes, just asking questions...except one is brothers to a semi famous comedian named Matt mckusker who does a podcast with Shane Gillis. Before starting war mode bill and spud were on Matt and Shane's podcast a few times. Funny enough Shane Gillis had gone on tour with Louie and also recorded a series of podcasts with him where they went through each president and talked about them. After that shane was talking about doing the pods with Louie and mentions that Louie bullied him into putting all the presidents episodes out for free. Probably didn't want his influence behind a paywall.

So I decided I'm going to go back and listen to episode 1 of war mode just to see if anything was odd. Starts will bill cooper speaking, makes sense, then the boys come in and immediately open by saying that spud got a message from someone he knows who works in the state department, alarms immediately go off in my head, he hasn't spoken to this man in 12 years. Gay bill seems to kinda faun over this mysterious dude. Not only does he work for the state department, he asks spud if he's been following q. He tells spud that they are saving children from underground bunkers and that every thing spud had told him about D.U.M.B.s(Deep Underground Military Base)and about bill cooper back in the day turned out to be true. Bill is pumped, which makes sense he was so adamant about believing Hilary and the gang were gonna be arrested. Bros got handled. War mode was being used from day one to push intelligence agencies psyops. To be fair even after that spud was never on the q train and on that first episode said he was skeptical of the crowd side of q where they were interpreting every little thing... hey maybe I'm doing that here idk

I can't imagine how much info they have gotten from that shill, subjects they wanted my demographic to specifically hear, I wonder how far it goes. How does it even work? Is an email sent out asking supervisors to ask around if anyone knows a person who is drawn to conspiracy theories and this guys is like "hey I knew this weird house painter who used to talk about bill cooper all the time." Or is every single one of them an actor lol I'm going nuts. Or maybe they recognized they were being messed with by the state eventually and never brought it up. Maybe they did bring it up and I somehow missed it. I had listened to all their episodes before and I couldn't even remember what episode 1 was about to be honest.

This is all really tripping me out. Anyways here is a some music with spud talking on the dad meat podcast with some clips I made for fun. Maybe the state wanted me to do it. Feels weird know I made this because of a psyop now.

okay wtf... podcast pops up on YouTube. the podcast is Matt and Shane's secret podcast posted 14h ago. The guest a comedian named Francis Ellis. Francis was explaining partying at the Harvard. At the 23:52 mark one of the host says it weirded him out that Francis dad was a skull and bones member. Then they talk about how Francis tried to become a cia agent but he never got an interview.
