I think Tamers might have dyslexia. I've noticed he spells things like "he beats" as "he beat's" and he still adds apostrophes where they don't belong. He also spells words like "documentaries" as "documentorys". I am ESL and even I don't make those mistakes.

>>137166

Tamers is a liar. We have never heard him speak french and he has also said famous people voice his videos when he is clearly using tts or it's his own voice. However, I do believe some things he says, like when he showed that Maurice LaMarche actually signed the drawings he made.

his fanbase is truly something else. i found a particular comment that called my attention:

>Dear Tamers12345, My 5 year old watched this and upon Sid the Science kid being killed, started crying. He said, "Mommy! Mommy! Sid the Science Kid got shot by the bad men!" and grabbed my shirt. Let me tell you I punted that little shit and told him they're called the NEW BOYS!!! And that he should be grateful you decided to even upload today. I was going to take him out for dinner, but after his little meltdown I locked him in the bathroom for the rest of the night to think about what he's done and how blessed he should be.

It has 85 likes.

Then we have the meta-ironic "hahaha i pray to bardonic every night i'm so autistic" kinds of fans where you can't even tell if they are for real.

I'm currently developing an rpg fantasy game where 2 of the major characters are a vampire(m) and a doll(f). Of course because of this, neither of them have working reproductive organs, so neither of them feel arousal either, but they are still madly in love with each other. They find each other beautiful and attractive and all that, but not in any sexual way. They hold hands, dance, flirt, cuddle ect. In my head they are asexual.

Asexuality is not having sexual attraction.
Having no sex organs does not make you asexual.

For most here they hate troons because of the overlap between pedophiles and trannies, and after seeing that overlap over and over in such a high density you will begin to align troons with pedophiles in your head, for a minority it's due to religious factors.

This thread is a failure. It looks like one guy throwing everything he can at the wall until something sticks and not actually doing any work or actually getting any closer to a dox that anybody can use. If you believe the flailing shit ITT you'd think Tamers has 20 gmail accounts, a bunch of reddit accounts that all type differently, a bunch of youtube accounts he doesn't use and 3 legal names.

You have done such a bad job of this that you're more recognizable on 4chan's comics board than Tamers is because you're a whiny desperate faggot who posts in every single thread about him a hundred times. You should be thankful nobody at Kiwifarms is willing to leak the IP that made this account for the lulz.
<https://kiwifarms.st/members/carlos834.118831/>

You are Tamers's most autistic hatefag. Worse than that you are an unfunny bitch who has tried to get a dox for months with nothing to show for it. At this point you're bumping this shit because you are praying an angel will come out from nowhere and they will actually know how to get a dox.

You can log into the archiveofourown account using one of the leaked passwords, which confirms it is his.
