

Hello, My Name is is KizumiitsukiVT

I never thought i would have to release a document like this but I have tried to reach out and explaining to deirdre lilin with no succuess. I have lots of regrets and anxiety about making this document but i feel the slander and back stabbing that has occured

I need to say something so that I can move on from all of this. This document is meant to infrom people to becareful and cautious around this person as they are manipulating and damaging my reputation. They have turned former friends aganist me to lie and spread false rumors about me without providing any proof that i caused any issues in her community and made anyone feel "uncomfortable". I have asked for said proof/documentation but she says she " wants to keep the victims anon." I've asked for the proof because these "rumors" have not only affected me emotionally but have also ruined many of my friendships.

Never once did I make someone feel uncomfortable in her community, I used to stay up late to watch her streams it made me happy and less depressed those late nights.

(this next part isnt bad however,) She would rebrand often and admittedly I did get annoyed by this that i left the discord and decided I needed to take a break from the internet to recollect myself and focus on me. In this action i decided to unfollow them on twitter, it was then i was sent a Huge Paragraph saying " how could I do that and that i would never be allowed in her community again and not to come back" This left me heart broken as i spent so much time with them and i was only doing this to de-stress myself from all the shit on twitter and recollect myself. I went to one of my past friends, We'll call them Person A. I showed him the screen shots of what she said to me and was shocked when Person A. told me off and said what was said didnt sit well with him. I tried to explain my side of the story but he refused to listen and blocked me

Screenshots of everything that has transpired today below

Omg hiiiiii

Long time no see

I didn't know you would come back. I'm so happy 😊

Hello Kizu,

I tried making you understand I don't feel comfortable with you following me, but you don't seem to get the tip.. Even though I made you unfollow me 3 times.

I am sorry, but I haven't forgotten the horrible things you did in the past when I was younger.

I banned you for a reason, you were making members of the community very uncomfortable, me included. I tried to be kind and understanding, integrating you in the community, and I streamed for you out of my stream schedules because you felt lonely or couldn't sleep.

And yet how did you thank me? Complaining about me in dms to people because 'I was never happy with how you acted'.

I clearly banned you, and a lot of people clearly wanted you to stop dm'ing them.

I know what you did those last years, spreading that I am toxic and making me pass for a bad person even though you were harassing me... I was never mean with you, and tried to be kind with you, once again.

To be clear: the ban remains in effect, and my boundaries have not changed. I kindly but firmly ask that you cease all attempts to follow, contact, or engage with me. I am not seeking conflict or drama, nor do I wish to escalate this by resorting to blocks or further measures. However, I will defend myself and set the record straight should further attempts be made to harm my reputation.

Thank you for your understanding.

-Lilin

So you never did forgive me.....

Also, I never made anybody in your community ever uncomfortable. That is something that's not right.

I can understand what I probably did wrong but back then I wasn't mentally doing well. I was in a horrible time and I was really depressed and I really apologize for anything I did in the past. I already put my differences aside and I owned up for what I did back then and I'm really sorry if I made you or anybody uncomfortable (edited)

And I don't want to be banned. I'm healthy now I have a partner now I'm not depressed anymore. I got so much better things in my life now and I'm not even depressed like I used to be things have changed so much for the better and I just wish that you would see that I changed and it's totally OK if you don't wanna be my friend and if you don't want me in your community, I guess that's fine but back then I called your community and everything my Home And I really miss those times and I regret what I did wrong

I am happy for you if you are in a better mind now, and I accept your apologies, but I do not want to be tied in any way to you.

As for the making 'nobody uncomfortable', I must disagree, even now some people begged me not to let you come back.

I wish you a good day and good luck.

If I did make anybody uncomfortable, can I have proof of what I did? (edited) like I need screenshots actual hard proof because I still am having a hard time believing because I know I did do some stuff wrong back then by unfollowing you because you kept rebranding, etc that I agree was wrong, but I don't remember making anybody uncomfortable

Lilin 11:40 AM

I have no reason to leak names or private messages, I care about their anonymity. Don't ask me to betray people in such a way, thank you.

Please, stop sending me messages.

And stop trying to pass the fault onto me, my rebranding had nothing to do with anything, but the way you acted.

Goodbye
