First-hand experience with various secret societies that control the world: updated version

Since many readers are reading this account for the first time, it would be a good thing to discuss how I came into direct contact with the secret societies that control the planet.* We need to take a further look at these groups, because not a real one Change is possible if we don't identify and deal with it. The various secret societies are forms of groupthink that act collectively and use secrecy to disguise their influence and control. They also tend to be ancient and their roots often stretch back thousands of years. They are closely associated with many of the world's major religions and oldest societies.

My involvement began when, as a journalist, I uncovered a group that was about murdering Japanese politicians, industrialists and government officials. The forensic trail led to David Rockefeller Sr. and members of the Rothschild family. By exposing these people in a way that could be used against them in court, I opened Pandora's box.

The first secret group to contact me was sent by Rockefeller bagman Henry Kissinger through former Japanese Treasury Secretary Heizo Takenaka. The emissary they sent, a self-proclaimed assassin, said he represented "the elders of Zion." He told me (and I have this on tape) that to "save the environment" they had to kill 90% of the world's population through disease and starvation. His group offered me great wealth and the position of finance minister of Japan if I would agree to go along with their genocidal plans. They also told me that if I continued to embarrass them, I would be killed. This group I now refer to as the Khazarian mafia. Their leaders are known as the Swiss-based Octagon Group,

The second secret group that contacted me was the Red and Blue. They claim that they have their origins in the Warring States period in China around 400 BC. have. In their last incarnation, they fought to overthrow the Manchu Qing Dynasty and restore the Ming Dynasty. They claimed to have over 6 million members (many more today), including "100,000 assassins". They said their company should only be used for the common good and not for personal gain. I decided to join them in the fight against the Khazarians. This is what I reported about them at the time:

They told me their company should only be used for the common good and not for personal gain. Their rulebook reads like a book of ethics, filled with instructions on how to help the weak, fight injustice, help your comrades, etc."

"They approached me and asked if they could help after I gave a speech in Tokyo describing the Bush regime's use of race-specific biological weapons . It was like a ghost from the history books to me, the right in front of me. At first I thought about silly things like 911 truth videos playing in Chinatowns around the world. But then I remembered that scene from the movie Kill Bill where Uma Thurman rips out the eye of her opponent. Me it quickly became clear that these people could save the world by directly attacking the eye at the top of the pyramid on the one dollar bill." So I gave them a list of 10,000 people associated with the Illuminati, mostly members of the Bilderberger , the CFR and Skull and Bones .

By threatening these people at the time, this group managed to prevent a genocide planned for 2012.

The third group that contacted me was the US military-industrial complex. They sent Paul Laine, a former member of the Pentagon's Psychic Warfare Unit. He also claimed to work for the CIA. Laine provided me with a great deal of esoteric information. He pointed out that the US space program had been halted by an unknown force.

He also provided evidence that this planet had almost been destroyed before. This group agreed with the Red and Blues' goal of preventing World War III because all the Pentagon's war games showed that such a war would wipe out 90% of humanity and render the northern hemisphere of the planet unfit for human habitation.

The third group also includes people who call themselves the Secret Space Program. The main port of call for them is a relative of Admiral Richard Byrd, known for Antarctic exploration.

They claim that they have already colonized many nearby solar systems and have returned to Earth to help what they call "surface people". He promises I can visit and report on the SSP facilities at Thule Airbase in Greenland and Antarctica. It hasn't happened yet, but I hope it will happen soon.

The fourth group that contacted me was "the family", often referred to as the Rothschilds. This group is the European royal bloodline and includes the Saxe Gotha family, the Rothschilds, the Habsburgs and other "moderate faction" European royal bloodlines. This group is behind the so-called "global warming campaign". This campaign, based on fraud, was presented by them as a way to save the environment without genocide. Scottish Rite Freemasonry is ultimately subordinate to this group.

They also control the Committee of the 300. Queen Elizabeth II was the leader of this group until she was recently assassinated. We started a correspondence via handwritten letters and then switched to secure digital communication via MI6. The new chief is still in contact with us and we can confirm that it is not King Charles.

Her former representative - Dr. Michael Van de Meer aka Meiring - referred to the people behind the planned genocide as "Jews". Further research revealed that the satanic worship (Ba'al, Molech, Set, etc.) of the Gentile leadership of the Jews, known historically as the Hyksos, was the problem. To avoid confusion with the Jews, I henceforth called them the Khazarian mafia. That's common knowledge today, but it wasn't when this research began.

The Jews, by the way, have their own secret society. The story they tell is that all of King David's male heirs were killed when the Jews of Babylon were defeated. The secret police protecting King David decided to preserve his bloodline by protecting his female offspring. Since King Solomon married a pharaoh's daughter, it also means that they protected the pharaonic descendants. Hence the Jewish wisdom that one can only be a Jew if the mother is Jewish. Over the years, they have blended into various royal and aristocratic families around the world. They advertise their lineage from David by using the lion of Judah as their symbol.

This is the larger "family" of which the Rothschilds would like to be kings. It may well be that many of the true Jews are descended from David, or it may just be a cultural tradition. That would be a good topic for research using modern genetic engineering.

The fifth group that contacted me was the Gnostic Illuminati. Their representative, the self-proclaimed Illuminati Grand Master Alexander Romanov (aka Richard Sorge, Sasha Zaric, Gordon Moore, etc.), said this group was behind the Russian, French, and American revolutions. They are against bloodline rule. This group also warned me in advance of the planned 311 nuclear and tsunami terror attack on Japan. Romanov claimed he was recruited by former chess champion Bobby Fischer. It was Romanov who first mentioned Isis long before she made the news. It is believed that Romanov is now leading anti-KM operations in Australia.

The sixth group to get in touch was the P2 Masonic Lodge, which sent Leo Zagami to me in Japan. This group also calls itself the Illuminati and claims to control the Vatican and the mafia. Their leaders claim to be descendants of the Roman Caesars. When I visited the P2 lodge in Italy, I was introduced to generals, journalists, politicians, etc. The senior P2 member I met was Vincenzo Mazzara, a cavalier of the Teutonic Knights.

This group worships the Black Sun and claims they were behind Communism and other major political movements. They demonstrated their power by defeating Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi and Pope Benedict (Maldict) XVI. removed from office. They now call themselves the P3 Freemasons and claim to have split from Zagami. Zagami is in self-imposed exile in Palm Springs, California to avoid arrest in Italy. P3 leadership now say they are handing control to Elon Musk because they are all in their 80s.

The seventh group I encountered was the Dragon family. I was accepted into this group after meeting their representative in Singapore. The Rothschild representative said, "If you want to talk to China, that's the highest level" when they arranged the induction. This group claims to be composed of various Asian royal bloodlines. These include the Tang (Li), Song (Son/Sun), Ming (Zhou), and Manchu (Yi) dynastic bloodlines. They also claim that they have ET supporters. They have legitimate historical claims to most of the world's gold.

The eighth group that approached me was the Black Dragon Society. Although several groups claim this title, Chodoin Daikaku, the head of Japan's global martial arts federations (karate, ninjutsu, aikido, etc.) with over 50 million practitioners around the world, seems to represent them best at the moment.

A ninth powerful group to make contact was the Hong Men, with 55 million members located primarily in China and in Asian communities around the world. Chinese President Xi Jinping is a member of this group. It can be seen as a kind of combination between a chamber of commerce and a gangster group. Incidentally, this also applies to Western secret societies, because those who have a lot of money and power have to protect themselves. The Hongmen are closely associated with the Chinese Communist Party, but are not identical with it. Their hierarchy is based on merit principles rather than bloodlines. The Youth League of the Chinese Communist Party or the meritocratic branch of the Chinese government can be seen as a Hongmen stronghold. Your agent in Japan, Mr. K.,

According to the mythological origins narrated by member Kelvin Bechkam Chow, the sect arose during the reign of Emperor Kangxi (1654-1722). Other studies consider the 1860s to be the most likely period.

A tenth group that has contacted me is the secret society of the Yatagarasu, or three-legged crows. This group claims they founded the Shinto religion after a three-legged crow led them to Japan in ancient times. The members of Yatagarasu claim descent from the ancient lost Israeli tribe of Ephraim and from members of the priestly tribe of Levi. They claim they can trace their lineage back hundreds of generations to Biblical Jacob in Egypt. In this regard, it is interesting to note that Shinto is very similar to the ancient Egyptian religion and involves worship of the sun god and annual processions to the shrines. The Japanese imperial family is closely associated with this group, and members of this family also claim descended from the pharaohs of Egypt. The mysterious octagon group in Switzerland also claims to have ancient Egyptian origins. However, the Yatagarasu say that they split off from the Octagon people 3,000 years ago.

"[Yatagarasu] is seen as a messenger of the gods. Why three legs? The priests of Kumano admitted that nobody really knows, but they told us that they might represent the three ancient clans that dominated the history of Kumano. Or perhaps the three main virtues of the gods: chi (wisdom), jin (benevolence) and yuu (valour). Or perhaps the three legs represent heaven, earth and people. (As in the Taoist triad)

Often considered a bad omen, why is the crow the symbol and protector of Kumano? According to legend, the crow is a good navigator, always finding the right way in unknown lands. Yatagarasu is said to have led a lost emperor to this place. A sign at the shrine indicates that the Japan Football Association has made the crow its mascot to ensure the ball finds its way into the goal. Helping those who are lost to find a way is the essence."

There are many others Groups that have also made contact include:

The French Grande Loge De L'Orient Freemasons

The Inagawa Ninkyo (Yakuza) Group

The Sumiyoshi Ninja Group

The Yamaguchi Gumi Ninja Group,

The Assassins (Persia)

The Nigerian Mafia

The Mughal Dynasty in India

The Indonesian Royal Family The Thai

Royal Family

The British Secret Services MI5 and MI6

The Rosicrucians (BIS/Red Cross)

The Buddhist Group Sokka Gakkai

etc. etc.

As the Red and Blue asked me to find benevolent Western secret societies, I came across the above, among others. An informal network that includes members of all of the above groups has now formed and calls itself the White Dragon Society.

Like the Reds and Blues, the WDS can only be used for the common good and not for personal gain. So far, the WDS and its allies have prevented all attempts by the KM to ignite World War III, create pandemics and cause great famine.

However, it has been 16 years since the WDS started the fight and the recent KM pandemic, the mass vaccination program and the war in Ukraine make it clear that we still have not defeated them. What we found is that the KM control net was much larger and more powerful than we imagined.

But that doesn't mean they're not hanging on the ropes. When this fight started, there was literally only one sentence on the entire internet about the Rothschilds. The term "Khazar mafia" did not yet exist. Now the existence of a secret inbred elite that controls the financial system is well known. The KM needed secrecy to stay in power and they completely lost that.

The rise of the BRICS and the Shanghai Cooperation Organization means that the KM's control network is limited to the US, Canada and Western Europe. That means they now control just 11% of the world's population and 27% of GDP. Their major 2020 pandemic and vaccine campaign has failed in its goal of killing a large chunk of the world's population. They face lawsuits, mass demonstrations and systematic attacks on their power in the countries they still control.

Their so-called leaders like US "President Joe Biden", Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, French President Emmanuel Macron and German Federal President Olaf Scholz cannot appear in public without being immediately attacked by a mob.

The bottom line of all these "secret" societies is that, unlike open societies, they must be kept secret by the majority of people in order to exercise their power effectively. Now that they are exposed, they can no longer manipulate us. This is especially true for the West. That's why the phrase "The truth will set you free" is so important in these troubled times. For this reason, we will continue to tell our readers the truth until we are truly free.

Note to readers: The following three weekly reports will cover non-time sensitive but important issues for your correspondent to take his annual sabbatical in the Canadian wilderness

This is the end of Ben's background story. The following information is breaking news from Windlander.

We begin with this statement from the UN chief, who claims, "The era of global warming is over, the era of global boiling is here.

"It's a catastrophe, and for scientists it's clear: Man is to blame... Climate change is here, it's frightening, and it's just the beginning. The era of global warming is over, the era of global boiling is here."

"It is still possible to limit global temperature rise to 1.5 degrees Celsius and prevent the worst of climate change, but only with dramatic, immediate climate action."

And by "dramatic, immediate climate action," he means handing over national sovereignty, representative democracy, economic prosperity and individual liberties to unelected globalist bodies like the UN and the WEF.

We also bring you the latest on the Avatar Senator Mitch McConnell glitch.... They picked him up again for an explanation as to why he "ran off" and hasn't called back.

JPMorgan Chase, in an attempt to get ahead of the curve, has filed this suspect report on Hunter Biden suggesting his possible involvement in "human trafficking" - too late, we might add.

JPMorgan Chase Bank (JPMC) is filing this Suspicious Activity Report (SAR) which originated from an external referral for transactions involving non-JPMC accounts held by a Politically Exposed Person (PEP) who remitted funds to various JPMC and non-JPMC customers, some of the recipients have ties to the adult entertainment industry, while others were unknown, or were listed in prior SAR filings related to human trafficking (HIT). Additionally, the source of funds for the transactions is

"We are always ready for any scenario, but nobody wants that, and at the initiative of the American side we once created a special mechanism to prevent such conflicts," Putin told reporters in St. Petersburg on Saturday when he spoke about the US provocations in the Arab country was addressed.

He added that Washington and Moscow are in direct communication with each other and have the opportunity to consult on any possible crisis.

"It shows that nobody wants clashes," the Russian head of state said.

Since the beginning of 2023, the Russian military has reported a total of 23 dangerous incidents involving Russian and US-led coalition aircraft.

Rear Admiral Oleg Gurinov, the head of the Russian military's Syrian reconciliation center, said Thursday that most of these incidents took place in July.

Gurinov added that Russian pilots recorded 11 instances when they were attacked with western aircraft targeting systems, which led to the automatic deployment of airborne defense systems.

The Russian Defense Ministry also said that US drones have violated air safety in Syria 340 times since the beginning of the year.
