

Beginning

Before the event started, the screen kept playing TimeRyS MV. And suddenly, the screen swapped to TimeRyS Live2D and the crowd were like "let's gooo" but then they instantly swapped back the screen to the loading screen and said the event will start in 3 mins. Thank you for coming, but only "thank you" was in Cantonese.

The camera was moving around to let TimeRyS inspect the crowd and IRyS called out the school girlIRyS cosplayer for the nice cosplay.

Kronii mentioned at the start that she was nervous, but felt better because of the lively crowd and because IRyS was there.

Kronii: "I feel better with you (IRyS) here by my side."

Quiz

First section was testing TimeRyS' knowledge about Hong Kong.

Rules: The MC asked TimeRyS multiple choice questions with 3 options. One of them needed to answer it. If Kronii picked the wrong option, there would be a batsu for her decided by IRyS and vice versa.

When IRyS heard the introduction of this section, she immediately replied "oh god" and she said she said she didn't study.

Question 1

Kronii went first and was worried about the batsu. IRyS cheered her up by saying, "All you do is to get it right". Kronii thanked her.

Kronii got the first question wrong and IRyS decided she wanted Maidronii as the batsu. Kronii denied her at first and then IRyS told her to clean the dust on her shoulder. Kronii told her to take a shower. Turned out that IRyS only paid $5 to hire Maidronii and Kronii decided to resign as IRyS' maid.

Question 2

Second question asked IRyS about local food for birthdays. One of the options was noodles. IRyS said that she knew noodles were for JP birthdays so she assumed it would not be the same for Hong Kong.

She picked another answer and was wrong (noodles was the correct answer).

Kronii decided the batsu for IRyS was for her to be her little dog. And then the crowd witnessed an impressive TimeRyS petplay. IRyS tried her best to bark but Kronii thought she was such a weird dog until IRyS started baubauing. Kronii finally thought she was a cute dog and then IRyS claimed that she was a genius dog.

Question 3

Third question asked Kronii about the meaning of Kowloon. Kronii asked the crowd for hints (when IRyS tried doing the same thing later, Kronii called it cheating and gaslit her)

Option A was the correct answer but then Kronii got firegassed and picked the wrong option.

As for the batsu, IRyS requested double Kronii beams. One for the crowd and one for her. Kronii did the beams while asking the crowd to do penlight waves as a reaction.

Question 4

Fourth question asked IRyS about the highest mountain in Hong Kong.

When the MC was saying option B, she pronounced it in Cantonese-Cantonese instead of Cantonese-English. The crowd laughed which confused IRyS. IRyS inspected the options and she found out option A and C had the name "peak" in them so IRyS expected one of them to be the highest mountain cuz PEAK. She was wrong and found out option B was the correct answer.

Kronii decided for IRyS' batsu, she'd request IRyS beams. IRyS said the crowd would die if she did so. She beamed us anyway.

IRyS: "I need to channel my youth for this."

Kronii: "Because you're old."

IRyS "...I'll remember that."

Cantonese

Second section was testing TimeRyS listening and understanding of Cantonese.

Rules:

First, they pick 3 fans in the venue to be participants. Then, the MC speaks an English sentence while each fan speaks a Cantonese sentence. TimeRyS needs to figure out which fan translated the English sentence into Cantonese. If TimeRyS were correct, those 3 fans will have to do a batsu and vice versa.

At first, the crowd was panicked cuz they didn't expect such an individual participating activity.

And then the school girlRyS cosplayer was brave enough to stand out and ask to be the first participant who was followed by CasualKronii and chuuni Bae cosplayers. When they were introducing themselves in front of TimeRyS, Kronii at first said "3 beautiful women" but she hesitated and corrected herself saying "2 beautiful women". After all the cosplayers had spoken, Kronii figured out it was only 1 beautiful woman biologically. There was another casual Kronii cosplayer who was an actual woman that didn't participate.

The sentence that needed to be translated was "I need 4 minutes to fall asleep." IRyS said she wished she could do that too. One of the Cantonese translations was "I need 4 minutes to jump into the swimming pool" which made the crowd laugh. TimeRyS picked the correct answer.

The batsu for the cosplayers was doing Biboo Tax.

The second group of fans were 2 itabags owners and a lucky fan picked by MC cuz TimeRyS said "MC girl please help us to pick the last one". IRyS begged the MC to give them an easy question. The MC picked a question with Tofu Fa and there was only one Cantonese sentence had Tofu so IRyS figured out the correct answer.

At first, the crowd suggested a French kiss as a batsu but IRyS said they were not Gigi. Then the batsu was decided to be Moe Moe Kyun by those 3 fans.

TimeRyS Rizz

Third section was testing TimeRyS ability to rizz.

Rules: First, they pick 3 fans in the venue to be voters. Then, TimeRyS rizz the crowd and the voters vote for the winner. Loser will have to do the batsu.

It started with Kronii. Kronii misunderstood it to be rizzing the voters so she rizzed towards the voters (lucky guy). She said "...hi everyone... handsome..." in Cantonese and I didn't comprehend what Cantonese she said after it. And then IRyS said she didn't learn that much Cantonese so she would copy the homework. She said something in Cantonese. Turned out two of the voters were Kronies so they voted for Kronii. The last voter was impressed by IRyS' passion so he voted for IRyS. IRyS thanked him and she said she would have disappeared from the screen if she got 0 votes.

The batsu was "Moe Moe Kyun" and a person in the crowd screamed "OISHIKUNARE MOE MOE KYUN" so the batsu turned into a full sentence of "oishikunare moe moe kyun" from IRyS.

Karaoke

Kronii was nervous since it was her first time singing for a panel, but IRyS encouraged her.

IRyS: "Take it away for us, queen(Kronii)"

IRyS also praised Kronii's newly released cover of Suki Suki Daisuki.

Last section was karaoke.

Setlist:

1. High Tide by IRyS
2. Souten ni Moyu by Kronii
3. Diamond Girlfriend by IRyS (IRyS asked the crowd to chant HOT HOT HOT)

Upon IRyS' performance of Diamond Girlfriend, Kronii said "Our Diamond Girlfriend! No one can dull your shine tonight!" Kronii also seemed to have been mouthing along to the lyrics during Motsu's rap parts in the song.

4. A Cruel Angel's Thesis by Kronii

IRyS complimented Kronii on the opera parts. Kronii responded shyly.

Ending? ENcore? SHANAINAA by IRyS.

EN. Seikan Hikou by TimeRyS (pon)

Ending

Before ending, the MC asked IRyS if they had messages to everyone. TimeRyS thanked everyone for attending the event and both of them shilled their stuff (Diamond Girlfriend MV and YABAI EP for IRyS, Suki Suki Daisuki MV and birthday merch for Kronii). Then, the MC asked everyone to turn around to take a group photo to conclude the event.
