When you are sworn in as VP they have to go by the exact name that's on law degree . that was done incorrectly plus not a natural born citizen ! Unconstitutional never mind cheating and lying and instigating violence.

No other country can save us. If America falls, so does the world. That's why they are doing what they are doing. Once it gets bad enough, they will join forces with their evil commie leader friends the world over and usher in their one world government and New World Order.

God helps those who help themselves! Get out there and help get people into office that are on the side of America, talk to the people you meet about what is going on to help bring normal Democrat voters to our side. They are alienating all of our allies, they will not help us. We let this happen through years of ignoring what was really being done in DC, and we are going to have to work to change it.

 @Beezer McGeezer It's not over till there is no one standing who remembers freedom, even then people will look for ways to get freedom not even knowing what they are searching for.
 However, this mess we are in took decades to put into play, it will not be remedied in a few months. Look up Constitution Of The States .com, I'm just getting involved in this organization but it looks like our best bet to avoid a civil war.

Why are you guys are working so hard to destroy everything good Trump put together. everyone should go watch the new Project Veritas video. Pictures of the inside of the detention center are on that video and why does this administration have a gag order with the border patrol running the facility and ICE. Someone is going to have to answer these questions.

How is locking comments not a violation of the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States?!? The White House is muzzling the free speech of the citizens of the United States by prohibiting them from leaving comments. Does it take a Supreme Court case to decide this? President* Biden should not allow the White House social media manager to block citizen's opinions from being aired in the public square. The courts prevented our True President from blocking citizens on Twitter, why is this regime different?!? They are violating our right ...
