World War II ends with the final defeat of the Nazi faction

Part 1 translated by [max / Part 2 by Anti-Illuminati TV ]

The big NATO meeting in Vilnius, Lithuania last week marked the real end of World War II and the ultimate defeat of the Nazis, according to British MI6, Russian FSB and Mossad sources. This means that the Khazarian mafia, also known as Sabbathist Frankist Jews, has been defeated with their plan to kill 90% of humanity.

However, the KM faction that wants to turn this planet into a giant animal farm ruled by a "good shepherd" has yet to be defeated. As the saying goes, the sheep spends its life in fear of the wolf, but it is the shepherd who kills it. This means that while the genocide has been called off, the fight against digital slavery continues.

From a bloodline perspective, this battle takes place between the British faction, led by Queen Elizabeth II, and the German Nazi faction, related to Adolf Hitler. Hitler's relatives include former German Chancellor Angela Merkel, Hillary Clinton Rockefeller and Barack Obama.

As with the "official" end of World War II in 1945, we have the Russians to thank. Their total victory over the Nazi regime in Ukraine ended KM's centuries-old plan to restore the ancient satanic kingdom of Khazaria and rule the world from there.

Westerners know this too. A Twitter poll by British politician David Courten found that 77.5% of voters would prefer Putin to rule. Note that "Biden" doesn't even get 5% but somehow got 80 million votes in 2020?

In a poll of 65,959 people, 77.5% said they would prefer President Putin as leader over Biden, Sunak or Trudeau.

Who would you prefer as President / Prime Minister?

Next, check out these photos leaked to the press of Nazi avatar Vladimir Zelensky being publicly shunned by NATO chief Jens Stoltenberg and other NATO leaders. This makes Zelensky a dead man walking.

As you can see from the interview below, Zelensky himself now sounds like a beaten head coach at the end of a football season, saying - in the past tense: "They have been very supportive. I want to thank all Americans who understand that.

This defeat prompted a US State Department spokesman to state:

"We believe that the war was a strategic failure for Ukraine..."

Reporter: "Don't you mean a strategic failure for Russia?"

Narrator: "I'm sorry - excuse me - a strategic failure for Ukraine! Thanks for the correction!"

Even Vincenzo Mazzara of the fascist P3 Freemasons admits: "The NATO summit in Vilnius was the beginning of the end of western unity in the Ukraine conflict... fortunately for Russia, China and the rest of the world, including Europe and probably also in Ukraine, this endeavor has clearly failed."

"No matter what NATO does, it will fail. There is no way to reverse this process," said Russian Deputy Foreign Minister Alexander Grushko.

The US military agrees. Zelensky "is in an extraordinarily desperate position, he is crumbling. His forces lie in ruins, hundreds of thousands of people have been killed in vain.... There is no leadership in the White House... We are in the hands of a man who mentally unstable. We're becoming more and more of a third world country...

Someone needs to be fired. Obviously we know the man at the top needs to go. The rest of these people need to be held accountable." says Colonel Douglas MacGregor, the de facto leader of the US military's White Helmets.

More importantly, just as with the Nuremberg war crimes trials after the Nazi defeat at the end of World War II, new war crimes trials are inevitable.

Please remember that over the past 18 months, the Russian government has presented extensive evidence to the UN showing that the US has funded the production of biological weapons in laboratories in Ukraine. In particular, the Russian military has accused "Joe Biden" (or rather, his Rockefeller/Nazi puppet masters) of orchestrating bioweapons production through his Ukraine-based biolaboratory company, Metabiota.

As a condition of peace, Russia is demanding – and is about to – investigate crimes against humanity for violations of the Biological Weapons Treaty by the UN Security Council. That's the death penalty.

In case you haven't noticed, Russian military action against Ukraine has halted the release of new variants of COVID-19.

Here you can see Russian General Igor Kirillov briefing the public on the US biological warfare network and Hunter Biden's metabiota.

Evidence is also presented in the West. A systematic review of 325 autopsies showing that the COVID-19 vaccine caused or significantly contributed to 74 percent of deaths was removed from The Lancet magazine's preprint server SSRN within 24 hours without good reason. The study thus joins a growing number of censored studies on the possible harm of COVID-19 vaccines.

These clumsy attempts at cover-ups are failing, as even journals such as Science are now admitting evidence of vaccine damage.

<https://www.vtforeignpolicy.com/2023/07/science-magazine-finally-admitted-the-mrna-vaccines-dangerous-side-effects/>

Meanwhile, Robert F. Kennedy Jr. addressed the elephant in the room when he tweeted:

"The U.S. and other governments are developing ethnically-targeted bioweapons...a 2021 study of the COVID-19 virus shows certain races are disproportionately affected...The furin-cleave docking site is most compatible with blacks and Caucasian and least compatible with ethnic Chinese, Finns, and Ashkenazi Jews. In that sense, it serves as a kind of proof of concept for ethnically targeted bioweapons."

<https://nypost.com/2023/07/15/rfk-jr-says-covid-was-ethnically-targeted-to-spare-jews/>

This confirms the report by the KM Neocons Project for a New America Century, which calls ethnically specific bioweapons a "useful political tool".

That's one of the many reasons the KM will be brought down hard.

The Khazarian mafia, with nowhere else to hide, has attempted a coup d'état in Israel to turn the country into a modern-day Masada, where it intends to fight to the bitter end.

This created a division among non-Satanic Jews. Even the New York Times published an editorial by Thomas Friedman stating, "...when the interests and values of a US government and an Israeli government diverge so widely, a reassessment of the relationship is inevitable."

More importantly, Israel's God-King Benjamin Netanyahu collapsed after his attempt to seize power in Israel. News reports say he is in hospital recovering from "heat stroke," but Mossad sources say

"Bibi's story is not as portrayed in the media. He had a stroke and is not currently on public view. The extent of the damage is not yet known. What is shown are CGIs and look-alikes."

Meanwhile, Israeli protesters blocked highways and rallied at Tel Aviv airport on Tuesday to bolster opposition to the right-wing government's judicial reform package, which opponents say threatens democracy. A regime change in Israel seems inevitable.

Similar things are happening in Europe. In Germany, the heavily supported far-right Alternative for Germany (AfD) is making the controlled dissolution of the EU one of its main goals for the upcoming European elections. She also calls for the dissolution of the EU monetary union and the reintroduction of the D-Mark. Both Austria and Hungary support such steps. In other words, the situation in Central Europe is going back to what it was before World War I, when strong German and Austro-Hungarian allies were in control.

<https://www.euractiv.com/section/politics/news/german-far-right-works-for-eus-controlled-dissolution/>

In France, the former head of the French counterintelligence DGSE, Pierre Brochand, warns of an impending civil war. "If we do little or nothing, we will either be headed for a progressive implosion of social trust in France... or for confrontations that will make France a country unlivable at all... In the eyes of all we are now the 'sick man' of the continent, the Security Council, the G7 and the G20."

The situation has reached a point where 74 percent of French think there are too many immigrants in their country and 62 percent want France to flout EU treaties and EU laws to stop immigration.

<https://rmx.news/france/former-head-of-french-counter-intelligence-agency-blasts-decades-of-mass-colonizing-immigration/>

The British "victors", meanwhile, propose that NATO's military contractors with a plan to make Germany a key logistical center for a 300,000-strong army. They promise to increase ammo and heavy weapon production to help spread the sauce. In their plan, Germany, Great Britain and Canada will protect Lithuania, Estonia and Latvia. For its part, the Polish government dreams of a revived Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth.

Another big prize will be the "reconstruction of Ukraine". The defeated Zelensky signed deals ceding large parts of Ukraine, some of the most fertile farmland in the world, to BlackRock. Now that his faction has lost, many of those contracts will be void. Brits are hoping to use the money to buy friends in central Europe instead, MI6 says.

Back on the US ranch, the government is falling apart.

One sign of this is the increasingly unpredictable behavior of the current "leaders". First we saw the fake, masked Biden raise eyebrows when he was filmed nibbling and sniffing a little Finnish girl.

Then so-called Vice President Kamala Harris says, "If we invest in clean energy and electric vehicles and REDUCE the population, more of our children will be able to breathe clean air and drink clean water."

You have good reason to be mentally unstable.

For one, FBI Director Wray confirmed that Joe Biden was under criminal investigation for Ukrainian bribes before attempting to back down after realizing what he had disclosed.

Next, you can watch Wray squirm as Rep. Matt Gaetz enters Hunter Biden's WhatsApp message into the congressional transcript, then exposes Wray during his testimony under oath: "You don't seem curious about this - almost suspicious curious. Are you protecting the Bidens?"

Speaking of protecting the Bidens, the Justice Department has removed international child sex trafficking from its list of "areas of concern," while anti-child trafficking film Sound of Freedom is dominating the box office.

A writer named Mike Rothschild said on CNN the film was born out of a "moral panic" and "QAnon concepts."

<https://thepostmillennial.com/cnn-discourages-viewers-from-watching-anti-pedophile-movie-sound-of-freedom>

These criminals are so desperate to find children to torture for adrenaline, that they are now targeting vaccinated autistic children, Polish intelligence sources report. They say Dutch doctors have found a "cure" for autism:] "It's... euthanasia."

"How many satanic rituals will the KM inflict on people before they are arrested, tried and executed?" asks a Mossad source.

JUSTICE ADVANCES. For example, last week the Florida Attorney General asked Mark Zuckerberg [Rockefeller] to testify before the Human Trafficking

Council.

The other thing that's happening is a complete breakdown of social order in the US.

The most recent example: The Washington, DC City Council voted on July 11 to pass an emergency public safety bill that gives judges and law enforcement more powers.

This was in response to homicide, sexual assault, robbery, violent crime, theft and arson rising by 17%, 35%, 52%, 33%, 117% and 300% respectively in the past year after hitting record levels.

<https://www.zerohedge.com/political/dc-council-passes-emergency-bill-crime-rates-soar>

This crime wave is not limited to predominantly black areas like Washington DC. In the majority-white state of Washington, for example, homicides are up 96% compared to 2019 — an all-time high.

<https://www.zerohedge.com/political/homicides-soar-96-washington-state-after-passage-gun-restrictions>

This situation is set to get worse as the recent rise in interest rates pushes more and more Americans into financial despair . To cite just one example,

"It's probably the worst time for auto insurers in at least 30 years," said Neil Alldredge, executive director of the National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies.

<https://www.zerohedge.com/markets/auto-insurers-hit-worst-crisis-30-years-sends-premiums-skyrocketing>

This type of trend is mirrored across the country and across all sectors of the economy. That's why scarce Americans are panicking and looking for "pawn shops near me". The search trend rose to a record high in early July

<http://theeconomiccollapseblog.com/do-you-remember-the-chaos-that-underwater-properties-caused-in-2008-and-2009-well-it-is-starting-to-happen-again/>

Regardless of whether the economy collapses or not, KM has no plans to go quietly into the night. With digital censorship, digital central bank currencies and a totalitarianism justified with "climate change", they want to stay in control.

The push into digital dictatorship began with an attack on Twitter. The brief window of press freedom that existed there was closed by freezing the accounts of the likes of Jewish freedom fighter Henry Makow and Catholic freedom fighter Archbishop Carlo Vigano.

https://www.lifesitenews.com/news/breaking-twitter-suspends-account-of-archbishop-carlo-maria-vigano/?utm\_source=featured-news&utm\_campaign=catholic

An insider told the Rumor Mill News Room that new Algo's have been introduced. They delete posts, accounts and track the number of posts per account, etc. These accounts are now suppressed. Twitter won't last much longer.

In the EU, the Digital Services Act comes into force on August 25th. The usual jargon says it's about making you "safe" on bigger platforms, but in reality it's just about allowing Brussels to control so-called "hate speech" and "disinformation" even more.

This crackdown on digital truth coincides with a global push for “programmable” central bank digital currencies (CBDC).

According to Polish intelligence, the World Economic Forum is telling governments to brace for billions of "social credit prisoners" as espionage laws are passed around the world " by users who hold "politically incorrect" views and use "wrong words". According to a person familiar with the WEF, these blacklists of so-called "unfortunate ones" will be used to assign people a "social credit score" ahead of the official rollout of the Social Credit System and CBDCs in the next few years.

CBDCs are a cashless system where there is no privacy in transactions and where the purchasing power of individuals and groups can be turned off at will. This is a totalitarian's dream scenario.

<https://alt-market.us/globalists-suggest-finance-shock-and-climate-controls-to-launch-their-great-reset/>

The BIS itself says that in a new breed of financial market infrastructure (FMI) money or assets become "executable objects" managed on programmable platforms.

Russia's central bank digital currency (CBDC) project, the digital ruble, will be backed by gold, but it will give them the ability to switch off that "gold".

France and India have also now agreed to use India's Unified Payments Interface (UPI) payment mechanism. Indian tourists will be able to make payments in rupees via UPI at the Eiffel Tower," Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi said. If tourists "misbehave," that option is likely to be scrapped. Be strong! Don't ever let them scrap cash.

In the rest of the west "Climate change" is taken as an opportunity to advance this agenda. That's why they started the fires in Canada.

Now they are talking about a "record heat wave". Check out the doom's colored overlay on the weather map below. Yes, the summers in Spain are hot. Last year the color overlay was barely red when it hit 45 degrees in Madrid. Now, at just 36 degrees, it's a glowing purple. The sheep are so easy to fool.

Now that the genocidal Nazi faction of KM is defeated, the global warming faction is going on the offensive in an attempt to grab trillions of dollars.

Here, you can watch John Kerry talk about "accelerating climate change" with "Biden," a fake-looking "King Charles," and a room full of "trillion-dollar" investors.

Just in time for this event, the German police have once again failed to stop climate activists from holding up air traffic by sticking themselves to the runways. In an airport, every door has a code, all entrances are tightly controlled and security is everywhere, military, dogs, etc. Then how can a woman be glued to the runway? Who let her in?

In any case, this is all based on lies. CO2 levels are lower today than they have been in more than 95 percent of Earth's history. "But you'll never know that if you listen to all those who profit from the lie that the Earth will soon be too hot for life and that the CO2 levels will be higher than in all of Earth's history," said Patrick Moore , co-founder of Greenpeace. "Almost all commercial greenhouse producers around the world buy CO2 to pump into their greenhouses to increase their yields."

The climate pandemic and hoax are the means by which they can achieve both greater control and destruction of the current economic system through lockdowns, fines, carbon taxes and more regulation while printing money like there's no tomorrow for devastating inflation to create.

All of this leads to higher prices and less economic power for the masses. They have to make sure they put us in a blind, desperate position for us to accept their meager Universal Basic Income.

They try to turn us off, change our eating habits, prevent us from traveling, kill cows and switch to inefficient forms of energy - all in the name of 0.04% carbon dioxide in the atmosphere, which happens to be the main building block of life on this planet.

Real experts say, "We're about 1°C above the coldest point in 10,000 years."

dr John F. Clauser, who received the 2022 Nobel Prize in Physics, criticized the climate emergency declaration as "a dangerous corruption of science that threatens the global economy and the well-being of billions of people".

Finally, Polish intelligence has found that "alien disguised energy-consuming ships" are siphoning power from venues such as stadiums, churches, hospitals, concerts, etc., and people are still paying for it.

I don't know if that's true, but in any case the private central banks are acting metaphorically like these "energy consumption ships", sucking our life energy out with money created out of thin air.

In an era of systematic “big tech” censorship and widespread institutional corruption, truth-seeking media and alternative perspectives are vital, and any kind of support helps more than you think!
