Greetings, Director/Gina, and congrats! You are admirably prepared for your wonderful new endeavor – as I observed in a piece in the Cypher Brief this morning – and I know you will do a great job at the helm of the Agency. If there is ever anything I can do to help, please don't hesitate to ask.

I write to encourage you to see if you can join the extraordinary folks who will be at this year's Bilderberg meeting in Turin (you received the formal invitation, also attached, earlier this morning). I have attended each of the past five years and cannot commend it too highly to you. The attendees are uniquely high quality (Henry Kissinger, Eric Schmidt, Henry Kravis, PM Rutte, the German Def Minister, John Sawers, etc., etc.) and the meeting discussions are strictly off the record. You would likely be asked to do a "conversation" (vice a speech), and I think that would provide an extraordinary opportunity to engage with some of the western world's true "influencers." It would be great if you could attend the entire gathering, but I'm sure folks would accommodate whatever time you could spend with the group. More info on the gathering is here: <http://bilderbergmeetings.org/conferences.html>

Should you or your team have any questions, I'd be happy to answer them. (I should note that Mike Pompeo had planned to attend, but had to change his plans when he moved to Foggy Bottom.)

All best/congrats again – Dave

RE: Invitation Bilderberg Meeting 2018

Dear Mrs. Haspel,

As agreed with Marie-Josée Kravis, President of the American Friends of Bilderberg and member of our Steering Committee, I am delighted to invite you to participate in the next annual Bilderberg Meeting.

We will convene in Turin, Italy from Thursday, June 7 (starting with dinner at 19:00) until Sunday, June 10 (including lunch).

Please note that all participants are requested to treat this invitation, the location and the dates of this meeting as confidential.

A few days before the meeting Bilderberg Meetings will issue a press release detailing venue and participants.

It would be much appreciated to hear soonest whether you will be able to attend. I very much hope you will do so. Your participation will be much valued by all.

Should you have any enquiries with regard to this invitation, please contact the Secretariat.

Yours sincerely,

Henri de Castries
Chairman Steering Committee

Dear Gina,

Congratulations again on becoming the Director. I hope that you are enjoying your new position as much as your predecessors have!

I write to extend an invitation to you for an unique speaking opportunity.

Every year, KKR – the global investment firm where I am a partner – holds a one-day, off-the-record conference in Washington, DC for the Chief Investment Officers (CIOs) of 70 of the world’s leading public and corporate pension funds, insurance groups, sovereign wealth funds, university endowments, and high net worth family offices. The gathering is very selective; collectively, the CIOs in attendance manage approximately $3 trillion and are among some of the world’s most consequential investors.

During the symposium, we hold a range of high-level discussions about public policy, geopolitics, and macroeconomics. Mike Pompeo spoke last year in his capacity as D/CIA. Other recent participants have included then-NSA Director Mike Rogers, House Speaker Paul Ryan, Senate Majority Leader McConnell, former National Security Advisor Tom Donilon, and Senators Lindsey Graham and Cory Booker, among others.

We would be delighted if you would consider doing an off-the-record session before the CIO Forum this year about the state of the world and the security threats we are facing as a country.

The conference will take place in Washington, DC on Wednesday, September 5. Ideally we would host you for an hour sometime that morning, but we can be flexible on timing to accommodate your schedule. We could structure this as a fireside chat, with me as your interviewer, so there would be no need for you to prepare any remarks. The discussion would be strictly off the record (a policy that has been honored for the six years that I have been attending the conference).

If the morning of September 5th does not work for you, we might be able to schedule this as a dinner conversation the prior evening, Tuesday September 4.

This is a truly special event with a very high-impact audience, and we would be delighted and honored to host you. If you have any questions, I hope you and your team won’t hesitate to reach out.

With all best wishes – and thanks for what you’re doing for our country and the Agency,

Best, Dave
